Apple farm heist remains mystery

Spicer Orchards not the only farm hit by thieves

By Hannah Ball

On Oct. 10, a suspected group of thieves stole an estimated 7,000 pounds of apples, which is roughly 22,000 pieces of fruit, from Spicer Orchards at a family owned farm in Fenton Township.

As of Monday, Oct. 21, Matt Spicer said there’s nothing new to report. The police have checked out track marks in the ground, but so far they have nothing.

Genesee County Undersheriff Chris Swanson said their office is handling the investigation. They’re currently searching social media leads.

Owners believe the crime occurred during the night and that it was carried out by a group of individuals.

This story traveled across the U.S., with sources like Fox News, Time, Washington Examiner and more reporting on the story.

“Actually, I don’t like it very much to tell you the truth. Publicity on a negative thing — I don’t like to roll that way,” Spicer said.

Local support for our hometown heroes

On Saturday, Oct. 19, Jim Golden of Holly stood before the set of commemorative yellow ribbons he hung around the trunk of an oak tree at Holly Elementary School recognizing local active military personnel.

Golden is the leader of “Hometown Support for all on Active Duty.” The 18 ribbons represent 18 local service members who are serving in the military, and who will receive care packages and hand-written letters from Holly elementary students through his organization before Christmas.

“All service people should know that their family, friends, and the whole dang town supports them,” Golden said. They’re still gathering addresses for military members and as of Tuesday, Oct. 22, have 25 ribbons and 25 packages to prepare.

How to help

The organization could use items and monetary donations to help fill the care packages. For more information, visit hometownsupport.com.

The response from the community has been positive, but some people have tried to give donations, which Spicer said is unnecessary.

“We’ll be fine,” he said, adding that it will hurt their income, but the thieves stole from their smaller farm. The main farm wasn’t hit.

The Detroit Free Press reports that this wasn’t the only farm to experience a theft of this kind.

Thieves stole 1,000 pumpkins from McCallum’s Orchard in Jedd on Oct. 7. Another theft took place in LaPorte County, Indiana — one mile south of the Michigan border — where approximately 50,000 apples were taken from Williams Orchard.

On Oct. 10, thieves stole an estimated 7,000 pounds of apples, which is roughly 22,000 pieces of fruit, from one of Spicer Orchards’ family farms in Fenton Township.

Holder was arraigned Dec. 21, 2018 in Oakland County 47th District Court and was initially charged with five felony counts including discharging a firearm from a motor vehicle, felony firearm and carrying a concealed weapon.

Michigan State Police Metro North troopers were alerted to a possible road rage incident at 11:15 a.m., Dec. 19, 2018. Lt. Calvin Hart said two male drivers were traveling in the southbound lanes of I-275 in Novi, Oakland County when the encounter occurred.

Police said Holder pointed a gun at another vehicle and fired one shot at it, but missed. The victim had a cell phone video of the suspect and suspect’s vehicle. The license plate was registered to Holder.

At approximately 4 p.m., Wednesday, Dec. 19, 2018, the Detroit Fugitive Apprehension Team arrived at Holder’s home and took him into custody without incident.

Companies collect data for advertising purposes

By Hannah Ball

You’re talking with your spouse about needing a new shower head. The conversation ends and you pick up your phone because you see a notification from Facebook.

The first thing on your timeline is an ad for shower heads.

iOS users often report situations like the one above. Seemingly, your iPhone only listens after you say “Hey Siri” and ask a question or voice a command. Same with Android and the “Okay Google” service.

However, according to komando.com, “…it’s safe to assume that smartphones listen all the time waiting for the wake word and voice data continuously gets recorded, albeit temporarily, on the gadget itself.”

Apple is currently facing a class action lawsuit for when this technology has not been activated by the user. The plaintiff claims that because he did not utter a wake phrase, that means he did not consent to being recorded.

Collecting data

It’s no coincidence when you search for a product in Google or Amazon and then see advertisements for that same product in your Facebook feed. These are called “targeted ads” and they receive a mixed response. Some users appreciate seeing ads for products they’re interested in. Others call it privacy invasion.

