Police investigate stranger danger complaints

■ Several incidents reported in area

A shooter killed at least 59 people and injured more than 500 in the deadliest shooting in U.S. history on Sunday evening in Las Vegas during a country music festival.

The Las Vegas shooter, Stephen Paddock, a 64-yearold Nevada resident, killed himself as police broke into his room at the Mandalay Bay hotel.

In May, a suicide bomber at an Arianna Grande concert in Manchester killed 22 people and injured approximately 60 others. And in June 2016, at an Orlando, Florida nightclub, 49 people were killed and 58 wounded. Many shooters choose areas with crowds, making concerts and sporting events targets.

■Influenza kills between 12,000 and 56,000 people in the U.S. each year

By Sally Rummel

news@tctimes.com; 810-629-8282

You can just about feel it as you read this. Your throat is getting scratchy and sore and you're already sneezing and coughing. You're exhausted, achy all over and feverish.

The fall, winter and spring months are prime time for the flu, which is expected this year to be worse than usual, according to early reports from the Centers of Disease Control & Prevention (CDC).

The U.S. often follows a flu pattern from the Southern Hemisphere, which just completed its winter season, and Australia has had 2½ times more people infected by the flu virus than they did the year before, according to Webmd.com.

With several different strains of the flu virus every year, the vaccine developed for use in the U.S. closely matches the H3N2 strain that was so virulent in Australia.

Also, because hurricanes and wildfires have disrupted medical routines and forced people into close contact at shelters, health experts are expecting a possible uptick in influenza nation-

How do the hurricanes affect the flu virus in Michigan?

"Think about air travel," said Mark Valacak, health officer of the Genesee County Health Department. "We're all just an airplane away from these areas. Think about how many people travel back and forth between Florida and Michigan."

Since 2010, the flu and its complications have resulted in 12,000 to 56,000 deaths in the U.S. each year, estimates the CDC. Between nine and 39 million Americans get sick with the flu each year.

Flu season starts as early as October, which is why this is the best time of year to get a flu shot. It takes about two weeks after vaccination for antibodies to develop in the body that protect against flu, so the earlier you get the shot, the sooner you'll be protected.

Nearly 47 percent of Americans got the vaccine last year, a 1.2-percent increase from the year before. Fewer people died during the 2016-17 flu season compared to last year, but the hospitalization rate nearly doubled from the previous year, according to the CDC.

Why is the flu such a serious health risk? Most people can let the flu run its course for one to two weeks without serious problems. But sometimes the flu can lead to complications such as pneumonia, bronchitis, sinus infections and ear infections.

People who have chronic health problems can get worse with a bout of the flu, including those with asthma, cancer or congestive heart failure.

Children younger than age 5, especially those under 2, plus adults 65 years of age and older are especially vulnerable.

"Your best protection against the flu is a flu shot," said Valacak.

If I Were King...

king@tctimes.com

The reality of 'oppression'

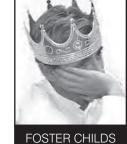

ccording to the Merriam-Webster 2017 dictionary, the definition of oppressed is: the unjust or cruel exercise of authority or power.

Here's a rundown on just a few of the groups who claim to be "oppressed" in America.

Hispanics and other aliens who are here illegally, who knew when they snuck into America that if they got caught the penalty would be deportation, are "oppressed" when they are apprehended and deported.

Prissy, pampered college students who disagree with the viewpoints of a guest speaker invited to the school, to speak at an event they are not required to attend, are "oppressed."

Feminists who can't understand why the taxpayers are rebelling against having to foot the bill for their birth control contraceptives, as well as multiple abortions in the event they forget to take them, are "oppressed."

The minority populations in the inner cities are "oppressed" because they can't find a job and are doomed to a life of poverty. Yet they chronically elect and re-elect the same dysfunctional, dishonest, predatory leaders such as Rahm Emmanuel, Kwame' Kilpatrick and Coleman Young, who enrich themselves at their expense.

