Fenton: No roundabouts

► DDA nixes the use of traffic circles at two proposed locations

“I believe there are locations in Fenton where roundabouts would work. I'm not sure those are it.”

Michael Burns
Fenton DDA director

By Anna Troppens
atroppens@tctimes.com

Fenton — Here's the latest news on roundabouts in Fenton: There won't be one at Shiawassee and Adelaide streets, nor at LeRoy Street/Silver Lake Road. A roundabout at LeRoy Street and North Road is a possibility in 2012, in conjunction with the North LeRoy Street construction project. The Fenton Downtown Development Authority (DDA) Board has tabled, for an undisclosed time, the roundabout issue for these intersections. The DDA might evaluate the situation five years from now, but nothing will happen anytime soon, said DDA Director and Assistant City Manager Michael Burns. The suggestion for roundabouts at Shiawassee and Adelaide streets, and LeRoy Street/Silver Lake Road, was from consultant Dan Burden, who visited Fenton

Fenton officials discuss sidewalk issues in city

Fenton — The city of Fenton is home to some cracked, raised and pitted sidewalks. While some are new and meet the new 5-foot wide standard, others are narrower and, along State Road, are stamped with the date, “1958.”

Some might wonder who pays for sidewalks in the city of Fenton, and who decides when they are replaced.

There is money set aside in Fenton's budget for a sidewalk program, with property owners

SMART SOLUTIONS

1 In-a-pinch carpet shampoo

Apply a dollop of shaving cream to the affected area, let it sit for 5 minutes, then scrape off foam with a spatula and dab the spot with a damp cloth. Allow to dry, then vacuum as usual. The shaving cream contains glycerin that helps dissolve stains.

2 Rose fertilizer

You can recycle old banana peels by using them as fertilizer. The peels are a great source of potassium and phosphorus, which roses need to grow and bloom. Bury the peels in about an inch of soil around your rose bushes.

Thanksgiving

Not just turkey

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

If you really want a "traditional" Thanksgiving dinner, you might want to enjoy venison or seafood on Thursday, Nov. 25. Pilgrim historians are quick to point out that a stuffed turkey and all the accompaniments were not on the original menu at Plymouth Rock. That doesn't mean you can't have turkey and all of your favorites on this special holiday, but if you'd like to do something different this year, there are many other alternatives that are just as festive, and maybe even more authentic to the first Thanksgiving.

What is the greatest hypocrisy of all time?

Women's magazines. Every issue since the beginning of time has contained some form of these two subject stories: 'All Men are Pigs' and 'How to Attract a Man.'

Where does rain come from?

All water originates from glaciers. Several million years ago, the glaciers, through a process called migration, traveled to Florida trailer parks inhabited almost entirely by old men wearing chest-high pants, bitching about taxes, and eating dinner at 4 p.m. During the glaciers' centuries-long journey, they carved out millions of lakes. These lakes, through a process called evaporation, provide the water that creates clouds, which in turn create rain, through a process called precipitation. After falling back to the earth, the rain seeps into underground wells, which are then tapped by a Fortune 500 brewery and made into beer through a process called fermentation. Finally, the cycle is completed when this beer is consumed by boaters and fishermen and deposited back into the very lakes it originated from, through a process called urination.

What single product do you think deserves 'best buy' status?

Consider the lowly pencil. Lumber workers cut the trees that sawmill workers then shape into milled wood, while miners draw the graphite from deep in the earth, and others smelt and shape it into the thin rod, which is somehow encased in the octagonal tube of wood, which is then gaily painted, varnished and stamped with a name, motto or snappy saying, topped with a milled metal tip (also mined and processed and stamped) which contains a pink eraser made of gum from some remote jungle. This pillar of communication technology then becomes available to you and me at the shockingly, insanely, irrationally low price of — about 10 cents.

WALLED LAKE PRINCIPAL PRAISES FENTON FANS AND BAND

I have been trying to sum up how impressed I was with Fenton last Friday at the playoff game at Walled Lake. Without your band's support, the game would have been missing a critical piece. Many of our fans expressed how happy they were that there would still be a band on the field to create the atmosphere our two teams deserved. Your fans, coaches, athletes and band all represented Fenton with class and distinction. From the first phone call on Sunday to the last snap on the field, everyone who I worked with from your school made me want to know more about your community. Honestly, regardless of the result of the game, I cannot remember a single event that gave me a better feeling than Friday's game. After sharing my feelings with my wife, Saturday, we began planning an afternoon trip to Fenton. Fenton is doing it right.

Frozen pump blamed for overflow at township hall

►Tyrone to purchase alarm for the septic system

By Anna Troppens

atroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

Tyrone Twp. — A frozen septic system pump created a mess at the township hall a few weeks ago. No one was aware the pump wasn't working, and when a toilet flushed, the septic system overflowed.

The township board has approved the purchase of an alarm that will alert people when the septic pump isn't working correctly. It happened on a Thursday, and blowers ran for a few days for drying, Clerk Keith Kremer said. Cleanup cost $2,500.

An alarm is estimated to cost $302, the lid is around $80-100 and installation is $100. Township officials are asking for a formal bid, from Lashbrook Septic.

The new alarm has a battery that will need changing every two years, said Trustee Steve Hasbrouck. Township officials should test it occasionally.

Search for Holly manager, police chief back on track

By Tim Jagielo

At its first meeting on Tuesday, the new village council moved forward on

Summary

►The Holly Village Council has initiated the process for the hiring of a new village manager and police chief.

both the village manager, and police chief search.

Council member Sandra Kleven made a motion that all council members read over the applications for village manager and turn in five top choices by Dec 7. The motion was supported by Council member Don Winglemire.

A personnel subcommittee will review the top choices selected by the council members. President Jeff Miller, council members Pauline Kenner and Jackie Campbell will serve on the committee.

Interim Village Manager Jerry Walker said the manager position would be filled before a police chief is hired. He will send out notices for the position of police chief by the end of November, with a 30-day deadline.

A committee will narrow down the applicants. That committee will include the Holly Village manager, Lt. Gary Parsons of the Michigan State Police, village of Lake Orion Police Chief Jerry Narsh, Holly Area Schools Superintendent Kent Barnes, retired police officer and Council member Tom Clark, and an area clergy member, yet to be decided.

Walker said the committee would likely meet in January to begin narrowing down the applications. A permanent selection will be made in either late January or sometime in February.

Police Chief Rollie Gackstetter will retire Dec. 17, leaving a gap to be filled by either a ranking sergeant of Holly Village Police, or current interim manager Jerry Walker. Walker is a certified police officer who spent five years in the dual role of police chief and city manager of Walled Lake from 2003 to 2005.

Jobs...Jobs...Jobs... Saving Money on Cars and Service....

The staff at Joseph Auto Sales of Fenton is growing by the day. More and more jobs are being created at the store as this small business does their part in the employment segment of the market. Jobs!! The number one thing this state needs more than anything else for recovery.

The risk factor taken by the entrepreneur flows exactly as the President, and every elected official has explained for months.

Small business people create jobs here in America while the big companies send jobs overseas and south to Mexico.

Bill Luttmann, operations manager of Joseph, says he expects the store will do as well or better than when it was Pontiac only. "Having all the makes and models to choose from online and the service staff to support them is the entire idea behind our growth," he said. The system is simple, you tell them what you want, and they get online and find it. A certified mechanic then inspects the car for you before you buy it. The car is then shipped in or picked up locally. Average time to receive the car or truck is about four days. Once the car gets to the dealership, a MASTER mechanic technician spends 2½ hours inspecting the car and making sure everything is to factory OEM standards. According to Luttmann, the interjection of the "technician" in the process brings on the quality factor Joseph is seeking. Not only are the cars much less in price, the cars are double inspected. "When was the last time you had the assistance of a MASTER mechanic help you buy a car or truck?" he said.

According to Shaun Shumaker, who heads up the finance department, people are looking for more quality at a more reasonable price. In some cases we save the consumer almost 40 percent on the price of a current model car.

We put them to the test. We asked them to show us how many 2011 models they had. At just one site there were 199, all makes and models. We then asked what about 2010 models. We were shocked; there were 5,563 vehicles from which to choose. We then tried to trap Joel Orrison, the sales manager. We told him the consumer could not kick the tires. He laughed and said, That's the job of the mechanic. Not only are the tires going to get kicked, but taken off, totally inspected and a report made. If anything is not perfect, he takes care of it at that time.

Still trying to find fault with their system, we asked what they did if the car turned out to be a bad car. Orrison pulled a brochure off the back of his desk and pointed out a 12 month 12,000 mile exchange policy should that happen. We then asked about service. If a car was bought while under factory warranty, what did we do? Simple, said Dave Campbell, the sales manager, just bring the car to me and I will take it from there. You don't need to deal with service that is my job.

