A bomb threat, which prompted schools across Genesee County to go on high alert last week, might have been connected to a bank robbery in the Flint area.

Fenton Police Chief Rick Aro said the Michigan State Police are continuing to investigate the threatening call, which originated in Saginaw County shortly before 1 p.m. on Friday, Nov. 4.

Dianne North

Fenton — Councilwoman Dianne North announced her resignation at the Fenton City Council work session on Monday. North, who served on the city council for 10 years, told council members that she had too many personal and professional issues going on in her life to serve adequately. In addition to her elected office, she is a registered nurse at Hurley Medical Center in Flint.

“I’m very mixed, emotionally,” she said.

North said it has always been a pleasure to serve on the council and although there were disagreements, council members always worked through those conflicts.

City to vote on contract for critter control

►Company has removed 77 animals from water plant area

By Sharon Stone
sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

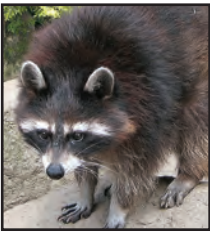

Fenton — During its work session on Monday, Fenton City Council agreed to vote on a proposal to hire Wildlife Management and Rescue to trap and remove wildlife from around the wastewater treatment plant for calendar year 2012 for $2,500.

Last fall, the city hired Wildlife Management and Rescue, out of Flushing, to trap and remove animals that were making homes in the fenced area behind the water treatment plant, around the lime lagoons and storm water retention ponds.

Daniel Czarnecki, director of the Department of Public Works, said the animals were creating a nuisance and compromising the integrity of the ground around the plant. As part of the city's new groundwater discharge permit from the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (DEQ), these items needed to be addressed.

According to Mike Lowe, of Wildlife Management and Rescue, the company live trapped and removed nearly 80 animals from the property, so far.

Czarnecki told council members that the program has been successful and should be continued, at the same cost of $2,500.

Steven Guy, water plant supervisor, said the animals dig and burrow, which could become a problem. A badger, which he did not know was in this area, was even caught.

To help with deterring wild animals from staying in the area of the water treatment plant, restaurants and other businesses in the near vicinity were advised to keep their dumpsters well maintained.

Once animals are trapped, except for beavers, which must be destroyed, Lowe said they relocate the live animals within Genesee County.

Councilman John Rauch recommended that the city renew its contract with Wildlife Management and Rescue. Rauch's council seat is expiring and he chose not to seek another term.

Councilwoman Dianne North asked Lowe about his routine. Lowe said he checks out the property periodically during the week and on weekends, all year round.

The council will vote on the contract at its meeting on Monday.

SMART SOLUTIONS

1 Stinky microwave

When strong smelling foods leave a lingering odor in your microwave, neutralize them in minutes: Combine the juice of one lemon with 1 cup water in a microwave safe bowl. Bring to a boil, then let sit for 10 minutes for a lemon fresh scent.

2 Stay focused!

If you just can't focus on your long list of chores, try this refocusing trick: Hold your hands so each thumb rests just below your rib cage and the fingers of both hands meet at your spine. Massage the area for 30 seconds. Practitioners of Qigong (a Chinese art that uses the body's energy to heal) say that stimulating this area prompts the kidneys to cleanse the body of toxins, boosting your productivity.

Stories abound from the many veterans who reside at Abbey Park. More than 40 veterans reside in the senior living facility, which is located in Grand Blanc.

To honor them, Director Kathy Felix began the Veteran's Wall of Honor, on the wall in the common lunch area. It features dozens of photos provided by the veterans and their families. All but one resident is from World War II.

Male residents in their late 80s to early 90s are usually a veteran, according to Felix. And many of the female residents were married to a veteran. "Most of the women here are widows of World War II veterans. We really wanted a way to honor them," she said.

Herman Cain's Gauntlet

When it comes to sex, the media apply different standards to Republicans and Democrats. Arkansas Governor Bill Clinton trolled for women, using state troopers as his procurers. As president, Clinton engaged in oral sex with Monica Lewinsky in the Oval Office. Other sexual accusations tainted Clinton, including one that he raped one Juanita Broadrick.

Many other Democrats in modern times have been caught with their pants down — JFK and John Edwards for example. Some paid a political price. Most did not, because their policies were favored by the liberal media, which gave them cover.

Now it is Herman Cain's turn and the rules have suddenly changed. Cain stands accused of sexually harassing two women more than a decade ago when he headed the National Restaurant Association. Many in the media wolf pack have already judged him guilty.

If you can't give the media immediate and detailed answers to their questions, they 'raise new questions' and then when you do provide them additional information they say you should have provided it before and must be covering something up.

This story also has a noxious odor of racism about it. Historically, perhaps the worst stereotype directed at African-American men is that they are oversexed and constantly on the prowl for female conquests. Cain is a self-made man who achieved success without government and without self-loathing. He is the enemy of big government, and of Democrats' 'can't do' condescending attitude toward minorities. Cain exudes a positive and optimistic spirit.

If you're wondering why more qualified people don't run for office, consider what is being done to Herman Cain. People don't want every mistake or bad decision they've made over the course of a long life trumpeted from the rooftops and so they avoid politics to the nation's detriment.

Cain may ultimately triumph over these allegations. Last Monday, Cain recorded his biggest fundraising day ever, netting $400,000. Still, the best defense is a good offense and what would be best for Cain is for him to get all the facts out, immediately, before his enemies do it for him.

