ARK ENCOUNTER®

■ Life-size reconstruction of Noah's Ark is just five hours away in Kentucky

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

The story of Noah's Ark is one of the most well known in the Bible, but most people don't expect to come face to face with Noah, the ark, the animals or the flood, anytime during their lifetime.

But you can step right into a life-size reconstruction of Noah's Ark at the Ark Encounter in Williamstown, Kentucky, just 20 minutes off I-75, between Cincinnati and Lexington.

After a one-mile bus ride from the parking lot, visitors will be in the shadows of a mammoth structure, 510 foot long, 85 foot wide and 51 foot tall, dominating the landscape of this small Kentucky community.

Each of three decks contains interactive exhibits and models of animals many Christians believe to have been saved by Noah and his family through a covenant with God before He sent a flood to destroy the earth. Because of its size and 132 displays, Ark Encounter recommends at least four hours for a visit.

Billed as a fundamentalist Christian theme park, the Ark is built according to biblical specifications. See ARK on 4B

The Ark is a life-size reconstruction of Noah's Ark from the Bible, 510-feet long, 85-feet wide and 51-feet tall, and is part of Phase I construction that also includes a petting zoo and adventure zip line. It opened last summer in Williamstown, Kentucky.

Just sayin'...

Serious issue should not be about the money

Sexual harassment and other unwanted sexual advances are a very serious problem, and I would venture a guess that almost every woman has some kind of personal story to tell.

In 1981, when I was 28 years old and divorced, I worked as the office supervisor in the Chicago regional office of a large, well-known international company.

My boss was the general manager for this regional office, and held the same position in the New York regional office. His home was in New Jersey, but he kept an apartment in the Chicago area for when he was in town.

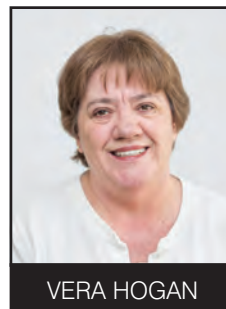

The staff at the regional office would occasionally meet for a drink after work on Fridays.

Although my boss usually flew home on Friday afternoons, he decided to stay one weekend. I don't remember the reason but it was business-related. So, of course, he came with us to the bar for a drink. Well, he had more than one cocktail and I ended up having to give him a lift to his apartment.

While in front of the building, he invited me inside and I declined. He wouldn't take no for an answer and although I don't remember his exact words, I got that prickly feeling and instantly sensed that my job could be in serious jeopardy.

I was shocked. I'm not stupid, but I seriously did not expect this. In addition to his career with this company, he appeared to be the ultimate family man and held some prestigious offices in various organizations. His friends, who visited the office frequently, were the CEOs of well-known companies. None of these guys ever made an untoward remark to me. Not to mention that they were old dudes!

I didn't go inside the apartment with him, but I did start some fancy talking. I reminded him that we work for a very large company, with a very large human resources department in California. I reminded him that his next moves could result in some negative outcomes, the least of which would be that some pinched-looking HR lady would be on the next plane from San Francisco to investigate the situation. This company had a very strict policy on sexual harassment, one that involved many hearings and stuff you just don't want to have to go through regardless of whether you're the perpetrator or the victim.

I don't know if I started getting through to him or if he just started sobering up, but he eventually got out of my car, said good night and went up to his apartment.

The next day at the office he provided a sincere apology for his behavior and asked that I give him another chance. I did and nothing like it ever happened again. In fact, a year later, when he decided to work as the general manager in New York exclusively, he flew me to his offices there so that I could train the staff on how things operated in the Chicago office. I trusted him and didn't think twice about going.

While there, he took me to see "Annie" on Broadway and we enjoyed a nice dinner at a small bistro next to Central Park, after which he delivered me back to my hotel. He was the perfect gentleman the entire time.

That was 36 years ago. As I said, unwanted sexual advances are a very serious issue, and my experience could have ended much differently than it did.

But it makes me angry when I hear what's happening to Comedian Bill Cosby. The man is going to be 80 years old in July. Three years ago, some women, the latest number being 60, publicly outed him with all kinds of sex-related allegations, with the earliest taking place in mid-1960s.

I believe a few of them, but not all. I can't believe, if these women were seriously injured by this man's behaviors, why did they wait more than 40 years to tell their stories. Could it be that Dr. Cosby's net worth is about $400 million today?

Do you think if this old man was dirt poor, rocking the rest of his life away on the front porch of some old shack that anyone would come forward with their tale of woe? I don't think so.

Beware the imposters!

They come out in droves on Easter Sunday, looking for stuff in all the wrong disguises.

By Vera Hogan

vhogan@tctimes.com; 810-433-6823

Today is Easter Sunday and aside from the Easter Bunny, there are others out there posing as the elusive rabbit - all for varying reasons.

