Orchards are working around a severely diminished apple crop. Historically, Michigan is the third largest apple producer.

Orchards adapt to keep doors open

► Apples from other areas will replace lost crops

By Ryan Tackabury

An apple a day may keep the doctor away, but the combined effects of an uncharacteristically warm spring and an untimely drought are keeping the apples at bay.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture and Rural Development estimates that up to 90 percent of Michigan's apple crop might have been lost this year due to unfavorable weather conditions. This includes the warm period earlier this spring that caused apples to start growing early only to be killed off by the freeze as the temperature dipped back down.

Local orchards have adapted to the situation, though with such a shortage of supply and the

Patricia Johnson, owner of a mobile home that was destroyed by fire last Friday in Rose Township is left looking for any belongings that might be salvageable in the wreckage. Her 62-year-old husband, who was burned beyond recognition in the fire, was sleeping there along with his 60-year-old brother.

Authorities have yet to release the victim's name as his body was so badly burned that positive identification is pending the medical examiner's report.

To keep others out, her husband and his brother stayed there to keep an eye on things and to protect it from intruders. The power had been shut off about a year ago.

Last Friday morning, North Oakland County Fire Authority (NOCFA) received a 911 call at 3:41 a.m. from the next-door neighbor of Johnson's mobile home. Jeremy Southern Lakes Parks & Recreation debuts its Fall Edition of community programming as an insert in this issue of the Times. "Fall is a busy time for us, as many of our classes follow the local school schedules," said Vince Paris, SLPR executive director.

Programs include many sports activities — from flag football to senior swimming — that are designed for youth, families and seniors, plus a number of special events.

A first-ever "Man to Man Sale" is set for Saturday, Sept. 29 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Fenton Community & Cultural Center parking lot. "Men are invited to sell tools, sports equipment, lawn and garden, electronics, etc., but weapons are strictly prohibited," said Paris.

Grocery list basics

Multiple meals from your freezer, fridge, and pantry

By Tim Jagielo

tjagiolo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

It takes extra work and planning to make a variety of healthy meals throughout the week. To make it easier, there are items that are multi-purpose and work with several different recipes. This is a strategy that Ron Donahue, assistant store director of VG's on North LeRoy Street takes with his family.

"We always do, we have kids at home and it's important to eat healthy," he said, adding that a healthy menu contributes to being fit overall.

In his house, they're always ready to make Italian meals. "It's pretty important we have hamburger in the freezer and pasta sauce and noodles." This is a typical meal his sons will eat, and the materials are usually on hand.

The Times has compiled a list of the top items for your pantry, your freezer and your refrigerator.

Questions posed by readers

What is the best example of hypocrisy in the world?

Unquestionably, women's magazines. Every issue since the invention of the printing press has contained some form of these two subject stories: All Men Are Swine and How To Attract A Man.

Where does rain comes from?

All water originates from glaciers. Several million years ago the glaciers, through a process called migration, moved to Florida, an area now inhabited almost entirely by old men wearing chest-high plaid pants and eating dinner at 4 p.m. During the glaciers centuries-long journey they carved out millions of lakes through a process called excavation. These lakes provide the water that creates clouds through a process called evaporation. These clouds in turn provide rain through a process called precipitation. After falling back to the earth, the rain seeps into underground wells, which are then tapped by a foreign-owned Fortune 500 brewery and made into beer through a process called fermentation. Finally, the cycle is completed when this beer is consumed by boaters and fishermen through a process called inebriation, and, ironically, deposited back into the very lakes it originated from through a process called urination.

Has President Obama ever had a hole-in-one?

No, his golf game is on par with his leadership skills. But two other presidents have. Richard Nixon scored a hole-in-one on Labor Day, 1961, seven years before becoming president. He used a six iron on the par three third hole, at Bel Air Country Club in Los Angeles. Dwight Eisenhower's occurred after his presidency in 1968 when he aced the 13th, 104-yard par three at Seven Lakes Country Club in California.

What are the biggest differences between being young and old?

THEN: Long Hair
NOW: Longing for hair.
THEN: KEG.
NOW: EKG.
THEN: Acid Rock.
NOW: Acid Reflux.
THEN: You're growing pot.
NOW: Your growing pot.
THEN: Killer weed.
NOW: Weed killer.
THEN: "Whatever"

NOW: "Depends"
THEN: Hoping for a BMW.
NOW: Hoping for a BM.

What single product do you think is the best value for your money?

Consider the lowly pencil. Lumber workers cut the trees that sawmill workers shape into milled wood, while miners draw the graphite from deep in the earth, and others smelt and shape it into the thin rod which is somehow encased in the octagonal tube of wood, which is then gaily painted, varnished and stamped with a name, motto or snappy saying, topped with a milled metal tip (also mined and processed and stamped) which contains a pink eraser made of gum from some remote jungle. This pillar of communication technology then becomes available to you and me at the shockingly irrational low price of — about 10 cents.

Linden man rescues 12-year-old boy from Lake Michigan riptide

“They were bobbing up on the waves, calling out in defeated voices.”

By Olivia Dimmer, intern
news@tctimes.com; 810-433-6823

Israel Thatcher, 21, of Linden, said that he wasn't thinking about the 5-foot waves rolling onshore of Van's Beach in Leland Township, or the riptide that had pulled out 12-year-old Patrick Corrigan and his father, John in early August. He wasn't thinking about the strong currents or wind. Thatcher simply heard calls for help and responded.

“The cries went over my head at first but I heard it again and saw a middle aged guy and a boy,” Thatcher said. “They were bobbing up on the waves, calling out in defeated voices.”

Thatcher swam out to the boy, realizing how difficult the rescue was going to be.

“I was already exhausted, and the boy kept grabbing around my neck,” Thatcher said. “A wave crashed right on top of me. When I got done rolling around in the wave I felt my feet hit the sand.”

The boy's father was helped onshore by another rescuer, and met his son when Thatcher brought him in.

“It was an emotional time for them,” Thatcher said. “Handshakes and tears were exchanged. It was a beautiful feeling that everyone made it back safe. Almost indescribable.”

Thatcher, who was visiting his grandparents on the day of the rescue, said he has had no training that would have helped him in the rescue. It was simple luck.

Soon after the incident, Thatcher's grandparents, Steve and Sally Miklos of Leland, received a visit from the man that Thatcher had helped to rescue.

“The man biked up to my grandparents house and told them how he felt, it gave me goose bumps when my grandparents relayed the message to me,” Thatcher said.

“He also wrote a letter.”

The letter stated, “My name is John Corrigan. I believe your grandson rescued my son at Vans Beach yesterday. He saved our lives and I'm not sure how to thank him but want to try. John.”

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | FENTON POLICE DEPT.

The three occupants of this car were hospitalized after the 20-year-old driver from Argentine Township took Fenton police on a nearly mile-long chase, lost control and crashed it into a utility pole on Silver Lake Road, near Lincoln Street.

Three hospitalized after police chase ends in crash

►Alcohol suspected

Three occupants of a car were transported to Genesys Health Park in Grand Blanc Township after the car they were traveling in crashed early Wednesday morning. Two are from Fenton Township, one is from Argentine Township.

At approximately 5:30 a.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 29, a Fenton police officer heard on his radio that occupants of a car caused some damage to a lawn in Tyrone Township and the driver was blaring the horn as they drove away. The officer, on patrol on Fenway Drive, heard a car horn coming from the Owen Road area. He observed a white, 2006 Ford two-door car traveling erratically from Grant Street onto northbound Fenway Drive. The officer, who was traveling southbound, turned the patrol car around to investigate.

The car accelerated as it traveled northbound on Fenway Drive. The driver of the car refused to stop for the fully marked patrol car that had its emergency lights and siren activated.

The officer followed as the car turned east onto Silver Lake Road. It continued east until the driver lost control of the car and struck a utility pole near Lincoln Street. Police closed Silver Lake Road for about an hour while officers completed their investigation and Consumers Power cleared downed electrical wires.

The 20-year-old male driver from Argentine Township and male passengers ages 19 and 20 were transported to the hospital. The leg of the 20-year-old passenger was broken during the crash and he underwent surgery at the hospital. The driver and 19-year-old passenger have been released from the hospital.

Lt. Jason Slater said alcohol is believed to be a factor in the crash. He said that the police department will be seeking an arrest warrant on the driver, who has a prior operating while intoxicated (OWI) conviction. Slater said OWI, causing serious injury is a five-year felony. Fenton police will also be working with Livingston County to see if this car was involved with the reported lawn damage in Tyrone Township.

Summary

►Fenton police are investigating a Wednesday morning crash that sent three individuals to the hospital.

MAKING SENSE OF INVESTING

Keep Income Producers Working Hard ... Even When Rates Are Low

Next week, we observe Labor Day, which honors all the hard-working men and women in the United States. As an investor, you'd like to think that all your investments are working hard, too — including the ones that are producing income. But can your income-oriented investments be productive when short-term interest rates are at historic lows? Or can you find other investment possibilities that could potentially boost your cash flow?

The answer to both these questions is “yes” — but you may have to take a closer look at where you stand on the risk-reward spectrum.

