Perfumes make a wonderful gift for the love in your life

By Vera Hogan

With Valentine's Day just around the corner, now might be a good time to consider giving the love of your life the gift of the enticing scents found in perfumes. From $30 a bottle to $1 million, there is a perfume for every budget.

But buyer beware, the more you spend the more likely you are to get a quality perfume experience. There are knock-offs of major perfume names at discount and dollar stores. You get what you pay for and cheap might just smell that way — cheap.

The history of perfumes goes back 5,000 years to the ancient Egyptians who originally used them in religious ceremonies, according to sciencing.com. Making a perfume requires extensive knowledge in organic chemistry as well as a creative approach to combining disparate extracts into a single perfume with layers of fragrances.

Valentine's Day is about AMORE and AROMA

HISTORY OF PERFUME

Perfumes have their roots in scented gums such as frankincense and myrrh, which were used as incense during religious rituals. The ancient Egyptians also used perfumes during the embalming process. Scented unguents were developed by steeping herbs such as peppermint or flowers such as rose in an oil until the essence was infused.

The Romans routinely scented their bathwater. The foundations of modern synthetic perfumes originated during the 19th century with advances in organic chemistry.

THE STRUCTURE OF WHAT YOU SMELL

Most perfumes are composed of a three-part structure. The "head," also referred to as the "top" note, is the first olfactory impression the perfume imparts. The second is the "heart" note, which is the main fragrance that lasts for several hours. The last is the "base" note, the fragrance which underpins the whole perfume and is comprised of the least volatile chemicals. These make the fragrance last all day.

PERFUMES

WHAT PERFUME IS MADE OF

A perfume consists of 78 to 95 percent ethyl alcohol. Essential oils comprise the remaining ingredients. The staying power of a scent compound in a perfume depends on its rate of evaporation, according to sciencing.com. Perfumes also have different classes of fragrance such as “floral,” “woody” or “citrus” notes. Modern perfumes contain many synthetic compounds that are altered to give them unique characteristics such as increased odor. Some common plant sources for scents are cardamon, jasmine, lavender, sandalwood and nutmeg. Animals sources such as musk were once common ingredients but are no longer used for ethical reasons.

MAKING PERFUME

A variety of methods are employed in perfume manufacturing. Distillation involves heating materials containing fragrant chemicals and condensing them into a vapor that is then collected.

Another technique is maceration, where raw ingredients are soaked in water, oil or a solvent to draw out the fragrances. Expression involves compressing materials and squeezing out the aromatic oils. “Enfleurage” is two-step process of drawing out a fragrance into a fat or oil base and then extracting it with an alcohol.

HEALTH CONSIDERATIONS

There are more than 3,000 base ingredients that manufacturers draw on to make a perfume. Many compounds in perfumes are synthetic such as galaxolide (a synthetic musk) and diethyl phthalate, a plasticizing agent. Continuous exposure to chemicals is unavoidable in a perfume, as they are in direct contact with skin and readily absorbed.

According to the advocacy group Campaign for Safe Cosmetics, many perfumes on the market contain agents that cause allergies, dermatitis and hormone disruption, among other adverse physiological effects. Current federal laws do not require the disclosure of any of these chemicals as a listed ingredient.

According to news-medical.net, some common symptoms of perfume allergy include mild to severe headache; skin irritation, itching, and rashes; sneezing, coughing and runny nose, also called allergic rhinitis; breathing difficulties, dizziness, and fatigue; muscle aches; watery, red, and itchy eyes, wheezing and inability to concentrate.

MOONSTRUCK!

2020 will see 13 full moons

By Vera Hogan

The year 2020 will feature a baker's dozen of full moons, two of which will be supermoons, the popular nickname given to a full Moon that coincides with perigee, which is the point in the Moon's orbit of Earth where it's closest to our planet. There will be two full moons in October, the latter of which will be on Halloween. The names of the moons are steeped in Native American tradition. They are:

Source: almanac.com

Full Wolf Moon Jan. 10; 2:23 p.m.

(was not visible in the U.S.)

The full Moon for January was called the Full Wolf Moon because wolves were more often heard at this time. Wolves tend to howl more often during winter months, and generally howl to define territory, locate pack members, and gather for hunting.

Full Snow Moon Feb. 9; 2:34 a.m.

Traditionally, the Moon we see in February is called the Snow Moon due to the typically heavy snowfall of February. On average, February is the USA's snowiest month, according to data from the National Weather Service.

