Marching to the music

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | TIM JAGIELO

The Fenton High School marching band begins its practice at around 6:30 a.m., under the football field lights. Being tired or cold is not an excuse for not being able to play the material, as they march together.

High school bands combine athleticism with musical knowledge

Fenton — While most students are just waking up and getting ready for a new day of lessons, a mass of roughly 150 teenagers have assembled on the football field at Fenton High School.

It’s still dawn; there are swirls of pink clouds amidst a slowly brightening sky and the chilly wind has hints of autumn in its wisps.

Fenton Twp. — Weed treatment in the lakes of Fenton Township has brought mixed reactions amongst residents. At Monday’s board of trustees meeting, Aquatic Nuisance Plant Control was given approval to treat Lake Ponemah and three other lakes.

Residents on the lakes agreed that the weeds needed to be addressed. However, there was some debate as to whether

SMART SOLUTIONS

1 Badly behaving bangs

Badly behaving bangs making mornings a struggle? Try this styling trick: Set your blow dryer on low and hold it just above your hairline so it aims straight down. Directing the airflow downward over damp strands forces your hair to lay flat.

2 Light your fireplace

If you happen to run out of long matches to light your fireplace, simply use a piece of raw spaghetti instead. It safely lets you reach the middle of the kindling and burns long enough that you even have time to light a few candles on the mantle without burning your fingertips.

COMIC BOOKS

'modern mythology'

►Despite lower sales, comic books continue to inspire 'pop culture'

By Ryan Tackabury

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

For many people Wednesday may just be the middle of the week, but for others, Wednesdays are the day that new comic books are released.

Hundreds of thousands of comics are sold across the country every week, covering a variety of subjects and age groups. Today, a comic book is most likely to cost about $4 an issue. According to Diamond Comic Distributors Inc., the comic book industry brings in roughly $660-690 million annually.

Those who purchase comics may do so as collector items — or to enjoy the story, though many do both.

Bob Huffman of BC Comix in Fenton is a comic book fan who wanted to share his interests with others.

"I loved comics as a kid. I read comics probably from the time I was 10 up until my adult life. When I got the opportunity to open a business, I thought I would love to just give the opportunity to some young kids that don't have much outlet for something fun to do or read, the same opportunity I had as a kid," he said.

Comic books have a niche audience, as fewer comics are sold today than 20 years ago, according to Diamond Comic Distributors. However, there is no denying their subject material has mass appeal as they are adapted into films and television shows.

"The movies are quite a bit bigger

Time for school choice in Chicago

There are few matters of public interest greater than educating the next generation. Chicago public school teachers who went on strike Monday have struck against the public interest, placing self-interest in difficult economic times ahead of children.

At a time of high unemployment, the teachers and the Chicago Teachers Union want a pay increase and better medical coverage, as well as provisions that include a hire-back policy for laid-off teachers and one that makes it more difficult to dismiss underperforming teachers.

But there is a way around the current impasse that doesn't involve giving in to the union. It's school choice. Competition would allow parents to send their children to schools that make them the priority.

The public school system has been unable to consistently produce nearly enough well-rounded graduates capable of supporting themselves or contributing to the nation. Yet public school students, especially the poor and minorities, remain locked in failed schools so that Democratic politicians can seemingly reap the political benefits — and contributions — from teachers unions.

According to World Magazine, 10 states and the District of Columbia now offer a variety of school voucher options. In his 2010 fiscal year budget, President Obama attempted to end the D.C. Opportunity Scholarship Program, which grants vouchers to low-income students so they can attend private schools, but after an outcry from parents and stinging editorials in Washington's newspapers, he let the program proceed, at least until children already in the program had a chance to graduate.

'The president doesn't believe that vouchers are a long-term answer to our educational problems and the challenges that face our public school system....,' White House Press Secretary Robert Gibbs offered in 2009. Senator Joe Lieberman and Speaker John Boehner disagreed, fought for school choice and succeeded in reaching an agreement with the president to fully implement the D.C. voucher program.

This is a political advantage for Republicans as many African-American and Hispanic families are supportive of school choice. Mitt Romney and Republicans running for Congress should take note of the Chicago teachers strike and claim school choice as their own.

Chicken sandwiches, pro football and human rights

We are gathered here today to discuss two recent controversies about same-sex marriage. One comes from the world of piggskin, the other from the world of chicken fat.

You are surely familiar with the latter. It unfolded a few weeks ago over comments by Dan Cathy, president of Chick-fil-A. In interviews with the Biblical Recorder newspaper and radio host Ken Coleman, he confirmed his opposition to same-sex marriage. 'Guilty as charged,' he told the paper.

Cathy's comments kicked off one of those only-in-America firestorms. Gay rights groups denounced the fast-food chain. Conservatives responded with a Chick-fil-A Appreciation Day, which reportedly drove the company to record sales. Gay rights activists held a 'kiss-in' that was less successful. The mayors of San Francisco, Chicago and Boston criticized Dan Cathy's views. The Jim Henson Co. withdrew its toys and merchandise from promotional deals with the restaurant chain.