For example, you might need to consider longer-term income producers, which typically pay higher yields than shorter-term equivalents. Longer-term fixed-rate securities, such as bonds, must pay these higher rates to reward investors, who face both interest-rate risk — the possibility that interest rates will rise, causing the value of existing bonds to fall — and inflation risk, the threat of losing purchasing power by the time long-term bonds have matured. Still, you may be willing to accept these risks in exchange for the higher yields.

However, you may be looking for income producers that can work hard for you without having to hold them for a long period to maturity. This is because the “yield curve” — the line that plots the relationship between yield and maturity — is fairly steep right now, which, in English, means you can gain noticeably higher yields just by modestly increasing the maturity of your investments. Your financial advisor can suggest some short-term and intermediate-term vehicles that may be appropriate for your needs. And while these rates will still not be as high as those offered by longer-term vehicles, they do offer flexibility — along with less interest-rate risk and inflation risk.

You can also help protect yourself from these risks by building a “ladder” consisting of short-, intermediate- and longer-term bonds and certificates of deposit (CDs). Once you've built your ladder, it can help you weather changing interest-rate environments. When market rates are low, you'll still have your longer-term bonds and CDs earning higher interest rates. And when market rates rise, you'll be able to reinvest your maturing short-term investments at the higher levels. If you need the cash, you can liquidate the maturing bonds and CDs.

Thus far, we've only looked at fixed-rate investments — but you may also be able to boost your income by owning dividend-paying stocks. Some companies have paid — and even increased — their stock dividends for many years in a row. If you're not in need of the cash, you can reinvest the dividends and boost your ownership stake, which is a key to increasing your wealth. But if you do need the money, you can take the dividends as cash. Keep in mind that income producers are not a “sure thing” because companies can decide to reduce, or even discontinue, their dividends at any time. In addition, history tells us that you may experience more price volatility from stocks, and they can be worth more or less than the original investment when sold.

As you can see, you can find ways to keep income-producing investments working hard for you, despite the prevailing low interest rates. So consider your options, weigh the risks — and then work with your financial advisor to make those choices that are right for you.

You must evaluate whether a bond or CD ladder and the securities held within it are consistent with your investment objectives, risk tolerance and financial circumstances. Certificates of deposit (CDs) are federally insured up to $250,000 (principal and interest accrued but not yet paid) per issuing institution. Please visit fdic.gov or contact your financial advisor for additional information. CD values are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of CDs can decrease. If CDs are sold prior to maturity, the investor can lose principal value. FDIC insurance does not cover losses in market value. Before investing in bonds, you should understand the risks involved, including interest rate risk, credit risk and market risk. Bond investments are subject to interest rate risk such that when interest rates rise, the prices of bonds can decrease, and the investor can lose principal value if the investment is sold prior to maturity. The value of bonds fluctuates, and you may lose some or all of your principal.

Police&Fire report

BUSINESS OWNER WARNS OF SCAM

The UPS Store in Fenton is advising area residents to be aware of fraudulent e-mail scams that have been recently circulating the Internet. Les Beare, the owner of the Fenton store said that he has had a rash of calls from concerned customers about an e-mail they received. Beare has been warning his customers not to click on any of the links and to delete the e-mail immediately. "A good practice is to hover (but do not click) over a suspicious link," said Beare. "It will display the Internet site connected to the link. If it doesn't say www.ups.com or https://epackage1.ups.com, do not click on it." UPS does not request payments, personal information, financial information, account numbers, IDs, passwords, or copies of invoices in an unsolicited manner through e-mail, mail, phone, or fax or specifically in exchange for the transportation of goods or services. Beare said that other carriers such as FedEx and the USPS (post office) are also experiencing a higher volume of these attacks.

INTOXICATED MAN THREATENS COPS

Just before 2 a.m. on Friday, Aug. 31, Fenton police responded to the 1000 block of North Road to investigate a report of a disorderly man. When police arrived, they observed a male standing in the eastbound lane of North Road. He could be heard yelling and swearing and threatening to assault the officers if they approached. Officers detected the odor of intoxicants coming from the man. The man told police he had been at a bar and people were taunting him and he was in the street to confront those people. The 38-year-old Fenton man was taken into custody and a preliminary breath test came back as .18 percent blood alcohol content. He was lodged at the police station and released Friday, when sober. He has an Oct. 1 court date for disorderly intoxication and for verbally threatening officers.

WOMAN REPORTS BREAK-IN ON SWANEE BEACH

On Aug. 30, a 55-year-old Fenton woman reported to Fenton police that while she was out of town in late July, someone entered her home, in the 14000 block of Swanee Beach Drive through an unlocked window. She discovered that cash was missing from her bedroom and a bottle of liquor was missing. Lt. Jason Slater said she reported it now after hearing of similar incidents in her neighborhood. Police have no suspects.

IT SADDENS ME to hear that we are losing an all around amazing man from the Lake Fenton football team, Coach Hyder. He has devoted so much time to our group of boys and should be out on the field with them. Do what it takes and get him back.

THOMAS' ARTICLE ON Helen Gurley Brown was concerning. Saying women who supported her 'ingested her poison' and implying their lives are now 'shattered' due to her influence sounds like a man who is threatened by the influence an intelligent woman can have over society. Any other women offended?

TO THE WARD and Starrs families — please know that you are in our prayers each and every day. We pray that your little Bella will recover and go on to lead a wonderful and healthy life. The community stands behind you all in this difficult time.

IS THIS A joke? The city of Fenton would spend $193,823 to add parking? What grassy area are you going to rip out? The council needs to stop spending our tax dollars on things we cannot afford right now. Just say no! It's not hard.

THANKS TO THE parents who complained about Fenton buses being unable to route all over the state of Michigan to pick up your kids. The bus that passes right in front our house is no longer able to pick up my kids. Much appreciated! (In my best sarcastic font.)

WHEN WILL THE idiots on Orchard Drive in Holly realize the neighbors have easement rights to the lake and not put their pontoon boat on there all winter? It is illegal, as they have been told by lawyers, police and village of Holly. Obey the law.

FENTON, WE CANNOT afford to pay higher taxes for yet another school bond. Our existing tax dollars should be paying for buses. Why not try some cost-cutting ideas to help fund technology instead of raising taxes. No means no.

WE HAVE BEEN very satisfied with the work Enbridge has done on our property. Two years ago, we had an assigned contact agent and again this year we have someone to talk to and answer questions as often as we'd like. Keep up the good job Enbridge.

ARGENTINE RESIDENTS, KEEP a tight grip on your wallets. The township is coming after more of our money again, township wide for police, fire and garbage. The majority of the board ignored our requests at the last needs hearing. Please make note of how they vote this time around.

FENTON NEEDS A Golden Corral or Old Country Buffet type of restaurant. Also loved the recent suggestion of a reasonably priced jazz restaurant.

Vandalism at nature sanctuary angers stewards

►Couple asks others to keep watchful eye, deter destruction

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Over the last few months, Dauner Martin Nature Sanctuary in Fenton has been vandalized multiple times and stewards of the park would like it to stop. The most recent destruction was when an unknown person or people cut down a 100-foot-tall maple tree with an ax.

Sue McEwen and her husband, of Argentine Township, are stewards of the nature sanctuary and are hoping that nearby residents and other community members will be more observant and report any suspicious activity.

In April, the park was the site of the Michigan Nature Association's Odyssey Tour. It has a variety of natural habitats and unique species of plants and animals.

Summary

►Stewards of the Dauner Nature Sanctuary in Fenton are bringing concerned residents together in an attempt to stop vandalism at the nature park.

Sue McEwen said they do not know who cut down the maple tree, or why. In addition to this, several laminated trail maps have been ripped down and strewn across the trails and benches have been broken. Past damage has been reported to Fenton police, however, the cutting down of the tree has not yet been reported.

The McEwens are attempting to gather a group of concerned people who would be willing to take a more active role in keeping an eye on the nature sanctuary. To get involved, call the McEwens at (810) 735-5832 or contact Katherine Hollins of the Michigan Nature Association at (517) 525-2627 or khol-lins@michigannature.org.

SAFETY ISSUES

Lintz, fire chief of NOCFA said he, along with his captain and one of NOCFA's fire trucks arrived on scene at 3:44 a.m., three minutes after the initial 911 call.

The only access into the mobile home community is through the village of Holly on Cogshall Street, which has a railroad crossing. The community, just south of the village limits, is somewhat of a triangular peninsula as it is bordered by two sets of merging railroad tracks and marshland.

Another NOCFA fire truck en route on Cogshall Street reported to dispatch that a train was passing and they had to stop at the tracks at 3:54 a.m. This fire truck arrived on scene at 3:57 a.m., or three minutes later, according to Lintz. "It was bad timing," he said.

Johnson has expressed concern that the only entrance into that entire subdivision is Cogshall Street, which runs through both Rose Township and Holly Village. She fears time can be wasted as emergency responders wait at the railroad crossing for a passing train. The department responds to an average of two structure fires per year in this subdivision.

Lintz said his department rarely has to stop at the train crossing, but it does happen. He said, that many years ago, it was much worse, when trains often stopped in this area. NOCFA expressed concern and trains no longer stop.

In this most recent fire, Lintz does not believe the second rig having to wait at the train tracks made a difference in the man's death. He said the victim's brother, who had been sleeping in the living room and escaped, tried for several minutes to get his brother out, by running around to the other side of the home and pounding on his bedroom window. There was no phone in the home and he did not have a cell phone.

