ITALY IS KNOWN FOR ITS:

Vineyards

Another wine-lovers name for heaven could be Italy. The land is a wine paradise on the face of earth filled with vineyards comprised of more than 20,000 grape varieties growing on more than 20 major growing regions around the country. The islands of Sicily and Sardinia are popular for their vineyards.

A major player when it comes to Western culture and cuisine

Italy consists of a mountainous peninsula (a.k.a. "the boot") in southern Europe extending into the Mediterranean Sea and includes the islands of Sicily, Sardinia, and about 70 other smaller islands.

The Alps form Italy's border with France, Switzerland, Austria, and Slovenia. Most of Italy has warm, dry summers and mild winters, with northern Italy experiencing colder, wetter winters. There are some notable active volcanoes, including Vesuvius, near Naples.

Italy is a major player when it comes to Western culture and cuisine. Its capital, Rome, exhibits the architectural and artistic grandeur of ancient civilizations. It is home to the Vatican as well as landmark art and ancient ruins. Other major cities include Florence, the birthplace of the Renaissance. It is home to great works of civic and religious architecture, sculpture, and paintings. Venice is well known as the city of canals and Milan is Italy's fashion capital.

Turin, the capital of heavy industry, is home to Fiat — one of the world's largest car producers. A major attraction for pilgrims and tourists is the "Holy Shroud" in Turin's cathedral — tradition holds that this was Christ's burial cloth.

BY HANNAH BALL
hball@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

Wednesday, June 21 is National Selfie Day. The younger generations are known for taking selfies, which are defined by Google as "photograph(s) that one has taken of oneself, typically one taken with a smartphone or webcam and shared via social media."

For every decent, post-worthy selfie, there are dozens of rejects. Not every selfie shared via social media is a winner.

Here's how to take a good selfie by learning what not to do:

1. Consider placement. Avoid taking selfies with your child where it looks like your dog is pooping on its head.

2. A photobomb can ruin any selfie, or make it better depending on your tastes.

3. While a selfie generally encompasses a face and shoulders, it's important to be aware of any other mirrors, especially in bathrooms.

4. Make sure the focus is on your face, not other potentially embarrassing objects.

5. Always be aware of your surroundings.

6. This is called the "my boyfriend caught me getting out of the shower." If you're going to try this, watch for other mirrors that might expose you as a liar.

7. This is the danger of taking selfies near bathrooms.

8. Words often have different meanings when reflected in mirrors.

9. This selfie is often called "boyfriend caught me sleeping," and should serve as a warning to people everywhere.

10. Dogs aren't always photogenic.

THE RUSSIA COLLUSION stories are now to be considered fake news perpetuated by CNN, MSNBC, New York Times, and The Washington Post, and by Democratic senators and congressman who all owe our country an apology for wasting our time.

NOW FOR THE good news. A lot of good news has happened over the last few days with Trump proposing a new infrastructure plan to repair bridges, roads and railways, ways to improve our air traffic control system. He gutted the Dodd Frank bill, which will now improve lending practices.

I VOTED FOR Trump. The reason? I thought anyone who could make billions could keep Washington working more than a day and a half a week. Wrong.

NOW THAT THE witchhunt is over and Trump has been exonerated of everything, maybe the politicians can start focusing on the economy, jobs, terrorism, immigration and healthcare.

LIBERAL. LEFTIST. ANARCHIST. Atheist socialist, globalist. Communist. It is interesting how these words have all morphed into the definition of the Democratic Party.

EATING DOGS VIOLATED whose society's norms? I guess you never took a little field trip to southeast Asia.

I'M APPALLED THAT a gentleman would save a dog's life, take it to an animal shelter then the shelter kills the dog.

POLICE AND FIRE report. Fenton police locate thieves, the suspects were detained over night, interviewed and released. Why would you release somebody after you got all the evidence so they can go out and commit more crimes?

I TALKED TO a Democratic supporter tonight who thought the shooting of the Republican was just fine.

