By Sally Rummel

Even though everybody seems to have one, it's not something you want for yourself. Once you catch it, you don't always know what to do about it.

We're talking about a "common cold," which medically speaking isn't all that common, according to Dr. Christopher Iacobelli, of Iacobelli Medical Center in Fenton. "There are actually 200 different viruses that can cause a cold, and over half of them are a type of virus called the rhinovirus — and there are 99 different types of these viruses, too. That's why we have a vaccination for the flu, but will never have one for the 'common cold.'"

Kullis appointed to village council

►Resident no stranger to local politics

By Tim Jagielo

tjagielo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

The Holly Village Council is now complete. Resident George Kullis was appointed by the council to fill the rest of the two-year term left by newly elected president Jason Hughes, who vacated his seat to become president.

"George and I haven't necessarily agreed with each other, but at the end of the day, he always had the village's best interests in mind," said Hughes, who also liked that Kullis was up to speed with current village issues having filled in after Sandra Kleven abruptly resigned.

Kullis was appointed by a 6-1 vote, with council member Bob Allsop casting the dissenting vote. Allsop felt that because John Lauve was the next highest vote-getter in the general election, he should have been appointed to council. He also thought that the time and effort Lauve spent campaigning should have made a difference.

Hughes did consider the votes in deciding to recommend Kullis for the job, but he pointed out that Lauve and others ran for the four-year seat — the two-year seat would have been a different race, and a different ballot question. Considering the next closest vote-getter was also only a suggestion by the village charter.

Kullis, who also ran for a seat in 2009, said he wishes to focus on firming up the rules of the Holly historic district, and sharing services with Holly Township. "The biggest thing this community needs is the erasing of that blinder between the township and the village," he said. "There's opportunities community wide to sit down and discuss this stuff."

Facing down phobias

►Anxieties come in many forms, can be especially troubling during the holidays

By Ryan Tackabury

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

The end of the year is a time that many people associate with getting together and celebrating the holidays with family and friends.

For those who face social phobia — now often simply called social anxiety disorder, this time of the year can be much more

See ANXIETIES on 12

There are almost as many different phobias as there are people. Though their fears may be different, their responses to their fear are often similar.

Common and uncommon phobias

There are some fears that many different people have — some for good reasons. The fear of heights for example, helps keep us away from situations that could prove to be dangerous to our wellbeing.

Other phobias are less common, but they are no less serious than those that are more common. Any phobia can produce unwanted panic attacks

Common phobias

• Arachnophobia is the fear of spiders, but can also be set off by things such as spider webs.

►Host/hostess gifts show appreciation for special holiday events

Chances are that every weekend from now through the holidays, your calendar is filled with some kind of party or special occasion. Whether it's a family Christmas event, a New Year's gathering at someone's home or an intimate dinner party, you'll want to be a thoughtful guest by bringing the host/hostess a gift.

If your holiday plans include an overnight stay at someone's home, your gift will need to be a "step up" from a dinner party gift, as a special thank you for the extra preparations that are required to host you as a guest.

Small decorative items can make great thank-you gifts for a host or hostess.

The whole point of a hostess gift is a thank you, according to Cindy Post Senning, co-director of the Emily Post Institute. As with any other gift, keep the recipient in mind when selecting the item. Don't necessarily bring your favorite item, unless you think your host will love it, too.

The Emily Post Institute offers a few "do's and don'ts" when it comes to selecting appropriate hostess gifts.

'No skin in the game'

An Internet search is inconclusive as to where the phrase 'no skin in the game' originated. Some ascribe it to the late columnist William Safire, others to investor Warren Buffett. Politicians often use the phrase to justify policies to their liking. It can also be applied to the latest in a long list of their outrageous behaviors, as well as to those of President Obama.

Like an increasing number of politicians, the president has never served in the military, nor has he ever run a business. He has never headed a company that needed to make a profit. He has likely never had to produce a balance sheet. His entire career appears to have been about redistributing other people's money and organizing 'communities' to receive government benefits.

We the people grant power to political leaders. Along with that power is a presumption that the men and women we elect are stewards, or caretakers of America; that they will behave as responsible overseers of what has been entrusted to them. Can this president and Congress credibly say their irresponsible spending and the 'fiscal cliff' they are driving us toward meet this definition?

Have you ever been entrusted with someone else's property? Unless you are terribly irresponsible, you probably took care of it, making sure it was not damaged and that you returned it to its owner in the same, or better, condition than when you received it.

Politicians operate differently. They take what is not theirs and irresponsibly tax, spend or over-regulate it. Too many are not invested in America. They have no skin in the game.

A self-indulgent nation cannot long exist, at least not as the nation delivered to us by our forefathers. I was taught that excessive debt was a great evil because it contributed to a loss of freedom. If that is true for individuals, it is truer still for our country.

Things might be different if the president and Congress saw themselves as stewards. Instead, they behave as they do because they have little or no skin in the game.

TO ALL THE parents of children who are bullies — and you know who you are — teach your children well, to be kind, and giving, and good. No one wants a legacy for their child to be that they destroyed someone's life by mere words. #StandUp for what's right.

FREEDOM TO WORK.

Cause: Union leadership, by pushing the Proposal 2 constitutional amendment. Effect: Michigan may become the 25th Right-to-Work state.

WHAT TAX CUTS? Obama is lying as usual. Congress must let the temporary Bush tax cut expire on 12/31/2012 and only bargain rates if entitlements are addressed immediately. The absolutely, only place Obama will reduce spending is in the defense department.

I AM SHOCKED and disgusted at how many restaurants and fast-food places I have been to in town that workers are visible and not wearing gloves while preparing our food.

IF YOU REALLY think that everyone who votes democrat is on welfare, you might not be smarter than a fifth grader. We democrats reject the idea that cutting taxes will magically create jobs and, winning the Presidency with 332 electoral votes is a landslide and the only vote that matters.

GOOD NEWS THIS week, unemployment dropped to 7.7 percent. Bad news was that many more dropped out of a job search. Worse news is that 73 percent of jobs created in the last five months were government jobs. This means that one person is pulling the wagon and three are riding.

Throwing Rice: A GOP in-crowd

Do race and gender bias fuel the raging Senate fight that has erupted for remarkably little reason over United Nations Ambassador Susan Rice's possible nomination to be secretary of state? I think not. If anything is standing in this highly qualified African American woman's way on Capitol Hill, it is not racism or sexism. It's cronyism.

As President Obama's potential nominee comes under increasing fire, despite a glaring emptiness to the arguments against her, Senate Republicans have taken a conspicuous liking to another name on the president's shortlist, Sen. John Kerry. The Massachusetts Democrat comes from the other party but, as a senator, like Secretary of State Hillary Clinton used to be, he's one of their own.