A study from Northeastern University found that apps installed on smartphones have the ability to record data.

A reason to celebrate

I turned 38 a few weeks ago and did something that has never made me feel older. I attended an HOA meeting.

We’ve lived in our neighborhood for four years but hadn’t been to an HOA (homeowner’s association) meeting. We live in a beautiful neighborhood. Wooded backyards and walkable to downtown, but there is an issue. A mixture of condos, townhomes and single-family homes, our neighborhood is home to an unfinished condo that’s becoming an eyesore. We knew that the builder had suddenly passed away and that’s why the building remained unfinished, but had no information on a timeline of when it would be done. We attended the meeting to learn more.

While the HOA meeting was fun (just kidding), there was no update on the unfinished building.

Disappointed we didn’t get the info we wanted, Matt reminded me that I work for a newspaper and if I really want to know what’s going on I should ask a reporter.

I did just that and had an answer within an hour to share with our neighbors.

Although I grew up in a newspaper family and have worked in the industry almost my entire career, sometimes I forget the power of the press. Our city officials are pretty awesome, so even if I called as a concerned citizen, I likely would have gotten an answer, but a reporter calling guarantees a response.

This story is just one way to illustrate the importance of newspapers — something that was celebrated during National Newspaper Week. While the weeklong celebration officially ended Oct. 12, I liken it to my birthday celebration, which won’t officially end until the month of October ends.

The theme of this year’s 79th annual National Newspaper Week was “Think F1rst — Know Your 5 Freedoms.” Those five freedoms as noted in the First Amendment are: freedom of religion; freedom of speech; freedom of the press; freedom to peaceably assemble and freedom to petition.

Freedom of the press is how newspapers protect you — taxpayers citizens. And while the watchdog reporting that newspapers do is vital, newspapers do so much more than that. At View Newspaper Group, we pride ourselves on making connections for our readers and our clients. We are good neighbors who give back in time, advertising space and dollars to the communities we serve.

If you’re reading this, you know all of this, so for my birthday — I mean, in celebration of National Newspaper Week — I ask that you please share this column and this information with someone who may not know or believe the importance of newspapers.

111 Leroy Place will be four stories with apartments; finish delayed to winter 2020

By Tim Jagielo

Fenton — Construction of the next big multi-purpose building in downtown Fenton is underway as of early September.

On Friday, Oct. 18, crews with several contractors, including Fessler & Bowman, Inc., worked on the storm sewer system and an excavator cleared dirt for the laborers working in the ditches prepping water pipes.

The 41,000-square-foot building was first known as “Cornerstone II” and is now called 111 Leroy Place. It will feature up to five retail spaces at the ground level. The second level will be office space on demand and the third and fourth will be one and two bedroom apartments.

Ghassan Saab of developer Corlin Builders, Inc. said the building is expected to be ready for tenants in the fall or winter of 2020. He said there were delays due to redesigns that pushed back the start of construction. Spring 2020 was the initial expected completion date.

111 Leroy Place is the third in a series of new mixed use downtown buildings. The Cornerstone building was completed in 2014 and the Horizon Building was completed in 2018.

This building will have a 10,000-square-foot footprint and four 10,000-square-foot floors. Unlike the Cornerstone building, the third and fourth floors will be apartments, not condominiums. Saab said there will be 14 dedicated parking spots for apartment tenants.

The Cornerstone building has sustained flooding due to burst fire suppression pipes in the winter.

Corlin Builders was the developer, and Sorensen Gross Construction handled the construction of that building as well. Saab said they’re building the suppression system to code. “We’re making sure that everything is being followed by the book,” Saab said.

He said up to five retailers will use the bottom floor, and the second floor office space will be built out based on tenant demand. He said they do not currently have any leases signed, but he has five letters of intent from businesses for the first two floors.

Interested parties can contact Saab at (810) 691-9314 or email gjsaab@gmail.com.

CRASH

A male and female in the car sustained minor injuries.