TO THE PEOPLE who feel it's necessary to insult college students, stereotyping them as 'easily brainwashed idiots and stupid,' would I be more intelligent in your eyes if I hadn't made the choice to go to college? I spent a lot of time expecting a great career. False hope.

AWARD WINNING OR not, Fenton High School yearbook still stinks. Microscopic pictures of sports teams and individual student pictures, yet full-page prints of kids sitting in cars or snow boarding. In 50 years, I want to remember what the people looked like, not a poll on countries classmates visited.

I WATCHED 60 minutes Sunday night. Oh boy, if you didn't watch it you missed it, the true story of how all politicians and the rich and powerful are robbing this country. I don't want class warfare. I want everyone guilty, in jails and paying this country back.

SOMEONE MENTIONED THAT the Rose Township treasurer is the only one who thinks the government shouldn't intrude, probably because she doesn't think the government should even intrude on her office. Where is the transparency in Rose? Not in that office. She refuses to release bank statements to the board. Disturbing.

IF YOU DON'T like the way your neighbor's front yard looks, why don't you talk to them about it? Complaining in the Hot lines isn't going to solve anything. I can't believe some of you whiners.

From the editorVeterans Day

"In war, there are no unwounded soldiers."

— Jose Narosky

Veterans Day is observed this Friday, 11-11-11. And many observances and ceremonies take place at 11 a.m.

One of the ceremonies will be at the Great Lakes National Veterans Cemetery in Holly Township. Hundreds of veterans and visitors from all over the state will be there to honor those men and woman who have proudly served our country.

As I was reading Reporter Tim Jagielo's story about World War II veterans in today's edition on Page 3, it instantly made me think about my father, who is also a World War II veteran. My father, who just turned 89, was a belly gunner during the war. He would have been in his early 20s when serving his country. To this day, he doesn't speak much about the war or the events that occurred while he was in Germany. It's hard for me to think about how young my father was at the time and what horror he may have experienced.

In his article, Jagielo quoted veteran Jerry Keyworth, 93, who shared some of his thoughts about the war and Veterans Day. Keyworth said, 'When you come home, you are not whole anymore,' which brought tears to my eyes, again thinking about my dad.

My brother, Joe, who graduated from high school in 1970, is a Vietnam War veteran. He served in the U.S. Navy for four years, having enlisted after finding out that he was going to be drafted. His ship brought Vietnam refugees back to the United States after the war was over.

Veterans Day is the time for all of us to thank a veteran or attend an observance to honor all of our vets. I have attended many observances at the Great Lakes National Cemetery. The sacred grounds of the cemetery are breathtakingly beautiful and serene. The pride displayed by the many veterans in attendance has moved me to tears.

As a proud daughter and sister to veterans, I want to thank all of our veterans, who have kept this country safe.

Standardized tests for schools get tougher

►Students required to pass tougher standards by 2015

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

Michigan students will be taking a tougher standardized test in the next few years. The Common Core State Standards, which Michigan adopted in June 2010, is set to replace the Michigan Education Assessment Program and Michigan Merit Exam test by 2015. So far, 43 other states in America have adopted the Common Core State Standards.

"The whole goal is that our students will be prepared for the work force and will be college ready," said Fenton Area Public Schools Superintendent Timothy Jalkanen, who presented the new standards to the Fenton Board of Education. "The bar has been raised for our students."

Under the Common Core State Standards, student test scores will be comparable with the other states that have adopted the same standards. The new tests will take place in the spring instead of the fall.

The new standards may be too much for Michigan students, however. The Michigan Department of Education applied the new standards to MEAP and MME scores from the past four years and found that a majority of schools in Michigan would not pass the new tests. The Common Core State Standards require students to answer nearly 65 percent of the questions correctly, as opposed to the current 39 percent that is required to pass the MEAP and MME.

Overall, fifth-, sixth-, and seventh graders in the Fenton school system were 91 percent proficient in math under current state standards. Under the new standards, each grade dropped from 38 to 40 percent proficiency in math. Proficiency dropped significantly for every grade under the new standards.

"Fenton is above the state average in every area, but under the new standards, we're lower than the 95 percent we're used to," Jalkanen said.

Board of Education Vice President Nora Kryza questioned what would happen to the district if the new standards were not met. Jalkanen said the outcome is unknown for now and that legislators in Lansing predict two-thirds of schools in Michigan will not pass the new standards.

"The U.S. Department of Education is allowing states to apply for waivers if they cannot meet 100 percent proficiency," Jalkanen said. "I believe Michigan is currently applying for the waiver."

However, not all of the board members agreed with the new standards. Treasurer

Rick DesJardins said the new overall scores do not factor in Michigan's shift in demographics, causing the scores to be skewed. "We had one of the most devastating economic disasters in the state over the past few years," DesJardins said. "A lot of highly educated people left the state, causing our scores to drop. These results are arbitrary, meaningless."

Overall, the Fenton Board of Education agreed that students should be prepared for the new standards. The Common Core State Standards is expected to be implemented into the Fenton Area Schools, curriculum before the new tests are adopted. Jalkanen stressed the importance of speaking to teachers for student progress rather than solely relying on test scores.

"The classroom teacher is really still the best person who knows the progress of each student," Jalkanen said.

Summary

►Testing in Michigan will have tougher standards by 2015. The Michigan Department of Education predicts most school districts will not pass the new standards.

"The whole goal is that our students will be prepared for the work force and will be college ready."

