

Police warn of dangerous sales transactions

■ Use Fenton police station lobby, which is open 24/7 and monitored

By Sharon Stone

Fenton police are warning individuals against meeting unknown people in random parking lots when selling or buying an item discussed over social media.

Two local residents were recently scammed; one of whom was robbed at gunpoint.

Lt. Jeff Cross of the Fenton Police Department said a 29-year-old Holly woman agreed to meet an unknown buyer she had communicated with through Facebook Messenger at a gas station in the 3200 block of Owen Road at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 26. She was selling her iPhone X for $600. Cross said if new, the phone would be valued at $1,500.

The buyer, described as a black male, between 20 and 30 years old, gave her $600 cash and she gave him the phone.

“So sorry to see The Deck restaurant and bar has closed in Argentina. Thanks for trying, Phil.”

“Complaining about Linden’s fireworks? Really? People really will complain about anything, just to complain. I thought the fireworks were beautiful and I really enjoyed them. Is there a reason fireworks can only be enjoyed in July?”

“I agree with the Hot-liner about slowing down on Owen Road. It’s not a highway. People drive too fast on Silver Lake Road, too. The speed limit is 25, then 35 when traveling eastbound by Price’s Airport. Get off my bumper and do the posted speed limit.”

COMMENT OF THE WEEK

“Cookie walks that churches have are the best way to get a variety of cookies without having to do all the baking yourself. They are all homemade by the members of the church. I’ve been to a lot of them and the one on Saturday at the north end of Fenton is the best.”

Just sayin'...

You are not poor, you are very rich...

The generosity of our communities is more obvious during the holidays than any other time of the year. It is heart-warming to witness, and read in our newspaper, the many acts of kindness bestowed upon those who are experiencing a rough patch, especially the children.

To the children, if you are the recipient of a new toy, a new coat, hat and gloves, and a great meal this holiday season, you are not poor. You are rich because you have learned what generosity means and that there are many kind people in this world, despite what you see on television. Perhaps you will think about paying it forward yourself some day.

There are other signs of your wealth throughout the year. You probably just don't know it or think about it. If your mom feeds you a bowl of oatmeal instead of sugar-filled Fruit Loops for breakfast, you are not poor. You are rich because your mother loves you and cares about your good health and wellbeing.

If your family sits down to a home-cooked dinner that includes some veggies from your backyard garden, instead of ordering a pizza, you are not poor. You are very rich because learning about good nutrition is a valuable and lifesaving lesson.

Are you embarrassed about having to wear hand-me-downs from your siblings? Don't be! You are not poor. You are rich because you will grow up with brothers and sisters who will become your very best friends for life.

Instead of playing video games or watching Netflix, do your mom and dad insist on taking a family walk? You are not poor. You are rich because you are being taught that good exercise and family time while enjoying the great outdoors are critical components to enjoying a wonderful life.

When you get into your warm bed in your cozy house every night, do you have a mom and dad who like to read to you, or insist that you do some reading yourself? If so, you are very rich because reading is one of our greatest, most valuable skills and the pathway to everything meaningful in life.

Are you annoyed when your mom and dad make you get up early Sunday morning to attend church or Sunday school? Don't be because they are giving you the greatest gift of all, learning about the love of God.

Lastly, if your parents had to rely on charitable organizations and the benevolence of others to make your holidays a little brighter this year, you are not poor. You are very rich because you have learned another valuable lesson — humility.

IF PRESIDENT TRUMP is impeached by the Democrats in their clearly unconstitutional exercise, the country will divide as never before.

THE FEMINISTS ARE out of control once again. Reverse the genders on the 'Peloton' commercial. How many complaints would there be?

WITHOUT ANY LEGISLATIVE agenda, the Democrats have become the party of hate, anger, intolerance, and division. They have weaponized the FBI, CIA, IRS, NSA, FISA court, the media, and now the impeachment process. Support President Trump.

PRESIDENT TRUMP HAS given us the best economic record in history. He has supported families with jobs, increased wages and lowered taxes that have benefited 82 percent of working Americans. Trump also supports God, America first, laws, borders, immigration reform, better trade deals, second amendment rights, and a strong military.

Fenton officials approve overhaul of city's website

■ Will sign four-year contract with CivicPlus, which specializes in government sites

By Vera Hogan

The Fenton City Council has agreed with Assistant City Manager Michael Hart that the city's website is in need of modernization. To that end, officials unanimously approved Hart's request to contract with CivicPlus, a company that specializes in government sites.

The city has been using 3Sixty Interactive since before December 2010, when it extended its website agreement with them for three years, for the same $650 monthly maintenance fee, and a flat fee not to exceed $6,000 to improve the website, according to Tri-County Times records. Fenton's website was six years old at the time.

The "Fenton Be Closer" page is imbedded within the existing website. Accunet charges $450 per year to host the page.

The two companys, 3Sixty Interactive and Accunet, were informed last year that the city was considering some website changes. "They were understanding," Hart said.

With a four-year contract, CivicPlus will charge $24,330 for the first year, which includes the build, hosting and maintenance fee. Year two will have a hosting and maintenance fee of $4,500. The hosting and maintenance fee for years three through four will be $4,725 per year. This includes a website refresh during the fourth year of the agreement. CivicPlus also offered a five-year

THE POWER OF PROTON THERAPY.

DESTROYING CANCER WITH UNMATCHED PRECISION
AND FEWER SIDE EFFECTS.

A cancer diagnosis can be overwhelming. Nothing is more important than finding a treatment that provides your best chance for recovery.

