

AMERICA'S TOP FIVE NATIONAL PARKS

From amber waves of grain to purple mountain majesties, seeing America is worth the trip

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792 America's 59 national parks are perfect summer destinations for creating unforgettable memories. From mighty forests to majestic mountains and canyons, America's national treasures are worth seeing at least once in person. Here are the top five national parks in America and how to get there from Fenton.

Great Smoky Mountain — Ridges of forests sprawling between the border of North Carolina and Tennessee, Great Smoky National Parks boasts a wide diversity of plants, animals and Appalachian culture. A trip to this park is a trip through American history, as the U.S. National Parks website (nps. gov) states the mountains: "had a long human history spanning thousands of years from the prehistoric Paleo Indians to early European settlement in the 1800s to loggers and Civilian Conservation Corps enrollees in the 20th century."

Being 573 miles south of Fenton, the Great Smoky Mountains is a 10hour drive through Ohio,

Kentucky and Tennessee. See PARKS on 2B

ing and carrying sediment from throughout the landscape. At 1,218,375 acres and averaging 4,000 feet deep, the Grand Canyon is one of the ultimate backpacking experiences in the country.

Yosemite — Nestled in the High Sierra, Yosemite ranks third in most visited national parks in the country. At 1,200 square miles, Yosemite is swathed with "deep valleys, grand meadows, ancient giant sequoias, a vast wilderness, and much more." Other features of the park include granite cliffs, waterfalls and more than 400 species of animals. Visitors can explore the park by backpack, bike, horseback or by car.

Yellowstone National Park — North of the Grand Canyon lies the world's largest collection of geysers. Home to Old Faithful, grizzly bears, wolves, bison and elk, Yellowstone is one of the "last, nearly intact, natural ecosystems in the Earth's temperate zone." Nps. gov calls the park one of the most geologically dynamic areas on the planet due to the thousands of geysers, hot spots and volcanic activity in the park. Visitors can explore the natural wonders and wildlife while camping within the park nearly anytime of the year, including winter.

Getting to Yellowstone from Fenton will take a day, starting out on I-94 west to U.S. 14 west in Sheridan County. From there, the trip takes a turn into U.S. 20 west in Park County. The trip ends in northern Wyoming.

Rocky Mountain — Number five on the list of most visited national parks in America, the Rocky Mountain's 415-square-mile park boasts more than 300 miles of hiking trails, 450 miles of streams and 150 different lakes. The ecosystem ranges from grassy hills to mountains to a tundra. Summers consist of bright sunshine and massive afternoon thunderstorms. Winters bring 60-mile-per-hour winds amongst the highlands. The park is full of black bears, coyotes, bighorn sheep and moose, all of which can be viewed by visitors

The Rocky Mountain National Park is much closer than three of the other four national parks, taking just 19 hours to get there by car from Fenton. The 1,288-mile trip will take travelers to I-94 west and then onto I-80 west. From there, take I-76 west to U.S. 34 west and then onto U.S. 36 west. The road to the national park includes traveling through Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska and eventually into Colorado.

LIFE STYLE

Mad Mel: Anti-Semitic remarks, alcohol addiction, drunk driving & domestic violence Mel GIBSON

Thankfully Gibson's baby daughter Lucia is too young to know about her father's explosive temper directed toward her mother, Oksana Grigorieva. Unfortunately, Gibson's epic rants are recorded for posterity.

RYAN O'NEAL

In 1973, Ryan O'Neal starred in Paper Moon with 10-year-old daughter Tatum, who won the Oscar for her performance as a tough tyke who loved her father no matter what. In real life, their relationship has been heartbreakingly sad, punctuated with a 25-year estrangement and stunning accusations. He hasn't done much better with his other children. O'Neal was once arrested for firing a gun at son Griffin, who has had his own share of run-ins with the law. Redmond O'Neal, his son with Farrah Fawcett, has done jail time for drugs.

CELEBRITY DADS

► When celebrating Father's Day, be glad you weren't sired by one of these men. Some of them were absentee dads, and the rest should have been. Here are a few celebrity dads that are duds when it comes to parenting. Sources: forbes.com, sheknows.com

WOODY ALLEN

Allen's headline-making split with Mia Farrow occured a decade ago but it's still one of the most shocking stories to come out of celeb-land involving children. Farrow left Allen when she discovered nude pictures he had taken of her adopted daughter, Soon-Yi Previn, who was then 20. Their son Satchel, who now goes by Ronan Farrow, has said he has had no contact with his father since the split. He describes Allen and Previn's marriage this way: "He's my father married to my sister. That is such a moral transgression."