On Sunday talk shows after the Sept. 11 attack that killed four Americans, including Ambassador Chris Stevens, at the U.S. consulate in Benghazi, Libya, United Nations Ambassador Rice said that, 'based on the best information we have to date,' the attacks began 'spontaneously' in response to an inflammatory anti-Islam video that triggered riots in Cairo and elsewhere after it was posted on YouTube.

She also said 'extremist elements' then joined the attack, although she did not directly mention terrorism or a suspected al-Qaida affiliate. For that omission, she has been accused of shading the truth to help President Obama's re-election, although that notion is supported by far more suspicions than actual evidence.

Congress can redeem itself by focusing on what we should be caring about: Who deleted the terrorist group references from Rice's talking points before she went on the talk shows? CIA, State Department and FBI officials point fingers at one another. Yet Republican senators remain 'obsessed,' as Obama's press secretary Jay Carney put it, with Rice.

More important: Why was security in Benghazi so lax despite repeated requests for beefed-up protection? Why were American rescue troops stationed so far away? None of these critical issues were the responsibility of the UN ambassador. Yet, GOP senators make her the big headline. Is the election over yet?

One tequila, two tequila, three tequila, out the door!

► Fenton police hope to identify liquor thieves caught on camera

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Fenton police are investigating a larceny of tequila, which was captured on surveillance video at a local grocery store.

Lt. Jason Slater said that at 1 p.m. on Friday, Dec. 7, an officer responded to a grocery store in the 18000 block of Silver Parkway to investigate a complaint. A loss prevention employee reported that three bottles of tequila were missing from a store shelf, which prompted them to review surveillance videos.

The employee observed a man and woman on video about 9:35 p.m. on Dec. 6. The white female, described as in her late 30s, about 5-feet, 10-inches tall, about 210 pounds, blonde hair, wearing a black sweater and black shoes, was caught on video selecting two fifths of tequila, walking to another aisle and allegedly concealing one of the bottles in her purse.

This anti-bullying march was orchestrated by the Lake Fenton High School anti-bullying club, the Starfish Initiative. # Gazebo and pavilion rental see small fee increase

► $15 to $25 increase will help offset maintenance costs

Fenton — Renting of some gazebos and pavilions in Bush Park and at the mill pond in Fenton parks will get slightly more expensive.

Summary

► A small rental fee increase for Fenton park structures will help offset maintenance costs.

The renting of the Mill Pond gazebo will see an increase from $85 to $100 for residents and $125 to $140 for non-residents. Meanwhile, renting the Bush park pavilion will see an increase from $25 to $50 for residents, and an increase from $50 to $75 for non-residents.

In a memorandum to the city council, Department of Public Works (DPW) Director Daniel Czarnecki said that the increase in rates was recommended by the Parks and Recreation board in order to be more competitive with other communities and to bring in a little more money to help offset the maintenance costs associated with the rented structures. The last increase in rental price was in 2010.

Czarnecki said that the Mill Pond gazebo is the only such structure that has been rented in the past year.

While the entrance fees to Silver Lake Park were reviewed, no changes were recommended by the Parks and Recreation board, and none were made.

Councilwoman Lockwood, who represents city council on the Parks and Recreation board requested the vote be tabled until January. The motion to table the matter was voted down. Lockwood said that she did not feel the Parks and Recreation board had done enough research yet to justify the increase in price.

Councilwoman Cheryl King was in favor of the price range. "I always thought we did not charge enough," she said.

Councilman Les Bland also spoke out in favor of the increase. "I don't think $15 or $25 is going to break or make anybody. The DPW spends a tremendous amount of time cleaning up messes down there."

The council voted in favor of raising the rental fees in a 5-2 vote, with council members Lockwood and Piacentini casting the dissenting votes.

HOT LINE CONTINUED

TO THE FINE voters of the 51st House District, way to go. You put a guy in office who is a puppet. Graves' Right to Work vote will put the 51st into an early grave. You get what you vote for. God help us all.

THE REAL REASON the debt is so high has nothing to do with the president golfing, it has everything to do with 11 years of deficit spending and two unfunded wars. Both parties are at fault, so quit pointing fingers and compromise already!

I JUST READ the article about people protesting what they thought was an inadequate welfare system. When did this country decide to allow and encourage people to stop being responsible for themselves and delegate that responsibility to the government. My ancestors fought for equal opportunity — 'opportunity' being the operative word.

THE RIGHT TO work legislation will ultimately be bad for Michigan and Michigan residents. As a union member I see daily the great things that are done by our members. There is no more generous or caring organization than your local unions.

I BELIEVE THE teachers need to be educated on bullying, not just the students. I had a child that was bullied every single day in every single class, and when the teachers were finally called for a meeting with the principal, not one of them knew this was going on.

JOE GRAVES YOU should be ashamed of yourself. Way to support the right to get lower payment law. It will create a lot of minimum wage jobs and lower wages throughout the State of Michigan.

I THINK IT'S time for a change in Fenton Township. Any time I ask for a question it's a civil matter, or that's the Genesee County Road Commission's job and you had better talk to the Drain commission. You can't build that and that's going to cost you. Time for change!

IF YOU DON'T have much and your children receive just a few gifts, the holiday can still be filled with wonder and magic for your children. Instead of focusing on presents. Try baking cookies together listening to Christmas music, read holiday stories borrowed from the library or make snowmen together.

AT MY CHILD'S game, I had to listen to another parent tell me what my child needs to do to improve. Hmmm... that's what their coach is for. Obviously, my child was good enough to make the team, so get over yourself.

Bands and Trademark Law

A couple of nights ago I was watching Public Television when a show called '60s Pop, Rock and Soul: My Music' came on hosted by Peter Noone and Davy Jones.

On the show were musical groups such as Paul Revere and The Raiders, Jefferson Starship, The Vogues, The Miracles, and the Kingsmen. Featured individuals who were formerly with famous 60s bands included Roger McGuinn (The Byrds) and Messrs Noone (Herman's Hermits) and Jones (The Monkees).

Hopefully, with the proliferation of modern day oldies and classic rock radio stations and television reruns and other sources most people have at least heard of these names.

From a personal standpoint, I thoroughly enjoyed hearing the songs that I remembered from that era. I was also interested in seeing the people who came on stage both individually and in the groups.

Not surprisingly the individuals who appeared and sang looked older but familiar. However when the groups appeared and played their songs, if I closed my eyes I would have believed they too were the originals but actually seeing them it was clear that a number of the individuals in the bands were born well after the 1960s.