One stop shopping!! All makes all models and super affordable cars and trucks.

Joseph is repairing cars for half the regular price until the first of the year. Anyone using the service department will be locked in at a discounted rate between now and January 15, 2011. "People want to save money," said Luttmann. It just took someone like Joseph to step up and show them how!

While most American families might shy away from serving venison on Thanksgiving, a standing rib roast of beef or a crown roast of pork or lamb can offer a different twist on the traditional fare of hearty meat served this holiday.

At the Fenton Hotel, where owner Nick Sorise expects to serve 550 Thanksgiving diners between 12 and 6 p.m., the second most popular entrée, next to turkey, will be prime rib. "We'll serve our traditional turkey dinner to about 60 percent of our guests on Thanksgiving, but the next most popular entrees will be prime rib and whitefish," said Sorise. He himself enjoys more fish entrees, even during holidays, but will likely indulge in turkey with his staff, when all the serving is done.

Speaking of seafood, meaty cuts of salmon and shellfish dinners are also festive ways to celebrate the holiday. In fact, this writer's family often served a very rich and delectable seafood lasagna (see recipe) on Thanksgiving, or a marinated flank steak on a platter accented with leaf lettuce, topped with spiced apple rings, along with a traditional turkey breast. Instead of pumpkin pie, there was often a French Chocolate Pie with an Oatmeal Pie Crust, for dessert.

Fowl is another tasty alternative to turkey, especially the more exotic varieties not served every day. Maybe your family would enjoy Cornish game hens, duck or quail.

Fenton resident, Penny Fausey, recalls eating capons as she was growing up, still to this day preferring the taste of chicken to turkey. "Whether we serve chicken or turkey, it's always fresh and farm-raised without antibiotics or hormones," said Fausey.

What she remembers more than the food served on Thanksgiving is the laughter and the fun of being together with family. "Probably our most memorable, one year when our kids were in high school and we went to my sister's home in Ohio," recalled Fausey. "It was one of those years when everything was just a bit 'off' for our family, and my Dad picked up take-out Chinese food for our dinner. We still had my mother's famous pecan pie, so that was traditional, but I can still remember all the laughter and fun of the day."

That's just more proof that all you need on Thanksgiving Day is the right spirit of being thankful. The food that is served is not nearly as important.

RECIPES

Seafood lasagna

From the kitchen of Mark & Sally Rummel of Fenton

INGREDIENTS:

12 lasagna noodles
3T. butter
½ c. chopped shallots
1/3 c. green pepper, finely chopped
1/3 c. red pepper, finely chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
2 T. flour
1 t. dry mustard
½ cup dry vermouth
6 T. tomato paste
½ c. minced parsley
3 T. chopped chives (optional)
2 t. salt
¼ t. hot red pepper sauce
3 c. light cream
1½ c. shredded Swiss cheese
½ c. freshly grated Parmesan cheese, divided
6 ozs. frozen crabmeat, cooked and thawed
8 ozs. lobster, cooked and cut into small chunks
6 ozs. shrimp, cooked and cut in half
6 ozs. scallops, cooked and cut in half

PREPARATION:

Cook lasagna noodles, drain, rinse in cold water and set aside. In medium saucepan, melt butter, stir in shallots, peppers and garlic. Cook over medium heat 7-8 minutes, until peppers are just tender. Stir in flour and dry mustard; cook, stirring one minute. Stir in vermouth, tomato paste, parsley, chives, salt and hot pepper sauce; simmer 2 minutes. Add light cream, stirring constantly and bring to a boil for 1 minute, stirring frequently. Remove from heat and stir in Swiss cheese and 6 T. of the Parmesan cheese. Pour 1½ cups of the sauce into a small bowl; set aside. To remaining sauce in pan, add drained crabmeat and other seafood; mix well and spoon 1¼ cups onto bottom of 9- by 13-inch pan. Cover with three lasagna noodles. Continue layering alternately with seafood sauce and noodles, ending with last three noodles. Spread reserved 1½ cups sauce on top and sprinkle with reserved 2 T. of Parmesan cheese. Cover pan with foil and bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes. Remove foil and bake uncovered for another 25 to 30 minutes, until bubbly and lightly browned on top. Remove from oven and let stand for 10 minutes before cutting. Eight servings. It helps to have two people in the kitchen making this recipe — one cutting and chopping the ingredients, while the other assembles it together.

Two Acts, Book Musical, Pop/Rock, Rated PG

HAIRSPRAY delighted audiences by sweeping them away to 1960's Baltimore, where the 50's are out and change is in the air. Loveable plus-size heroine, Tracy Turnblad, has a passion for dancing, and wins a spot on the local TV dance program, "The Corny Collins Show." Overnight she finds herself transformed from outsider to teen celebrity. Can a larger-than-life adolescent manage to vanquish the program's reigning princess, integrate the television show, and find true love (singing and dancing all the while, of course!) without musing her hair?

Police&Fire report

WARRANT ARREST, PROPERTY FOUND

At 6:34 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 16, Holly Village Police responded to a call on Oak Canyon Court, for a suspicious vehicle. The officer made contact with the driver, who was talking on a cell phone. A claw hammer was between the seats, and a sheathed knife on a floorboard. The driver was unable to produce ID. Another officer arrived, and dispatch confirmed the subject had a warrant. He was taken to the station and held for court. In addition, the first officer smelled marijuana in the car before the arrest and found seeds and small pieces of the drug inside the vehicle. The officers also found knives, a camera, iPod equipment, field glasses, a GPS unit, GPS equipment and three memory cards. Investigation continues to locate owners for the property.

HOUSE FIRE CONTROLLED QUICKLY

At 9:12 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 16, the village of Holly Fire Department put out a house fire in the 300 block of Thomas Street. Assistant Chief Paul Schimmeyer said firefighters had the blaze under control in 20 minutes, and the fire resulted in minor floor and wall damage at the home. The residents were there, had smelled smoke in the basement and saw flames by the back door. Firefighters responded in five minutes and were on the scene for a couple of hours. No one was injured. An Oakland County Sheriff's Office fire investigator is determining the cause of the blaze.

FALSE 911 CALL

Holly Village Police Department received a 911 call at 3:45 p.m. on Wednesday, Nov. 10, when a male subject identified himself as a Holly High School (HHS) teacher and told dispatchers there was a stabbing at

HHS. The caller also said two subjects with a knife were chasing him in the school, before the phone went dead. Officers, along with EMS, responded. Upon searching, they found no sign of a scene or the caller. The teacher was contacted, and he was unharmed and hadn't made the 911 call. More investigation revealed the call was placed from a classroom. With cooperation of school staff, the liaison officer was able to identify the two male juveniles who made the prank 911 call. The juveniles confessed, and a petition was filed to probate court for review and charges.

Reminder: Stop for the school bus

The Livingston County Sheriff's Department would like to remind motorists to be safe around school buses when they are loading and unloading children on public roadways. In recent weeks, deputies have noticed an increase of vehicles violating the flashing red lights of area school buses. As a reminder, the law requires oncoming traffic to stop for school buses on all roadways where there is not a traffic barrier or median present. A ticket for violating the flashing red lights of a school bus carries a fine of $245 and the addition of three points to a motorist's driving record.

ASK THE COIN EXPERT!
Nick English, Store Manager

Q Coin shopping on television, yes or no?

A Although many of us have at least one relative that finds some joy in purchasing a variety of different consumer goods from the comfort of their couch, the actual value of the items they are buying are suspect.

First and foremost, remember that having an item put on national television costs a great deal of money for those investing in their product, so the return needs to be extremely high. Often you will see a variety of different "modern" variations of coins, such as painted silver eagles, Twin Tower Commemoratives, and presidential dollars with a colorized stickers attached to the face. These items are NOT going to increase in value over the years any more than their US mint official counterparts. Often times they are "dressed up" and defaced, to make them look unique (i.e. gold plated, colorized, fancy packaging etc.) this decreases the value in many instances, and ruins the coin. Television, while entertaining to watch, should not be a standard to which one should judge value. Coins should be purchased through a reputable dealer/directly from the US Mint. Rule of thumb: If it comes from an independent mint or television: be skeptical.

Free breakfast and tour for veterans and senior citizens

Sharp Funeral Homes is honoring America's veterans with a free breakfast and special tour of the Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly.

The funeral home is inviting veterans and senior citizens to attend Thursday, Dec. 2 at 8:30 a.m. for a free breakfast and a chartered motor coach bus will transport visitors for a brief tour of the Great Lakes National Cemetery. "Many veterans aren't aware of the benefits this cemetery offers," said Roger Sharp, funeral home owner and Army veteran.

