Retired chiropractor pens book on family’s Ukrainian roots

■ Says ‘history is repeating itself’ with Russian president attempting to cripple Ukraine’s economy in order to overthrow

By Vera Hogan

The only way to preserve family history as it relates to the world around us is to write the chapters we know ourselves. This is especially important when that history appears to be repeating itself.

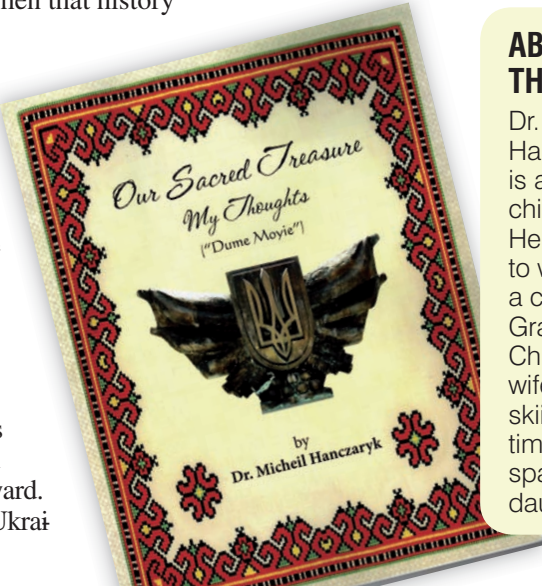

That’s exactly what Dr. Micheil Hanczaryk of Fenton Township did when he penned “Our Sacred Treasure: My Thoughts” (‘Dume Moyie’). Published in 2018, Hanczaryk’s book is not just an ancestral record, it used real characters, his family, to teach readers what it was like to live in just one corner of our war-torn earth, specifically the Ukraine, during the first world wars.

“‘Dume Moyie’ is the title of a popular Ukrainian folk song that I grew up hearing my parents singing while attending various Ukrainian social functions with family and friends,” Hanczaryk said in the book’s forward.

“‘Dume Moyie’ means ‘my thoughts in Ukrai nian. The words in the song tell of an abandoned and displaced person in a foreign land longing for their family, homeland and all that is dear to them in the hopes that one day they will return home,” he continued. “This written version of ‘Dume Moyie’ is actually my parent’s own personal experiences and memories of their adolescent years in Ukraine during and after the cataclysmic events surrounding World War II.”

From the Editor

Have you ever driven down the road and wondered where did all that garbage come from and who would intentionally throw trash out while driving? I'm guessing that much of the trash that dots the edges of our roads has flown out of the bed of pickup trucks, has fallen from garbage trucks or has even been left behind after crashes. I found out just how bad the local trash problem is after catching up with a local man who has become a one-man anti-trash crusader.

For many driving in the Fenton and Linden area, they have probably seen a gentleman walking along North Road, Rolston Road, Adelaide Street, Bridge Street and other roads picking up litter. He parks his car and works alone. I've seen him many times and wondered who he is and why is he out there day after day picking up other's trash. I finally recognized this man as one of my neighbors and asked him why he did this all the time.

He was pretty reluctant to bring attention to himself but Mark Shantz of Fenton Township said, "It's just one way to give back to the community. Plus I hate litter and it gives me some exercise."

Mark said he's been picking up trash for about three years, from spring to autumn, when no snow is on the ground. I asked him what was the craziest items he has picked up and he said he's picked up anything from needles (he's cautious), to car parts, numerous empty hard liquor bottles, money, shoes, literally anything. He said the biggest amount of trash is tobacco products and liquor bottles. "It's significant," he said. He thinks the number of whisky and vodka bottles indicates there is a real drinking and driving problem in this area. He has also picked up about 35 tires in the last three years.

He takes them to a local tire shop to have them disposed of properly. Overall, Mark estimates he has picked up 2,000 bags of trash. "I just pick an area and do it," he said. Once he's cleared an area, he'll check it later and do another sweep to make sure it remains clean. "I want the place to look nice. It's my way of giving back. One person can make a difference. I'd rather do something than complain," he said. He appreciates the waves and honks as people drive by and he's always keeping an eye out to make sure he doesn't get hit. Mark just wishes people would just keep their own area picked up. On a side note, he said last week, he even found a wallet along North Road that contained a driver's license and credit cards. He turned it in to Fenton police, hoping they will return it to the owner.