Full Worm Moon

March 9; 1:48 p.m. (Supermoon)
March's is called the Full Worm Moon because at this time of the year, the ground begins to soften enough for earthworm casts to reappear, inviting robins and other birds to feed — a true sign of spring. Roots start to push their way up through the soil and the Earth experiences a re-birth as it awakens from its winter slumber.

Full Pink Moon

April 7; 10:35 p.m. (Supermoon)
April's full Moon is called the Full Pink Moon, heralding the appearance of the "moss pink," or wild ground phlox—one of the early spring flowers.

Full Flower Moon May 7; 6:45 a.m.

The May full Moon marked a time of increasing fertility, with temperatures warm enough for safely bearing young, a near end to late frosts, and plants in bloom.

Full Strawberry Moon June 5; 3:12 p.m.

The June full Moon or the last full Moon of spring is called the Full Strawberry Moon. This name originated with the Algonquin tribes in eastern North America who knew it as a signal to gather the ripening fruit of wild strawberries.

Full Buck Moon July 5; 12:44 a.m.

Traditionally, the full Moon for July is called the Full Buck Moon because a buck's antlers are in full growth mode at this time. This full Moon was also known as the Thunder Moon because thunderstorms are so frequent during this month.

Full Sturgeon Moon Aug. 3; 11:59 a.m.

The full Moon for August is called Sturgeon Moon because Native Americans knew that the giant sturgeon of the Great Lakes and Lake Champlain were most readily caught during this full Moon.

Full Corn Moon Sept. 2; 1:23 a.m.

The September full Moon was the Full Corn Moon because it traditionally corresponded with the time of harvesting corn. It was also called the Barley Moon, as this is the time to harvest and thresh ripened barley.

Full Harvest Moon/ Hunter's Moon

Oct. 1; 5:06 p.m./Oct. 31; 10:51 a.m.

The Full Hunter's Moon is one of only two full Moon names that is not tied to a specific month. Instead, the Hunter's Moon relates directly to the Harvest Moon. The first full Moon to occur after the Harvest Moon (which is the closest full moon to the autumnal equinox) takes on the mantle of "Hunter's Moon," which means that the Full Hunter's Moon may occur in either October or November, depending on when the Harvest Moon is.

Full Beaver Moon Nov. 30; 4:32 a.m.

This is the time of year when beavers begin to take shelter in their lodges, having laid up sufficient stores of food for the long winter ahead. During the time of the fur trade, it was also the season to trap beavers for their thick, winter-ready pelts.

Full Cold Moon Dec. 29; 10:30 p.m.

December's full Moon has traditionally been known as the Full Cold Moon by some Native American tribes since this is the month that heralds in the cold winter season.

By David Troppens

The Fenton/Linden varsity hockey team put its offense on display against the Lapeer Lightning.

Linden wrestlers headed to Metro League meet in first place

By David Troppens

When the Flint Metro League wrestling meet starts on Saturday, the Linden Eagles will be the team to beat in the league's Stripes Division.

That's because the Eagles locked up a perfect dual league season by beating Kearsley 52-30 Wednesday. Meanwhile, the Eagles also defeated Stars Division competitor Clio 54-27.

Linden finished the dual season with a 5-0 mark in the Stripes Division and a 10-0 record among all Metro League teams.

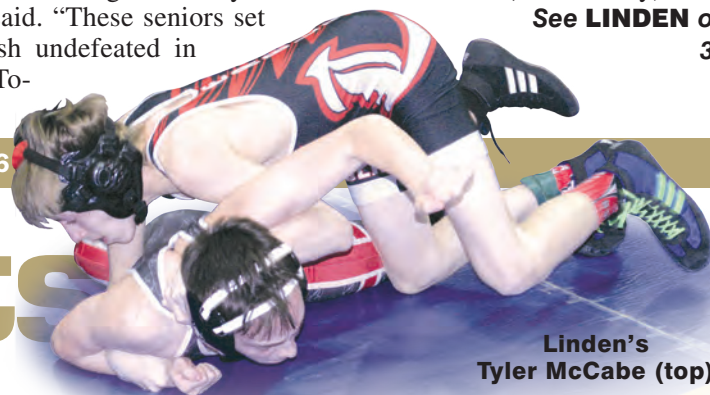

"We finished tonight as a team," Linden varsity wrestling coach Kyle Summerfield said. "These seniors set a goal to finish undefeated in the Metro. Tonight, they finished a perfect 10-0. Individually we had some guys lose that should not have, but as a team we had others step up and get big pins. We host the individual portion of the Metro tournament (on Saturday)."

Tigers capture victory vs. Cavaliers, 58-49

By David Troppens

It was a slow start by the Fenton varsity boys basketball team against Corunna Tuesday night.

