Hittin' the slopes

■ Interest is high this year as skiers and snowboarders eager to enjoy their sport during a pandemic

By Sharon Stone

With winter officially beginning tomorrow, Monday, Dec. 21, ski and snowboard enthusiasts are taking a few hours off worrying about the COVID-19 pandemic and turning their thoughts to enjoying Michigan's winter wonderland.

One local ski resort, permitted to be open, is very busy.

Nestled in Groveland Township near Holly, Mt. Holly Ski & Snowboard Resort offers seven chairlifts, four rope tows, and two SunKid Wonder Carpets.

With temperatures falling, Mt. Holly has been adding fresh snow to its slopes with their snow guns. As of Thursday, Dec. 17, crews continued to make snow and open runs. The base was up to 16 inches, with 10 runs open, and 8 lifts.

Mt. Holly reopened Wednesday, Dec. 16.

General Manager Mark Tibbitts said he and the crew have been scrambling while getting the slopes open. Being one of the few outdoor recreation businesses open, he said interest from novice and experienced skiers and snowboarders is high.

As with every other business, things are different at Mt. Holly and people planning a day at the resort need to be know and abide by all of the COVID-19 guidelines.

Tibbitts said the building itself is strictly for ordering take-out food and for people using the restroom. There are no tables or seating available in the building. They have put heaters on the patios and decks.

STRUCK AGAIN

him to do this.

On Monday, Murphy posted on the Nextdoor a post titled, "WE'VE BEEN STRUCK AGAIN," asking neighbors if they knew where the boy lived so she could 'Elf' him by anonymously delivering small gifts to his porch.

Response on the app was overwhelming, said Murphy. She soon learned the boy's full name and reached out to his parents.

Nick Gregory, a former Fenton teacher and coach, now with an administrative position with Waterford schools, said doing what he does is just how Kavaun is wired.

"He's a caring and compassionate boy," Gregory said.

Kavaun started noticing garbage trucks at around the age of 3 and was fascinated with them during the summer. He would want to run after them, said his dad.

Gregory has not met Murphy and was unaware of the post she shared on the Nextdoor app until his friends began telling him about it. Murphy soon asked permission to share the story.

Taking care of his neighborhood has expanded for Kavaun. His dad said he'd see him taking garbage bins to and from garages on their street and then neighbors started texting him letting them know Kavaun was over on First or Third streets, and even as far as Andover Woods subdivision doing helpful things. "He truly enjoys being helpful and he's got the energy and personality to make friends quickly."

As a Tomek-Eastern student, Gregory said, "Kavaun is a proud Tomek student. The Tomek community is such a big part of our lives. The teachers and administrators encouraged him to be this way."

Between sports, piano lessons and band, Gregory said Kavaun has mixed interests. "Kavaun really is a product of a great neighborhood. That's where it all started. They (neighbors) had a positive reaction and that gave him the confidence to continue.

"I am incredibly grateful for who he is, and he has a sweet mom."

Gregory added that some of the "Elfing" that Murphy wrote about has already begun. He said Kavaun was shocked that there were greeting cards and small gifts for him left on their front porch.

Mostafavi said she loves reading the notes left for Kavaun. "They are sweet messages," she said. "They tell about the ripple effects of the nice things he has done."

She added that Kavaun just lights up when he gets of these surprises. "I'm really touched by our neighbors' efforts to 'elf' him back," she said. "He loves the interactions."

PLEASE PAY CLOSE attention to the COVID-19 rhetoric. Current justification for lockdowns is hospitals near ICU capacity. American Hospital Association reports less than 15 percent of hospital beds are ICU beds. So lockdowns are occurring while health system has reserve of 85 percent capacity. This is insanity.

Rock Church plans in-person, outdoor Christmas Eve service

■ A prerecorded broadcast from Rock Church will air on local channels on Christmas Day

By Hannah Ball

The Rock Church of Fenton is holding an in-person outdoor Christmas Eve ceremony in the woods across from their main building on Thursday, Dec. 24 at 7 p.m.