So, who is telling these people they are oppressed? The rich and famous, that's who. Talk show hosts, comedians, actors, rock stars, singers, professional athletes, celebrities and politicians – each of whom gain more money, more fame and more influence when they enable the horrible plight of the "oppressed" by telling them that the dire circumstances they exist in are created by someone else, not themselves.

Earlier I stated that there are no oppressed Americans. That is not correct. The most oppressed and discriminated citizens in America are those of us who get up and plod off to work each day.

Our criminally dysfunctional government is stealing us blind with ever-increasing taxation. The reason they require all these outrageous (def; going beyond standards of decency: utterly intolerable in a civilized society: outrageous conduct) taxes is to ensure that the recipients of all the free stuff will continue to vote them into office, thereby ensuring that the poor stay poor and the rich get richer.

It is an eye-opening experience to grasp the number of people in America who have been convinced they are oppressed. Do you comprehend the level of ignorance it takes to truly believe that? Visit China, where you can disappear for one anti-government remark. Go to the Middle East where a woman can have acid thrown in her face for not wearing a burqa. Ask the parents of dead Otto Warmbier, who stole a poster off a wall in North Korea, if they think anyone in America is "oppressed."

Truth be told, we have no Americans that are "oppressed." What we do have are tens of millions of citizens who are convinced by the Left that they are "oppressed," and therefore not responsible for their own circumstances.

In the words of John Jenkins, where we see ant hills, they see mountains.

■Today's parents opt for unique, non-traditional names

By Sally Rummel

You won't likely hear of a single Dick, Jane or Sally when reading a roster of today's kids' names in the classroom.

Those names from the 1950s "Fun with Dick and Jane" books, have all but disappeared. But if you have a young child or grandchild named Noah or Ava, they'll likely have lots of company at school. Noah and Ava were the most popular birth names given to Michigan boys and girls last year, according to the U.S. Social Security Administration.

Other top names for girls were Emma, Olivia, Sophia and Isabella and for boys, they were Liam, Lucas, William and Mason.

Many people choose very unique names with different spellings, with the hopes of having their child stand out in a sea of traditional names.

An article from Parenting magazine may have said it best, when one father, expecting his first child, called a child's name "your brand for the rest of your life.'

Some people use names for attributes they hope their child has, for example, an athletic name like Payton or Bo for a boy, or a poetic, floral name like Willow or Violet for a girl.

Sometimes, parents use family surnames celebrity last names as first names, like Kennedy, Nixon, Henley or Mon-

Many people who had long, complicated names when they were born opt for simple names for their own children.

Young children named Noah and Ava will likely have others in their classroom with the same name. Some parents, however, give unique names to their children so they will stand out from others.

Sonja Brooks, first-grade teacher at State Road Elementary in Fenton, said that you notice unique names at first, but that once you get to know the child, it's just a name.

She sees a return of unique classic names like Abe or Nicholas for boys and Victoria or Audrey for girls. "People are beginning to name their children after people from previous generations," she said. "There's also a lot of biblical names."

When she and her husband, Aaron, had their own three kids, they had two rules for naming them: they couldn't use a name either have had during their teaching careers nor could they be in the Top 500 of website baby names.

Their firstborn, AnaLeigh (pronounced ONNA-Leigh), 7, was named after Brook's best friend in Brazil, named Ana, and her own middle name, Leigh.

■Couple keeps up their battle with Fenton Township

By Hannah Ball

hball@tctimes.com; 810-433-6792

The Fenton Township Charlesworth chicken case was adjourned in Genesee County 67th District Court on Friday, Sept. 29.

Andrew Charlesworth, 28, is facing a misdemeanor charge for the illegal possession of chickens. He appeared in front of Judge Mark McCabe in July when he pleaded not guilty. Bond was set at $1,000.