Not surprisingly, Allen, who has always seemed oblivious to people's reaction to the scandal, told Reuters last year: "What was the scandal? I fell in love with this girl and married her." The couple has been married 15 years.

Who knows if Alec Baldwin's show business dad behavior extends beyond the crazed voicemail the actor left for his daughter (who is, as Baldwin noted, either 12 or 11 years old, he's not sure?). But the threatening message, where he calls her "a rude, thoughtless little pig" and threatens to "straighten her out" in person is Hall of Fame problem patriarchy material.

Sheen and his ex-wife Brooke Mueller, who is headed back to rehab, made headlines for their rage-filled battles during their marriage. The couple's dueling substance abuse issues aren't exactly creating a "winning" environment for their twin sons.

JOHN EDWARDS

The New York Post named him 'The Most Hated Man' in America (beating out Bernie Madoff) for lying about affair with Rielle Hunter during his presidential campaign while his wife Elizabeth was battling breast cancer. After months of adamantly denying he was the father of Rielle's daughter Quinn, he finally admitted the child was his. He teared up as he mentioned "my precious Quinn" on the steps of the court house after his corruption trial.

BRAD PITT

Managing six kids with partner Angelina Jolie is a feat in itself, but Brad is up for the challenge. Even though he's publicly admitted that his home life is chaotic and he is often devoid of sleep, Brad wouldn't have it any other way.

BEN STILLER

In a recent interview, proud dad Ben Stiller said he hopes for a tie for Father's Day because, in his eyes, that's the official status symbol of becoming a dad.

ADAM SANDLER

Comedian Adam Sandler is just a big goofball, which makes him perfectly suited for fatherhood.

He has two daugthers.

BRUCE WILLIS

Even though Bruce Willis and ex-wife Demi Moore got divorced and she moved on to the much younger Aston Kutcher, there was no public mudslinging. Bruce maintains great relationships with all of his kids.

By William Axford

axford@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792 Zach McMurray has worked every summer at Camp Copneconic since 2008. Getting kids to play outside and connect with nature continues to fuel McMurray's passion for the camp. In a world dominated by technology, he said experiencing nature changes kids in a positive way.

What made you decide to work at the camp? I've been working at the camp since 2008. I got a job interview the day after I graduated high school and keep coming back every summer. I really enjoy working at camp because I feel we have a positive impact on the youth in the area.

What have you learned working with kids? I've learned kids are a lot smarter than most people take them on to be. Kids are very clever. I play a lot of brain games with kids and it always astounds me how quick they come up with the answer. Kids are a lot more intelligent than they are given credit for.

What type of kids come here throughout the summer? Quite a wide group. Day camp starts at 3 years old. Once they are entering second grade, kids can enter overnight camp. We easily have over 300 people on site every day in the summer. We're very accommodating to anyone who comes in. We have a lot of kids who come in with a lot of dietary restrictions and allergies. We want everyone to feel welcomed when they come here so we're all about being inclusive. We host the largest diabetic camp in the country. We service youths from all different areas. We even have campers who will come from China, France and other places in the world just to be here for a week.

What's a typical day like for a kid coming to camp? They'll get here and we'll do a little orientation. They'll get a meal to start off with and then we'll break off into activities. One group might be doing kayaking, bridge building and then move over to dream catchers. We like to give them a lot of variety so they're not sitting still all day. My favorite is our campfire activity. We'll gather around the fire circle and sing songs and do skits and get kind of silly. I do like the high adventures activities as well. We have a high ropes course, three zip lines and a climbing tower. It's pretty phenomenal.

How do the kids react to being in nature and disconnected from technology? We've had inner city youth come out and look at our lake

"lt's a good and think it's a bigger experience for the body of water like kids to come out and an ocean. It's a good be in the woods for experience for the kids to come out a few days.' and be in the woods Zach McMurray for a few days. Kids Camp Copneconic counselor today are glued to their tablets and phones and they're not interacting with the world as much as they used to. Just holding onto a frog for them can be an eye opener. It's something so simple that we grew up with. We might not think it's a big deal but it is for them. There's a lot fewer kids who go out and explore.