Election signs stolen from candidate's yard

►Faricy sign replaced with Osborn sign, others moved

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Fenton — Tim Faricy, a candidate for mayor, believes an organized effort by adults was behind the removal and displacement of his election signs.

Faricy, who ran against incumbent Mayor Sue Osborn, became irritated over the weekend when one of his election signs was removed from his front yard Saturday morning, and was replaced with a sign in support of Mayor Sue Osborn.

Later on that day, Faricy noticed that six or so of his election signs, which had been in place at homes along South Holly Road, were also missing.

On Sunday morning, while driving to church, Faricy and his wife noticed the six missing signs, leaning against a tree. "It wasn't a kid," he said. "It was an adult, I'm sure."

Faricy retrieved all of his missing signs, but was irritated, nevertheless. He did not report the tampering of his signs to police.

Fenton Police Chief Rick Aro said the city has no specific law regarding the theft of election signs. It would be classified as a larceny, depending on the value of the stolen property. Larceny of property valued under $200 would be a 93-day misdemeanor.

Veterans Day

This coming Friday Nov. 11 is Veterans Day. This is a federal holiday that originally was called 'Armistice Day,' when it was first proclaimed by President Woodrow Wilson in 1919 in recognition of the Armistice that was signed on Nov. 11, 1918 ending hostilities between the Allies and Germany in World War I. The United States has recognized this day as a very special day ever since, and in 1954 by an Act of Congress, the name was changed to 'Veterans Day' to honor American veterans of all wars.

In 1954, President Eisenhower issued a Presidential Proclamation recognizing the sanctity of this day and what it means to everyone in our great country.

For those parents, grandparents, sisters, brothers and other relatives and friends of those who have served our country in times of war and peace, the intense pride that you feel for your veteran whether they are still with us or not can't be adequately described so I won't attempt it here.

What I can and will say with great pride is that my dad was a World War II veteran and so were his two brothers. Without going into great detail, rest assured that although my dad is now gone, I think of him daily and how lucky I am that he made it back home after the war and I became one of the four sons he raised with my mom, setting an example that I do my best to follow in my own life. I assure all that his military experience played a great role in setting this example for my brothers and me.

At the end of this year's Presidential Proclamation by President Obama the following sentence appears. 'I encourage all Americans to recognize the valor and sacrifice of our veterans through appropriate public ceremonies and private prayer.'

At the end of an attorney's case, I hear in court the phrase, 'Your Honor, I rest my case.' Dear readers, I so rest mine.

'Romeo and Juliet' with a twist

►Fenton High School updates classic play

By William Axford
axford@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

The International Baccalaureate Theater at Fenton High School is adapting Shakespeare's 'Romeo and Juliet' with a twist. Under the direction of theater director Laurie Thompson, students are updating the classic tale with a striking wardrobe and set props based upon designer clothing. The theater troupe is out to prove that under the right conditions, the play can appeal to a modern audience.

"The play is about how we can display a classic piece of literature to students in a contemporary setting," Thompson said. "The story is timeless. The play's not about men in tights or a time period."

Tights and dresses have been replaced by ripped jeans and flared blazers. Designer boxes and chess pieces cram the stage instead of castles and countrysides. A runway jutting out into the middle of the crowd was also added, rounding out the themes of fashion and high class.

Students in the play are expecting their updates to captivate the audience. Hours of research and analyzing went into the production of the play as students deciphered each scene for a modern translation.

"It takes a lot of analyzing to figure out, 'What does this scene mean today?'" said senior Brooklyn Sondgeroth, who plays Juliet. Flashlights for example have replaced torches. "I think the modern updates are going to make the play more relatable."

Fenton High School junior Alex Fleck, who plays Mercutio, admits that memorizing Shakespearean has been a daunting task. "It's difficult, Shakespearean is basically a whole different language," Fleck said.

"With contemporary English, you can adlib lines if you don't know them. With Shakespearean, you can't do that."

After rehearsing and memorizing every line, students discovered that aspects of the play are still relatable, even if they don't fully understand the language. Feuds between families still exist and quarreling between lovers is nothing new to the students. "It's going to be a great way for our community to understand what 'Romeo and Juliet' is all about," said Sondgeroth. "It may even be the first time people see the play."

'Romeo and Juliet' will be preformed at the Fenton High School auditorium on Nov. 11, 12 and 13 at 7 p.m. Admission is $6 for students and $12 for the public.

HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE CASH IN ON MODERN DAY GOLD RUSH!

By Jason Delong
STAFF WRITER

Gold and silver pour into yesterday's Roadshow due to highest prices in 40 years.

Yesterday in Flint & Fenton, hundreds lined up to cash in old coins, instruments, gold and jewelry at the Treasure Hunters Roadshow. The free event is in both towns all week, buying gold, silver, timepieces and other valuables. One visitor I spoke with yesterday said, "It's unbelievable, I brought in some old coins that had been in a little cigar box for years and some old herringbone necklaces—in less than 15 minutes I left with a check for $700. That stuff has been in my jewelry box and dresser for at least 20 years." Another gentleman brought in an old Fender guitar his father had bought years ago. The man said, "Dad had less than 50 bucks in that guitar." The Roadshowing," says Archie Davis, a Roadshow representative. "Broken jewelry and gold and silver coins add up very quickly. I just finished working with a gentleman that had an old class ring, two bracelets and a handful of silver dollars. His check was for over $650. I would say that there were well over 100 people in here yesterday that sold their scrap gold." One gentleman holding his check for over $1,250 in the lobby of the event yesterday had this comment: "I am so happy I decided to come to the Roadshow. I saw the newspaper ad for the event and brought in an old German sword I had brought back from World War II and some old coins, and here is my check. What a great thing for our community. I am heading home now to see what else I have that they might be interested in."