Jackson men charged with passing fake $100 bills

■ Fenton police arrest pair after they allegedly purchased gift cards with counterfeit money

By Sharon Stone

Two Jackson residents have been charged with passing counterfeit $100 bills Wednesday, April 24 at businesses on Silver Parkway in Fenton.

Eddie B. Simmons, 22, was arraigned Saturday, April 27 in Genesee County 67th District Court on two counts of uttering and publishing counterfeit bills or notes. He was lodged in the Genesee County Jail over the weekend. A personal bond of $10,000 was set on each count. He is expected back in court May 9 for a probable cause conference.

Simmons' co-defendant, Robert L. Taylor, 20, also was arraigned Saturday,

Robert Taylor

Police Department arrested two adult males Wednesday, April 24 for passing counterfeit $100 bills at four different businesses on Silver Parkway.

Lt. Jeff Cross said police believed the suspects attempted to pass the fake bills at several other businesses, as well. Several counterfeit bills were passed in exchange for gift cards. Cross said police believe there are other suspects involved, however they have not confirmed this yet.

Each charge carries a possible penalty of five years in prison and/or a $2,500 fine.

April 27, however, he faces three counts of uttering and publishing counterfeit bills or notes. A personal bond of $5,000 was set on each count and he too was lodged in the county jail over the weekend. A probable cause conference is set for May 9.

defense attorney Frank Manley in the courtroom of Judge Richard Yuille of the Genesee County 7th Circuit Court.

However, Akl will have to wait a little longer because his case was adjourned. Neither Akl nor Manley were present, and a new date will be set.

The last movement in Akl's case was May 7, 2018, when his case was bound over for a jury trial from the 67th District Court. He has remained in custody since the incident.

This case is about the shooting death of Akl's friend Brady Alan Morris. In the basement of Akl's family home, Akl allegedly shot Morris, 18, on March 4, 2017.

Akl was arraigned March 10, 2017 and he underwent competency exams. Evidence such as the police tapes were played in district court. He was eventually declared fit to stand trial. On May 7, 2018, he was bound over to circuit court for a jury trial.

The Times will report the next trial date when it becomes available.

Background

According to investigative reports from the Genesee County Sheriff's Office, at approximately 11 p.m. on March 4, 2017, Genesee County Sheriff's deputies and the Fenton Police Department were dispatched to 14170 Moffett Dr. in Fenton Township in response to a 911 call regarding a male with a gunshot wound to the head.

Akl was immediately taken into custody and a semi-automatic pistol was found on the front porch and secured by police.

The two teens, who were reportedly friends, were alone on the first floor of the residence when the shooting occurred. Other members of Akl's family and one other guest were on the second and third floors.

According to the autopsy report, it appears that Morris was shot from behind at point blank range on the top left side of his head.

With bond denied, Akl has remained in custody at the Genesee Valley Regional Center since his arrest.

FENTON TOWNSHIP MAN GETS JAIL TIME, PROBATION

Joseph Medor, 54, of Fenton Township was sentenced April 23 to 30 days in the Genesee County Jail and then 18 months probation. He will also have court costs and fines. On Sept. 13, 2018, Fenton police responded to Swanee Beach Drive to investigate a complaint. The caller told the dispatcher that a man who might be intoxicated was yelling at neighbors. A description of the vehicle was provided to police. An officer located the vehicle and initiated a traffic stop. Contact was made with the driver, later identified as Medor. He was arrested for operating a vehicle while intoxicated.

Gerrymandering

On April 25, 2019, a three-judge panel of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan issued its opinion in League of Women Voters of Michigan v. Jocelyn Benson, Michigan Secretary of State.

The court found that 27 of the federal and state election districts drawn and approved by the Republican controlled Michigan legislature in 2011 constituted unconstitutional partisan gerrymandering in violation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments.

Gerrymandering is the drawing of election districts to favor a particular political party.

The remedies included an injunction prohibiting the use of these districts for future elections, that there be a remedial redistricting plan drawn and approved by the state by Aug. 1, 2019, and to have a special State Senate election in 2020 for the affected districts.

If a new redistricting plan isn't submitted by the deadline, the court will implement one of its own.

Published reports indicate that there will be an appeal.

The following is what could happen next.

Typically, an appeal would be heard by a federal appeals court. However, because this case was heard by a three-judge panel, which issued an injunction, by federal statute, the appeal will go directly to the United States Supreme Court.