"This is a way that we can both honor those who served so selflessly and educate them on the benefits they are entitled to," said Norma Hatt, a preplanning consultant for Sharp Funeral Homes. "This is an excellent way for our veterans and senior citizens to enjoy the combination program and tour together as a group, some of whom may not have had the ability to visit Great Lakes National Cemetery on their own."

The Great Lakes National Cemetery is located at 4200 Belford Rd. in Holly. For more information and to RSVP, call Loose Senior Citizen Center at (810) 735-9406.

paying half of the cost to repair the sidewalk in front of their land. The city pays the other half, said Assistant City Manager Michael Burns. No one has come forward to use the program.

Sidewalks are addressed if someone complains about one, said Department of Public Works Director Les Bland. Complaints are written up and go to the property owner. The building and zoning administrator informs residents of complaints.

Some sidewalks are replaced as part of street projects. The sidewalks by The French Laundry were done as part of the Adelaide Street project, Bland said. Handicap ramps were added at the intersection of Shiawassee and Elizabeth streets, so the city manager and assistant city manager decided to have the old sidewalk taken out for everything would look new.

Sidewalks can be damaged when tree roots push them up. In addition, sidewalks can crack and vegetation can begin growing in them. Different concrete was used in the '50s than what people use today, and concrete can get old and need replacing.

The cost to replace a sidewalk is based on square feet, Bland said. Tree roots pushed the sidewalk up in front of his house, and it cost him a little more than $200 to fix six flags of it. Concrete costs around $80 to $90 per yard.

Bland performed the labor himself, but he said a contractor, such as Freeman Brothers, could be paid to do the work.

At Fenton's annual budget worksession in April, city attorney Stephen Schultz said the Supreme Court threw all Michigan cities a "big curve ball." Previously, if a defect in a sidewalk was less than 2 inches, the sidewalk was considered to be in good repair. If someone tripped, fell, and sued for injuries, there was a presumption that the sidewalk was in good repair if it met the 2-inch guideline.

But, the Supreme Court struck this down. Someone can now stumble over a sidewalk defect that is a half-inch in size and say the city should have fixed it, Schultz said. In addition, the new standard for sidewalks is 5 feet wide, instead of 3 feet.

in the spring. There were many philosophical differences on the issue — especially on a roundabout for Shiawassee and Adelaide streets — between Burden and Fenton's consultants from Hubbell, Roth & Clark and DLZ, Burns said.

In addition, if a roundabout were placed at Shiawassee and Adelaide streets, and Fenton used state or federal grant money for the project, it would need clearances from the Michigan Historic Preservation Office. There would also be the issue of acquiring easements from property owners on the north side of the intersection, for using some of their land, he said.

At LeRoy Street and Silver Lake Road, a roundabout would cost the city a lot of parking spaces, Burns said. In addition, the DDA recently purchased the former Republic Bank site near that intersection, for redevelopment.

A possible, future location for a roundabout could be at North Road and LeRoy Street, where three sections of roadway meet, he said. It could take place with the North LeRoy construction project, scheduled in 2012. "Roundabouts tend to fit strange intersections and traffic configurations," Burns said. "A roundabout could solve some issues at that intersection. I don't know for sure, but it might."

In addition, the intersection at Shiawassee and Adelaide streets will get new mast arm traffic lights, at no cost to the city and DDA, as part of the Congestion Mitigation Air Quality federal grant Fenton is using to synchronize traffic lights on Owen Road. This project will be up and running in the spring, and the new mast arm traffic light will be like the one at LeRoy and Caroline streets.

DDA board members Jim Saule and Doug James spent a lot of time evaluating roundabouts, Burns said. "I believe it was good to take the time to properly evaluate what was recommended to us by someone who knows more about street design and creating walkable communities than any of us do."

Township seeks feedback from residents about garbage services

tjagielo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

Holly Twp. — The Holly Township board is considering providing garbage services to its residents, and after much research, still needs one thing — feedback from the residents.

The issue would go to a vote November 2012. A town-hall meeting would be conducted prior to the election. "It's just something we're mulling over, but we do want more public input," said Clerk Karin Winchester.

Six residents provided such feedback at the board of trustee's meeting on Wednesday.

"We got a mixed reaction from the public," Winchester said. Some residents did not like the idea of more government services, while village residents supported their garbage services provided by the village.

Supervisor Jesse Lambert encourages feedback from residents, which will be added to a report that will go to the township board at its April 2011 meeting. The report will be included in a newsletter that will be mailed to residents with the July tax statements. The newsletter will also set a date for a town hall meeting to discuss the topic.

Summary

►The Holly Township Board of Trustees is researching the benefits of providing garbage services for its residents, instead of individually contracted collection services.

The assessment would likely cost less than what residents are paying already for individually contracted services, said Lambert. Recycling, large item, and yard waste removal will probably be part of the service.

"Research supports the benefits to the community," said Lambert. "We need to know if the community wants it."

CRACKED TOOTH

Cracked Tooth Syndrome is fairly common in back teeth weakened by large fillings. If the crack goes untreated it can spread or deepen like a crack in your car's windshield, causing part of your tooth to break away. In advanced cracked tooth syndrome situations the tooth may have to have a root canal or may not be restorable at all and need to be extracted. Symptoms of a cracked tooth are sensitivity to biting and hot and cold sensitivity. Symptoms may start out mild but with time can increase as the crack spreads and deepens. It is sometimes difficult to diagnose a cracked tooth. The patient often is unable to pin-point exactly which tooth is sensitive, the crack is rarely evident on a dental x-ray and examination of the tooth reveals no obvious abnormalities. I often have the patient do a bite test for me where I place a "Q-Tip" on a suspect tooth and have the person close the teeth together. If no response, then I move onto the next tooth and test again until I find the culprit tooth. Treatment for a cracked tooth is placement of a crown restoration which offers much needed external reinforcement, preventing the crack from spreading. Early diagnosis is the key. If left untreated a cracked tooth can progress and lead to loss of the tooth.

I welcome your questions and comments.

Donations continue to come in for 'Justice for Dominick'

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

The Justice for Dominick fund, established in the memory of Dominick Calhoun, has raised more than $20,000, to benefit groups who help abused and neglected children.

Rick Calhoun, Dominick's grandfather, said the nonprofit organization, Justice for Dominick, has raised approximately $21,147 in his grandson's memory. An additional $10,520 has been raised, which will be put toward construction costs for the Dominick Calhoun amphitheater, to be built at the playscape in downtown Linden. An architect, builder and engineer have been secured for the project, which is expected to cost $80,000.

Dominick was beaten to death in April, allegedly by his mother's boyfriend, Brandon Hayes. Hayes faces life in prison in connection with the boy's death and Dominick's mother, Corrine Baker faces up to life in prison for allegedly not doing enough to protect her 4-year-old son. Hayes and Baker are behind bars awaiting their trials.

In their attempt to make something positive out of an incomprehensible action, Calhoun and other supporters have been raising funds to help organizations that deal with abuse and neglect.

Justice for Dominick has given two donations, $2,500 and $1,000, to the Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA) for abused children of Genesee County.

A donation of $2,582 went to Haven, a domestic violence and sexual assault prevention service based in Oakland County. Another donation of $1,000 went to the Child Abuse and Neglect Council of Michigan and $500 was given to Dave Powell, a minister in Linden.

To help purchase a headstone for a young child who was killed in Flint, $2,000 was donated to Flint Memorial Park.

Calhoun said there is still roughly $8,000 in the account, which is being saved to use toward materials for working on a house to help abused children. They have painting and general carpentry work planned, as well as remodeling the bathroom. Kohler has donated the fixtures.

Calhoun said a volunteer has donated office space where they plan to set up an office, specifically for their fundraising efforts. Approximately $3,500 of collected donations has been used to cover expenses, including T-shirts, wristbands and office supplies.

Calhoun said proceeds from recent fundraising events, including a softball event and bowl-a-thon are still coming in. Supporters of Justice for Dominick in Saginaw held another bowl-a-thon on Friday.

In the seven months since Dominick's death, Calhoun said he and other supporters have been talking with organizations, such as Whaley's Children Center and Haven to try to determine the best way to help other abused children. "We're finding our way," said Calhoun. "Whatever we do, it's going to be something good."

a result of being tortured and beaten to death, allegedly at the hands of Baker's then live-in boyfriend, Brandon Hayes.

Following Hayes' arrest, Baker was taken into custody in Genesee County and later charged with second-degree child abuse and second-degree murder for allegedly not doing enough to protect Dominick.

