STORY: HIGH GAS
HIGH GROCERIES
“It’s all fine, the talk about indexes and what not, but it comes down to what is there for grocery money.

Maybe everyone needs to be on food stamps and become government fed. It’s probably the only way to eat and go anywhere. We might as well give up.”

— Broke

“I’m so sick of all the gas prices. I wish, for once, those corporate hotshots would sit in their own pile of manure that they create. What is a gallon of gas or trip to the grocery store for someone who flies to Paris for breakfast? Maybe, when they’re done ruining America they can go to China and ruin them, too. Happy Fourth of July this year.”

— Corporate nonsense

STORY: TIMING TRAFFIC LIGHTS

“You’ve got to be kidding, $700,000 for traffic lights on Owen Road. What happened to the study when Target was going in? The educated idiots that said the Target light would not deter traffic were wrong. Besides, what is a two-minute wait worth? The money should be spent on roads.”

Lake Fenton school board candidate Larry Godlewski reaches out to shake Carson Steffey's hand at the polling station at Lake Fenton High School Tuesday evening. Carson, 5, of Fenton Township, is with his father, Steve, and brother Conner, 8. Godlewski was out with Mott Community College Education Association representative Brian Harding (right) and other candidates to thank residents for voting.

The unofficial results of the May 3 election are in. The residents in the Lake Fenton Community Schools district have elected two new individuals to the Lake Fenton board of education, Larry Godlewski and Christopher Fletcher. Former school board member Kristi Ocenasek was also elected to serve out a partial term.

Tamara Valley and Daniel Carter

are the new members elected to the Fenton board of education.

In Linden, since there were only write-in candidates, no results were available at press time. Results will be posted online at www.tctimes.com today.

FENTON SCHOOL BOARD

Tamara Valley was the top vote getter with 428 votes (25.57 percent). With 20-plus years of corporate finance and accounting experience, Valley is looking to be an influence in how the board uses district funds.

“We have to figure out the school funding and what to allocate. Something has to be done. The only way I can look at it is as a matter of expense and income.”

City employees caught smoking could lose job

►Existing no-smoking policy could be revamped

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Fenton — After receiving several complaints from residents upset over seeing city employees smoking inside of city vehicles, Fenton City Council is looking at revamping its existing policy and adding consequences.

Mayor Sue Osborn told council members Monday during its work session that smoking in city-owned vehicles is against city policy, as well as being bad for public relations.

Osborn suggested that employees caught smoking could be reprimanded in some way. On their third time being caught, their employment with the city could end. “There’s plenty of people who want those jobs,” she said.

Further discussions on the topic are planned.

Is your home tornado ready?

►A quick guide to preparing for, and riding out the storm

By Tim Jagielo

tjagielo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

At 5:34 p.m. Aug 24, 2007, Fenton and Holly experienced an F-2 tornado that damaged homes and leveled buildings. When the tornado hit, John and Marcia Vamossy, of Fenton, headed to the basement. Marcia got in the basement, just as a pine tree fell, destroying the garage and part of the west side of their roof. The house was partially moved off its foundation, and required a new garage floor. It was the worst storm John had ever experienced.

Being prepared for a tornado can make the event safer and less stressful.

Prepare your family for a tornado

- 1. Make a Family Emergency Plan. Your family may not be together when disaster strikes, so it is important to know how you will contact one another, how you will get back together and what you will do in case of an emergency.
- 2. Plan places where your family will meet, both within and outside of your immediate neighborhood.
- 3. It may be easier to make a long-distance phone call than to call across town, so an out-of-town contact may be in a better position to communicate among separated family members.
- 4. You may also want to inquire about emergency plans at places where your family spends time: work, daycare and school. If no plans exist, consider volunteering to help create one.
- 5. Determine in advance where you will take shelter in case of a tornado warning.

City looks at using block grant funds for community center

►New handicap-accessible elevator would be installed

By Sharon Stone
 sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Fenton — The consensus of the Fenton City Council is to move forward with plans to install an elevator, one that would comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), in the Fenton Community & Cultural Center.

Michael Burns, assistant city manager and director of Fenton's Downtown Development Authority, told council members on Monday during its work session that the city could use approximately $62,000 in Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds and $80,000 available in the Fenton Downtown Development Authority (DDA) budget to make the upgrades.

The city had been considering using the CDBG funds to upgrade the gazebo site. However, after county officials visited the site, it was determined that only the high-cost project, at $121,000, would be feasible in that area.

Summary

►Rather than using Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds to make handicap-accessible upgrades at the downtown gazebo, Fenton officials are now considering shifting those funds toward the community center for a new elevator.

As an alternative project, Burns said the city could steer the available funds toward the community center. One possible roadblock was that the project would need to be completed by April 30, 2012. Council members asked him to inquire if they could get an extension on that deadline.

Burns said the low-cost project to upgrade the gazebo area could possibly be added to the Streetscape project next year.

Mayor Sue Osborn said, "We need to make both (gazebo and community center) handicap accessible."

Burns said the elevator currently in use at the community is in bad shape and can barely accommodate one wheel chair. Councilwoman Cheryl King asked Burns how much an elevator costs and he told her that it would be about $100,000. Bids would be required for the addition of the elevator.

Osborn said the total restoration cost at the community center ranges between $1.2 million to $1.6 million. The city would look into whether it would be better off with loans or bonds to pay for the project.

City Manager Lynn Markland and Burns will bring further information to City Council at its next meeting.

WHAT TO GET MOM

Mother's Day

► Gifts of love and sentiment top the list

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

Flowers, cards and dining out are the most popular Mother's Day gifts every year, according to the National Retail Federation.

