■ The fifth valedictorian in the family graduated June 5

By Hannah Ball

hball@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

Having one valedictorian in the family is exciting. Having five is an entirely different story.

For the Rinks family of Fenton, being valedictorian runs in the family.

SUMMARY

■ All three children from the Rinks family of Fenton Township have graduated top of their Lake Fenton High School class.

Mason Rinks, 18, graduated June 5 as valedictorian of his 2016 class at Lake Fenton High School. Before him, his two older sisters, Sarah and Ashley, were both valedictorians at Lake Fenton.

Their mother, Mary Ellen, graduated first in her class when she attended high school in Bay City, and her mother, Marg Luczak, graduated valedictorian as well.

"I was more excited than nervous," Mason said. Lake Fenton has five valedictorians this year, so his speech was only a minute and a half long.

A FAMILY OF VALEDICTORIANS

VALEDICTORIANS

"It's not too nerve wracking. It kind of feels like all my hard work is paying off," he said. "It's exciting but I know I have a lot of work to do in college. I'm proud of the work I've put in."

Mason took AP calculus, biology, and English. "I love calc. Calc is the best," he said.

Mason said he and siblings have always been pretty competitive.

Sarah and Ashley both played softball and volleyball in high school, and Mason played football, golf, track, cross country, and some basketball throughout his time in high school. They all took advanced placement classes.

He'll be attending Butler University in Indianapolis in the fall to study business. He said it feels kind of like going home because he lived there until he was 8 years old.

"I'm really excited to move on but it's kind of bittersweet," Mason said. "I'll be away from my family and friends. That's kind of scary but I think it's going really good for me."

When he watched his sisters graduate as valedictorian, he said, "I was really proud for them. I think I'm not as proud of me, I guess, just because it's humility. There was a big sense of pride when I was watching them."

His mother, Mary Ellen, said she didn't find out about being first in her class in Bay City until a week before graduation, when they told her she had to write a speech.

"It's a lot different now than it was back then," she said.

She said she didn't have much variety in classes back then, but they had college prep courses.

"They put a goal in front of themselves and they achieved it, and it is very fulfilling for them. It was a very proud moment for parents to see that come to fruition."

— Amos Rinks
Lake Fenton varsity softball coach, parent of three valedictorians

"That was what was expected," she said.

She attended Alma College for her bachelor's degree, and then obtained her masters in physical therapy from the University of Indianapolis.

The first born, Sarah, graduated first of her class in 2009. She's a physician's assistant with a cardiology group.

The second daughter, Ashley, is studying to become an architect at Notre Dame. She's currently doing an internship in Georgia.

"I'm very proud and I feel very blessed. They knew that they had to get their stuff done and they made some sacrifices and probably didn't go to as many social events as they could have. Plus they were all in sports. They definitely had to plan their time," Mary Ellen said.

Mason's father, Amos Rinks, varsity softball coach at Lake Fenton said, "We all have responsibilities and their job was being a student. We don't really put that pressure on them to have to work," he said, adding that he wanted his kids to focus on school and not a job.

He said it wasn't a goal they talked a lot about around the house. They didn't even know their grandma was valedictorian until Ashley graduated.

"I don't think we pushed them to that. We try to instill good work habits and study habits from day one," Amos said. They finished their homework right when they got home.

"From a parent standpoint you couldn't be prouder," he said. "They put a goal in front of themselves and they achieved it, and it is very fulfilling for them. It was a very proud moment for parents to see that come to fruition."

WORDS OF WISDOM

"Now and throughout your life, remember to thank those who help you find success, especially your parents. I keep this framed copy of a quote by Henry David Thoreau in my office, given to me by one of my sisters when I became principal: If one advances confidently in the direction of his dreams, and endeavors to live the life which he has imagined, he will meet with a success unexpected in common hours."

Valedictorian

Kendall Nash

GPA: 4.400

Parents: Jim & Lisa Nash

Kendall is a full-diploma candidate in the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program. He is passionate about and plans to pursue further studies in economics this fall at Calvin College. He is the recipient of the Calvin College Presidential Scholarship and has been accepted as a Calvin Research Fellow, which will provide him the opportunity to engage in professional, scholarly research with one of his professors.

Salutatorian

Donald Rositano

GPA: 4.392

Parents: Don & Lynn Rositano

Donald is interested in math, science and business, and for the last two years has been involved in the robotics team, the Titanium Tigers, as a programmer, business plan team leader, and drive team member. This fall, he will continue his studies at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

He has been named a Research Assistant through the Undergraduate Research Opportunity Program (UROP), giving him the opportunity to collaborate with U-M faculty members on their research.