Tyler was removed from the couple's Argentine Township apartment and placed in foster care, pending Baker's case. He testified in Genesee County district court, saying his mother's boyfriend abused Dominick and him. The judge added another child abuse count to Hayes' case, based on the boy's testimony.

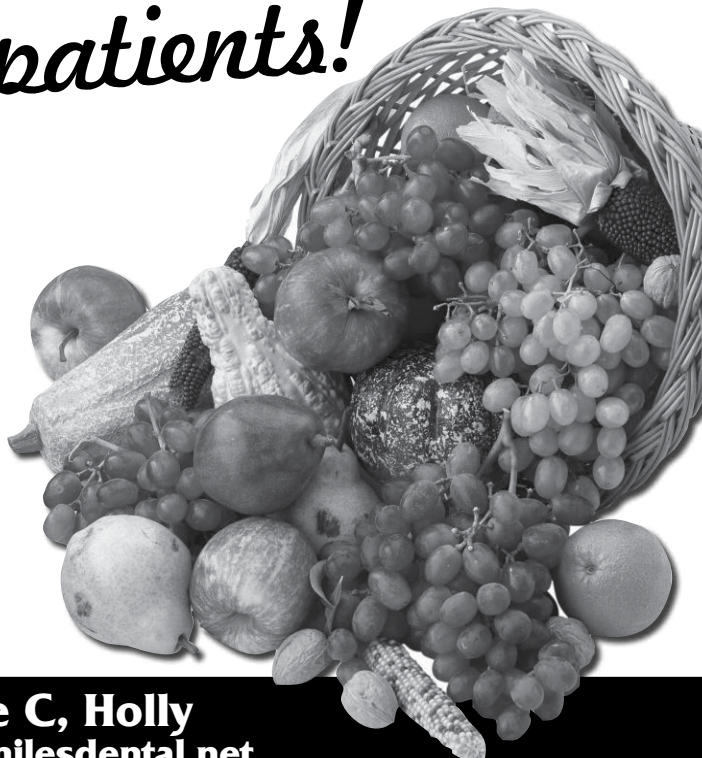

Baker violated a condition of her probation on a previous offense in Livingston County when she failed to notify the county she had moved. She was convicted and sentenced in August and is serving up to seven years in prison on this, minus credit for time already served.

The next hearing on this case has been scheduled for Feb. 15, 2011 at 1:30 p.m.

BILLING BY THE fire department is not only wrong, but double dipping. Taxpayers support the fire departments already. Seems public officials forget that a fire department is put together to serve the public within that community, using everyone to pay through taxes to afford this type of service. This becomes private enterprise by billing. The public would be better served by going private, if this practice continues.

WILL YOU PEOPLE please practice patience when shopping retail and waiting in line. Heaven forbid if you have to stand there an extra few minutes. It's not the end of the world.

THE OIL COMPANIES have a surplus of oil and gas and are now engaged in the largest natural gas drilling operations in the United States in decades. The Republican Congress is coming and CEO bonuses are climbing. Who will defend the increase in gas prices and bonuses? Republicans say they don't want tax increases, but make the public pay. Is that not like a tax? Who are the owners and operators of oil companies, not Independents or Democrats.

PARENTS WHO ARE dropping and picking kids up at West Shore Elementary and Torrey Hill schools, wake up. I have seen two accidents there, and I was almost hit, today, Wednesday. I think a cop should sit there and watch how some of these people drive with their kids in the car and without kids. You people scare the heck out of me.

Numbers rise in nontraditional students seeking education

If you think you'll look and feel out of place by going back to college just because you have school-age children of your own, think again. According to the American Council on Education, 40 percent of the nation's 16 million college and university students are 25 years of age or older and juggle a myriad of responsibilities.

"Just one more new, unneeded law designed to protect the stupid from themselves. I, for one, am sick and tired of the politicians, bureaucrats and mamby pambys making laws that continue to perpetuate the false 'right to stupidity.'"

More and more adults are heading back to college. These nontraditional students are going back to earn a degree, mostly to advance their place in the workforce or to fulfill a lifelong dream of earning a degree.

"I HAVE DECIDED to form a new party and run in the next Fenton City Council race. My new party will be called 'My Water Bill is Too High.' I have filed the paperwork with the state. What put me over the edge is when my neighbor told me he had a $197 water bill. He lives by himself. He takes three or four showers a week and flushes his toilet four times a day."

Times reader adds $50 to reward to find missing dog

"I understand how that lady must feel. It just broke my heart."

— Wendy Branson

By Anna Troppens

atroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

Fenton — After reading an article in last Sunday's Tri-County Times about Florida, a lost 8-year-old Catahoula Leopard Dog, a Fenton woman is adding $50 to the $300 reward.

Wendy Branson said she has two older dogs of her own, which are like her kids. They are Holly, 10, a terrier, and Skippy, 9, a Schipperke.

"I understand how that lady must feel," she said. "It just broke my heart."

People might try harder to catch

Florida, the missing Catahoula Leopard Dog, is black with short ears, a very long tail and short hair.

Florida because of the additional reward money, and some might be inspired to add to the reward, too, Branson said.

She also planned to try searching on foot for Florida as well, walking with her son and her own dogs. "I'm going to do my part to try to find her," Branson said.

Florida has been spotted behind Fenton High School, around Georgetown Park Apartments, at Fenton Oaks Manufactured Home Community and around Owen Road. Florida's owner, Cathryn Walden, has said the dog is very shy of strangers and needs to be tied up so it won't escape before she arrives.

Anyone who catches and ties up Florida can contact Walden at (810) 853-2085.

PHOTO: DANCING WITH THE STARS — OF THE FUTURE

"It is outrageous that Bristol Palin is in the finals of Dancing with the Stars. Florence Henderson was better than her. If she wins, then I believe this show is nothing more than a popularity contest instead of a dancing contest. It will be the last time I watch."

STORY: ARSON CASE

"Julie maintains her innocence because she is innocent. All who know her believe 100 percent in her innocence. She would have never caused this kind of pain to her family. All of their possessions have been destroyed, things that were precious and are irreplaceable. We have been disgusted with how this situation has been handled. And, we trust that the truth will come out."

LAST-MINUTE STEPS TO REDUCE TAXES

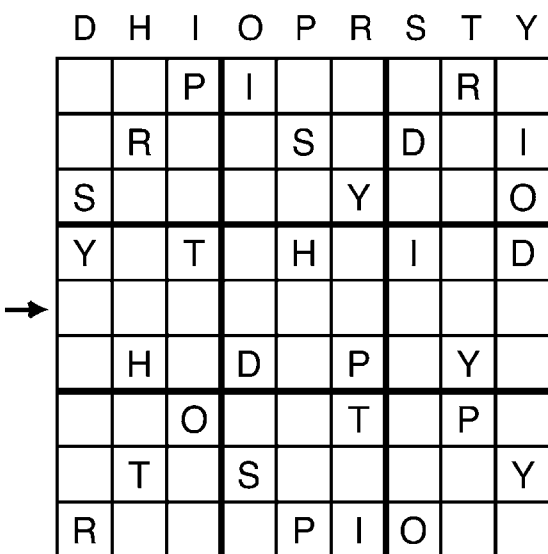

There is still time to do the year-end math and see if you can reduce the amount of income taxes you'll pay. Here are steps you can take:

- Invest in computer tax software now, before the end of the year, and run your estimated numbers to see what they look like.
- Add up your medical bills for the year. If you can deduct them on the Schedule A tax form, schedule last-minute dental and medical procedures before the end of the year.
- Make a 13th payment on your mortgage to increase the Form 1098 interest amount the mortgage company will send you. Every little bit helps.
- Make your donations to Goodwill and Salvation Army before the end of the year. Be sure to get a dated receipt with all of your items listed. Use "It's Deductible" tax software to calculate the value of your donations. Beware noting all of your items as being in excellent condition. "Average" will still get you some amount of donation value without raising any red flags.
- If you were out of work and looked for employment, add up your expenses for the job hunt. You can take mileage, clothing for the interview, costs of preparing and copying your resume if you were seeking employment in the same field. The catch is that you can't wait a long time to see employment if you want to claim the benefits of the job-hunt deductions. See IRS publication 529 for more information. Remember that you'll be required to pay taxes on any unemployment benefits you received on any amount more than $2,400.

- If you are self-employed, use holiday sales to purchase big-ticket items you'll need next year, such as updated telephones, computer, printer, office furniture and supplies.
- If you'll need a new appliance soon, consider getting it before the end of the year to take advantage of the tax credit for buying energy-efficient models. See www.energystar.gov. The same applies to any fast remodeling projects such as energy efficient storm doors and windows that can be done before the end of the year.