As part of the Karmanos Cancer Network, the McLaren Proton Therapy Center in Flint offers the most powerful and precise radiation oncology treatment available in Michigan. Our advanced proton technology delivers higher doses of radiation to cancer cells, while sparing healthy tissue and reducing side effects.

We deliver proton therapy with unmatched precision, conforming the radiation dose to the exact size and shape of the tumor, minimizing any exposure to healthy parts of the body.

That's the power of proton therapy at McLaren. That's doing what's best.

Some heroes push shopping carts

■ Fenton Township Firefighters Association spends $3,500; aids 55 underprivileged kids

By Tim Jagielo

Fenton — Torrey Hill Intermediate School student and artist Nilah Smith, 10, has never made pottery before, but thanks to “Shop with a Hero” she’ll get to try it this holiday season.

Nilah was one of 55 students from Lake Fenton Community Schools (LFCS) ages 4 to 11 who got to shop with Fenton Township Firefighters Association members and emergency medical technicians (EMT) on Tuesday, Dec. 10 at the Target store on Owen Road.

Students from West Shore Elementary and Torrey Hill Intermediate School were selected by teachers based on need.

It’s facilitated by the Fenton Township Firefighters Association. Firefighter Kristy Polidan said the 2019 event was funded from past golf outing fundraisers. This is the 12th year of the event and Polidan hopes to do it for the next three years at least.

Overall, the budget was $3,500. Children could spend between $55 and $75 and those with more practical needs had a larger budget.

West Shore Elementary School Principal Sonya Shaughnessy said teachers make recommendations, however parents can opt out of such special considerations. She added that Target is “amazing” to work with.

Fenton Township firefighters, STAT EMS and Mobile Medical Response (MMR) members took children and family members around the store helping them keep within budget. They took them back to a specific check-out line set up for participants.

Nilah chose a pottery-making kit, clothes and gum. Unfortunately, her “hero” was away on a call.

LOOKING BACK at this week in HISTORY

COMPILED BY VERA HOGAN

DEC. 15

2011: In a ceremony held in Baghdad, the war that began in 2003 with the American-led invasion of Iraq officially comes to an end. Though Dec. 15, 2011 was the official end date of the Iraq War, violence continued and in fact worsened over the subsequent years. The withdrawal of American troops had been a priority of President Barack Obama, but by the time he left office the United States would again be conducting military operations in Iraq.

DEC. 16

1773: In Boston Harbor, a group of Massachusetts colonists, disguised as Mohawk Indians, boarded three British tea ships and dumped 342 chests of tea into the harbor. The midnight raid, popularly known as the "Boston Tea Party," was in protest of the British Parliament's Tea Act of 1773, a bill designed to save the faltering East India Company by greatly lowering its tea tax and granting it a virtual monopoly on the American tea trade.

DEC. 17

1903: Near Kitty Hawk, North Carolina, Orville and Wilbur Wright make the first successful flight in history of a self-propelled, heavier-than-air aircraft. Orville piloted the gasoline-powered, propeller-driven biplane, which stayed aloft for 12 seconds and covered 120 feet on its inaugural flight.

DEC. 18

1912: After three years of digging in the Piltdown gravel pit in Sussex, England, amateur archaeologist Charles Dawson announces the discovery of two skulls that appear to belong to a primitive hominid and ancestor of man, along with a canine tooth, a tool carved from an elephant's tusk, and fossil teeth from a number of prehistoric animals. Despite muted criticism from a minority of paleontologists, the majority of the scientific community hailed the so-called Piltdown Man as the missing evolutionary link between ape and man.

DEC. 19

1998: After nearly 14 hours of debate, the House of Representatives approves two articles of impeachment against President Bill Clinton, charging him with lying under oath to a federal grand jury and obstructing justice. Clinton, the second president in American history to be impeached, vowed to finish his term.

DEC. 20

1986: Three black men are attacked by a group of white teenagers yelling racial slurs in Howard Beach, a predominately white, middle-class, Italian-American neighborhood in Queens, New York. Earlier that night, the men were driving from Brooklyn to Queens, when their car broke down near Howard Beach. They walked several miles to a pizza parlor in Howard Beach, where they asked to use a phone to call for assistance. After being told there was no phone available, they ordered some pizza. When the men left the pizzeria, they were confronted by the gang of teens. One of the men was chased into traffic on the Belt Parkway and died after being hit by a car. A second man was severely beaten, while the third man, outran the assailants and escaped without serious injury.

DEC. 21

1970: Singer Elvis Presley is greeted at the White House by President Richard M. Nixon. Presley's visit was not just a social call. He wanted to meet Nixon in order to offer his services in the government's war on drugs.

agreement, with slightly lower fees than the four-year agreement.

In his memo to City Manager Lynn Markland, Hart said, "City websites are necessary as a multi-point customer service portal for residents, business owners and visitors. The need for a modern and effective website has grown exponentially with the advent of different types of devices that people are using to access the worldwide web. In addition, the website has to be ADA (Americans with Disabilities Act) compliant and have adequate technology to minimize breaches from hackers, which are becoming a greater concern/risk for local units of government in 2019 and beyond.

ADA compliance has to do with the ability for people with vision or related impairments being able to effectively use the website, Hart said. "As an example, there are new standards for readability that will be incorporated. CivicPlus for the new website will incorporate in the changes that are required for the city to be compliant," Hart said.

"Once we migrate to our new website, we will reduce from two providers to one," Hart said. "There will be more than enough capacity with the new website to do everything that we need. The timing is good to create some efficiencies."

