■ There's nothing better than the aroma of backyard grilling

By Sharon Stone

Memorial Day weekend — the time we honor our veterans and servicemembers for their service and ultimate sacrifice. It's also become a popular time for families to gather and have a barbecue.

Whether your family grills with a traditional charcoal grill or a gas grill, the list of recipes is endless. Based on what your family likes, maybe it's time to experiment with some new ingredients for seasoning. From longstanding family favorites to new recipes, there's something for everyone.

See GRILLING on 22

Directions:

- Make bang bang butter: In a medium bowl, mix together chili sauce, butter, Sriracha, garlic, and lime juice and season generously with salt and pepper.
- Slather butter all over corn.
- Heat grill to medium high. Grill corn, turning and basting with remaining bang bang butter occasionally, until tender and charred, 10 to 15 minutes. Garnish with cilantro and serve.

GRILLING

Below are grilling tips from the experts at Food Network

- Start with a clean grill. Use a sturdy metal brush to clean the grates in between uses. This is easiest when the grill is hot.
- Don't move the food around. In general, the fewer times you flip something, the better (once is ideal for most meats). If the meat is stuck to the grill, let it cook more — it will unstick itself when it's ready for flipping.
- Don't squeeze or flatten meats. That burst of sizzling flame that comes from squishing a burger with spatula is tempting, but you know what is creating that flame burst? Fat. And you know what fat is? Juicy flavor. Don't squish meat, because you will squeeze out the taste and moisture.
- Keep a spray bottle filled with water handy for flare-ups. Flames are not your food's friends — they will char it unpleasantly.
- Buy a meat thermometer. Unless you are a very experienced cook, it is hard to tell meat's temperature merely by touching it. Your confidence in grilling will skyrocket with this one $10 purchase.
- Avoid putting cold foods straight on the grill. Letting meat come to temperature on the counter for 30 minutes before grilling will help it cook more evenly. If you are looking for a rare sear, however — like if you're grilling tuna, for example — then chilled is the way the go.
- Undercook foods, just slightly. Food continues to cook after it leaves the grill. You can expect food temperature to go up about 5 degrees after leaving the grill, so plan accordingly.
- Rest all meat! Allow the meat to sit undisturbed (and unsliced!) for five to 15 minutes after cooking, as this will allow the juices to redistribute. The bigger the piece of meat, the longer the rest time. Resting meat is an important key to juicy results.

- Don't over-char to cook through meat with bones. If you have thicker meats with bones, such as chicken thighs or legs, cook them on high heat to get a nice crust, and then move to lower, indirect heat on the grill. Or, consider par-cooking the chicken in an oven for 15 to 20 minutes before grilling. Also great to precook — ribs.

- Keep it simple when serving a crowd. Managing numerous cook times for different proteins and veggies can result in errors and overcooking. Keep the protein options down as much as possible, and offer variety in some interesting side dishes, sauces or condiments.

Below are a sampling of recipes from delish.com. Their website also includes how-to videos for a perfect grilling experience.

Grilled watermelon

Ingredients:

Juice and zest of 1 lime
1/4 c. honey
1 tbsp. olive oil
1 small watermelon, cut into 1" thick wedges
Freshly torn mint leaves, for serving
Flaky sea salt, for serving

Directions:

- Heat grill or grill pan to medium heat. In a medium bowl, whisk together lime juice and zest, honey, and olive oil.
- Brush lime juice mixture all over watermelon wedges and place on grill. Cook until grill marks form and fruit softens slightly, about 2 minutes per side.
- Sprinkle with mint and flaky sea salt and serve.

Looking back: Setzke takes back seat in Fenton's win vs. Holly Bronchos

By David Troppens

Holly — During the last couple of weeks, Fenton varsity football coach Jeff Setzke has been a no-show for his squad.

It's not his fault.

Setzke is involved in the General Motors labor talks, forcing him to spend most of the last two weeks in Detroit. He wasn't able to attend the Tigers' 50-0 victory against Swartz Creek on Sept. 13, and was only able to present his input in the game plan for one day as the team prepared to travel to Holly on Friday.

It didn't matter. Setzke enjoyed watching the first half of Fenton's 57-7 victory against the Bronchos from the press box.