According to Fenton Township Fire Chief Ryan Volz, a Canadian National Railway (CN) train struck the rear of the vehicle as they drove up the hill from Silver Lake Road. “They were lucky,” Volz said. This crossing has lights, but no crossbars in an intersection where the view of the road and the train is disrupted by the hill.

The CN Police Service are in charge of the investigation and the Genesee County Sheriff’s Office (GCSO) was the other police agency on scene.

RAISING THE AGE FOR ADULT PROSECUTIONS IN MICHIGAN – PART I

In 1972, Michigan’s Age of Majority Act changed existing law to provide that a person who was 18 years of age (instead of 21) was considered to be an adult for all purposes.

The reasons given for this included that if one was old enough to serve in the military they should be considered to be an adult and the voting age had been lowered to 18.

Exceptions to this law were eventually made including raising the legal drinking age back to 21 in 1978.

Another exception occurred in the opposite direction, when Michigan enacted legislation in 1988 making 17 year olds adults in criminal cases.

As a result, our current laws provide that those who are at least 17 years old are prosecuted in adult criminal courts and those 14 to 16 years old in the Family Division of Circuit Court.

There are exceptions to these rules called “Automatic Waivers” for 18 specified felonies (such as murder) when juveniles are automatically subject to Circuit Court jurisdiction.

A prosecutor can also petition the family division to have a juvenile tried as an adult for other felony offenses.

In the law things can change, and in the last few years there has been growing support from case law, research, and public opinion to increase the age for adult criminal prosecutions in Michigan (and elsewhere) to 18.

The case law comes from the United States Supreme Court, which has recognized the difference between 17 year olds and adults in a number of its decisions.

The research shows that an adolescent’s brain is different from an adult’s and young defendants should be viewed differently in appropriate cases.

Public opinion has been positive with a number of groups and individuals calling for the increase.

As a result, on Oct. 16, the Michigan legislature passed a 16-bill package by an overwhelming bipartisan vote, raising the age to 18, which has been sent to Governor Whitmer for her approval.

This is part of a recent national trend, which has seen the number of states with a lower age for adult prosecutions reduced from 15 to 3 (if the bills are signed). The remaining states are Georgia, Texas and Wisconsin.

Next week Part II — what the bills provide.

POSSIBLE ROAD RAGE IN FENTON TOWNSHIP

On Sept. 17 at 8:18 p.m., Genesee County Sheriff’s deputies responded to a Fenton Township resident’s home to investigate a disorderly complaint. The mother of a juvenile reported that a Fenton Township man allegedly followed and assaulted her son following a traffic situation on N. Fenton Road in Fenton Township. According to the police report, the woman’s son, and his passenger, passed the Fenton Township man’s vehicle in their pickup truck, allegedly throwing gravel onto his vehicle. The Fenton Township man followed the truck, which was traveling in the same direction. The driver of the truck told deputies he pulled over to stop on a side street because he didn’t want the other driver to know where he lived. The Fenton Township man also turned onto the side street and stopped. The driver of the pickup reported that the man got out of his car and attempted to choke him. However, the Fenton Township man told deputies he only grabbed the pickup truck driver’s shirt, according to the police report. The Fenton Township man was placed under arrest for assault and battery. A breathalyzer indicated his blood alcohol content was above the legal limit. This case is pending. There were no visible signs or injury or damage to the man’s vehicle.

Live action pirate-themed mystery will help raise Christmas funds for Holly kids

“Murder and Mutiny” will be coming to The Holly Vault on Friday, Nov. 15, as a fundraiser for the fourth annual Shop with a Cop event that benefits kids in the Holly area who might not otherwise have a Christmas.

The Holly Vault is at 202 Saginaw St., on the corner at Civic Drive.

This live action mystery with a pirate theme will involve participants who will help solve the murder mystery. They will decode a message that can reverse the Curse of the Holly Vault Treasure. Pirate costumes are encouraged, but not required.

The event starts at 6:30 p.m. with a cash bar featuring light hors d’oeuvres at 7 p.m. Tickets are $30 and available on eventbrite.com or purchased at the Holly Police Department, 315 S. Broad St., Monday through Saturday, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m.

