

STORY: CITY COULD
LOSE $363,000

“So the city would lose $363,000 if the personal property tax were eliminated. Here’s a more realistic way to say the same thing. The over-taxed businesses in Fenton would save $363,000 that is stolen from them each year by a ridiculous tax that makes no sense.”

— Steven

“Leave it to the city of Fenton to only view the tax loss as a problem for them. Never mind that it’s been a problem for businesses forever.”

City cries ‘fowl’ over family’s pet chickens

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | SHARON STONE

Olivia Bossardet and her mother Malissa are hoping they can get Fenton City to amend an ordinance so they can continue to raise chickens in their backyard.

Mother and daughter plead case with Fenton city officials

Olivia Bossardet, of Fenton, shows off some of the eggs her hens laid this week.

“For many families it gives a sense of security to walk out your back door for a food source.”

Fenton — An 11-year-old girl and her mother received mixed reactions when they requested Fenton City Council to amend an ordinance that would allow them to continue raising chickens in their backyard. Ordinances can be, and are amended, from time to time.

Olivia Bossardet presented her case, with a tri-fold poster board, to council members during their work session on Monday, with her mother, Malissa Bossardet’s support.

The Bossardets were advised to seek the city council’s input after they made their case at a recent planning commission. The planning commission would need direction from city council to look into the ordinance.

The 10 chickens became known to the city by a complaint from someone walking by their house.

A 39-year-old Fenton Township woman is fighting a ticket she received for not having her family’s dog licensed. The woman, who asked to have her name withheld due to her pending court case, said she was shocked to learn that she is facing a misdemeanor in district court.

The woman said this past summer, a man wearing jeans and a T-shirt knocked on her door. When she answered, he asked if she owned a dog. Her two old dogs were by her side barking. The man wore a badge, carried a clipboard

Wednesday was Student Count Day for schools in Michigan. Another Student Count Day will take place in February. What makes the fall Count Day so important is that 90 percent of state funding that a school receives is based on the attendance of students that day. Here is a summary of unofficial results of the number of students counted in schools in the tri-county area and how it will affect them.

Holly Township man fights red tape to keep property

By Tim Jagielo

tjagielo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

Holly Twp. — A bad mortgage has cost a Holly Township resident his health, his finances, and probably his home. Resident Timm Smith has become a poignant example of a mortgage industry fraught with confusion and problems, compounded by a weak Michigan economy.

Since 2006, Smith has been fighting to keep his land, a 20-acre parcel located off South Holly Road, inside the township.

A maze of litigation and bureaucratic red tape has been in motion since 2009, as the township attempted to block Smith from living on the property they believed it owned, and Smith arguing to keep the property his home sits on. "They had no business coming after me, taking my land," said Smith.

The 20 acres of property are divided with a 10-acre center section and two five acre sections on either side of the larger section.

The point of contention is the 10 acre center section, where Smith's home is located.

The problems began when Smith broke his back, and refinanced the mortgage on 10 acres of the 20 acre parcel where his family resided in order to make the payments. After two years, Smith suffered a stroke and fell behind in payments. Although he is on the property, he has not paid on it in recent years.

The mortgage company foreclosed on Smith in May of 2008, eventually gifting a deed for 10 of the 20 acres, back to Holly Township in November 2009.

Smith argued that both the township and Oakland County have only a full 20-acre parcel listed, and the township can't be given only part of that property. Because Smith owns 10 of the 20 acres free and clear, he said he would need to give permission to split up the 20 acres, and give 10 to the township, according to land control laws.

Smith claims the township would not communicate with him to solve the matter. He expected the township to give him back the 10 acres he had mortgaged. After they were gifted the property, the township went to work putting up trespassing signs on the 10 acres he had mortgaged, changing the locks on his home and outlying buildings. Smith was living in a tent on one of the five acre parcels he owns free and clear.

In the fall of 2010, he sued the township for $750,000, and lost with a summary judgment on Sept. 14. Oakland County District Court Judge Colleen O'Brien threw out his lawsuit and six other motions at once. Smith's legal counsel said that summary decision was illegal, and the judge was required to answer to each individual motion his team filed.

Rachel Bissett, attorney for Holly Township, said that the linchpin of the township's legal victory was, at least in this decision, a matter of missing deadlines. Smith filed for suit more than two years after being foreclosed upon, more than a year after the legal deadline to do so.

Bissett also said that splitting the property up in the mortgage is not common, but also does not invalidate the deed given to the township. Smith said the property was divided as such because of a land contract with his family back in the '90s, and the banks kept using those lines with their mortgages.

This week, Smith's attorney filed an appeal for the Sept. 14 decision, and his group is now preparing for more legal battles in the coming weeks. Just as Smith was going to get his day in front of a jury on Oct. 20, the township attorney has filed for another summary hearing, on Oct. 19.

Even closer, Smith fears the property he actually owns could be stripped from him as early as Oct. 12, as the township will seek clarification on the property that Smith resides. Bissett said the township has no claim to his 10 acres, and the hearing on Oct 12 is to get in writing that the township owns the 10 acres deeded to them.

Smith's attorney is seeking a stay on both upcoming dates, so that he can get his day in front of a jury. "I have to get this in front of the people," he said.

Bissett said she is working on moving forward with getting the township the property it has been deeded. Though she works to wrangle the property from under Timm Smith, she admits it's a difficult and unfortunate situation. "There's nothing that changes the fact that those are sad stories including the Smiths," she said. "It's of course, sad."

SMART SOLUTIONS

1 Bye-bye jiggly doorknobs

Remove the loose screws from the doorknob and dip them in clear nail polish. Let them dry for about a minute, then screw them back on. The sticky polish acts as an adhesive that makes the screws and your doorknob stay firmly in place.

2 Break your key off inside your lock?

Before you call the locksmith, apply a dab of superglue on the broken edge of the free piece. Next, slide it into the keyhole and press firmly against the stuck half. Let dry for 3 minutes before removing the whole key.

Fenton couple enjoy life with 24 grandkids

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

With 24 grandchildren, Mike and Julie Gatz, of Fenton, have enough second-generation offspring to make four basketball teams and four cheerleaders. However, Julie is more concerned about keeping up with birthdays than she is keeping score.

Summary

► A Fenton couple is making memories for their 24 grandchildren, ranging in age from 5 weeks to 21 years old.

At the beginning of each year, she sits down with a calendar in hand and carefully marks in red all of the birthdays and anniversaries that take place each month in her family. "I'm so afraid I'm going to forget a birthday," said Julie, who is the mother of nine grown children. "I check it every week for birthdays, and try to tuck in the dollars that represent each child's age. Their parents always say the kids are thrilled to have dollars in their birthday cards."

"Their parents say they like to come to our house because it's peaceful and quiet."

Pay your 'fair share'

Am I the only one who is sick to death of listening to the fools in the White House chronically parrot the vague phrase 'the rich need to pay their fair share?'

This statement bothers me greatly, for a number of reasons.

The number one reason is that the sole purpose of the murky 'pay their fair share' agenda is to incite class warfare by pitting the 'haves' against the 'have-nots.' Because the more you incite class warfare, the less the people will focus on the realities of a bungling administration that is criminally inept in dealing with the economic situation that America is mired in.

The number two reason is that 'pay their fair share' is, in actuality, a social agenda to punish those who, through their own work ethic and aggressive risk-taking, have become successful. It is patently illogical to tell Americans that if they risk everything and fail, they must bear the consequences alone. But if they succeed, they must share their success with those who took no risk.

The third reason is that even the most superficial research will show that the wealthy are already paying their 'fair share.' They pay a higher rate, and they pay it on more income. A 2010 Associated Press story reported that the 10 percent of U.S. households with the highest incomes pay 70 percent of all federal income taxes. That 70-percent share means that the remaining 90 percent of American households cover only 30 percent of federal income taxes.

This year, the 237,000 U.S. households reporting more than $1 million in income paid an average of 29.1 percent in federal taxes, while households with incomes between $50,000 and $75,000 paid an average of only 15 percent — about half.

In 2009, some 45 percent of American households — nearly half — paid no income tax at all. These are the same households that want us to 'pay our fair share' so that they can continue to live off our tax money in the form of more government entitlement programs.

It is irony in its purest form that the Obama administration's agenda is to increase our already criminally high tax rate, in order to continue to add to the ranks of those that live off the government giveaways. This enables those who live off government giveaways to again vote Obama into office, in order to continue to live off our tax dollars through government giveaways.

I leave you with a famous quote by a great orator: 'If you tell a big enough lie and tell it frequently enough, the people will believe it.' Adolph Hitler — 1941.

Now get out there and get to work so that you can 'pay your fair share.'

Fenton schools seeks input

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

The Fenton Area Public Schools Board of Education and administration are launching a strategic planning process in order to develop a new five-year improvement plan. Parents, teachers, students, district staff members and community members are encouraged to participate in meetings that are scheduled to address this issue.

"The purpose of this initiative is to help us develop new goals and strategies to offer an excellent education for our students, while using scarce public education resources in the most effective and efficient way," said Superintendent Timothy Jalkanen.

The strategic planning process aims to delineate the role of the board of education, the superintendent and the staff in strategic planning. Aligning board priorities with school improvement processes and using data to set goals and make important decisions are some of the benefits that Jalkanen and the board of education expect to meet with these meetings.

"As school board members, we have to make the best decisions in these challenging, changing times."

Lynn Hopper
Fenton Board of Education president

"As school board members, we have to make the best decisions in these challenging, changing times," said Lynn Hopper, president of the board of education. "It is essential that we use data and stakeholder input to make decisions and to set priorities for our district."

Dr. Olga Holden and Scott Morrell, of the Michigan Association of School

Boards, will be the consultants who will work with Fenton schools for the next three months to complete the strategic planning process.

For more information on when the strategic planning meetings will be held, call the Fenton administration at (810) 591-4700.

Cider Mill Crossing sells for $410,000

► Mobile home park company purchases Tyrone property

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

Tyrone Twp. — Sun Communities purchased Cider Mill Crossing mobile home park in Tyrone Township for $410,000 on Wednesday, Sept. 28 at a public auction in Lansing. The initial bidding price for the mobile home park was $1.9 million but failed to secure a bidder in the first auction.

Tyrone Township Treasurer David Kurtz said the purchase puts the township in a difficult situation. Currently, $1,334,540 is owed to Livingston County because of delinquent taxes from Cider Mill Crossing, which is located at Old U.S. 23 and Parshallville Road.

Sun Communities will have to pay the back taxes in order to run the mobile home park. If the company defaults and cannot pay back the taxes, Tyrone Township will have to pay the $1,334,540 back to Livingston County.

"If we can make Cider Mill Crossing profitable for Sun Communities, I think we'll be OK," Kurtz said.

Livingston County has been operating Cider Mill Crossing since the spring of 2010, after the last owner defaulted on its loan payment.

The Tyrone Township Board of Trustees considered bidding on Cider Mill Crossing at its last meeting. However, the board decided to not bid.

Sun Communities own 58 different mobile home parks all around the country. So far, the company has been working with the township and Cider Mill residents about the purchase. "Sun Communities has asked for very minimal things so far," Kurtz said. "We requested that they meet with the residents."

A meeting is scheduled between Sun Communities and residents at the Cider Mill clubhouse on Oct. 20.

"If we can make Cider Mill Crossing profitable for Sun Communities, I think we'll be OK."

Linden's past comes to life

A record turnout of guests attended the recent historic tour at Fairview Cemetery in Linden. Speakers, dressed in vintage clothing told stories of many of the city's early pioneers, at their gravesites. Guests strolled from gravesite to gravesite, to visit with actors portraying past Linden residents. Barbara Kincade, curator of the Linden Mills and her husband David, president of the Linden Mills Historical Society were thrilled with the success of this year's tour.

last year. Superintendent Wayne Wright said although the number is unofficial at this time, the school district counted 1,864 students. The district's official count last year was 1,840.3.