That's a lot of furor over one man's opinion. And you have to wonder why Dan Cathy's views were news. Chick-fil-A's conservative Christian orientation has been known, and even closes on Sundays. So Cathy's comments, objectionable as they are to supporters of marriage equality, did not really tell us anything new.

Which brings us to piggskin. It seems one Emmett C. Burns Jr., a Maryland state lawmaker, recently wrote Steve Bisciotti, owner of the NFL's Baltimore Ravens, insisting that he 'inhibit' one of his players, Brendon Ayanbadejo, who has been working in support of gay marriage. The Ravens refused, and Burns' letter brought him a ton of condemnation.

Think about that: the NFL is a temple of testosterone, a shrine to manly men doing manly things and as such, you would expect it to be ground zero of heebie jeebies over all things gay.

Apparently, it is not.

This is not to say the battle is won. It is not.

But the trajectory of this particular revolution seems clear. So the headline here is not the old news that Dan Cathy opposes this human right, but the pleasant surprise that Brendon Ayanbadejo does not.

Police&Fire report

NEEDLES FOUND IN SPEEDER'S CAR

At 9:30 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 17, a Linden police officer conducting radar on Ripley Road clocked a 1995 Chrysler car traveling 41 in a 25 mph zone. The officer initiated a traffic stop and made contact with the driver, a 49-year-old Linden man. The driver was found to have an outstanding warrant from Linden police. During an inventory search of the car, the officer found numerous needles consistent with heroin use and powder, which turned out to be cat litter. The driver was cited for speeding and taken to court on the arrest warrant. His vehicle was impounded.

WOMAN SCAMMED ON CONCERT TICKETS

On Friday, Sept. 14, a 32-year-old Linden woman reported to Linden police that she was scammed out of $370. The woman said she purchased tickets on Craigslist for a concert at DTE on Sept. 13 and when she went to the ticket booth to retrieve the tickets, she learned that they were not there. Linden Police Chief Scott Sutter urges residents to be on the lookout for potential fraud and to purchase tickets online from reputable ticket agents.

COURT DATES FOR LINDEN RESIDENTS

At 1:40 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 15, a Fenton police officer initiated a traffic stop of a Chrysler car at Owen Road and Industrial Way after suspecting that the driver was under the influence of alcohol. The officer made contact with the driver, a 21-year-old Linden woman and her passenger, a 27-year-old Linden man. Detecting the odor of intoxicants, the woman consented to a breath test. She tested at .174 and subsequently arrested for OWI. Upon hearing that news, the passenger began arguing with police. He was transported to the police station as well and his breath test came back at .153. While standing in front of the police station, the man became unruly with police. He was arrested for disorderly intoxication and lodged. They both have Oct. 15 court dates.

POT FOUND AT TRAFFIC STOP

At 1:53 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 16, Fenton police stopped a 2000 Chevy car for failing to use a turn indicator twice. While making contact with the driver, a 31-year-old Tyrone Township man, the officer detected the odor of marijuana. The officer recovered marijuana and drug paraphernalia during an inventory search. The man was issued a court appearance ticket for possession of marijuana.

FENTON TOWNSHIP MAN STEALS SIX-PACK

At 1:26 a.m. on Monday, Sept. 17, Fenton police were dispatched to a grocery store on Silver Parkway to investigate a larceny of a six-pack of beer. Lt. Jason Slater said loss prevention told police that a man, later identified as a 23-year-old Fenton Township resident concealed six bottles of beer in his pants and exited the store without paying. Police located the man near Owen Road. The man admitted to taking the beer and to a prior larceny. Slater said this was the third time in recent days that police have had contact with this man. He was lodged at the Genesee County Jail, pending the issuance of arrest warrants.

SHERIFF INVESTIGATES ASSAULT

Det. Sgt. Bill Lanning said the Genesee County Sheriff's Department is investigating a felonious aggravated assault, which was reported by a 26-year-old Fenton man on Monday, Sept. 17. The man said he was at a restaurant/bar on North Fenton Road in Fenton Township with friends Saturday night into early Sunday morning. The victim said, as he was heading inside from the patio, a man grabbed him. He pushed back at the unknown man and a scuffle ensued. The bouncer ordered the people outside, at which time, the victim reported that someone sucker-punched him. He sought medical attention the next day for facial fractures.

Three Lake Fenton High School students walked away from a roll-over crash Monday afternoon after the pickup truck they were in rolled over on Torrey Road, just south of Lahring Road. Det. Sgt. Bill Lanning of the Genesee County Sheriff's Department said a male student was driving southbound on Torrey Road, with two female passengers. He lost control in the S-curves south of Lahring, causing the truck to roll over onto its roof. The occupants, all wearing seatbelts, were not injured.

Tri-county fundraisers

Wixom Marathon to raise funds for Patrick O'Rourke family

The Wixom Marathon station is holding a fundraiser for the family of slain West Bloomfield police officer Patrick O'Rourke. The station, located at 29330 Wixom Rd., near I-96 in Wixom, along with Atlas Oil and Marathon are contributing to this event with a goal of raising $10,000. In addition to the 5 cents per gallon donation, proceeds from the sale of hot dogs, fountain drinks and coffee will also be donated during this two-day event. O'Rourke leaves behind a wife and four children and this event is intended to provide some help to the family. First responders will be on hand during the event to help. The fundraiser runs from 5 a.m. on Thursday, Sept. 20 to 5 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 23.