The Charlesworths are a few of the residents battling with Fenton Township over keeping chickens even though their property isn't zoned for farm animals. Charlesworth and his wife, Jen, have kept chickens for over a year and a half. They also had a goat at one point, but relocated the animal.

Township Attorney Jack Belzer said keeping farm animals on property when it's not zoned properly is a violation of the zoning ordinance. Charlesworth's attorney Michael Manley said the ordinance is unconstitutional.

The Sept. 29 court date was originally set to be a pre-trial but it was adjourned. Manley said they will continue to work on a long-term solution to the issue.

"Both sides have engaged in meaningful discussions about long range planning and potential changes to current state law. We appreciate the efforts of the elected officials and the township attorney," he said. "We remain hopeful for a solution through mutual agreement rather than the risk and expense of a judicial decision and subsequent appeals by the losing party.'

The couple moved to the township so they could keep farm animals. In a previous Times article, Jen Charlesworth said they keep the chickens for the eggs, and they hope they can get the ordinance changed.

What to do if you get the flu:

In most cases, the best way to treat the flu is to:

- Rest at home.
- Drink plenty of fluids.
- Avoid contact with other people.

If you're very sick or have other medical conditions, you might need treatment with prescription medications called anti-viral drugs, including Tamiflu, Rapivab or Relenza, which work best when taken within 48 hours of the start of your flu symptoms.

Argentine Twp. — Argentine Township now owns the police department

At the Monday, Sept. 25 meeting, the Argentine Township Board of Trustees unanimously voted in support of purchasing the building the police department previously leased for $9,600 a year.

The township will pay $125,000 for the building.

"Along with that, we're estimating between $35,000 and $50,000 to improve the facilities and bring them up to the standards that we think they should be at," said Treasurer Norman Schmidt. This includes fixing the parking lot, floor coverings, and purchasing a new partition and a new sign outside.

"Owning is a better deal for us than renting," he said.

Schmidt said they would need to transfer about $175,000 from the general fund balance into the police department budget in order to pay for the building.

The board unanimously voted to transfer $200,000 from the general fund balance into the police department budget.

crowd size is over 100,000. The university hasn't had a smaller crowd size than 100,000 for a football game since 1975, said Diane Brown, University of Michigan public information officer for the division of public safety and security.

She said they worry about an active shooter situation "365 days a year. Every day. We plan, we train, we discuss, we do research. It's part of the business unfortunately, because these things have been happening in parts of the country. Our people need to be prepared every day."

The division has a plan for an active shooter situation, but that's all Brown said she could say about the plans.

"We do have a plan in place. Each year, our division coordinates the safety and security plans for football games because it's on campus under jurisdiction of police and security," she said.

Campus police work with local police departments, state police, and federal first responders for these huge events. Brown said they constantly look over security plans and make adjustments. The division considers who the opponent is, what kind of rivalry it is, what time kick off is, the weather forecast, construction issues, and local and national incidents.

"We do a lot to see what else can be the best practice, not only at the collegiate level, but at the professional sporting event level," she said.

For the University of Michigan/Michigan State game on Saturday, Brown said even though it's a long-standing rivalry, it's different from other rivalries.

"A lot of families here are split in their allegiances," she said. "There are many people who went to school, whether it was K-12 or went to college with somebody who had a different fan following. They tend to be a bit more friendly. It's a friendly rivalry."

Brown said it does attract more people from across the state, whether they're going to the game or not. Many will tailgate and then go to a restaurant to watch the game. Maintaining traffic flow, especially because it's a night game, will be the challenge.

"We have a lot of hours leading up to it for people to come into town, driving around town," she said.

Sporting events are a weapons-free zone. Brown said there are certain ordinances and prohibitions against taking concealed weapons into a large venue,

We would rather respond to a location and find out that bag actually was an Epipen bag. We'd rather than after the fact finding out it's too late," she said. "Don't assume someone else is going to report it. You can call 911 or you can text a message."

Camera" for the new work of art to be unveiled to the public at 6 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 6.