What's your favorite program to be a part of during the summer? We'll partner with the ADA for Camp Midicha. We host the largest diabetic camp in the country. The beauty in our staff here is that we make an effort to enjoy every kid who comes here. I do enjoy Camp Midicha. The kids are really mature because they have to check their blood sugar and take care of themselves. They are a really unique group to be around. You become the minority, you're the one non-diabetic in a field of diabetics.

Any other random facts about Copneconic people might not know? We have around 700 acres. 'Copneconic' is an Ojibwe word, it comes from Opneconic, which means lake of bread. The "C" was added at some point for some reason. We also have a ranch camp that some people

Dominick's Warriors to hold hog run to end child abuse

Child abuse advocacy group Dominick's Warriors is hosting a hog run to end child abuse at Circus Park in Clio on Saturday, June 21. The event will feature motorcycles, live entertainment, auctions and kids games. Speakers will include survivors of child abuse and experts familiar with child abuse.

"All the proceeds are going to the long-term goal to build a 'Dominick's dream house,' which will have counselors to help child abuse survivors and teenage pregnancies," said organizer Leannah Jenkins. "We're hoping to raise $5,000 that day."

Dominick's Warriors is named after Dominick Calhoun, a 4-year-old who was beaten to death in 2012 by his mother's boyfriend. The group was established in March 2012 and advocates for children affected by child abuse.

For those unable to attend the event but would like to contribute to the group, call Jenkins at (810) 391-3975 or visit the Dominick's Warriors Facebook page.

When it's right to want more

Each morning I stand before a large map on my study wall and pray a brief prayer in the Old Testament known as the prayer of Jabez. I've been doing this for approximately 20 years.

What is the prayer of Jabez? It is a prayer by a man who longed for more than he had and dared ask God to give it to him. This is his prayer: 'Oh that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my territory, that your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, that I may not cause pain!' (I Chronicles 4:10).

Some may plod on without challenging their faith, but not Jabez. Some may be content to stay in spiritual ruts. Some may be willing just to go through routines of prayer without expecting big things, but not Jabez. He wanted to reach beyond the spiritual borders that had confined him for years and asked God to enable him to do so.

What about this kind of praying? Is it right to ask for more than we have? The last line of the verse that records the prayer of Jabez answers that question: 'So God granted him that which he requested.'

Does this mean God approves of praying selfishly? Not at all.

The New Testament teaches us some prayers are not answered because the one praying wants to consume what he hopes to receive on his own lusts (James 4:3). But the prayer of Jabez has a built in safeguard against this motive. He asks God to keep him from evil and from inflicting pain. No wonder God answered his prayer.

Does this mean that all prayers offered with the right motives are immediately answered? Does it mean that God is sure to increase our outreach or enlarge our territory when we intend to use increased blessings properly? Not quite. Faith is also a factor.

Faith dares to expect answers to our prayers. Doubt cringes and cowers at every obstacle. Faith is bold, believing God will overcome every barrier to blessings. So we can pray and believe and receive or we can pray and doubt and go without.

Our involvement may also be required in receiving what we want. Faith must be expressed in some kind of action. Nothing works unless we do.

Some time ago, a young doctor, whom I had never met, removed some stitches from a wound in my hand and when I asked him if he attended church he replied that he prayed to St. Mattress on Sunday mornings, meaning sleep is more important to him than worship.

But St. Mattress doesn't answer any prayers, so I reminded my sleepy listener about the One who died with wounds in His hands. The One who loves us and was always busy, as we ought to be, for the good of others and the glory of God.

Fenton woman brought humor, acceptance and attitude to her cancer battle

► Tamara Johnson leaves legacy of love

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282 Tamara Johnson may have only lived on this earth for 20 years, but she lived each of those days to the fullest and left behind a legacy of how to treat others who were also dealing with cancer and other illnesses.

Those are the words from family and friends who are left behind to remember Johnson after her passing on Sunday, June 1, at her Fenton home. The daughter of Greg and Sherry Johnson, she had been diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia (A.L.L.) when she was just 8 years old and in the third grade.

"She never complained and always made the most of the time she had," said her youngest sister, Julia, 17, who idolized her older sister. Her other sisters are Amanda, 19, Nadia, 22 and Donna, 27.