Including the $490 cut from $7,671 in per pupil state funding, the school district will receive $7,181 per student. This equals $14,298,744.

Wright said, “With the cuts in funding, it is critical to schools that the number of students in a district increases.

“Lake Fenton has had an increase in student population for at least the last seven years.”

Linden Community Schools

Linden's enrollment numbers did not change from last year. According to Superintendent Ed Koledo, the unofficial count on Wednesday was 2,983. Last year's official count in the fall was 2,983.28.

Linden receives $6,846 in per-pupil funding from the state, or $20,421,618.

Koledo said, “While I would like to see our numbers grow, I am happy that it appears we did not lose students as we have for the last five years.

“Our budget assumption for this year was 2,949, based on Middle Cities predictions of that continued decline.

“Our student count has appeared to remain constant for two years now — that is a great sign we are moving in the right direction as a district.”

Fenton Area Schools

The student population in the Fenton school district has increased by 70 students since September 2010. On Wednesday, 3,544 students were unofficially counted. Last year, the Fenton school district had 3,474 students.

As a school district of choice, 486 out of district students chose to attend Fenton schools. “If there were no schools of choice, we'd be done for,” said Fenton Board of Education Vice President Nora Kryza. “This is good news.”

Despite the increase in students, the Fenton school district is receiving less per pupil funding for the 2011-12 school year than last year. At $6,846 per pupil, Fenton is receiving $24,262,224 this school year. Last year, per pupil funding was $7,316 for a total of $25,415,784.

Superintendent Timothy Jalkanen said that according to enrollment forms filled out by parents, the IB Program is the leading reason for the increase in students. Athletics, fine arts programs and the Fenton schools' facilities were other reasons listed on the enrollment forms.

“We're pleased that parents are selecting our district to educate their children,” Jalkanen said. “We hope that it continues.”

Holly Area Schools

According to Superintendent Kent Barnes, the final count won't be known until the first part of November. The student count is much lower than anticipated/ projected, he said.

Police&Fire report

IMPALA STOLEN FROM DEALERSHIP

On Oct. 3, a Fenton police officer was sent to an auto dealership in the 2500 block of Owen Road to investigate a stolen vehicle complaint. Lt. Jason Slater said an employee reported that a black, four-door 2004 Chevy Impala SS was missing from their inventory. Employees last saw the car at 6 p.m. on Sept. 26 when it was at its reconditioning center on Copper Avenue. A set of car keys is also missing. Employees were interviewed and police learned that nobody was given permission to use the car. The car's information was entered into the Law Enforcement Information Network (LEIN) as stolen.

ILLINOIS MAN ARRESTED FOR OWI

A 53-year-old Illinois man was arrested for drunk driving Wednesday night. Det. Sgt. Bill Lanning of the Genesee County Sheriff's Department said a motorist called 911 at 11 p.m. to report a possible intoxicated driver on southbound U.S. 23. An off-duty sheriff's deputy spotted and followed the suspect vehicle. An on-duty deputy initiated a traffic stop to the silver Dodge Avenger on southbound U.S. 23, near Owen Road. The driver blew a .15 on the preliminary breath test. He was arrested for operating a vehicle while intoxicated. He was lodged at the county jail overnight.

EMPLOYEE FINDS MISSING WALLET IN SHOPPING CART

A 60-year-old Rose Township woman told Fenton police that while she was shopping at a department store on Owen Road she made a purchase at the store's pharmacy on Sept. 30. She continued to shop and realized that she did not have her wallet. Later that day, police called the woman to follow up on the case and learned that an employee found the woman's wallet, minus only $20 cash, in a shopping cart, in the parking lot.

BROTHER ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT

On Sept. 30, a deputy with the Genesee County Sheriff's Department was sent to a home in the Eastview mobile home park in Fenton Township to investigate a domestic assault complaint. Det. Sgt. Bill Lanning said a 22-year-old Fenton Township man was arrested for assaulting his 20-year-old sister. He was lodged at the Genesee County Jail. The sheriff's department is seeking a warrant for his arrest.

EX-BOYFRIEND ARRESTED FOR ASSAULT

On Oct. 4, a deputy with the Genesee County Sheriff's Department was sent to the Lake Fenton Mobile Home Park to investigate a domestic situation. Det. Sgt. Bill Lanning said a 32-year-old woman reported that she was assaulted by her 34-year-old ex-boyfriend. The man was arrested and lodged at the Genesee County Jail, pending arraignment.

MSP Groveland Post to close to public

►Troopers at the Flint post to cover Holly and Rose townships

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Beginning Sunday, Oct. 16, the Michigan State Police — Groveland Post will be converted to a detachment of the Flint post and it will no longer maintain public lobby hours. The Groveland post is one of 19 former MSP posts that is being converted to a detachment.

Detachments are facilities where troopers can start and end their shifts, store property/evidence and meet with the public, by appointment.

This change is part of the MSP's new regionalized post structure, which was first announced in March. Fourteen posts will be closed permanently.

This week, Col. Kriste Kibbey Etue, director of the MSP, announced that the department would begin operating under the new regionalized post structure. Statewide, the MSP is reducing the number of posts from 62 to 29.

The regional policing plan, which helps the department achieve its $17.7 million general fund reduction for fiscal year 2012, allows the department to continue its mission and achieve necessary cost savings. There will be no lay-offs.

"The Michigan State Police is committed to providing public safety statewide and troopers will remain in all 83 counties," said Etue. "The regional policing plan provides increased trooper visibility while relying less upon traditional bricks and mortar post buildings, making the department more mobile and flexible for responding to emerging community public safety needs."

Summary

►The Michigan State Police is enacting its new regionalized post structure this month. Troopers covering Rose and Holly townships will be working out of the Flint post beginning, Oct. 16.

Sgt. Tim Routowicz, who has been stationed at the Groveland post, will be working from the Flint post when the change occurs. Sgt. Lynn Walker was transferred to the Lapeer post.

Routowicz said residents in Holly and Rose townships would not notice any change with the restructuring as very few visit the post, located at Grange Hall Road and Dixie Highway. Most residents contact MSP by phone. Residents calling the post at (248) 634-4882 will hear a message as to how to contact MSP.

To contact the MSP 24-hours a day, call 1-800-525-5555 or 911. The Flint post is open to the public Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

and had information to hand out to residents who had unlicensed dogs.

He wrote the woman a ticket and told her that if she went up to the Genesee County Animal Control on Pasadena Avenue in Flint and paid the $40 late fee within 10 days, the ticket would be dropped.

Having a busy schedule, the 10-day window passed but the woman paid the $40 prior to her scheduled court date. Joined by two other residents facing dog license tickets, she pleaded not guilty before the judge and was given a pretrial date for later this month. Surrounded by others with various court appearance tickets, she said, "I was shaking like a leaf. It was awful.

"I don't know whether to laugh or cry. You just forget. I got no reminder from the vet."

The woman has lived in the same home for 11 years and has never had someone approach her about having a license for her dog. She had no idea that she could spend up to 90 days in jail if she did not show up for her court hearing.

There has been a dog law on the Michigan books since 1919. Dogs more than 6 months old must be licensed through the county in which they live. Owners who don't obtain a license for their dog face misdemeanor citations, fines, court costs, and even jail time, per state law.

According to state law, a dog owner must pay the license fee provided for in their respective county budget. Each county board of commissioners sets license fees in the county budget at a level sufficient to pay all the county's expenses of administering this act as it pertains to dogs.

For a spayed or neutered dog, the license fee, if any, shall be set lower than the license fee for a dog that is not spayed or neutered. In addition, the license fee may be set higher for a delinquent application than for a timely application.

Stephenie Lazar, of the Genesee County Animal Control, said the amount collected through dog license fees is not sufficient to cover expenses at Animal Control and is supplemented with money from the county's general fund.

According to the Livingston County Treasurer's Office, which oversees dog

Per state law, all dogs must be licensed when they reach the age of 4 months. The owner then has 30 days to provide proof of age and current rabies shot for their dog in order to purchase a license at the regular $7 or $20 fee in Genesee County. Failure to purchase the license, at that time, would result in the $40 delinquent license fee.

licenses, dog owners should think of the license as an insurance policy for their pet, especially if the pet wanders from its yard and becomes lost.

Some residents might believe that a rabies tag is sufficient. A rabies vaccine is not only sufficient, it is required. A dog license can be traced 24/7 and is the best protection for a pet. In Livingston County, more than 100 pets per week are returned by neighbors through tracing the dog license number.

Dog owners must license a dog immediately upon taking possession. If it is already licensed in Michigan, the tag can be transferred.

A representative from the Genesee County Treasurer's Office said the report for the number of dog licenses issued in 2011 is still pending. As of Nov. 15, 2010, however, Genesee County had issued 52,116 dog licenses. License fees go toward the general fund.

The license inspector job is a summer position and workers apply for the job from ads placed in newspapers. The county also offers the seasonal position to laid-off county workers. Inspectors are necessary to comply with the law.

Some might wonder why cats are not licensed. The representative from the treasurer's office said some counties require cats to be licensed but due to the number of cats in Genesee County, the task would be too difficult to manage. She said the main reason dogs are licensed is for rabies control.

Is it a tax?

Some believe a license is just a tax for dog owners. A dog license is not a tax. It is legal proof of ownership and provides you and your pet specific legal rights.

Renaissance Festival

By Tim Jagielo • tjagiello@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

For one more day, the dirt paths of "Hollygrove" were overrun with gypsies, pirates, magicians, and sword-carrying youths, to wrap up the 2011 Renaissance Festival in Groveland Township last Sunday.

Attendees were treated to colorful shops and people, with a variety of comedic and acrobatic performances. "Use your outside voices," demanded performer Travis Dewey during his "Knotty Nauticals" pirate performance, to his audience of around 90 people.

Through the chatter of the visitors and the calling venders and performers, the sound of Old-World drums drifted over the air that also carried the aroma of smoked turkey legs, and the sound of a Celtic band.

April Hendryx of Westland brings her two daughters to the festival every year and they always dress in costume. Crystal, 9, wore fairy wings, and Autumn, 6, wore a princess costume. April's costume costs around $350, and she adds to it every year.

Although Michigan residents will have to wait a year for their medieval fix, festival workers will pack up for the next festival in another state. "It's crazy for people like us that travel," said Scott Bridges, of Georgia, who works the barrel ride for children. Next, he'll be on to North Carolina or Texas.

A. What may have happened is when you were loading the dryer you may have left the lint filter out? Small items can fall into the lint chute and get clogged in the blower wheel stopping the motor. Look down the chute, if nothing can be seen you will need a service call. Always leave the filter in when loading the dryer.

Malissa is a single mother of three and lives on Adelaide Street, near High Street. They moved to this home about four years ago and have made several improvements. She has received two beautification awards from the city and her property has been featured in the Open Gate Garden Club's garden tour.

The Bossardets did not know there was an existing ordinance prohibiting them from raising chickens when Malissa was given four chickens, two of which were roosters, about 18 months ago.

She wanted to do something positive with her children and believed the organic eggs would be more nutritious for them. One of her children is autistic and being able to provide fresh, organic eggs is a benefit.

Malissa said raising the egg-laying hens also provided extra income for her children. They sell a dozen of eggs for $3 and each of her children received $1 in return. They now have 10 chickens, two of which are the two original roosters.

"For many families, it gives a sense of security to walk out your back door for a food source," said Malissa.

An existing ordinance in Fenton says that the keeping of animals, not normally considered domesticated, including, but not limited to, pigs, horses, sheep, cattle, poultry, reptiles and wild, vicious, and exotic animals, is prohibited in all zoning districts.

After city hall received a complaint about the noise and smell, they began to investigate. Malissa said she came home one day to see a copy of the ordinance posted on her front door.

Olivia told council members that the chickens are a part of their family. They make great pets and they bring the family closer together. The eggs are tastier and more nutritious than those bought at the grocery store. They do not waste gas driving to the store to buy eggs. The eggs are organic, free of antibiotics and free of arsenic.