The sculpture is currently under wraps on the front lawn of the Fenton Community and Cultural Center, where it will remain once unveiled.

"This sculpture is a special piece of artwork, and the security of the Fenton Community (and Cultural) Center was the topic of a recent discussion," said Police Chief Jason Slater. "After several meetings, it was decided that a wireless camera capable of transmitting a highquality video feed back to the Fenton Police Department, for inclusion in the existing server system, would be the best path to take."

The equipment proposed is a 12 MP 360-degree fisheye camera and wireless antenna kit, which would be mounted on a nearby pole. Absolute Security & Investigations quoted $4,823 for the hardware and installation of the system. This is the same company that installed the Gazebo and Mill Pond Park cameras.

"The video transmission would then be sent wirelessly back to the police department where it would be stored on the police department's current video server," Slater said.

It would also allow for the monitoring by police department dispatchers who are on the job 24 hours a day, 365 days a year.

POSSIBLE LARCENY LEADS TO TWO WARRANT ARRESTS

Two men were arrested following a possible larceny complaint in Fenton at 7:20 p.m. on Sept. 27. Lt. Jeff Cross said police responded to the area of Silver Lake Road and North LeRoy Street on a possible larceny of a bicycle involving three male suspects. Police were able to quickly apprehend two of the suspects, however, the third one ran through a business and fled in a Ford Escape. Police initiated a traffic stop and located the suspect lying down in the back seat of the Escape. A forcible arrest was made. Police learned the man, a 22-year-old Fenton resident, had outstanding warrants from state police and was turned over deputies. Another suspect, a 26-year-old Holly man, also had outstanding warrants and was transported to the Flint City Jail. The third suspect was released. Cross said it turned out that there was no actual larceny committed.

NOTHING STOLEN IN BUSINESS BREAK-IN

At 6:25 a.m. on Sept. 30, Fenton police responded to a cell phone store on Silver Parkway after learning it had been broken into. Suspects gained entry and caused extensive damage to the store, however, they were unable to gain access to merchandise. They fled when they set off the security alarm. The break-in remains under investigation.

INTOXICATED DINER TAKES MARGARITA GLASS

At 10:53 p.m. on Saturday, Sept. 30, Fenton police responded to a restaurant on North LeRoy Street after learning that an intoxicated male diner had stolen a large $150 handmade Margarita glass. Lt. Jeff Cross said employees reported that the 23-yearold Linden man was having dinner with friends. At one point, the man grabbed the large glass, ran through the kitchen, urinated in a trashcan and ran out of the building. The group drove away. Cross said the suspect must have changed his mind and made the driver return to the restaurant, where he returned the glass. Police made contact with the suspect and are seeking charges of larceny from a building and disorderly intoxication.

LIQUOR

Since the MLCC considers the opinion of the local elected body regarding liquor license applications, the city of Fenton believes it is entitled to compensation to recover costs for inspection work performed by paid city employees.

The fees recommended are $1,000 for a new liquor license, $750 for a liquor license transfer and $250 for a liquor license renewal. The recommendation was discussed by the Fenton City Council at its Monday, Oct. 2 work session.

If approved, this would be paid by the applicant over and above what they pay to the state of Michigan for a

SUMMARY

■ A public hearing has tentatively been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 23, during the regular Fenton City Council meeting, to hear what parties that may be affected have to say about being charged $1,000 to apply for a new liquor license, $750 to transfer a liquor license, and $250 to renew a liquor license.

liquor license application. Although the state's fee schedule varies according to the nature and type of license, the cost to apply for a new Class Cliquor license, for example, is $600, plus a $70 inspection fee. The state does its own inspections. The annual renewal fee also is $600.

According to Stephen Schultz, the city of Fenton's attorney, "The MLCC does not conduct a building inspection.

It does not conduct a fire code inspection. It does not conduct inspections when a Sunday sales permit is requested, or a new entertainment permit is requested, or even when an extended hours permit is requested for dancing, topless activity or entertainment.