Ask the judge

Benjamin N. Cardozo and Lady Justice

One of the most famous jurists in American history was Benjamin N. Cardozo. He started his judicial career in 1914 as a judge on the New York Court of Appeals and became an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court in 1932 serving until his death in 1938.

He was an incredibly gifted legal scholar and many of his judicial opinions are still taught in law schools today and recognized as continuing legal precedent.

In 1921, he authored a book titled 'The Nature of the Judicial Process.'

The book describes how a judge decides a case and there is a passage in it that gives us his definition of judicial discretion:

'The judge, even when he is free, is still not wholly free. He is not to innovate at pleasure. He is not a knight-errant roaming at will in pursuit of his own ideal of beauty or of goodness. He is to draw his inspiration from consecrated principles. He is not to yield to spasmodic sentiment, to vague and unregulated benevolence. He is to exercise a discretion informed by tradition, methodized by analogy, disciplined by system, and subordinated to the 'primordial necessity of order in the social life.' Wide enough in all conscience is the field of discretion that remains.'

From an historical standpoint, in 1921 describing a judge as 'he' was probably accurate. Although accounts differ, one of the first women in American history to become a judge in the United States was Florence Ellinwood Allen in that same year. Clearly if Justice Cardozo was writing today he would have used both 'he' and 'she' in referring to a judge.

The concept of a fair justice system is perhaps best symbolized in what is often called the 'Lady Justice' statue. I am certain that most readers have seen this statue, which is a woman who is blindfolded holding the scales of justice in one hand and a sword in the other.

Our system of justice has been described as the greatest in the world, and the rules of law coupled with judicial discretion have made it so.

WHY IS OBAMA and his minions the only people on earth that are still calling the pre-planned terrorist attack on our Consulate and Embassy, a demonstration? The Obama Administration apologized for a film that 'hurt Muslims' feelings.' Muslims believe apologies show weakness. Obama's foreign policies are getting American patriots killed.

THE LEROY TRAFFIC is so discouraging. It's too bad no one from the city will step up and get the job done. I was told because it is a grant from the state, the city has no control over the project. I find that hard to believe!

OLD WHITE BLAZER that tried to hit me while running Monday along White Lake Road — don't you have a mother or a conscience? You will go to prison if you actually hit someone. I prayed for you.

ON 9/11/12, OBAMA announced he didn't have time to meet with Netanyahu about Iran's nuclear program but allowed a campaign interview with a radio show to air even though both candidates agreed to pay respect with no campaigning. Romney kept his word. Obama embarrassed America.

WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE between those who expect the government to support them in every way and those who rob from other people or businesses? They both expect to benefit from others without working for those benefits. They both would have a much higher respect for themselves if they earned it.

SO THE CONSTRUCTION company can only pave one mile every five months (assuming it's done). If they were chosen to repave I-75 from Monroe to the bridge, it would take them over 141 years! Good pick DDA!

A BIG THANK YOU to St. John's, Father Harvey and the hundreds of volunteers. It is a project of massive proportions that, as always, is a family-friendly event. To those complaining, try managing an event of that magnitude. In the end, it is always a benefit to both the church and the community.

WHAT A JOKE the Mini Mr. and Mini Miss Mills Days contest was. Almost three months after the fact and the prizes still haven't been given out. After several promises and phone calls now we are told that the event coordinator doesn't actually have any of them.

'SOCIALIST,' 'COMMUNIST,' 'HE'S ruining the country,' etc. Sound familiar? Everything the wingnuts are saying about Obama was said about Clinton. They were just as full of it then as they are now. We'll be fine after Obama's eight years in office. The polls don't lie.

Harvest Gathering seeks nonperishable food items

Secretary of State Ruth Johnson announced last week that residents can donate nonperishable food items at local Secretary of State branch offices, continuing a long-standing tradition of giving to families in need.

"Every day, more than 50,000 people pass through the doors of a Secretary of State office," said Department of State Chief of Staff Michael Senyko, who is a former Fenton city manager. "This gives us an incredible opportunity to make a difference."

The 2012 goal is 300,000 pounds of food and $1 million. In 2011, Michigan

Summary
Residents are asked to drop off non-perishable food items at any of the state's Secretary of State offices. Food and monetary donations will benefit Michigan's Harvest Gathering.

Harvest Gathering collected more than 140,000 pounds of food and $531,000.

The Harvest Gathering campaign runs through Oct. 15. However, donated items can be dropped off at any Secretary of State branch office through Nov. 30. People donating items should check the packages to ensure the food donated isn't past its expiration date.

For more information, visit the Secretary of State website at www.michigan.gov/sos. Customers also may call the Department of State Information Center at 888-SOS-MICH (767-6424).

than the comics in today's market," said Huffman. This year alone saw the comic book inspired film, "The Avengers" gross $1.5 billion, making it the third highest grossing movie of all time, and greatly eclipsing comic book sales. The comic-book-to-movie trend shows no signs of stopping either. Next year is already scheduled to see six more big-budget films adapted from comic books as well.