"She was my best friend, we slept together every night," added Julia. "My life revolved around her."

The middle girl in a family of five daughters, Johnson made her own light shine with her quick wit and sense of humor. Her thoughts on her illness were "It is what it is and we have to deal with it," a philosophy she shared with her friends at the Katie Wyatt Memorial Foundation.

"Tamara was a light shining in the darkness of each sick child we were involved with," said Mary Ann Beltinck of the Foundation. "She took time to teach us how to support and comfort loved ones who were dealing with cancer. During one KWMF meeting, Tamara spoke out and said, 'These kids just want to be held, loved and supported, but most of all treated normally. We are normal just like you and want to live each and every day.'"

Johnson's greatest love was learning, and her biggest accomplishment was graduating on time with the Class of 2011 from Fenton High School. "This was the one thing she was able to experience like a normal teenager," said Julia. Johnson attended North Road Elemen-

Johnson attended North Road Elementary and F.I.S. Middle School through the fifth grade, and then did the rest of her schoolwork from home, when aggressive chemotherapy made school attendance too difficult. "She did attend Fenton High School for a while when she was a freshman," recalled Julia. "She was in a wheelchair and it just became too difficult."

"Tamara was a great student," said Tracey Odegard, a Fenton teacher who taught Johnson twice a week at home for 4½ years. "She always wanted school and would never say 'no' to an assignment, even when I could tell it was hard on her. She never complained and never said she didn't feel good. She was so easy to work with."

She was a voracious reader, checking out 50 to 100 books from the library and spending all of her time reading. "She'd lose herself in her books," said Julia. "Tamara also enjoyed therapeutic horseback riding, swimming and fishing, anything outdoors."

But what made her happiest was being with her family, and she made every second count. "She always told us the only reason she made it so long was because of her family," said Julia. "Even though we've had years to prepare for this, it's still heartbreaking. She'd had so many miracles in the past. We kept hoping there'd be another one."

Funeral services will be Monday, June 9 at 1 p.m. at Sharp Funeral Home in Fenton, with burial to follow in Oakwood Cemetery.

MINIMALLY INVASIVE IMPLANTS

The first dental implant was placed by Dr. Per-Ingvar Branemark, a Swedish orthopedic surgeon and researcher in 1965. Branemark's discovery of osteointegration, the biologic fusion of bone to implant titanium, revolutionized dental implants and brought them into a recognized and accepted realm of modern, everyday dentistry. In the early days of implants in the U.S., Implantology was mainly considered to be territory of specialists. The process involved invasive surgery which meant very long treatment time. A typical implant procedure could take up to a year from start to finish with multiple surgeries and appointments. Minimally invasive is now the emphasis and standard of care for many medical procedures from gall bladder to heart bypass surgeries. Minimally invasive is beginning to be applied to dental implant placement procedures as well. Using minimally advanced techniques, implants can now be placed painlessly and quickly with greatly reduced healing time. Whereas before with traditional invasive surgical placement; the entire implant process took months. Now thanks to the latest minimally invasive process, implants can be completed in a matter of weeks. In some cases the entire implant process can be completed in a single visit; same day service. If you have decayed, broken, and or missing teeth and want to learn more about today's dental implant process simply contact my office for a free consultation.

FINDING JUST THE RIGHT PROPERTY

Are you a city dweller, suburbanite or country lover?

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282 Location, location. That's the name of the game when it comes to real estate, and it's at the heart of most real estate decisions. Do you want to live within city limits, or are you happiest on the outskirts of town in a suburban neighborhood? Maybe country living is your goal, where you can enjoy lots of open acreage with few neighbors.

"More buyers look for houses on paved roads than dirt roads, but the most important feature is the home's proximity to an expressway," said John Tremaine of Tremaine Real Living Real Estate. "Many people don't mind a dirt road, as long as they can get by on a nearby expressway." Finding just the right property that fits your lifestyle, dreams and your personality is part of the real estate transaction for every buyer. Each of these home settings has its ups and downs, and the market itself might determine if you can make your location dreams come true.

"Most people come to us knowing what they like," said Patrik Welty of Legacy Realty. "However, buyers who are desperate in this low inventory market are often less choosy about their requirements."