Janice Jo "Jan" Barker Detrich
1949-2017

Janice Jo "Jan" Barker Detrich - age 67, passed away on June 9, 2017 at the Hospice of The Chesapeake in Pasadena, MD of an unanticipated brief illness. Jan had recently relocated to Maryland to live with her daughter Jessica, granddaughter Lily Belle, partner Kevin Goedecke and his children, Lexi, Bubba and Trey. Jan graduated from Fenton High School and attended Central Michigan University. Jan's work as an intuitive astrologer, teacher and counselor spanned the globe. Wherever Jan lived during her lifetime, from her childhood in Fenton to all of the states and global travels, including a teaching sabbatical in New Zealand, through her counseling, workshops and astrology practice, she has guided thousands along their life's journey. She will be missed by her many friends and family. She was preceded in death by her mother, Lila (Steele) Barker. She is survived by her father, Dale M. Barker; daughter, Jessica; granddaughter, Lily Belle; brothers, Stephen Barker (Kristina), Dan Barker (Ann) and many nieces, a nephew, grandnieces, grandnephew and other extended family. A memorial service for Jan will be held in Fenton at a later date to be determined, and will be announced. Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of The Chesapeake, 90 Richie Hwy., Pasadena, MD 21122.

LEMON BARS

Recipe adapted from Ina Garten • Source: ahomemadeliving.com
Makes 16 squares

INGREDIENTS

Crust

- 4oz unsalted butter, softened
- 1/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1 cup all-purpose flour
- 1/4 tsp salt

Filling

- 3 eggs
- 1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
- Grated lemon zest from 1 lemon
- 1/2 cup freshly squeezed lemon juice
- 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
- Confectioners sugar for dusting

DIRECTIONS

1. First, preheat your oven to 350 deg F and line a 9×9 inch baking pan with parchment paper. Prepare your crust by mixing together the softened butter, sugar and salt. Once you have a smooth mixture, add in the flour and mix until you get a soft dough. Press the dough into your prepared baking pan, then let it chill in the fridge until your oven is ready. Bake the crust for 15 – 20 minutes, until it is just slightly golden brown.

2. Let the crust chill and prepare your filling. Whisk together the eggs, granulated sugar, lemon zest and juice and flour and pour over the chilled crust. Bake (at 350 degrees F. again) for 35 – 40 minutes, or until the middle no longer jiggles. Let cool completely and dust with confectioners’ sugar before serving.

13 quirky facts about companion animals

Think you know everything there is to know about your favorite furry, finned or feathered friend? Chances are there are some interesting facts that even the most ardent animal-lover may be surprised to learn.

1. Tough tongue: Cats’ tongues are covered with little structures called “filiform papillae,” which are like tiny hooks pointing toward the throat. These hook-like structures help hold food while a cat is eating. The papillae also help with grooming. Humans can feel these barbs when licked by cats.
2. Seeing spots: Dalmatians are born all white. Their spots will develop within the first few weeks of life and can be black, brown or liver colored.
3. Sleepy time: Cats are born loungers and will spend on average 16 hours of the day snoozing. Only sloths spend more time asleep.
4. Send a message: Fish do not have vocal chords, but they can use low-pitched moans, grunts, hisses, and wails to communicate with one another.
5. Watch the eyes: Pet birds can communicate feelings through their pupils. If pupils are dilated, the bird is calm. Pinprick-sized pupils mean birds are agitated and may bite.
6. Meeeeooooowww: Cats only meow to communicate with humans, not amongst themselves.
7. Seeing colors: Dogs are not color blind as once presumed. They can see colors, just not as vividly as humans.
8. Kindle, not just for reading: A group of kittens is called a “kindle,” while a group of cats is a “clowder.”
9. Almost wild: Dogs are so genetically similar to wolves that they can interbreed.
10. Noseprints: Cats’ and dogs’ noses are unique, just like human fingerprints.
11. Fishy growth rings: Fish do not add new scales as they grow. The scales increase in size and form growth rings that can reveal the age of the fish.
12. Not domesticated: Birds are not domesticated. They’re still rather wild and must be taught acceptable pet behavior.
13. Barkless: Many dogs do not actively bark. One dog that rarely ever barks is the Basenji, due to a narrow larynx. It can yodel, however!

THE LEGO BATMAN MOVIE

In the irreverent spirit of fun that made “The Lego® Movie” a world-wide phenomenon, the self-described leading man of that ensemble - Lego Batman - stars in his own big-screen adventure: “The Lego® Batman Movie.” But there are big changes brewing in Gotham, and if he wants to save the city from The Joker’s hostile takeover, Batman may have to drop the lone vigilante thing, try to work with others and maybe, just maybe, learn to lighten up.