Comic books finding success on the big screen is just one of many changes that are found in comic books over their long history.

"Comic art used to be hand-inked and colored, now everything is 'photoshopped' and looks very different from what I grew up with," said Fenton resident John Ekleberry, who has been reading comic books for 20 years. "It takes a lot more issues to tell a story now, in part because collected editions for the bookstore market have become so popular."

Comic books are appealing to many for different reasons. "Superhero comics are fantastic wish fulfillment. Who doesn't want to be Batman?" Ekleberry said. "They're modern mythology and morality tales that never end and are being constantly reinvented."

As comic books have grown older, so has their target audience, with many comics today having adults as their biggest fans.

To many, superheroes and comic books are synonymous, though this is not always true. "If super heroes aren't your thing, there's a whole slew of other genres to explore as well, just like any other kind of printed fiction," Ekleberry said.

To Huffman, comics are a way to look through a window into another world. "It's a real amazing thing," he said. People should give it a try."

VALUABLE COMICS

Old comics in some cases are rare and can be worth a lot of money. Comics that first introduced a well-known character tend to be worth the most money. The price of the issues can vary greatly depending on the condition they are in — the below prices are the estimated value of near mint copies.

Action Comics #1 – $3,470,000

Considered to be the most valuable comic ever printed, the first issue of Action Comics was printed in June 1938 and introduced a character known all over the world today — Superman.

Detective Comics #27 – $3,310,000

Sometimes a comic book is valuable not because it is the first issue, but because of the content inside. Issue 27 of Detective Comics saw the debut of Batman.

Superman #1 $630,000

Just a year after his first appearance in Action Comics, the man of steel was given his own comic book to star in, simply titled Superman. While not as valuable as Action Comics, it is still one of the most valuable comics you can own today.

Marvel Comics #1 - $580,000

Before it had the name that is widely known today, the company Marvel Comics was better known as Timely Publications. Their first released comic in October of 1939, bore the name the company would later take up.

Amazing Fantasy #15 - $429,000

The release of Amazing Fantasy #15 in 1962 happened much later than the other comic books in the list, but is still considered to be very valuable. The issue shows the first appearance of Spider-Man, who proved to be a popular character for the company.

WEED CONTROL

chemicals should be used to treat the weeds.

"I would ask that I not be assessed to pollute my lake," said Kathleen Lage. Lage told the Fenton Township Board at the Sept. 4 meeting that the lakes should be treated without chemicals.

Sharon Schafer, president of the Crane Lake Association said that a majority of the residents on the lake were in favor of the weed treatment. "We are desperate. Chemicals seem to be the only way to go," Schafer said.

In order to establish a special assessment district, 51 percent of the people with the most land mass must be in favor of the assessment. For example, someone that has a yard twice as large as his or her neighbor has a vote that is twice as powerful. By establishing districts by landmass, Lage argued that a few homeowners with bigger properties could make decisions for the whole lake.

"It's not representative of people living on the lake," Lage said. "One property on Lahring Road can wipe out three riparians on Horrell Road."

"I would ask that I not be assessed to pollute my lake."

Kathleen Lage

Crane Lake property owner

Ponemah, Dollar and Crane Lake and Lake Christi were all approved for chemical weed treatment. Following is breakdown of assessments.

- Dollar Lake residents will pay $125.45 a year for 2012 and $117.27 a year between 2013 and 2016.

- Lake Ponemah residents will pay $200.48 for 2012 and $198.32 a year between 2013 and 2016.

- Lake Christi residents will pay $165.64 for 2012 and $155.40 a year between 2013 and 2016.

- Crane Lake residents will pay $171.56 for 2012 and $153 a year between 2013 and 2016.

One suggested alternative to chemicals was harvesting. Lake Ponemah resident David Hawcroft voiced opposition to the option.

"Many, many weeds are spread by fragmentation," Hawcroft said, adding that most surrounding lakes enter into Lake Ponemah. Weeds harvested in the city of Fenton float downstream to Fenton Township, Hawcroft said. "We are also the happy recipients of all the crap in the Shiawassee that comes from Fenton (city)."

Treatment of the lakes begins in the fall and picks back up in the spring. Township Supervisor Bonnie Mathis warned residents to not harass Aquatic Nuisance Plant Control officials or law enforcement would have to be involved.

Calendar of events

Beecher High School Class of 1962

Beecher High School Class of 1962 is holding its 50th class reunion on Saturday, Oct. 13 at Tyrone Hills Golf Course in Fenton. For more information call Nancy at (810) 639-7017 or Sandy at (810) 744-2496.

Youth Aviation Day on Saturday

The Bishop International Airport Civil Air Patrol is hosting Youth Aviation Day from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 22. There will be static displays. Use the entrance at the southeast corner off Torrey Road. Parking is available outside the perimeter fence.

