Bruce Edward Marsee
1939 – 2020

Bruce Edward Marsee of Davisburg, passed on Friday, August 7, 2020. His was an overwhelming life. Born March 8, 1939 in Evarts, KY, Bruce was the youngest child of James and Rosa Marsee. Hardened by the times and Appalachian life, they had a soft place in their hearts for their children, Tom, Virginia, Sadie, Margaret, Madie, Kathleen, James, Frankie, and Bruce. In Bruce’s own words, he was a dirty little barefoot kid running around the hills of southeastern Kentucky. As a teenager, Bruce would use his strong tenor voice with a local big band, crooning the standards of the times. He also spun records at the local radio station where he would string long rambling soliloquies to introduce the next rockabilly hit. In the late 50’s, Bruce would serve as a PFC, 2nd Battalion, 9th Marines, and see a world previously unimaginable. His was a peacetime service he was fiercely proud of, as he loved his country and the institution of which he belonged. After his tour, Bruce hopped a bus to Detroit in hopes of working with GM’s super computers he had read about. What he would discover, to work with computers, one needed a college degree. At the time, he had a high school education. He would though leverage every opportunity and after six months work his way into GM’s data processing center. It was these street smarts that served him well, retiring from both GM and EDS after a long, storied career. While in MI, he attended Bruce was the service at the Pontiac Methodist Church. As Sharon Brantley would recall, “he was so tall, slim, and handsome.” Their eyes locked. That was it. On August 27, 1960, Bruce and Sharon were married. Their love and affection for each other would be as strong after 60 years as it was when they first met. It was out of love for each other and the Lord, they built their family, Kathy, Kevin, and Kerry. Each child extending that love to two grandchildren, Alexandra and Grace. When Bruce passed on from this life to the next, he uttered “overwhelming.” It was fitting, as when God completes the artwork that is one’s earthly life, it can only be described as such. An outdoor celebration of life will be held on Saturday, August 29, 2:30 PM at 13139 Torrey Rd., Fenton. Friends may visit beginning at 2 PM, until the last drop of Bourbon is gone.