“The Holly Police Department has a great time putting together this event every year,” Det. Steve Legant said. “Shop with a Cop is a great way that we can give back to the community.”

The event showed the community its farming roots.

Argentine Township resident and former township supervisor, Bob Cole, brought about half a dozen tractors.

Cole joined the Genesee Valley Tractors Collectors Club, which was originally called the John Deere Two Cylinder Club, years ago and works to spread information about the importance of tractors and farming equipment.

Throughout the weekend, Cole encouraged to have the kids sit on a tractor and take photos.

“I enjoy watching the kids smile. I enjoy watching the parents smile. This is close to home,” he said.

YES, TRUMP TAKES $1 for salary. All the residents in the White House live tax free and expenses are paid by taxpayers. Difference is they also take a paycheck, which President Trump does not. Michelle Obama wanted a paycheck for being in the White House. Maybe it's you with the blinder on.

‘WORKERS WILL BANKRUPT a company.’ Ridiculous. GM doesn’t give eye or dental care to any of its workers. The $32 an hour pales compared to $2 million or more executives get. President Obama saved GM and Chrysler from bankruptcy, which happened because of the ‘Great Recession.’

In one Forbes article, one journalist wrote, “When the Wall Street Journal investigated the world of iPhone privacy controls it discovered that, frankly, those controls are about as much use as a chocolate teapot.”

The Wall Street Journal report found that most options in the App Store under “Apps We Love” were using third-party trackers to collect data about the user and how they use their phone.

If you want to stop your phone from listening to you, the easiest way is to turn off Siri. Go to, Settings, then General, to Siri, then toggle Allow “Hey Siri” to off.

To disable “Okay Google,” go to Settings, then Google, then Search & Now and turn “Okay Google” detection off.

Android customers who use the “Okay Google” feature will find that their voice commands are saved on their account. They can also delete these commands saved by Google by going to your account and going to the voice command setting.

To stop seeing targeted ads, go to Settings, Privacy, and Advertising to limit the ad tracking function. You’ll still see ads, but they will be random.

For even more privacy, use the “nuclear” option. According to Forbes, the nuclear option means uninstalling apps that you don’t find 100 percent essential. Switching off Wi-Fi, GPS and Bluetooth when you don’t need them will help ensure less data about you is collected.

POLICE & FIRE
REPORT

FLORIDA MAN DRIVES WRONG WAY IN ROUNDABOUT
On Wednesday, Oct. 16, at 5:36 p.m., a Fenton police officer was observing the Torrey and North roads roundabout construction and traffic. The officer observed a vehicle traveling south on Torrey Road and then turn left into the roundabout to travel eastbound on North Road. This was against the traffic. A traffic stop was initiated and the driver, a 65-year-old Florida resident, admitted to drinking alcohol at a nearby restaurant. Sobriety tests were administered and a search of the man’s car was conducted. During the inventory search, the officer found two loaded handguns and one unloaded shotgun. The man had an out-of-state concealed pistol license (CPL), however, Cross said you cannot be in possession of the firearms while under the influence of alcohol. The firearms were confiscated for safekeeping and the man was arrested for drunk driving. He was lodged at the police station until sober and will be charged with operating a vehicle while intoxicated and the use of a firearm while under the influence of alcohol, a misdemeanor.

POLICE SEEK TIPS ON GRAFFITI
The Fenton Police Department is investigating multiple reports of graffiti, most recently painted drawings of male body parts, on the dumpster and fencing at Bush Park. Residents in other areas have reported similar vandalism. Fenton tennis headed to D2 state meet, takes second at regionals

By David Troppens

The Fenton varsity boys tennis team captured three points and finished in a tie for 18th place at the Division 2 state meet last weekend.

No. 1 singles player Gabe Hand and No. 2 doubles team Trevor Bloss and Mitchell Scheer earned Fenton’s points.

Hand, a four-time No. 1 singles Metro League champion, won his first match against South Lyon’s Josiah Ayudante 7-5, 1-6, 6-4. He lost in straight sets to the top-seeded Nathaniel Webster (Mat-tawan), 6-0, 6-0.