The fact that these groups still use the names of the original groups leads to today's legal issue involving the use of names and trademark law.

To say that this issue has been the source of much litigation would be an understatement of great proportion. The reason is very simple — the value of well-known band names is substantial and both past and present group members have an interest in receiving the fruits of their labors.

There are a number of tests that the courts have used under federal law when disputes have arisen between past and present group members when two or more groups have tried to use the same name and in other situations. These include whether the original group name was personal to the members and if not, for what quality or characteristic is the group known and who controls that quality?

I won't try to detail all of the examples but for those who are interested there is a web page titled 'Coasting with the Coasters' that details some of the disputes.

congestion, cough, a runny nose and a sore throat.

"The rhinovirus enters the body through the nasal passages and mouth, where it can enter the bronchial tubes. It then penetrates the mucus layer and starts invading nearby cells where the virus replicates, vastly increasing the number of viral cells," said Iacobelli.

"Your body recognizes it as a foreign organism and your immune system kicks in to attack the virus. This causes swelling and inflammation within the nasal passages, throat and bronchial tubes, which results in a buildup of mucus. That is when a person gets congested, 'sniffly,' and can develop a cough."

A person coughs and sneezes because the virus is initially caught by the cilia cells — hair-like projections in the nose and throat. "These cells are our first line of defense against a cold," said Iacobelli. "Sneezing and coughing are attempts to clear out the virus."

Smoking kills off cilia cells. "That's why smokers have a harder time fighting off colds and influenza," Iacobelli added. In fact, smokers have more frequent and harsher colds than the general population, according to WebMd.

While colds and flu are simply a nuisance for most people, they can be deadly for those with severe asthma or other respiratory problems or those who are immune compromised. A cold is the most common infectious disease that exists, resulting in two to three colds per year for most adults and six to 12 colds a year in children.

This frequency results in a major economic impact in the U.S. The common cold leads to 70 to 100 million physician visits annually at a conservative cost estimate of $7.7 billion per year. Americans spend more than $2.9 billion on over-the-counter drugs and another $400 million on prescription medicines for the relief of symptoms.

An estimated 22 to 189 million school days are missed annually due to a cold, causing parents to miss 126 million workdays to stay home to care for sick children. Employees also miss a total of about 150 million work days suffering from a cold, accounting for 40 percent of time lost from work in the U.S.

Once you've caught a cold, what do you do about it?

Iacobelli recommends that you stay hydrated by drinking plenty of fluids and getting plenty of rest. Treatment options are over the counter antihistamines/decongestants or analgesics such as Ibuprofen or Acetaminophen. "It should run its course in about two to seven days," he said.

Difference between a 'common cold' and the flu

A COLD:

Typically begins gradually with a sore throat that is rarely accompanied by a fever, headache and/or muscle aches. Main symptoms are sniffles, a runny nose and a wet sounding productive cough. Coughs usually get better within a week.

THE FLU:

Usually the flu hits much harder, with a high fever usually greater than 100-102 degrees. Rarely do you have sniffles, and if there is a cough, it is usually a dry non-productive cough. The flu also causes severe fatigue. The flu may linger longer than a cold.

RENEGES

According to Interim City Manager/Police Chief Scott Sutter, the city of Linden has paid $2,150 for the phase I environmental study and $2,000 for deposits on the property.

City councilors, who were impassioned on acquiring the property during negotiations with the LaFontaines and Smiths, said nothing on the termination of the proposed agreement at Monday's city council meeting. The termination stems from the second environmental study conducted by Atwell Hicks who "identified the presence of petroleum related contaminants in soil and groundwater on the southwestern portion of the property at concentrations above the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) criteria."

Additional, unknown costs could have come with the property, had the city agreed to the purchase.

Under the initial agreement, the city was to purchase the Union Block property for $240,000, paying the LaFontaine family $195,700 and the Smith family $31,600. The second environmental study was paid in full by the LaFontaine family, coming at no cost to the city.

The Union Block was built in 1870 and was destroyed in a May 2007 fire. The LaFontaine family had purchased the property in 2008 for $186,000 with the intent to restore it. The LaFontaine family then put the property back on the market in 2011, with an initial asking price of $450,000.

The 1.06-acre Union Block was the most historic site in Linden, having housed drug stores, grocery stores, restaurants, apartments and poker rooms.

Development and marketing of the property had been the main focus of former City Manager Mark Tallman, who resigned in October after five months on the job. The city is currently in the process of selecting candidates for the city manager position and may revisit developing the Union Block property in the future.

MML

The MML is charging a professional fee of $6,500, 10 percent of the city manager's midpoint salary. An additional $1,195 will be charged for miscellaneous fees, $360 for personality indexes and $500 for a potential third-party background investigation for a candidate. Advertising for the position would begin Dec. 14 and end Jan. 31, 2013.

"I think this will be money well spent," said Councilor Charlie Ross.

Currently, Police Chief Scott Sutter is acting as interim city manager, following the resignation of former City Manager Mark Tallman. Tallman resigned from his position after five months on the job.

The city has had a difficulty finding a permanent replacement for former City Manager Chris Wren, who resigned in January.

The last city manager search committee comprised of members from the City of Linden and attracted more than 40 applicants. Among the applicants were Fenton Assistant City Manager and Downtown Development Authority Director Michael Burns and former Grayling City Manager David Thayer, whose interview was rescinded after city officials discovered Thayer had been fired from his position.

According to the job description, the next city manager will earn between $60,000 to $70,000. The candidate must have a bachelor's degree, preferably a master's degree. Management, leadership and development are some of the skills the city is looking for in their next city manager.

"We need to move forward with this," said Councilor Ray Swan at Monday's city council meeting.

Locals experience variety of living conditions

By Tim Jagielo

tjagielo@tctimes.com; 810-433-6795

Bartlick, Va. — Jennifer Childress, 23, sits in a recliner chair. And like many young people, she is utterly focused on her smartphone, a Samsung Galaxy Nexus on Saturday morning. She is a stay-at-home mom, and her fiancé is unemployed. Her father James Bailey draws disability after a punishing career working in the Virginia coal mines and sells scrap for a living. On a sofa nearby, her mother Sandra dresses Childress' 2-year-old daughter, Makayla Bailey.

On the coffee table are two pizza boxes and a few feet away, a wood burning stove keeps the trailer atop the hill surprisingly warm. "Three's Company" plays on the satellite TV.

After spending a week exploring rural Buchanan and Dickinson County, Va., I gathered information and stories from a variety of people. I met the rural poor, the proud, self-proclaimed "hillbillies" and comfortable middle class residents. But nowhere could I see the dirt floors, bare feet, or people living in makeshift shacks I heard about, and wanted to cover.