- Put as much money as you can, up to the limit, in an IRA. Get expert financial advice and consider making that a Roth IRA.

The days of providing free newspapers to thousands of households each week are long gone in most communities.

The value provided by a hometown newspaper doesn't cost you a cent – in fact it saves you hundreds of dollars a year by providing local advertising content that not only helps you save money, but keeps local retail dollars in our communities.

When our dollars stay local they help maintain our superior school systems, provide employment for our sons and daughters, and keep our tax base strong. This healthy tax base provides streets that are plowed, premium police protection and quick response by emergency personnel such as fire and EMS services. These things in turn maintain and support our housing values.

Support your hometown newspaper.

It's a win-win for all involved.

News briefs

Tyrone board receives election report

According to a recent report, Tyrone Township has 7,362 registered voters. Of these, 3,883 voted in the Nov. 2 general election. The township sent out 1,132 absentee ballots, 1,068 of which were returned.

Tyrone receives $2,000 donation for trees

The Tyrone Township Board of Trustees has accepted a Community Initiative sponsorship of $2,000 from ITC, for trees and other plantings. ITC owns electric transmission lines in the township and removes some trees to avoid potential power outages, said Clerk Keith Kremer. It will be replacing transmission line poles north of Center Road in the spring.

Township requests additional PEG funds for audio/visual technology

Tyrone Township is asking for about $4,500 in additional Public Education and Government (PEG) fees, to pay for additional communications upgrades. It is making the request of the Fenton Area Cable Television (FACT) Consortium, which distributes PEG fees collected from residents' cable TV bills. Local governments and schools are limited to using PEG money to improve communication with residents, said Deputy Supervisor Brian Miles. Tyrone's request includes a video screen, meeting minute system and scan converter for directly streaming meetings and presentations onto the Internet or Channel 99.

Tyrone recognizes Fenton Tigers Travel Baseball, Inc. as nonprofit organization

The Tyrone Township Board of Trustees has adopted a resolution recognizing Fenton Tigers Travel Baseball, Inc. as a nonprofit, 501(c)3 organization. David Church, an officer with the organization, said a requirement for obtaining federal nonprofit status is having a local governing body recognize the organization as a nonprofit. Fenton Tigers Travel Baseball would like to hold raffles, golf outings and poker games as fundraisers. Trustee Steve Hasbrouck expressed reservations about using gambling to earn money for sporting events, but voted in favor of recognizing the organization as a nonprofit.

Parkin Lane construction under budget

The construction on Parkin Lane, a private road in Tyrone Township, is almost complete and around $40,000 under budget, said Clerk Keith Kremer. Residents along the street are paying for the construction with a special assessment, and the township will return any left over money to the property owners in the special assessment district.

Tyrone has new ordinance for mining

The Tyrone Township Board of Trustees has adopted a new extractive regulatory ordinance for sand and gravel mining. Changes include minimizing noise and vibrations for adjacent property, limiting the height of piles of excavated material to 50 feet, and allowing limited concrete crushing. The board approved the new ordinance, 7-0.

New Holly Village Council members take seats, former members recognized

Holly council members William Kuyk, Reisa Hamilton, and Tom McKinney stepped down from Holly Village Council, along with Peter Clemens as president, at the council meeting on Tuesday evening. New members Tom Clark, Jackie Campbell, Jason Hughes and council President Jeff Miller were sworn in. After the new council took their seats, Miller recognized the former president, and council members for their service. Miller gave certificates to Hamilton and Clemens after shaking hands. McKinney was not present, but received applause in abstention.

Police chief recognizes officers for service

Holly Village Police Chief Rollie Gackstetter recognized officers Jose Garcia and Heather Wolkow for safely arresting a single larceny suspect in Holly Village at 3 a.m. on Oct. 25. The arrest by Garcia, which was assisted by Wolkow, led to the recovery of stolen property and names of suspects in 20 other area larceny cases. Officer Garcia received a Citation for Meritorious Service, and Wolkow received a Letter of Commendation.

Rotary Club projects benefit many Rotary Club of Fenton has completed two service projects. A 40-foot ramp was built for a Linden resident with the help of Rotarian builders. The other project was an International Project with Rotary providing five Shelter Boxes to be sent to Haiti, Sumatra and Sudan. Each box contains a tent, food and clothing, along with other necessities. A single box costs $1,000. These are used to assist people in disaster relief. The club's winter projects include their Angel Tree Project of Giving Gifts to more than 300 needy children and their annual Bird's Christmas Tree Decorating Contest in Bush Park on Dec. 4. Anyone with questions regarding Rotary or its mission can call (810) 629-5551 or (810) 265-3195.

Letters from Santa

The Holly Village office will be the collection site for the Letters from Santa Program. "Santa" will answer each child's letter. Please include the child's first and last name, along with a self-addressed, stamped envelope so that a response can be mailed quickly to the child. Dec. 20, at 5 p.m. will be the cut off date to receive a handwritten note from Santa. For more information, call (248) 634-9571. This event is co-sponsored by the Presbyterian Village.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | TIM JAGIELO

Crystal Abdallah, 12, mounts the uneven bars at Hyatt Elementary School in Linden Wednesday night as Isabelle Brown, 11, watches. "I think of gymnastics as an independent sport, but teammates encourage you," said Crystal.

GYMNASTICS

practicing each week. "It needs to be a year round sport," said Holden.

Her best gymnasts are the equivalent of levels 5 through 8 on the national level.

At six hours per week, Holden said the schedule allows gymnasts to compete, but also have a life outside the gym. She said private groups practice about 12 hours per week, leaving less time for other extracurricular activities.

The gym at Hyatt Elementary School is fully equipped with everything needed for all women's gymnastics events. The beam is a 16- by 4-inch leather wrapped beam of wood, about 4 feet off the ground. The girls not only walk across the beam with poise and control, but also leap, spin and back flip onto a surface the size of a regular index card.

"I usually watch my hands," said Emily Fay, 12, of Fenton as she was taking a flip off the beam. The beam is her least favorite event. She prefers floor exercises, which include tumbles, flips, and dance moves, all set to music.

In the room off to the side, young gymnasts work on the uneven bars, a set of bars the girls grip and then swing themselves about, using incredible core body strength. "It's like when you're doing pull-ups, it's a lot of work," said Emily. "It feels like you're falling, but when you're up high, it feels like you're flying." One beam is 5 feet tall, the other is 9.

Katie Holden, 17, is her mother's assistant coach. "I see things that I used to do that the girls do now, and it's very easy to correct," she said. "I can say, I know how it is, this is how you can fix it."

Shaanti Smith, 12, of Fenton, leaps on the beam at Hyatt Elementary School in Linden Wednesday night.

Katie works with intermediate- to team-level gymnasts. "It gives them confidence in their life, it gives them sportsmanship, it gives them strength, everything."

Nancy said she tries to encourage any Olympic dreams, but prefers to promote a lifestyle that is a balance between gymnastics, school and even other sports.

"Every kid has ability to learn and have successes," she said.

Her goal is to help the students be "the best they can be."

"I think that everybody has ability to learn," Nancy said. "Gymnastics uses your whole body. You're learning good core strength, back strength, and coordination."

Nancy said that even if one of her students does not become an accomplished gymnast, they would still learn something along the way. "It's life lessons that they learn," she said. "I think it helps them build up their self confidence, even in school activities."

Gymnastics competitions require the athletes to perform on their own, and can help grow confidence in public speaking.

The Gym Stars first competition is Sunday, Dec. 12, at Huron Valley.

Madeline Carr, 10, gets some help on the uneven bars from Coach Nancy Holden at Hyatt Elementary School in Linden Wednesday night.

WE DON'T DARE complain about the roundabouts too much, or they will raise our water rates again.

■ ■ ■
IF THE U.S. senate bill is passed telling me what vegetables I can raise in my family garden and what and where I can sell them, then it's time for an uprising like this country has neverseen before and I'm ready. Are you?

■ ■ ■
REPUBLICANS AND DEMOCRATS all blame each other. Both parties are allowing the rich to get richer while the middle class disintegrates. We (Generation X) cannot wait for the Baby Boomers to take their out-dated beliefs and step down, so we can be sensible and get this country back on track, once we clean up this mess that you have left us.

■ ■ ■
COME ON, FENTON police, get out there and be seen. Some lady had to be driving 50 mph or more around noon the other day on Main Street. Another one totally ran a red light at LeRoy Street and Silver Lake Road. You should be able to see that one on your cameras. Why do we hardly see the Fenton police out? Do they all have desk jobs? Don't tell us it's shift changing time, either.