The build project for the new website should be commencing within the next 60-90 days, Hart said. "There should not be any interruption while this is going on. Once the new website is built, there might be some challenges with the launch when the new site is taken online, but we will have to address those issues at that point."

Hart said the site is going to take at least six months to build and launch once the project commences. One of the foundational items that will be addressed in the complete ground-up rebuild, is that all types of technology, especially smartphones, will automatically adjust to the webpage for ease of use.

Hartland Glen Golf Club wins award for its junior golf program

Nicolas L. Thompson, PGA, director of golf operations and head professional at Hartland Glen Golf Club in Hartland announced that they won an award from Michigan Golf Course Association (MGCA) for its Junior Golf Programs at Hartland Glen. The Dul Family Player Development Award – Junior Golf Program award was recently presented to Thompson and General Manager Steve Scherff. The program has grown from 44 to 127 junior golfers. Several local high school golf teams have numerous team members that have gone through these programs over the years and have then helped their team advance and compete at the MHSAA State Finals. Thompson said he is humbled and honored to receive this award. “It solidifies the work that we are successfully doing to grow the game of golf, create something families can do together for years and decades to come and shows us that golf is truly the game of a lifetime and it is for every one of all levels,” he said. For details on 2020 golf camps, go to hartlandglen.com or call (248) 887-3777.

‘Shop with a Cop’ draws police from around county

■ Fenton, Argentine, Davison, MSP, White Lake officers attend

Compiled by Tim Jagielo

The Target store on Owen Road on Wednesday, Dec. 11 would have been a bad place to start trouble.

The annual “Shop with a Cop” event drew 16 police officers from around the county including Argentine Township, Davison Township, White Lake Township and the Michigan State Police. They came together to shop with 20 children from 15 families in need, drawn from five Fenton Area Public Schools (FAPS) buildings.

Fenton Police Chief Jason Slater said they raised just over $4,000, which gave each student a $200 budget. They fundraised through various means including “No Shave November” and donations from individuals and businesses.

“We hope that our Shop with a Cop event will make Christmas a little more joyous for the participants and their families,” Slater said.

Slater specifically thanked officers Nicholas Jones and Julie Bemus along with dispatcher Susan Haney for all the work they put into making the event successful.

This is the second year they’ve partnered with Target, which hosts the event.

Do you collect Hallmark Keepsake ornaments?

■ Don't miss a holiday exhibit of Hallmark Keepsake collectible ornaments from 1973 to 2009 on display at The Henry Ford

By Sally Rummel

Put the brand "Hallmark" in front of the words "greeting card," "ornament" or "cable channel" and you'll automatically have an audience of sentimental folks who'll put their money where their hearts are.

The Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation at The Henry Ford in Dearborn is hoping that people will be as excited as they are to be the "keeper" of a vast collection of Hallmark Keepsake ornaments.

The exhibit, "Through the Years with Hallmark," will be a foretaste of next year's display, when visitors will be able to peruse all 6,600 ornaments.

More than just seasonal decorations, these ornaments actually provide a cultural snapshot of American society from 1973, when Hallmark Keepsake ornaments first debuted, through 2009. The first Keepsake ornaments were just a low-key six glass balls and 12 yarn figures, all relatively simple.

The Hallmark Keepsake Collection then evolved over the years into 8,500 different ornaments and more than 100 ornament series, from traditional styles into whimsical fantasy. Along with the anticipated ornaments every year came a collectors' club, special buying events and print and online Dream Books of available ornaments each year.

This collection originally belonged to a family owned Hallmark store in Indiana that opened in 1978. When the owners decided to retire, they contacted the museum about becoming a "keeper" of this keepsake collection.

The collection traces the history of modern Disney movies, "Star Wars" reboots and revivals, the Harry Potter craze, nostalgia for TV shows like "Star Trek" and an appreciation for classic cars and Barbie Dolls, among other themes.

Unlike greeting cards or TV movies, ornaments hold a special place in peoples' hearts, as they are carefully stored and unwrapped each year. They often capture a moment in time or commemorate a wedding, birth or other special occasion.

The Hallmark Keepsake ornaments display started Monday, Nov. 25 and will continue through Jan. 5, 2020, from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily.

For ticket information, visit thehenryford.org.

Winning Social Security Disability at the First Step

Attorneys Bieske and Alfonsi file as FAST, or FASTER than all other firms. Most importantly, they do it RIGHT.

Their clients win the majority of their cases at the first step. In recent years statistics show that the average person wins less than 1/3 of their cases at the first step, and, if you don't win at the application stage, it could be years until you receive benefits.

They interview you, and unlike some other firms, an actual attorney immediately files your application. Over 70 pages of documents must be completed during the application process. Often an answer given on one of the multiple confusing forms is actually used by the government to deny your case, not just on the first step, but in later appeals. The firm does the paperwork for you. Forms are sent to your doctor to bolster your case. They follow up with the government to determine the status of your case. Winning your case results in up to thousands of dollars in monthly benefits and early Medicare coverage.

Attorneys JB Bieske and Jennifer Alfonsi have been winning the vast majority of their cases at the application level and beyond. Between them they have 50 years of combined experience in only Social Security disability matters. They have won over 7,000 cases and have won over $100 million in lump sum benefits for their clients.

In addition to practicing only Social Security Disability law, attorney Bieske has written a book for attorneys about the subject and has been interviewed on various television programs. Both attorneys Bieske and Alfonsi have also been interviewed on radio programs and have given speeches to many groups.

Attorneys Bieske and Alfonsi offer free phone or office consultation. They will promptly inform you if they can make a difference at the application stage.