"While it does not seek out the local municipality's opinion, it does wait to see what the municipality offers as a comment, which the MLCC is then required to consider," Schultz said.

"More importantly, the city does, indeed, have an absolute veto over the issuance of new Class C, Tavern, Brewpub, Hotel, Club and Resort licenses," he said.

"As for the city's process, there is nothing that prevents the city from requiring the inspections that the ordinance establishes. It would not be advisable for the city to allow an establishment to serve the public without knowing if the establishment complies with the building codes or the fire code or other city ordinances, for example. If a prospective licensee does not want to have the required inspections, that is entirely up to the prospective licensee," Schultz said.

Schultz said in order to make meaningful comments to the MLCC, the city must first conduct a reasonable investigation to make sure that license holders are the appropriate folks to hold a license in the city and to make sure that existing licensees abide by city standards.

"It seems reasonable that licensees should bear the cost of such inspections since they have the benefit of being a license holder," Schultz said.

"As a group we decided to hold a public hearing so anyone who may be affected will have an opportunity to speak before we make a final decision," said Councilman Scott Grossmeyer.

That public hearing is tentatively scheduled to take place during the Monday, Oct. 23 regular meeting of the Fenton City Council, which begins at 7:30 p.m.

"An ordinance was put in place seven years ago to charge a fee to recover the costs involved when someone requests a liquor license," Grossmeyer said. "The fee schedule was never set for that ordinance."

Although the ordinance has been in place, no fees were charged to date because a fee schedule had not yet been established.

"My thoughts are that the fees that Chief (Jason) Slater suggested are reasonable," Grossmeyer said. "When a request is made the city incurs costs. The background check could take one day or two weeks. The building department and fire department do inspections. All of these add up quickly and it makes sense to me to do what we can to recover our costs."

The background check is extra work in much the same way a FOIA request is extra work and the city charges for those to recoup the costs incurred. And the inspections are extra work in much the same way building inspections for new buildings or houses is an extra cost that are paid for by the permit fees. And in all cases the city pays the salary of the employees and the person who pulls the permits pays the city, said Grossmeyer.

FATAL HEROIN OVERDOSE IN FENTON TOWNSHIP

On Saturday, Sept. 30 at approximately 8 a.m., deputies with the Genesee County Sheriff's Office responded to the 4000 block of Minnetonka in Fenton Township for a reported overdose. A 911 dispatch operator said a 27-yearold male had overdosed on heroin. Before arrival on scene Narcan was administered by family members. Sheriff's paramedics began medical treatment. The victim was pronounced dead on scene. This incident is currently under investigation.

WOMAN OVERDOSES ON DRUGS

On Sunday, Oct. 1, at approximately 1:40 p.m., Genesee County Sheriff's deputies were dispatched for an obvious dead on arrival (DOA) at a home in the Lake Ponemah Mobile Home Park in Fenton Township. The 911 Center informed deputies the 47-year-old victim was a known drug user and had not been seen in over a week. Deputies arrived on scene and found a woman who appeared to have died several days earlier. This incident is currently under investigation.

woman reported that her daughter said the driver was white, middleaged and had an accent.

Fenton Area Public Schools Superintendent Adam Hartley sent out a letter to families within the district on Friday, Sept. 29. In that letter, he said that a man approached a 17-year-old female who was walking on LeRoy Street. He was driving a white, full-size commercial van with no windows. The driver asked the teen if she needed a ride. After telling him she did not need a ride, he approached her again, at which time she attempted to take a video with her phone.

Hartley said over the past two weeks, a handful of schools districts in Genesee County have reported stranger danger incidents. He urges parents to talk to their children about the importance of being aware of their surroundings.

Fenton schools and the police department continue to look into this incident. On Monday, Lt. Jeff Cross of the Fenton Police Department said they have received several tips, however, those tips did not lead anywhere. Police are continuing to investigate.