WASTE MANAGEMENT in the city of Fenton, pay attention, you've missed our trash and/or recycling too many times. It's marked and sitting right by the road in plain sight. Wake up.

HEY, I JUST saw that country singer Keith Urban released a new CD this week. Guess what it's called? 'Get Closer.' What a coincidence. That's Fenton's new tagline.

Focus on Vision

By: Dr. Juan Alvarado

40 Plus Vision

One of the most frustrating visual experiences people encounter is losing the ability to see things up close clearly. It typically starts with simply avoiding extensive near work in the afternoon after the eyes have been exhausted from working all day. Then comes the extending of the arms to push the reading material farther away to decrease the focusing demand on the eyes. Eventually the arms are not long enough and that's when the realization sets in that it may be time for the dreaded "bifocals." The good news is that bifocals are very old technology and are rarely utilized in our practice as a first choice. Many setbacks are present with bifocals, the most obvious being the limitation to only 2 clear focal points (hence "bi" focals). Progressives have an infinite number of focal points to allow all the intermediate (about 3 to 5 feet away) to be clear as well as the typical 15 inch reading distance. Tremendous strides have occurred in the technology of progressives, bifocal contact lenses, monovision, and reading enhancing surgeries due to the large research dollars influxed by companies looking to tap the 40+ population market. The take home point is that technology is improving quickly and this benefits all of our patients. You have many new and improving options in this area. Schedule an appointment to learn how this technology can benefit you. Have Your Eyes Examined Annually.

What is mincemeat pie?

Today, people are accustomed to eating mince pie as a dessert, but actually "minced" pie and its follow-up "mincemeat pie" began as a main-course dish some 500 years ago in England, as a way of preserving meat without salting or smoking. Those pies were made with more meat than fruit (a mixture of meat, dried fruits, and spices). As fruits and spices became more plentiful in the 17th century, the spiciness of the pies increased accordingly, according to www.whatscookinginamerica.net.

Mince pies (as they are known today) are still considered an essential accompaniment to holiday dinners in England, just like the traditional plum pudding.

BEYOND pumpkin pie...

By Sally Rummel

Lois Swoveland of Fenton enjoys entertaining and looking for new recipes to try, especially during the holidays. Her husband, Bob, loves the seasonal taste of pumpkin this time of year and is more than willing to taste the "finished results" of Lois' time spent in the kitchen.

They both loved the moistness of the Pumpkin Pound Cake presented by Better Homes & Gardens (www.bhg.com), and thought the addition of maraschino cherries made an unexpected and colorful presentation this time of year.

However you like to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday, there are many different ways to use pumpkin, especially for your dessert table. But give the cozy, comfort taste of pumpkin a try in an easy dinner roll recipe by Taste of Home, and you may never serve a traditional roll again this time of year.

CRANBERRIES THE HEALTHY HOLIDAY FRUIT

By Sally Rummel • news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

Whether you're sipping a glass of cranberry juice, popping dried cranberries into your mouth as a snack or enjoying cranberry sauce with your Thanksgiving dinner, you're doing your body a whole lot of good.

A natural wholesome fruit, cranberries provide a myriad of health benefits, according to the Cranberry Institute, which cites studies from the American Cancer Society and other health researchers.

All common cranberry products contain the beneficial antioxidants — whether you prefer to eat, drink or snack on them. Research shows that an 8-ounce cup of 25-percent cranberry juice cocktail provides the amount of Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In small saucepan, heat cream over medium heat just until bubbly. Remove from heat; set aside. Meanwhile, in a medium bowl, combine egg yolks, eggs, sugar, pumpkin, cinnamon, ginger, salt, and cloves with a whisk or rotary beater until just combined. Slowly, whisk the hot whipping cream into the egg mixture. Use a serrated knife to cut off the top ½-inch of the baby pumpkins. Discard the tops. Use a spoon to scoop out the seeds. Place the pumpkins (or ramekins) in a roasting pan. Divide custard mixture evenly among the pumpkins (or ramekins). Place roasting pan on oven rack. Pour enough boiling water into the roasting pan to reach halfway up the sides of the pumpkins. Bake for 30 to 40 minutes or until centers appear nearly set when gently shaken. Carefully remove pan from oven. Remove pumpkins from water; cool on a wire rack. Cover and chill for at least 1 hour or up to 8 hours. Before serving, let custards stand at room temperature for 20 minutes. Meanwhile, for caramelized sugar: in a heavy 8-inch skillet, heat the 1/4 cup sugar over medium-high heat until sugar begins to melt, shaking skillet occasionally to heat sugar evenly. Do not stir. Once sugar starts to melt, reduce heat to low; cook 3 to 5 minutes more or until all of the sugar is melted and golden brown, stirring as needed with a wooden spoon. Quickly drizzle caramelized sugar over the custards. (If sugar starts to harden in the skillet, return to heat, stirring until melted.) Serve immediately. Makes 10 filled pumpkins or 6 custard cups. Culinary Torch Method: Instead of caramelizing the sugar in the skillet as directed earlier, sprinkle sugar evenly over custards. Use a culinary torch to caramelize the sugar.

A new chapter begins for Fenton's Open Book

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

There's a new chapter now open at Fenton's Open Book, the former location of Little Professor Book Center in downtown Fenton.

Owner Karen Piacentini decided to re-open the bookstore under a new name after falling in love with the store during the seven years she worked there with former owner Laura Carpenter.

"I still see the need for a bookstore downtown," said Piacentini, who opened the store in late August after it had been vacated in July. "We re-opened with a new inventory and a re-arranged floor plan."

Customers will now find an expanded Kids' Area at the front of the store, as well as an emphasis on regional books about Michigan, in addition to titles by Michigan authors. "We also carry books with stories that take place in Michigan," said Piacentini. "People love reading about familiar names and places."

Many of the titles here are books that can't be found at Target or Wal-Mart, giving Fenton's Open Book a unique niche in the reading marketplace. "We can special order just about any book you'd like, with a quick turn-around time for your convenience," Piacentini said. "We can do your shopping and have your books waiting for you."

Local authors also come in for signings, including an upcoming date on Saturday, Dec. 4, when Gary Flynn, author of "Remembering Flint," will be on-site from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Customer service is the key to success at this local store, with a staff of avid readers ready to assist customers in recommending, finding and ordering books. Three, part-time employees handle the store during the day while Piacentini works as a paraprofessional for Fenton schools. She's on the floor in the late afternoon until the store closes at 7 p.m., Monday through Saturday. The store is also open Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Her husband, Mike, is also a familiar face at the store, helping with many of the daily tasks of owning a family business.

Educators and home-schooling families will appreciate a new "teacher's section" that will be opening soon at Fenton's Open Book. Piacentini is looking forward to a close partnership with area schools in setting up fundraising support for parent-teacher organizations.

A Book Club, organized through Southern Lakes Parks & Recreation, holds its meeting at the store on the first Monday of every month. "For more information, you can call the store at (810) 629-8000," said Piacentini.

The power of a thankful heart

With shouts of praise to God, the Pilgrims from Scrooby Village in England came ashore at New Plymouth in 1620. The able-bodied ones knelt on the snow-covered, rocky ground and gave thanks for their completion of their stormy voyage across the Atlantic.

Others, weakened by sickness, lay on pallets reciting Psalms and singing hymns.

A few months later, half of the Pilgrims were dead from exposure and disease. But, the remainder rallied and carried on.

Their first permanent building was an assembly house for meetings of the church and the elected general court. Prayers were always offered at the opening of court and before voting on any important issue.

Though they endured many hardships, they learned to be thankful for daily blessings, and this led to celebrating their first harvest with a feast of thanksgiving. The Pilgrims could have pouted about their privations and problems. Instead, they chose to thank God for the blessings He had given.

More than 100 years after the Pilgrims had set the example, President George Washington issued the following Thanksgiving Proclamation:

'Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God, to obey His will, to be grateful for His benefits, and humbly implore His protection and favors...

'Now, therefore, I do recommend and assign Thursday, the 26th of November, to be devoted by the people of these states to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the Beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be, that we may then all unite in rendering unto Him our sincere and humble thanks.'

It is important to note that both the expressions of thanksgiving by the Pilgrims and of George Washington came following times of great distress — the struggle of that first difficult year by the Pilgrims and the rigors of the Revolutionary War by Washington.

Tough times made them thankful.

But, there is another dimension to this story that is often overlooked. Their thankful hearts enabled them to endure tough times triumphantly.

A thankful heart is powerful.

Depression departs from thankful hearts.

A thankful heart can heal a troubled marriage. A thankful heart turns one from pouting to praising. A thankful heart can overcome fears about the future. A thankful heart can dissolve doubts and eliminate cynicism.