If you have filed on your own and have been denied call immediately. The firm has won the vast majority of their appeals for years. No fee charged until after case is won.

Bieske and Alfonsi are very familiar with the local judges. Office conveniently located in Macomb Township on Hall Rd. just west of I-94. Call them at 1-800-331-3530 for a FREE CONSULTATION.

Bennington Hills Kennel recently added 800 square feet to its space, which includes new office space and updates to the grooming areas. The kennel also upgraded its phone and security systems recently. Submitted photo

Bennington Hills Kennel of Fenton

■ Celebrates 35 years in business with expansion

After 35 years in business, the team at Bennington Hills Kennel is proud to announce its newest expansion.

"We are constantly doing improvements here, some that our clients will see, like new paint or sun tubes in the grooming area and others they won't, like new furnaces, better cleaning supplies and updates to the dog walk area with sun shades," said Linda Rademacher, who owns and operates the kennel with her daughter Kris Fleckenstein and Fleckenstein's son Arron. "There is always something ongoing like decorating for our clients or ordering more bones for the dogs. We strive to make it as comfortable for the owners as it is for their pets."

Most recently, the kennel added an additional 800 square feet to its space, which includes new office space for Rademacher and updates to the grooming areas. This is the fourth expansion to the business since they moved to their current Baldwin Road location 19 years ago. Last year they expanded the parking area.

Throughout her 35 years in business, Rademacher said she has seen many changes, one being the need for additional security, another upgrade she is proud of.

"We have recently upgraded our telephone system as well as our security system," she said. "Our security system gives us the ability to monitor all areas of our kennel on our monitors as well as our smartphones."

As the staff enters their busy season, Rademacher said it's so fun to see clients return with their pets, along with those clients' kids and grandkids and their pets.

"I've been so blessed," said Rademacher, who lives on-site enjoying the 40-acre property complete with a beautiful country setting and 7-acre pond.

In addition to operating the kennel, Rademacher also breeds golden retrievers. "I love animals. I get to make a living doing my hobby," she said. "It's the best of both worlds."

For more information or to schedule your pet's stay, visit benningtonhills.com or call (810) 750-4245. Bennington Hills Kennel is at 2099 Baldwin Rd., Fenton.

Fenton to switch online payment processor

■ New site expected to be up and running by March 2020

By Vera Hogan

In a few short months, the city of Fenton will be offering residents a upgraded method of online bill paying with the services of a new online payment processor.

At its Monday, Dec. 9 meeting, the Fenton City Council unanimously approved a request by Jon Satkowiak, Jr., the city treasurer, to approve a contract with Invoice Cloud, replacing Official Payments, which has been taking payments for utility and taxes online since 2011.

In his memo to City Manager Lynn Markland, Satkowiak said, "Unfortunately, Official Payments has not adapted with the changing technology and most importantly, our software company (BS&A) is no longer integrating with their system. This has caused the administration to look at an alternative company for this service."

Satkowiak said Invoice Cloud offers a variety of payment options, including an in-house card reader. Invoice Cloud will offer the traditional methods of online payments with credit card or banking information but also will have a pay-by-text feature and ACH (Automated Clearing House) option.

User fees for tax payments will be 3.5 percent of the transaction with a $2.95 minimum. User fees for utility payments will be $4.95 with a $400 cap.

"They also send out reminders when the bill comes out and just prior to the due date if the resident utilizes that option," he said. "The city will have the ability to send messages with the bills as well and be delivered through various forms of media."

The cost to the city will be $100 per month base rate, Satkowiak said.

"We expect to have it up and running in early March (2020)," he said. "Residents will still be able to view and pay their bill online in the meantime using our current provider. There may be minimal blackout dates as we get closer to the launch with the new company."

Are you traveling anytime soon?

■ Visas, passports and enhanced licenses — how to get important travel documents

By Tim Jagielo

To travel the country and the world, there are several documents to consider and prepare for depending on your intended location.

What is a passport?

A passport is required to leave and to return to the U.S. It's the most important document for traveling the world, and it's issued by the U.S. Department of State (DOS). To learn about all the steps involved, go to travel.state.gov. It can take several months to receive your passport, so don't wait.

The United States Postal Service (USPS) can accept all the documents required for your application, but they may have set hours for passport service. The Fenton Post Office has appointment hours between 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, and until noon on Saturday.

The required materials are the DS-11 application form, photocopy of proof of identity (both sides), proof of U.S. citizenship (also front and back.) Fees can cost $35 if you have a valid photo, or an additional $15 for a new photo. The USPS suggests gathering all this ahead of time.

The first step is to fill out an application form. Currently this is the DS-11, but an updated form may be available soon. According to the DOS, these forms are "expired" but still accepted.

These must be downloaded and filled out and printed, do not pre-sign — it must be witnessed by a USPS employee. The fee is $110, plus $35 for accepting the application. It takes four to six weeks for a passport.

What is a visa?

Visas are required by many countries of visitors for travel, work or study. The U.S. requires a visa from citizens of several countries. A visa is basically temporary permission to stay in the country, and overstaying can have negative consequences. This is required in addition to the passport.

Each country has individual visa requirements. Some can be done electronically ahead of time and some are given as a passport stamp right at the airport gate. Always check on visas well in advance. Requirements can change from year to year.

According to AFAR.com, countries like Mexico, France, Italy, Belize and Iceland don't require an extra travel visa to visit, but Australia does. To visit the "land down under," you'll need to apply for an electronic authorization online, which costs $20.