But that doesn't mean you can't put a sentimental spin on this very special holiday, to honor your mother and all the other special women in your life this Sunday, May 8.

One easy way to share the special relationship you have with your mom would be to take a favorite photograph of the two of you, and have the photo experts at Billmeier Camera in Fenton blow it up to poster size, depending upon the quality of the photo. "We could digitally add the words, 'I love you, Mom' on the poster," said Rachel Herstein, lab tech at Billmeier Camera.

Raise, call, fold. All around the tri-county area, people are using these commands to test their skills and wits in pursuit of the chip stack. The game is poker and its popularity has been immense over the past few years.

"Anyone can compete, anyone can win," said Derek Birch, the organizer of Legends of Poker in Fenton. "You can learn the game real quick, and many of the greatest players are under 21 years old."

Poker isn't exclusive to casinos and professionals. Anyone can play and many in the tri-county area are.

Mastering the game

Play often — Poker is a skill that you can only hone by playing. The more you play, the more you know.

Pay attention — Some people believe that good cards are the only way to win. Experienced players will tell you knowing when to bet and knowing when to fold is key to winning and can be more potent than having the highest hand.

Be honest with yourself — Winning every game is impossible. Play poker for skill and the challenge, not for a big pay out.

PRESIDENT TRUMP? NOT LIKELY

In bridge, a trump card is held in reserve for winning a trick. In politics, Donald Trump is anything but reserved and appears to think he might trick enough voters to win the next presidential election.

There's plenty to draw on when critiquing a possible Trump candidacy. His multiple marriages (three) and affairs provide fodder for the media and contrast poorly with President Obama's 'family values' image as husband of one wife and father of young daughters, whom he clearly loves.

In recent weeks, Trump has been trying to gain a toehold in the evangelical community. In an interview with David Brody of the Christian Broadcasting Network, Trump described Christianity as 'a wonderful religion.' In answer to a question about his faith, Trump said, 'I believe in God. I am Christian. I think the Bible is certainly, uh, it is 'the' book. It is the thing.'

Does he read the Bible and believe what it says? How about the parts concerning marriage, divorce and fornication? Would that be something Trump should take to heart? Brody didn't ask and Trump didn't volunteer. Trump also appears shifty when it comes to judging our 'worst' president. In 2007, Trump said President George W. Bush was 'the worst president ever.' In 2008, he said Bush should be impeached and that he was 'impressed' by then-House Speaker Nancy Pelosi. But this year he says President Obama is 'the worst president ever.' He is also on record as saying Jimmy Carter was the worst president.

Donald Trump is no conservative. In fact, it's hard to say which party he's affiliated with. In 1987, he was Republican. In 1999, he switched to the Independence Party. In 2009, when he first considered the presidency, the New York Daily News reported, 'The Donald switched his party affiliation from Democrat to Republican.'

One thing's for sure, if he runs for president, he could harm the eventual Republican nominee. Maybe that's why so many in the liberal media are promoting him. In the unlikely event Trump could win a Republican candidacy, it would likely be the best thing for the Obama candidacy.

THANKS, TO OUR TROOPS, for finally bringing about the demise of Osama bin Laden in Pakistan. Some of the intelligence gathered to locate him was gained from interrogation of prisoners at Guantanamo. Can we finally agree that Guantanamo served a useful purpose?

I REALLY WISH the city of Fenton would consider changing the location of the fireworks this Fourth of July. It's always so hard to view the fireworks with the glaring lights from the VG's parking lot. Now that there is a gas station on the lawn, I just don't know how people can have a nice viewing area. It would be nice if it were moved back to the high school.

From the
editorTORNADOS, OSAMA BIN LADEN AND THE ROYAL WEDDING

It almost made your head spin. It was quite the news week, last week, with the epic number of tornados in the South, and the death of Osama bin Laden. Thrown in the mix was the coverage of the Royal Wedding of William and Kate.

OK, I admit it. I did watch some of the Royal Wedding (and Kate was an elegant bride). But, it was disturbing to me that while hundreds of U.S. citizens were killed in the tornados that slammed through Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee and Virginia, most of the major newscasters were in England reporting on the 'wedding of the century.'

To top it off, the news came in late Sunday evening, that the terrorist responsible for the attacks on Sept. 11, 2002, Osama bin Laden, had been killed, bringing closure to many of those who had been touched by the terrible tragedy at the World Trade Center twin towers, the Pentagon and in Shanksville, Pennsylvania. What are your thoughts about the killing of the No. 1 Public Enemy? E-mail me at cdennison@tctimes.com.

WHAT'S YOUR MOM WORTH?

Just how much is the work of a mother worth?

Salary.com has evaluated the job of both working and stay-at-home moms. Based on a survey of more than 6,500 mothers, Salary.com determined that the time mothers spend performing 10 typical job functions would equate to an annual salary of $115,432 for a stay-at-home mom. Working moms 'at-home' salary is $63,472 in 2011 (in addition to the salary they earn in the workplace).

The job titles that best matched a mom's definition of her work are housekeeper, day care center teacher, cook, computer operator, facilities manager, van driver, psychologist, laundry machine operator, janitor and chief executive officer. See what your mom is worth by visiting mom.salary.com.

Sunday is Mother's Day, a day to honor and celebrate the mother in your life. We, at the Times, wish moms, step moms, mothers of multiples, grandmothers, and all moms—a very happy Mother's Day.

Sloan's to lease former Linden Lumber Company site

► Owner looking to expand store

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-714-6019

Linden — Sloan's Sales and Services will be moving to the former Linden Lumber Company location in the near future. The lumber company closed its doors in January 2008 after 84 years and has sat vacant since then.