Nice try!
That's what my peeps told me when they accused me of posing as the Easter Bunny, just to keep my cute little pork butt off the holiday dinner table.

This is not funny! Just because they can't have a real bunny, my people do this to me. I hope they remember that they had me spayed and will never be any kind of real bunny.

This little girl's mommy probably thought it would be cute to pull her daughter's hair into a bun and say "Isn't she adorable? She looks like the Easter bunny." These mommies should consider themselves lucky that when their little girls grow up, Hugh Hefner is no longer in business. Mmm hmmm!

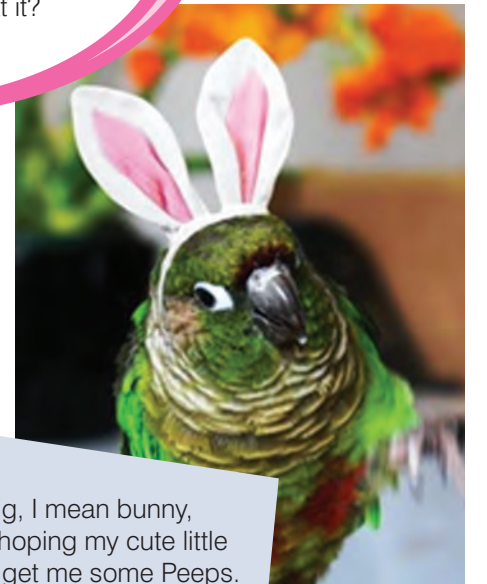

I was trying to look as cute as possible so I could trade these for some chocolate eggs. My family keeps telling me chocolate can kill dogs — some kind of theobromine they said will make me sick. Then why do they get to eat it?

How humiliating! When they dressed me up in this outfit, my people actually had the nerve to say, "Don't put all your eggs in one basket."

Peeps? Did that pig, I mean bunny, say peeps? I was hoping my cute little bunny ears would get me some Peeps. "Polly want a Peeps!"

Tales of murder, religion and history

■ New Dan Brown book 'Origin' coming out this fall

By Hannah Ball

hball@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

Ever since "The Da Vinci Code" came out in 2003, author Dan Brown has been one of the most recognized writers around the globe.

For four, now soon to be five, books, Brown has combined history, fiction, religion, symbols, and murder to write the adventures of his protagonist, Professor of Symbolology Robert Langdon. Like any riveting read, his books entertain readers as well as teach them about philosophers, conspiracy theories, and famous buildings. His newest book, "Origin," continues Langdon's story. It comes out this fall.

Langdon, who's played by Tom Hanks

SUMMARY

■ Dan Brown, an author recognized worldwide for his books about protagonist Robert Langdon, is releasing another book this fall.

Dan Brown's books have been translated in 52 different languages. He has sold over 200 million copies worldwide.

in the movies, often chases or runs away from a murderer or conspiracy theory by finding and solving clues about historical figures and symbols.

The books leave readers questioning — how much of this information is true?

The Freemasons

One popular theme in "The Lost Symbol" in 2009 is that the Freemasons are a secret society that secretly run America. In the book, Langdon finds out that The Founding Fathers actually built a secret portal under Washington where secrets of the universe are hidden.

In reality, no such portal has been discovered. The Freemasons are often used in books and mythology, and rumors about the group run rampant. These theories often overlap with conspiracy theories about the New World Order and the Illuminati.

It's known that one Founding Father, Benjamin Franklin, was a Mason, and these symbols appear in American culture, such as the pyramid and eye on the Great Seal of the United States on the dollar bill.

The Priory of Sion

In "The Da Vinci Code," Brown writes that a brotherhood was founded in 1099 with members such as Isaac Newton, Botticelli, Victor Hugo and Leonardo Da Vinci. These people knew that Jesus married Mary Magdalene and has a surviving heir.

In the book, Mary and her descendants are the Holy Grail.

In reality, the Priory of Sion was a monastic order formed that year. In 1982, a book was published about The Holy Blood and the Holy Grail and how they protect Jesus and Mary's secret. The Priory is now considered a hoax created in the 1950s by a Frenchman named Pierre Plantard.

Opus Dei

In "The Da Vinci Code," this is a group sanctioned by the Vatican that plots to find and kill the heir/grail. A huge villain in the book, Silas, is an Opus Dei monk.

In real life, it's a real Catholic organization with an estimated 87,000 members worldwide. However, none are monks. Their goal also isn't to find the Holy Grail.

The Illuminati

Perhaps one of the biggest theories-turned-fact in his books is the Illuminati in "Angels and Demons." This secret society works to bring down the Catholic Church for their crimes against scientists like Copernicus and Galileo, who was convicted of heresy for claiming the Earth moved around the sun.