The Roadshow continues today starting at 9 a.m. The event is free and no appointment is needed.

If you go to the Roadshow, you can cash-in your items for competitive prices. Roadshow representatives will be available to assess and purchase your items this week through Saturday, in Flint & Fenton.

show specialist that assisted him made a few phone calls and a veterinarian in Seattle, Washington bought the guitar for $5,700. The seller continued, "I got another $150 for a broken necklace and an old class ring. It's not every day that someone comes to town bringing six thousand dollars with your name on it."

Jeff Parsons, President of the Treasure Hunters Roadshow, commented, "Lots of people have items that they know are valuable but just don't know where to sell them. Old coins, paintings, swords, guitars, pocket watches and jewelry are valuable to collectors. These collectors are willing to pay big money for those items that they are looking for."

This week's Roadshow is the best place to get connected with those collectors. The process is free and anyone can bring items down to the event. If the Roadshow specialists find items that their collectors are interested in, offers will be made to purchase them. About 80% of the guests that attend the show end up selling one or more items at the event.

Coins and guitars are not the only items the Roadshow is buying. "Gold and silver markets are

Some of the veterans spoke about their experience in the service, and what Veterans Day means to them.

Jerry Keyworth, 93, served in World War II as a young man. In fact, he was drafted the same day as Abbey Park resident James Dean, 92. Both were 22 when they served in the Army.

Summary

► The Abbey Park retirement home features a wall to honor its more than 40 resident veterans.

Keyworth was with the Army Signal Corps, and lost an arm to a bomb in New Guinea, which led to his discharge. "I still have a ringing in my ears," he said. He was in traction for 28 days and in the hospital for seven months. He was concerned about his injury and how it would affect his wife. "When you come home, you're not whole anymore," he said. "You don't know what the reaction is going to be. She never mentioned it."

Veterans Day grows more importance as he gets older, he said.

Dean is a little more reserved when talking about his service, though Veterans Day has always meant something to him. He has two sons who served in the military. One was badly injured in the Vietnam War. "It affected my life," he said. "Myself, I didn't see too much action."

Dean said he attended Veterans Day programs at different churches and cemeteries. "It always meant a lot to me," he said.

"It has a special meaning," said Keyworth. "It means more as you get older." He lost a close friend in the war. "I think about that a lot more than I used to," he said. "When you think about the life I've had that he missed." He paused, overcome with emotion. "He had two little girls."

Keyworth was able to return to his family, including an 18 month old baby boy he had never seen.

Bob Robison, 87, served from 1943 to 1944. As a B-17 bomber navigator, he feels fortunate to survive. "Many of my friends did not," he said. "They were shooting at us all the time."

Flying in a bomber was inherently dangerous. "Flights over Berlin were the most dangerous," he said. "Then there was that little girl in London," he joked, winking at his wife Helen of 65 years.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | TIM JAGIELO

The wall honoring the resident veterans at Abbey Park also includes many of the spouses.

On one fateful day, Robison's bomber and crew didn't have any runs, so he was offered to navigate a bomb run with a different crew on another bomber.

While he was on that run, his own plane was shot down. All the officers were spared as prisoners of war, but six crew members died at the hands of the people of the ground. Robison, who was 22 at the time, was safe on another bombing run. He was discharged after 31 missions. "I think of how lucky I was to be a survivor," he said.

Marjorie Tippet, 89, is one of two women veterans at Abbey Park. She served as a nurse in the Army Air Corps, the precursor to the U.S. Air Force. She wanted experience as a surgical nurse, and remembers working with a paraplegic. She had the approval of her family to enlist at the time. "I was to make up my own mind," she said. "You felt as though you wanted to help, and that's why I joined." As a nurse she helped many people and was in charge of several hospital wards. "I feel that (Veterans Day) is an honor for all those that served," she said. "I always felt that way, even before I served."

Abbey Park's oldest veteran is Al Gillespie, 95. At 24, he served in the U.S. Navy. He had two roles on his ship, as 20mm gunner and the ship store keeper. As a gunner, he was responsible for shooting down Japanese Kamikaze, but laughed when he admitted he never actually had to.

Gillespie remembers Christmas Eve, 1944, when his group was preparing for an invasion. His wife was back at home. He vividly remembers seeing a Kamikaze plane fly over his ship and plow into another one nearby. The Japanese plane killed more than 16 people on that ship, in addition to the commanders on board.

To him, Veterans Day is about the memories. "I don't think we should forget the people who were over there," he said.

MAN SLUMPED OVER STEERING WHEEL

On Monday, Nov. 7, Fenton police and an ambulance was sent to Foley Glen on a report of a man slumped over the steering wheel of his parked car. Lt. Jason Slater said upon arrival, police found a 40-year-old asleep on his steering wheel. The man was fine and refused medical treatment.

MAN STEALS MEAT

On Nov. 6, Fenton police responded to a business in the 18000 block of Silver Parkway to investigate a retail fraud complaint. Employees reported that a white male concealed several packages of meat in his own bags and exited the store without paying. An employee recovered the bags, containing $283 worth of meat in a nearby dumpster. As a precaution, all of the meat was discarded. Police are attempting to identify the man.