Lintz said NOCFA and state police believe a lit candle in the living room where the 62-year-old man was sleeping sparked the fire.

After several minutes of pounding on the bedroom window, the next-door neighbor awakened, came out to investigate and called 911, said Lintz.

Lintz wishes there were another entrance to the subdivision, but believes there is no place to put one, short of building a bridge over a section of railroad tracks. "There's no other physical access other than a bridge," he said. "It was poor planning." He believes the subdivision was built in the early 1970s.

The fire chief said he will be addressing the Rose Township Board of Trustees at its next meeting asking for its assistance in enforcing safety codes in this subdivision. He said the low-income subdivision is a mix of mobile homes, manufactured homes and traditional homes. Many of the mobile homes are 30 or more years old and not in very good condition.

Lintz' focus is to have all of these homes brought up to code.

BEWARE!

I JUST FOUND out my employer is waiting for Obamacare before they set up next year's insurance. They will cancel or raise the insurance for workers so they can't afford it and have to take the cheaper Obamacare. Those retired, like me, will have a big raise hike or drop it and have to go to Obama's insurance. Now, how do you like the change?

A VOTE FOR Romney is a vote of the rich, by the rich, and for the rich. A vote for Ryan is a vote against Medicare and Social Security. Voting for them is suicide for the working man.

HOPEFULLY, AMERICANS ARE smart enough to see through the claims that the rich should not pay more tax because they are job creators. Bush passed two huge tax cuts for the rich resulting in total failure. Upon his departure, we were losing 80,000 jobs a month.

IF ROMNEY DOESN'T have a job, why would we want to elect a man who is unemployed to be President of the United States?

THE DNC HAS gone over the top using little kids to rant about Allen West. They know nothing about politics. Where are the parents?

THE NATIONAL DEFICIT for this fiscal year will be about $1.3 trillion. This is 8.7 percent of our GDP, which is two and a half times the allowable and customary figure. The U.S. economy is barely growing as you can see.

The following Hot lines are all political commentary

HEY ALL, HERE'S a radical idea. Since men have been running this country since it began in the 1700s, maybe it's time to surrender the reins to the women. We sure can't do any worse than what the men are doing, can we?

I AM STILL waiting for the gods of the Republican party to explain to me how they are going to be better than Obama without taking everything away from me that I have very little of left.

WHY SHOULD ROMNEY be entitled to millions of dollars sitting in the bank while people are going hungry? If he is the humanitarian he says he is, he would use his affluence to help others less fortunate.

ACTIVITIES

Hunter Safety is one of SLPR's most well attended fall events, with a two-day class on Oct. 6-7 at Fenton Lakes Sportsman's Club or an online/field day option.

Summary

► This fall offers numerous opportunities for free and low cost classes and events for youth, adults and seniors through Southern Lakes Parks & Recreation and other collaborating groups.

Kids ages 1 to 10 will enjoy the annual Linden Fall Festival Trick or Treat on Saturday, Oct. 6 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Linden wooden playscape. Another Halloween-themed event is the showing of the G-rated movie, "Spooky Buddies," on Friday, Oct. 19 at 6 p.m. at the community center. There is free admission due to SLPR's partnership with the Fenton DDA.

A Mom-to-Mom Sale is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 13 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the community center, for an admission fee of just $1. Registration deadline is Friday, Oct. 5.

Many youth sports programs start up again this fall, including gymnastics, swimming and dance. Flag football for first-through sixth-grade students has a registration deadline of Sept. 12, according to Kristen Archambeau, SLPR program coordinator. "We're expecting interest to spike this year in sports like swimming, gymnastics and table tennis because of the Olympics," added Paris.

The Fenton Table Tennis Club plays all year round on Tuesdays from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Fenton Intermediate School. Fees are $2 a night for adults and $1 for students in 12-week sessions.

"Our goal is to use these programs to expose more people to what we offer at Southern Lakes, plus give back to the community when we can."

Vince Paris
Executive director

New for both boys and girls this year is a Baton Program designed for ages 6 through 12. "It's a pilot program starting Tuesday, Oct. 2 through Dec. 4 from 6 to 6:45 p.m. at West Shore Elementary," said Paris. "More and more college scholarships are being offered for this trend-setting sport."

Moms who are sending their children back to school next week will appreciate fall programs like morning aerobics, yoga, Pilates cardio dance mix and more. New in the schedule is a Tap/Jazz Class beginning Sept. 11 on Tuesdays from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. at the Lake Fenton Middle School Dance Studio.

Also new this fall is a "Put the Pep Back in Your Step" program instructed by holistic counselor Marjie Andrejciw on Tuesday, Oct. 9 at 6:30 p.m. at the community center.

Local families will notice that many programs are free or at nominal cost. "We try to balance our programming," explained Paris. "Anytime we can partner with another group to host a free or nominal fee program, we try to do so. Our goal is to use these programs to expose more people to what we offer at Southern Lakes, plus give back to the community when we can."

For more information, visit www.slpr.net or call the SLPR office at (810) 714-2011. The office is located at the community center, 150 South LeRoy St. in Fenton.

The Linden Fall Festival arrives in time for Halloween this year.

Baton will be added to the SLPR roster for the first time this season.

PANTRY STAPLES:

- Canned tomatoes are used in many different dishes, and are available in different cuts — diced, whole, etc. They're inexpensive and available anytime.
- Peanut butter can be used on sandwiches, but also meal replacement smoothies, and different Asian dishes. It's high in protein.
- Canned tuna can be made into sandwiches, and also casseroles, and pan-fried breaded patties. It can be a cold salad topper, and comes in a variety of flavors.
- Rice is versatile, lasts a long time in the pantry, and is filler for many main dishes. Whole grain is the healthiest, and if you're feeling creative, you can use it to make your own Philadelphia or sushi rolls.
- Beans, like rice, are an important, healthy filler for meals, and rich in protein. Dry beans take longer to prepare, but they cost less than canned beans. Try a mix of pinto, black, or red beans. Beans go with many different dishes, and are inexpensive.
- Dry pasta can be used as a side dish, or go with sauces to make many Italian dishes. Pasta also lasts for a very long time on the shelf, and is cheap to buy.
- Spaghetti sauce obviously goes with the dry pasta for a quick meal. Canned sauce also lasts a very long time, and comes in a variety of flavors.
- Broth or soup stock can replace water for different recipes, and add flavor to cooking rice. Try low fat, or vegetable broth.
- Garlic can be prepared and cooked in a variety of ways, and is versatile, able to be used in many different international dishes. It also can lower cholesterol and prevent heart disease. It's available in clove form, a jar, or with other seasonings in the baking aisle.

- Olive oil can be used to stir fry vegetables, or coat pans for cooking. It heats up quickly, and contains antioxidants.

BEWARE!

The following Hot lines are all political commentary

OBAMA HAS INVITED 20,000 Muslims to the DNC. I wonder how many are sympathetic to the Muslim Brotherhood and work in the Obama Administration. Go to Liberty Alliance at alert@libertyalliance.com to find out.

WHEN YOU TALK to a Michigander about politics, you will lose the battle. They are all 'know-it-alls.' They all have PhDs in government politics. They are all voting Democrat no matter who is running. They vote with blinders on. They want another four years of economic misery.

VOTE FOR WHO? Romney: pro-life, smaller government, balanced budget, no tax increase, repeal and replace ObamaCare, jobs, fewer regulations, secure the borders. Obama: free condoms, birth control pills, abortions when the previous doesn't work, partial birth abortions and when baby is born alive, let them die or worst.

WE BUILT THIS. What the heck, this country was not built by the rich, it was built by all of us and most of the blood and sweat was done by the poor and the middle class, which still doesn't get its fair share.

HOW IS IT that there are two politicians in Rose Township that have requested recounts on their elections and no one has said boo about it? Another waste of taxpayer money, (yes, the township gets to pay for those recounts). Enough is enough already. Quit wasting our money Ms. Slaughter.

GET RID OF Harry Reid and we will have a budget. Oh, I forgot he's Democrat, Obama's right hand man. Obama does not want a budget so he can extend the wage freeze for all government employees.

WIFE

Richard and his brother Michael were sleeping in the trailer that belonged to Johnson, and the power had been off for a year. She said an issue with identity theft led to an exorbitant bill she couldn't pay.

Johnson and her daughters have kept vigil over the site and she has slept in a tent to protect the space from looters.

"Saturday, I was talking to the church, I was at the funeral home, I was at Great Lakes cemetery, trying to make arrangements, and I come back and all the copper water pipes are gone," she said. "We have to take all the metal, the copper, everything, to bury my husband, I have nothing. This is what we have."

Her husband didn't carry life insurance, and a friend suggested they scrap the trailer to give him a proper burial.

As the family sat and talked amongst themselves, volunteers dragged charred

Summary

► The family of Richard Johnson, who died in a mobile home fire last Friday, is trying to gather enough scrap from the trailer to provide him a proper funeral. Though they believe it is Richard Johnson, 62, he has not been positively identified by the medical examiner.

aluminum from the pile, and loaded it onto trucks. One of the volunteers was neighbor John Austin. "It's been pretty rough on us all, I've known him for about six years," he said. Austin was there when the fire happened, and called 911.

Richard's body still hasn't been positively identified, but Johnson hopes a set of false teeth she found in the remains of the trailer might put the issue to rest, and then maybe they can put him to rest too.