In real life, the Illuminati was a real organization founded in 1776 in Bavaria with the ideals of free-thinking and rationalism. Copernicus was never attacked by the church, but Galileo was mistreated. He was subjected to lifelong house arrest after his claim about the Earth and Sun, but he was never convicted.

to the dimensions given in the Bible, and took about four years to build with the hands of 1,000 Amish craftsmen. It's the largest timber frame structure in the world, built from standing dead timber.

"The woodwork was pretty amazing," said Brian Raymond of Tyrone Township, who visited the Ark last month with his wife, Kim. "The sheer scale of it is pretty awesome. You can't understand it 'til you're there; it's mammoth."

Built at a cost of $102 million raised through municipal bonds and private donations, Ark Encounter is operated by Answers in Genesis, a Christian-defending group that focuses on a Biblical worldview, especially the book of Genesis, as its literal interpretation is at odds with evolution theories.

"It definitely comes from a Christian world view, but it's done to be welcoming to all," said Jennifer Lynch of Argentine Township, who visited the Ark last Monday with her daughter, Rebekah, 16, on their way home from a cruise vacation.

"It's an extremely positive experience."

The Ark opened last July 7, 2016.

Its phase one construction included the Ark, petting zoo and zipline. Plans for additional phases, including replicas of a first century Middle Eastern village, Tower of Babel and a 500-seat special effects theater will be completed by 2018-2019.

Tickets are $40 for adults, $30 for seniors 60-plus, $28 for children 5 to 12 and children under 5 are free. There are also combo discounts available for a visit to the Ark's sister attraction, the Creation Museum, 45 miles away in Petersburg, Kentucky.

Golda Marie Cecil
 1916-2017

Golda Marie Cecil - age 100, of Fenton, died Monday, April 10, 2017. Memorial contributions may be made to Adopt-A-Pet of Fenton, 13575 N. Fenton Rd., Fenton MI 48430 (www.adoptapetfenton.com/). Private family services will be held at Oakwood Cemetery in Fenton. Mrs. Cecil was born November 30, 1916 in Kennett, MO, the daughter of Andrew William and Dora (Messengill) Parkin. She married Chester Esau Cecil on March 22, 1933 in MO and he preceded her in death on August 1, 1994. Mrs. Cecil worked in the factory during World War II as one of the original Rosie the Riveters. She was a bookkeeper for many years and had worked for Excel Corporation in Fenton. Mrs. Cecil was a member of Fenton United Methodist Church and the Fenton VFW Auxiliary. Surviving are: two daughters, Doris E. and husband Robert Beattie of Clarkston, Jo (Stadler) Schrader of Fenton; six grandchildren, Thomas Beattie, Brad Beattie, Michael Stadler, Steven Stadler, Jeffery Stadler, and Chris Stadler; 10 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild. Arrangements by Sharp Funeral Homes, Fenton Chapel, 1000 W. Silver Lake Rd. Fenton. www.sharpfuneralhomes.com.

Arthur "Larry" Rittenhouse
 1936-2017

Arthur "Larry" Rittenhouse - age 80 of Fenton, died Friday, April 7, 2017 at Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit. Private family services will be held at a later date in Bowling Green, OH. Larry was born October 19, 1936 in Bowling Green, the son of Arthur Wilson and Evangeline May (O'Brien) Rittenhouse. He was a graduate of Bowling Green High School and a proud veteran of the U.S. Navy. Larry married Katherine Baird on August 12, 1973 in Phoenix, AZ. He retired from Stevens Van Lines in 1991 after 34 years of service. Surviving are: wife, Katherine; four children, Mitchell (Margaret) Rittenhouse of AZ, Kelly (Patricia) Rittenhouse of MN, Sean Rittenhouse of MN, and Kara Lee Rittenhouse of CA; grandson, Michael Rittenhouse; beloved cat, Gracie "Goofy". He was preceded in death by his parents; four sisters, Donna Lambert, Dorothy Whitacre, Eleanor Bell and Margaret Ann Baker; and brother, Dick Singer. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in his name to Adopt-A-Pet of Fenton, 13575 N. Fenton Rd., Fenton, MI 48430 (<http://www.adoptapetfenton.com>). Friends may share an online tribute on the obituary page of www.sharpfuneralhomes.com.