Olivia found, through research, that eating organic foods could reduce the amount of toxins consumed on a daily basis by 80 percent. She and her mother agree that hens are quieter than most dogs.

Malissa argued that existing ordinances in the city already provide sufficient protection to residents from possible problems with chicken keeping. The existing ordinances require animals to be confined, forbid offensive animal odors, require property to be maintained and require noise to be limited. She said they

"I like Olivia's efforts, but I agree with the mayor."
Tim Faricy
Councilman

meet those requirements.

Malissa and Olivia hope that the city will write a new or amend the existing ordinance so that egg-laying hens are allowed. Malissa said this urban trend is gaining popularity and cities, such as Traverse City and Ann Arbor, allow hens in backyards.

Mayor Sue Osborn said that she has heard complaints about the chickens. She believes that people do not want to live by chickens. She told Malissa and Olivia that they were lucky that their neighbors have not complained.

Councilwoman Dianne North said the matter deserves a second look. Raising chickens teaches kids to care for animals. While growing up in Fenton, North said she had neighbors who raised chickens and rabbits.

Councilman Brad Jacobs, likewise, said the idea of backyard chickens is worth looking into.

Councilwoman Cheryl King said with city living comes closeness to neighbors. She suggested that some of the Bossardets' neighbors might not be complaining to the city about the chickens because they like the family. "They might have a problem (with it), but don't want to say anything," King said. She feels bad about the Bossardets' situation, however, she believes they should have checked first to see if raising chickens in their backyard was allowed.

Councilman Benjamin Smith is against making any changes in the ordinance and wanted the practice of raising chickens in backyards "nipped in the bud," now.

Councilman Tim Faricy said council members need to think of the entire city. "Not everyone is like the Bossardets," he said. "I like Olivia's efforts, but I agree with the mayor." He suggested that the city do a little research by contacting other cities that permit this sort of practice and see what the success rate is.

Malissa said she would welcome any of the council members over to her house so that they could see first hand how clean, quiet and beautiful her property is.

When asked what she would do if the city forces her to get rid of their chickens, Malissa said she would cross that road when she gets there. She is very interested in working with the city to create an ordinance, where raising hens is possible and regulated by the city.

The mayor said she would discuss the matter with Brad Hissong, the zoning administrator, and address the situation at the next meeting.

24 GRANDKIDS

Ranging in age from 21 down to a newborn, the Gatzas' newest grandchild was born just five weeks ago, on Sept. 2. "There aren't even any twins in the bunch," Julie added.

While most people only hope and dream for a couple of grandchildren, the Gatzas have more than their share. But they take the time to enjoy each one. All but two grown children live nearby in Michigan, with one in California and one in Chicago. "Our daughter in California comes home every summer for three weeks with her kids," said Julie.

Julie tries to spend special time with each one, putting time with grandchildren ahead of substitute teaching in area schools, which she has done for the past 15 years. "I sub every day I'm able to during the school year, but if I know I'm needed to baby sit, that's my first priority," she said. A former physical education teacher, her organizational skills help structure their days around playing outside, healthy snacks and meals.

"We don't have any of the gaming systems at our house and we shut off the TV as much as we can," said Julie. "We try to sit down with the kids after dinner and just talk about school, what they like to do, what are their favorite things to eat and who are their closest friends. Their parents say they like to come to our house because it's peaceful and quiet." The Gatzas' two-bedroom Fenton house is usually where the family gathers for all holidays and get-togethers, even with only about 1,400 square feet of living space. "When we decided to downsize our home about five years ago, what sold us on this home was the finished basement," said Julie. "We can actually sleep quite a few people here with a bedroom downstairs, our guest room upstairs and a blow-up mattress."

Mike, known affectionately as "Grumpy" to his grandkids, brings out his culinary skills by making homemade bread and cookies. He's also meticulous about the yard, creating a comfortable play area for the kids. "Mike keeps our lawn so nice that the kids love to play outside in our yard," said Julie. "It actually feels good on your feet."

They've also been adventurous enough to take their brood camping in their fifth wheel, taking turns, so that each child gets a chance to camp with their grandparents. They camp at nearby Holly Recreation Area so that the parents can come out after work and spend some time.

Most of all, the Gatzas are hoping to make memories for their grandchildren. They have family reunions in nearby parks every summer, and movie nights in the colder months that always involve popcorn. Most of their activities center on the outdoors, because that's how Mike and Julie grew up. "I was raised on a farm, and Mike grew up playing baseball," said Julie. "We enjoy taking the kids swimming in the summer and sledding in the winter."

"Sometimes I get a little teary, because it brings back so many memories of when our own kids were little."

judge the Michigan awards, and likewise, members of the Michigan Press Association judge other states' contests.

The dedication and efforts of the Times' staff paid off handsomely when they took second place in the premium category of General Excellence for weekly newspapers. A third-place award was received for the category of Design and a first place award for Lifestyle Pages.

Publisher Craig Rockman said, "It's certainly gratifying to have outsiders confirm what we already know — that week after week the staff at the Times produces award-winning newspapers for our residents and communities. The recognition is appreciated."

Topping the list of accomplishments is Sports Editor David Troppens, who received five individual awards. His stories, "Brancheau takes lead, holds on to win title," and

David Troppens

"Corcoran follows dad's footsteps, becomes a champ" took second and third place in the category of Sports Writing. Troppens also took a second-place award in the category of Sports picture, first place in Sports Column and first place in Sports Coverage.

Sharon Stone

Assistant Editor Sharon Stone received a second-place award in the SpotNews category for her story "Judge: Mother failed to protect her child."

Staff Reporter and photographer Tim Jagielo received two awards in the Feature Picture category, second place for his photo "Dancing with the stars — of the future" and "Hats for Rory."

The Times also received a second and third place award for the Special Sections, Fall Sports and Shop Local.

News briefs

THE UPS STORE IS OPEN ON COLUMBUS DAY

The Fenton location of The UPS Store will be open to handle postal and shipping needs on Columbus Day, Monday Oct. 10. "We are pleased to extend our great customer service to those that have a need to get their packages and documents shipped on the Monday holidays as well as every other day of the year," said Les Beare, owner of the store. The UPS Store is located in the Silver Pointe Shopping Center, 17195 Silver Parkway.

OPTIMISTS REQUEST DONATIONS FOR KIDS IN THE MIDDLE

Fenton Area Optimists have identified a need at local middle schools, and have officially launched their 'Threads for Kids' program. Principals in the Fenton, Lake Fenton and Linden districts say there is a need for new socks, T-shirts and gym shoes for kids in the sixth- through eighth-grades. There are many students who also need used, new or gently used jeans, hooded sweatshirts, jackets and coats. During the months of October and November, 'Threads for Kids' receptacles will be located either inside the main entrances or in the main offices of Fenton's AGS Middle School, Linden Middle School and Lake Fenton Middle School. Members of the Fenton Area Optimist Club hope parents, students and other members of the community will help fill the white barrels with the items needed.

VARICOSE VEINS

You may be suffering from varicose veins, a chronic disorder that affects nearly 20 million people in America. Varicose veins form when veins are not properly returning blood from the lower legs to the heart. This causes veins to bulge and the skin to discolor, causing cramping, burning and even bleeding.

"Varicose veins are caused from an insufficiency of the valve," said Thomas Shuster, D.O., of the Integrated Vascular Vein Center of Michigan. "If you don't receive treatment, the veins will get worse."

Genetics, obesity and a sedentary lifestyle are leading factors of varicose veins. Shuster, who has treated more than 17,000 patients, said about 40 percent of his patients undergo procedures because of appearance and 60 percent visit him because of pain. Varicose veins are a chronic disorder that causes more pain as time passes.

However, because of new advances in medical technology, doctors can address varicose veins with little pain to the patient. Shuster's most common procedure involves needles, although other methods have been used.

Jeff Stone, owner of Sears Hometown Store of Fenton, underwent a procedure for varicose veins recently. Having faced constant numbness and everyday pain, Stone now rarely feels any aches in his leg, if ever. "I recommend the procedure to anyone with varicose veins," he said. "The constant pain and nightly aches are now gone."

Stone said his doctor used lasers to shut the varicose veins down, which quickly alleviated most of his pain. The worst part of the procedure for him was receiving shots to numb his leg. "It was a quick procedure. I was in the office for less than an hour," he said. Another option would have been to strip the vein out completely, removing all of the pain.

Within a day, Stone was back at work with few side effects from the procedure. According to national reports, nearly 20 percent of males over age 18, and 30 percent of females over age 18, live with varicose veins. Shuster said females are more likely to have varicose veins because of child bearing, hormonal influences and waist circumference.

Some preventative techniques for varicose veins include increasing exercise and walking, weight loss and avoiding long periods of standing or sitting.

For more information, call the Integrated Vascular Vein Center of Michigan at (810) 606-1660.

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN
To: CYNTHIA L. YOUNGQUIST
and THOMAS E. YOUNGQUIST

You are hereby notified that the plaintiff named above has filed a lawsuit or other legal action against you. The complaint, which is also served upon you, states the nature and basis of the legal action.

Within 40 days after October 9, 2011, you must respond with a written answer, as that term is used in chapter 802 of the Wisconsin Statutes, to the complaint. The court may reject or disregard an answer that does not follow the requirements of the statutes. The answer must be sent or delivered to the court, whose address is Clerk of Circuit Court, Sauk County Courthouse, 515 Oak Street, Baraboo, Wisconsin 53913-2416, and to Daniel W. Stolper, Stafford Rosenbaum LLP, plaintiff's attorney, whose address is 222 West Washington Avenue, Suite 900, P.O. Box 1784, Madison, Wisconsin 53701 1784. You may have an attorney help or represent you.

If you do not provide a proper answer within 40 days, the court may grant judgment against you for the award of money or other legal action requested in the complaint, and you may lose your right to object to anything that is or may be incorrect in the complaint. A judgment may be enforced as provided by law. A judgment awarding money may become a lien against any real estate you own now or in the future, and may also be enforced by garnishment or seizure of property.

If you require the assistance of auxiliary aids or services because of a disability, call 608.355.3287 and ask for the Court ADA Coordinator. Dated: October 4, 2011.