Brother Michael was in the trailer during the fire. He escaped and tried to rouse his brother to get him out. On Thursday, he sat in a lawn chair, smoking Newports, gazing over what was left of the trailer. He admitted he was only still there because the Times was there. "I don't stick around very much," he said. "I don't like being here. I kind of watched my brother die."

Johnson said, "He was trying to get my husband out, (Richard) was saying, 'It's hot in here.'"

According to North Oakland County Fire Authority (NOCFA) records, fire fighters arrived on scene around three minutes after they received the 911 call. Patricia was behind a second fire unit, but she had to wait three minutes until the train passed. The train was blocking the only entrance to the park.

"That's been a fight we've all had in here," she said. According to Johnson, the park is contractually obligated to provide two entrances, but now, the neighborhood is hemmed in by train tracks and marshland. NOCFA chief Jeremy Lintz was first on scene, and said there probably wasn't another place to put an entrance, barring a bridge over the tracks.

Johnson and her family have learned bitter lessons, as friends have revealed themselves to be fickle in her time of need, but she has also seen the generosity of strangers, who have dropped water off at her make-shift camp site.

"I've lived here 36 years, it's been my home," she said.

For now, she will live in the tent to protect what's left of what she has, in hopes of burying her husband.

Linden moves to 2-0, defeats Bronchos 37-14

►Eagles dominate both sides of the ball after slow start vs. Holly

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden — Shaye Brown is never short of quality receivers to throw the ball to.

Two weeks into the Linden varsity football season, he's proven that pretty effectively.

Brown completed passes to eight different Linden Eagles' receivers, completing 33-for-43 passes for 370 yards in Linden's 37-14 Metro League victory against the Holly Bronchos at Claude Cranston Field Thursday night.

"The thing is we have five receivers, including the running back, and everyone is an athlete," Brown said. "So when you try to go man, we just go over them. We just spread it out. They can't double-team and they can't zone. Our receivers are too athletic and too smart to stop. Whoever is open, I'll get it to them."

And after a slow start for the Eagles on all sides of the ball — Linden trailed 14-0 with 5:16 left in the first quarter — it seemed there was no stopping the squad.

Linden tied the contest up at 14-all before halftime. After the offense was stopped at its own 9 on its first possession, Linden drove 70 yards on 11 plays on its second possession, cutting the gap in half. Brown completed 6-of-8 passes for 62 yards and to five different receivers during the drive, eventually scoring on Brown's one-yard TD run around the left side. Cameron Cook made the first of his three extra points, cutting the Holly lead to 14-7 with 1:34 left in the first quarter.

After allowing a 95-yard TD run by Evin Papuga on Holly's second play from scrimmage during the contest, giving the Bronchos a 14-0 lead with 6:12 left in the first quarter, the Eagles' defense got stingy the rest of the game, allowing just six first downs. Three of those came on an uneventful fourth-quarter possession that ended in an interception by Linden's Garrett Beaudry. Holly ran just 31 plays for 220 yards, but only had 122 yards after the Bronchos' first two plays from scrimmage.

Linden eventually tied it on a drive that became a pattern during the

Fenton bounces back with win vs. Adrian, 34-6

The Fenton varsity football team had a long trip to Adrian High School for their second contest of the season.

So apparently the Tigers made it worth their while.

The Tigers (1-1) had 339 yards total offense and scored five TDs, while the defense pitched a shutout until late, resulting in a convincing 34-6 non-league victory at Adrian Thursday night.

"It was not an easy game by any stretch of the imagination. They are a good football team," Fenton coach Jeff Setzke said. "We happened to play our 'A' game. Next week we have a huge one against Holly and it's one we definitely want to get."

Fenton got two TDs from Mitch

Linden soccer wins round #1 vs. Fenton Tigers, 1-0

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Fenton — Colin Hoeberling understands that it's a big deal for Linden to beat Fenton in any sport at any time.

It's especially true when the dryspell lasts a few years.

Hoeberling earned a shutout in net, resulting in a 1-0 Linden boys soccer victory against the Fenton Tigers at Fenton High School on Tuesday.

"It's a big deal," said Hoeberling, who made six saves against Fenton. "That's my first time beating Fenton in anything since the seventh grade, so it's a big deal to me."

Another big deal is how well Hoeberling and his defense have been playing so far this season. The Eagles recorded their fifth shutout of the season during the victory. And on Tuesday Hoeberling and his team defense hardly allowed a dangerous shot all night long. While he made six saves, most were fairly routine. About the only one that wasn't came on a direct kick from about 40 yards out with 4:30 left in the contest. Fenton's Bradley Gornick took it and the ball sailed towards the crossbar of the Linden goal. Hoeberling jumped and punched it over the crossbar for his biggest save of the night. Beyond that shot, Hoeberling wasn't tested that much. Starting defenders Cody Guy, Ben Thornton, Cole Birchmeier and A.J. Brasuer were strong all night long.

"The defense has been great. They've been stopping everything in front of me," Hoeberling said. "With that defense in front of me I probably should have a couple more shutouts."

"I get nervous (on saves near the crossbar) because I've had some bad experiences with them. But with that one, I just got over the crossbar and got the save."

Linden scored the game's only goal with 17:02 left in the first half when Tyler Ziccardi assisted a goal put in by Zach Bakos. The ball was sent toward the net and eventually went in when Bakos deflected it in close the goal mouth.

Beyond that attempt it wasn't like Linden (5-2) had a bunch of scoring chances themselves. In fact, Fenton probably had the first real good chance about eight minutes into the game on a corner kick attempt. Jacob Kinsman crossed the ball to Kyle Costigan, who headed it toward the net. However, it sailed high of the woodwork.

The next real scoring chance was the actual goal. Another good Linden chance came with just 2:55 left in the half. Linden's Kyle Frederick crossed a ball to Nolan McDonald, who took the shot. Fenton's Carl Berkey made the save, one of four he made during the game.

In the second half, neither team really had a golden scoring chance beyond the Tigers' opportunity late. Perhaps the next best chance was a Fenton shot as well. Gornick took that shot as well on a direct kick from about 25 yards out. However, the shot to the near-side post was easily saved by Hoeberling.

It was a physical game. The contest featured 30 fouls, including 21 by Fenton.

Linden coach Kevin Fiebertz was pleased with his team's performance.

"The defense has been good," Fiebertz said. "Arguably one of our better players was out (Kevin Wright) and we told them everyone was going to have to step up. They did a good job. The guys did well. It wasn't the crispest and cleanest game the guys have played, but the bottom line is it was effective. It was a good result and that's what we are trying to do. It's a good confidence builder."

"We played good as a team," Hoeberling said. "We gave up only about five shots (six shots on net) the entire game. That's about it."

"We are great passers and have a lot of people from good club teams. Overall, we should have a successful season."

It's a busy time for both teams. The Eagles were playing their third game in four days, winning each of those contests. Fenton was playing its second game in two days, and had a game scheduled against Hartland on Wednesday as well.

"The boys are coming along," Fiebertz said. "There's a lot of talent here. We are still trying to figure out a couple of pieces. We are playing a different style than we normally have. We are playing three forwards and we haven't found out the outer pieces that know how to transition personnel in and out. I think once we figure it out, we are going to be pretty good."

The Fenton Tigers (3-1) shocked Detroit Country Day a day earlier, defeating them 2-0. Fenton coach Matt Sullivan said that game may have had an influence on the Linden game.

"They took it to us, there's no doubt," Sullivan said. "They had more energy than us, communicated better than us and beat us to balls."

"I think that we thought we were better than we were after that win against Country

Day. That was not typical Fenton soccer tonight. We weren't positive. We weren't supporting each other. We have to understand we are not that great of a team that we can step on the field and win games. But you have to give credit to Linden. They played a great game and did it without Kevin Wright, who is a special player."

Linden CC teams collect first-place efforts at Corunna

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

It was a clean sweep for the Linden cross county program at the Corunna Early Bird Invitational.

Both teams came home with first-place trophies in the medium school division.

The Linden boys had seven of the top 11 finishers in their race and won with 26 points. Meanwhile, the girls had 18 runners post season-best times, finishing with 54 points, edging out Chelsea's 61 points.

It was the first time the Linden girls won an invitational during the young season. The girls took second in a previous event.

The Fenton Tigers were at the meet as well, competing in the large school event. The girls took fourth while the boys placed seventh.

The Linden girls were paced by Sydney Elmer's fourth-place finish in 19:51.02. McKayla Guy, a freshman, also placed in the top 10, taking ninth in 21:20.09.

The other scorers for Linden were Gretchen Sack in 12th (21:41.79), Aleighsa English

LF football evens record, beats Melvindale

►Devils' improvement on 'D' sparks victory

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

It took Lake Fenton a little time to get going against Melvindale Academy for Business and Technology on Thursday.

But when the Blue Devils did, they didn't stop.

After a scoreless first period, Lake Fenton scored four touchdowns in the second quarter, resulting in the 47-6 home victory.

Neil Allor scored three of those second-quarter TDs, including the first one on the first play from scrimmage during the quarter. It came on a 35-yard run.

"That got us going," Lake Fenton coach Eric Doyle said. "Then we scored every possession of the second quarter.

"We played well enough to get this done. Now we have a big week next week with Mt. Morris. We will have our work cut out for us, but we are looking forward to the challenge."