Summary

► Sloan's Sales and Services purchased the old Linden Lumber location and plans to move there in the next few months. The new location will have more space and is closer to downtown Linden than the current store.

Having leased the location last week, Sloan's Sales and Services owner Jeremiah Sloan will now be about a half mile from downtown Linden.

"The current lease is expiring and I had a friend who wanted to lease a lot with me," said Sloan, who has been at his current location at ACE Village Hardware for the past two and a half years. "The lease came up at the right place and the right time."

The new location will make things easier for both the owner and customers. Rentals are currently in the hardware store but separated from the main building, confusing some customers. The new location will allow Sloan to provide all of his services in one building.

Customers may also have a new line of products to choose from, as Sloan is considering expanding his inventory once he has moved. The owner will also use some of the property to store boats and lawn care equipment for certain customers. The new location will cost the owner about the same as the current one, with a little more expenses for the utilities.

Despite these new additions, Sloan said that he is not out to completely transform the lot that Linden Lumberyard used to occupy. He is committed to maintaining the trucks that recycled old newspapers, even after he opens the new store.

"Right now we're just tearing down vines, trying to clean it back up," said Sloan. "I'm trying to change as little as possible and work with the city on moving in."

A date for the grand opening has not been set yet. Sloan said that it is determined on how smoothly the transition goes with the city. At the latest, he anticipates moving in the next few months.

"The lease came up at the right place and the right time."

Just last week, several states in the South experienced hundreds of deaths from a series of violent tornados. As tornado season approaches, it is important to take stock of how prepared you are.

The Vamossys are prepared in the event of a storm or tornado. In the basement, they have a sitting area for riding the storm out. Their kitchen is stocked with canned food. The couple now has a battery-powered radio, and three, fully charged flashlights. “(You) better get ready,” John said. “You don’t know about what you have never experienced.”

The couple follows the common-sense advice given by Fenton Fire Department Chief Robert Cairnduff. The first thing Cairnduff recommends is being aware of incoming weather. If the sirens sound, do not hesitate to take cover. “We don’t do it when it’s not something serious,” he said.

A basement makes the best shelter in a home. If the home does not have a basement, go to the most central room with no windows, said Cairnduff. Bathrooms can often be the next safest place to a basement or shelter. Mobile homes often have a separate building residents are directed to go to.

After the tornado hit the Vamossy home, they were without power for two days. Having a battery-powered radio will help keep you informed, said Cairnduff. Keep flashlights, or LED lanterns on hand. They are better and safer than candles, he said.

Some residents prepare for power outages by installing a back-up, gas-powered

What to have in an emergency supply kit

1. Water, one gallon of water, per person, per day, for at least three days.
2. Food, at least a three-day supply of non-perishable food.
3. Battery-powered or hand-crank radio and a NOAA Weather Radio with tone alert and extra batteries for both.
4. First-aid kit.
5. Dust mask, to help filter contaminated air and plastic sheeting and duct tape.
6. Moist towelettes, garbage bags and plastic ties for personal sanitation.
7. Wrench or pliers to turn off utilities.
8. Can opener for food (if kit contains canned food).

10. Cell phone with chargers, inverter or solar charger.

generator. It is important that a generator not be placed inside the house or garage, said Cairnduff. It needs to be hooked up properly with adequate ventilation, if it is inside a garage.

According to www.ready.gov, one should follow the instructions of their local officials, and become familiar with their city’s disaster plans.

“Planning and practicing specifically how and where you take shelter is a matter of survival.”

Tornado Watch means that the conditions are there to produce a tornado in your area.

School board approves all-day kindergarten

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

In a unanimous decision, the Fenton Board of Education approved KindergartenPlus. The program allows kindergarteners to attend school for a full day. Parents will still have the option of having their children go for half day in either the morning or afternoon.

According to Superintendent Timothy Jalkanen, there will be 192 new students enrolling in the kindergarten program next fall. Of 230 parents of 3 to 5 year olds surveyed, 75 percent of them supported full-day kindergarten.

Chief Steward for the Fenton Education Support Personnel (FESP) Carla Juarez raised concerns about where funding for the program would come from. “Is the state going to pay for a full day or not?” she asked the board. She is also concerned that the community may not be aware of the changes next fall.

The board voted 3-2 on postponing the full-day kindergarten decision during its March meeting. Secretary Nora Kryza opposed to postponement due to timeliness with Kindergarten Round-up.

The full-day kindergarten will include a half-day of state-approved curriculum. The rest of the day includes a kindergarten facilitator and students working on the curriculum in different ways.

Jalkanen said that funding for KindergartenPlus would come from reallocated transportation funds. Mid-day transportation will be eliminated with the reallocation, causing buses to run only during the morning and the afternoon.

“The school district will not charge the family extra for the full-day program,” he said, noting that some districts make families pay for the full-day service.

Parents will have to provide transportation for students who are half-day and need to be dropped off or picked up at school during the mid-day.

The board considered the downside to the program before voting on it. Jalkanen said it is the need to keep up with other districts that pushed the board to approve the program. “An all-day kindergarten is needed to remain competitive with other school districts,” he said.

Holly Academy, Linden and Holly schools are local schools that already offer full-day kindergarten.

The Human Genome Project

Over the years, DNA testing has been shown to be the gold standard for proving identification in a wide variety of contexts. In a legal setting, some of the most common instances when DNA testing is used are to confirm or exclude the presence of a criminal defendant at a crime scene and the identification of crime and catastrophe victims. There are many other examples.

All humans have DNA, which is shorthand for ‘deoxyribonucleic acid.’ This is one of the two types of molecules that encode genetic information. Without getting into all of the science involved, DNA identification has come a long way since it was first used to obtain a criminal conviction in 1987 against one Colin Pitchfork for the murder of two schoolgirls in England.