NOTICE This firm is a debt collector attempting to collect a debt. Any information obtained will be used for this purpose. If you are in the Military, please contact our office at the number listed below. Notwithstanding, if the debt secured by this property was discharged in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy proceeding, this notice is NOT an attempt to collect that debt. You are presently in default under your Mortgage Security Agreement, and the Mortgage Holder may be contemplating the commencement of foreclosure proceedings under the terms of that Agreement and Michigan law. You have no legal obligation to pay amounts due under the discharged note. A loan modification may not serve to revive that obligation. However, in the event you wish to explore options that may avert foreclosure, please contact our office at the number listed below. Attention: The following notice shall apply only if the property encumbered by the mortgage described below is claimed as a principal residence exempt from tax under section 7cc of the general property tax act, 1893 PA 206, MCL 211.7cc. Attention Brian Whitson aka Brian Keith Whitson and Buffy L Whitson, regarding the property at 3052 Ketzler Drive Flint, MI 48507. The following notice does not apply if you have previously agreed to modify the mortgage loan under section 3205b. 3205a, 3205b and 3205c do not apply unless the terms of the modified mortgage loan entered into were complied with for one year after the date of the modification. You have the right to request a meeting with your mortgage holder or mortgage servicer. Potestivo & Associates, P.C. is the designee with authority to make agreements under MCL 600.3205b and MCL 600.3205c, and can be contacted at: 811 South Blvd., Suite 100 Rochester Hills, MI 48307 (248) 844-5123. You may also contact a housing counselor. For more information, contact the Michigan State Housing Development Authority (MSHDA) by visiting www.michigan.gov/mshda or calling (866) 946-7432. If you request a meeting with Potestivo & Associates, P.C. within 14 days after the notice required under MCL 600.3205a(1) is mailed, then foreclosure proceedings will not commence until at least 90 days after the date said notice was mailed. If an agreement to modify the mortgage loan is reached and you abide by the terms of the agreement, the mortgage will not be foreclosed. You have the right to contact an attorney and can obtain contact information through the State Bar of Michigan's Lawyer Referral Service at (800) 968-0738. Dated: October 9, 2011. Potestivo & Associates, P.C. 811 South Blvd. Suite 100 Rochester Hills, MI 48307 (248) 844-5123 information may be faxed to (248)267-3004, Attention: Loss Mitigation Our File No: 11-48944 Ad #15878 10/09/2011

Attention: The following notice shall apply only if the property encumbered by the mortgage described below is claimed as a principal residence exempt from tax under section 7cc of the general property tax act, 1893 PA 206, MCL 211.7cc. Attention Michael Boudreaux, regarding the property at 7327 Rory St., Grand Blanc, MI 48439. The following notice does not apply if you have previously agreed to modify the mortgage loan under section 3205b. 3205a, 3205b and 3205c do not apply unless the terms of the modified mortgage loan entered into were complied with for one year after the date of the modification. You have the right to request a meeting with your mortgage holder or mortgage servicer. Potestivo & Associates, P.C. is the designee with authority to make agreements under MCL 600.3205b and MCL 600.3205c, and can be contacted at: 811 South Blvd., Suite 100 Rochester Hills, MI 48307 (248) 844-5123. You may also contact a housing counselor. For more information, contact the Michigan State Housing Development Authority (MSHDA) by visiting www.michigan.gov/mshda or calling (866) 946-7432. If you request a meeting with Potestivo & Associates, P.C. within 14 days after the notice required under MCL 600.3205a(1) is mailed, then foreclosure proceedings will not commence until at least 90 days after the date said notice was mailed. If an agreement to modify the mortgage loan is reached and you abide by the terms of the agreement, the mortgage will not be foreclosed. You have the right to contact an attorney and can obtain contact information through the State Bar of Michigan's Lawyer Referral Service at (800) 968-0738. Dated: October 9, 2011. Potestivo & Associates, P.C. 811 South Blvd. Suite 100 Rochester Hills, MI 48307 (248) 844-5123 information may be faxed to (248)267-3004, Attention: Loss Mitigation Our File No: 11-49073 Ad #15845 10/09/2011

NOTICE This firm is a debt collector attempting to collect a debt. Any information obtained will be used for this purpose. If you are in the Military, please contact our office at the number listed below. Notwithstanding, if the debt secured by this property was discharged in a Chapter 7 Bankruptcy proceeding, this notice is NOT an attempt to collect that debt. You are presently in default under your Mortgage Security Agreement, and the Mortgage Holder may be contemplating the commencement of foreclosure proceedings under the terms of that Agreement and Michigan law. You have no legal obligation to pay amounts due under the discharged note. A loan modification may not serve to revive that obligation. However, in the event you wish to explore options that may avert foreclosure, please contact our office at the number listed below. Attention: The following notice shall apply only if the property encumbered by the mortgage described below is claimed as a principal residence exempt from tax under section 7cc of the general property tax act, 1893 PA 206, MCL 211.7cc. Attention Thomas E. Tate and Sonia M. Tate, regarding the property at 4432 Vassar Rd., Grand Blanc, MI 48439. The following notice does not apply if you have previously agreed to modify the mortgage loan under section 3205b. 3205a, 3205b and 3205c do not apply unless the terms of the modified mortgage loan entered into were complied with for one year after the date of the modification. You have the right to request a meeting with your mortgage holder or mortgage servicer. ## STATISTICS ON CHILDREN'S VISION

According to the Eye Care Council, "Eighty percent of learning in school is visual." This is one of the many reasons that the doctors at Fenton Vision Center recommend children have their first eye exams before kindergarten.

The American Optometric Association (AOA) also recommends first exams at age six months, then at three years, then before kindergarten. I agree with this approach as well. The following are some facts from the AOA.

- Twenty-five percent of kindergarten students have a vision problem.
- Eleven and a half percent of teenagers have undetected or untreated vision problems.
- Thirty to forty percent of all high school graduates have a vision problem.
- Sixty percent of individuals enrolled in literacy programs have a vision problem.
- More than thirty percent of special education children have a vision problem.

We often see children and young adults with vision problems that went undetected until the individual was behind in school. Many school districts provide vision screenings for children; however these should not replace a comprehensive examination by an optometrist.

Our pediatric examinations are extremely thorough. We make every effort, not only to gather all appropriate data from children, but to also minimize their anxiety. Let's face it, "bedside manner" is critical in examining kids.

If Rachael Ray, Paula Deen and Alton Brown are your TV stars of choice, then you're likely a "foodie" who enjoys all the recipes, restaurant reviews and revelry of the Food Network — one of TV's most popular specialty channels about food and cooking.

The term "foodie" has become such an everyday term in the English language that it now has its own place in the dictionary. "Foodie: a person having an enthusiastic interest in the preparation and consumption of good food."

Michigan has developed its own "foodie" culture, attracting new restaurant concepts and even the attention

Summary
► A local woman is organizing "Foodie" road trips, to visit some of the places seen only on TV channels such as the Food Network.

Give droopy lids a

Lift

The right eye makeup tips can do wonders to wake them up and erase years in the process.

Step 1. Define Your Brows

Choose powder shadow the same color as your eye-brows. Apply with an angled brush, using light strokes so the color isn't too heavy.

Step 2. Line Lids

Rim upper and lower lids with a black or dark gray powder shadow. To really lift lids, be sure the top line is thicker than the bottom—line it first, and use the leftover shadow on lower lashes. Both lines should meet at the outer corners and blend slightly upward.

Step 3. Contour Lids

Apply a medium shade of shadow (brown, slate, or mocha) in the outer half of the crease of your eyelid only—this helps create a wide-eyed look. Then use a white or ivory highlighting shadow on the brow bone to draw attention up and away from droopiness.

Step 4. Finish with Mascara

To open eyes more, curl lashes and brush on two coats of black mascara.

7 vitamins for HAIR LOSS

Aside from stress and pollution, one of the leading causes of hair loss is vitamin deficiency. Normally, people who suffer from hair loss also suffer from vitamin deficiency in their diets.

1. Biotin (Vitamin-H)

Biotin is part of the B complex family and has been proven to prevent hair loss.

2. Iron

Lack of iron in the body not only causes anemia, it also contributes to hair loss.

3. Vitamin-B

Eating food with vitamin B content will increase hair growth and reduce hair loss.

4. Zinc

Can reverse any scalp problems once brought back into your diet.

5. Anti-Oxidants

Vitamin A, C and E are commonly taken to have beautiful skin and prevent hair loss and boosts further hair growth by flushing out the toxins in the body.

6. Protein

Commonly found in meat and poultry, protein is yet another vital component of the hair. Actually, it composes 90 percent of the hair's structure.

7. Pantothenic Acid

Hair follicle starts to fall out upon lack of this nutrient in our body – it also results in constipation and other ailments.

Healthy World

Health and beauty tips from around the world.

Got flabby arms?

◆Tone flabby arms by using these four simple tips

One of the best ways to tone flabby arms is to continue year-round with a steady, moderate diet that you can maintain, and to persist with general strength training and cardio workouts. Prevention is the most important element so start now and keep your pace throughout the year so next summer's sleeveless season will have you rushing in with both feet (and arms) first.

Here are some great ways to tone up those flabby arms and get you to feeling confident enough to wear that strapless dress without a second thought:

1 Swimming is one of the best ways to give all of the muscles in your arms the tone you desire, especially those trouble spots such as the undersides of your upper arms. Reduce arm flab by swimming using different strokes every other day for 3 weeks and take pride in your toned arms.

3 A steady diet of bicep curls and tricep extensions – In addition to the more toning exercises including swimming and the lateral raises above, these are some of the most powerful ways to tone and build muscle. While many women are concerned that doing curls like these will add bulk to their arms, with light strength like this you're not going to build much bulk but rather can achieve the sculpted toned look you crave.

2 Get 3-pound or

5-pound weights; stand with your legs apart in line with your shoulders and slowly lift both arms up, and then down to your sides again, breathing steadily with each rotation. When you lift, your shoulder go just a bit above shoulder height and then down to your sides. Include these lateral raises in your work out routine 2-3 times per week.

4 Make sure that your diet contains an appropriate caloric level—chances are, if you have excess fat on your arms, it is not a problem related to your arms alone. Most women who have flabby arms also have parts of their body that show the fruits of a less-than-steady healthy diet. While arms, the hips and thighs are the first places to show for many women, keeping your arms toned involves far more than exercise targeted toward that area—it involves keeping body fat to a minimum in general.

Piloxing

PILOXING is an exciting, new inter-disciplinary program that is attracting diehard followers including Hollywood celebrities and international stars.

PILOXING uniquely mixes Pilates and boxing moves into a fat torching, muscle sculpting, core-centric interval workout, guaranteed to whip you into shape, using a class format that's both fun and challenging.

PILOXING is the brainchild of Swedish dancer and celebrity trainer Viveca Jensen and the culmination of her mission to physically and mentally empower women through fitness. At the core of PILOXING is the principle that feminine is powerful and it aims for women to attain a sleek, sexy and powerful self-image.

PILOXING blends the power, speed and agility of boxing with the beautiful sculpting and flexibility of Pilates. Add to that the fun and sexy dance moves that reflect Viveca's personality.

In addition to Pilates and boxing movements, the exercise incorporates the use of weighted gloves which add to the workout by toning the arms and maximizing cardiovascular health.

The secret behind the cucumber

Have you ever seen women with cucumbers over their eyes, laying down in some luxurious spa? Ever wonder what, if anything, cucumbers do for you, other than making you look like part of a salad?

Beauty specialists say cucumbers help alleviate puffy eyes. Well, not actually the eyes, but the skin (bags) beneath and around the eyes. Since cucumbers are more than 90 percent composed of water, they have a hydrating effect. But experts don't always agree on the actual value. Some say it's from the vegetable's water content, while others say cucumbers reduce puffiness because they are colder than the skin.

FOODIE

of Food Network's own Mario Batali. Batali, the star of Iron Chef America, restaurateur in New York City, Los Angeles and Las Vegas and cookbook author, has chosen Northern Michigan as his summer home for the past 10 years. When he's not in Manhattan, he and his family enjoy not only the beautiful views of Grand Traverse Bay, but also the bounty of Michigan cherries, blueberries, peaches, plums, white fish and morels that make great entertaining for this popular Food Network chef.

Even Food Network star Giada DiLaurentis has a Michigan connection. Her husband, Todd Thompson, is a Michigan native.

If you've ever eaten at Zingerman's Roadhouse or Krazy Jim's Blimp Burger, both in Ann Arbor, you have your own Michigan connection to the Food Network. Local foodies have frequented these popular restaurants long before the Food Network put them "on the map."

Good Eats' host Alton Brown proclaimed Zingerman's Roadhouse macaroni and cheese to be "The Best Comfort Food in America" last year during his series on "America's Best." Food Network's Guy Fieri gave his own "thumbs up" to Krazy Jim's Blimp Burger, featuring this college town hamburger joint in his crazy on-the-road hit TV show "Diners, Drive-ins and Dives" in 2008.

Other Michigan eateries that have been selected to host Fieri include Rosie's Diner in Rockford (home of the old Bounty Towels commercials featuring Rosie the waitress), Clarkston's Union Bar & Kitchen, Joe's Gizzard City in Potterville, Polish Village Cafe in Hamtramck, The Fly Trap in Ferndale and Union Wood Shop in Clarkston.

Another mid-Michigan favorite, known for its gigantic portions, Tony's I-75 Restaurant in Birch Run was featured on Sandwich Paradise, hosted by the Travel Channel.