Families like the Childress' struggle, but still live with basic needs met. Young parents express hope that their children will either go to school or get a good job when they are old enough.

Beautiful new houses are built near crumbling homes and trailers.

My hosts for the trip, Lonnie and Agnes Fuller, could not find anyone fitting the "extreme poverty" conditions and a direct contact is essential when working on a compressed timeline. It doesn't mean they don't exist, but it does mean that in some cases, their conditions are fleeting and economic segregation can exist anywhere. Privacy and the mistrust of outsiders is also part of the culture in rural Virginia.

The man said to be living in a cave and cooking out of a tire on the ground has since been given better housing by a government organization. Groups like People Inc., actively seek out residents with the direst living conditions and move them toward a better life.

In a way, it's like a news photographer driving out to an accident only to see that those involved have been tended to and the wreckage cleaned up. It's a good thing, but I feel like I've missed a vital part of the story.

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the highest level of unemployment experienced in Virginia statewide was 7.8 percent in 1983. Today, Buchanan County suffers from 8.8 percent unemployment and Dickinson County has 9.5 percent unemployment. This is compared to Genesee County's 8.6 percent unemployment as of April 2012. These areas aren't the highest in Virginia — Martinsville County reported 14 percent unemployment in October 2012.

associate editor

This doesn't mean the residents don't suffer. While unemployment is only slightly higher than the national average county-wide, other factors such as location and an area still focused on mining can make escaping poverty more difficult than in an area like Flint. The closest major city is Pikeville, Ky. and even smaller cities are around 20 minutes away, through winding mountain passes. An entry level job is even harder to find and get to in mountainous areas.

The trip yielded great experiences and personal stories of people who live differently than most in Fenton, Linden and Holly.

I was surprised by amazing landscapes and feats of engineering that make living on a mountain possible.

I saw a traditional country Pentecostal church, a family breaking in a horse to lead and ate country biscuits and sausage, made from scratch. Like my trip to Benghazi, Libya, most people were incredibly warm and open and interested in sharing their lives.

Like all good stories and interesting places, contradictions exist. Illegal drugs are used and sold near some of the most breathtaking mountain scenes in the country. The area's best and most beloved employer is the coal industry, though many veterans of the mines now have chronic lung and back issues related to the work. While the Angel Haven Foundation of Holly brings thousands of pounds of goods for people that need it, only a small percentage of who they help, assist in unloading the items from which they benefit.

Whether they have TV, a smartphone, or solid floors, most people in the area could benefit or know someone who could benefit from Angel Haven Foundation's services. In the next story about my trip to Virginia, I'll explore what Christmas is all about in a rural mountain town and how the Holly non-profit organization makes lives a little brighter for the holidays.

Summary

► Rural counties in Virginia suffer higher unemployment than the national average. This is coupled with fewer local businesses and difficult transportation. Non-profit organizations like Angle Haven ease the sometimes dangerous living conditions of the elderly and poor.

Don't:

... give fresh flowers, because that will require a hostess to find a vase to put them in, during a time she's already busy. Instead, bring a plant already in a container or cut flowers in a vase.

... bring frozen goods or something that needs to be kept chilled, for the same reason as above.

... expect that she will use or serve what you bring, because she likely already has plans for the dinner.

Summary

► Showing your appreciation to your host after a holiday event or an overnight stay is a thoughtful gesture that shows you know how to be a good guest.

ready has plans for the dinner.

... go overboard with an extravagant gift. A hostess gift in the $10 range is just fine for a dinner party.

Do:

... bring a gift if you're going to a person's house for the first time. But you don't have to do it every time you visit that same person's home.

... give something that's easy to manage or put on the shelf to take care of later.

... follow up after the event with a simple thank-you note to express your enjoyment of the occasion. It's not an obligation, but an opportunity to show kindness and appreciation.

If you regularly communicate with the host or hostess via email, that's an appropriate way to communicate your appreciation, according to Senning. Of course, a hand-written note with just a few sentences is always thoughtful.

Five tips for holiday visits

- All hosts — including your mother and aunts — love a surprise gift.
- Be willing to pitch in, but instead of asking the harried host how you can help, volunteer to do a specific job like loading the dishwasher.
- If you make the offer to help and the host firmly declines, back off — some people really don't want guests in their kitchen.
- At family get-togethers, don't let nosy questions upset you. Deflect rudeness by changing the topic: "You're right, Uncle Jim, I was thinner last year. How 'bout those Lions?"
- Visiting friends or family? Observe this rule of thumb: Three nights is usually plenty. Spell out arrival and departure times well in advance so your host isn't left guessing.

'Shop with a Hero' brightens day for local kids

►Police, firefighters from Argentine take kids Christmas shopping

By Sharon Stone

sstone@tctimes.com; 810-433-6786

Ten children from the Argentine Township/Linden area were treated to an evening of Christmas shopping Wednesday at the Meijer store on Hill Road in Mundy Township.

The kids, between the ages of 7 and 12, were selected by their schools to participate in the annual "Shop with a Hero" program.

Argentine Township police and fire departments teamed up with Mundy Township's police and fire departments to take 30 children Christmas shopping for their family, and for themselves. Meijer supplied each child with a $100 gift card and a shopping bag filled with food, including a turkey. The store also provided pizza, pop and cookies for the kids and their parents, as well as the officers and firefighters.

Doug Fulton, a detective for Argentine Township, took a 12-year-old boy from Argentine shopping. Fulton said the boy bought gifts for his mom and brother first and with the leftover money, he picked out something for himself. "He did pretty good," said Fulton.

The detective said it was a fun night and after everyone finished chatting about the shopping trip, they left around 9 p.m.

Argentine Township Police Chief Dan Allen also took part in the Shop with a Hero event. He accompanied a 10-year-old boy shopping. The boy first selected gifts for his mom and dad and then selected something for himself.

Summary

► Firefighters and police officers from Argentine Township accompanied 10 local boys and girls on a Christmas shopping trip to Meijer last Wednesday. The store provided each child with a $100 gift card and grocery bag containing food.

Linden follies amuse, raise cash

Linden — It's not often the public gets to see school teachers and employees dress up as reindeers, hungry caterpillars and reenact a 'Charlie Brown' Christmas. The 17th annual Linden Follies show featured all of this while raising money for local families in need this holiday season.

Staff members of the Linden Community Schools managed to raise more than $3,500 for 150 families in the Linden area. According to organizers, a total of more than $6,000 was raised. Proceeds were donated to Angel Tree and Christmas Express, organizations that provide gifts and food, respectively.