Here are some pros and cons about different housing locations:

CITY LIVING

If you choose living within the city limits, you'll enjoy all the nearby activities and a vibrancy you won't find in many other lifestyles. But it's not for everyone.

Pros: the hustle and bustle of city life, and being "where the action is." You'll have more choices of shops, restaurants, art and culture. A "walkable" downtown provides sidewalks, parks, etc. Services like trash, sewer and water, are taken care of for you.

Cons: the hustle and bustle of city life (see, it all depends on your perspective). You'll pay more in city taxes and services. You may have fewer housing options and less land.

IN THE 'BURBS

If you grew up playing "kick the can" in a subdivision neighborhood, you likely have fond memories of that lifestyle. Here are a few things to think about:

Pros: It's more peaceful and quiet than city living. There's more room for a yard and greenery, and more opportunities to develop friendships with neighbors. Homes may offer more square footage and amenities.

Cons: Suburban life may be too quiet and boring. It may require a longer commute to work. Houses may be more "cookie cutter" style, without unique architecture.

OUT IN THE COUNTRY

For some people, there's nothing better than having wide open space and lots of acreage to play. Is country living for you?

Pros: The further you are from the city, the cheaper the acreage and the cost from water restriction to burning bans. You'll have less noise from neighbors. You'll have room for grown-up "toys," like four-wheelers, dirt bikes, snowmobiles, etc. Your children will grow up with more emphasis on the outdoors.

Cons: Everything is further away, from stores to expressways. You have to depend on private companies for waste collection and on the county or state for road and electrical maintenance. You'll have to manage your own well or septic. You may get poorer cell phone reception or high speed Internet. You will likely spend more on gas and auto maintenance than a city dweller.

People shouldn't let taxes be too big of a factor as to where they choose to live.

Keep your home insurance from 'going through the roof'

► Your new roof may actually save you money, along with these other hints for lowering costs

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

If you've recently added a new roof to your home, you may be able to save up to 20 percent on your homeowner's insurance policy.

"Roofs are huge right now in the insurance industry," said Teresa Taylor, personal lines sales and service of Peabody Insurance in Holly. "With all the storms and damaging weather, some policies will give credits for new roofs, for up to five or 10 years. If you have a new roof, you should certainly let your agent know."

Keeping your agent informed of changes in your home, including a new roof, additions or your home's contents, is one of the best ways to save money on your homeowner's insurance policy. "So many things change in the course of one year," said Taylor.

In addition to having an annual review, here are other ways to lower your home insurance costs, according to Eileen Evans Jankowski, personal lines manager at Brown & Brown Insurance in Fenton.

• Place all your policies with the same carrier to maximize your discounts. "There are usually financial advantages to doing so," said Jankowski.

• Carry larger deductibles. "You'll save money upfront by self-insuring those small losses, and save

Before signing on the dotted line for home insurance, make sure to let your agent know about any changes you've made in your home situation, that may lower your cost.

your coverage for serious losses," said Jankowski. "Deductibles used to be $50 or $100. Now we recommend deductibles of $500, $1,000 or even $2,500. You're better off not to make frequent claims. Save money by increasing your deductible and you'll also avoid giving up loss-free credits.'

• Maintain good credit practices. If you have a good credit score, you'll also have a good insurance score. • Use Electronic Fund Transfer (EFT) or pay in full annually, to avoid paying by monthly installments.

• Don't change carriers frequently. "Some carriers offer longevity credit," said Jankowski. "Stay with a carrier, and you'll have a history with them."

• Maintain your home. Make your home resistant to disasters. Take fire prevention steps, buy a backup for your sump pump, and be prepared for storms. "If you can help prevent losses, it will come back to you in the form of lower premiums," said Jankowski.

• Modernize your heating, plumbing and electrical systems, to reduce the risk of fire or water damage in an older home.

• Get at least three quotes and don't evaluate just on price. Make sure to find the company that offers the best customer service.

• Understand the costs. You're paying for replacement value to rebuild your home today, not market value.

• Secure your home. Some companies offer a modest discount for installing smoke detectors, burglar alarms and dead-bolt locks. Some insurers offer discounts for a sprinkler systems, fire and burglar alarm that rings at the police, fire or other monitoring stations.