The Tigers trailed 17-11 after one quarter. However, the Tigers' offense heated up during the final three quarters, outscoring the Cavaliers 47-32 resulting in a 58-49 road victory.

"We got off to a sluggish start. We just weren't really smooth," Fenton varsity boys basketball coach Chad Logan said. "It took the first quarter for us to get going. We picked it up from there. We had a four-point lead at halftime.

"We didn't make any adjustments in the second half. We just played a little better. We passed the ball, found the open guy and made some shots."

The Tigers (6-5) led by double-digits most of the second half, and only a Corunna three-pointer at the buzzer put the lead into single-digits. at the end of the game.

Addison McIntosh led the Tigers' offense with 18 points, netting 12 of those points with three-pointers. Jacob Boulay had nine points. Corunna kept reasonably close with eight three-pointers. Carson Socia had 18 points to lead Corunna.

LF boys win thriller vs. Kearsley, 72-70

By David Troppens

The Lake Fenton varsity boys basketball team has had their share of crazy close games this season.

And now the Blue Devils are starting to double-up on crazy close games between the same teams.

On Jan. 31, the Blue Devils lost their second straight game against Corunna that was decided by two or less points. On Tuesday, the Blue Devils had their second straight game between Kearsley decided by three points or less, earning a 72-70 victory at home against the Hornets.

The Blue Devils opened the season with a 67-64 loss to Kearsley at the start of the season. It was a game they had a nice lead in before losing the contest. The same pattern almost happened Tuesday. Lake Fenton led by 19 early in the third quarter, but Kearsley cut the gap to just 66-63 late in the fourth quarter. However, the Blue Devils held on to the lead, with Cade McMillan leading the way. McMillan hit a bucket, making it a 68-63 lead. Kearsley responded with a bucket again, but then Carter Foerster responded with another bucket. The Blue Devils still held a 70-65 lead. Kearsley then cut the gap to just 70-68 after a three-pointer by Tyler Csintyan, but McMillan made two free throws, raising the gap back to 72-68.

Kearsley cut the gap back to just two, at 72-70, one last time, but the Hornets were unable to score again, earning the Blue Devils the victory.

Lake Fenton holds just a 3-10 record, but they've had more close games than just about any team in the state. Six of their 13 games have been decided by four points or less, with one of the four-point differential games ac-

Holly sweeps dual; Blue Devils defeat Blackhawks

By David Troppens

Lake Fenton — It's been a year unlike most in Holly varsity wrestling history with longtime coach Don Pluta retired from the program. Nate Young wrestled the final match of Pluta's Holly varsity wrestling coaching career in a state championship match at Ford Field last March, and is now (along with his teammates) learning about first-year coach Zachary Wood.

The season has gone pretty well so far. The Holly Bronchos defeated Swartz Creek and Brandon on Wednesday and now enter the Metro League meet in second place in the league's Stripes Division. Young has liked what he's seen out of the team this winter. "Coach has done a great job," Young said. "We are super-conditioned. We are learning how to drill. Each of us are getting better.

We are out-toughing most of the kids we wrestle. It's been a great experience." Despite voiding for weight classes, Holly opened the meet with a 42-33 victory against Swartz Creek and then beat Lake Fenton 47-24 at Lake Fenton High School. The Blue Devils won their other meet of the day, breaking a 40-40 tie based on tiebreaking criteria. CONTINUED AT TCTIMES.COM

Linden girls capture thriller vs. Ortonville-Brandon, 37-33

By David Troppens

The Linden varsity girls basketball team lost a heartbreaking game in the final minutes against Holly on Jan. 31.

The Eagles made sure it didn't happen again in a home game against Ortonville-Brandon.

The Eagles (3-10) got a clutch three-point hoop by Megan Widner to take the lead. The defense held on from there, earning the Eagles the 37-33 victory.

Alexcis Parker was fouled and converted a free throw to seal the game.

"Overall every player had a big impact in the win, and I am really proud of the victory," Linden varsity girls basketball coach Zack Darling said.

Parker led the Eagles with 16 points, five steals, four rebounds and three assists. Kelsey McLennan grabbed a team-high 16 rebounds while earning five points, three steals, two blocks and two assists. Jordan Dingo had four points. The Eagles played strong defense. The 33 points they allowed represented the second-least amount of points they've given up in a game this regular season.

The Eagles are showing progress during the season, already winning two more games than a year ago.

Linden Eagles soar by Brandon Blackhawks, 70-46

By David Troppens

The Linden varsity boys basketball team didn't have the strongest performance in the first quarter of the Eagles' contest against Brandon on Tuesday.