"Most of us have been together well over 10 years," Setzke said. "Even though we do some things different, it's huge (my confidence in the rest of the coaching staff). I don't like not being here, but I'm comfortable because we met (Sunday) and I was able to help put the practice plans to-

Fenton's McKee headed to Madonna to play lacrosse

By David Troppens

Four years ago as a freshman, Lilly McKee was looking for something to do during the spring sports season.

The Fenton student was given a suggestion to try lacrosse.

"My brother (Bill) was a senior and he wanted something to do in the spring because he was strictly a football player, so he played lacrosse," McKee said. "I look up to my brother and he said, 'You are an aggressive player, you should try it.' I was going to do track but I knew that lacrosse was a lot of running, so I knew whatever sport I did I was going to stay in shape. At first it was hard, but my determination, my willingness to want to get better and the seniors on the team taught me what I needed to know."

McKee quickly improved up the ladder. She progressed so quickly that despite playing just three full seasons of organized lacrosse, she's headed to the collegiate level to continue her career. McKee is going to play at Madonna University.

She was also looking at playing at Rochester College, Cleary University and Central Michigan. Madonna won out for a variety of reasons.

"I was accepted by all of them and the amount of money that Madonna offered helped a lot since they are helping pay for my college," McKee said. "Madonna offered me the most money and I also did some research about their nursing program and that's how I made my decision — the money and because they have a good nursing program.

"Also, when I went to a couple of their practices, the team was very welcoming. They made me feel at home. Cleary made me feel at home as well but not as much as Madonna."

McKee's progress within the sport has been quick. Her freshman season with the Fenton/Linden co-op program she was an honorable mention all-league selection. She scored six goals despite playing primarily on defense. During her sophomore season she played primarily on defense as well but still increased her goal output to 13. McKee shifted to midfield during her junior season and her goal output skyrocketed to 33 goals, the second-highest on the Fenton/Linden squad. She also took most of the draws to start play. She was a first-team all-league player in each of her final two seasons.

"Midfield is my strong suit," McKee said. "I like being in the gether. But they did all the coaching.”

The coaches and players did an outstanding job. The Tigers scored 49 points in the opening half and cruised to a 57-7 victory against the Holly Bronchos.

Both sides of the ball had strong showings for Fenton.

The Tigers had three different players score six rushing TDs, and Dylan Davidson completed one TD pass of 57 yards to Ethan Pyeatt. The defense got into the scoring mix, collecting an interception return for a TD by Brady Triola, and a safety by Brendan Rosa.

“The practice week we practiced really good,” Fenton defensive lineman Cole Patterson said.

draw circle. I am aggressive in the draw circle. I love being on defense too because I’m aggressive on defense too. I attack when I play midfield. I just go for it, but if I see someone open I’ll pass it and get an assist. But (Fenton/Linden) coach (Roger Ellis) told me to attack because I’m definitely a threat.”

Each year McKee started getting more college interest as well. She attended a camp at Albion College camp during her freshman year and the campers were asked to scrimmage against the college teammates.

“I freaked out at first but it showed me a lot about what you need to watch out for,” McKee said. “I fit in really well. I was a defensive player and I moved up at that camp and scored two goals in a game. That gave me confidence that I could compete at that level.”

1984 Tigers complete their 35-5 start about this time 36 years ago

By David Troppens

Editor’s note: With the loss of Major League Baseball we’ll be reliving the last Detroit Tigers’ World Championship season, 1984, with occasional stories.

By May 21, 1984, Magic Johnson’s Los Angeles Lakers and Larry Bird’s Boston Celtics were less than a week from starting the NBA Finals between the two superstars. Los Angeles was only a few months away from hosting the Summer Olympics as well.

But guess what the sports talk was about? It was about the Detroit Tigers. That was the case in California as well. Why? The 32-5 Detroit Tigers were headed to Anaheim looking to create some incredible Major League Baseball records, and Angels’ fans wanted to experience history.

The Angels averaged 25,373 fans a game during their first five May home baseball games. During the Tigers’ three-game weeknight series at Anaheim, Detroit drew at least 41,205 to each of the games and a total of 126,038 to the three contests, or about 500 fans fewer than the previous five home games. This was a common occurrence. After their three games against California, the Tigers traveled to Seattle for three road contests. The Mariners had averaged 11,945 fans at their first 19 games, but this three-game series attracted 59,819, nearly 8,000 more than their previous average.