The well-known author of Christian classics, A.W. Tozer, wrote, 'Now, as a cure for the sour, faultfinding attitude I recommend the cultivation of the habit of thankfulness.

'Thanksgiving has great curative power. The heart that is constantly overflowing with gratitude will be safe from those attacks of resentment and gloom that bother so many. A thankful heart cannot be cynical.'

In counting our blessings, we can change our lives and the lives of those we love.

ASK THE MECHANIC
Chris Wilkinson, Certified Mechanic

Q: When my fuel tank is about a 1/4 full or less I have a lot of trouble starting my car. Sometimes it won't even start until I put gas in it. I recently purchased this car and I am hoping I did not make a big mistake.
Thank you, Judy from Holly, MI

A: Judy, This could indicate a problem with your fuel level sending unit not reading correctly. The only way to tell this is to drop the tank and compare how much fuel is in the tank to how much the gauge reads. The other problem could be a failing fuel pump. It may draw air in when the level gets too low causing this problem. The sender and pump can be serviced separately but if you end up replacing the pump it comes with the sender automatically.

antioxidants equivalent to 1½ cups of fresh or frozen cranberries, one ounce of sweetened dried fruit or a ½ cup of cranberry sauce. Any one of these types of cranberry-based products will be a healthy addition to a well-balanced diet, according to researchers.

Why are cranberries so healthful? These nutrient dense little crimson berries provide vitamins, minerals and phytonutrients (the naturally derived plant compounds that have antioxidant activity) with few calories — about 50 in one cup — no fat and very little sodium.

In addition to phytonutrients, cranberries contain polyphenols and the flavanol "proanthocyanidin" (PAC), which helps prevent the adhesion of certain harmful bacteria, including E. coli, associated with urinary tract infections. They may also help to inhibit the bacteria associated with gum disease, and stomach ulcers — by preventing bacteria from attaching to the stomach wall. Recent research on digestive health suggests that cranberry juice can be as effective as probiotics in maintaining good digestive health.

Cranberries are good for the heart, also. Whole cranberries are a good source of dietary fiber, and all cranberry products contain the natural compounds mentioned above, offering a wide range of potential heart health benefits — favorably affecting platelet function and offering a natural defense against atherosclerosis, commonly known as "hardening of the arteries."

Laboratory studies conducted by the University of Illinois have demonstrated the potential anti-cancer properties of cranberries. Although results are preliminary, compounds in cranberries may prove to be a potent cancer fighter.

Magi. In honor of the birth of the Savior, the mince pie was originally made in an oblong casings (coffin or cradle shaped), with a place for the Christ Child to be placed on top. Over the years, the pies grew smaller, the shape of the pie was gradually changed from oblong to round, and the meat content was gradually reduced until the pies were simply filled with a mixture of suet, spices and dried fruit, previously steeped in brandy. This filling was put into little pastry cases that were covered with pastry lids and then baked in an oven. Essentially, this is today's English mince pie.

• It was journalist, entrepreneur and philanthropist Esther Dyson who made the following sage observation: "The Internet is like alcohol in some sense. It accentuates what you would do anyway. • If you're planning a vacation sometime in the near future, you might want to keep in mind Travel & Leisure magazine's most recent city rankings. These rankings didn't involve food or culture, though. For this particular list, readers voted on the cities with the most- and least-attractive people. If you enjoy people-watching, head to Charleston, S.C., which reportedly boasts the most attractive populace, followed by San Diego and Savannah, Ga., in second and third places. The U.S. cities with the least attractive residents? According to the survey, they're Memphis, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Canine influenza vs. kennel cough

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: Can you give me any information on Canine Influenza Virus?

— Jordan C., Kansas City, Mo.

DEAR JORDAN: This relatively new virus was identified about six years ago, following an outbreak of a mystery illness among dogs at a race track in Jacksonville, Fla. It was determined that a horse virus had been transmitted to the dogs. Since then, Canine Influenza Virus has joined a list of communicable diseases to which dogs, especially those in crowded living conditions like a kennel or shelter, are vulnerable.

CIV is sometimes mistaken for kennel cough, as one of its symptoms is coughing that can worsen after activity. However, unlike kennel cough, CIV is often accompanied by a runny nose, sneezing and runny eyes. In more severe cases of CIV, a high fever is present, along with loss of appetite, lethargy or depression, and sometimes difficulty breathing. Any of these symptoms should prompt a visit to the veterinarian to confirm

Have a question about your pet? Contact Sam at ask@pawscorner.com, or write to Paw's Corner, c/o King Features Weekly Service, P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475. And visit www.pawscorner.com for more information and resources!

CIV and make sure pneumonia doesn't set in.

Because CIV is a virus, antibiotics aren't an effective cure. Treatment includes making your dog more comfortable — including cough medicine or other medicines to reduce symptoms — and keeping its immune system strong through a good diet and vitamin supplements. Prevent your pet from exposing other dogs to the virus, and monitor its condition closely in case its health worsens. The illness usually runs its course in four weeks.

Fortunately, a vaccine for the virus is available. Ask the vet about immunizing your pet, particularly if you plan to place it in a kennel or doggie daycare. More information and a clinic locator tool are available at www.doginfluenza.com.

• With many airlines these days, you can print your boarding pass online. Security lines are long, and it pays to save every moment you can.

• Make a spray of equal parts liquid fabric softener and water. Mist the air daily to relieve static buildup during the fall and winter, when the air is very dry.

• Before cleaning, run hot water in the bath or shower. The steam from the hot water loosens the dirt, making it easier to clean. Or, bring your cleaning sponge and some baking soda in the shower with you. No chemicals, and you could even use the baking soda to soften the skin on your elbows and feet.

• Spray plastic wrap with non-flavored cooking spray before using it to cover cakes or cupcakes. The frosting won't stick to the wrap.

• To get streaks off of freshly cleaned windows, give them a final swipe with plain newspaper (not magazine inserts or glossy pages).

Holly's

We haven't revealed our final Fall Top 5, because the girls varsity swim season's state meet is this weekend, but that doesn't mean we can't reveal our preseason Winter Top 5 Teams.

These are based on our predictions for the squads and not what they've accomplished to this point. Because, well, only one winter team has even played a game yet. Here's our top five.

No. 5 - Fenton hockey - The Tigers lost a lot of key players from last year's unbeaten Metro League squad, however, there are still some solid pieces remaining. With some schools going to co-ops, it's going to be hard for Fenton to retain their title as the tri-county's top hockey program this season.

No. 4 - Fenton girls basketball - The Tigers return four players from our 2009-10 All Tri-County Girls Basketball Team, so, if anything, they deserve a higher ranking.

No. 3 - Fenton boys basketball - The two-time defending Metro League champions look poised to make another run this season. Returning are Dylan Hickoff and Ryan Hickoff, who have spent this school year concentrating on their basketball skills. That's not a good thing for the rest of the Metro League at all.

No. 2 - Holly wrestling - With Oxford gone, the Bronchos are the preseason Metro favorites. Even with Oxford, that may have been the case. The team returns defending state champion Anthony Gonzales and several other returning state placers. The Bronchos could make a run to the team state meet this year.

No. 1 - Lake Fenton wrestling - Right now, the biggest issue the Blue Devils have is finding a head coach. Lake Fenton returns three state qualifiers from last year, but also have a load of transfers that placed a year ago. They are loaded.

SPORTS TRIVIA

Q When was the last time Fenton football finished the season ranked in the AP's Top 10?

A It was in 1985, when the team completed a 9-0 regular season, and finished ranked eighth on the final AP top 10 poll.

Kearsley-Holly tie Grand Blanc in opener

Late-game goal creates 1-1 draw

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com

Flint — The first game of the Kearsley-Holly co-op hockey team had a bit of everything.

It had great goalkeeping, some controversy, a tight contest and a thrilling finish.

The Kearsley-Holly Hornets capped their first game of their co-op together with a power play goal by Kearsley's Kody Kenny with 1:06 remaining, earning the program a 1-1 tie against Grand Blanc at Perani Arena Wednesday night.

However, there were questions if the puck ever went in the net at the time. It was called in and the teams had their tie.

"I think it was," Kenny said, when asked if the puck went in the net. "Mitchell Hollingshead was on the point. He came down low, and I came across the net backdoor and he gave it right to me."

It was a tight, entertaining defensive-minded game. However, early on it looked like that may not be the case. Grand Blanc opened the scoring on what was the Bobcats' second shot of the night. Grand Blanc's Kellen Seguin scored that goal. However, from that point on, while both teams had scoring chances, neither was able to get the puck into the net, not at least until the final goal with 1:06 left.