Bloss and Carlson won their first match against Gabriel Carlson’s flight 6-4, 6-2 and then lost to U-D Jesuit 6-0, 6-0.

The Tigers had plenty of flights that had strong showings despite losing their match. No. 3 singles Jordan Conn lost a tight 6-4, 7-5 verdict.

Tigers make history, win Metro title game

By David Troppens

Goodrich — A year ago Brady Triola experienced something that the previous seven Fenton varsity football teams didn’t.

The Tigers seven-year run as either outright Metro champs or co-Metro champions ended.

“We were heartbroken last year when we lost it,” Triola said. “All of the seniors on the team last year were heartbroken when we lost it. We all felt bad and we all had to redeem ourselves this year. We had to come out stronger than ever. All offseason we had to put in the work.”

The Tigers put in the work and got their reward Friday against the Goodrich Martians on Goodrich’s home field. Fenton won the first-ever Metro League Championship Game, defeating the Martians 42-21.

“It’s crazy. Nobody has done it before,” Triola said. “It’s just special for us. Our coaches have been saying all year nobody is going to be the first champion, except for us. Nobody can take that way.”

“It’s different because the joint league they created this year,” Fenton starting quarterback Dylan David-

Linden’s offense sparks blowout victory vs. Corunna

By David Troppens

If Linden’s offense was looking for a confidence builder entering the Eagles’ final matchup of the season with the Lake Fenton Blue Devils this week, they got it against Corunna on Friday night.

Linden scored the most points the Eagles have since scoring 65 against Clio on Sept. 29, 2006, defeating Corunna 63-27 during the two teams’ Metro League crossover contest.

“That’s not too bad,” Linden varsity football coach Denny Hopkins said about the offensive output. “We threw the ball really well tonight. Everybody got a chance to play and we ran for 100 yards which is a plus for us. We had three receivers over 100 yards.”

Fenton golfers place fifth at state meet

By David Troppens

It was hard to figure out what to expect out of the Fenton varsity girls golf team this fall.

The squad had lost a large chunk of the roster that made last year’s sixth-place team finish at the D2 state meet due to graduation.

But as the season continued, it became apparent this team was pretty talented as well. And now, the Tigers have actually surpassed last year’s squad with at least one very important metric.

The Tigers capped the season by finishing in a tie for fifth place at the Division 2 state golf tournament, posting a team score of 732, just two strokes behind fourth-place Farmington Hills Mercy and tied with Birmingham Groves. Last season’s squad finished sixth. Individually, Brook Herbstreit capped what was a season of great improvement by earning a tie for sixth in the individual competition, recording a two-day 36-hole score of 82-80-162. The event was held at Michigan State’s Forest Akers East Golf Course.

“The goal for our team was to try and meet or improve our sixth-place finish from last season,” Herbstreit said. “Going in, we were ranked ninth in the state and we definitely were hoping to improve on that. I was super-excited about how the tournament played out for me personally as well. My personal goal going in was top 15, and when I found out I was tied for 10th at the end of the first day, I was really excited and it changed my goal.

Tigers break Owosso pool records in easy Metro League victory

By David Troppens

Five pool records went down at Owosso High School’s pool recently.

The Fenton Tigers were the ones to accomplish the task.

All three Fenton relays broke pool records and Gracie Olsen broke two individual pool records, helping lead the Fenton varsity girls swim team to an easy 112-73 victory in Metro League dual action.

“We swam well,” Fenton varsity girls swim coach Brad Jones said. “It was nice to move girls around and see some different events.”

Olsen took part in each relay. She teamed with Abigail Dolliver, Halee Alexander and Lillie Kromer to win the 200 medley relay (1:55.75) and with Kromer, Dolliver and Sophie Stefanac to win the 200 freestyle relay (1:42.90) and the 400 freestyle relay (3:47.76). Olsen’s lead off time of 55.24 seconds in the 400 freestyle relay also earned her the 100 freestyle pool record. She also competed in the 50 freestyle, breaking the pool record with a first-place time of 24.71 seconds.