The study of DNA had been an ongoing process before 1987 and the idea for comprehensive studies of DNA had been contemplated since at least 1984. A number of human genome studies were started in the late ‘80s, and in 1990, a study was commenced in the United States called the Human Genome Project.

The Human Genome Project has a history of the endeavor and information on DNA testing on its website.

The Department of Energy’s Human Genome Program and the National Institutes of Health’s National Human Genome Research Institute initially sponsored the project. Other sponsorships followed from other countries. Originally, this was to be a 15- year project, but rapid technological advances allowed it to be completed in just 13 years.

The goals were: to identify all of the approximately 20,000 to 25,000 genes in human DNA, determine the sequences of the 3 billion chemical base pairs that make up human DNA, store the information in databases, improve tools for data analysis, transfer related technologies to the private sector, and address the ethical, legal and social issues that may arise from the project.

Currently, there are a number of different methods used to conduct DNA testing in determining the DNA profile of an individual. This end result is sometimes referred to as a ‘DNA fingerprint.’

The most recent widely publicized example of DNA testing being used for identification purposes is seen in the identification of Osama bin Laden. It appears that specialized testing techniques were used in this case.

One can only imagine what progress will be made in this area in the years to come.

THE TORNADOS DEALT a devastating blow to Americans in our southern states. They need our prayers and any assistance we can offer. In the midst of this tragedy, the EPA issued a statement saying, global warming did this and it’s a good time for the South to go green. How insensitive and impractical. It would make the rebuilding take longer and more expensive. But it would move Obama’s social agenda forward and create government jobs.

IN REGARDS TO Snyder’s proposed tax on pensions, isn’t it unconstitutional? According to the Michigan State Constitution, Article IX, Sec 24, the accrued financial benefits of each pension plan and retirement system of the state and its political subdivisions shall be a contractual obligation, which shall not be diminished or impaired. Please explain how Snyder’s proposal is not diminishing this obligation.

■ ■ ■
WELL, I WAS right, after all. Snyder’s approval rating plummets and even people in Oakland County are fed up with him. There is hope after all.

Residents drop off whopping 54 pounds of unwanted meds

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Fenton — The Fenton Police Department is pleased with the amount of unwanted prescription and over-the-counter medication it collected on Saturday.

Lt. Jason Slater said the police department teamed with the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) to collect the unwanted medicine for four hours on Saturday. Residents dropped off about 54 pounds at the Fenton police station. The Young Marines assisted with the project. Sites across the nation also took part in the initiative.

A DEA representative from the Saginaw office collected the medicine for proper disposal.

Summary

►Linden and Fenton police departments say that the prescription drop-off event on Saturday was a success.

The Linden Police Department was open Saturday and collected unwanted medicine, as well. Linden Police Chief Scott Sutter said the medicine collected in Linden was not officially weighed, but was a substantial amount.

"The residents were proud that the police department was taking proactive steps against drug abuse," said Sutter.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | COURTESY OF FENTON POLICE DEPARTMENT

The Fenton Police Department collected 54 pounds of unwanted prescription and over-the-counter medicine on Saturday.

He added that many said it was a good opportunity to get rid of the pills in a safe manner.

Last September, Americans turned in 242,000 pounds (121 tons) of prescription drugs at nearly 4,100 sites operated by the DEA and more than 3,000 state and local enforcement partners.

The initiative addresses a vital public safety and public health issue. Medicines that languish in home cabinets are highly susceptible to diversion, misuse, and abuse.

Statewide, police departments collected about 6,500 pounds of unused medication on National Take Back Day

►Police seek assistance from Oakland County Sheriff Office

Valley has experience with Fenton Area Schools as her 16-year-old daughter, McKenna, attends Fenton High School while her 8-year-old daughter, Ella, attends State Road Elementary School.

Valley is aware of the multiple challenges that parents face in Fenton. From the realignment of the sixth graders to the new full-day kindergarten program, she expects to learn a lot very quickly.

Daniel Carter also won a seat with 388 votes, putting him at approximately 23.18 percent of the total votes. Phillip Price was very close with 376 votes (22.46 percent). Charles Colombo had 258 votes (15.41 percent). James Shaw had 208 votes (12.43 percent).

LAKE FENTON SCHOOL BOARD

Two newcomers and one former school board member were elected to serve on the Lake Fenton board of education.

Larry Godlewski and Christopher Fletcher came in with the most votes, with 598 and 544 respectively, for the two available four-year seats. Results are unofficial.

Former school board member David Foerster, who was appointed to temporarily serve in Stan Bragg's seat until June trailed with 204 votes. Newcomer Carrie Dershem received 305 votes.

Christopher Fletcher

Former school board member Kristi Ocenasek, who sought to serve for the remainder of Bragg's seat was elected. She ran unopposed and received 685 votes. There were two write-in votes.

Thomas Broecker, operations manager/deputy clerk for Fenton Township, who oversaw the election said 1,150 registered voters out of a total of 12,500 (9.2 percent) voted at the school on Tuesday. Approximately 450 absentee ballots were received by the township.

Godlewski, 40, is a research engineer at the Ford Research and Innovation Center in Dearborn. He is also president of the Lake Fenton Little League, which now has 330 players.

Upon learning of the election results,

Godlewski said he was very excited because he really enjoys doing things for the kids.

"Every decision of the board affects the kids," he said.

Godlewski and his wife, Kim, have an 11-year-old son, Gavin, and a 9-year-old daughter, Taylor.