This is a narrow exception to the rule that the Supreme Court only allows appeals in cases that it chooses to consider by what is called "granting a writ of certiorari."

Additionally, there are now pending gerrymandering cases before the Supreme Court from Maryland and North Carolina which may impact the Michigan case.

Some legal commentators have indicated that because there isn't a recognized "judicially manageable standard" as to the limits of gerrymandering, the court may decide to not involve itself in any of the cases.

Others have suggested that because the court majority is conservative, the lower courts which found constitutional violations will be reversed.

Of course no one knows for sure.

What we do know is that in Michigan

Our Future

Eric Niestroy

- Lake Fenton High School senior
- Cross country/track and field
- Future teacher and coach

By Sally Rummel

Eric Niestroy, 17, is a senior at Lake Fenton High School, where he has had an active high school career in varsity cross country, track and field and baseball. He also has competed during the winter at indoor track meets for three years as an individual athlete. A member of Lake Fenton's Key Club, Niestroy volunteered several times during the year in the community. He is the son of James and Susan Niestroy of Fenton Township. He has a sister, Kendall, 20, and a brother, Nathan, 15.

What are your plans after graduation?

I plan to attend Saginaw Valley State University to major in secondary education and will be running cross country and track there.

How do you define yourself now as a high school student and how different do you think you'll be five years from now?

I define myself as a very friendly, respectful, hardworking high school student. In five years, I hope to have graduated with a degree from Saginaw Valley State University, be teaching and possibly coaching as well.

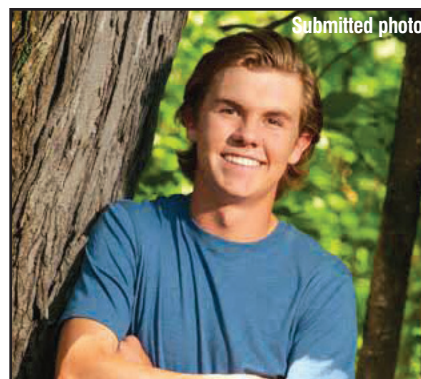

What difference has running made in your life?

It has helped me make great friendships over the four years of high school. It also has taught me that if you want something in life you're going to have work for it. Running has become something I love to do, from just going on a small jog with friends to racing in 2022, there will be all new federal and state election districts as a result of the 2018 voter approved Independent Redistricting Commission.

A decision on the two pending cases is expected in June.

It will indeed be interesting to see how this all turns out.

during cross country season and track. It is something I hope I can do for a long time.

What's the best movie you've ever seen?

"Without Limits" is a movie my cross country coach would have us watch the night before the regional meet. In the movie, it shows the story of Steve Prefontaine and how he changed the running world. To me, it was one of the most inspiring movies I have seen and really shows what it's like to be a runner.

What's the kindest thing a friend has ever done for you?

During my freshman year when I first joined cross country, our senior captain, Jacob Fletcher, became my mentor. He took me under his wing and showed me what cross country was all about. He showed me that the work you put into this sport is what the sport will give back to you. On top of all that, he really held me accountable when it came to going to morning practices and doing my best. He would give me rides to practice and was truly a great leader and friend to me.

What experience has shaped you more than anything else?

It would be a running camp I attended last summer in the Steen Mountains in Oregon. I did some of the most physically and mentally challenging things in my life. I learned a lot about the person I am, the leader I needed to be for my team and the person I want to become when I am older.

What career excites you?

Teaching and helping people is something I have always enjoyed. I enjoy leading and helping the younger freshman and sophomores on our cross country team and I enjoy volunteering at our elementary and intermediate school. Helping others learn and grow is something important to me. I look forward to teaching after college and possibly coaching as well.

STEAM Museum comes to elementary students

Games show students that science can be fun

By Hannah Ball

Linden — Coding with robots. Building with blocks that create an arch. Seeing how a 3-D printer works.

The STEAM Museum came to Hyatt Elementary students Friday, April 26 to show students how science can be interesting and fun. STEAM stands for science, technology, engineering, arts and math. The purpose of these programs is to encourage young children to consider a future in math and sciences.

“It’s education, a little bit of entertainment,” said Rick Reed, employee with Mobile Ed Productions Inc, which created the STEAM Museum. “Instead of worrying about having to bring everyone on a field trip or a museum, we bring things to you.”