Kearsley-Holly goalkeeper Tyler Lynch, right, tries to collect a puck in front of the net during the co-op team's recent 1-1 tie with Grand Blanc. It was the first regular-season game for the program, which is playing their first season together.

"Kudos for my team for never giving up," Kearsley coach Bill O'Bryan said. "We missed a couple of wide open nets. We missed a couple of really good scoring opportunities that didn't go in. A different team could've put their heads down and gave up, but these guys kept their heads up and kept going hard to the net. Finally, something good happened."

"We came out, allowed a goal early but then we definitely beat them during the last two periods," Kearsley-Holly defenseman Christian

Fenton hockey looking for another title

Fenton — Fenton is coming off a stellar hockey season.

The Tigers finished 2009-10 as the unbeaten Metro League champions, finishing with a 21-4-1 overall record. The Tigers bowed out in the Regional final falling 5-3 to Powers, the eventual state runner-up in Division 3.

Having that type of success again this year won't come easy. Fenton lost six players to graduation, including Austin Giesey (70 points) and Will Dawson (61 points). However, the cupboard isn't bare, and the Tigers hope to have another magical season this year. Fenton opened the season skating against Grand Blanc Saturday. The Tigers open the Metro League season with Lapeer East Dec. 1 at 8 p.m. at the Hartland Sports Center.

"We have the same goal as we do every year, to win the Metro League championship," said Fenton coach Matt Krusniak. "It is too early to tell, but we have a group of guys that are not afraid to work hard. We just need them to work smarter and we could have another great season if we come together and play well. We lost six seniors, but we still have seven seniors who have been around for awhile, and now it's their turn to step up and take the leadership role."

The goalkeeper position is between sophomore Joe Foguth and senior Dillon Deloye.

"Joe came in as a freshman and played well as goalie," said Krusniak. "Dillon is a roller blader and he is just starting to

Fenton's Ostrowski, Rivette make college choices

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com

Fenton — They sat in the Fenton auxiliary gym preparing for their senior seasons on the Fenton varsity girls basketball team, probably unsure of what Fenton coach Brad Dewitt may do for that particular practice Tuesday.

Yet, at the same time seniors Alyssa Ostrowski and Gabrielle Rivette know exactly what they'll be doing next year. Both players will be headed to college, preparing to play college basketball at the next level.

Gabrielle Rivette, the Tri-County Times' returning Girls Basketball Player of the Year, has committed to play at Northwood University, while Ostrowski is headed to Urbana University in Ohio. Both programs play at the Division 2 level.

Both were relieved to have their college decisions already figured out.

"It feels really good," Rivette said. "I've always looked up to my older sisters, and they both played college basketball. To be able to do it as well is pretty exciting."

"I guess I have been dreaming about playing college basketball all my life," Ostrowski said. "I worked for that goal in high school, and it feels good to complete that goal."

CHOICESContinued from 13B

Rivette enters her senior season as a three-time All Tri-County selection. She led the Tigers in scoring (354 points), assists (50) and steals (55) last year. She's a strong ball-handler who can make her free throws down the stretch. She made 84 percent from the line a year ago.

Rivette will be expected to continue at the collegiate level as a guard at Northwood. The choice was between Northwood and Bowling Green. Rivette plans on going into accounting and finance.

"Northwood is close to home," Rivette said. "You can go away when you want to be away and come home when you want to come home. Plus, it's a good business school."

Northwood has a strong women's basketball program. The team finished just 13-14 overall and 9-13 in the GLIAC a year ago, but posted records of 21-8 and 18-9 the two seasons before last year. The team is off to a 2-0 start this season.

"My sister's friend (Pam Wilson) went there, so I know a lot about it," Rivette said. "They've had a lot of success."

"I think (my playing time) is wait-and-see. I'll just keep working hard, and, hopefully, be in the rotation pretty quick."

Urbana has been a strong program for the last four seasons. The Blue Knights finished 6-22 in 2005-06, but since then have finished .500 or better each of the last four years, including posting a 17-10 mark last year. Urbana plays as an independent.

"I liked the size," Ostrowski said about Urbana. "It was smaller. It was competitive in terms of the basketball team. It was a good fit for what I wanted."

Ostrowski, a member of our All Tri-County Team last year, scored 168 points during her junior season, and grabbed a team-high 124 rebounds. She's slated to play power forward or center.

"I will have to work really hard," Ostrowski said. "I definitely need to stay in shape and just keep working on my skills, like my ball-handling."

Dewitt thinks both girls have made good decisions.

"I think it's a good fit for Gabrielle," Dewitt said. "I know the coach and I think she will fit really well there. They need a guard, and Gabrielle is an experienced guard."

"I don't know much about Urbana, but from what Alyssa's parents told me, they are very excited about Urbana and they think it's a great fit. Alyssa is going into education, and they have a strong education program."

OLD SCHOOL VS. NEW SCHOOL

The Tigers unofficially won the Midland city championship. Many seniors graduate, but the squad looks poised to re-load. Each of the last two freshmen teams finished unbeaten.	The Fenton football team	All I have to say is 'Wow.' I took the family to see the game. Although the score wasn't good, it was awesome to go and support the Tigers. Good job, boys. Go further next year!
Hard to believe that at end of last season, many MSU fans were upset after the Ohio State loss. With Kalin Lucas healthy, this team has a great chance of making it back to the Final Four.	MSU basketball	Although the South Carolina Gamecocks gave them a game, I still think the Spartans are in prime form to take the Big Ten Conference championship.
With Manny Harris gone, the Wolverines are relying on freshmen and sophomores to improve on last year's 7-11 Big Ten season. Geez, forget it. The Wolverines will be lucky to match that total.	Michigan basketball	Not sure about this one yet. They lost some key players this year. Being a Michigan fan, I am hoping they at least go to the Big Dance. Go Blue!
Every year, there's talk of the NFL taking this game away from the Lions. I hope it never happens. But it would be nice to see the Lions win one of these games again. It won't be this year.	Lions T-giving thoughts	Hmmm, as big a Lions fan I am, I really don't see the Lions beating the Patriots. But if they do, I will say 23-21, Lions.
Only the Lions can start a second-string QB with a broken arm and think that's their best chance to win. If Drew Stanton is that lousy — and he is — dump the guy already!	Anything goes	I think John Kuester is a terrible coach. I understand switching players to see what works, but I think that he makes terrible decisions. Sorry, Pistons, you need a leader on the bench, not a softie.

feel his way around the ice.

“Our defense will be key in supporting the goalie. We won’t have the big point wins like we did last year.”

Leading the team are senior co-captains David Johnson, Ryan Delecki and T.J. Polakowski. Johnson, a forward, was the fourth leading scorer for the Tigers last year with 37 points (14 goals). underclassmen Tyler Delong and Kyle Lexie are strong offensive players as well.

Other seniors include Ryan Fuller, Ben Hackney and Josh Esch.

“I think there are a lot of players who have talent that missed out on opportunities to play a lot last year, with the great team we had,” said Johnson. “I think we will have a solid team, and there is not a team we can’t compete with.”

Fenton has a rich tradition in hockey. They have won the Metro title eight times and have won it with an unbeaten record four times. They are looking for their first regional title since 2008.

Johnson, like his coach, is not worried about depth.

“I don’t see any problems running two or three lines out there,” Johnson said. “Conditioning will be even more important.”

Roberts said. “It was definitely nice to tie them and get back into the game.”

The Hornets (0-0-1) were forced to play defense early on, killing three penalties in the first period. Late in the first period, the team had to kill off a 5-on-3 for 1:31, helping keep the Hornets down only 1-0 at the first intermission.

“Stopping that two-man advantage, that was a big momentum builder for us,” O’Bryan said. “We stopped them and it just helped our team coming in after the first period.”

The Hornets did have scoring chances before tying the game. Most came on missed net shots. With 8:15 left in the first period, Joel Huber hit the post with a shot. In the second period, Huber passed the puck to Eddy, who shot wide. The puck stayed in the Bobcats’ defensive zone, eventually resulting in a shot for Roberts. However, it was saved.

In the third period, Huber had another shot close to the Grand Blanc keeper with 7:20 left. It was saved. Finally, Roberts took a slap shot from the blue line that went just wide off a Kearsley deflection. The rebound came to Kenny, who took a shot. It was saved as well.

“You have to keep your head in the game,” Kenny said. “It’s only one goal to tie it up. We didn’t get it in the first and second period, ods, but we were clutch in the end.”

Kearsley-Holly keeper Tyler Lynch had a strong game, making 22 saves. The defense played solid in front of him as well.

“After the first goal, coach told us don’t make those stupid mistakes. Make the easy play and stay calm,” Roberts said. “Just the fundamentals, pretty much.”