The Blue Devils led 28-0 at the half and the lead was never threatened in the second half. Zac Zielinski also scored two touchdowns, while Nick VanDusser had one. Alex Schwartz added another on defense on a 45-yard fumble recovery return for a score.

"Those are always the fun ones," Doyle said.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | GARRETT GORMLEY

Lake Fenton's defense swarms a Melvindale Academy ball carrier in the Blue Devils' 47-6 victory on Thursday.

Doyle said the defense improved a lot from the first week of the season.

"We played better defense. They had a couple of athletes that concerned us, but we did a good job containing their speed," Doyle said. "We played better through the air defensively. But a big part of it was we got pressure on the quarterback. Our defense got us four or five turnovers and gave the offense some short fields."

The Blue Devils (1-1) open Genesee Area Conference Red action at Mt. Morris on Friday.

"We played well enough to get it done this week, but we're going to have our work cut out for us next week," Doyle said.

Fenton volleyball collects second tourney title of season

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

The season is young, but the Fenton varsity volleyball team has already won two weekend tourneys and taken second in another.

The Tigers' most recent tourney victory came at the Bay City Western Invitational as the squad didn't lose a single set all day long en route to the title. They defeated Bay City Western in two straight games in the finals.

"It wasn't the strongest of tournaments, but I think we played well," Fenton coach Linda Rusaw said. "The scores are an indication that we played well against our opponents. We won each game by an average of 15 points."

Fenton defeated Benzie and Houghton Lake and took first in pool action. In the quarterfinals, the Tigers faced Arthur Hill and won. They faced Benzie again, earning another win in the semis, before beating Bay City Western in the finals.

Mazie Martin had an outstanding day, earning a team-high 21 kills on 43 hits. She had only three hitting errors.

"She had a really great tournament as far as offense," Rusaw said. "And she only had three hitting errors."

Payton Maxheimer had 20 kills, was 19-for-19 on the service line and passed 27-for-28. Bobbie Eastman had 18 kills and six aces, while Ashley Bearden had a team-best nine aces and 55 assists. Megan Cockin had 39 digs, while Jaime Hansen was 23-for-23 serving with six kills.

"The kids were really happy," Rusaw said.

"They played very intense in the last match. They played hard. Our lineup has settled down."

SPORTS BRIEFS

BOYS SOCCER

► Holly 1, Powers 0: Joey Baker made seven saves in net and Taylor Mills scored the game's only goal on a ball that deflected off his back, earning Holly (1-2) the win.

The game-winning goal was set up on a direct kick. Connor Bilkos took it and it was kicked by Dylan Sink, deflecting off of Mills' back into the goal.

"It was one of the better high school soccer games I've been part of in a long time," Holly coach Mike Steibel said. "It was well reffed and well played. It came down to the keepers. If we played them again it would be a 50-50 game."

► Hartland 4, Fenton 1: Playing their third game in three days, the Tigers lost to Hartland. The Tigers' only goal was provided by Jacob Davis.

CROSS COUNTRY

► Lake Fenton at Carman-Ainsworth Invitational: The Lake Fenton girls placed 15th overall but second in the small school division, while the boys took 19th and won the small school division.

Lake Fenton's boys were led by Caleb Fletcher (19:34), Dylan Culimore (20:16) and Jake Fletcher (20:43). The Blue Devils outscored Bendle for their tournament title.

The girls were led by Laura Carlson's 15th-place finish (22:21). She was followed by Becky Fernelius in 22nd place (23:31).

► Holly girls at Saline Invitational: The Bronchos placed third with 127 points. Saline won it with 35 points, while Ann Arbor Huron was second with 67 points.

Shannon Westfall led Holly with a 20th-place finish (20:57.56), while Charlotte Ruffini was 23rd (21:10.70). The rest of the Bronchos' top five were Maggie Schneider in 25th (21:25.03), Corutney Kettle in 27th (21:34.51) and Alex Matvchuk in 33rd (22:11.22).

► Holly boys at Saline Invitational: The Bronchos had eight runners finish in the top 30 at the unscored race.

"Last year we had one runner in the 17s and the next in the 19s. This year we had two in the 17s and five more in the 18s," Holly coach Richie Brinker said. "Last year we had one person medal. This year we had eight."

Nate Frasier led Holly by taking 10th (17:54.53). He was followed by Dilon Lemond in 11th (17:54.75), Nick Myers in 16th (18:14.41), Vincent Cantu in 17th (18:18.03), Keenan Steele in 20th (18:46.57), Blake Staffne in 21st (18:47.43), Steve Domagalski in 22nd (18:49.79), Zac Felix in 27th (19:01.76) and Ben Stevens in 38th (19:27.64).

VOLLEYBALL

► Lake Fenton d. Byron, Webberville: The Blue Devils defeated Byron 25-20, 17-25, 21-25, 25-20, 15-12 and Webberville 25-8, 25-14, 25-21 on Tuesday.

Sidney Scott led Lake Fenton's offense with 23 kills, while Trudie Bruce had 17 kills. Sophia Sahouri had 38 assists.

► Powers def. Holly 3-2: The Bronchos played Powers tough, but lost a 25-16, 25-17, 23-25, 23-25, 15-11 verdict against Powers.

Adrienne Cheff led the Bronchos with 16 kills, while Megan Piowowski had six kills and nine blocks. Abby Lewandowski had six kills. Nicki Hiltner had team-best 16 digs.

SWIMMING

► Powers 115, Holly 64: The Bronchos earned three firsts. Courtney Konopitski won the 100 backstroke (1:08.94), while Daryl Spurgeon won the 100 breaststroke (1:26.78). Diver Jennie Degenhardt won as well with a score of 108.5.

LINDEN

contest — long sustained drives with the Eagles' spread offense. Linden drove 48 yards in eight plays, eventually scoring on Brown's nine-yard TD run up the middle. Linden was tied at 14-all entering the half.

The second half was all Eagles. Brown completed five straight passes and six overall as the Eagles drove 61 yards on 12 plays, taking the lead on Pool's 24-yard field goal. Linden led 17-14.

After the Linden defense forced a three-plays-and-punt series for Holly, the Eagles' offense responded with another long drive. This one was a 65-yard 10-play possession capped by a seven-yard TD pass from Brown to Marshael Ryan. Linden led 23-14 with 58.3 seconds left in the third quarter.

Holly botched the ensuing kickoff and Linden's Connor O'Connell recovered the ball. Just four plays later, Brown hit Mitchell Ryan for a four-yard TD pass, putting Linden up 30-14 with 11:50 left in the fourth quarter.

Holly was forced to punt on its next possession after three plays again, and Linden followed with another prolonged drive. This one was 11 plays and 46 yards long, as Brown completed a 14-yard TD pass to O'Connell for the Eagles' final score.

"For a spread team it's really tough to control the ball, but I think we do a really good job keeping it short and keeping it sweet so we don't give the ball away much," Brown said. "It's a big deal, and I'm proud of our guys being able to keep hold of the ball and being able to keep the ball rolling."

Going against Linden's reserves, Holly did manage three first downs on its next possession, but it ended with Beaudry's pick with 22.6 seconds left.

Holly (0-2) opened the game on fire, specifically Evin Papuga. He took the opening kickoff 98 yards for a TD. Holly led 7-0 just 15 seconds into the contest. And then after Holly's defense held on Linden's second possession, Papuga ran 95 yards for a TD on the Broncos' second play from scrimmage. At the time, Holly led 14-0. However, not much went Holly's way after that.

"We knew they had a very explosive team with Johnny Williams and Papuga," said Linden senior Eddie Walterhouse, who tied teammate Ben Armstrong with nine tackles each. "They can score at any time. But after those two scores, we calmed down and talked to ourselves. We are a tight team and we brought down the intensity, came back within ourselves and played a heck of a game after that."

"The coaches had a great game plan. We were repping it at practice every day and then we understood the defense. It's not like we just did what we were supposed to do — we understood why we were doing the things we were doing. The coaches did a great job preparing us."

Linden coach Denny Hopkins was pleased with the team's ability to come back from the early deficit.

"The one thing I liked is they didn't panic when we were down 14-0. That was the key," Hopkins said. "There are going to be tough times when things go wrong and it's how you react to them. They didn't panic and we knew all we had to do was keep playing and things would work out."

Holly played Linden transfer Zorn at quarterback while defending Tri-County Football Player of the Year John Williams played other positions on offense.

Zorn completed 7-of-13 passes for 109 yards. Williams ran for 15 yards on six attempts, and caught Zorn's first two passes for 25 yards. He never caught another ball.

"We have to do a better job of cleaning that up (the offense) and execution," Holly coach Ryan Culloty said. "I told the kids after the game I was proud of their effort. They played hard. We just didn't execute. We had a lot of opportunities on third and fourth down to get off the field on defense, but didn't. The defense was out there a long time.

Linden (2-0) atop the Metro standings.

"We have a lot of talent," Walterhouse said. "And we are a very close team. We can't have flat starts. ... Other than that, we are a solid team and we need to keep this rolling. We can't just say we beat the two top teams that were picked to finish one and two in the Metro. We have to keep rolling. We need to work every week."

in 18th (22:18.07) and Taylor Ganger in 24th (22:46.18). Dominique Scriptor, 26th in 22:51.54, and Kailee Corcoran, 29th in 22:57.13, rounded off the Eagles' top seven runners.

