FUNERAL ETIQUETTE

When you arrive at the funeral home, go to the family, and express your sympathy with an embrace or by offering your hands. Don't feel as though you must avoid talking about the person who has died. Talking can help the grieving process begin. If you were an acquaintance of the deceased but not well-known to the family, immediately introduce yourself. Do not feel uncomfortable if you or the family member becomes emotional or begins to cry. Allowing the family to grieve is a natural healing process. However, if you find yourself becoming extremely upset, it would be kinder to excuse yourself so as not to increase the strain on the family.

RECIPES ONLINE AT www.allrecipes.com

Or search Facebook for: Facebook.com/allrecipes

DIRECTIONS:

1. Lightly grease a 9x9 inch pan and line with waxed paper, smoothing out wrinkles; set aside.
2. Place the semisweet chocolate and 1 teaspoon of the canola oil in the top of a double boiler over just barely simmering water, stirring frequently and scraping down the sides with a rubber spatula to avoid scorching. When the chocolate is melted, stir in 1/4 teaspoon of the peppermint extract. Pour the melted chocolate into the prepared pan, and spread evenly over the bottom of the pan. Sprinkle half of the crushed peppermints over the chocolate layer. Refrigerate until completely hardened, about 1 hour.
3. Place the white chocolate and the remaining 1 teaspoon canola oil in the top of a double boiler over just barely simmering water, stirring frequently and scraping down the sides with a rubber spatula to avoid scorching. When the chocolate is melted, stir in the remaining 1/4 teaspoon peppermint extract. Pour the white chocolate directly over the semisweet chocolate layer; spread evenly. Sprinkle the remaining crushed candy over the top and gently press in. Refrigerate until completely hardened. Remove from pan; break into small pieces to serve.

Holiday gifts for four-legged family members

Holiday shoppers who are busy making lists and checking them twice should make sure they don't overlook the family pet. Christmas has gone to the cats and dogs, as a greater number of people include their companion animals when selecting gifts each year.

A study by OnePoll conducted by Rover.com, the nation's largest network of dog sitters and walkers, found that 95 percent of pet owners have bought holiday gifts for their pets. Gifts can range from everyday needs, like food and treats, to more lavish extravagances like spa treatments.

Pet owners who plan to get their pets gifts this year may want to consider some of the emerging pet trends as they browse wares and services. The Balance, a business, career and industry information site, says pet industry trends point toward these segments seeing growth.

Natural pet products

Just as people are interested in protecting the health of the planet and their own personal health, so, too, are they extending this concern to companion animals. Natural pet products, which can include natural flea and tick remedies, holistic foods, organic items, and all-natural grooming products, can make great gifts.

Specialty pet services

The American Pet Products Association says the demand for high-end pet grooming and other services is substantial. In addition, personalized training, behavioral consulting, portrait photography, dog sitting, and upscale spa treatments like pet Reiki and massage are booming.

Mobile pet grooming

Mobile pet grooming has become the norm in many areas. Mobile pet grooming can reduce the potential stress on animals and tends to be very convenient for customers, particularly seniors and others who have mobility issues.

Beyond these growing trends, pet owners have a bevy of other ideas from which to choose. Here are just a few different suggestions:

- tests to detect pets' DNA and trace breed and ancestry,
- interactive puzzles to keep pets engaged and banish boredom,
- stylish storage baskets for pet toys,
- hidden cat litter or dog crate items that camouflage commonly used pet items,
- heated pet bed for cozy nights and mornings, and
- signature vests, coats and sweaters to look good and remain comfortable.

But the trio of friends will have to stay one-step ahead of Burnish (Eddie Izzard), a wealthy man intent on capturing a Yeti, and zoologist Dr. Zara (Sarah Paulson) to help Everest get home.

By David Troppens

Flint — Anyone who saw the first half of Lake Fenton's varsity boys basketball team's first game this season saw an extremely entertaining first half of basketball.

And during it, the Blue Devils looked mighty impressive.

Under first-year head coach Josh Fox, the squad used an uptempo style, frustrating the host Kearsley Hornets for most of the first 16 minutes of the contest. The Blue Devils pushed the ball upcourt and rarely had to settle into much of a half-court offense. The results were a pretty impressive 43-29 halftime lead.

However, the Blue Devils weren't able to maintain that tempo in the second half, struggled trying to keep the lead with its halfcourt offense during the second half and lost a tough 67-63 verdict at Kearsley High School on Tuesday.

The halves were stark contrasts. Lake Fenton shot a sizzling 18-for-33 with just five turnovers in the first half. In the second half, when they were trying to maintain their lead, the squad hit on just 6-of-28 shots from the field. Kearsley was

Linden wrestling open season vs. challenging foes

By David Troppens

Linden — When it comes to opening up a season with a bang, it's hard to beat Linden's opener on Wednesday.

First off, the Eagles had three strong squads at the meet, headlined by the No. 2 Division 4 squad, New Lothrop, as potential foes.

Finally, the Eagles opened the season with an assembly dual, meaning a good portion of the first dual was competed with the Linden High School student body in attendance.

The Eagles took some lumps in the matches, losing to Bay City John Glenn 52-22, but then posted a stronger score against New Lothrop, a 47-29 loss.