Great Lakes Cemetery to hold Veterans Day ceremony

The Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly Township is holding a Veterans Day ceremony on Friday at 11 a.m. to honor those who have served in the armed forces. The keynote speaker will be Michael Zehnder, a Marine Corps veteran of the Vietnam war, who now serves as director of the Oakland County Department of Public Services.

Aro said he has learned that someone, using a pay phone, called 911 in the Saginaw County area claiming that there were dirty bombs at five Genesee County schools around 12 noon on Friday.

The police chief said there was a robbery at 2:30 p.m. at the Bank of America on Court Street in Burton. MSP is investigating to see if there is any connection between the 911 call and the bank robbery. The call might have been made to distract law enforcement.

As state police began their investigation on Friday, area school superintendents ordered their school districts to comply with their own emergency procedures. The superintendents also sent out automated calls to all of the parents in their school districts to alert them of the situation. No bombs were found at any of the schools and no one was injured.

Originally, from Holly, North has lived in Fenton since 1983. Prior to her council seat, she was a member of the city of Fenton Beautification Commission. She continued to serve on that commission as well as the zoning board and other subcommittees.

City Manager Lynn Markland said that City Council has 30 days to appoint someone to fill the vacancy or call for a special election. If the vacancy is not filled or a special election is not called, then the city clerk must call for a special election within 120 days of the vacancy.

on her birthday cake this Friday, 11-11-11. "We've been telling her since she was a little girl that we'd have a big birthday party for her 11th birthday falling on this special date," said Kelly Scanlon, Sydney's mother.

She and her husband, Michael, are planning to host about 30 guests, including grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and friends from Sydney's sixth-grade classroom at Rose Pioneer Elementary School. The celebration will include balloons printed with 11's on them and a cake designed in the shape of the number 11. "I think it's pretty cool to have my 11th birthday on 11/11," said Sydney.

She's not the only one who will be remembering this year's once-in-a-lifetime date. It's one of the most popular wedding dates this year, with many venues sold out well over a year ago. "Because of the significance of the date and the fact that we only hold one wedding per day here, we were sold out for the date of 11-11-11 a long time ago," said Waldenwoods Banquet Center Administrative Assistant Tracey Spear.

"Since we met, we have both learned that wishes truly do come true. We also picked 11-11-11 because we have heard it's the day for new beginnings."

Angie Jordan

Chris Little and his fiancée Angie Jordan have always held the numbers 11-11 close at heart. Twice every day when that time shows up on the couple's cell phones, each tries to be the first to contact the other with a call or text to "make a wish."

"Since we met, we have both learned that wishes truly do come true," said Jordan, who planned the couples' wedding date for this Friday, 11-11-11, in honor of the special feelings they have for this day. "We also picked 11-11-11 because we have heard it's the day for new beginnings."

The couple will be traveling to Honey-moon Island in Florida with their family and close friends for a dream-come-true destination wedding on this date.

Nicole Saunders, owner of Something Blue Bridal Boutique in Holly, knows a number of brides who selected the Nov. 11 date for their wedding. Many couples select a date with numerical distinction like this one because of its aesthetic appeal when displaying their wedding date on invitations, albums, etc. "They also like the novelty of a different wedding date, and the fact that it will be an easy date to remember," said Saunders.

Jay and Suzanne Kelly, of Gaines, are celebrating their 11th wedding anniversary this Friday.

With Nov. 11 being the U.S. observance of Veterans Day and the Canadian and Australian observance of Remembrance Day, there may be added significance to some couples. This year's Veterans Day observance falls on a Friday, which makes this date attractive to many couples when planning their weddings. It creates an extended weekend for people who have the day off from work. "You can get cheaper rates on wedding venues by holding them on Fridays, sometimes as much as 25 percent off," said Saunders.

Jay and Suzanne Kelly, of Gaines, weren't thinking about the significance of Nov. 11 when they got married 11 years ago in Crosswell. But this year, they know it's a big event to celebrate. "I'm sure they'll be going out to dinner or doing something special to celebrate," said Jay's mother, Marie Kelly, of Frankenmuth. The couple has two children, Alyson, 7, and Andrew, 5, both students in Linden schools.

PAUL G. DONOHUE, M.D.

To your good health

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: What can I do to improve my chipping, splitting finger-nails? I was getting a weekly manicure but stopped due to economic reasons. My nails had grown stronger. Now they've become a disaster again. Please help. I take vitamins and calcium. — M.H.

ANSWER: Aging makes nails brittle, thin and fragile for quite a few people. Dryness fosters brittleness. After every handwashing and before going to bed, coat your nails with a moisturizer. Petroleum jelly (the many Vaseline products) works well. When washing dishes or putting your hands in water, wear waterproof gloves. Don't use nail polish remover often.

The B vitamin biotin toughens nails for some. You'll need 2.5 mg daily.

Neither calcium nor gelatin strengthens nails.

Dr. Donohue regrets that he is unable to answer individual letters, but he will incorporate them in his column whenever possible. Readers may write him or request an order form of available health newsletters at P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475.

HARRY POTTER AND THE DEATHLY HALLOWS: PART 2

In the epic finale, the battle between the good and evil forces of the wizarding world escalates into an all-out war. The stakes have never been higher and no one is safe. But it is Harry Potter who may be called upon to make the ultimate sacrifice as he draws closer to the climactic showdown with Lord Voldemort. What more can we say: Harry grows up. Kills the father figure. The end. Freud would have loved it.