Another stranger danger report was filed in Grand Blanc last week. Grand Blanc Schools Superintendent Clarence Garner sent a letter to parents explaining that a high school student was walking on Grand Blanc Road on Sept. 26 when she was approached by a man in a white vehicle. The man reportedly stopped and repeatedly asked the student if she wanted a ride. The student did not talk to the driver and quickly left the scene to Just south of the Fenton area, the Livingston County Sheriff's Office worked over the weekend to make headway on the suspicious incident in Hartland Township involving a white SUV, two black males, and a child at the bus stop.

Working in conjunction with the Hartland Consolidated Schools and its Transportation Department, the sheriff's office was able to identify the vehicle and ultimately make contact with the owner. Interviews were conducted and it was determined that there was no crime, nor was there any intent of wrongdoing on anyone's behalf.

The occupants of the vehicle had business in the subdivision. They were initially lost and looking for an address, which led to a resident reporting suspicious behavior.

This incident turned out to be nothing, but the Sheriff's Office would encourage parents to have very open and frank conversations with their child and/or children about safety. Not just to and from the bus stop, but in all situations.

Nevadomski tosses five TD passes in LF's 55-0 win vs. Durand

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

There have been Lake Fenton football seasons when the team's starting quarterback finished the year with less than five touchdown passes.

It was obvious before the start of this season Jackson Nevadomski wasn't going to have that low a number of TD scores during his senior year. In fact, he earned five in one game against Durand.

Nevadomski completed all six passes he threw for 211 yards and five TDs, leading the Lake Fenton Blue Devils to a 55-0 victory against the Durand Railroaders on

"We really clicked on offense tonight and played really well," Lake Fenton varsity football coach Eric Doyle said. "It's all relative (Durand is winless) but on the same token, we needed a night like tonight. When we are clicking, we are tough to defend. We do some different stuff than we have in the past and it's mainly because we have a kid that can do it. Jackson has thrown for 250, 250 and over 200 yards in the last three weeks."

Tigers qualify for playoffs, beat Holly

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Holly — For as long as he can remember Josh Maher wanted to see his name as the player of the game on the trophy given to the winning team in the contest against rivals Fenton and Holly.

On Friday the senior earned his wish. Maher returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and had a touchdown reception of 25 yards helping the Fenton Tigers to a 42-6 Metro League victory against the Bronchos at Holly High School.

"I've been looking at that trophy for years in high school. Even in middle school I liked to check the names on it, and I'm honored its going to be me this year," Maher said. "My coach said catch it in the air (the kickoff) and I said I'm going to do more than that. All of my teammates tell me before every kick return to take it to the house. I was like I'm going to do it today. Holly is one of our rivals and I wanted to take it to them, give us an early lead and put them down.'

The win had more significance than a victory against a rival. The Tigers (6-0) clinched a playoff spot and are now just one win away from assuring at least a co-Metro League title for the seventh time in a row. That would become a new Metro League record in the league's 50year history.

"I think it's great. I think it's good we got into the playoffs," Fenton quarterback Josh Czarnota said.

Fenton XC teams capture Flint championship titles

It was a weekend of championships for the Fenton varsity cross country teams.

The Fenton girls were the top team overall at the Greater Flint High School Championships held at the Cummings Center in Mt. Morris, while the Fenton boys took the top spot in the large school division, and placed third overall.

Linden and Lake Fenton also competed at the meet. Linden's boys and girls teams each placed third in the medium school division, while the Linden boys placed fourth overall and the girls took sixth overall. The Lake ler Buchanan had the best time Fenton boys placed fourth in the medium school division and place sixth overall while the girls were 14th over-

There were three individual race champions. Fenton runners won both large school races. Alexa Keiser continued her dominance during the cross country season, capturing her sixth straight first-place finish, taking the top spot in the large school class with a time of 18:30.35.