That doesn't matter if a team averages 20 points in each of the final three periods.

That's what happened at Brandon High School. The Eagles' offense was strong the rest of the way resulting in a 70-46 victory against the Brandon Blackhawks.

A 21-point second quarter was sparked by Blake Lund, who hit three treys in the period. He finished with 11 second-quarter points, while Shane Eberhard netted six points.

In the third quarter, Lund netted another eight points in the third quarter, while five others also scored.

The Eagles (11-2) hit 13 three-pointers, with Lund leading the way with five treys. Lund finished with 24 points while Reichen Lund hit four treys and netted 13 points. Gavin Wildeman had 12 points and Brenden Miller netted nine points.

Holly girls fall to Martians, 58-37

The Holly varsity girls basketball team gave a strong Goodrich squad a good battle for the first quarter.

However, Goodrich's offense, sparked by Maddie Voelker, came to life in the middle two quarters, resulting in a 58-37 Martians' victory.

Voelker scored a game-high 32 points, coming five points away from tying the Bronchos herself.

Holly trailed just 16-10 after one quarter, but the Bronchos were outscored 18-6 in the second quarter, resulting in a 34-16 halftime lead. Goodrich took a 49-24 lead after three quarters.

"We played a very good Goodrich team and gave them everything we had," Holly varsity girls basketball coach Ben Varner said.

Renewal of Oakland County Art Institute Authority Millage

In 2012 the electors of Oakland County approved a 10-year millage to provide County residents with services from the Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA) through the Oakland County Art Institute Authority.

As a result of the millage, the DIA provides Oakland County residents with free K-12 school field trips including free transportation, free senior group programming with free transportation, and unlimited free general admission. To ensure transparency, the DIA submits to an annual independent audit and posts financial reports online.

To continue to provide revenue to the DIA, which will allow these DIA services for the residents of the County to continue, the Art Institute Authority is permitted by law to seek a renewal of the millage at a rate of no more than the current 0.2 mill (20 cents per $1,000 taxable value) on all real and personal property in the County. Revenue from this millage will be disbursed to the Art Institute Authority and then transferred to the DIA as permitted by and for the purposes set forth in Public Act 296 of 2010. It is estimated that if approved and levied, this millage renewal would generate approximately $13,600,000 in 2022.

Do you approve the renewal of the 0.2 mill on all taxable property located within the County for a period of 10 years from 2022 through 2031?

Precinct #1 Only

Mott Community College Bond Proposition

Shall Charles Stewart Mott Community College, Genesee County, Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Eighty Million Dollars ($80,000,000) and issue its bonds therefor in one or more series for the purpose of making permanent improvements to, renovating, remodeling, improving, equipping and reequipping College buildings and sites and other buildings to be used by the College for instructional purposes; acquiring buildings and sites for buildings; and constructing buildings and additions to buildings?

The maximum number of years each series of bonds may be outstanding, exclusive of refunding, is 20 years; the estimated millage that will be levied to pay the proposed bonds in the first year that the levy is authorized is 0.36 mills (which is equal to 36 cents per $1,000 of taxable value of real and tangible personal property in the College District); and the estimated simple average annual millage that will be required to retire the bonds is 0.34 mills (which is equal to 34 cents per $1,000.00 of taxable value of real and tangible personal property in the College District).

A copy of the ballot proposal may be obtained at the Rose Township Clerk's office, 9080 Mason St., Holly, MI 48442, telephone (248) 634-8701. A sample ballot may be viewed at mi.gov/vote.

LF girls get stung by Kearsley Hornets, 70-55

By David Troppens

It looked like the Lake Fenton varsity girls basketball team was in the middle of a strong battle with Metro League Stripes Division co-leader Kearsley.

The Blue Devils trailed 13-0 early in the first quarter but Lake Fenton went on a 16-3 run to cut the gap to 17-16. However, the Hornets outscored Lake Fenton 24-10 in the second quarter. That resulted in a 41-26 halftime lead and an eventual 70-55 Hornets' victory.

The first come back was entertaining. Trailing 13-0, Katelyn Seibert netted a bucket, sparking a 16-point run. Kerrigan Howdeshell tied the game at 15-15, and Christina Lamb hit a free throw, giving the Blue Devils a 16-15 lead. However, Kearsley scored the final bucket of the quarter, taking the 17-16 lead.

Lake Fenton would never lead again. The Blue Devils were still within a 19-18 margin after Sydney Hammis converted two free throws, but the Hornets went on an 18-2 run, lifting their lead to 37-20.