THE CHANGE-UP

Growing up together, Mitch and Dave were inseparable best friends, but as the years have passed, they slowly drifted apart. While Dave is an overworked lawyer, husband and father of three, Mitch has remained a single, quasi-employed man-child who has never met a responsibility he liked. To Mitch, Dave has it all: beautiful wife Jamie, kids who adore him and a high-paying job at a prestigious law firm. To Dave, living Mitch's stress free life without obligation or consequence would be a dream come true. Following a drunken night out together, Mitch and Dave's worlds are turned upside down when they wake up in each other's bodies. The guys soon discover that each other's lives are nowhere near as rosy as they once seemed. Mitch and Dave comically struggle to avoid completely destroying each other's lives before they can find a way to get their old ones back.

Ninety-five students in three area school districts participated in the annual Knights of Columbus Fenton Council 7418 annual Spelling Bee on Wednesday, Nov. 2 at St. John's activity center.

Students from Linden, Lake Fenton and Fenton school districts participated, according to Bob Metcalfe, youth activity director.

First place winner in Level I is Jessica Bright, followed by first runner-up Devin Green. The second runner-up is Olivia Bossardett and the third runner-up is Olivia Osminski.

First place winner in Level II is Emily Fay, followed by first runner-up Vincent Barbaretta. The second runner-up is Emma Cagle and the third runner-up, Sam Petrarca.

Winners in each level earned a $75 savings bond and the first runners-up earned a $50 savings bond. "All the contestants did remarkably well and can be very proud of their accomplishments," said Metcalfe.

The next K of C event at local schools will be the annual Free Throw championship in January, according to Metcalfe.

Summary

► Top area spellers in the annual Knights of Columbus Spelling Bee at St. John's Activity Center competed for U.S. Savings Bond prizes and a chance to go on to regional competition.

Smothers never took off her coat and her keys were found under her body. Police said early on that a suspect seen leaving the Smothers' driveway was a white male, slight build, and with unkempt hair. He was driving a dark-colored medium-size car, with "buggy" looking headlights, possibly having a bra on the front of the car. The car was last seen northbound on Duffield Road.

When Smothers did not return to Industrial Propane, where she worked as officer manager, a coworker went out to the home to check on her. However, when there was no answer at the door, she assumed Smothers had gone out to lunch with someone and was running late.

Smothers' body was found around 3:15 p.m. that same day by her daughter who had just come home from school. After dozens of interviews and with no substantial leads, the case was turned over to investigators with the Michigan State Police.

- Thompson Center 50-caliber muzzleloader (serial number 33355)

A 44 Ruger rifle, with scope was also stolen from the home. It was later recovered from a gun shop in Virginia. The person who sold this rifle to the gun shop in 2001 used a fictitious name. Police are seeking information as to how this Ruger got from Smothers' home to the gun shop in Virginia.

DAVID'S PREP FOOTBALL REGIONAL FINALS QUICK PREVIEWS

For years, when it came to football playoff success in the tri-county area, there wasn't much to talk about.

Lake Fenton had a nice run in 2006, and Fenton had one last year. That was it. On Friday, Linden got its first district title with a 33-8 road thumping of Lapeer East. Then about 24 hours later, the Tigers won their second straight district championship at home, squashing Okemos 35-7. Suddenly, November football is fun. Both go into road regional championship matches on Saturday at 1 p.m. Both will be heavy underdogs.

Linden (7-4) at Orchard Lake St. Mary's (9-2): In two weeks the Eagles have won as many playoff games this year, as they had all years combined entering this season.

The Eaglets (9-2) are considered one of the favorites to get through the bracket and to Ford Field. It's a squad filled with potential D1 and D2 football players. Its running game should pose problems for Linden. They collected 380 rushing yards in a 62-20 victory against Redford Thurston on Friday night to win their district title. Grant Niemiec (147 yards) and Spencer McInnis (109 yards) each had effective ground games on Friday.

Quarterback Dan Clements is a more than capable signal caller.

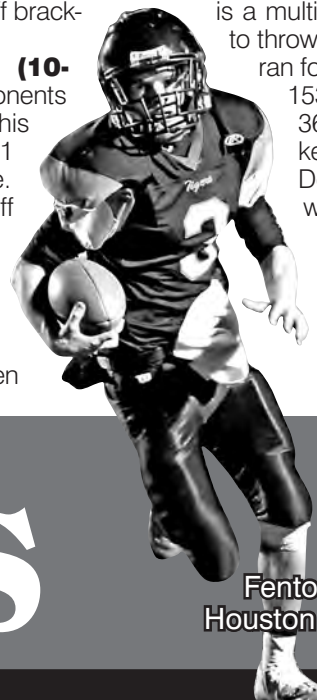

The defense is also strong, shutting out three opponents, including two teams that remain in one of the state playoff brackets. It's a loaded team.

Fenton (9-2) at Lowell (10-1): Lowell has limited six opponents to just seven or less points this year and has scored at least 21 points in every game, but one. It's a team that Fenton coach Jeff Setzke knows well since his brother-in-law is the coach. Both teams have seen each other at Lowell's 7-on-7 camps before.

The Tigers enter the contest as heavy underdogs. Lowell has been in a state championship game each of the last two years. Lowell's Gabe Dean is a multi-threat quarterback, able to throw and run with the ball. He ran for three TDs and threw for 153 yards in an eye-popping 36-7 victory against Muskegon last weekend. When Dean isn't running, which he will be doing about 30 times during the contest, watch out for Joshua Addington.