"Overall I was very pleased with our performance in Corunna," Linden girls cross country coach Teresa Wright said. "Of course, winning was a big surprise as we were just hoping to be competitive with the other teams. It is still early in the season, but all the girls have goals."

The Linden boys have been the Metro's dominant team for a nice period. That dominance shouldn't end this year.

The Eagles' Roger Phillips won the medium school race with a time of 16:48.10. Teammate Graham Elliott, took second in 16:50.60. The rest of Linden's top seven were: Ryan Torok, sixth in 17:48.50; Dave Doyle, eighth in 18:00.93; Adrian Taylor, ninth in 18:02.65; Jeremiah Gossett, 10th in 18:07.67; and Mikey Varacalli, 11th in 18:08.79.

The Fenton boys were paced by Max Kryza, who won the large school race with a time of 16:37.24. The other Fenton boys who scored were Jacob Lee in 20th (18:27.73), Kameron Toonder in 40th (19:43.65), Kyle Lack in 53rd (20:07.51) and Sean Bleicher in 69th (20:38.35).

The Fenton girls had their entire scoring five finish within the top 50. Emily Bemis was the team's top runner in 26th (22:11.03), while Emily Kinser was next in 35th (23:21.47). The rest of Fenton's top five were Emily Battaglia in 39th (23:30.32), Ellie Cowger in 40th (23:30.62) and Jillian Toaso in 41st (23:42.97).

Fenton swim records three state cuts in loss vs. Rochester

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Fenton swim coach Brad Jones knows his team is going to have a hard time winning dual meets during the early portion of the season.

That's mainly due to the fact that the Tigers are playing some strong programs around the state.

But the team can still have success at its own level. While the Tigers lost to Rochester 135-50 on Wednesday night, Fenton had three state-qualifying swims and also had a couple of performers put together some strong showings.

The athletes putting together state-cut swim performances were Haley Shaw and Gabrielle Haaraoja. Shaw, who was a four-event qualifier for the state meet a year ago, posted state times in the 200 individual medley and the 100 butterfly. She won the 200 individual medley with a time of 2:17.26, and won the 100 butterfly with a time of 1:00.2. Both times were about two seconds below the state-qualifying time.

Meanwhile, Haaraoja qualified in one event and nearly did in a second one. She tied for first in the 100 freestyle with a time of 55.65 seconds. She also placed second in the 100 backstroke with a time of 1:03.23, just .04 second off the state standard.

"We got three individual state cuts out of the way," Fenton coach Brad Jones said. "We are working toward putting the relay pieces together so we can have our state cuts before (the) county (meet)."

The Tigers had two other strong performances of great notice.

Kenzie Deputy recorded a dive score that was 30 points better than her previous best. She finished with a score of 183. In the pool, Addison Ransom also earned a second in the 500 freestyle with a personal-best time of 6:03.78.

than a minute remaining in the contest.

Davidson completed 12-of-19 passes for 134 yards and three scores, while Claborn was 3-for-3 for 17 yards. Scott Lukas caught seven passes for 62 yards, while Thomas had four catches for 57 yards.

The Tigers rushed for 205 yards, with Davidson getting 78 of those yards on 15 carries. Grimes had 56 yards on 12 attempts.

"All in all it was good to get back on the winning track," Setzke said.

Fenton hosts Holly for a 7 p.m. contest on Friday.

Vacant council seat filled

►Resident George Kullis to spend five weeks on council

By Tim Jagielo

tjagielo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

Holly — Following discussion, resident George Kullis was appointed to fill the empty village council seat, vacated after member Sandra Kleven resigned last month.

Kullis will fill in until the November election, when new council members and the president will be elected. Kullis is also running for Holly Township supervisor.

At the regular meeting, he was also quickly asked to fill the several committee positions Kleven left vacant. He'll fill in on Building and Grounds, Community Development, Finance and Public Safety committees in the meantime. This is his first time working in government, though he has experience with a chamber of commerce and business association.

Council President Jeff Miller received applications from four other individuals, but they were all on the ballot, running for council positions. They included Debra Musgrave, Pete Clemens, William Kuyk and Ryan Bladzick.

Kullis' appointment was delayed by a split vote to accept Kleven's resignation, but the issue was cleared at the last meeting.

"Welcome George, it took you a while to get there," said council member Jason Hughes.

cost to bring apples across the state, prices will be higher this year.

"It certainly had adverse effects on the entire state," said Will Cartwright of Spicer Orchards. "There is quite a reduction of crop."

While some of their apple crop survived, Spicer's is bringing in more apples from Grand Rapids in order to ensure their customers will still be getting Michigan apples. Unfortunately, the shortage does mean that there will not be any self-picking.

For those who still want the experiencing of picking their own fruit, Spicer's does have raspberries available, and will have pumpkins by the end of September.

Diehl's Orchard will also be bringing in apples to help offset their loss, and will keep their doors open. What can you expect to find there? "We're still going to have apples, we have cider, and we have doughnuts. We also just put in Cook's Ice Cream," said Nick Diehl.

Additionally, Diehl's Orchard still has events scheduled, like their Ciderfest at the end of the September, and craft shows going through October.

"We're still going to have all our outdoor activities, like our hayrides and our maze."

Mueller's Orchard in Fenton Township was hit hard by the frost, and will not be opening their doors or serving up fresh doughnuts this year.

Of the two weather challenges thrown at orchards this year, Mueller said the biggest impact was the freeze. "The drought hasn't really had much of an effect on me because I don't really have that many apples out there."

BEWARE! The following Hot lines are all political commentary

THE NATIONAL DEFICIT for this fiscal year will be about $1.3 trillion. This is 8.7 percent of our GDP, which is two and a half times the allowable and customary figure. The U.S economy is barely growing as you can see.

MR. PRESIDENT, THE American people do not work for you, you work for the American people. You have failed, and you will be fired. As you have said, 'Elections have consequences.'

SCARY STUFF, OBAMA'S going to take away your liberties and rights, everything the Republicans are fighting for. What a crock!

IN RESPONSE TO Obama being a dictator, Obama has signed 108 executive orders in less than four years. While Bush signed 291 in eight years, not over 1,000 as stated. Get your facts straight before you make bogus claims.

I AM SICK and tired of this President ignoring our constitution, bypassing congress, and passing his own laws. It doesn't matter if you are a Democrat or a Republican or nothing at all; he is setting a precedent for all future Presidents. He must be stopped in November, please vote.

SINCE THE GOVERNMENT hasn't had a budget in over three years, does that mean we have been living under socialism?

I AM NOT sure what world you are living in, but Obama is hurting this great country not helping it. He needs to tell his senate to agree to a budget, not disagree. The federal employees are hurting for survival.

Good-bye to summer

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | TIM JAGIELO

Sawyer Scott, 17, of Fenton Township takes a group of friends around Lake Fenton on Wednesday, for one of his last summer trips to the cove for swimming. "It's a bummer it's coming to an end so fast," said Scott, who worked throughout the summer and also had sports.

PLEASE, FENTON, REALIGN the left-turn lanes on east/west Silver Lake Road at LeRoy Street so they are directly across from one another to make it easier to see oncoming traffic when turning left. It would only require moving the lines on the west side of the intersection northward.

I THINK WE should change the Lake Fenton football colors to red, white and black. It would make all of the Swartz Creek transfer students and old Swartz Creek football coaches feel more at home.

COULD WE HAVE an update on Sue Osborn? Thank you.

WHY IS IT Holly privatized its custodial staff? Made a lot of budget cuts, but still cry that they're broke. Could Mr. Barnes explain that?

I JUST WANT to say how nice the car show in Fenton was the other day. The only thing that really turned me off was the people with the dogs. Leave your dogs at home. They don't need to go to a car show.

TEXTBOOK PRINTERS ARE now catering to the right-wing Texas school board. This will take us back to the dark ages. Thinking the earth is the center of the universe and McCarthyism. If you don't believe me, go on the Internet and check it out.

VERY NICE FALL sports preview magazine! It was very nice and very thorough.

I THOUGHT THAT the possibility of Holly schools asking to place its millage back on the ballot three months after it was voted down was nervy, but Fenton asking for more when they just got a millage renewal really takes the cake. More, more, more. All the school boards want.

THE COMMENT ABOUT the retirement park and dogs, it's funny I've been taking my dog there for three years now and no one has ever said a word about it. This person must be new to the park. There's always one in every neighborhood that complains.

TO THE PERSON who says they want a donkey, you're behind the times! There's a lot of donkeys, or jackasses, living in Fenton now. We have our quota.

SO HAPPY TO read that the Fenton Winery and Brewery has bought the former Creative Wood building. We have always thought that location could make a great restaurant. We loved shopping at the store when it was Creative Wood. They always had so many neat items.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LINDEN'S varsity football team in their hard-fought victory over Fenton in a game where they were not favored to win! Once again, they've shown how much heart and endurance they have. Your school is proud of you Eagles!

IT'S NOT JUST coincidence that two bolts won't hold anything together, nor will two nuts. It takes a nut and a bolt together to create the union where the sum is greater than the parts.

REDUCING TEACHERS' SALARIES and benefits surely helps the state's pocket-book, but it will not help our kids. These individuals spend more time with your kids than you do. Education quality will not rise with reduced compensation and increased frustration. There is no incentive to deal with your lack of parenting.