"We knew going into this meet it was going to be tough, but that's what we wanted," Linden varsity wrestling coach Kyle Summerfield said. "We wanted opponents that we had to wrestle well to beat.

"It's a really great experience for the kids and the student-athletes in general. It's really fun to wrestle in front of a student body whether you are home or away. It's a great atmosphere. I know these guys were excited to wrestle today."

Against John Glenn, the Eagles posted four individual wins with three being pinfall victories. The pinfall wins were recorded by Uzziah Delgado (171), Jaylon Berry (145) and Jayden Rittenbury (152). Colton Powell (189) also started his season with a victory, earning a 14-2 major decision victory.

"The first match went a little shaky but that's the way it goes," Summerfield said. "We didn't schedule someone we

Bauman inducted into Greater Flint Athletic HOF

By David Troppens

Mark Bauman had a suggestion by his older brother, Doug, that he may want to join the Flint Ainsworth cross country team during his junior season.

That suggestion changed the course of Mark Bauman's life.

Bauman, who owns Bauman's Running and Walking Shop located at 1473 Hill Rd., has since run in 50 Boston Marathons, every single Detroit Free Press Marathon, every single Crim 10-mile race and every Volkslaufe 20K race. He has helped organize other running events and has helped others with their running careers through his business.

Recently, he was given an honor for his notoriety to the Flint area's running world — he was inducted into the Greater Flint Athletic Hall of Fame.

"My older brother thought it would be a good idea to run cross country my junior year," Bauman said. "Yeah, it was pretty quick. I was hooked."

Bauman, 69, was honored along with his class of inductees, which included Fenton's Ivan Williams, Julie Roberts-Decker and the 1995 Lake Fenton softball team.

"It's extremely special," Bauman said. "What a privilege it is. I am so lucky to have had this happen to me. It's a great group and to go in the same year as Olympian Geena Gall-(Levoe), that's really impressive to me."

Once hooked on the sport, he attended Flint Community College (now Mott Community College) and his track coach, Paul Griffin, encouraged him to run in the Boston Marathon. The 1970 version was his first. It began a run of 50 straight Boston Marathons, the longest current streak, only second to Maryland's Ben Beach's streak of 52 years.

"I don't think I ever thought about it," Bauman said. "When I was a young age I don't think I ever thought about competing when I was this old. But once I got older,

I wanted to see how long can I go."

His fastest time at Boston was 2:30:32 in 1975. But just like any runner, he was hoping for better.

"I hoped to go quicker," Bauman said.

Bauman, a Flushing resident, finished the 2019 race in 6:31:32.

"I have been extremely lucky I haven't had any injuries keeping me from competing," Bauman said.

Of course, a lot of people in the tri-county area know Bauman for his business. It didn't start with a typical building.

"I started it out in the trunk of my car, taking shoes to races," Bauman said. "Eventually it became a business."

"It was a slow start. It wasn't good getting loans to start the business. I built my inventory as I made money. It was a slow process, and a slow gradual build-up."

Bauman still loves running, and expects to be at the 2020 Boston Marathon.

able to control Lake Fenton's tempo better and shot 13-for-27 themselves during the second half, earning the Hornets the come-from-behind victory.

"We want to push, obviously," Fox said. "We don't have the size of other teams so we want to get out in transition and get easy shots as much as we can. We can focus on the players making plays instead of running plays."

"That's what we've been doing the whole time, but it's a learning experience. They also have to learn how to finish and close the games. We want to be uptempo, but at the same time we have to be able to slow down too when we have the game in hand. We'll learn that and we'll get better."

Kearsley jumped out to an early 5-0 lead, but once the Blue Devils tied the game at 10-10 on a short hoop by Francis Senter, the rest of the first half was dominated by Lake Fenton. That hoop sparked a 11-6 run that capped the first quarter. A post layup by Matt Turgeon gave the Blue Devils a 19-16 lead after one quarter.

were going to roll. We scheduled somebody that I thought we would have to wrestle really well to beat.

"Our heart was great, but it was a little sloppy. Early in the season, that's kind of what happens sometimes."

The Eagles jumped to an early lead against New Lothrop. Delgado improved to 2-0 with two pinfall wins by earning a second pinfall win in his second match. However, New Lothrop won each of the next four matches (three by pinfall) to take a 22-6 lead.

The Eagles fought back.

Bronchos' second quarter costs Holly verdict vs. DeWitt

By David Troppens

A year ago, DeWitt's varsity girls basketball team went 23-3 and advanced to the Division 2 state quarterfinal.

The Panthers remain a strong squad this season as well.

The Holly varsity girls basketball team competed against DeWitt on Tuesday and played well against the squad for three quarters. However, Holly was outscored 22-6 in the second quarter resulting in a 54-21 loss.

"They were very good," Holly varsity girls basketball coach Ben Varner said. "I was really happy with how we competed. The score doesn't show it, but we played pretty well. The second quarter is the one that killed us. The rest of the game was not bad and we competed against them."

Holly trailed 11-4 in the first quarter but the 22-6 second quarter blew the deficit to 33-10 at halftime.