The Tigers need to play a near-flawless game just to have a shot at beating the Red Arrows.

Fenton captures second straight district title

Tigers blow Okemos contest open in second half

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Fenton — For the second straight season, the Fenton varsity football team is headed to a regional championship game.

The Tigers (9-2) earned it with a complete effort, slowly taking Okemos apart in each phase of the game in a 35-7 victory, Saturday at Fenton High School. The win means Fenton will play at Lowell Saturday at 1 p.m. for a chance at a regional championship for the second straight year. Last season, the Tigers lost that title shot 39-13 to Walled Lake Central. Lowell happens to be where Fenton coach Jeff Setzke's brother-in-law, Noel Dean, coaches.

And while it's the second straight season the Tigers have won a district title, it was the first one won at home. Last year, the Tigers won both district games in Midland.

"It's indescribable," Fenton senior Joe DeLaVergne said. "The second one in a row and the first one ever at home. It's great. The fans are great. We played great. I think we turned some heads. A lot of people were not picking us to win, but 35-7, that's a statement."

"It's hard to describe. It's amazing just being a part of it," Fenton senior Gannon Teall said. "When we came into the school, winning and making the playoffs was kind of a new thing, new territory. But now it's expected and we've started a tradition that we should continue for a long time."

"Last year people said it was a fluke, smoke and mirrors," quarterback Houston Shaw said. "This year we wanted to go out and prove everyone wrong, and prove we are a team to be reckoned with. We can go deep in the playoffs every year. That's what drove us."

Tied at 7-all at the half, the Tigers took the second-half kickoff and established a 71-yard, 10-play scoring drive, capped by Shaw's first of two second-half 19-yard touchdown runs. Kenny Allen made the second of his five extra points, putting the Tigers up 14-7.

"It was a pass play and I saw green grass and I took off," Shaw

Linden CC takes ninth at state meet

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com

The Linden varsity boys cross country team has put together a pretty nice era of state-caliber consistency in recent seasons.

The Eagles have gone to each of the last six state cross country meets, and have placed in the top 10 in five of them. Of course, the peak of that success was 2008's dominating performance, earning the Eagles the Division 2 State Championship.

That success continued this year. After finishing just 19th last year, the Eagles improved dramatically this season, earning a ninth-place finish in the Division 2 state event held at Michigan International Speedway.

"Yeah, we were happy with ninth place," senior runner Kirk Bennett said. "The top 10 has been our goal for the whole season."

"That was our goal from the beginning of the year after the Fenton — Make it eight straight Metro League titles.

The Fenton varsity girls swim team continued its trend of Metro League domination, crushing the field at the Metro League Swimming and Diving Championships held at Fenton High School on Friday and Saturday.

"It means a lot," Fenton swimmer Gabrielle Haaraoja said. "It's hard to own up to it if you think about it, and how we've kept it up for eight years. It's a lot. You don't want to be the team to end it."

"It's an accomplishment for us. We are really excited we can keep that record going," Fenton swimmer Sara Wujciak said. "It's our season goal. For the state kids it's not as much of a deal. Our goal is more to prepare for state. But it means more for the rest of the team and it's nice to be able to be there with the team. It was nice being the one cheering for everyone rather than it being just on you (at the state meet)."

There was a ton to cheer about at the meet. The Tigers took firsts in eight of the 12 events and finished 1-2 in the 100 freestyle. The Tigers also broke three meet records and broke a pool record.

The Tigers swept all three relays, winning the 200 medley relay to open Saturday's second day. The team of Meagan Cassner, Wujciak, Megan Rumbles first couple of meets,” Linden coach Clint Lawhorne said. “When we saw where we were we thought that was a reasonable goal.

“I was telling Dan Skinner, for me as a coach, this was a real important year. A lot of programs have one year, taper back and you don’t hear from them any more. We won, then dropped and dropped even further last year. But we moved back to ninth this year, and I think this is evidence that this program isn’t going anywhere. We placed in the top 10 for the fifth time in six years, and we are bringing back five of the seven runners at the state meet next year. We’ll have even higher expectations (next season).”

The Eagles had a lot of strong performances en route to that strong finish. Roger Phillips, a junior, capped what is only his second year of cross country running, taking 19th overall at the meet with a time of 16:11.5. His performance was good enough to make all-state honors.

“I didn’t think I could push myself that hard, but in the end I guess I could,” Phillips said. “I had a teammate yelling to me that I was 19th coming in the stadium and I wanted to at least stay there.”

Phillips’ placement ended up being 15th in the team portion of the event. The team placing includes only runners that had complete teams at the meet. There are many runners that qualify individually instead of with a team, making many runners’ overall placings higher than their team score placings.

After Phillips, Graham Elliott placed 67th overall (16:45.6). He was followed by two seniors who broke the 17-minute mark for the first time in their careers — Sam Moughler in 94th in 16:59.2 and Bennett in 95th in 16:59.5.

“I was content,” Bennett said. “I finished my high school career with a PR and I laid it all on the course. When I crossed the line, I saw 17:01 and was disappointed. Then I saw I had 16:59 and I was happy.

“It was my first time breaking 17 and it was kind of special to finish at the finish line (to have me and Moughler) at the exact same time together.”

Zach LeMieux took 111th (17:08.6) to cap Linden’s scorers. The team’s other runners were Kyle Susalla in 136th (17:20.6) and Adrian Taylor in 156th (17:31.9).