EXTRA TIP BY THE INSURANCE INFORMATION INSTITUTE:

When you're ready to buy a new home, be sure to factor in the cost of homeowner's insurance. The cost of your premium will depend on how much it would cost to rebuild and whether the house is likely to succumb to a disaster or fire. Remember, flood and earthquake damage are not covered by a standard policy.

▶ Here are 10 tips to make sure you are ready

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

There's a lot more to home ownership than just finding a house you love and making an offer. Doing your homework beforehand will ensure that you have all your bases covered and are strongly poised toward the future.

Here are 10 things every prospective homeowner needs to think about:

• Decide what you can afford. Generally, you can afford a home equal in value to between two and three times your gross income.

• Develop your home "wish list." Then, prioritize the features on your list. "I always tell my clients to broaden their search a bit, because the house they end up buying might be very different than what they had originally thought they wanted," said Kristy Cantleberry of REMAX Grande in Grand Blanc. "You can always weed out homes as they are presented to you through MLS (Multiple Listing System)."

• Select where you want to live. Write a list of neighborhoods or areas that are attractive to you, taking into account the schools, recreational facilities, plans for the future and safety. "Most people come to us knowing what they want," said Patrik Welty of Legacy Realty. "The reality in today's low inventory market is that people are being less choosy about their home requirements."

• Start saving. Do you have enough money saved to qualify for a mortgage and a typical 20 percent down payment? Remember to factor in closing costs, including taxes, attorney's fee and transfer fees, which average between 2 and 7 percent of the home price.

• Get your credit in order. Obtain a copy of your credit report to make sure it is accurate, and to correct any errors immediately. A credit report provides a history of your credit, bad debts and any late payments.

• Determine your mortgage qualifications. How large of a mortgage do you qualify for? Also, explore different loan options, including 30-year or 15-year fixed mortgages.

• Get preapproved. Organize all the documentation a lender will need to preapprove you for a loan. You will need W-2 forms, copies of at least one pay stub, account numbers and copies of two to four months of bank or credit union statements.

Weigh other sources of help with a down payment. Do you qualify for any special mortgage or down payment assistance programs?

• Check with your state and local government for programs to assist firsttime buyers. If you have an IRA account, you can use the money you've saved to buy your first home without paying a penalty for early withdrawal.

• Calculate the costs of home ownership. This should include property taxes, insurance, maintenance and utilities and association fees, if applicable.

NUMBER 1 TIP: Contact an experienced, knowledgeable Realtor who can help guide you through the process. Source: Realtor magazine

Rosabella PLAN 11-137

The Rosabella's rounded roof tiles and stucco exterior can't help but evoke the sunny climes of Spain and Italy. Gentle arches cap window and door openings, adding to the Mediterranean ambiance. Bold stucco-clad columns frame the lofty entry porch, and keystones add a classic element

Entry doors open into a high-ceilinged entry where light washes in through an arched transom. Moving forward brings you to the richly glassed hexagonal great room. The interior is totally contemporary, and nowhere is that more evident than in this bright and expansive space

Arched transoms crown wide banks of glass that fill most of three walls. All but the windows flanking the fireplace slide open to let in gentle breezes, or offer access to a patio that spans the entire rear.

CITY OF FENTON RESOLUTION NO. 14-13

TO AMEND THE LOCAL DEVELOPMENT FINANCE AUTHORITY RESOLUTION

At a regular meeting of the Fenton City Council, held at 301 S. Leroy Street, Fenton, Michigan 48430, on the 27th day of May 2014, at 7:30 p.m.

PRESENT: Bland, Grossmeyer, Jacob, King, Lockwood, McDermott, Osborn

ABSENT: None

The following resolution was offered by Lockwood and supported by McDermott.

WHEREAS, in 1988, the City of Fenton ("City") was authorized by the provisions of Public Act 281 of 1986 ("Act 281") to create a local development finance authority ("Authority"); and

WHEREAS, pursuant to Act 281 the City Council was required to hold a public hearing on the establishment of the Authority and the creation of an Authority District in which the Authority would exercise its powers; and

WHEREAS, on May 9, 1988, the City Council conducted a public hearing on the proposed Authority and the designation of the proposed Authority District; and

WHEREAS, on August 22, 1988, the City Council passed a resolution creating an Authority for the City of Fenton, designating boundaries of the Authority District, and providing for other matters related thereto; and

WHEREAS, attached hereto as "Exhibit 1" is a copy of the City Council's August 22, 1988, minutes, including the Local Development Finance Authority Resolution, adopted on the same date; and

WHEREAS, the City Council wishes to amend the City's Local Development Finance Authority Resolution as provided herein; and

WHEREAS, the amendments herein do not alter or amend the boundaries of the Authority district to include or exclude lands from the Authority District or create new Authority Districts.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT: the City's Local Development Finance Authority Resolution, Paragraphs 7 (Powers of Authority) and 8 (Fiscal Year; Adoption of Budget) are amended as provided below.