As a new school board member, Godlewski will be focusing his attention on understanding how a school board functions and to be trained properly. He believes it's important, considering the cuts that schools are finding necessary, to understand what money is being allocated and to where.

Since the board is in the process of updating all of its policies, Godlewski said he is glad that he can contribute to that. "I'm really excited about being more involved. I've always been a volunteer."

Godlewski fully supports the teachers; however, he would like to see more interaction between the teachers and the board. He would even like to sit in on some classes and see firsthand how the school system functions.

Fletcher, 38, is the director of engineering and technical service at IRM-CO. He and his wife Sarah have four children, Caleb, 15, Jacob, 12, Abigail, 10 and Matthew, 7. "We have one in every building," Fletcher said. "It makes it interesting."

As a rookie, Fletcher acknowledges that training is necessary. "There will be some hard things to deal with, as well as good things," he said. "It will be a little bit of an overload. I'll take it in stride."

The budget is the most pressing issue right now and he knows there is much concern of where the cuts will be made. "We'll spend some time and look at where our dollars are being spent," he said.

Fletcher and Godlewski met through their children, and their daughters are good friends. "I'm really looking forward to working with the board members," he said. "It will be both rewarding and exciting."

LINDEN SCHOOL BOARD

At 8 p.m. on Tuesday, Linden Election Commission Chairperson Anne Mahnke, of Linden, rings the official poll station bell saying, "Hear ye, hear ye, the polls are closed." This is her responsibility by law. The last resident to cast his vote at Faith Baptist Church in Linden is Daniel

Larry Godlewski

Drew, who tries to vote in every election, and be moderately informed for each. For him, the school board election is the most important.

Although polls were officially closed at the time, it is unknown who will fill the one open seat on the Linden Board of Education. In the running are Steven Losey, Marty Rymarz and John Walsh.

Because all of the candidates were write-ins, official results can only be counted by the Board of Canvassers, according to a spokesperson at the Genesee County Election Division. The Board of Canvassers will count the write-in votes, and determine if an incorrectly spelled name counts for the candidate.

By law, the canvassers have up to seven days according to the Genesee County Clerk's office to announce official results for write-in candidates, but results will likely be known by late afternoon on Wednesday.

GENESEE COUNTY DISTRICT LIBRARY MILLAGE PASSES

With all 169 precincts in Genesee County reporting, 15,827 (57.3 percent) residents cast votes in favor of the library millage. The number of "no" votes was 11,801 (42.7 percent). A total of 27,628 votes were cast.

With the passing of the levy, a new additional millage of 0.25 mills (25 cents on each $1,000 of taxable value, on all property subject to taxation in the library district, until 2016 will be in place.

The purpose of the increase is for continuing the same level of public library services as currently provided by the district.

If you look just a little deeper in your photo archives, you might also find a picture of you and your children, your mother and you, and her mother with her, that could be placed in a trio of frames as an honor to three generations of mothers.

Mothers who enjoy getting flowers might really appreciate a new twist on a traditional theme. Since flowers do speak the language of love, you can express your own personal feelings about your mother by sending a particular flower. Mother's Day ranks second only to Christmas in the purchase of flowers, according to the Society of American Florists.

Of flowers purchased for Mother's Day, 40 percent are cut flowers, 37 percent are outdoor bedding and gardening plants, and 22 percent are flowering and green houseplants.

♥ Generations of Love ♥ Happy Mothers Day ♥

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | SALLY RUMMEL

Your own treasured photos can make a thoughtful, sentimental gift for Mother's Day. Rachel Herstein, of Billmeier Camera in Fenton, put this three-generation photo collection together for her own mother.

love, but other herbs and flowers "speak volumes" about the special relationship you share, and can be placed together in custom baskets to express those feelings.

"Pansies express 'thought' and lavender means 'devotion,' said Kathy Mathews of Heavenly Scent Herb Farm in Fenton. "You can actually send a message to your mom through the flowers you choose, and we can help you pick just the right expression."

Custom-made, giant hanging baskets that combine unique colors, textures and "drapes" make a thoughtful gift, as well as unusual floral varieties, such as scented geraniums — with fragrances from lemon to nutmeg and peppermint.

For mothers who love having flowers in the garden but aren't up to planting, a very personal, thoughtful gesture would be to purchase annual or perennial flowers and plant them as part of the Mother's Day gift.

Jewelry is another traditional Mother's Day gift that can be as thoughtful and sentimental as the family relationship itself.

"Mother's Day is all about tradition," said Chip Beltnick, of Sawyer Jewelers in Fenton. "Jewelry pieces representing mothers and families are a 'rainbow of color,' depending upon the birthstones that represent each child. We can also custom design a special piece that will be like no other."

Many of the popular "life story" charm jewelry pieces, available locally at Sawyer Jewelers, Mos' Art Jewelers, Medawar Jewelers and Eclections, include Mother's Day charms. Moms of all ages also enjoy diamonds, gemstones and other pieces of traditional jewelry, hand-selected for her.

Whatever gift you choose, keep in mind that most moms don't appreciate a gift of a household appliance, which implies "work," but they still love a handmade gift from their child. A sentimental gift like this only slightly edged out jewelry and flowers on a survey of 300 mothers conducted by wishlist.com. Spa and massage pampering came in next, followed by a getaway vacation.

Being together with family on Mother's Day is still the most important fantasy of mothers everywhere, but a gift to show your love is always appreciated.

Merriam Webster defines poker as a card game where players bet that their hand is higher than the other players and that "the player holding the highest hand at the end of the betting wins the pot."

Birch attributes the genesis of poker to the movie "Rounders" and the success of Chris Moneymaker. Starring Matt Damon as a professional poker player, the movie exposed mainstream America to the possibility of playing poker, full time.