Fenton Township Operations Manager Tom Broecker said he did not hear about sightings of a large cat. Deputies of the Genesee County Sheriff's Department that cover this area could not be reached.

While seeing a panther in the tri-county area may seem like a stretch, Genesee County Animal Control Dispatcher Clarinda Eustin said panthers and large cats have been spotted in Genesee County.

"There are some out in Montrose and Flushing, there's been pictures of them," Eustin said, who hasn't received any personal calls on big cats. "They're not legal to have. But if it gets away from you, what are you going to do?"

The tri-county area is no stranger to large cats. Last summer, an exotic African cat known as a Serval was found wandering Tyrone Township. The cat was captured by Livingston County Animal Control and subsequently transported to an animal park on the state's west side.

Earlier this spring, some Ann Arbor residents reported seeing a cougar near the University of Michigan campus grounds. The cougar was never captured.

If someone does see a large cat, Eustin recommends calling the Department of Natural Resources as animal control does not have the proper equipment to capture such an animal.

"It was exciting, to say the least," said Mallia. "This couldn't have come at a better time."

The winner of Roger Sharp Sr.'s donated antique MG Roadster was David Wolford, of Fenton.

A total of 1,838 apple pies were sold, even with the slightly higher price tag of $10 per pie — because of the scarcity of apples this fall. Of course, the apple pies auctioned off after the Apple Pie Judging Contest brought in quite a few more dollars than that.

The first-place pie, baked by Pam Howd brought in $2,000 from bidder Michael LaJoyce. The second-place pie baked by Sophie Nowak was purchased by Roger Sharp Sr. for $2,200. The third-place pie, baked by Rachel Learman was bought by Cal Rapson for $500.

New this year was a Spaghetti Dinner on Sunday, rounding out a full weekend of festival food fun. Festivalgoers had the opportunity to enjoy a Fish Fry on Friday night, Chicken Dinners on Saturday night and a Spaghetti Dinner on Sunday. Ice cream for festival visitors was donated by Uncle Ray's Dairyland.

Applefest holds several exciting road races every year during this event, from the kids Core-ter (1/4) mile, to the 10K run. For information about race results, visit stjohnapplefest.org.

Sara noted that a lot of people came out to enjoy Applefest with their families, dressed in Detroit Tigers T-shirts. "This was a request Amy O'Rourke put out on Facebook," said Sara. Amy is the widow of slain police officer Patrick O'Rourke, whose funeral was held Friday of Applefest weekend at St. John's. "She said that's what Patrick would have wanted."

band's movements and what needs to be improved.

Students hoist their instruments and begin to march, some stomping to the left, others to the right while practicing the notes to 'My Sharona' by The Knack. Throughout practice, Perkins calls out "left, right!" marching orders while students keep rhythm by counting "one, three, five, seven!" The students move in a synchronized fashion, creating fantastic spectacle when viewed as a whole.

Practice ends at 7:25 a.m. with the band huddling together and sharing social news with each other. The sun has chased away dawn and students scatter to the high school for instructions and learning.

Perkins said students always start out practice a little sleepy but end up falling into a routine as they begin practice.

"They're still sleepy enough to not be talkative but awake enough to get some rehearsal done," Perkins said. "They come out here and march around and work up a sweat. I mean, it's pretty cold out here but none of them are complaining because they're exercising."

From football games to town parades, high school marching bands are present at numerous public events. For most members, becoming part of the marching band starts in sixth grade when middle school students join concert band. Students are assigned an instrument based on interest, ability and positions the band needs to fill. Students spend their middle school years mastering the fundamentals of their instruments.

When they enter high school, students get a one-week crash course on the basics of marching band with an annual camp trip. From then on, the marching band practices Monday through Friday from 6:30 to 7:25 a.m.

And while learning an instrument takes years of dedication and passion, it takes students from all cliques to compose the marching band.

"Some people think marching band people are band geeks. We count for almost a third of the school," said Caitlin Wiley, junior drum major. Swimmers, theater kids, football players and cross-country runners are some of the diverse students involved with marching band.

Sophomore Ivan Boedecker said that the early practice time is something that band students eventually adjust to.

"I joined band because I thought it'd be cool to play music with my friends," Boedecker said after the practice.

'Pinwheels for Peace'

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | TIM JAGIELO

Students at Hyatt and Central elementary schools in Linden took part in a national initiative, "Pinwheels for Peace."

Spearheading the project is art teacher Dana Crane. She said the lesson here is anti-bullying. "We respect others, but we want respect too," she said on Monday. Every student in the school made a pinwheel. The project began at the start of the school year.

a $12,000 increase from original projected costs.

Sediment is entering the well through cracks in the well's walls, rendering the water unusable. Analysts recommended digging another 100 feet for safety.

The fifth well has never been in operation.

The city currently has four wells that support the city. City Attorney Charles McKone said the four existing wells are enough to supply the city but the fifth well needs to be in operation, in case of an emergency.

"(Department of Environmental Quality) will not allow us to run one source," McKone said.

Councilor Ray Culbert noted that the city's four operating wells have had problems in the past and that the city should not rely on one water source.

Tallman said the well was installed about five years ago and that operating four wells can run 700,000 gallons of water a minute.