China will allow you to visit Hong Kong for non-business reasons for up to 90 days with no visa, but exploring mainland China requires a $140 entry visa. Again, each country is different.

Consulting the U.S. State Department for a travel advisory is always a good idea. Visit travel.state.gov.

What is an enhanced license?

According to Michigan.gov, an enhanced driver's license (EDL) is a special driver's license that allows Michigan motorists to cross into the U.S. when traveling by sea or land from Canada, Mexico, Bermuda and Caribbean nations without a passport or other documents. Michigan.gov/sos has all the information needed to apply for an EDL.

First, an applicant must be over the age of 18, a U.S. citizen and already have a driver's license. You must also have no violations, suspensions, revocations or denials on your driving record. You'll need legal proof of your identity.

To apply, you can visit any Secretary of State (SOS) office. If you've never had a license before you'll need valid documentation of your Social Security number, U.S. citizenship, identity and residency. You'll have to pass a set of tests, which includes vision and written knowledge and everything else related to the regular license.

If you already have a license, you still need all the aforementioned documents. You'll need a new photo taken and pay the $45 fee. The EDL can be issued that day, or it can require an additional visit.

What is a state ID card?

A State ID is for residents who don't drive, or whose licenses are temporarily revoked. They're as valid as a driver's license. Starting Oct 1, 2020, these cards are required for all who don't have a license. These can be obtained at any SOS branch for any resident of any age.

Documentation of a valid Social Security number, legal presence (U.S. citizenship) other identification and Michigan residency are required. The first card costs $30.

Each country has its own individual visa requirements. Some can be done electronically ahead of time, and some are given as a stamp right at the airport gate.

Cosmic Crisp apples — ‘out of this world’

■ New apple variety expected to take a bite out of Honeycrisp’s popularity after debuting Dec. 1

By Sally Rummel

Move over, Honeycrisp, the Big Apple is here.

A new variety of apple called the Cosmic Crisp rolled out in grocery stores across the country Dec. 1. It’s expected to be the star of the biggest apple promotion since Honeycrisp debuted in the 1990s.

These two apple varieties are actually in the same family.

Cosmic Crisps are a cross between the disease-resistant Enterprise and the popular, crunchy Honeycrisp. It’s called Cosmic Crisp because of the bright yellowish dots on its skin, which look like distant stars, according to a recent story by Associated Press.

This new variety, which rolled out with a $10 million marketing budget, is the first apple bred in Washington state, by far the largest apple-producing state in the U.S.

Washington grows about 60 percent of the nation’s apples, or about 171 million bushels. Michigan is the third largest apple-growing state, with 28 million bushels produced in 2018.

“I’ve tasted the Cosmic Crisp; it’s a good apple,” said Charlie Mueller of Mueller Orchards in Fenton Township. “But as a grower, I can’t afford to pay all the baggage (royalty fees) to grow it. If I had a choice to grow Honeycrisp or Cosmic Crisp, I’d choose Cosmic Crisp because they’re a lot easier to grow.”

“I’ve tasted the Cosmic Crisp; it’s a good apple.”

Charlie Mueller
Local apple grower

How soon the Cosmic Crisp apple will be available on all grocery shelves remains to be seen.

VGs Grocery stores in Fenton started receiving and selling Cosmic Crisp apples Dec. 10, said Produce Manager Krystal Morey of the Silver Parkway store.

Alpine Marketplace also began getting shipments of Cosmic Crisp apples Dec. 10. The local stores will carry the variety of apple for a while to see how well they sell.

Putting a shine on this apple is its ultra-crispy texture, juiciness and balance between sweetness and tartness. This new variety is also known for its long storage shelf life and its natural resistance to browning.

Cosmic Crisp is the result of 20 years of study and research by Washington State University’s tree fruit breeding program. In addition to helping pay for that research, apple growers need a license to buy the trees and pay a royalty on sales of the fruit. Already, apple growers have planted 12 million Cosmic Crisp apple trees.

Making Christmas more environmentally friendly

■ Six tips to reduce waste

By Hannah Ball

Christmas often comes with buying things we don’t need, and many of these items are only used for a few months until they’re dumped in a landfill.

Consider these tips to have an environmentally friendly Christmas:

1. Renting a Christmas tree or choosing a real tree is better for the environment, unless you use a fake (not prelit) tree for at least 20 years.

2. Most wrapping paper found at stores contains elements such as foil, glitter and certain plastics that aren’t recyclable. Tissue paper is not recyclable, nor are plastic bags, aluminum foil, Styrofoam containers or wax-coated cardboard.

To find out if your wrapping paper is recyclable, use the “scrunch test,” according to countryliving.com. To do the scrunch test, crumple a wad of the wrapping paper. If it unfolds on its own, it probably can’t be recycled.

To reduce your trash load, use brown paper or newspaper to wrap gifts.

3. Plan meals more efficiently and buy less food. Food waste can be a significant money waster and create more trash that ends up in landfills.

4. Choose gifts of experiences and not physical items. Taking someone out to lunch or the movies, planning a camping trip or a hot air balloon ride can be better gifts than a sweater or something a person might use once.

5. Use LED Christmas lights.

6. Use family heirlooms as Christmas ornaments instead of buying more plastic ones. Hang pictures or family trinkets on the tree to celebrate the holidays and loved ones.

Construction begins on $20 million building

■ Vicinia Gardens announces new independent living building in Fenton Township

Midwest Construction Group of Zeeland has begun construction on a $20 million residential independent living building at the 16-acre Vicinia Gardens senior campus in Fenton Township.