Detroit's two famous Coney restaurants, Lafayette Coney and American Coney, will both be featured on The Travel Channel's Man v. Food, airing on Nov. 4. Foodie Road Trips, organized by Fenton resident DeAnn Alexander, is planning a bus trip to both locations on Jan. 15.

"People want to experience what they see on TV, by tasting, seeing, smelling and feeling some of these places in person," said Alexander, who is bringing the foodie culture a bit closer to home by offering Foodie Road Trips by bus this fall.

organizer of Foodie Road Trips

A self-described foodie, Alexander specializes in culinary marketing and "Foodie Fun," promoting the local food industry.

The first Foodie Road Trip will be Friday, Oct. 21 to the state capital of Lansing, which has developed its own gourmet street food culture. After Alexander scoped out the local restaurant scene in Lansing, Food Network Canada and The Cooking Channel's Eat Street spent a day shooting at Trailer Park'd Slow Fast Food — a mobile eatery featured on her upcoming "Luscious Lansing Day Trip." Using only locally grown meats and produce, Trailer Park'd's menu changes daily. Interested diners can follow their menu and schedule on their Facebook page.

The trip will also feature a visit to Sweetie-licious Bakery Cafe, winner of a number of recent national pie championships, Food Network Amazing Pie Challenges and more. The final stop will be at the Michigan State University Creamery, for ice cream and cheese. She's also planning an overnight Chicago Chocolate Tour and Cupcake Tour in April, giving local foodies an opportunity to tie into these very successful Chicago tours — each a guided walking and tasting visit to select shops, bakeries and cafes in downtown Chicago.

"It's all about the quality of the food and restaurant experience," said Alexander. "It's what people who watch the Food Network and the Food Channel want to see."

Fenton residents Matt Cooper and Doug St. Souver are the tri-county area's closest connections to the Food Network. Both Food Network Challenge Champions, these local foodies are also instructors in the Culinary Department at Mott Community College.

MEALS

Jian Bing (Beijing Crepe)

Known as the Beijing pancake, the Jian Bing is the Chinese equivalent of an American breakfast sandwich. This fried and sweet meal is usually cooked by street vendors and costs less than one American dollar.

INGREDIENTS:

2 T. millet flour
2 T. milk
½ t. vegetable oil
1 t. water
1 T. Chinese black bean sauce
½ t. Asian Chile pepper sauce, or to taste
1 egg, beaten
2 whole crackers
½ green onion, sliced
Tablespoon of torn fresh cilantro leaves

PREPARATION:

1. Whisk together millet flour, soymilk, and vegetable oil in a bowl to make a batter the consistency of heavy cream. Add a teaspoon of water to thin the batter, if necessary.
2. Mash the black bean sauce in a small bowl with 1 t. of water to make it easy to spread. In a separate small bowl, mix the hot chili sauce with 1 t. of water. Set the sauces aside.
3. Spray a large skillet generously with cooking spray, and heat over medium-low heat. Pour the batter into the skillet, and spread evenly to make a thin crepe. Cook the crepe for 1 to 2 minutes, until firm. Pour the egg evenly over the crepe. Cook an additional one to two minutes, until the egg is set. Sprinkle the crepe with green onion slices and cilantro leaves, pressing them firmly into the cooked egg.
4. Flip the crepe and spread with bean sauce and chili sauce. Place the crackers in the center of the crepe, leaving about 1/4 inch of space between the two crackers. Flip the top third of the crepe down over the crackers, flip the bottom third up, and then fold the crepe in half so the crackers are stacked on top of each other in a tidy package. Serve hot.

Hummus

A Middle Eastern staple that has become popular in the United States; hummus is a spread that is usually served with a flatbread such as pita. The dish can be served hot or cold, depending on preference. Note: Tahini is stored in a jar and can be found at grocery stores. To make your own, simply bake sesame seeds for 10 minutes and then blend them in a food processor with olive oil or vegetable oil.

INGREDIENTS:

16 oz. can of chickpeas or garbanzo beans
¼ c. liquid from can of chickpeas
1 ½ T. Tahini
2 cloves garlic, crushed
½ t. salt
2 T. Olive oil

PREPARATION:

1. Drain chickpeas and set aside liquid from can. Combine remaining ingredients in blender or food processor. Add ¼ c. of the liquid from chickpeas. Blend for 3-5 minutes on low until thoroughly mixed and smooth.
2. Place in serving bowl, and create a shallow well in the center of the hummus.
3. Add a small amount (1-2 T.) olive oil in the well. Garnish with parsley (optional).
4. Serve immediately with fresh, warm or toasted pita bread, or cover and refrigerate.

Grilled apple and cheese sandwich

Cheese and apples may be the last two items you would expect to be in a sandwich. But don't let that stop you from trying it. Using a variety of apples and cheeses can lead to a different culinary experience every time you make this sandwich.

INGREDIENTS:

2 slices whole wheat bread
1½ t. olive oil
½ apple peeled, cored and thinly sliced
1/3 c. shredded cheese

PREPARATION:

Preheat a skillet over medium heat. Lightly brush one side of each slice of bread with the olive oil. Place 1 slice of bread, olive oil side down into the skillet, and arrange the apple slices evenly over the top. Sprinkle the cheese over the apple, and then top with the remaining slice of bread, olive oil-side up. Cook until the bread is golden brown, then flip the sandwich over, and cook until the other side is golden brown and the cheese has melted, 1 to 2 more minutes.

Biggby Coffee opens in Fenton

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

Biggby Coffee has opened its doors in Fenton, bringing its Michigan-based concept of quality coffees, teas and more to the tri-county area. Located at 235 N. LeRoy Street, next to Jet's Pizza, Biggby Coffee offers drive-thru convenience, as well as a comfortable indoor setting for customers to enjoy their favorite hot, cold or frozen beverage.

Biggby Coffee, which was founded in East Lansing 16 years ago, prides itself on offering the finest selection of coffee beans, in many different origins, blends and flavors, as well as decaffeinated. All the coffees are specialty micro-roasted, including the company's own Biggby Best Blend. There are currently 132 stores, located mostly in Michigan.

Franchise owner Kris Kildea has 17 employees on staff. They are proud of the excellent customer service they provide seven days a week, Monday through Friday, from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday, and Sunday, from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Coming from a family of entrepreneurs, Kildea chose to open Biggby Coffee after hearing one of the company owners speak at a Junior League gathering in Lansing. She chose the Fenton location because she loves the community, having visited her husband's relatives here. "It seemed like a really good fit for us," she said.

If you're not a coffee drinker, there's still plenty to love on Biggby's list of beverages and menu items. "Tea lattes have become very popular," said Kildea, who opened Biggby's on Sept. 27. Teas, blended fruit drinks in mango, banana mango, blueberry and pomegranate flavors are popular.

vors, including Caramel Apple Cider and Pumpkin Lattes. The most popular latte so far is Caramel Marvel, according to Kildea. No matter what the season, all of Biggby's coffees and teas can be made hot, iced or frozen.

In addition to beverages, Biggby's offers a wide selection of baked goods, from bagels to doughnuts, scones, muffins, brownies and more. Yogurt parfaits are another popular breakfast or snack option. For bigger appetites, "bragels," in a variety of flavors, are toasted and filled with ham, turkey, roast beef, cheese and cream cheese. Biggby Coffee also offers catering services.

Belongings makes home moving easier

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

Moving is considered one of life's most stressful moments, causing almost as much anxiety as the death of a spouse or divorce, according to many health experts.

Summary

► Belongings is a full-service re-location company founded in Duluth, Minn. that has now opened its services to the local tri-county area and beyond.

It doesn't have to be that way, according to Gina Korpela, project manager for Belongings, a company that specializes in relocations. Korpela has assembled a full-service team of transition specialists in the tri-county area, since establishing her business in July.

"We have created an entire 'moving system' that helps every step of the way, from identifying your next residence to preparing your home for sale, packing your belongings and even setting up your new residence," said Korpela, of Linden. "We can put together relocation packages for professionals, students, senior citizens and families."

Belongings, based in Duluth, Minn., has branched out into new locations, as more and more people see the need for these services.

"We cater our re-location efforts to any age group, but we have found our services to be especially valuable to senior citizens," said Sandra Wood, company president, who has been in Fenton helping Korpela set up her local market. "We understand how overwhelming a move can be, especially when someone has lived in their home for a very long time. We are advocates who will see the move through, from its beginning until the person is comfortably established in new surroundings."

Services include a free consultation for the first visit, which will establish what needs to be done to accomplish the transition — from helping a person downsize their belongings, to organizing an estate sale, selling vehicles, arranging for charity pick-ups, etc. "Our role in the move will depend upon the services a person needs," said Korpela.

Belongings has a background in senior services and housing, which provides helpful information to elderly people who need to make a transition from a long-time family home to an assisted living facility or other new living situation. "Our goal is to be an advocate for our clients, especially those who are most vulnerable," added Wood.

Korpela is currently setting up meetings at local senior living sites and getting involved with networking groups that can put Belongings in a position to help with transitions in Genesee, Livingston, north Oakland counties and surrounding areas. For more information, call (810) 348-6658.

Rose Hill Center names new doctor to clinical staff

Rose Hill Center, a psychiatric treatment and rehabilitation facility in Holly that offers a comprehensive range of programs for adults with mental illness, announced that Dr. Christina Zachar has joined its clinical staff as a psychiatrist. Ben Robinson, president of the center, made the announcement. "Dr. Zachar is an exceptional physician and brings with her substantial knowledge of mental health issues," said Robinson. As a member of the Rose Hill Center clinical staff, Dr. Zachar will be responsible for conducting psychiatric and diagnostic evaluations as well as therapeutic interventions for patients. She has specialized in behavior health for more than 15 years. She also is a staff psychiatrist at Henry Ford Health System and is a clinical assistant professor at Wayne State University.

VFW seeking students to enter scholarship contests

It's time for students to enter the VFW scholarship contests. Each year, the VFW and Ladies Auxiliary provides millions of dollars worth of awards, savings bonds and scholarships to students across the United States and overseas. The purpose is to encourage personal growth and foster a greater understanding and appreciation for America.

The Youth and Voice of Democracy chairperson, Bonnie Pray, for VFW Post 3243 in Fenton will be delivering packets to area schools.

Area students are invited to participate in the Patriot's Pen Essay Contest for sixth, seventh and eighth grades. The theme is "Are you Proud of Your Country?" The essay must be 300-400 words, typewritten in English. The deadline is Nov. 1. Applications can be printed from the VFW website at www.vfw.org or the Ladies Auxiliary website at www.ladiesauxvfw.org. Awards are given at the local, district, state and national level. The national winner receives a $10,000 U.S. Savings Bond and all-expense paid trip to Washington D.C.

The Voice of Democracy Scholarship Program is for students in ninth through 12th grade. The student must record a three- to five-minute essay on a standard cassette tape or CD. The theme is "Is There Pride in Serving in our Military?" The essay is judged on originality, content and delivery. The deadline is Nov. 1 to send a typed essay, the tape or CD and the completed application to the Post Chairman. Applications can also be printed from the VFW website at www.vfw.org or the Ladies Auxiliary website at www.ladiesauxvfw.org.

Each year, three exceptional teachers are recognized for the commitment to teach patriotism. Nominations must be received by Nov. 1 at a local VFW post or to Bonnie Pray, 11173 Runyan Lake, Fenton, 48430. Form more information, call (810) 750-1387 or visit www.vfw.org.

Don't look back

Satchel Paige, the winning pitcher and baseball diamond philosopher, gained a national reputation for his widely circulated rules for successful living. The most remembered of these was, 'Don't look back. Something may be gaining on you.'

Satchel's pitch to let the past be past was good advice. Too many of us allow yesterday's failures to steal today's joy and cancel tomorrow's opportunities.

Does this mean we're to voluntarily embrace total amnesia?

Of course not.

Some memories are positive, motivating and faith building. However, there are also events and experiences of the past that are best forgotten. When remembered, some past blunders have negative effects on us, even producing unwanted guilt, bitterness and depression. In these cases, heeding Satchel's 'Don't look back' can enable us to turn the page on negatives of the past and get on with faith filled living.