Initially, Tallman recommended awarding the work to Peerless Midwest. However, councilors felt companies should have the opportunity to resubmit a bid in order to secure the lowest price. The highest bid for the project came from Northern Pump and Well Company, which estimated the project, could cost $81,737.

"Is it safe to say the other companies could have been more competitive if they resubmitted?" Mayor David Lossing asked.

Councilor Ray Swan said quality assurance should be included in the new bid. "They're the professionals. How are we going to get assurance?"

Swan said. "How come we didn't hold (the last well driller) to a standard?"

The council decided to send bids out again, with the option of a warranty and guarantees that the well will remain operable for a set number of years. Bids are expected to be received within the next month.

"Is it safe to say the other companies could have been more competitive if they resubmitted?"

PAUL G. DONOHUE, M.D.

To your good health

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: My mother has lived in an assisted-living facility for two years. She's mentally clear, but physically unable to take care of herself. The last time I visited her, a nurse was taking her blood pressure. She told me that my mother's pressure in her right arm was normal, but the pressure in her left arm was 165 over 95. Which is her true blood pressure? — E.L.

ANSWER: A 10-point discrepancy in blood pressure between the two arms is considered acceptable. With a larger difference, the actual blood pressure is the higher one.

Larsen, Veneziano shine at Applefest road races

►Fenton residents' winning traditions

Fenton — When it comes to road racing, Fenton has two names that stick out above the rest.

Those names are Sue Larsen and Lisa Veneziano.

And during Saturday's St. John Applefest 5K and 10K Run, Fenton's royalty proudly displayed why they are the among the running elite.

Larsen and Veneziano each won the women's class of their races at Applefest. Larsen darn near was the overall winner in the 5K. She posted a time of 17:06, just 10 seconds behind male and overall champion Sean Rosalez of Davison. Meanwhile, Veneziano, a day short of her 48th birthday, won the female division with a time of 39:06, the only woman in the event to come close to breaking the 40-minute barrier. She was 11th overall. Flint's Kreg Hatfield was first overall in 33:14.

And another name that has made herself known from Fenton also was the first overall finisher in the 5K walk. That was Fenton's Susan Mora Fassett (30:20).

Both running women were pleased with their results.

"They got away from me about the two-mile (mark)," said Larsen about the male leaders. "It was Eric

Fenton Tigers edge Bronchos, 3-2

Fenton — The Fenton varsity boys soccer team has been trying to figure out ways to get their offense going in recent games.

It took them a minute to find it on Monday.

The Tigers got a goal in the first minute and looked dangerous on offense all night long, leading to a 3-2 victory against the Holly Bronchos.

Fenton (1-0-1, 4-3-1) used three forwards instead of two and scored three first-half goals, taking a 3-0 lead into the break. It looked like the Tigers would cruise to the win, but Holly fought back with two goals by Jordan Parks in the final 12 minutes of the contest. The Tigers held on from there, earning their first Metro League victory of the season.

"Our offense played 10 levels above the level we've been playing," said Jacob Kinsman, who had the third Fenton goal with 7:26 left in the half. "We played like we did against Detroit Country Day and we beat them 2-0. The offense was great tonight. Our combinations were great."

Fenton scored in the first minute on a cross from Evan Hudson to Aron Ferguson for a goal. The Tigers added another with 26:35 left when Kinsman assisted Andrew Mowery's goal on a shot from the top of the goal box. Later, a throw-in helped set up Kinsman's game-winning goal off a Ferguson assist.

Holly (1-1-1, 2-4-1) cut the lead to 3-1 with 11:46 left on a Jordan Parks header.

Rosalez, Hatfield capture their first Applefest overall male running titles

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Fenton — A pair of first-time winners captured the top spots in for the men in the 2012 St. John Applefest Run on Saturday.

Davison's Sean Rosalez was competing in only his second 5K race ever, but he still won. He captured first overall with a time of 16:56, while Novi's Seryozha Gerkov placed second just four seconds behind (17:00). The 10K victor was Applefest veteran Kreg Hatfield, who won in 33:14. He was 10 seconds ahead of Clarkston's Leo Foley, who posted a time of 33:24.

Rosalez, who usually runs shorter distances, was pleased with his outing.

"My first race ever in a 5K was 18:03 about a month ago," Ro-salez said. "I just ran a 16-high so that was a great improvement.

"The (race for first) was close all the way to the last 800, and I gave it everything I got at the end."

Rosalez competed in track at Eastern Michigan University, but is now a runner on Team Michigan Elite, a program located in Ann Arbor.

His biggest highlight this summer came at the Crim's Michigan Mile event, where he beat Olympian and Grand Blanc's Geena Gall by five seconds, with a time of 5:17 in that event.

The third-place male was also the male masters winner, Fenton's Eric Larsen. He posted a time of 17:27, 21 seconds behind his wife Sue Larsen.

"It's just fun," Larsen said about running at Applefest. "This is great for us because it's a mile-and-a-half from our home. So we come down here, can't miss that. And we're supporting the festival and all the local stuff here. Plus, it's always fun when you run local because people know you and they cheer for you along the way."