Moneymaker then turned that fantasy into a reality by winning an online tournament that bought his way into the World Series of Poker. Starting with $40 as an entry fee in the online tournament, Moneymaker won the World Series and earned $2.5 million. It was one of the first times that an unknown poker player defeated a slew of professionals.

"You can sit down and win either by chance or skill and get that rush every time," said Birch.

Online poker is a major component of the poker's popularity said Birch. As a serious player since early 2004 and card dealer, Birch said online play was "essential to being good."

But online poker may no longer be an option for players. The Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act declares that online poker is illegal and has shut down major web sites such as Pokerstars.com and Fulltiltpoker.com. Online poker's future is unclear for the moment.

As both a serious player and card deal-

"Poker is math, discipline, and pattern recognition. Combine that with hard work and determination and anyone can win."

Derek Birch, Legends of Poker organizer

Poker lingo

Bet — The amount of chips wagered during a round.

Bluff — Betting a big amount of chips while having a low hand. The idea is trick other players into thinking you have the bigger hand.

All-in — Pushing all your chips into the middle, frequently without any rounds of betting. Luck and the fate of the cards determine if a player doubles their chip count or loses it all.

Charitable gambling

Gambling in public, outside of a casino in Michigan, is generally unheard of. Legends of Poker is allowed to conduct tournaments through the charitable gaming license that is given through the state of Michigan. The license holds that a percentage of the earnings must be given to a charitable organization and is the only avenue for qualifying businesses to gamble legally.

er, Birch said that he is seeing more live play — that is, more people physically getting together and playing the game.

Starting poker as a hobby is an easy investment. At minimum, interested players need cards and poker chips. Chips vary in price depending on what material they are comprised of. Players can also invest in tables specially built for the game. For those interested in testing their skills against local players, Legends of Poker hosts tournaments every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Buy-ins are $30. Legends is located at 3235 W. Thompson Rd. in Fenton Township.

For those who are still skeptical of the game, Birch sees valuable other benefits to playing beyond a big wallet.

"More than anything, it's all about pattern recognition. Most players would make great FBI analysts because players are so focused on other people and the cards."

HOT LINE: WATER DEPARTMENT

"I agree. It is definitely time for the Water Department to be audited. I know for a fact that I do not use the same amount of water where I live as I do where I work and yet my water bills are exactly the same? I also know of empty businesses and homes that have been charged $130 or more quarterly even though no water was used. At some point, we need to stop being robbed!"

HOT LINE: TEACHERS

"Teachers did not create the culture our children live in today, broken homes, custody battles, poor nutrition, lack of sleep, reading disabilities, etc. I could go on and on about all the reasons a child could fail in school, but you want to blame it all on the teachers. I can't wait until all the good teachers, who pay thousands to maintain their teaching licenses, decide they've had enough of Michigan's abuse and take jobs in states begging for their experience. Then, see what you have left to teach your children."

Holly, Linden split Metro League doubleheader

By Al Zipsie

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden — Linden had won five straight and Holly won its first six games of the season. Both were hoping to continue solid streaks against each other in a twinbill on Monday.

But both teams had to settle for a split. Holly won the opener 12-2, but Linden bounced back with a 6-5 win in the nightcap.

"This team is funny. They are a good group of kids, you just never know which team will show up," said Linden coach Steve Buerkel. "It builds some character. Every time they have their backs to the wall, they come back. After losing the first game, we had to get the split."

In the nightcap, the Eagles (4-2, 7-5) broke a scoreless game with five runs in the bottom of the third. With one out and the bases loaded, Dillon Nash hit a three-run double. Mitch Juhl then chased home Nash with a single and eventually scored on a sacrifice.

In the fourth, Holly got on the scoreboard with an RBI-single by Matt Beckner. Linden's Josh Hoeberling then relieved Luke Tunningley in the fourth after he gave up a lead-off walk. Matt Beckner chopped a base hit up the middle to get Holly on the scoreboard. With the bases loaded, the Eagles came up with a double play. But the Bronchos loaded the bases again and David McNeely brought in three runs on a batted ball that had two errors on the play. Max Lambert followed with an RBI-single, tying it up at 5-all.

Linden scored the game-winning run in the bottom of the fourth. Linden's Bryce Benedict hit a leadoff single, and Hoeberling followed with a hit-and-run single. Benedict scored on Tunningley's fielder's choice grounder, putting Linden up 6-5.

"The hit-and-run was fun," Hoeberling said. "It was a good game. The team has had some bad times, but we have been able to come back."

Pitcher Cas Guzdziol starred for Holly in the first game. He scattered five hits

Bronchos, Eagles draw even

►Holly's Skopek scores two second-half goals forcing 3-3 tie

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com

Linden — If a tie can feel like a win, the Holly varsity girls soccer team may have experienced just that on Monday night.

Trailing 3-1 against the defending Metro League champions, the Bronchos scored two goals during the final 10 minutes of the contest, earning a 3-3 draw against the Linden Eagles.

The Bronchos can thank Kayla Skopek for that. She scored both goals, forcing the draw.

The first one came after she missed her initial shot, but the rebound came back to her. She then pounded that ball into the net, closing the gap to 3-2 with about seven minutes left in regular time.

Then, about three minutes later, she scored again. This time, Nicole Rombach sent a cross to her, resulting in her shot and the game-tying goal.

"When I went for that (first) goal, she blocked it at first," Skopek said. "I had to get it. I was so thirsty for that goal."

"Whoever it was that crossed it to me, I was happy they did. It was awesome. I'm so happy I got those goals."

"We were down and it showed a lot of heart. The team never gave up," Holly coach Mike Steibel said. "I was concerned how we would do facing adversity like that. They kept at it, played hard and good things happened."