The different stations included bump-a-light, where two opponents face off to hit as many lit up buttons as they could “whack-a-mole” style. Reed said this station is meant to show students how electricity and science can be used for fun.

Students delighted in building an arch and then knocking it down. This helped them visualize how common the arch structure is, from doorways to the rafters in the Hyatt Elementary gymnasium.

Students played with liquid magnets and put together gears to better understand machines. At the music-making station, they created various beats, and at the robotics station, they “programmed” a small robot to follow a line on an iPad. This is an easy version of programming and coding. The STEAM pinball machine incorporated numbers and colors into a fun game.

The chamber has 103 now and Kullis expects to reach 125 members by the end of summer. After that, he thinks 150 members are attainable.

He maintains that they wouldn't have come close without the goal. He said there were some high fives when they finally reached their 100th member.

"The (Holly) Village is very business friendly, and it shows," Chamber Executive Director Richard Kinnamon said. "I think people will be impressed by the businesses that will soon be locating here. There are also many new homes filling the once empty subdivisions."

Interesting new businesses include Jobe Technology, a multimillion-dollar business now located in Holly.

Kullis said it took showing the benefits of a chamber to potential members to attract new businesses. "You want to nurture your business district; you want to bring business to town," he said.

The highway billboards, ads in local magazines and monthly breakfasts had been revived to bring chamber members together.

Members also learn from experts who can offer advice on topics such as better business financing and social networking. "That's the kind of stuff chambers are supposed to do," Kullis said.

Because it's the Holly "area" chamber they've initiated making connections and plans outside the village in places like the developing Groveland Township business corridor.

Through its website, the chamber is working to link hotels to the off-road vehicle (ORV) park. The hotels are in Fenton and Grand Blanc, but could still benefit from the park in Groveland Township.

There's also a portal for the Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly Township, another big draw to the area.

"We are the one place business and community comes together," Kinnamon said.

“Holly is seeing significant growth. Businesses are finding Holly to be a great place to set up shop.”

BOAT SLIP

city, this request is being discussed in two municipalities because the majority of its parking is a few parcels to the west in Fenton Township. Riparians on Silver and Marl lakes also packed a Fenton Township board meeting on March 18 to express their concerns.

The Michigan Department of Environmental Quality (MDEQ) approved the permit for more slips. The area is zoned C-2 General Business, and the parking lots in Fenton Township are an existing nonconforming area.

If Silver Spray Sports expands a nonconforming area, they would have to submit a new site plan and adhere to current zoning laws, which could include setbacks and requirements for parking.

Commissioner Susan Yeotis made a motion to table the issue until the city has a meeting with Fenton Township. Her motion passed, however, a date for the meeting has not yet been scheduled.

Major vs. minor change

Debate ensued over whether adding 17 boat slips was a major or minor site plan change.

Mike Reilly, Fenton City building inspector and zoning administrator, considered the request to add 17 boat slips a minor change because he took into account the entire business operation. This includes not only the marina, but also the storage facility and the rest of the buildings owned and used by the Smiths, the owners.

"I'm looking at the entire use," Reilly said. "They're not making any changes to the parking either."

If it's a major site plan change, the city automatically conducts a site plan review, which could also allow them to add requirements. This could include requiring them to improve their parking lots.

A few commissioners did not agree with Reilly's assessment. George Rizik, attorney for Silver and Marl Lake Association, challenged the minor classification and said the ordinance used to find that determination depends on having an approved site plan. Rizik said there is no approved site plan for the property.

CIB Consultant Justin Sprague said on Tuesday, April 30, the city found a copy of a site plan of the marina from 2002.

Does it meet Fenton Planning Commission requirements?

Silver Spray Sports is required to show they can accommodate at least 60 parking spaces in the city—one per slip, plus 10 for their retail business. Approximately 45 of these spots are in Fenton Township, which Sprague said makes it a township issue.

Michael Deem, Fenton Township zoning administrator, said he met with Fenton officials Tuesday, April 30. The city shared Silver Spray Sports submitted site plan. Deem said the township will review it to see how it fits with their zoning ordinance.

Fenton City CIB Consultant Justin Sprague said, "This site plan, to me, demonstrates that they have the capability of meeting our standards."

He gave a recommendation to approve the request for 17 more slips. City attorney Chris Patterson said even though part of the business parking is in the township, the city has control over the site plan.

"Even though a parcel actually exists outside of a township ... hypothetically, we're going to treat it as the applicant telling us we're satisfying the off street parking conditions with this parcel," he said.

Yeotis asked if the traffic engineer could look at the plan to ensure they have enough parking spaces also to accommodate trailers. Rizik said because part of the parking is in Fenton Township, Silver Spray Sports would have to adhere to township ordinances, which includes a requirement that any use in a C-2 district has to be 80 feet from any residential property boundary. This encroaches on the Smiths' parking plans.

Will adding 17 more boat slips affect boat traffic on Silver Lake?

Sprague said this is not a standard of approval for their ordinance. He read a letter from a representative from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources stating that the DNR does not have standards or established criteria for how many boats should be on a lake.

"Under this ordinance, if you think there is a detriment to health and safety and welfare, you could find grounds to deny the special land use. We have no standards to determine whether it's a detriment to health, safety and welfare because the DNR and DEQ have punted it and said we don't have standards," he said.

Patti Smith, co-owner of Silver Spray Sports with her husband, Jeff, said they have not requested any review or action by Fenton Township because they have not been required to. They did not have prior knowledge of the March Fenton Township meeting.

"We're not expanding our existing parking. We're not making any improvements or changes to our parking situation near our lakeside building to accommodate our additional slip customers. Our current parking is sufficient to accommodate our current and additional customers," she said.

Patti Smith showed a letter from the Fenton Township zoning administrator that said their existing parking is permitted use. They are also allowed overflow parking under Article 6 of the township zoning ordinance. She said their slip customers randomly come and go and are never all at the marina at once.

“Our current parking is sufficient to accommodate our current and additional customers.”

Students leap over obstacles symbolizing the inner functions of the heart, set up by teacher Amy Mowery (right.) Photo: Tim Jagielo

Fun at the Health and Fitness Fair

By Tim Jagielo

Fenton — Last week, T omek-Eastern Elementary Students traced the path blood takes through the heart, and elevated their own heart rates in the process.

Through T uesday, April 23, Wednesday, April 24 and Thursday, April 25, all 500 students were able to take part in the daylong Health and Fitness Fair.

“It reinforces what they’re learn- ing about both nutrition and the way the heart works,” physical education teacher Amy Mowery said.

In the “Heart Adventure,” students first take blue playground balls, symbolizing deoxygenated blood as it hits the heart.

They run through an obstacle course representing the path blood takes through the heart. They exchange the blue spheres for red ones when the blood picks up more oxygen.

Outside the gym, there’s a sampling of fresh healthy food that represents all the food groups. They included fruit smoothies and chicken salad.

against the teen. Rollins is expected to be arraigned in Genesee County 67th District Court on five counts of larceny of firearms now that his related court case in Oakland County has been bound over for trial. He was lodged in the Genesee County Jail over the weekend, according to court records.

As previously reported in the T imes, Rollins’ arrest came after area schools were placed on secure mode T uesday morning, March 12, while several police departments investigated a report of an unaccounted for Linden teen, Rollins, and four stolen weapons. Rollins was taken into custody and arrested several hours later in Holly.

His parents had notified authorities when they discovered guns missing from their home and learned their son had not shown up for school. Local school districts were advised to go into secure mode as a precaution.

Linden Police Chief Scott Sutter said police initially believed Rollins would be charged with four counts of larceny of firearms after Rollins allegedly stole a rifle, shotgun and two handguns from his parent’s home in Linden. Sutter said police later learned there was a fifth stolen weapon, another shotgun.

Linden police and the Genesee County Sheriff’s Office investigated the situation and interviewed students at Lake Fenton High School. Police followed leads to Holly, at which time the Holly Police Department became involved.

Holly police were dispatched to an apartment where Rollins was said to be visiting a friend. While Linden police were en route, Holly police observed Rollins walk out of an apartment and arrested him. Holly police reported Rollins had a 9mm handgun in his waistband. That handgun was recovered, as well as another handgun that was found in the apartment.

Based on police questioning students, Argentine Township police were dis- patched to a home on Lahring Road in Argentine Township where a friend of Rollins lives. Arifle and shotgun reported stolen were recovered from the home.

Hanczaryk said that what started as a document of his family’s history evolved into a primer of the events in Eastern Europe. “As teens, my parents were captured by the Nazis in their native Ukraine and used as forced slave labor- ers,” he said. “Initially escaping, they were recaptured and brought to Germany in cattle cars.”

Hanczaryk said this is not just a story of his parent’s ordeal, but that of millions of Ukrainians.

“History is repeating itself,” Hanc- zaryk said. “T oday, Russia’s President (Vladimir) Putin used the exact same three points as (Adolf) Hitler to justify invading Ukraine’s Crimea. The signifi- cance of this is that this is the first time since WW II that a sovereign nation has been invaded and lands seized.”

An international incident occurred on Nov. 25, 2018 when the Russian Federal Security Service (FSB) coast guard fired upon and captured three Ukrainian Navy vessels attempting to pass from the Black Sea into the Sea of Azov through the Kerch Strait on their way to the port of Mariupol.

Forty percent of Ukraine’s imports arrive through the Black Sea. “Putin is attempting to cripple Ukraine’s economy with its eventual overthrow,” Hanczaryk said.

Hanczaryk’s book is a brief (56 pag- es) biographical record of the unique events in his parent’s lives, primarily revolving around the war “My parent’s names are Stefania (Litnianska) and Anton Hanczaryk,” he said. “While some of the events described are a bit graphic, they are true and I feel they need to be recorded for our family.

“It is my hope that in some small way by me documenting their story it may be possible to prevent such events like this from happening again,” he said.

Blue Devils win extra-inning thriller vs. Montrose Rams

By David Troppens

People love talking about “walk-off” wins in baseball and softball.

Is it possible to have a “walk-off” victory on a passed ball? If it is, the Lake Fenton varsity baseball team enjoyed one against Montrose.

Lake Fenton captured a 9-8 victory against the Rams when Cam MacNeill scored from third base in the bottom of the eighth inning on a passed ball.

Hunter Schramm started the inning with a single and MacNeill walked. James Hamilton was walked, loading the bases with no out. An out later, the bases were still loaded when Conner Steffey came to the plate. However, the first pitch he faced was a passed ball, allowing MacNeill to score.

Fenton baseball sweeps Dragons in Metro action

By David Troppens

The Fenton varsity baseball team used a little bit of everything to earn a double-header sweep against the Swartz Creek Dragons.

The Tigers used their offense to win an 11-9 eight-inning contest against the Dragons and then used their pitching to win the second game 6-0 in a contest shortened to five innings due to darkness.

The opening game was filled with offensive craziness. The Tigers (2-2 in the Metro and 4-6 overall) scored four runs in the second and four in the fourth, and led 8-0 before the Dragons batted in the bottom of the fourth. However, Swartz Creek scored seven runs in the bottom of the fourth and two runs in the fifth to take a 9-8 lead. Fenton tied it up with a run in the seventh and then won the game in the eighth on a Swartz Creek effort, plating two runs.

Tigers perfect in Metro, face Holly in key league match

By David Troppens

When the varsity girls soccer season began, Matt Sullivan knew one thing about his Fenton squad.

He knew they were going to have fun. Of course, it's a lot easier to do that when a team is winning, and that's what the Tigers are doing as well.

Fenton improved to 5-0 in Metro League action with a 5-0 victory against Clio on Monday.

“We just keep moving forward and keep having fun,” Sullivan said. “This group of seniors is determined to have fun and they are having fun.”

One player having a lot of fun lately is Lauren Murphy. Murphy paced the Tigers' offense against Clio, recording her third three-goal hat trick of the season. Callie Dickens provided Fenton's other two goals. Kirsten Foor, Celeste Hindmon, Mallory Lehman, Murphy and Dickens had an assist each.

The Tigers' defense was impressive as well. Led by Shelby Murphy, Foor, Lauren Hayden and Makayla Murphy, the Mustangs managed 10 shots, with keeper Lauren Koscielniak making every save she needed to preserve the shutout.

Area track squads thrive at large Brighton Invitational

By David Troppens

Brandon Miller and the Fenton varsity boys track and field team made a statement at the Brighton Invitational on Saturday.

In a meet that had 20 teams, the Tigers came home with first. Lake Fenton and Linden also competed at the event.

Miller had a huge day, earning a first in four events. He won the 100-meter dash (1:1.35) and the 200 (22.35) individually, and was part of two winning relays. He teamed with Ethan Pyeatt, Charles Hundzinski and Ryan Miller to take first in the 400 relay (44.56) and with Pyeatt, Noah Sage and Ryan Miller to win the 800 relay (1:30.45).

The Fenton boys had one more individual first. Justin Miller took the top spot in the high jump (6-4).

The area had plenty of other boys earn top-eight efforts. Pyeatt also had a strong day, earning third in the 400 (51.17) individually. Teammate Noah Sage also earned a third in the 200 (22.99).

Linden's Tyler Buchanan and Garrett Durkac had two performances within the top eight. Durkac was fourth in the shot put (46-11) and fifth in the discus (136-9), while Buchanan was fourth in the 1,600 (4:26.82) and seventh in the 800 (2:03.46).

“Tyler just keeps chipping away at his time,” Linden track coach Ben Cox said.

Eagles shut down Lapeer, Kearsley in recent games

By David Troppens

Linden varsity girls soccer coach Kevin Fiebertz knows he has a young team that's still developing.

There have been a few times when the squad has shown its youth and struggled. However, there have been other times when the team has shown what its potential truly is.

Over its last two games, the Eagles have shown how talented they are, earning shutout victories against Lapeer and Kearsley.

The Eagles (8-3 overall) played strong defense and earned a 3-0 victory at home against Lapeer on Friday. Linden followed that game up with a contest against one of the second-division squads of the Metro League, and took care of business, crushing the Kearsley Hornets 8-0.

The Eagles didn't give Kearsley a chance to remain competitive for very long, taking a 6-0 lead into halftime.

Linden (2-2 in the Metro) eventually earned the eight-goal mercy-rule victory, scoring two more goals in the second half.

Sophomore Alexis Mawhinney was the brightest offensive star against Kearsley. She scored four goals, leading the way to the victory.

Linden softball wins Claire Invitational

By David Troppens

The Linden varsity softball team has won its first title of the spring.

The Eagles won both of their games at the Claire Invitational, earning the championship.

The Eagles opened the tournament with a 16-5 victory against Sacred Heart and then defeated tournament hosts Claire 10-5 in the title game.

The Eagles didn't start the tournament very well. Sacred Heart led 3-0 after two innings, but the Eagles tied it with two runs in the third and one in the fourth. Sacred Heart retook the lead with two runs in the fifth, making it a 5-3 deficit for the Eagles. Linden responded with an eight-run sixth and a five-run seventh.

The eight-run sixth began with a Maddie Morse double. An out later, Avery Koan, Rachel Pudney and Jillian Wright each walked, plating the fourth Linden run.

Fenton, Linden, LF compete at Brighton invite

By David Troppens

The Fenton varsity girls track and field team had a pretty good showing at the Brighton Bulldog Invitational on Saturday.

The Tigers had 10 individual top-eight efforts at the 20-team event, including two firsts.

Cassandra Campbell probably had the best day among the Tigers. She earned one of the firsts, taking it in the 300-meter hurdles (46.22). She also placed second in the 100 hurdles (15.13).

The other first was posted by Alexa Keiser. She won the 3,200 meter run with a time of 10:59.62.

Katie Klump had the team's best field event performance. The freshman took second in the long jump (16-foot-0 3/4). The long jump was probably the Tigers' best event considering teammate Vien Sturm was fourth (15-6 3/4).

Other individual performers who earned top-eight efforts for Fenton were Taylor Hunt-oon, sixth in the 400 (1:03.00), Klump, fifth in the 100 (13.22), Cambria Tiemann, sixth in the 800 (2:26.57), Kierra Ryan, eighth in the 1,600 (5:55.66) and Abbey Lee, eighth in the 3,200 (12:00.73).

Linden's squad also was at the event, but were unable to post any top-eight individual efforts. The Eagles had two relays place in the top eight.

MICHIGAN VOTES

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITY

MichiganVotes.org is a free, non-partisan website created by the Mackinac Center for Public Policy to provide concise, non-partisan, plain-English descriptions of every bill and vote in the Michigan House and Senate. This report was released Friday, April 19.

Senate Bill 61: Authorize unposted 25 mph limit on non-subdivision residential streets

To establish an unposted speed limit of 25 mph on streets including highway segments that are designated as "local," if the local jurisdiction has designated the road to be part of their street system, and if it is within land zoned for residential use. This would apply until 2024, and by 2023, the Michigan State Police would have to complete a speed study on roads of this type to determine what the permanent limits and posting requirements should be. Under current law, subdivision streets are automatically considered to have a 25 mph speed limit and no speed limit signs need be posted; the bill would have the effect of extending this posting exception to other residential streets that are not in subdivisions.