Angels’ fans were given the opportunity to witness baseball history in person. The Tigers won the first game 3-1 in front of 41,253 fans, earning their 15th straight road victory. Juan Berenguer tossed a three-hitter over six innings while striking out nine on the mound. Aurelio Lopez picked up his six save, tossing three shutout innings.

A night later, the Tigers tied an American League record with their 16th straight road victory to start the season by posting a 4-2 victory. Lance Parrish hit a two-run home run in the seventh inning breaking a 2-2 tie.

Robert (Bob) Stephen Young

1953 — 2020

Robert (Bob) Stephen Young – age 67 of Fenton, passed away at home Monday, May 18, 2020 after living a full and adventurous life. Bob was born February 15, 1953, the youngest son of Dean and Doris (Heidebreicht) Young. Raised in Genesee, Bob spent his childhood playing sports, loving cars, spending time on Cedar Lake, and being the wild child of the four Young boys.

From an early age his dad drove home the importance of hard work and Bob got his first job at his Uncle's dealership Middle-Heid before he could drive. From there and after graduating High School he held an assortment of jobs before determining that he wanted to be his own boss. He used all his money to finance a backhoe in the spring of 1979, which he learned to operate within a few hours by digging practice holes in a vacant field, and thus began R.S. Young Excavating, Inc. With the support of his wife, and countless loyal and dedicated employees, his one man sewer installation crew grew and evolved into what is today Young's Environmental Cleanup, Inc. And while he was just a high school graduate, Bob was a natural leader who was willing to take risks in order to be successful. He had the unique ability to see things that others did not see when it came to business decisions. Bob put his heart and soul into developing his businesses, he believed in working hard and earning an honest living. Even though recently Bob was not at the office every day, he continued with daily check-ins to his right-hand man and confidant Kris Thiel, ensuring his infamous red trucks were clean (to his standards inside and out), and making sure that everything was up to snuff because, as he always said, "if you are going to do something, it better be done right the first time." Which if you ever had the honor of getting your butt chewed by Bob, just know that meant he loved you, and the more he lit you up, the better off he wanted you to be. He lived for Emergency Response projects, thrived when he got the opportunity to work in the field side-by-side with his crews, and loved coming to the office where his two daughters and son-in-law now work to carry on his legacy. While Bob was dedicated to his career, he was most passionate about his family and friends. He was often described as one-of-a-kind, the type of person that could walk into a bar, a restaurant, a gathering, etc. and leave with five new friends. He loved to socialize, often referring to himself as the 'entertainment director'. He was able to talk to anyone, and when he became your friend, he was all in. He was always checking in on others, making sure people had what they needed - he was both generous in time and resources, and never wanted credit or recognition for all he did. He truly had a heart of gold. As evident in his life, and even during his 12 year battle with prostate cancer, he knew how to have fun. He never passed up an opportunity to spend time with those he loved the most. From boating and fishing the Great Lakes and the Gulf Coast of Florida, to snowmobiling all through Michigan, Canada, and Wyoming, spending time up north with all the Young's at the family cottages, Kearsley softball, car shows, family vacations, motorcycle trips, cooking, throwing parties, hunting, chatting with the neighbors, spending time with his grandchildren, and dancing whenever he got the chance, he would make more memories in a year than many make in a lifetime. It constantly amazed people how close he was with his wife Trudy, his immediate and extended family, and how much time they all spent together. Much like his father Dean, he made sure to be involved, and create meaningful memories whenever possible. Bob leaves to cherish his memory his wife of 37 years Trudy (Mary Larson); daughters, Stephanie (Tim) Mitchell, Kristina (Dave) Josselyn; grandchildren, Knox, Lila, Scarlett, and Quinn; brothers, Bruce (Judy) Young, Michael (Wendy) Young, David (Jody) Young; special niece and 'best bud' Lori Rowilson; many other important nieces and nephews, and more valued friends than one could possibly list. He was preceded in death by his parents, Dean and Doris Young. Cremation will take place and following Bob's final wishes one helluva party in his honor will be thrown at a later date. Until the time when everyone can be together in person the family has setup an email rsyoung@yeci.us for all to share their favorite photos and memories of Bob. It has been said, "The way we get to live forever is through memories stored in the hearts and souls of those whose lives we touch." In lieu of flowers, Bob would want you to do an unexpected and unsolicited act of kindness. Memorial contributions can be made out to the R.S. Young Foundation, G5305 N Dort Hwy, Flint 48505 which will support local community groups or charities that were of importance to him.