Here are some examples.

Don't look back at sins that have been forgiven.

Divine forgiveness through confession of our sins erases all guilt, assuring a clean slate for the future. When God forgives, he places the past behind us forever and turns away all accusing fingers.

Today, complete forgiveness can be difficult to grasp. Banks, the government and many businesses have access to great numbers of facts about us all. Computers store information regarding every late payment and difficulty in paying off a loan may haunt a prospective borrower for years, even though he has since cleared up the old account.

How different our Lord is. Sins confessed to Him are immediately forgiven. And no cosmic computer contains any remaining record against us.

Don't look back at defeats that get your down. Only those who have never attempted tough tasks have escaped failure. And it is far better to try and fail than never to try at all.

Don't look back at decisions that can't be changed. Some live their lives in 'if only' land, constantly second-guessing themselves, wondering how things would have turned out if they had chosen a different fork in the road, but such wishful thinking is a waste of time. God loves us and promises to meet us where we are in spite of past blunders. Responding to His love will make the past be past, the present pleasant and the future fantastic.

Don't look back at old conflicts that make you bitter. Looking back to past problems can resurrect enmities that should have long been put away. Thinking through a bitter confrontation of the past can spoil a perfectly good day.

Paul, the apostle, chose to forget the things that were past lest they hinder his present progress toward the goal of becoming what God wanted him to be.

HUNTING

it's all in the timing

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | COLIN VAN LEUVEN

Pheasant hunters and their dogs start out their day of hunting for late season pheasants.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | COLIN VAN LEUVEN

An early morning sunrise shines over this hunter in his bean field layout blind.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | COLIN VAN LEUVEN

Hunters relax when geese take a break from the action.

By Colin Van Leuven
news@tctimes.com

Fall is here and so too are the traditional beginnings of another year of hunting seasons. Bear, some small game, and youth seasons have already opened, with waterfowl scheduled to open over the next couple of weeks. Bow hunting for deer began Oct. 1. With the big box stores already starting to set out Christmas decorations, can the firearms deer season be very far off?

In Michigan, we're blessed with many varieties of small and big game that hunters can pursue each year. Most of these are hunted during the fall and winter months. Some, such as predators, crows, or turkeys, have special seasons that can run nearly year round, or take place during the spring.

With so many types of game and game birds, how are the seasons decided upon by the biologists and game managers that set the limits each year?

Waterfowl is an easy example. Waterfowl counts are taken each and every year by volunteers, and the men and women of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife (USFW) service. These surveys start at the top of the continent, and extend into Mexico. Based on these annual surveys, the USFW then decides on the allowable harvest quota, and the length of the waterfowl season and bag limits. Each state has the ability to use all of the allowable days or not, and when to start and end the seasons, somewhat. The time span generally covers the major migrations.

Most small game and big game seasons however, seem more dictated by tradition, dispersal of the young or mating seasons.

The firearms deer season has had a Nov. 15 opening day since 1925, so it has plenty of tradition, but it is also open during the peak of the rut, the mating season.

Opening day of pheasant season is still Oct. 20, which is after young birds have moved out from the hen and nest mates. Part of its tradition I miss is the 10 a.m. opening day start.

Other traditional dates are Oct. 1 for bow deer, and Sept. 15 for small game. These seem to coincide with the dispersal of family groups, or simply early fall in general.

The spring and fall turkey seasons are great examples of holding it during mating season and dispersal of the young. And in the spring, it's a teensy bit easier to get an old and wary, but love-struck tom, to come to a call.

By wrapping the seasons around mating or dispersal, biologists and game managers are using scientific animal husbandry. In one, the animals are more prone to be active and less wary during the mating season. In the other, it is less likely that hunters will shoot all of the birds or animals in an area by having them spreading out before the season is on hand.

Tradition speaks for itself, and migrations are held by the frigid hands of winter. I'll take traditions and migrations anytime, but I appreciate the scientific touch, too.

They're all good reasons to keep getting up early and going out on frosty mornings.

Catch OF THE WEEK

The Tri-County Times wants to give our readers the chance to show off the trophies they catch this season. If you have a fish worth showing off, snap a photo and bring it in or mail it to the Times office.

Zoey Dobbs, 9, of Fenton, caught this 8-inch blue gill on Aug. 20 at a private pond in Otter Lake.

Nathan Clark, 4, of Fenton, caught this 6-inch blue gill on Aug. 20 on a private pond in Otter Lake.

Trevor Wolford, 12, of Linden, caught this 5-pound, 20½-inch largemouth bass on Sept. 25 with his dad and his brother, Tyler, on Tipsico Lake, next to the big oak tree.

MSU Bavarian Apple Torte

- CRUST:
- ¾ cup + 2 t. all purpose flour
  - ½ cup or 1 stick margarine or butter, softened
  - ¼ cup sugar
  - ½ t. vanilla

Blend together flour, margarine, sugar and vanilla until a soft dough forms. Press into an 8-inch spring form pan that has been sprayed with cooking spray. Cover bottom and about 1 ½ inches on the sides of the pan to form a nice crust.

- FILLING:
- 1 8-oz. package cream cheese, softened
  - 1 whole egg
  - ¼ cup sugar
  - ¼ t. vanilla
  - ¼ t. ground cinnamon

Blend together cream cheese, egg, sugar, vanilla and cinnamon until a smooth batter forms. Pour batter onto crust.

- TOPPING:
- 1 small Michigan Ida Red Apple, peeled, cored and sliced
  - 2 t. sugar
  - 1/8 t. ground cinnamon
  - 1/2 cup sliced almonds

Combine apples with the sugar and cinnamon; toss to coat. Place the apple mixture on top of the filling. Sprinkle almonds on top of apple mixture. Bake at 350 degrees for 60–70 minutes. Cool, and remove from pan to serving plate. Refrigerate until serving.

paw's corner

Constant barking gets on neighbors' nerves

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: My dog barks and howls at everything, whether it's the lawnmower next door or the neighborhood kids playing down the street. He barks at night; he barks when we're at work. It's embarrassing, really. My neighbors have complained about it, but I don't know what to do to stop "Jellyroll" from barking.

-- Claire S., Orlando, Fla.

DEAR CLAIRE: It sounds to me as if Jellyroll is anxious about the strange noises he hears outside, and also feels anxious when you're not at home or asleep in a separate room. Separation anxiety is a very common problem in dogs. Aggression barking also is a common issue. But they can be dealt with.

To reduce separation anxiety, you must work to increase Jellyroll's confidence that you are not abandoning him when you leave his sight. One way to do this is to have him sit and stay near an exit door. Step outside the door and shut it. Does he begin to bark? Now, step inside and have him sit and stay again -- don't allow him to jump up. Repeat these steps until Jellyroll no longer howls when you step outside -- and when he doesn't howl, give him a treat each time after you come back in. This could take several sessions, so don't lose heart.

To help deal with his barking at outside noises, socialize Jellyroll further. Introduce him to one or two humans at a time, max, when they visit or when out for a walk. When a scary noise like a lawnmower sets him off, have him sit and stay and give him lots of encouragement and praise as long as he stays and doesn't bark.

There are numerous training techniques you can try, and I recommend working with a trainer to learn more and possibly get even faster results.

Career girl has issues with new hire

DEAR AMY: I am a 26-year-old "career girl" who works on a team that consists of all men in their 40s and 50s. These gentlemen have always treated me with respect. It is obvious that they value the job that I do at our company. Recently, a new team member was brought on who is also a personal friend of my boss's. This new team member, "Jon," does not treat me as a professional equal. Instead Jon gives me his busy work, talks down to me and is generally disrespectful. I feel that his pride has made it difficult for him to work with me because of my status at our company, the fact that I'm younger than he is and the fact that I'm a woman, or maybe a combination of all three. I'm only a little bit older than his daughters. How do I express to Jon that I am not his personal assistant? Because this person is also a friend of the boss's should I involve my superior or try to handle this on my own? I don't want to seem like a tattletale, but I'm harboring a lot of resentment, and I know it will only get worse if I don't confront the issue.

— Workplace Woes

DEAR WORKPLACE: You could start by never, ever, in any context, referring to yourself as a "career girl." Even reading that phrase makes me want to send you out for coffee. Your colleague can't just "give" you busy work. He can attempt to assign a task to you, but if this task isn't in your job description and if he is a recent hire, then you will have to educate him. Say, "I'm sorry, 'Jon,' but I'm going to toss this back to you. I don't handle administrative tasks for other team members." You might be contributing to this dynamic by acting like an ingenue (you certainly write like one). So unless you are auditioning for an episode of "Mad Men," then stop it. Don't make assumptions about why your colleague is behaving badly -- but respond to the behavior quickly, appropriately and professionally. As the new guy, if he has a problem with you, then he can go whine to the boss.

DEAR AMY: My husband's ex-wife continues to telephone, text and e-mail him, even after he has asked her many times not to. She walked out on the family 10 years ago, and until I came into the family, she had his ear on "kid problems." Those kids are now grown, married and have children of their own. He doesn't feel the need to discuss anything with her, yet she continues to pester him! We've been married for a year and a half. I sense the "I don't want him, but I don't want anyone else to have him either" thing going on. The children deal with her on their own terms. I think she has told them that I won't let him communicate with her and that I am the reason he "can't be civil" to her. Should I speak to her myself? What more can my husband do? He has made it clear he wants nothing to do with her! Help!

Amy Dickinson

DEAR HELP!: I suggest that you are, in fact, the reason your husband "can't be civil" to his ex. Your husband isn't a child. Surely he knows that he can "pester-proof" his life by not responding to his ex. But please remember that civility (at a polite distance) should be the goal between ex-spouses. You could mitigate some of your jealousy and also keep an eye on things by also being civil to your husband's ex.

PAUL G. DONOHUE, M.D.

To your
good health

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: Will you please discuss heart fibrillation? I take a medicine for high blood pressure. Medicines for atrial fibrillation made me wild. I also take warfarin for the fibrillation. I'd appreciate any information you have. — M.L.

ANSWER: Atrial fibrillation is one of the most common heartbeat irregularities. The atria are the two upper heart chambers, the site of origin for the electric signal coming from the heart's inborn pacemaker and producing each heartbeat. Fibrillation is a rapid twitching of the heart muscle. The atria are not contracting; they're squirming. This decreases the heart's pumping power.

More dangerously, it also leads to clot formation. Blood stagnates in the squirming atria. Stagnated blood clots. Those clots can be carried in the circulation to a brain artery, which they block. That's a stroke. That's why you take warfarin (Coumadin) -- to prevent clotting (anticoagulation). Aging, high blood pressure, heart artery disease, heart valve disorders and an overactive thyroid gland are some of the things that lead to fibrillation.

The goals of therapy are to slow the heart, establish a normal heartbeat and prevent a stroke. Sometimes, simply slowing the heart will restore normal heart pumping without ending the irregular beat. Anti-coagulation (blood thinning) is still needed.

I can't mention all the medicines used to control fib; there are too many. In place of medicines, a shock to the heart sometimes can restore a normal beat. Heart specialists also use a technique called ablation. They thread into the heart a special catheter that has the capability of creating tiny scars with radio waves or ultrasound waves or by freezing tissue. The scars form an impenetrable barrier to the renegade electric signals causing fibrillation.