William C. McClure
 1947-2017

William C. McClure - age 69, of Ranson, WV, formerly of Fenton. Bill passed away on April 10, 2017, at Martinsburg Medical Center, WV. He was born in Holly on October 22, 1947. He graduated from Fenton High School 1965. He joined the U.S. Air Force, where he was ranked Staff Sgt. and served honorably in the Vietnam War. Bill resided in Miles City, MT for 18 years and was employed by the Milwaukee Railroad until it shut down operations. He moved to West Virginia and worked as a partner with his brother Richard in the construction business. Bill retired as building inspector for Jefferson County, WV. Bill was an active member of the V.F.W. and The American Legion of Charles Town, WV. He loved hunting and fishing. His remains will be scattered at his favorite fishing spot on the Shenandoah River. Bill is survived by his wife, Billye McClure of Ranson, WV; children, Michael (Suzie) McClure of Inwood, WV, and Jennifer (Aric) Prickett of AZ; sister, Phylis Barton of Las Vegas, NV; brothers, Richard (Mary Ann) McClure of Blue Ridge, GA, Tom (Pam) McClure of Linden, and Kevin (Kim) McClure of Fenton; eight grandchildren, one great-grandchild; and many nieces and nephews. Contributions can be made to the American Heart Association in Bills name.

Patrick Norman Uebel, Sr.
 1934-2017

Patrick Norman Uebel, Sr. - age 82, of Tucson, AZ, formerly of Fenton, died peacefully at his home on Wednesday, February 15, 2017. He was born on November 11, 1934 in Bellevue, KY, the son of Norman and Sarah (Phillips) Uebel. He is survived by his loving wife, Elisabeth; children, Patrick (Julie) Uebel, Lynne (Douglas) Watters, and Holly (Robert) Rougeau; grandchildren, Maggie (Matthew) Sabo, Jarrod Rougeau, Max Watters, and Marta Watters. He was preceded in death by his parents; and sister, Doris Reiman. He grew up in northern Kentucky, and graduated from Bellevue High School. He was an outstanding athlete, lettering 18 times in his high school career. Pat graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1956 with a degree in Civil Engineering. He was proud to have been recruited to play football for Army by Vince Lombardi; he played for four years, serving as captain his senior year. After serving three years in the Army, Pat worked for Sun Oil Refining & Marketing, retiring in 1990. He was an avid outdoorsman, camping and canoeing in the Canadian wilderness, backpacking in the Wyoming mountains, and cycling across Arizona. In 1992 he cycled solo from Washington State to Maine. He was involved with several Arizona cycling clubs; when not riding himself, he provided assistance to other cyclists with bicycle repair on the road. He was also a skilled craftsman and builder. A private family service will be held in Kentucky.

Amy Kay Amthor
 1958-2017

Amy Kay Amthor - age 58, of Fenton, died Tuesday, April 11, 2017 at Genesee Care Center. Funeral services will be held 1 PM Tuesday, April 18, 2017 at Sharp Funeral Homes, Fenton Chapel, 1000 W. HIDDEN FIGURES
Hidden Figures is the incredible untold story of Katherine G. Johnson (Taraji P. Henson), Dorothy Vaughan (Octavia Spencer) and Mary Jackson (Janelle Monáe)-brilliant African-American women working at NASA, who served as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in history: the launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit, a stunning achievement that restored the nation's confidence, turned around the Space Race, and galvanized the world. The visionary trio crossed all gender and race lines to inspire generations to dream big.

TONI ERDMANN
Practical joker Winfried loves to annoy his daughter with corny pranks. Enter flashy "Toni Erdmann": Winfried's smooth-talking alter ego. Disguised in a tacky suit, weird wig and even weirder fake teeth, Toni barges into Ines' professional life, claiming to be her CEO's life coach. As Toni, Winfried is bolder and doesn't hold back, but Ines meets the challenge. The harder they push, the closer they become. In all the madness, Ines begins to understand that her eccentric father might deserve some place in her life after all.

BAKED chicken PARMESAN

INGREDIENTS:

- 4 (about 8 oz each) chicken breast, fat trimmed, sliced in half to make 8
- 3/4 cup seasoned breadcrumbs (whole wheat can be used)
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 tbsp butter, melted (or olive oil)
- 3/4 cup reduced fat mozzarella cheese (Polly-o)
- 1 cup marinara or Filetto di Pomodoro
- Cooking spray

DIRECTIONS:

1. Preheat oven to 450°. Spray a large baking sheet lightly with spray.
2. Combine breadcrumbs and parmesan cheese in a bowl. Melt the butter in another bowl. Lightly brush the butter onto the chicken, then dip into breadcrumb mixture. Place on baking sheet and repeat with the remaining chicken.
3. Lightly spray a little more oil on top and bake in the oven for 25 minutes.
4. Remove from oven, spoon 1 tbsp sauce over each piece of chicken and top each with 1 1/2 tbsp of shredded mozzarella cheese.
5. Bake 5 more minutes or until cheese is melted.

An Italian classic, lightened up. Baking the cutlet as opposed to frying really lightens this dish up while remaining moist and full of flavor. Serve this over pasta or with a large salad to keep it on the lighter side.