Certified Mechanic

Q: I have a 1988 chevy classic and when I open the door the lights are on in the inside, but when i turn the key to start the car the power goes out and the car won't even start?

A: This sounds like a bad connection at the battery, starter or ground to the engine block. This is most often caused by battery connections that need cleaned or replaced. Disconnect the battery and look for green powder or for the cable ends to look swelled up near the ends of the cable. If so, they should be replaced.

TIPS TO HELP KEEP YOUR COOL!

With the temp hitting double digits, Mr. Appliance has suggestions to keep your refrigerator cooler & run less! Refrigerators rely on air flow under and around the unit to remove the heat from inside your refrigerator. Making sure that you clean the dust and pet hair from under the unit will help to cool the compressor and remove the heat from the condenser coils. If your refrigerator is running a lot and doesn't have at least 1/2 inch on the sides and 1 inch clearance on the top, pulling the unit out during these excessive temps will help. Remember every time you open the refrigerator to look at the goodies inside, the warm air enters and has to be removed. Know what your after to save money and wear on your unit!

an explanation on why this summer has been so hot, Schultz doesn't have a clear answer.

"It's a pattern we've been in. We've been dry and been sitting under a lot of high pressure," Schultz said. "The sun comes out and being so dry helps heat things up too."

Schultz said there have been 20 days in Michigan this summer when the weather was 90 degrees or higher. The state has experienced some relief in mid August with some rain. Temperatures began to soar again however at the end of the month, reaching above 90 degrees again.

The drought has been so bad this year that the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) has declared all of Michigan to be natural disaster area. The drought started this spring and has continued all through the summer.

Farmers all around the country have have struggled with the heat, causing produce and meat prices to increase.

"The drought has affected the market big time," said Jody Brunori, executive chef at The Laundry, in Fenton.

Brunori said a case of eggs has risen from $13 to $24 since hens are laying fewer eggs due to the heat. Grass has been sparse, driving up the price of beef and other meats. Fish are swimming deeper in the Great Lakes in order to reach cooler temperatures, forcing fishermen to work harder and catch less. And though summer months are generally tough on restaurants, this summer has been somewhat more brutal.

"It came really early, that's the downfall," Brunori said. "The duration of it has been a hardship. Lettuce has been shady this year, the strawberries have not been that great and the tomatoes are taking forever to ripen on the vine."

Brian Haaraaja, senior vice president of VG's Grocery said corn and cherries have been hit especially hard in the state. Corn ears are smaller this year, stressed from less than ideal conditions. The past warm winter followed by a cold snap in the spring has left most of the state fruitless this year. VG's Grocery was forced to order produce and meat from around the country this year instead of getting products from in-state farmers.

"Local produce has been very difficult to come by, it has been a tough year," Haaraaja said. "The heat has been tough on regions that produce beef, too."

Haaraaja said it's not certain but the strain on farmers could translate into potentially higher beef and produce prices down the road.

For now, Haaraaja said VG's Grocery has been promoting produce that has been growing well this year, such as peaches and nectarines from California.

Brunori said The Laundry and the restaurant business won't be crippled by this year's lack of produce, but it will affect the bottom line.

"We have to eat it, for a lack of better words," Brunori said.

Meet Carla Feamster

Police officer, actress, cancer survivor

By Olivia Dimmer

news@tctimes.com; 810-433-6823

Fenton police officer Carla Feamster, 36, has had some challenging and gratifying experiences during her 13 years with the Fenton Police Department. She also shares her love of theatre and retells how she became the officer she is today.

When did you first realize you wanted to be a police officer?

My senior year in high school. I initially wanted to go into the Marine Corps because my dad was in it. But in my senior year, I was diagnosed with cancer, so I couldn't join the military. They wanted me to wait two years, but I had just graduated and did not want to sit around. I talked to my school counselor and she said I should go to Ferris State and get an associate's degree in criminal justice so I could be a military police officer in the Marine Corps. I really liked what I was learning about at Ferris, so I got my bachelor's in criminal justice and wound up here. I'm from Clarkston, and I sent a lot of resumes out, through a phone book, of all the police departments. I landed on 'F', and I got the job here.

What is a day like for you as a police officer?

We don't have anything mandatory that we do. I come in and check my e-mail or voicemail to see if anyone needs my attention immediately. Sometimes people will request to speak with me, or if I am working on their case. I try to drive through the neighborhoods. I do a little traffic, but that's not my big thing.

What are your likes and dislikes about being a police officer here?

I like that there is something different every day. What I do can have a huge impact on people that I work with and for, and the community in general. With that huge responsibility comes that huge gratification that I'm doing some sort of good. People will come up to me, even in a bad situation, and say that I really helped them. That's the satisfying part. Things that I don't like — my job can be significantly stressful. Each individual has their own problems. When I come to work, I have to try to put my personal difficulties aside and problem solve for everyone around me. You've got so many people with so many emotions to help. I have to purge what I just came from and focus on the next challenge.

What is your most memorable event being on the force?

I have had some sexual assault victims who have come back and told me how influential and how much I helped them to get through their situation. Even drunk drivers I have arrested some have come back just to say thank you for arresting them. You would think that's odd, but they realize that they were on a path to killing themselves or someone else.

Do you have any hobbies or interests outside of being involved with the police department?

Oddly enough, I'm very involved with local theatre. I'm in a show right now with the Fenton Village Players, "Escanaba in Love." I'm the only female in the cast. I coach cheerleading when asked. Recently I coached basketball for sixth grade at St. Johns.

How did you meet your husband?

I met my husband here at the FPD. He was my training officer. We were both single at the time, and started out as friends. Our beliefs matched, so we ended up together.

SCARY STUFF, OBAMA'S going to take away your liberties and rights, everything the Republicans are fighting for. What a crock!

OBAMA REFUSED CARDINAL Timothy Dolan's offer to pray at the DNC but listed, as an 'official function' at the Convention is a Muslim prayer session. And people wonder why Obama's Muslim upbringing verses his claim to Christianity is questioned.

MR. OBAMA KEEPS telling the voters that he is for the 'middle class.' A survey shows that 86 percent of the middle class say they are worse off than ever before. If his nose got longer every time he lied, it would stretch across this great nation and that's sad.

I THINK EVERY member of Congress with a 'D' behind their names has converted to the communist party and all the Liberals who voted for them should be ashamed of themselves. That's as plain as I can say it.

Summary
▶ Labor Day Weekend means that the end of summer is near, especially is you live on an island like Case's Island in Fenton Township.

Those harder souls are likely found on Case's Island within Lake Fenton in Fenton Township — a 13-acre historic oasis with miles of shoreline and woods dotted with 39 summer cottages. All the lots are privately owned, as are the access points from the mainland to the island. While many residents will linger longer on the island as the weather continues its summer warmth, Labor Day weekend signals the "beginning of the end" of this seasonal May to September island lifestyle.

"Most people start packing their boats with most of their summer gear this weekend, then trickle back and forth during the still

Starting over ... again

Some memories are soon lost and some linger. One of my favorite lingering ones is listening to a father-son guitar and vocal duet titled, 'The Land of Beginning Again.' Poor decisions had divided these two singers but they had decided to let their past be past and start over again. Their song, though an old one, was new to me and its heartwarming message of harmony being restored in their family has been unforgettable.

Some quotes have endured through generations even though the names of those who originated them have been forgotten. Here's an old one that deserves repeating: 'The Christian life is made up of many beginnings.'

Does this mean there is no crucial moment when faith is born? Not at all! When a respected religious leader came to our Lord to ask how to receive eternal life, he was told he needed to be born again, to experience a spiritual birth (John 3).

We celebrate birthdays because they remind us of a crucial moment in time when one was born. And the birth of faith deserves recognition.

What then did the one who spoke of 'many beginnings' mean?

This unnamed one referred to the many times we make sincere commitments and promises to the Lord on which, for any number of reasons, we don't carry through.

What shall we do about past promises on which we've not delivered? Shall we forget about them? Discard them? Spend our lives feeling depressed over not keeping our commitments? Consider ourselves failures and determine never to make another promise to God? Lose heart over the future because of poor past performances?

Why not, instead, make a new beginning?

When I checked my voicemail late one night there was a request for a return call from a man I hadn't seen or heard from in many years. Soon we were talking about his past struggles and present needs, one of which was his need to make a new beginning.

Is it possible?

What about all those broken past promises?

How can we be sure of full forgiveness?

In my book 'Lord, I'm Afraid,' providing poetic help and Biblical promise to overcome fears, I offered the verse below for those who fear they can't be forgiven:

Lord, I'm afraid

You're tired of me.

I'm back again

Confessing the same sin.

I meant well, but fell.

Can you forgive me again?

And again?

'If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness' (1 John 1:9).

No matter their past failures, forgiven ones can start over...again.

Wedding mishaps and bridezilla moments

When Katherine Heigl married Josh Kelly, the glossy pictures appearing in fashion magazines made it appear to be a fairytale wedding. Kelly chose to go skiing a few days before the ceremony even after Heigl begged him not to go. He bumped into a large tree and ended up with an ugly cut on his nose and a bride who refused to speak to him until after the ceremony. En route to the airport to fly away for their Mexican honeymoon, Heigl realized that she had forgotten her passport. After a stop in California to pick up her passport, the couple eventually embarked on their long-awaited honeymoon.