The new three-story, 170,000-square-foot facility is designed for independent senior living. The senior complex includes 133 residential units providing 71 one-bedroom apartments, 59 two-bedroom apartments and three studio units.

"The new building for independent living is phase four of Vicinia Gardens in Fenton that was opened in 2013," said Steve Steffey, Vicinia Gardens' manager member/owner. "We currently offer at the Vicinia campus assisted, intermediate and memory care. This next phase will add independent living opportunities."

Vicinia Gardens has plans for a fifth phase of construction for independent living cottages. The residential senior campus at 4031 Vicinia Way in Fenton Township. A second Vicinia Gardens senior community is in Otsego.

"We expect to have the new building completed and open in February 2021," said Scott Geerlings, Midwest Construction Group partner and president. "Midwest will be doing the construction management on the building and will be hiring 20 to 50 construction workers and tradesman from the local area to work on building construction."

PACKAGE THEFT

How to prevent the theft of your packages:

Lt. Jeff Cross of the Fenton Police Department said stolen packages do not happen very often in the city. He estimated they had fewer than 10 reports of it last year.

"Have packages delivered to your place of business or to an address where someone over 18 will be there to sign for the package," he said.

In Linden, Police Chief Scott Sutter said this isn't an issue there. He advises shoppers to track the packages online and know which company is handling the delivery. Save the receipt.

"Request a signature confirmation upon delivery. This prevents the delivery person from leaving the package unattended," he said. "Request a time for the package to be delivered when you're at home. Ask the delivery company to leave your packages somewhere it can't be seen from the street."

He also recommends installing home security cameras, both as a deterrent and to assist police in case you become a victim of "porch pirates." Request delivery alerts so you know when your package arrives.

"Many delivery companies offer — at no cost — text notification to your cell phone when a package has been delivered," Sutter said.

A bill recently passed by the Michigan legislature will make stealing packages from porches a misdemeanor on first offense punishable by up to a year in jail. On a second offense, they could be charged with a felony.

Sutter said previously, they would charge someone who committed this crime with larceny. The penalty was dependent on the amount stolen. If the package was worth less than $200, it was a 93-day misdemeanor and/or a $500 fine. If items worth $200 to $1,000 were stolen, it was punishable by up to a year in jail and/or not more than a $2,000 fine. Anything over $1,000 was a felony.

Police Chief Dan Allen of the Argentine Township Police Department said they have no reported incidents from this year or last year.

"If you are going to be away, have someone pick up your packages and hold onto them for you," he said.

In 2019, an “outbreak” of lung injuries associated with the use of e-cigarettes or “vaping” products swept the U.S.

E-cigarettes work by heating e-liquid which usually contains nicotine and flavoring, producing vapor that the user inhales.

The vaping industry has weathered negative news headlines and even a temporary ban on flavored e-liquids this year. The ban set in place by Gov. Gretchen Whitmer’s administration only lasted two weeks before being blocked by a Michigan judge, according to the Lansing State Journal.

Mary Ayar of Vaporia in Fenton said the ban put a damper on their plans to expand, and while the ban ended, they still feel like they’re “in limbo.” They opted to sell their flavoring, and their e-liquid with nicotine separately to get around the ban.

They’re preparing for new federal oversights on e-cigarettes that she said could cost them $300,000 per pre-market e-liquid application.

Despite this, vaping might be here to stay — so what’s going on with this relatively new habit?

A “mysterious” illness

The CDC named these vape injuries EVALI, or electronic vaping associated lung illness. As of Dec. 3, the CDC reports that there have been 2,291 of these EVALI cases across the U.S., with at least 56 in Michigan, two of which led to death.

Symptoms could include coughing, shortness of breath or chest pain, nausea, vomiting, abdominal pain, diarrhea, fever chills or weight loss.

According to the CDC studies, THC (tetrahydrocannabinol) is present in many of these cases and patients report using THC vaping products. THC is the active chemical in marijuana to provide the user with a “high.” These “dank vapes” are counterfeit products according to the CDC, not sold by reputable

Patrick and Mary Ayar of Vaporia in Fenton stand by their e-liquids in October. Since the temporary ban, they’ve started selling their flavorings and e-liquids separately, and they even supply other retailers. Times file photos shops. “Dank vapes” refer to black market e-cigarettes with THC.

Vitamin E acetate has been identified as a chemical of concern. The CDC recommends not using these THC products or any vaping products from informal sources.

Why some use e-cigarettes

Lake Fenton graduate Bethany Cuppernoll, 30, had smoked cigarettes for five years before she tried vaping. She experienced shortness of breath and coughing along with asthma and upper respiratory and sinus infections as a cigarette smoker. She started seeing an upper respiratory therapist who reported her lung capacity was at about 70 to 80 percent.

It took her a full year to switch from cigarettes to an e-cigarette. She said since she switched, all of these symptoms have abated.

Her lungs function at 100 percent capacity. She credits this with the e-cigarettes, which she only buys from reputable retailers.

“I totally agree that no one should just start vaping if they don’t already have a nicotine addiction,” she said. “Eventually I will quit vaping.”

Cuppernoll said that both cigarettes and e-cigarettes have an impact on the lungs, but she sees the e-cigarette as less severe. Vaping does weaken the cells of the lung but doesn’t rob the blood of oxygen, she said.