Some of the acts included the Linden school board members portraying Charlie Brown and friends, a "Call Me, Maybe," lip dub by staff from Linden Middle School and "Look at these Crayons," where workers from the administration building dressed as the cast from Sesame Street.

The sold out show attracted hundreds of people between the two shows held on Thursday, Dec. 6.

starfish initiative, LFHS senior Matt Wilson.

"I hope people realize that everyone gets bullied," Wilson said. "And they need to know how to handle it and to go to some one."

Members of the initiative and parents from LFHS held signs displaying the Starfish Initiative's catch phrase: 'Saving the sea one starfish at a time.'

The name for this group was inspired by a story that the adviser, Shelia Smith, told the initiative at their first meeting. Smith maintains that the starfish initiative is student-led and student-driven.

"I told them the story of the man who threw starfish back into the ocean trying to save them," Smith said. "A man asked 'why are you doing that, they're just going to wash back up on-shore anyway.' The man threw another starfish back into the ocean and said 'Well, it helped that one, didn't it?'"

The next time the group met, they decided they needed a name; and so the Starfish Initiative was born.

The march that took place on Sunday was the first event that the Starfish Initiative has sponsored since their creation. "We want to spread the message to treat people right regardless of how they look, what they believe, of who they are," Smith said. "The whole community needs to get behind this effort to stop bullying."

Among the Starfish Initiative were several other groups advocating against bullying, such as the Bullycide Project, an anti-bullying theatrical production and Community Parent Inc., a group that aims to erase addiction, bullying, suicide, depression and suicide from the lives of young people.

"We are looking to make a difference with all of the issues our young people are dealing with," director Ken Smith said. "Anyone can join us, just go to communityparent.org."

Summary

► For some people, the greatest problem they deal with on a daily basis is fear itself.

pening. These fears are not necessarily a phobia — although they could be. A phobia is defined as an irrational fear where a person has an unending dread of a particular creature, place, situation, or thing.

According to Medical News Today, a person who is confronted with the source of their phobia will suffer enormous distress which can interfere with their normal function, and can sometimes lead to total panic.

Even brief contact with one's phobias can cause extreme reactions such as panic attacks. Sometimes contact is not needed at all but the mere thought can have troubling effects.

It's no surprise that social phobia is so prevalent among people with phobias — after all, the number one fear in the world is public speaking — ahead of death, which is number two.

Any number of phobias can make someone's life more difficult this time of year.

Cibophobia is the fear of foods, and can present itself in different ways. Concern over how well a food is cooked, if perishables have expired or not, the possibility of food carrying germs, and more are all concerns. During this time of the year when food items are often gifted, swapped, or shared, life can become more difficult.

People with agoraphobia, one of the most crippling of phobias, can have an especially hard time during the holidays.

Agoraphobia is most often described as a fear of public places, making it difficult to attend parties or brave the packed shopping centers to buy gifts.

Overcoming a phobia is difficult, as typically the best way is to do the last thing a phobia sufferer — or phobic,

Fredric Neuman, director of the Anxiety and Phobia Center at White Plains Hospital in New York, wrote that "In order to overcome a phobia, the affected person has to spend time publicly trying to do things that everyone else can do effortlessly."

Neuman also said that overcoming a phobia will take a lot of time — it is not a quick process. In many cases, it is also not viable for a person to "cure" themselves. Instead of trying to solve your phobia problem alone, people who are most successful are those who reach out for help.

• Social phobia can come in many different forms, but is considered to be any type of phobia where you are the subject of criticism of others.

• Aerophobia is the fear of flying. This fear may be easily avoidable by some — but to people who have family living far away, or who enjoy traveling, can find it to be crippling.

• Claustrophobia is the fear of confined and tight spaces, which is estimated to affect roughly 6 percent of the population worldwide.

• Coulrophobia is the fear of clowns, and is typically thought to begin with a person having a bad experience with a clown.

• Paraskavedekatriaphobia is quite a mouthful, though it means a fear of Friday the 13th.

• Taphophobia literally translates to "fear of graves," and is the specific fear of being buried alive after being pronounced dead.

• Nephophobia is a fear that is difficult to escape — it is the fear of clouds.

Purple Heart 'rejects' the Detroit Lions

Occasionally we receive a phone call from Purple Heart asking if we have any items we may want to donate during one of their routine trips to the Fenton area. I answered such a phone call last week. I was told they would take just about anything — no item is too insignificant. With that in mind, when I came home from the Holly varsity girls basketball game last night (the Bronchos won by the way), I started to search for items that Purple Heart may appreciate. I ran across a Detroit Lions tin container I have owned for a considerable amount of years. I used to use it for my loose change, but I realized it was pushing the bottom of the container and I feared it would tear apart. So, eventually I quit using it. It's been empty for a couple of years now, so I decided to put the item outside with the rest of our Purple Heart donations, figuring some kid would love to own it. I put it out there with some clothes, some glasses and even an unused ice cube tray. This morning when my wife looked outside, Purple Heart had already arrived and picked up all the items. Well all, but one — the Detroit Lions tin.

Bronchos remain perfect in Metro League, 50-28

►Copley, Smith share scoring honors vs. East

By David Troppens

Holly — On the court, Allyssa Copley's demeanor is always one of seriousness.

But when asked about her team after the Holly varsity girls basketball team's 50-28 home victory against Lapeer East Monday night, her face lit up and she was grinning a nice large smile.

"We all get along," Copley said about her teammates. "We, honestly, are like sisters. I don't know if that sounds corny, but we all just get along."

Corny or not, it's working.

The Bronchos improved to 3-0 in the Metro and to 4-1 overall by overwhelming the Eagles with their press in the first quarter. East turned the ball over on each of its first 10 possessions, and didn't even have possession of the ball on its own offensive side of the court until there was 3:20 remaining in the opening quarter, allowing the Bronchos to win in a rout.

Holly scored the game's first 15 points, with a good chunk coming in transitions off steals, and East never seriously threatened after that.

"They are all so quick. It helps a lot," Copley said of her teammates, particularly freshmen Kaitlyn Smith and Jenna Pepper. "Both are really good ball handlers and they can shoot. They just help out a lot."

Copley scored 14 of her co-game-high 19 points in the first quarter. She also had two steals during the period. Pepper and Smith also had a pair of swipes during the first eight minutes. Smith had just five first-quarter points, but did her damage in the third period. Holly led 21-2 after one quarter but took off the press in the second quarter and it allowed East to cut the gap to 29-17 at the half.

Fenton — Adam Andreski and the rest of the Fenton varsity boys swim team finds themselves in a position none have ever experienced before entering this season.