The Linden girls didn’t qualify as a team, but Sydney Elmer did qualify as an individual and placed 36th with a time of 19:17.2.

FENTON, LAKE FENTON AT STATE MEET

Fenton’s Matt Gilbert earned all-state honors, by taking 19th in the Division 1 meet at Michigan International Speedway. The senior placed 19th with a time of 15:56.2.

girls, Andrea Roe placed 152nd, capping her prep career with a time of 21:17.2 at the meet. Meanwhile, junior Becky Fernelius was 187th with a time of 21:58.1.

The Lake Fenton boys had just one state qualifier. That qualifier was Lake Fenton’s Caleb Fletcher. The sophomore placed 217th in 19:14.1.

and Kelsey Kidd took the top spot with a time of 1:58.37.

Later, the 200 freestyle relay team of Haley Shaw, Haaraaja, Kidd and Wujciak won that event with a pool record and meet record time of 1:41.94. The 400 freestyle relay team of Haaraaja, Rumbles, Kali Finger and Shaw capped the meet by swimming a 3:49.58.

The Tigers had four individuals finish with a first and a second in two individual events. Kidd had some strong time drops, qualifying for the state meet in her last chance, by taking first place in the 50 freestyle (25.88 seconds). She followed that by taking second in the 100 freestyle with a state-cut time of 56.10 seconds.

Haaraaja helped Kidd to that 100 freestyle time, by taking first with a time of 56.10. She also placed second in the 200 (2:02.46). Haaraaja, who didn’t rest for the league meet, was encouraged to see Kidd’s progress after she rested for just a handful of days before the meet.

“We had some close swims with me being so close to Kelsey in the 100,” Haaraaja said. “For her to get her state cut is really encouraging to me because it means I can swim really fast in two weeks (at the state meet).”

Wujciak broke a meet record with a first-place time of 1:10.95 in the breaststroke. She also took second in the 200 individual medley (2:15.07). Shaw had a meet record first-place performance in the 100 backstroke (1:00.11), and also took second in the 100 butterfly (59.48). Meanwhile, Finger earned the team’s final first, taking the top spot in the 500 freestyle (5:26.18).

One more individual earned a second. That was diver MacKenzie Deputy (288.65). Several other girls earned individual thirds. They were Finger in the 200 freestyle (2:05.20), Megan Rumbles in the 50 freestyle (1:05.31) Addison Ransom in the 500 freestyle (6:05.07) and Meagan Cassner in the 100 backstroke (1:07.03).

HOLLY BRONCHOS AT METRO LEAGUE MEET

The Holly Bronchos placed third at the event and had a couple of champions at the event. Courtney Konopitski won the 200 freestyle with a time of 2:01.19. Meanwhile, she also earned a second in the 100 backstroke (1:03.82).

The final first was earned by Hannah Micallef. She won diving with a score of 254.30.

Laura Franchowski had a strong meet, taking second in the 100 backstroke (1:13.40) and third in the 200 freestyle (2:19.21). Rachel Malvich took third in the 50 freestyle (26.69).

said. “I tip-toed down the left side.”

It remained 14-7 until late in the fourth quarter. Okemos punted from the Fenton 41, but the ball was blocked by Teall and picked up by Brennen Clarke. Clarke returned it about 35 yards for the TD. Fenton led 21-7 with 4.2 seconds left in the third quarter.

“They snapped it, I came off the edge and no one touched me,” Teall said. “We are kind of taught to aim for the air two yards in front of the punter, because he’s going to step up when he kicks it. I aimed for it in the air, he stepped up and I blocked it. I almost recovered it. Once I blocked it, it bounced over my head and Brennen got it and took it in for the touchdown.”

From there, the floodgates were opened against the Chieftains. Fenton’s Damon Thomas intercepted a pass at the Fenton 2 on Okemos’ next possession. After Fenton was forced to punt, Okemos failed to convert a fourth-and-11 play at the Fenton 36, giving them the ball back again.

Fenton iced the victory on their next drive. Set up by a 25-yard completion to Trent Grimes, Shaw ran the next play around the right side for his second 19-yard TD. Fenton led 28-7 with 4:23 remaining.

“The line blocked great all night,” Shaw said. “And our receivers are great stalk blockers, and that’s what put me in the end zone.”

A sack by Peter Cox on Okemos’ next possession pretty much dashed that drive. Then, Fenton’s Gerad Wegener ran the ball five straight plays, eventually capping a 22-yard drive with a two-yard TD run. Fenton led 35-7 with 39.6 seconds left.

Both teams scored TDs on extended drives in the first half. Okemos scored first, going 99 yards on 18 plays, scoring on Jonny Bolas’ one-yard run with 6:23 left in the first half. The Tigers returned the favor, going 78 yards on 18 plays, scoring on Trent Grimes’ 13-yard TD run from Shaw.

Okemos’ offense managed just 178 yards on 48 plays. Bolas managed just 38 yards on 18 carries, and completed just 4-of-10 passes for 68 yards.

“When we all play together, it’s hard to move on our ‘D,’” DeLaVergne said. “When we are clicking like that, talking and communicating, we’re hard to beat. We had a great week of practice and we wanted it. We really wanted it.”

Fenton mustered just 257 yards themselves, but got 155 of those yards on 35 rushing attempts. Shaw had 101 rushing yards on 21 carries. He completed 11-of-20 passes for 102 yards. Quinton Mandle caught five of those passes for 44 yards, while Grimes had five catches for 50 yards.