NOTES OF THANKS

The family of Bruce Dorland is proud of the city of Fenton and its fire department. Everyone in the city of Fenton can feel pride and honor in their officials’ conduct in regards to the passing of Bruce Dorland, 25 years as Fenton City fire chief. Fenton was Bruce’s home. Current Fire Chief Bob Cairnduff along with firefighters, retired and active, from his department and surrounding fire departments extended to the family of Bruce Dorland the honor guard, walk-through, pall bearers and fire truck escort and actual transport for old fire chief’s last run. Integrity, honor and tradition will be a lasting memory and a tribute to Bruce’s family

*Thank you and always remembered,
Family of Bruce E. Dorland*

Genesee District Library names Nick Eisengruber new headquarters branch librarian

The Genesee District Library (GDL) has named Nick Eisengruber the new headquarters branch librarian. He started his career with GDL as a library assistant in 2018. Eisengruber has a vision for the headquarters library. "I hope to continue the success that the previous librarian, Liz Kish, brought to the branch," he said. "Being flexible to patron needs is my goal." Eisengruber holds a bachelor's degree in history from Saginaw Valley State University and a Master's in Library and Information Science, with a Graduate Certificate in Archival Administration, from Wayne State University.

AT LEAST ONE thing about our current President, he works for the American people and he tries as hard as he can to keep his promises and has to fight the Democrats every step of the way. We accepted a lot from Obama and most of it was bad.

THE DEMOCRATS ARE done with their latest attack upon our country. It will fail like all the rest in the last three years. I fear when they panic and try to use forceful anarchy to overthrow our legal government. Communists always use fear and force as their last option. History will repeat itself once again.

IF YOU WERE paying attention to the facts, you would know that this plot against Trump began under Obama with Hillary and the DNC putting together the phony dossier and the FISA mess with the help of the Russians, to spy on Trump and his campaign. Sound familiar? Obama knew.

TRUMP'S APPROVAL RATING is surging upward. More Americans are working than ever in history, with the best economy and lowest unemployment.

Search is on for next Miss Hibernia

■ Genesee County women aged 16 to 22 with Irish ancestry have until Jan. 20, 2020 to enter contest

The 2020 Flint St. Patrick's Day grand marshal, Tony Vance, has announced that applications are being accepted for the 2020 Miss Hibernia Pageant with $3,000 in cash scholarships being awarded to Miss Hibernia and her court.

The Miss Hibernia Pageant, which has been a tradition in Genesee County for the past 36 years, is sponsored by the Grand Marshals of the Flint St. Patrick's Day Celebrations. The pageant is a highlight of the events leading up to the grand day in March and will select the queen and her court who will join the Grand Marshal in hosting the official St. Patrick's Day festivities in Flint on March 17.

The pageant is a two-step process with contestants first participating in a screening interview Jan. 26, 2020 at Brick Street of Grand Blanc and then preparing and delivering an essay at the pageant Feb. 8, 2020. The pageant will take place at the Dom Polski Hall in Mt. Morris Township. The newly selected 2020 Miss Hibernia and her court will be announced and introduced at the annual Pre-St. Patrick's Day Party, which is a fundraiser for the Miss Hibernia college scholarships and other activities promoting Irish culture and Christian charity throughout the year.

The chosen Miss Hibernia will receive a $1,500 cash scholarship, the first runner-up will receive a $1,000 cash scholarship and the second runner-up will receive a $500 cash scholarship.

Along with Vance, Miss Hibernia and her court will preside over various events on St. Patrick's Day, including the annual Catholic Mass celebrated by Diocese of Lansing Bishop Earl Boyea and the official Flint St. Patrick's Day Party at St. Matthew's Catholic Church Activity Center in downtown Flint.

The pageant is open to any young woman from Genesee County with Irish ancestry between the ages of 16 and 22. The deadline to apply is Jan. 20, 2020. The application and more details may be found online at FlintStPatricksDay.com or by calling (810)730-4446.

AIR MILES

Your holiday adventure begins here in Lapland, the northern tip of Europe at the Arctic Circle

By Sally Rummel

Elves, reindeer, festive magic and Santa Claus — all this awaits you in Lapland at the largest and northernmost region of Finland.

Comprising almost a third of Finland, Lapland lies within the Arctic Circle.

This region is beloved by families all over the world for being the epitome of the Christmas spirit.

Crisp Nordic air, pristine landscapes and the cutting-edge capital city of Helsinki come together to create a one-of-a-kind, up-and-coming travel destination.

A December trip to the Lapland of Finland might find you lodging in the woods in a glass igloo, with beds adjusted to sit you up slightly as you gaze at the bright night sky of the Northern Lights.

Give the gift of reading to the little ones on your list

Compiled By Vera Hogan

When it comes to our precious youngsters, there is nothing better than the gift of reading. Studies show that reading and sharing stories can help your child get to know sounds, words and language, and develop early literacy skills. It will spark your child's imagination and stimulate curiosity, and help develop social and communication skills.

The following are a few fun books to share with your children this Christmas.

Dog Man: For Whom the Ball Rolls

Published: Aug. 13, 2019

Author: Dav Pilkey (creator of Captain Underpants)

The Supa Buddies have been working hard to help Dog Man overcome his bad habits. But when his obsessions turn to fears, Dog Man finds himself the target of an all-new supervillain. Meanwhile, Petey the Cat has been released from jail and starts a new life with Li'l Petey.

Good Night, Little Blue Truck

Published: Oct. 15, 2019

Author: Alice Schertle

Illustrator: Jill McElmurry

Beep! Beep! Beep!

It's time for sleep.

Say goodnight with Little Blue Truck and friends — a perfect bedtime read-aloud in this bestselling series. A storm is brewing and Little Blue Truck and his good friend Toad are hurrying home for bed. But who can sleep with all that racket?