The Tigers are the Flint Metro League's defending champions. And while the Tigers have pushed to contend for the title in recent seasons, last year was the only season any of the swimmers on the squad captured that honor. So that means something else, for the first time the Tigers enter this season trying to defend a title.

"The goals are a little bit different," Andreski said. "Last year we were striving for something we never had before. We finally got that title and now we are finally defending it. It is a little different on our part. We have some new guys who aren't quite sure how that works

Tigers set up key week with win vs. East

►Fenton has pivotal league contest at Creek on Friday

By David Troppens
dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789
Fenton — The opening act is over for the Fenton varsity boys basketball team.

The main attraction is this week. For the second time during opening week of the season, the Fenton Tigers did what was expected against one of the supposed lesser teams in the Metro League on Friday. The Tigers dominated the Lapeer East Eagles 63-26 Friday at Fenton High School, just three days after thrashing the Clio Mustangs.

The Tigers (2-0) played at Flint Kearsley on Tuesday and travel to Swartz Creek on Friday, a contest between the expected two Metro powerhouses.

"I feel we are going to have to pick our energy a lot," said Fenton's Eric Readman, who scored a team-high 18 points in the Tigers' victory against East on Friday. "We haven't faced a team in a regular season game of the caliber we are going to face next week, so I feel we have to pick up our energy and move on defense. The intensity has to come up a bit. Our toughness has to come up."

"I think this week we got the jitters out," said Fenton's Cory Cox, who scored all of his 15 points in the first half. "The young guys moved up with us and are getting in the flow. This next practice on Monday, we really have to get after it because the intensity is going to be a lot higher on Tuesday and Friday night. We are playing teams of a higher caliber, closer to us, so we have to get at it and play tougher."

Most at Friday night's game will say the Tigers played tough against Lapeer East. Fenton had a 10-2 lead after a nice dish from Damon Thomas to Scott Lukas just 1:46 into the contest, and led 25-6 after the first quarter. The Tigers continued their dominance in the second half, breaking the 30-point lead plateau for the first time at 41-10 off a fastbreak layup by Eric Readman. If that wasn't enough, the Tigers followed the hoop up with a steal and layup by Mitchell Shegos and Readman on consecutive plays. Fenton led 45-10, and took a 45-12 lead into halftime.

The 35-point continuous clock mercy rule was invoked on the first bucket of the third quarter, and with the exception of a couple of minutes in the fourth quarter, remained in play for the entire second half. The win came after the Tigers defeated the Clio Mustangs 74-48 in the opening game on Tuesday, but it a contest in which the team wasn't overly impressed with their play. They were much happier on Friday.

"That first game we played we left a lot to be desired of how we performed," Fenton coach Tim Olszewski said. "Tonight, if we perform this way even against the better teams in the league we'll face, it will give us an opportunity to be in the ball game. We are happy with what we got, and we will continue to build from here."

"We are building trust and that's the main thing," Cox said. "We lost a lot of seniors and we have a lot of young guys coming back so one of the main things is building trust, moving the ball on offense, not being selfish and just finding the open man all the time."

The Tigers' halfcourt defense was strong all night long, limiting East to just 10 field goals while forcing 19 turnovers. Readman and Shegos had five steals each. Offensively, the Tigers hit on 25-of-56 shots, and netted 18 points after offensive boards. They also had just nine turnovers.

After Readman's 18 points and Cox's 15 points, Shegos had 12 points and James Claborn had eight points. Cox and Shegos had six rebounds each, while Readman had five boards. Claborn chipped in four rebounds.

Holly boys collect first win of season vs. Lapeer East

By David Troppens
dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

The Holly varsity boys basketball team opened the road portion of their season with a pretty convincing 63-47 Metro League victory at Lapeer East on Monday.

Slow starts have been an issue, but the Bronchos (1-2) didn't have one on Monday. They led 16-6 after one quarter and led 51-22 after three quarters. Holly scored at least 12 points in every quarter, including a game-high 22 in the third period.

Parker Rowse led the Bronchos with a game-high 19 points. Joshua Simms had 14 points, while Morgan Baylis netted 10 points.

Montrose 70, Lake Fenton 65

Lake Fenton led 32-31 at halftime, but Montrose outscored the Blue Devils 19-11 in the third quarter, giving the Rams the lead.

Darian Welch led Lake Fenton with 27 points, while Chase Hanson had 18 points and nine rebounds.

Swartz Creek 68, Holly 46

The Bronchos only had one player score double-digits, and for the second straight game fell behind early, resulting in a second Metro League loss.

Holly trailed 14-4 after one quarter and never led.

Kyle Woodruff had 11 points for Holly. Joshua Simms had eight points, while Cannon Konzer and Michael Alexander had six points each.

Brandon 69, Linden 45

The Eagles (0-2) led 14-11 after one quarter, but Brandon outscored Linden 21-10 in the fourth quarter, resulting in the win. Cody Grandy led Linden with 10 points.

BRONCHOS

Smith netted 10 third-quarter points as Holly won the period 12-2. Defensively, the Bronchos' press and halfcourt pressure was effective during the eight minutes.

"I think we do a good job playing together," Holly coach David Hall said. "We make a lot of sacrifices for each other, so I really like that. One of the things we try to talk to our kids about is just playing and not worrying about mistakes. We did a little bit of that in the first half. We made some mistakes and our chin started dropping. But they bounced back in the second half. They played much better in the second half."

The Bronchos appear to have the proper scoring balance, the quickness and the team continuity to make another run at a Metro League title. It's something Copley wants.

"I think we can get leagues, honestly," Copley said. "If we just keep working hard at practice every day, like we've been doing every day, and working hard in the games, I think we can get it."

Copley had 15 rebounds, four steals and two blocks to go with her 19 points. Smith also had four steals. Pepper had five rebounds and four steals, while Delaney Serra had eight assists, four steals and four rebounds.

Holly's defense forced 35 turnovers, and 21 of those ended up being Bronchos' steals. Holly took 61 shots compared to East's 30.

Holly travels to Brandon on Friday. If the Bronchos win that contest, it should set up a pivotal home contest against the Clio Mustangs on Monday.

Cassandra Reuschlein led the Tigers with 11 points, while Natalie Guenther, Krista Kinney, Payton Maxheimer and Hannah Evo had eight points each. Reuschlein scored eight of her 11 points during the Tigers' first quarter, helping the team earn a 26-3 edge entering the second quarter.

Fenton's defense held East to no more than six points in all four quarters, while Fenton scored 46 in the first half alone. The Tigers (1-1, 2-2) turned the ball over just 10 times and recorded 11 assists, led by Evo's four dishes. Meanwhile, the defense forced East into 14 steals, led by Evo's four steals.

yet, but we are working on it. We are working on getting another (championship) this year."