Fenton's Adam Jesse also won the boys large school race (16:31.21), earning his second invitational win of the season. Meanwhile, Linden's Ty-

Eagles move within a game of playoff berth, crush Swartz Creek

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

The Linden varsity football team gave its homecoming crowd exactly what fans want during a homecoming game — a convincing blowout victory.

The Eagles (5-1) are now within one game of clinching a playoff spot after defeating the Swartz Creek Dragons 56-14 on Friday night.

Quarterback George Walterhouse had a big game, completing 15-of-24 passes for 238 yards and four TDs. Two of his touchdown passes were to Seeger De-Gayner. One was from 49 yards late in the second quarter, giving the Eagles a 21-0 halftime lead. Then in the third quarter, DeGayner caught a 52-yard TD pass, making it a 27-0 lead. Corbin Sines (48 yards) and Hunter Babcock (14 yards) caught the other two TD passes.

Eight points.

That's the amount of points the Holly varsity boys cross country team came short from making the squad's very respectable third-place finish at the Coaching Legends Classic into an invitational championship.

Both Holly programs had a strong showing with the girls also placing third in the 16-team fields.

Holly's boys had four runners finish in the top 20, helping the squad to the thirdplace team finish in the Blue Division event.

Sam Schneider led the Bronchos by placing sixth (16:40). Nolan Weisdorfer followed in 13th (17:11) while Cooper Frederick placed 15th (17:15). The rest of the Bronchos' varsity runners were Adam Snitgen in 20th (17:15), Brad Baxter in 30th (17:44), Kyle Carroll in 31st (17:49) and Victor Ruiz in 32nd (17:50).

The Holly girls also had a strong showing, with freshman Andrea Ruiz posting her second victory of the season.

Eagles lose in battle for first place

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com; 810-433-6789

Linden — It was only the second loss of the season for the sixth-ranked Linden Eagles on Monday against the Brandon Blackhawks.

But it was a costly one.

The Linden Eagles' chances of capturing a Metro League championship turned seriously bleak after Brandon posted a 2-1 victory at Linden High School.

The loss gave Brandon a 6-0-0 league record with just two games remaining while Linden fell to 5-1-1 with just one game left. Linden needs to win their last league contest and needs to hope the Blackhawks do no better than earn one draw in their last two league contests in order to earn at least a co-league title.

It was a tough loss for one more reason, it was apparent the Eagles didn't play "Linden" soccer. The Eagles had troubles stringing more than a couple of passes in a row and struggled mightily on defense, particularly against Brandon's Javier Lozano, who eventually scored one of Brandon's two goals. When the Eagles fell behind 2-1 early in the second half, Linden's offense struggled to even get a shot off, collecting just three in the second half overall. Aggression-wise, the Eagles also struggled, losing the bulk of the 50-50 balls against an aggressive Blackhawks' squad looking to defend their co-title from a year ago.

"We hardly strung any passes together and we didn't play Linden soccer," Linden varsity boys soccer coach Kevin Fiebernitz said. "Our back line was absolutely horrendous. There was no shape back there, no nothing. I don't think we won a 50-50 ball hardly at all. It's a recipe for disaster and we got to lick our wounds and move on."

"It's hard to say (what went wrong)," Linden senior Carson Birchmeier said.

TRI-COUNTY TIMES I DAVID TROPPENS

Fenton's Rachael Rittichier won the 100-yard breaststroke against Brandon and Pinckney in the Tigers' double-dual win.

Tight-knit Tigers sweep Brandon, Pinckney in recent meet

By David Troppens

dtroppens@tctimes.com

Fenton — The Fenton varsity girls swim team likes to say they are a tight-knit group.

But how close are they? Well, senior Rachel Rittichier did a good job explaining it after a recent meet.

"Our team spends so much time together in the pool, if one person gets sick then everybody gets sick," Rittichier said

That's a good way of putting it. Sick or not, the Fenton Tigers took care of their two foes on Thursday. The Tigers defeated Metro League opponents Brandon 113-56 and also beat Pinckney 115-57 in a three-team meet at Fenton High School. The Tigers didn't even know the Pinckney Pirates were going to be a part of the meet until about five minutes before it started.