Tori Spelling

commissioned designer Randolph Duke to design the dress for Fiji Island wedding to Dean McDermott, only to hate the end result and deem it "cheesy." When she tried to get her $4,700 deposit back, Duke told US Weekly, "I've never designed a dress for free. She won't get her money back." Spelling ended up strolling down the aisle in a white eyelet Dolce & Gabbana dress.

Rockman and Pilar to be honored by FAPSEF

The Fenton Area Public Schools Education Foundation has awarded posthumously The State Bank 2012 Community Contribution to Education Award to Richard Rockman Sr. the founder and publisher of the Linden Leader and the Tri-County Times.

Rockman spent 50 years in the newspaper and publishing business. During this time, his efforts enriched and informed the communities in the Fenton, Linden, Holly and Lake Fenton area. Joe Kryza, FAPSEF President stated, "His newspapers have valued and supported the role of education in the community, while not rubber stamping issues related to the board, unions or administration."

The Foundation is also proud to announce the recipient of the 2012 Edward H. and Nancy E. Petruska Lifetime Achievement in Education Award is Chuck Pilar.

Pilar was employed by Fenton Area Public Schools as a teacher and administrator for 35 years, most of which at the middle school level. For 30 of those years, Pilar was an athletic administrator with Fenton Area Public Schools. He also coached at the middle school and high school levels accumulating more than 300 wins in basketball.

Early in his teaching career, he was a volunteer Assistant Athletic Director at the Middle School. From 1985 to 1988, Pilar worked as assistant high school principal and district athletic director.

In March 2008, Pilar was named the Middle School Athletic Administrator of the Year by the Michigan Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association. In 2010, he also had a classroom at AGS named after him in honorarium after his retirement. His love of teaching and athletics was all the incentive and inspiration Chuck needed to continue serving the students and athletes of Fenton.

Both awards will be presented at the eighth annual Black Tie Dinner for the Education Foundation being held at 6 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 6, at The Laundry in downtown Fenton. Seating is limited and tickets are available at The Laundry and the Fenton Administration Building.

ISLAND LIVING

pleasant days of September and October,” said Jennifer Tremaine, 50, who spent her childhood summers with her parents Duncan and Mary Ann on Case’s Island, including three, year ‘round.

“Once the dock is out for the season, then the summer is done. We were able to stay longer because we had a furnace,” she recalled. “Now I believe there’s one other cottage out there with heat.” In fact, Thomas Broecker, operations manager for Fenton Township, believes that there is a resident who lives out on the island all year ‘round, traveling back and forth by hovercraft when weather conditions make it too difficult to cross.

After having owned their cottage on Case’s Island for 50 years, Tremaine’s family sold it just three years ago. As a realtor with Tremaine Real Estate in Fenton, she handles many of the real estate transactions that take place on the island. “Usually there’s one or two cottages for sale,” she said. “There’s only one left this summer. Last year, we sold four.”

Tremaine’s father bought the cottage on Case’s Island for her mother as a wedding gift back in 1968. Throughout the years, the Tremaine family turned it from a rustic summer cottage into a solid home — complete with all the memories of an idyllic summer getaway. Those fond memories gave way to a more serious side of island living when her family stayed on the island year ‘round for three of Tremaine’s childhood years.

“We had to take a canoe to school every day,” she said. “We’d take different routes off the island, depending on the weather and the wind. In the winter, we’d walk or snowmobile across the lake. When we’d walk across the ice in the morning, we never knew what the ice conditions would be like later in the afternoon.” Her family used to make four trips back and forth to the mainland every day, with both parents working and four children in school, from preschool age through high school. “I look back at those days now very fondly, because I loved that we were truly a family and spent all our time together,” she added.

Today, that’s still the draw for families to Case’s Island. “There are either children or grandchildren living in just about all of the cottages on the island,” said Tremaine. “Some of the families have more than one cottage. It’s a generational tradition. The cottages seldom turn over. Once you get into the island life, you stay for a long time.”

Case’s Island is fairly round, with

Did you know?

A. Michigan’s largest island is Isle Royale in Lake Superior, at 206 square miles.

B. It’s impossible to determine which is Michigan’s smallest island, since some disappear when water levels rise, but Michigan has nearly 1,000 islands overall.

C. Michigan’s most-populated island is Grosse Ile near Detroit, with more than 10,000 residents.

D. Grand Lake in Presque Isle County, is 8.8 square miles in size, but it is home to 14 islands, the most on any inland lake in the state.

cottages lining the perimeter. One side is sandy beach, the other side is more swampy. The center of the island is half woods and half park — with a swing for the kids, picnic tables and a pump for ice-cold well water. “It’s very picturesque,” said Tremaine.

The biggest attraction for people to the island is the fact that there are no cars. “You can bring your kids out here and they can’t get into any trouble,” said Tremaine. Roads with the names of Toledo Street, Fenton Street and Fisk Street are actually just trails that provide access to each cottage.

For people who are interested in taking island living to the next level, there are more than a dozen islands in Michigan for sale in the lower and upper peninsulas, according to Private Islands Online, which lists them for sale. Michigan’s proximity to the Great Lakes makes this state truly a haven for island lovers (see sidebar on Page 1B).

Cottages on the market today are estimated to sell for between $120,000 and $170,000, down from the $250,000 or so that owners could expect when the real estate market was booming.

PAUL G. DONOHUE, M.D.

To your good health

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My 88-year-old relative has high blood pressure and atrial fibrillation, both of which are well-controlled by medication. She is mentally sharp but has developed arthritis in various joints. She's been told that she can't take any medicine for pain because it would interfere with her medicines for blood pressure and atrial fib. I know she could have a better quality of life with less pain. Is there something she can take? — A.H.

ANSWER: I have to presume your relative has osteoarthritis, the kind of arthritis almost all older people develop. Cushioning cartilage in joints crumbles and eventually becomes functionless. Bone rubs against bone, and that is painful and stiffens joints.

Your relative ought to try heat in the form of hot baths, hot packs or heating pads. Heat lessens joint pain. If heat doesn't do the trick for her, she should try ice packs. Heat can be left on a joint for 15 minutes; ice for 10.

If she has hip, knee or foot arthritis, padded shoes or padded shoe inserts lessen the force generated in leg joints when the foot hits the ground.

An exercise program supervised by a physical therapist will strengthen muscles around the affected joints, provide them protection and give the joints a greater range of motion.

Occupational therapists devise splints or braces that protect joints and mitigate pain. They also can suggest devices that make the tasks of daily living much less troublesome.

Has she tried anti-inflammatory medicines applied to the skin directly over an affected joint? Pennsaid lotion is one example. Some of the medicine does get into the blood, so she'll need to have her doctor's approval for it. It is a prescription medicine. The amount of medicine that gets into the blood is less than the amount she'd get from an oral medicine, yet a sufficient amount reaches the joint.

Mom thinks baby sitter might need baby sitter

DEAR AMY: I have a concern about whether our baby sitter is paying close enough attention to my infant. Twice this week I noticed small scratches on my daughter's body. My daughter is 10 months old and quite mobile. The baby sitter is the 18-year-old daughter of a co-worker. Until this week, I had thought she was doing a good job, and I am pretty sure I still would like her to still watch the baby, but I feel I need to say something to get her attention in a way that will foster goodwill (and not hard feelings) between us. Most importantly I would like her to take better care of our daughter. Suggestions? — Worried Mom

DEAR MOM: The things you mention probably wouldn't worry me in the slightest, but I'm not the mom. You are. You should never hesitate to ask a reasonable question or state your standards when it comes to your daughter's care. And so you can say, "I've noticed these scratches on the baby's legs. Can you tell me how she got them?" This presents an opportunity to remind or refresh any instructions you have for the sitter.

DEAR AMY: I have been hosting dinners at my home for many years. Recently, I have encountered situations when guests have special dietary requests. An invited guest has stated that she can eat only organic food purchased at a specific specialty store. This can be very expensive and I'm not prepared to do it. How should I handle this situation? — Unsure

DEAR UNSURE: It is unreasonable to request that a host serve food purchased from a specific place. You'll have to tell her, "I'm sorry, but I'm really all set as far as the food is concerned. We'll miss you, but maybe we can see you another time."

Coffee Creamer

Your coffee is really getting mix of palm oil, hydrogenated oils, corn syrup, thickeners and preservatives if you're using these creamers. Stick to good old cream and sugar if you like your coffee light and sweet.

Rotten Fruit

Overripe fruit emits ethylene gas that will cause the other fresh produce in your fridge to rot faster.

Artificially-Sweetened Yogurt

An alarmingly high number of low-calorie yogurts use a combination of sugar and artificial sweeteners (that's how they get the calories so low). Check ingredient lists and choose brands that don't use them.

Highly Processed Meats

You'll find lots of sodium and preservatives like nitrates in hot dogs, sausages and deli meats — many of these meats are also filled with fat. Choose low-sodium and nitrate-free varieties when available and pass on the higher fat options (like salami and bologna) all together.

Frozen Fried Foods

Frozen fries are still fried! Even worse, many brands use trans fats and palm oil which aren't ideal for heart health. You're better off taking the time to make homemade, baked versions of these favorite foods and stocking your freezer with those.