Once again, the Tigers have numbers. They also have some solid talent returning. And they've also had at least one really strong meet. They opened the season by placing third at their own Tiger Christmas Relays, and also competed against Owosso, dropping a 111-74 verdict against a solid squad on Thursday.

"We are off to a good start," Andreski said. "We did great in the relays. But today, Owosso is a good team. Our guys are fast. We are looking at conditioning, getting in better shape. And that will come as the season goes further along."

The Tigers return two swimmers who competed in the state meet a year ago. Austin Andreski and Brant Cassidy each were on relays a year ago. Now, it's time to find some emerging swimmers to go along with that pair. It is expected that will come with the conditioning.

"Another Metro League title is our main goal as a team, but we have quite a few guys who might go to state," Andreski said. "As a team we have relay teams that could go, so we have some big goals this year."

The Tigers remain early in their conditioning, meaning the team should progress during the season.

"I am sure (Fenton varsity coach Brad) Jones will keep pushing us as hard as we can go," Andreski said about practice conditioning. "(Even during) Christmas break Jones doesn't let us get too far off track. We have three-hour practices every day. Even on Christmas eve we have practice. He keeps us going."

Against Owosso, the Tigers had four individual firsts and one relay which placed first. Cassidy took part in three of those top finishes. Cassidy won the 200 freestyle (1:58.38) and the 100 freestyle (52.55), while teaming with Andreski, Mike Banner and Alex Chase for a first in the 400 freestyle relay (3:38.99). Andreski placed first in the 50 freestyle (23.48), an event in which he expects to qualify for state. Banner took first in the 500 freestyle (5:28.50) and second in the 200 individual medley (2:20.59). The Tigers also had three individual seconds – Chase in the 100 butterfly (1:03.88), Landan Warren in the 500 freestyle (5:53.53) and Austin Landis in the 100 backstroke (1:09.64).

To your good health

DEAR DR. DONOHUE: I have developed an unquenchable thirst, which makes me drink water all the time. As a result, I have to spend a lot of time in the bathroom urinating. Can a person drink too much water? — A.C.

ANSWER: A person can drink too much water, but that's a very rare situation. A more likely explanation of what's happening to you is diabetes.

Excessive thirst, drinking water nonstop to satisfy the thirst and the resulting need to urinate frequently are signs of diabetes. You must see a doctor soon.

Protecting Their Tomorrows . . .

From the moment I said "I do," I promised to always love her. From the moment I first held my son, I promised to always be his hero. When it comes to my family I will never break a promise.

That's why I bought Life Insurance. To make sure my family is secure even if I cannot always be here for them. Because it's not about my life, it's about theirs!

The remaining costs, if any, shall be defrayed from System funds on hand and legally available for such use, including moneys in the bond and interest redemption fund established for the Refunded Bonds.

Section 4. Bond Details. The Series 2012 Bonds shall be designated WASTEWATER SYSTEM REVENUE REFUNDING BONDS, SERIES 2012, shall be payable solely from the Net Revenues, as set forth more fully herein, shall consist of bonds of the denomination of $5,000, or integral multiples of $5,000 not exceeding in any one year the amount maturing in that year, dated as of the date of delivery or such other date as shall be determined in the Sale Order, numbered in order of authentication, and shall mature on October 1, annually through and including 2025, in such amounts or as otherwise may be provided in the Sale Order.

The date of determination of registered owner for purposes of payment of interest as provided in this paragraph may be changed by the Issuer to conform to market practice in the future. The principal of the Series 2012 Bonds shall be payable at the principal corporate trust office of the Transfer Agent. The Authorized Officers are each hereby authorized to appoint a bank or trust company eligible to serve as Transfer Agent for the Series 2012 Bonds.

The Series 2012 Bonds may be subject to optional or mandatory redemption prior to maturity as determined in the Sale Order.

Section 5. Execution of Bonds. The Series 2012 Bonds shall be executed in the name of the Issuer with the manual or facsimile signatures of the President and the Village Clerk and shall have the Issuer's seal impressed or printed thereon. No Bond signed by facsimile signature shall be valid until authenticated by an authorized signer of the Transfer Agent. The Series 2012 Bonds shall be delivered to the Transfer Agent for authentication and be delivered by the Transfer Agent to the purchaser thereof in accordance with instructions from an Authorized Officer upon payment of the purchase price for the Series 2012 Bonds in accordance with the bid therefor when accepted. Executed blank bonds for registration and issuance to transferees shall simultaneously, and from time to time thereafter as necessary, be delivered to the Transfer Agent for safekeeping.

Section 6. Registration and Transfer. Any Bond may be transferred upon the books required to be kept pursuant to this section by the person in whose name it is registered, in person or by the registered owner's duly authorized attorney, upon surrender of the Bond for cancellation, accompanied by delivery of a duly executed written instrument of transfer in a form approved by the Transfer Agent. Whenever any Bond or Bonds shall be surrendered for transfer, the Issuer shall execute and the transfer agent shall authenticate and deliver a new Bond or Bonds, for like aggregate principal amount. The Transfer Agent shall require payment by the bondholder requesting the transfer of any tax or other governmental charge required to be paid with respect to the transfer. The Transfer Agent shall not be required (i) to issue, register the transfer of or exchange any Bond during a period beginning at the opening of business 15 days before the day of the giving of a notice of redemption of Bonds selected for redemption as described in the form of Bonds contained herein and ending at the close of business on the day of that giving of notice, or (ii) to register the transfer of or exchange any Bond so selected for redemption in whole or in part, except the unredeemed portion of Bonds being redeemed in part.

The Transfer Agent shall keep or cause to be kept, at its principal office, sufficient books for the registration and transfer of the Series 2012 Bonds, which shall at all times be open to inspection by the Issuer, and, upon presentation for such purpose, the Transfer Agent shall, under such reasonable regulations as it may prescribe, transfer or cause to be transferred, on said books, Bonds as hereinbefore provided.

If any Bond shall become mutilated, the Issuer, at the expense of the holder of the Bond, shall execute, and the Transfer Agent shall authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor in exchange and substitution for the mutilated Bond, upon surrender to the Transfer Agent of the mutilated Bond. If any Bond issued under this Ordinance shall be lost, destroyed or stolen, evidence of the loss, destruction or theft may be submitted to the Transfer Agent and, if this evidence is satisfactory to both and indemnity satisfactory to the Transfer Agent shall be given, and if all requirements of any applicable law including Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended ("Act 354"), being sections 129.131 to 129.135, inclusive, of the Michigan Compiled Laws have been met, the Issuer, at the expense of the owner, shall execute, and the Transfer Agent shall thereupon authenticate and deliver, a new Bond of like tenor and bearing the statement required by Act 354, or any applicable law hereafter enacted, in lieu of and in substitution for the Bond so lost, destroyed or stolen. If any such Bond shall have matured or shall be about to mature, instead of issuing a substitute Bond the Transfer Agent may pay the same without surrender thereof.