The rest of the men's top-five finishers were Bancroft's Donald Achey (17:30) in fourth and Williamsburg's Kenneth Flannery in fifth (17:51). Minus Rosalez, age prevailed in the event. Eight of the top 10 male performers were at least 40 years old.

Fenton's Kryza takes top spot at Holly Invitational

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

There were just over 600 varsity male runners competing at Saturday's Holly Invitational.

And out of all the runners, Fenton's Max Kryza posted the best time of all.

Kryza won the Division 2 race with a time of 16:07, beating St. Clair's Trevor Hollowaty for the top spot in that race. However, the only runner that came close in any of the five boys varsity races was Pinckney's D1 competitor Tyler Sanders, who won his race in 16:09.

While Kryza was the top performing individual out of tri-county runners, the Holly girls had the best team placing. The Bronchos took second in the D2 competition. In the same race, Fenton's girls placed eighth, while Linden was 11th.

Bronchos finishing in the top 40 of the race were: Shannon Westfall in 12th (20:51), Maggie Schneider in 18th (21:17), Abby Brown in 25th (21:48), Alex Matvchuk in 27th (21:57) and Charlotte Ruffini in 28th (22:00). Emily Bemis led the Tigers placing in 34th (22:18).

Linden was led by Kailee Corcoran with a 39th-place finish (22:35), while Karrah Varner was in 40th (22:36).

In Division 2 boys action, the Linden Eagles placed fifth. David Doyle took 14th (17:14), followed by Jeremiah Gossett in 27th (17:43), Ryan Torok in 28th (17:43) and Dustin Sack in 40th (18:07).

Holly's squad placed sixth with two in the top 40. They were Nate Frasier in 13th (17:12) and Dilon Lemond in 17th (17:23).

Fenton's Jacob Lee placed 25th (17:43).

Linden at Spartan Invitational

The Linden boys took 28th in the elite division. Meanwhile, the Linden girls took fourth in the bronze division.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | DAVID TROPPENS

Fenton's Joe Kryza placed first in the Division 2 boys race at the Holly Invitational on Saturday.

Sydney Elmer led the Linden girls by taking ninth in 19:32. McKayla Guy placed 25th (20:21), while Courtney Davis was 45th (21:37). The Linden boys were led by Roger Phillips, who finished the elite race in 13th in 16:02. Kyle Susalla was 136th (17:25).

Lake Fenton

at the Foxes and Hounds Meet

Caleb Fletcher led Lake Fenton with a time of 18:20. Others placing in the top five were Winston Ray (19:07), Jake Fletcher (19:07), Dylan Cullimore (19:13) and Nash Reigle (20:21). Laura Carlson posted a time of 21:53, while Becky Fernelius had a time of 22:17. Logan Dailey ran a 28:50, while C.J. Simon finished in 31:01.

a couple of fluke goals at the end, but we possessed and controlled the whole game," Kinsman said. "We played great."

Parks likes the team's "don't quit" attitude. He just wants to see it earlier in the game.

"We definitely don't quit," Parks said. "We sometimes come out flat and that's what hurt us tonight. But once we get in the game we start fighting. The last 20 minutes — we haven't lost the last 20 minutes of a game the entire season."

Linden volleyball earns Byron crown

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden's varsity volleyball squad looked like a team that may need a rebuilding season.

The program lost a good chunk of players that made a second-place finish in the Flint Metro League possible a year ago, and it seemed it might take some time for the squad to mature again.

But apparently those thoughts weren't entirely true.

The Eagles have had a fine start to the season and have now won their first tournament of the season — the Byron Invitational.

The Eagles defeated Morris and Flint Academy, followed by a three-game loss to Byron. However, the Eagles still made it to the semifinals, defeating Swartz Creek 25-20, 25-17 in the semifinals, and then beating Ypsilanti in the championship match 25-17, 25-14.

"During the preseason and even our first league matches we have played very up and down," Linden coach Cori Mason said. "We Parks then had a penalty kick attempt, converting the goal with 9:59 left.

That put some excitement in the contest during the final 10 minutes, but Holly was unable to really mount another dangerous chance during that period.

Kinsman was excited with what he saw. "Everything was just working. They had it with Foley just 10 seconds behind. "We ran together the whole way. (I distanced myself) when we turned off LeRoy there," Hatfield said. "I just wanted to run fast, run competitive and fast."

Fenton's Kirk Walrath, one of the area's household names, was third overall, taking the Male Masters championship with a time of 34:10.

"I like this race because I am from Fenton," Walrath said. "I like the course. It's a fast course. I like the support. It usually gets a pretty good running crowd. I like it."

Fenton's Jesse Anderson placed fourth (34:31), while another Fenton resident, Jayson Doggett, placed fifth (35:36).

Fenton's Anthony Mora was the male overall winner for the 5K walk, posting a second-place overall time of 30:24. Meanwhile, Caro's Harry Gabalis was the Male Masters winner (31:20).