ESTHETIC PARTIAL DENTURES

When some of the teeth are lost due to disease or trauma and there are healthy and sound remaining teeth, a partial denture can be good and cost effective solution. Partial dentures consist of a metal framework that fits in an around the remaining teeth. Denture teeth are added to fill the gaps where the teeth are missing. Partial dentures are strong, and fit comfortably when well-made. A huge advantage of a partial denture over a full or complete denture is that a partial denture has retention. Retention means that the partial denture stays in place when eating and talking, thanks to the presence the natural teeth that act as anchors. Traditionally, esthetics has always been a compromise with partial dentures. This means that many people don't like the looks of a partial denture in their mouth. The metal framework and the metal clasps that anchor the partial to the anchor teeth often show when the person smiles or speaks. Many people are unhappy with metal showing when they smile. I am excited about a new partial denture design process which gives us the ability to eliminate most, if not, all metal that shows. In place of metal there is now a special life-like, flexible, acrylic material that blends in beautifully and gives the partial denture the fit and retention as before without the metal smile. If you are a partial denture wearer and you are unhappy with your metal smile, ask us if this new partial denture is right for you.

Q: I am purchasing a 1988 Camaro IROC-Z and the heater fan is not working on any speed at all. Could you give me an idea as to what the cause may be and the cost? The fuses for the heater look good. Thank you

— John

A: John, This system uses a relay for high speed fan and a resistor for all other speeds. There are two fuses that operate this system. One is a 25 amp fuse labeled heater-a/c fuse in the fuse block inside the car. The other is a fusible link that is rust colored and could be near the battery or starter. You should check for power on the purple wire at the blower motor for 12 volts and ground on the black wire. If there is power and ground then you have a bad blower motor. If not, the relay for high speed is located near the blower motor and the resistor is located under the hood on the passenger side in the heater box.

Book Review

The next American Revolution

►How the American Government Stole the American Dream and How We Can Get It Back

The citizens of this country are angry. They are angry with their government and believe the promised 'American Dream' is no longer within reach. Author Michael Legault, a veteran award-winning journalist and author, in his recently released book 'The Next American Revolution,' states there is a small window of opportunity to get it back.

He writes that his message is non-denominational, one that appeals to the interest of the majority of Americans (with the exception of those who identify with the far-left, liberal-progressive cause).

In his book, Legault says that our government 'is a government ruled not by the will of the majority of Americans but by lobbyists, lawyers, and a media-controlled agenda calling for greater amounts of progressive reform, regulation, and limits on individual freedom.'

But who's at fault, he asks?

'We let it slip away; we let it happen,' he writes. 'We fell asleep at the wheel. We elected politicians from both the right and the left who bought into agendas that would slowly but relentlessly cast a shadow over the American Dream and like sheep we consented to the program every step of the way.'

Legault refers to Oligarchy, a system of government in which 'the few rule the many.' 'You can see it in the smug demeanor of a Michael Moore or Al Gore or any of the hundreds of actors or actresses as they step out of their limousines to attend the next black-tie event, celebrating themselves or attempting to save the world,' he writes.

Legault believes both the symptoms and the cures of America's ills are all obvious: less government, less spending, less regulation.

This writer proposes all is not lost. 'Fight back,' he urges. Fight back by not letting the Al Gores and the Michael Moores dictate the terms of debate, by waving off the fear stirred up by the media, by empowering a new generation of proactive business leaders who are not afraid to defend the interests of free enterprise and capitalism.

Legault adeptly explains the underlying causes of the dysfunction, which he believes is the key to avoiding the self-destructive path of this country.

The author is hosting a book signing at Fenton's Open Book, 105 W. Shiawassee Ave., on Saturday, Oct. 15, from 12 to 3 p.m.

Fenton, Linden golf teams qualify for state meets

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

The best kept secret among tri-county prep sports squads may be the girls golf teams.

The programs proved it on Thursday, earning two teams and one individual out of regional play and into state meets.

At Heather Highlands, the Fenton Tigers placed third as a team and Holly's Alex Johnson scored a 90, earning automatic state bids to the Division 2 state meet to be held at Katke-Cousins Golf Course at Oakland University on Oct. 14 and 15.

Meanwhile, the Linden Eagles will be at a state meet as well. The Eagles broke a school record and placed third at the Division 3 regional held at Forest Akers East, also earning a state bid for the second time in three years.

The Linden girls carded a score of 355, a comfortable 12 strokes ahead of fourth-place Haslett. Hastings won the event with a 336, while Jackson-Northwest was second with a 345. The top three teams in each region qualify for the state meet.

Julie Guckian, who earned match medalist honors at the Metro League meet on Monday, placed second at the regional. She carded an 82, eight strokes behind Hastings' medalist Gabrielle Shipley's 74.

Other scorers for Linden were Maija Satkowiak with an 88, Miranda Day with a 91, and McKailey Mitchell with a 94.

The Division 3 meet is at Forest Akers West Golf Course in East Lansing.

Fenton volleyball ties Metro win streak record

By Al Zipsie

dtroppens@tctimes.com

Lapeer — In her 21st year as Fenton varsity volleyball coach, Linda "Cheese" Rusaw downplays records.

She does not like to talk about her career wins, which went over 600 in 2009 and is headed (686-246-45) for the 700-win mark. She says it's the media and fans who talk about winning streaks, yet it's her teams that seem to create them. Her team is looking for a fourth straight unbeaten Metro League championship.

On Tuesday, Fenton tied its own school and league record of 35 straight Metro wins, defeating the Lapeer East Eagles 25-13, 25-15, 25-17. Rusaw guided the first Fenton team to win that many, from 1991 to 1994. Fenton has not lost a Metro match since a setback to Oxford, who is no longer a member of the league, Oct. 25, 2007.

The Tigers (6-0, 21-16) can clinch at least a share of the Metro title again with a win against Kearsley Tuesday at home. At the same time, they can break the win streak record. They can win the league outright Oct. 18 at Swartz Creek.

"We are just focused on elevating our play, winning the league undefeated," said Rusaw. "We are very solid all the way through the lineup. We have two players in their third year as starters, seniors Sarah Collier and Julie Gilbert."

The Fenton players have handled the pressure well, and follow their coach's advice to just keep getting better.

Three games, three wins on Friday night

Holly's defense sparks 20-7 victory against Lapeer West

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Holly — If defenses win league titles, then the Metro League should just give the Holly varsity football team a share its conference championship right now.

The Broncos' defense — sparked by starting linemen Jimmy Duncan, Allan Strode and Ryan Houldsworth — held the Lapeer West Panthers to just 85 yards total offense in the Broncos' 20-7 home victory against West.

The victory means the Broncos are just a Week #9 victory away from at least a share of the Metro League title, a crown the Broncos have never won since joining the league in 1969.

"That's our whole goal," Duncan said. "That's the seniors' goal, to win the league championship. It's been done only once, I think? So we want to get it for everybody because a lot of people can't say they have won it."

The defense kept West shackled up all night long, but the score was still tied 7-all at the half. However, the Holly defense forced West to punt the ball in just three plays to start the second half, and that was followed by a Holly 11-play, 72-yard scoring drive. The drive was prolonged by a West offside penalty on a fourth-and-one play. On the next play, Johnny Williams, who ran for 161 yards, went through the middle and then worked his way to the right sidelines on a 29-yard TD run. Holly led 13-7 with 4:48 left in the third quarter.

The defense allowed just one West first down on its next drive before stopping the Panthers on a fourth-and-4 play with an incomplete pass. Holly's offense responded with a 62-yard, eight-play drive that was capped with Williams' second TD drive of the game, a 13-yard scamper. Blake Ordiway made his second of two extra-points in the game, and Holly led 20-7 with 9:50 left in the contest.

West was held to negative-three yards and 21 yards on its last two drives, respectively, by the Broncos' defense. West had just six first downs the entire contest, and just six yards rushing all night long.

"We are a fast line," Duncan said about the defensive line. "We use our quickness to get in the gaps. We do our 'Ts' like we are supposed to do it. We have high energy the whole game."

Holly's defense has allowed just 49 points in the Broncos' last five games.

"They are awesome," Holly coach Ryan Culloty said. "They are phenomenal. Our defense has really carried us throughout the year. The offense has been playing well, but the defense has been playing light's out. They have been playing at an elite level since Week #3."

Holly scored first, on its second possession of the game after Shawn Scott recovered a West fumble at Panthers' 11. Just two plays later, Williams completed an 11-yard TD pass to Austin Hopkin. Holly led 7-0 with 1:42 left in the first quarter.

West's only score was set up by an interception deep in Holly territory. It took three plays for West to score from 11 yards out, scoring on a five-yard TD run by Michael Ledington. The Broncos' defense wouldn't allow anything more after that score.

Lake Fenton 54, North Branch 14

The Blue Devils (5-2) moved one win away from a playoff spot with the homecoming win against North Branch.

Lake Fenton travels to Montrose for what is a GAC Red Division championship game on Friday. If Lake Fenton wins, it will earn a co-conference title.

Tigers move within two wins of league title, defeat Lapeer East

By Al Zipsie

dtroppens@tctimes.com

Lapeer — Fenton's varsity football team controlled its own destiny for at least a share of the Metro League title and a automatic berth in the playoffs entering Friday night's game against Metro leaders Lapeer East.

They still do after the game.

The Tigers (4-2, 5-2) scored the first 27 points of the game and rolled to a 33-12 victory against Lapeer East.

The Eagles had three first-half turnovers, and Fenton cashed in on two of them for touchdowns.

The result means if the Tigers win their last two games of the season, they'll be at least a co-Metro champion.

"We have played well in big games. We played excellent," said Fenton coach Jeff Setzke. "Tonight, we made a statement playing a good physical game. We showed we have a good running game with 'Wegs' (Gerad Wegener). We showed we can do more than pass. We scored on some turnovers, but we took them out of what they do."

East had a turnover early, fumbling the ball away at its own 6.

Two plays later, Fenton quarterback Houston Shaw scored on a three-yard run.

The Tigers followed that score with 20 points in the second quarter, sparked by Wegener's running. He had a dazzling play where he was hit at the line, but bounced away and raced 36 yards for the touchdown with 10:58 left in the second quarter. Twenty-one seconds later, Fenton scored again after a fumble recovery. Shaw completed a 25-yard TD pass to Mitch Shegos on the sideline.

Fenton marched 88 yards for a score late in the second quarter. Wegener set it up with a 60-yard run. Shaw capped it with 10-yard scamper, making it a 27-0 lead.

Lapeer East answered with a 40-yard TD pass from Bradley LaBrie to Ken Mullins with 37 seconds left in the first half, cutting the Fenton lead to 27-6 at halftime.

The Tigers got a 28-yard and a 29-yard field goal from Kenny Allen in the third quarter. East mustered just one TD from LaBrie early in the fourth quarter.

Linden boys CC squad wins county championship

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Durand — The Linden varsity boys cross country team proved its county dominance, capturing the overall title in the 2011 Greater Flint Area Cross Country Championships, held at Dutch Hollow Golf Club on Thursday.

Meanwhile, Fenton did pretty good as well, taking second place, with 107 points, just 34 points behind the Eagles. The Tigers were also the Red Division champions (large team schools), while Linden was the White Division champions.

The area also had some success in the women's portion of the meet, with the Holly taking fourth (116) and Linden placing fifth (148). Fenton was ninth (232).

In the boy's event, Fenton's Matt Gilbert won the race with a time of 16:11.4, while Linden's Roger Phillips was second (16:41.1) almost 30 seconds behind.

The Eagles had its top five runners finish in the top 25. The rest of the Linden scorers were Kirk Bennett in 11th (17:06.5), Graham Elliott in 16th (17:20.2), Zach LeMieux in 20th (17:23.6) and Sam Moughler in 24th (17:39.0).

"Great win for the team," Linden coach Clint Lawhorne said. "It was our best performance of the season up to this point. Three of our top seven (varsity athletes) ran lifetime personal records despite the warm weather."

Fenton's Max Kryza was fourth (16:54.0), while Brady Morton, 13th in 17:11.9; Noah Strayer, 31st in 17:59.2; and Nick Jones, 58th in 18:41.3) made up the rest of the Tigers' scorers.

Lake Fenton's boys also competed and took 19th overall and fifth in the Blue Division. The Blue Devils' top placer was Austin DeMoss in 77th place (19:18.0).

Linden's Sydney Elmer was the area's top female placer, taking second place in 20:01.7, about 30 seconds behind Flushing's winning runner Addison May (19:31.8).