The contest had its share of thrills after that goal. The Eagles probably had the best chance to score after Skopek's second goal. Linden's Mary-Kathryn Fiebernitz, who had two goals earlier in the contest, took a shot with about five minutes remaining, but the attempt was saved by keeper Ellie Curtis.

The draw keeps Holly at 1-0-1 in the Metro, while the Eagles fell to 0-1-1, already in trouble in the Metro League chase.

Holly took the early lead in the first half. Olivia Smith took a shot that hit the crossbar but bounced right back to her for a rebound goal. The Bronchos led 1-0.

Fiebernitz, who sprained her ankle a day earlier in practice, responded with the game's most entertaining and athletic goal. Off a corner kick from Sam Thorton, she attempted a bicycle kick for a goal from about 15 yards out. The teams went into the break tied at 1-all.

Both teams had ample scoring chances to break the tie in the second half, and Linden eventually did. With about 28 minutes left, Thorton was sent a ball from Jordan Sargent resulting in a semi-breakaway and a goal from about 18 yards out. About nine minutes later, the Bronchos were called for holding in the box during a

Linden boys track squad performs well at MSU invitational

The Linden varsity boys track and field team is getting better with each event — particularly Ted Parcher and Kyle Fisher.

The duo helped lead the Eagles to a sixth-place finish at the Michigan State Invitational.

Parcher, a freshman, has been on a tear, and remained on that tear at Michigan State, taking first place in the 100 (10.90) and in the 200 (22.40). In both cases, he earned personal bests.

Meanwhile, Fisher also earned a first, posting a personal-best distance of 147-foot-9 in the discus. He also placed fourth in the shot put (49-6 1/4) and tied for fifth in the high jump (5-10).

The pair also helped relay teams to fifth-place performances. Fisher teamed with Kyle Susalla, Kevin Baker and Andrew Lucky to tie for fifth in the 1,600 relay (3:35.90), while Parcher teamed with Luke Belmore, Taylor Anderson and Lucky to take fifth in the 400 relay (45.0).

Two others finished with individual top-six performances. Baker had two of them,

Linden bats prove too much for Holly

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden — Apparently, Katie Berlin and her Linden varsity softball teammates were seeing the ball pretty well on Monday.

The team collected 29 hits in less than 10 innings of play, leading to a doubleheader sweep of Holly. Berlin went 4-for-4 with four runs scored, leading the Eagles to a 14-3 victory in the opener in just five innings. In the nightcap, Berlin had two more hits and drove in three runs in the Eagles' 11-1 five-inning victory.

"We hit really well today," Berlin said. "We had a lot of contact, we all got on base and were cheering each other on. It was nice to see your spirits rise up."

"I've been hitting pretty good all year, but this was one of my better days."

"Katie Berlin has been hitting all year, and so has Tori, but the last couple of games the middle of our lineup has picked it up — Maija (Satkowiak, Kaitlyn) Dunleavy and (Katelyn) Webster," Linden coach Gordon Jamison said. "That's where a lot of our run production was tonight."

The Eagles' bats were the story all night long, as Linden never trailed. In the opener, Berlin singled to start the bottom of the first and scored on a single by Satkowiak after her hit was booted. An RBI-ground out by Katelyn Webster made it a 2-0 lead for Linden.

The offense never stopped. Consecutive singles by Berlin, Tori Davis, Satkowiak, Webster and Dunleavy sparked a four-run third, making it a 6-0 lead. Satkowiak singled in Berlin, who doubled, for the first of two runs, in the fourth. The second scored when Satkowiak stole home.

Finally, a six-run fifth created the mercy rule. Taylor Wilson doubled and Savannah Weaver singled, both scoring on wild pitches. An out later, Julie Guckian walked and Berlin and Davis followed with singles. A wild pitch scored one run, and Satkowiak's sacrifice fly scored another. Consecutive RBI-singles by Webster and Dunleavy ended the game.

Holly scored a run in the fourth on an RBI-single by Hannah Steigerwald. That plated Chelsea England, who doubled.

Linden, Fenton split twinbill

By Al Zipsie

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden — It was completely two different types of games, but in the end Linden and Fenton split a Metro League baseball doubleheader Friday.

In the opener, Linden won a quick-played pitchers' duel 2-0. The Tigers won the second game, which was full of miscues, 11-9.

Fenton pitcher David Lenzi was strong on the mound in both games, yielding only six hits over 8 2/3 innings. Lenzi got the loss as he and Linden's Tyler Benedict both went the distance in the opener. Linden's Benedict had a four-hit shutout to notch the win. The Eagles had only one hit before the bottom of the sixth, but they got three safeties in the sixth to score the game's only three runs. Scott Lunn doubled and scored on Luke Tunningley's single. Dillion Nash had a single, scoring Tunningley. Benedict held Fenton in the last at bats for the shutout.

"Tyler Benedict threw very nicely," Linden coach Steve Buerkel said. "Both pitchers were very good and it could have went either way."

In the second game, Lenzi came on relief in the fifth inning with one out. He got the win, only allowing a double to Benedict in the final inning. While Lenzi held Linden in check, the Tigers took the lead for good with runs in the top of the sixth. Ryan Surface walked and then Chad Schupbach ripped a triple to the gap in right center. The throw to third went wild and Schupbach scored, giving Fenton an 11-9 lead.

"I love the pressure, and don't let anything get in my head," said Lenzi. "My arm hasn't fallen off. I am always ready to go. It is better to look down (on the league standings) than to try and play from the down-up."

"We just weren't hitting the ball in the first game. It happens. Ninety-eight percent of the time that would be enough for a pitching win."