St. John Applefest 1 Mile run results

Harrison Vincil, 9, was the male victor, while Mallory Lehmann, 9, was the women's winner. Vincil posted a time of 6:10, four seconds faster than 11-year-old Joshua Meyers' time of 6:14. Lehmann was in third (6:51), while Jackson Gangwer, 10, (7:00) and Ben Kehoe, 11, (7:03) placed fourth and fifth, respectively.

The rest of the top 10 were: Ben Grob in sixth (7:06), Emma Draper in seventh (7:07), Patrick Kehoe in eighth (7:09), Caitin Draper in ninth (7:09) and Molly James in 10th (7:09). Kathryn Walterhouse also had a time of 7:09, placing 11th.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES | DAVID TROPPENS

Fenton's Lisa Veneziano was the women's champion during the Applefest 10K Run on Saturday. She took 11th overall with a time of 39:06.

(Larsen, Sue's husband) and me and then he slowed down. I knew he was going to go out hard. The other two guys, I really didn't know who they were, but they got me right around two (miles). I tried to stay with a little bit, but they were just a few seconds (stronger).

"I was hurting a little bit at the end. I knew I was close to getting under 17 (minutes) and that's what I was hoping for, but I'm thrilled being a few seconds off."

Veneziano didn't start running until she was 25. She was Michigan Runner's Michigan Runner of the Year in 2011.

"The older I get, the more I appreciate (winning the races)," Veneziano said. "As a mater of fact, (on Sunday) I will turn 48. I am thankful that I am hanging as long as I have."

"It's hard work. I work out every day whether it's running or doing my biking. But I definitely work out every day."

Larsen said she has won the overall championship at road races before, but usually the fields are much smaller. Eric Larsen thought she had a chance before the race began. He's watched his wife go from an average to an outstanding runner over the last decade.

"Today, when I looked around, I didn't recognize anyone and thought she might win it outright," Larsen said. "She's done it before."

"I am amazed by her. As her husband I've come from watching her run 26-, 25-, 24-minute 5Ks to almost breaking 17. I want to see her break that 17-minute mark."

Larsen said she had a cold earlier in the week and was just getting healthy again near the race.

"I have this head cold, but today was an ideal day for running," Larsen said. "I said, 'Trust your training and don't let them go (the two leading men).' I stuck with them 30 seconds at a time. They got me a little bit."

The second female to finish was Fenton's Pamela Rynearson, who finished in 19:44. Marie Morgan took third (20:54), while Davisburg 12-year old Lauren Hackett placed fourth (21:15). The Female Masters winner was Grand Blanc's Rosie Arano, who posted a time of 22:02.

Veneziano ran with her husband, Jay Owens. The pair are pretty equal, and on this day, Owens, 50, beat Veneziano with a time of 37:38, taking ninth overall. Veneziano said running at Applefest has great meaning.

"It means a lot because it's our hometown. It's our home church, so we like to come out for this race," she said. "It was an awesome day as always, great weather."

After Veneziano, Fenton's Kelsey Bragg, who won the Bastille Day Walk and Run this summer, took second (41:44) for the women. Flushing's Kathy Snyder was the female masters winner with a time of 43:00. Fenton's Rochelle Jones was fourth (44:01), while Flushing's Wanda Handlin placed fifth (44:08). Fenton's Carolyn Thompson was the female masters winner for the 5K walk, posting a third-place overall time of 31:19.

would get a run of four or five points and then turn around and give up that same run. I really liked that we played consistent volleyball in the playoffs instead of playing great only for a few points at a time. I hope this win is a confidence booster for our team."

The Eagles are 16-4-8 overall.

For the day, Kelsey Brecht led the offense with 27 kills, while Rachel Maxheimer followed with 26 kills. Taylor Ovington had 22 kills, while Niki Sargent had 17 kills. Rebecca McDonald chipped in 15 kills. Callie Murphy was the main setter, earning 63 assists. Meanwhile, Ashley Klavitter also shared time at setter and had 23 assists.

Defensively, Megan Klavitter led the team with 37 digs. Brecht also had 33 digs and three blocks, while Maxheimer had 24 digs. Ashley Klavitter chipped in 23 digs, while Sargent had two blocks. At the service line, Murphy had 20 aces, while Klavitter had 10 aces.

Fenton at Rockford Invitational

The Tigers (23-10-3) went 2-4, defeating Plymouth Salem 2-0 and Novi 2-1. They lost to Rockford, Seaholm, Grand Blanc and Detroit Mercy.

Maizie Martin led the Tigers with 28 kills and four blocks, while Bobbie Eastman had 24 kills and 11 blocks. Ashley Bearden chipped in 20 kills, seven aces, 65 assists and 38 digs. Payton Maxheimer had 51 digs. Megan Cockin had 60 digs and eight aces.

If you are considering applying for Social Security or S.S.I. benefits and have questions about the procedure or law call our office. We will analyze your case, give you some suggestions that will help you with your application, and send you an information packet showing you where and how to apply for your benefits.

There is absolutely NO CHARGE for our services
UNLESS WE ACCEPT YOUR CASE and WIN IT!

We have an excellent reputation for thorough preparation - No law office, either local or out of state has a higher success ratio!