Grilled Adobo Turkey BBT Sandwich

INGREDIENTS:

- 1¼ pounds turkey tenderloins
- 2 teaspoons olive oil
- 1½ tablespoons Adobo Seasoning (see below)
- 9 slices thick slab bacon
- 4 tablespoons unsalted butter
- 8 slices sourdough bread
- 6 tablespoons romesco sauce
- 12 thin slices Manchego cheese
- 16 fresh basil leaves
- Thinly sliced tomato

ADOBO SEASONING

- 1 tablespoon onion powder
- 1 tablespoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
- 1 teaspoon dried oregano, crushed in your palm
- ½ teaspoon ground turmeric

History suggests that the sandwich - a go-to, lunch-hour staple - was named for John Montagu, the Fourth Earl of Sandwich. Lord Sandwich was an 18th century English aristocrat who asked his valet to bring him meat tucked between two pieces of bread while Sandwich was embroiled in a cribbage match he just had to play through. Even though Lord Sandwich wasn't the first to enjoy meat or cheese between bread, he was the one to help solidify the moniker "sandwich." Since then, all types of sandwiches have been designed and enjoyed, and these portable meals are a favorite for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Enjoy this take on the sandwich, a "Grilled Adobo Turkey BBT Sandwich" from "Simply Scratch" (Avery) by Laurie McNamara.

Makes 4 sandwiches

DIRECTIONS:

1. Combine all ingredients for the adobo seasoning. Place the turkey in a large bowl or resealable bag. Add the oil and seasoning, toss to coat and set aside on the counter to marinate.
2. In a large skillet, cook the bacon until crispy, about 30 minutes.
3. Heat a grill pan between medium and medium-high heat. Place the seasoned turkey on the pan and cook for 2 to 3 minutes per side, adjusting the heat so as to not burn, 12 to 14 minutes total. Transfer to a cutting board to rest for 5 minutes before slicing.
4. Reduce the heat under the grill pan to medium or medium-low. Butter one side of each piece of bread. On one of the unbuttered sides, spread 1½ tablespoons of the romesco sauce. Place the bread, sauce-side up, on the grill pan and top with 2 slices of cheese, some basil, a few slices of tomato, bacon, sliced turkey, remaining cheese, and a second piece of buttered bread, sauce-side down. Grill for 3 to 4 minutes, or until grill marks form, then carefully flip and repeat.
5. Cut in half and serve with more romesco sauce for dipping.

Starter supplies for small pets

Cats and dogs may get much of the attention, but small pets can bring just as much to a household as their larger counterparts. Diminutive in size but not personality, hamsters, guinea pigs, ferrets, reptiles, mice, and more may be just the right fit for those who desire a pet, but may not have the space or money for large animals.

The American Pet Products Association's 2017-2018 National Pet Owners Survey found that 7.9 million households had birds, 6.7 million had various small animals, and 4.7 million included assorted reptiles. The pet sitter company PetBacker says 9 percent of Canadians own pets such as fish; birds; small mammals, such as hamsters; and reptiles. They may be smaller in size, but these pets still need a variety of gear.

They may be smaller in size, but these pets still need a variety of gear.

Toys and other gear
Small animals need items to provide mental stimulation and physical activity. These items do not need to be complicated or expensive. A gerbil or hamster may appreciate an empty toilet paper tube to run through. Some pets like to race around in plastic balls, while others will be satisfied digging and burrowing through bedding. Tube mazes or hiding places also may fit the bill. Birds like hanging mirrors and other colorful toys on which they can perch or peck.

Nutrition
Food is another consideration when starting out with small animals. They may not eat as much or as often as a dog or cat, but they, too, have specific dietary requirements. For example, Banfield Pet Hospital says overfeeding is a big issue with hamsters, so look for a quality hamster food and avoid snacks and treats. Hamsters tend to hoard food, so they may take food they really do not need. Certain lizards will eat mealworms, crickets or other insects. Research which fresh foods can be mixed with commercially produced foods for optimal health. Feeding bowls, bottles or small dishes also will need to be purchased when addressing small pets' dietary needs, offers the pet retailer Petco. Veterinarians can be a great resource in regard to how to care for small pets.

Environment
Most small pets will spend the majority of their time in a cage or a tank. In this environment, the pets will need bedding or some type of cage lining. Wood chips and shavings, shredded newspaper or hay are often used. Reptiles and amphibians may have special needs to help regulate temperature. Gravel, stones and rocks may be used. Always consult with a veterinarian or a pet supply expert regarding the correct set-up for a small pet's environment to ensure the animal's health and well-being.