Fenton had four other firsts.

Linden finished with 563 total yards with quarterback Colby Kohmescher completing 23-of-28 passes for 437 yards and four touchdowns. Seeger DeGayner caught nine of those passes for 205 yards and three TDs. He caught a 40-yard pass for a score in the first quarter, putting Linden up 14-0 at the time. He had a 20-yard TD reception late in the second quarter, giving the Eagles a 35-14 halftime lead. Finally, the Eagles started the second half with three unanswered touchdowns with the second of those scores coming on DeGayner’s 49-yard TD reception.

Gavin Wildeman caught seven passes for 141 yards while Brenden Miller caught seven passes for 107 yards. One of those receptions was the last TD of Linden’s three in the third quarter — a 36-yard score. At that time, the Eagles led 56-14. Miller also started the second half with a bang when he returned the kickoff 60 yards for a score.

Blue Devils fall to Flushing Raiders

By David Troppens

Lake Fenton’s playoff hopes ended Friday night during the Blue Devils’ Metro League crossover contest against Flushing.

The Raiders defeated the Blue Devils 27-6.

The Raiders used a variety of big plays to take the lead. Flushing’s first score came on a 32-yard pass from Nick Powers to Joe Jauzel, putting the Raiders up 7-0. The pair connected for Flushing’s second score as well from the same 32-yard distance. Flushing led 14-0 with 5:41 left in the opening quarter.

A 46-yard completion set up Nick Powers’s short TD plunge, raising the gap to 21-0 by halftime. Early in the second half, Cole Dunstan scored from three yards out, making it a 27-0 lead.

Lake Fenton (3-5) scored its only touchdown on a 45-yard TD pass from Reid Shumacher to Michael O’Brien. Lake Fenton had 175 yards total offense.

Bronchos defeat Owosso in thriller, 21-20

By David Troppens

The Holly varsity football team is putting together a little win streak at the end of the season.

A week after beating Swartz Creek 37-7, the Bronchos (3-5) edged out Owosso by a 21-20 score Friday night.

Holly trailed 19-7 entering the fourth quarter, but scored the final period’s only two TDs to earn the victory. Kolten Steele scored on a four-yard run, cutting the gap to 20-14 after Ben Gramer’s second of three extra-point kicks. Then with less than two minutes remaining, Jacob Hild scored on a one-yard run, giving the Bronchos the 21-20 victory.

“It feels really good,” Holly varsity football coach Dallas Lesperance said. “These are the tough battles we learned we can win. Just like everyone we have had a rash of injuries. We were down five when our starting quarterback was hurt in the first quarter. Steele proves every week he deserves to be mentioned on both sides of the ball. If we need a yard, we go to (Steele).”

The Bronchos will have a challenge to end the season when Holly hosts Metro League Stars Division champion Goodrich on Friday at 7 p.m.

son said. “So to be the first one to come home and bring it home is special. We added four teams (to the league) so to come home being No. 1 out of all of them is cool and is something we’ll remember forever.”

The teams earned their spots in the title game with undefeated league records in their respective divisions during the season. The teams battled hard like you’d expect from two division champions early on. However, as the game slowly went on, it was apparent that the Tigers were the stronger team.

Fenton took the lead for good early in the second quarter when Davidson hit Triola with a nine-yard TD reception with 11:14 left in the first half. Braden Moore made the second of six extra-points he’d nail, giving the Tigers a 14-7 lead.

Fenton’s defense had to contend with Goodrich’s Tyson Davis who had some of the shiftiest moves of any prep player in the state. And while he had his moments, the Tigers kept him in check. On Goodrich’s next possession, Davis started it with a 12-yard run.

Talking can help the grieving process begin. If you were an acquaintance of the deceased but not well-known to the family, immediately introduce yourself. Do not feel uncomfortable if you or the family member becomes emotional or begins to cry. Allowing the family to grieve is a natural healing process. However, if you find yourself becoming extremely upset, it would be kinder to excuse yourself so as not to increase the strain on the family.