"David threw only 74 pitches in the first game," Fenton coach Chad Logan said. "He is typically on the back end of the starts, we needed the game so we went to our whip.

"In the first game their kid (Benedict) threw a great game. That was as fast as a complete game I've seen played in high school baseball. We came out on the short end of the stick in the first game, and on top in the second. It was a good team effort to come back after being down 4-1 in the second game. It was a big clutch hit (by Schupbach)."

"The second game was a little sloppy. They were early and we were late," Buerkel said. "After we fell behind, (relief pitcher) Dillion Nash was rolling pretty well, we had a chance but fell short when all was said and done."

In the second game, Linden's Scott Lunn and Tim Cook scored for a 2-0 lead. In the top of the second, Fenton's Kyle Jenkins beat out a throw for an infield hit, which scored his brother Derek Jenkins, who had doubled. Linden then went up 4-1 with another pair of runs in its second. A Tyler Castro single scored Brandon Pudduck. Castro scored on a close play at the plate on a Lunn RBI-single. Linden led 4-1.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | SCOTT SCHUPBACH

Linden's Scott Lunn (right) slides back into third base, while Fenton's Chad Schupbach tries to tag him.

Fenton responded with four-run innings in the third and the fourth, taking a 9-4 lead. The Tigers went ahead 5-4 on Schupbach's RBI-single. Derek Jenkins reached on an outfield error, scoring Schupbach. A Ryan Delecki sacrifice brought home Jenkins. They added four more runs in the fourth. The key batted ball was a single and a twobase error off of Derek Jenkins' bat, sparking the lead.

Linden used three Fenton errors to score four runs in the bottom of the fourth, cutting the margin to 9-8, but that's as close as it would get. Schupbach's triple would give the Tigers the insurance runs they needed in the sixth.

The Blue Devils took just five innings to earn the 20-6 win. Mitch Kirk pitched shutout relief, and got the win. Offensively, Cory Pierce had two hits and three RBI, while Jim Lyons hit a three-run double. Allor had two RBI. Devin Evans and Kyle Felix had two hits each.

GOLF

► Fenton 157, Brandon 153: Fenton's Jake Foguth shot a 36 at Goodrich Country Club, earning a tie for match medalist honors. Alex Gerber carded a 38, while Alex Payne had a 40. Kevin Berry carded a 43.

through six innings and fanned 10.

The Bronchos had a six-run third inning breaking the game wide open. The big blow was a three-run double by Guzdzio.

Holly (2-2, 8-6) led at one time 9-0 before Linden scored a pair of runs in the bottom of the fifth. The Bronchos scored three more runs in the sixth for the mercy rule. Brent Smiles finished with two hits for Holly. The Eagles were hurt by eight errors.

"We need to show up focused. We have to be in for all 14 innings," said Holly coach Matt Parker. "A split each game is not going to be enough for a shot at the end of the league."

Both return to Metro League play Thursday. Holly travels to Fenton, and Linden is at Clio.

corner kick, resulting in a penalty kick. Fiebertz took it and scored easily. Linden led 3-1, and were controlling the game at the time as well.

"That's what (assistant coach) Ryan (Ford) said, 'Allow one goal and you give them hope.'" Linden coach Kevin Fiebertz said. "There were a few other balls we could've polished off, but defensively it wasn't a very good day."

The Bronchos didn't fold, responding with the two goals during the second portion of the final half, and now remain in the Metro hunt.

"We wanted it bad because we want to win the Flint Metro League this year," Skopek said. "We needed this (tie) because we have Fenton next. We want to be ahead of everyone. We are thirsty. We want to win it."

Fiebertz thinks the spring weather has hit his team hard.

"We tried a different lineup again today. We are trying to find something that gave us the spark last year. So far it hasn't happened," Fiebertz said. "Again, fitness is a big issue and I think it has a lot to do with the five games that were cancelled. Everyone is a little behind, and it's showing in our play."

Linden returns to action at Clio today at 4:30 p.m. Holly has a pretty tough task today, traveling to Fenton for a key Metro contest at 6:45 p.m.

BATS

and Davis walked. Satkowiak capped the game with an RBI-single.

In earlier innings for Linden, Berlin hit a two-run double and Webster hit an RBI-double. Grantner also chipped in an RBI-single.

On the mound, Paige Harwood was strong, tossing a four-hitter and striking out eight. After a hit batter and two wild pitches to start the first inning, she got the next three batters to strike out without the run scoring.

LINDEN

taking fourth in the long jump (20-3 3/4) and sixth in the 400 (53.0). Mark Wright placed fifth in the 1,600 (4:37.20) with a personal best time.

"The competition was as good as we've seen all year, and the boys came away with some hard-earned places," Linden coach Nick Douglass said.

The girls also competed with seven earning personal bests.

Kristyn Resseguie improved her time in both hurdle events, with her time of 50.24 seconds in the 300 hurdles being good enough for sixth-best in Linden history. Mayce Varacalli and Danielle Starr placed in the top 10 in the 800, and Lexi Downes had a shot put throw of 31-6 1/4. Mariah Lengyel, Kate Tucker and Cassidy Dolby each had time drops in the 3,200.

Holly's only run came in the fifth inning. Wohlfeil singled and eventually scored on an infield error off of Alyssa Booten's batted ball. Steigerwald followed with a single, but a strike out ended that threat.

Linden is 2-2 in the Metro and 6-4 overall.

"We have improved a whole bunch since last year," Berlin said. "We were pretty down last year because we were a new, young team. But now we are at the point where we want to be and it's nice."

Linden hosted Fenton if weather permitted on Tuesday. Holly hosted Swartz Creek as well.