1. Paragraph 7 of the City's Local Development Finance Authority Resolution shall be amended to read: POWERS OF AUTHORITY.

(a) The Authority shall have all powers provided by Act 281 as it now exists or as hereafter amended and shall be subject to all of the duties and limitations therein set forth.

(b) The Board may employ and fix the compensation of a director as provided by Act 281 and subject to the approval of the City Council, provided that the amount of any compensation so fixed shall first be set forth in the budget of the Authority as provided in this resolution and be subject to the approval of the City Council. The director shall serve at the pleasure of the Board. A member of the Board is not eligible to hold the position of director.

(c) The Board may appoint or employ and fix the compensation of a treasurer as provided by Act 281, provided that the amount of any compensation so fixed shall first be set forth in the budget of the authority as provided in this resolution and be subject to the approval of the City Council. Although the Board's treasurer shall keep the financial records of the authority and perform other duties as provided by Act 281, the City treasurer shall be the Authority's fiscal agent, responsible for keeping and depositing all monies and funds in such manner and only in such places as the City Council may determine.

(d) The Board may appoint or employ and fix the compensation of a secretary as provided by Act 281, provided that the amount of any compensation so fixed shall first be set forth in the budget of the Authority as provided in this resolution and be subject to the approval of the City Council.

(e) The Board may retain legal counsel to advise the Board in the proper performance of its duties, as provided by Act 281, provided that the amount of any compensation, fees or costs to be paid to such legal counsel shall first be set forth in the budget of the Authority as provided in this resolution and be subject to the approval of the City Council.

(f) The Board may employ other personnel, consultants or contractors deemed necessary by the Board, provided that the amount of any compensation fixed for any such personnel, including any contractors or consultants, shall first be set forth in the budget of the Authority as provided in this resolution and be subject to the approval of the City Council.

2. Paragraph 8 of the City's Local Development Finance Authority Resolution shall be amended to read: FISCAL YEAR; ADOPTION OF BUDGET; BUDGET RE-QUIREMENTS.

(a) The fiscal year of the Authority shall begin on July 1 of each year and end on June 30 of the following year, or such other fiscal year as may hereafter be adopted by the City.

(b) The Board shall annually prepare a budget and shall submit it to the City Council on the same date that the proposed budget for the City, if required by the city charter, is to be submitted to the City Council. The Board shall not finally adopt a budget for any fiscal year until the budget has been approved by the City Council. The Board may, however, temporarily adopt a budget in connection with the operation of any improvements which have been financed by revenue bonds where required to do so by the ordinance, statute or resolution authorizing the revenue bonds. The Authority's budget, which shall be subject to approval by the City Council, must be prepared in the same manner and contain the same information as required for departments of the City in the City's budget and shall include narrative explanations for each line item expenditure. General or vague descriptions of proposed expenditures are not authorized. Such budget must include individual line items for all personnel, including the Authority's director, treasurer, secretary, legal counsel, and any contractors or consultants. If any change in personnel, contractors, consultants or compensation for such personnel as listed herein is proposed during a fiscal year, such shall require submission of a budget amendment, which shall be subject to the approval of the City Council.

(c) The Authority shall submit financial reports to all the City Council at the same time and on the same basis as departments of the City are required to submit reports. The Authority shall be audited annually by the same independent auditors auditing the City and copies of the audit report shall be filed with the City Council and the board.

(d) The City Council may assess a reasonable pro rata share of the cost of handling and auditing the funds of the authority against the funds of the authority, as provided by Act 281.

3. All portions of prior resolutions inconsistent herewith are hereby rescinded.

4. The Clerk of the City of Fenton shall publish this resolution in the manner prescribed by law.

5. This resolution shall take effect upon filing with the City Clerk, filing with the Secretary of State and publication in a newspaper of general circulation within the city.