The Series 2012 Bonds may be issued in book-entry-only form through the Depository Trust Company in New York, New York ("DTC") and any Authorized Officer of the Issuer is authorized to execute such custodial or other agreement with DTC as may be necessary to accomplish the issuance of the Series 2012 Bonds in book-entry-only form and to make such changes in the Bond form with the parameters of this ordinance as may be required to accomplish the foregoing.

Section 7. Payment of Series 2012 Bonds. The Series 2012 Bonds and the interest thereon shall be payable solely from the Net Revenues, and to secure such payment, there is hereby recognized a statutory lien upon the whole of the Net Revenues which shall be a first lien, to continue until payment in full of the principal of and interest on all Bonds payable from the Net Revenues, or until sufficient cash or Sufficient Government Obligations have been deposited in trust for payment in full of all Bonds of a series then outstanding, principal and interest on Bonds to maturity, or, if called for redemption, to the date fixed for redemption together with the amount of the redemption premium, if any. Upon deposit of cash or Sufficient Government Obligations, as provided in the previous sentence, the statutory lien shall be terminated with respect to that series of Bonds, the holders of that series shall have no further rights under this Ordinance except for payment from the deposited funds, and the Bonds of that series shall no longer be considered to be outstanding under this Ordinance.

Section 8. Bondholders' Rights; Receiver. The holder or holders of the Series 2012 Bonds representing in the aggregate not less than twenty percent (20%) of the entire principal amount thereof then outstanding, may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, protect and enforce the statutory lien upon the Net Revenues of the System, and may, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, enforce and compel performance of all duties of the officers of the Issuer, including the fixing of sufficient rates, the collection of Revenues, the proper segregation of the Revenues of the System and the proper application thereof. The statutory lien upon the Net Revenues, however, shall not be construed as to compel the sale of the System or any part thereof.

If there is a default in the payment of the principal of or interest on the Series 2012 Bonds, any court having jurisdiction in any proper action may appoint a receiver to administer and operate the System on behalf of the Issuer and under the direction of the court, and by and with the approval of the court to perform all of the duties of the officers of the Issuer more particularly set forth herein and in Act 94.

The holder or holders of the Series 2012 Bonds shall have all other rights and remedies given by Act 94 and law, for the payment and enforcement of the Series 2012 Bonds and the security therefor.

Section 9. Rates and Charges. The rates and charges for service furnished by and the use of the System and the methods of collection and enforcement of the collection of the rates shall be those in effect on the date hereof, as the same shall be increased from time to time.

Section 10. No Free Service or Use. No free service or use of the System, or service or use of the System at less than the reasonable cost and value thereof, shall be furnished by the System to any person, firm or corporation, public or private, or to any public agency or instrumentality, including the Issuer.

Section 11. Fixing and Revising Rates; Rate Covenant. The rates presently in effect in the Issuer are estimated to be sufficient to provide for the payment of the expenses of administration and operation and such expenses for maintenance of the System as are necessary to preserve the System in good repair and working order, to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the Series 2012 Bonds as the same become due and payable, and to provide for all other obligations, expenditures and funds for the System required by law and this Ordinance. In addition, it is agreed that the rates shall be set from time to time so that there shall be produced each fiscal year, Net Revenues in an amount equal to 110% of the principal of and interest on the Bonds coming due in such fiscal year. The rates shall be reviewed not less than once a year and shall be fixed and revised from time to time as may be necessary to produce these amounts, and it is hereby covenanted and agreed to fix and maintain rates for services furnished by the System at all times sufficient to provide for the foregoing.

Section 12. Funds and Accounts; Flow of Funds; Bond Reserve Fund. The funds and accounts established by the Outstanding Ordinances are hereby continued, the flow of fund established by the Outstanding Ordinances is hereby continued, and the applicable sections of the Outstanding Ordinances relating to funds and accounts and flow of funds are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth.

The Bond Reserve Account in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund, as established by the Outstanding Ordinances shall be adjusted in such amounts, so that upon issuance of the Series 2012 Bonds, the Bond Reserve Account shall equal the lesser of (a) the maximum annual principal and interest requirements on the Bonds outstanding after issuance of the additional Bonds, (b) 125% of the average annual debt service on the Bonds after issuance of the additional Bonds, or (c) an amount equal to 10% of the principal amount of the Bonds. Interest on the Bond Reserve Account must be transferred into the Redemption Fund once the Reserve Amount has been reached.

Section 13. Bond Proceeds; Escrow Fund. From the proceeds of the sale of the Series 2012 Bonds there shall be immediately deposited in the Redemption Fund an amount equal to the accrued interest and premium, if any, received on the delivery of the Series 2012 Bonds. Certain of the proceeds of the Series 2012 Bonds along with moneys on hand in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund for the Refunded Bonds, if any, shall be deposited in an escrow fund or funds (the "Escrow Fund") consisting of cash and investments in direct obligations of or obligations of the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States of America or other obligations the principal of and interest on which are fully secured by the foregoing not redeemable at the option of the Issuer in amounts fully sufficient to pay the principal and interest on the Refunded Bonds upon call for redemption. The Escrow Fund shall be held by the Escrow Agent pursuant to an escrow agreement (the "Escrow Agreement") which shall irrevocably direct the Escrow Agent to take all necessary steps to pay the principal of and interest on the Refunded Bonds when due and to call the Refunded Bonds for redemption on the first call date, as specified by the Issuer. The amounts held in the Escrow Fund shall be such that the cash and investments and income received thereon will be sufficient without reinvestment to pay the principal of and interest on the Refunded Bonds when due at maturity or by call for redemption as required by the Sale Order. The remaining proceeds of the Series 2012 Bonds shall be used to pay the costs of issuance of the Series 2012 Bonds. Any proceeds in excess of the proceeds deposited in the Escrow Fund or required to pay costs of issuance shall be deposited in the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund and used to pay interest on the Series 2012 Bonds on the next available interest payment date. The Authorized Officers are each authorized to appoint a bank or trust company eligible to serve as Escrow Agent for the Series 2012 Bonds and to negotiate and enter into an Escrow Agreement on behalf of the Issuer.

Section 14. Bond Form. The Series 2012 Bonds shall be in substantially the following form:
