GET OUT THE SOAP

Grandma and Grandpa are swearing again

WHAT IN THE SAM HILL

Ever wondered who Sam Hill was and what he did so wrong to have elders yelling out his name all the time ("What in the Sam Hill are you talking about, boy?") Well, many Sam Hills have existed, but none of them spawned the old saying, which is simply another way of saying "Hell" without actually saying it. It dates to the early 19th century.

One possible origin for the phrase "Sam Hill" is the surveyor Samuel W. Hill (1819–1889). Hill allegedly used such foul language that his name became a euphemism for swear words. photo: livinggold press.com

Compiled By Vera Hogan

Don't let your grandparents fool you because back in the day they could curse like crazy, too. The thing is, they used different words and phrases, all of which seem tame by today's standards, but at the time probably infuriated their parents and grandparents. Here are a few of them:

SON OF A GUN

It's pretty hard to definitively know where any type of slang originated, but one possible origin is that it actually means "son of a military man." The British Navy, in particular, allowed women (wives, prostitutes, what have you) on sailing vessels, and as a result, children were occasionally born onboard. So, on the birth certificate the child's father (if paternity was uncertain) would be listed as "son of a gun," translated to "son of a military man." Even if the baby was a girl. photo: boxels.com

WHAT IN TARNATION

Here's another old-timey phrase you'd hear on TV Westerns. The word "tarnation," which dates back to the 18th century, comes from "darnation" which is derived from "damnation." It's also associated with another "curse word," "tarnal," which is a form of "eternal." Put the two together and you have eternal damnation. photo: twitter.com

DADGUMMIT

Call it what you will—saying dadgummit or dagnabbit are simply ways your grandparents got around breaking any biblical commandments against "taking the Lord's name in vain" outright. Replace the first part with "God" and the second part with "damnit," and you get the picture easily enough.

The origin of "dadgummit" is rumored to be the hit television show "The Real McCoys," which starred Walter Brennan as Grandpa Amos, for whom "dadgummit" became his epic, country-boy, redneck catchphrase. photo: reelgood.com

H-E-DOUBLE-HOCKEY-STICKS

Our grandparents really thought they were getting away with swearing with this phrase, but we're all bright enough to know that H-E-double-hockey-sticks is just another way to say "Hell." photo: pinterest.com

THAILAND

The boat-filled Chao Phraya River feeds its network of canals, flowing past the Rattanakosin royal district, home to opulent Grand Palace and its sacred Wat Phra Kaew Temple. Nearby is Wat Pho Temple with an enormous reclining Buddha and, on the opposite shore, Wat Arun Temple with its steep steps and Khmer-style spire.

Phuket

Phuket (pronounced 'Poo-ket or Poo-get,' a rainforested, mountainous island in the Andaman Sea, has some of Thailand's most popular beaches, mainly situated along the clear waters of the western shore. The island is home to many high-end seaside resorts, spas and restaurants. Phuket City, the capital, has old shophouses and busy markets. Patong, the main resort town, has many nightclubs, bars and discos.

Chiang Mai

Chiang Mai is a city in mountainous northern Thailand. Founded in 1296, it was capital of the independent Lanna Kingdom until 1558. Its Old City area still retains vestiges of walls and moats from its history as a cultural and religious center. It's also home to hundreds of elaborate Buddhist temples, including 14th-century Wat Phra Singh and 15th-century Wat Chedi Luang, adorned with carved serpents.

Ko Samui

Ko Samui, Thailand's second largest island, lies in the Gulf of Thailand off the east coast of the Kra Isthmus. It's known for its palm-fringed beaches, coconut groves and dense, mountainous rainforest, plus luxury resorts and posh spas. The landmark golden Big Buddha statue at Wat Phra Yai Temple is on a tiny island connected to Ko Samui by a causeway.

Culture

The combination of the Thai lifestyle, the food, the Buddhism, the people, the magical islands and the inspiring temples is why they call this "the country of smiles." The capital is a melting pot of cultures, which provides amazing places to see in Bangkok.

Some things to know, however, are:

- Don't badmouth royalty
- Do cover up your body in temples
- Do take your shoes off inside
- Don't climb on the Buddha symbols
- Don't touch people's heads
- Don't chew gum. By law, chewing gum — with the exception of dental or nicotine gum — may not be bought or sold. If you get caught spitting out your gum on the streets, you can be fined up to $700.

Airfare

Airfare from Detroit to Bangkok ranges from $890 to $2,587.

Hotels

Hotel accommodations in Thailand are relatively inexpensive compared to the United States. Rooms can be rented from as low as $14 a night at the Nasa Vegas Hotel in Bangkok, to $132 for 5-star accommodations at the Amari Watgate Bangkok.

Currency

In Thailand they use the Thai Baht and 1 U.S. dollar is about 30 Thai Baht. The currency exchange changes over time, but in general, the Thai Baht is considered stable.

Language

The main language spoken in Thailand is Thai. English is the most common second language, and many Thais have studied some level of English either at school or through practice with foreign friends.

Weather

The best time to visit Thailand is between November and early April. Not only is it the driest part of the year, but it's also the warmest — temperatures hover from 89.6 (32 C.) to 96.8 (36 C) degrees with up to nine hours of sunshine a day.

Cuisine

Bangkok's renowned food scene spans traditional street-cart snacks — spicy, sour, sweet and salty — to upscale international restaurants. Those who love Thai food will be able to dine on the following while in Thailand. Some favorites include:

- Tom Yum Goong (spicy shrimp soup)
- Som Tum (spicy green papaya salad)
- Tom Kha Kai (chicken in coconut soup)
- Gaeng Daeng (red curry)
- Pad Thai (Thai style fried noodles)
- Khao Pad (fried rice)
- Pad Krapow Moo Saap (fried basil and pork)
- Gaeng Keow Wan Kai (green chicken curry.)

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING UPON
SPECIAL ASSESSMENT ROLL FOR THE TYRONE TOWNSHIP IRISH HILLS
SUBDIVISION ROAD IMPROVEMENT PROJECT (2019)
SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN:

(1) The Township Board of Tyrone Township, Livingston County, Michigan (the "Township"), in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan, has determined to levy special assessments against lands in the TYRONE TOWNSHIP IRISH HILLS SUBDIVISION ROAD IMPROVEMENT PROJECT (2019) SPECIAL ASSESSMENT DISTRICT (the "District") that will benefit from the construction of road improvements in the District. The District consists of the properties located within the area designated on the map attached as Appendix 1 and includes the specific properties that are identified by the permanent lot and parcel numbers set forth in Appendix 2.

(2) The proposed special assessment roll for the District (the "Roll") has been prepared and is now on file in the office of the Township Clerk and is available at such office for public examination during the hours the Township Hall is regularly open to the public for business.

(3) The Township Board will conduct a public hearing beginning at 7:00 p.m., local time, on June 4, 2019, at the Tyrone Township Offices, 10408 Center Road, Fenton, Michigan to explain and answer questions pertaining to the Roll and to hear objections to the Roll. Any person objecting to the Roll must file his or her objections before the close of the public hearing or within such additional time (if any) as the Township Board may grant.

(4) The owner or other person having an interest in property that is specially assessed is entitled to file a written appeal with the Michigan Tax Tribunal within 30 days after confirmation of the Roll. However, appearance and protest at the public hearing are required by law in order to appeal the special assessment to the Michigan Tax Tribunal. An owner or other party in interest or his or her agent may (i) appear and protest in person at the hearing or (ii) file an appearance and protest by letter before the close of the hearing. The Township Board will maintain a record of the persons who appear and protest at the hearing. If the hearing is terminated or adjourned for the day before a party is provided the opportunity to be heard, a party whose appearance was so recorded shall be considered to have protested the special assessment in person.

This notice is given by order of the Tyrone Township Board.