"We were in the water warming up with Brandon then we saw this team come walking in and we were wondering who is this," Rittichier said.

PREP REPORT

GIRLS GOLF

▶ Byron 214, Linden 214: Byron earned the victory based on the fifth golfer score tiebreaker. Linden's Payton Leedle won medalist honors with a 44 while Heather Crampton shot a 51. Isable Wright carded a 53 while Deanna Jenkinson carded a 66. Jillian Wright shot a 68 while Kylee Mason played in her first-ever competition and shot a 73.

VOLLEYBALL

▶ Fenton at Saline Tournament: The Tigers went 1-1-1 in pool play and eventually took first in the Silver Division by defeating Divine Child 25-6, 25-12 in that division's final. Fenton beat Ann Arbor Greenhills in the semifinal 25-21, 25-16.

Chloe Idoni led the offense with 56 kills in the tournament. She also had 37 digs and six blocks. Chloe McKenzie had 20 kills. Sydney Acho set the offense, recording 88 assists. Defensively, Macyn Stevens had 24 digs while Erin Carter had nine total blocks. Lily Elfstrom had six aces.

BOYS SOCCER

▶ Fenton 3, Flushing 1: The Tigers pulled into a tie for second place in the Metro League (5-1-1) with the Linden Eagles after earning Monday's win. Fenton scored three second-half goals to capture the win. Chase Poulson assisted two Kevin Pojer goals and then scored his own on a header off a corner kick. Owen O'Brien assisted Poulson's goal with the cross.

The Tigers still have a faint chance at earning at least a co-Metro League title. Fenton needs to win its final Metro contest (today at home against Swartz Creek) and hope league leader Brandon does no better than tie one of its final two games to earn a co-title.

BOYS MIDDLE SCHOOL CROSS COUNTRY

Horoscopes For the week of October 2, 2017

ARIES

Mar 21/Apr 20

Aries, it may seem like you have long been preparing for a big event. Now is your chance to finally take action. Try to do something proactive this week. You are ready to move forward.

TAURUS

Apr 21/May 21

Taurus, reality is setting in this week, and you realize just how much you need to catch up on. There is no more room for procrastination. It is time to get busy.

GEMINI May 22/Jun 21

Gemini, an attitude about a particular relationship is changing, and you may need to go with the flow. This may result in some self-doubt, but you can make it through.

CANCER

Jun 22/Jul 22

Cancer, shifting circumstances at work may leave you a little confused. Reassess your situation and come up with a new plan. Work collectively toward the goal.

LEO

Jul 23/Aug 23

Your inspiration comes from a blend of methodical planning as well as clever inspiration, Leo. The results will be exceptional if you keep at it.

VIRGO

Aug 24/Sept 22

Virgo, even if you step out of your comfort zone, you will not venture too far. That is fine by you since you tend to be a creature of habit. Just expand your reach a little bit.

Sept 23/Oct 23

Your friendly attitude can be just what others need in the week ahead, Libra. They simply cannot resist your charms, and you can help them to settle down

SCORPIO Oct 24/Nov 22

Scorpio, recognition is coming your way. Embrace the attention and recognize that it is not unfounded. You earned the praise about to be heaped on you.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23/Dec 21

Sagittarius, you may head in one direction only to find that you might have been better off going elsewhere. Eventually you will get your bearings.

CAPRICORN Dec 22/Jan 20

Take a risk at work, Capricorn. If you consistently sit in the shadows, then you won't ever get ahead. Try a few things to make an impact without generating big waves.

AQUARIUS Jan 21/Feb 18

Making decisions this week requires little effort on your part. Aquarius. That's because all of your stress has melted away in the last few days and things are relatively easy.

PISCES

Feb 19/Mar 20

Pisces, even though everything seems predictable right now, things are about to get a little backwards in the next few days.