Elmer led the Eagles to a White Division title. The rest of Linden's scoring runners were Karrah Varner in 33rd (22:16.1), Linden runners Zach LeMieux (left) and Sam Moughler helped lead the Eagles to a county championship performance on Thursday.

Dominique Scriptor in 34th (22:19.7), Kailee Corcoran in 37th (22:25.7) and Hollie Vermeersch in 47th (22:50.5).

Holly's girls had the best placing overall of tri-county teams and took third in the Red Division, placing six runners in the top 35. They were Mariah Ridal in 14th (21:08.5), Charlotte Ruffini in 19th (21:32.6), Alex Matvchuk in 25th (21:44.5), Jennifer Beckner in 28th (21:55.1), Carly Schroeder in 30th (22:09.6) and Shannon Westfall in 35th (22:22.9).

Fenton had three top-50 runners. They were Taylor Thorpe in 11th (21:01.0), Elle Cowger in 40th (22:36.9) and Autumn Moulton in 50th (23:05.7).

Lake Fenton's Becky Fernelius was the Blue Devils' top runner, taking 57th place (23:21.9). The Blue Devils didn't have enough runners to place as a team.

PREP REPORT

CROSS COUNTRY

► Lake Fenton vs. Byron, Mt. Morris: Both Lake Fenton teams beat Mt. Morris and lost to Byron. The boys defeated Mt. Morris 26-29, but lost to Byron 19-42. Caleb Fletcher led Lake Fenton with a time of 19:20. He was followed by Austin DeMoss (19:30), Dylan Cullimore (21:29), Winston Ray (21:30), and Ethan Fegan (21:30).

The girls defeated Mt. Morris by default and lost a tight 26-33 verdict to Byron. Andrea Roe led the Blue Devils with a time of 22:24. Becky Fernelluis had a time of 23:13, followed by Laura Carlson (23:48), Catrina Parks (25:32) and Deanna Patrosso (30:09).

SOCCER

► Fenton 1, Kearsley 0: The Tigers got their only goal when Zach Whitener scored on a corner kick from Logan Volmar. Derek Jenkins recorded his ninth shutout of the season, making 11 saves.

► Faith Baptist 5, Lake Fenton 0: The Blue Devils had three chances early in the game to score, with two shots coming within eight yards of goal, but the Blue Devils (3-9-1) were unable to score.

VOLLEYBALL

► Linden def. Swartz Creek: The Eagles (5-1 in the Metro) raised over $1,000 for breast cancer research and defeated the Dragons 25-19, 25-17, 25-17 in the process. Jordan Sargent was 12-for-12 serving and had 18 assists, 11 digs and seven kills. Sabrina Kinney and Kaitlyn Dunleavy had seven kills. Mary Starrs had 17 digs.

► Lapeer West def. Holly: The Bronchos lost by a 25-7, 25-15, 25-15 score. Hannah Timm led the Bronchos with six kills and four digs, while defensive specialist Ashley Wohlfeil had a team-high 11 digs and two kills. Megan Piwowski had four kills.

SWIMMING

► Fenton 113, Lapeer 70: Sara Wujciak won two individual events, leading the Tigers to the easy win. Wujciak won the 200 freestyle (2:00.18) and the 100 breaststroke (1:13.24). She also was a part of the winning 200 freestyle relay team with Gabrielle Haaraaja, Kesley Kidd and Haley Shaw (1:46.49). Other individual winners for Fenton were Haaraaja in the 200 individual medley (2:23.85) and in the 100 backstroke (1:07.71), Kidd in the 50 freestyle (26.58), Mackenzie Deputy in diving (146.0), Kali Finger in the 100 butterfly (1:10.39), Shaw in the 100 freestyle (1:01.39), and Carli Finger in the 500 freestyle (6:03.94).

Others that posted good times were Lauren Davis in the 200 individual medley (2:50.56), Julie Siefker in the 100 freestyle (1:03.77) and Hannah Gregory in the 100 freestyle (1:07).

Linden struggles in 35-14 loss to Country Day

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden — The Linden varsity football team threw for 359 yards against Detroit Country Day Thursday night.

And the defense allowed just six first-half points.

So why did the Eagles lose 35-15 at home against their non-league foes?

It had to do with turnovers, poor passes, drops and poor production in the red zone.

Linden crossed midfield five times in the first three quarters, but failed to score on each possession, resulting in the loss.

Quarterback Shaye Brown threw for 359 yards, but he was just 22-for-48. He was just 16-for-41 for 226 yards before he led the Eagles to two late fourth-quarter TD drives. There were three interceptions as well. The lack of production on offense was a team effort. Receivers dropped many key passes that could've gone for big gains or touchdowns during the first 36 minutes as well.

And while the defense played outstanding in the first half — the Eagles trailed just 6-0 at the intermission — being on the field finally cost them as Country Day scored 29 second-half points.

"It's real tough," said Linden senior Tyler Kraus, who caught TD passes for 17 and 35 yards late in the fourth quarter. "It's hard to stay focused (in a game that things don't go right), especially when we practice so hard during the week. Then it comes to the game and we can't put any more points on the board."

"We were inside the 15 four times and came away with no points," Linden coach Denny Hopkins said. "That's tough against a team like that. We made some mistakes inside the 15 that we haven't made lately and that hurt us."

While Linden's offense struggled, the defense played outstanding in the first half, only allowing one TD drive. That score came on a one-yard run by John Hill, capped by a field goal. See LINDEN on 15B

Linden soccer falls to Brandon, 1-0

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Ortonville — When the Flint Metro League boys soccer season ends later this month, the Linden Eagles might look back and think what might have been.

The Eagles have two blemishes on their Metro schedules, and both were tight 1-0 verdicts. The second one came on Wednesday in a 1-0 road loss to the Brandon Blackhawks.

The loss means that the Eagles don't control their own destiny toward a Metro League title any more, while the Brandon Blackhawks do. Linden must face Lap-ear East and Kearsley this season.

The Eagles also lost to Fenton 1-0 on a goal that was scored in the final minute of that contest. If Linden wins both games, the league race would be a different story. However, they have suffered those tight losses. Still, with the crazy results that have occurred in the Metro this season, there's a good chance that the Eagles' title hopes aren't over quite yet.

"Everyone's in it," Linden senior Jaime Yanez said about the Metro race. "There isn't an easy game in this league. Our next game, we go to East and have to compete. It's game-by-game. Each game isn't going to be easy. We just have to compete like we did tonight, and come up with the wins."

Wednesday's only goal was provided by Brandon's Benjamin Stowers with 9:57 remaining in the second half.

The initial shot came from Tyler McCullough from about 30 yards out. Linden keeper Collin Hoerberling made the initial save, but bobbled the ball. Stowers capitalized from point-blank range.

Beyond that shot, just like the Fenton game, Hoerberling was probably the reason why Linden remained in the scoreless tie to that point. He faced 15 shots in the second half, making five saves, with a couple being outstanding saves. The best save came during the fifth minute of the second half. This play involved Stowers as well. Stowers dribbled with the ball toward one post of the net and took a shot that looked headed into the net. However, Hoerberling deflected it over the crossbar. Later, he had a save on a shot from Isaac Scherer from about 25 yards out.

In the first half, Linden had its best chance. It came on a shot from about 35 yards out from Michael Ziccardi. It bounced off the crossbar and Ted Parcher charged the rebound for a shot. He did shoot, but Brandon keeper Ryan King made an outstanding save, preserving the scoreless tie.

Then with 11:45 left in the first half, Zach Bakos took a shot from about 30 yards out toward the near post. Again, King made the save.

Linden's only shot on target in the second half came on a shot by Alex Neal with 33:20 left in regulation.

during the winning streak)," said Gilbert, who along with Collier has never lost a Metro match. "The league (record), it is a big deal. I have set my sights high on districts and advancing in the tournament. We are ready to step up to the plate and are ready to play."

Junior Payton Maxheimer, who has started the last two years, looks at the players before her that were part of the streak.

"We lost some good seniors and this team picked it up, and did not feel that much pressure," said Maxheimer. "It has been really cool and a great experience. I think it just shows coach puts us to the test, and it's because we have a good program."

Fenton got off to a great start in the opening match. Two straight Collier kills built the lead to 20-9. Maizie Martin then had a dink and then lowered the boom with a spike to make it 24-13. On set point, Gilbert had a nice save and the Eagles' return was long, earning the Tigers the win. In the second set, a Megan Cockin service put the Tigers in the lead to stay at 10-9. Ashley Bearden had a serving ace on game point to cap off the win. Fenton was tied at 7-all in the final match but never trailed. With Cockin serving, the Tigers scored four points in a row. Amy Rooker scored with a back-to-back tip and kill for a 22-15 lead. Kennedy Piwowarczyk served for the last two points for the sweep.

Gilbert had 43 assists and three kills. She had a crowd-pleasing block kill as well.

"I was just trying to step up and give the team a push and play as good as I can," said Gilbert.

Fenton was led by Maxheimer's 12 kills and 19 digs. Collier had nine kills and six blocks. Cockin had two aces.

"We are strong up front with a lot of options to go to in Sarah (Collier), Maizie (Martin) and Payton (Maxheimer)," said Gilbert.

The Holly varsity boys tennis team is headed to the Division 2 state meet once again.

The Bronchos qualified for the state meet by taking second at the Flushing regional, with 24 points. Flushing won the meet with 25 points. Fenton placed third with 15 points, failing to qualify for the state meet.

The Bronchos had three doubles flights win championships. The No. 2 doubles team of Taylor Mills and Zac Goodrich defeated Flushing's Austin Boulter and Nathan Casciano 6-3, 7-5 to earn their title. Meanwhile, the No. 3 doubles team of Craig Richards and Parker Rowse won a tight 7-5, 7-6 (2) match against Flushing's Mickey Montpas and Jorday Makranyi. At No. 4 doubles, Connor Knudson and Morgan Baylis defeated Flushing's Casey McNally and Robbie Harris 6-4, 6-4 for their title.

The Bronchos also had two singles flights earn runner-up honors. Sam Caldwell (No. 2 singles) and Connor Bilkos (No. 3 singles) were the two second-place finishers.

Fenton had one flight champion. No. 4 singles player Mitch Campbell defeated Flushing's Brandon Mazzola 6-3, 6-1 for his title.

The state meet is Oct. 14 and 15 at Kalamazoo College.

ping a 61-yard drive with 33.7 seconds left in the first quarter.

Meanwhile, the Eagles had drives stall at the Country Day 35, 3 and 12 in the first half alone.

An interception by Trevor Potter set up Country Day's next score, giving the visitors the ball at Linden's 11. Two plays later, Richard Wilson scored from two yards out. Linden trailed 14-0.

Later in the contest, Hill provided a 73-yard TD run and caught a 38-yard TD pass for two other Country Day scores. The final Country Day TD came on a 39-yard run by Leno Corradi.

game, the Eagles put together their first TD drive. They went 88 yards on just seven plays, scoring on Kraus' 17-yard reception from Brown. Country Day immediately scored after that, but Linden scored again on a Kraus' 35-yard reception from Brown. Linden converted the two-point play, making it 35-15 with 2:43 left. Country Day ran out the clock after that.

Linden (4-3) can still win at least a share of the Metro League title and qualify for the playoffs if the Eagles win their last two games. That stretch begins with a road game at Brandon on Friday.

"We still have a lot to play for," Hopkins said. "We can still win the league and we can still get into the playoffs, so we just have to regroup. This was a good challenge for us."

scores well under 100, setting up the state performance. They were earned by Samantha Moss (90), Olivia Fabatz (90) and Meghan Berry (95).

Holly's Johnson qualified for the state meet by posting the second-lowest score among competitors that were not on teams that qualified. She carded a 90.

After Johnson, Emma Alexander carded a 98, while Lindsay Baslock had a 102. Taylor Turner carded a 113.