The Crayons' Christmas

Published: Oct. 15, 2019

Author: Drew Daywalt

Illustrator: Oliver Jeffers

A brand-new Crayons book from the No. 1 New York Times best-selling duo Drew Daywalt and Oliver Jeffers is just in time for the holidays. This special book has letters, games, ornaments, a poster, and even a pop-up Christmas tree.

Diary of a Wimpy Kid: Wrecking Ball

Published: Nov. 5, 2019

Author: Jeff Kinney

A No. 1 New York Times Bestselling Series is Diary of a Wimpy Kid Series. Once the walls come down, all sorts of problems start to crop up. Rotten wood, toxic mold, unwelcome critters, and something even more sinister all make Greg and his family wonder if the renovations are worth the trouble.

Hey Granddude!

Published: Sept. 5, 2019

Author: Paul McCartney

Illustrator: Kathryn Durst

This is a one-of-a-kind adventurer. With his magic compass, he whisks his four grandkids off on whirlwind adventures, taking them all around the globe. Join them as they ride flying fish, dodge stampedes, and escape avalanches. It's the perfect bedtime story for little explorers.

Santa's Story

Published: Sept. 10, 2019

Author: Will Hillenbrand

Santa is ready to leave on Christmas Eve, but he can't find the reindeer anywhere. Dasher is busy dashing, Donner is dozing, and Cupid is crooning. It isn't until Santa remembers their annual tradition — reading a Christmas story together — that the reindeer are ready.

Then in the morning, you'll begin your snow-covered adventure being pulled by your dogsled team of huskies through the woods. Hike in your snowshoes and make sure you stop at the actual North Pole, home of the Santa Claus Village, where Santa actually lives.

LAPLAND BY THE NUMBERS:

Square miles: 38,752

Population: 179,223

Religion: 71.9 percent Christian,

with the majority being members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Finland

Language: Finnish, then Swedish and Russian

Average temperatures: 3 to 37 degrees F. in peak travel months from December through February.

How much does it cost to get there?

If you go during the month of December, airfare spikes to about $1,600 from Detroit Metro Airport to Helsinki-Vantaa Airport in Finland. Then you hop on a smaller plane to Lapland in the Arctic Circle.

It's very cold in the winter, with limited daylight. However, summers are warm with up to 20 hours of daily sunlight, so the best time to visit depends on whether you want snow or sunshine.

For the best viewing of the Northern Lights at Abisko National Park, plan your trip between November and the end of March.

Where to stay

Lapland is roughly the size of Portugal, but has only about 180,000 residents (and 200,000-plus reindeer). Accommodations in cities, small towns and villages range from luxury aurora viewing suites and top quality hotels to quaint hostels and cozy cottages.

Check out Arctic Snow Hotel and Glass Igloos in Rovaniemi, or the Kakslauttanen Arctic Resort, a luxurious resort surrounded by wilderness. Visitors can stay in a variety of unique accommodations including cozy log cabins and glass igloos, giving guests an unobstructed view of the night sky.

What to do

• Husky safari

Visit a local husky farm and become acquainted with these friendly dogs, the commands and the equipment before leading these dogs on a snow-covered adventure.

• Reindeer safari

Set out for remote areas of Kakslauttanen on a relaxing reindeer safari that takes you deep into nature with local reindeer herders. Chat with the local Sami people during your adventure on a sleigh led by Finnish reindeer.

• Meet Santa Claus

Lapland's main town, Rovaniemi, is officially the hometown of Santa Claus with three Santa-themed attractions, including Santa Claus Village, Santa Park and Jolukka, a rural attraction where kids can hang out with Santa's elves, go fishing, see reindeer and pick berries.

• Skiing

Cross-country skiing is a national pastime, partly because it's the easiest way to get around while Lapland is under a deep blanket of snow from October through April.

• Saunas

There's more than one sauna for every three people in Lapland. In the bitter winter, it's the ultimate escape from the cold. If you've been out trekking in the summer, it's a remedy for aching feet and backs.

• Lapland foods

Here's your chance to try sautéed reindeer served on a bed of mashed potatoes with (poronkaristys), and in the summer, you'll find suovaskebabs, smoked reindeer meat in pita bread with salad and garlic sauce.

"Squeaky cheese," so-called because of the noise it makes when you chew it, is the oldest and most well known gourmet cheese in Finland. It is served with another Lapland specialty — cloudberry jam.

Christmas

The suspect then left. Shortly after, the woman examined the cash and discovered that it was “for motion picture use only” money. She immediately drove to the Fenton police station to report the fraud. This case is under investigation.

A similar transaction occurred Dec. 5.

Cross said a 23-year-old Holly man agreed to meet an unknown buyer for his PlayStation 4 in the parking lot of a big box store in the 3700 block of Owen Road at 9 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 5. The man and the buyer had communicated through the app “letgo,” which lets people buy and sell used items.

The Holly man gave the buyer the PlayStation 4 and the buyer pulled out a handgun, pointed it at the man and told him to get back into his car. The suspect in this armed robbery got into an unknown vehicle and drove away. The suspect was described as a heavy set black male, between 20 and 30 years old. This case also is under investigation

Cross said the Fenton Police Department is advising anyone who makes a transaction over the internet to meet the buyer or seller in the lobby of the Fenton police station (311 S. LeRoy St.), which is open 24/7. Someone with the police department is always there and the area has security cameras for everyone’s safety.

“You are welcome to meet here for any transaction,” Cross said. “We advise people to do that.”

In both of these cases, the transaction was done in close proximity of U.S. 23, which allows suspects to flee the area quickly. “It’s happening more and more,” Cross said.