On Christmas Day, the church's Christmas service will be shown on two networks, on Channel 46 The CW at 11 a.m., and then on CBS WNEM Channel 5 at 5 p.m.

The main goal of the TV broadcast is to reach people with the message of Jesus Christ "in a very difficult time in society," said Pastor Wes Morris.

The broadcast will be prerecorded. The church put the broadcast together in about two weeks.

"We expect to just encourage people in their homes. We call it 'Home for Christmas.' We built a living room set and we want to encourage people with Christmas-themed worship music and present the gospel. We hope people are moved by the lord and respond by watching the broadcast," he said.

The public also is invited to the in-person, outdoor Christmas Eve service, which will take place at 11400 Linden Rd., across the road from the church's main facility and near the new building that's under construction.

The Rock Church will have a hospitality tent and people to help transport attendees to the location in the woods. Morris said they will have Christmas lights, live reindeer, the living room set from the broadcast and more.

"We'll have warming fires, warming barrels for people to stand near. Anybody in any condition whatsoever will be accommodated," he said. "We do it for the community. We do it for the church. Anyone who doesn't have anywhere to be, they are welcome to come out to The Rock Church and celebrate a nice Christmas service."

This service will be an hour or less.

"This year the Rock Church of Fenton is looking at Christmas Eve as a time for peace and hope. As we finish out a very challenging year, we wanted to remind people that there is a message of hope that goes far beyond the Christmas Season," according to a press release. "In years past, we have hosted large indoor gatherings that allowed people to celebrate Christmas. This year we want to celebrate still but do it in a safe manner."

The Rock Church invites the public to Christmas Eve service, which will be outdoors. On Christmas Day, a prerecorded Christmas service by The Rock Church will air on two networks.

A REASON

sister, along with his stepmother and her two sons and daughter. At age 6, his father gave him to a couple that his stepmother knew. He said this couple kidnapped them and took them from Michigan to Florida.

They lived with this couple for six years, which he called "the worst time" of his life.

"I never knew if I was going to die. I never knew when he was going to hit me, when he was going to throw me against the wall," he said. The man was physically abusive and molested Fulgenzi when he was 10. At one point when he ran away, he told a police officer what happened. The officer took him back to that house and the man said

Fulgenzi was a liar.

After getting out of that house, they were put into foster care. At age 13, he turned to substances such as weed, alcohol, cocaine and acid to numb himself. This was in the '70s. Fulgenzi said during these times, many foster parents only wanted money for fostering children. They didn't care about the children they were responsible for.

"My God, I was 13. I was out there doing drugs," he said. "Me and my brothers would go camping for the week. My foster mom never asked us, 'where are we going?'"

The third foster care home was a similar environment to the first house they lived in in Florida. Fulgenzi lived there for two years before running away at 16.

"I knew if I didn't change my ways, I was going to prison. I was going down that path," he said.

At 18, he joined the Army and served for five years. As a buck sergeant, he guarded nuclear missiles in Germany for three years and then went to Fort Hood, Texas.

He describes these traumatic experiences in his life as "hate, fear, hell and nightmare all at one time."

"It destroyed my life for over 30 years," Fulgenzi said, adding that he couldn't get along with anyone. He hated himself and thought he wasn't worth anything. He has lived in psychiatric wards before, and he used to have anger issues and was sometimes physically destructive. His sister encouraged him to live in a group home and seek help.

In 2009, Fulgenzi learned he had severe post traumatic stress disorder. He went to therapy at a veteran affairs office in Detroit for five years, which he said helped "a lot."

"We do things in our life to abuse our body. We abuse our minds, too," he said. He attributes therapy as one of the main reasons why he's doing much better today, and he retains faith.

"I had to readjust my mind and get the negativity out of my mind. I accomplished that by the grace of God," Fulgenzi said.

He ended up living in a tent in a park near the border of Waterford and Pontiac for five months. His aunt and uncle, who are more like his parents, helped him find an affordable apartment.

Fulgenzi met the Strygulecs at The Freedom Center. They take him to the store and have him over for holidays.

"It was hard for me to get along with people I didn't trust. But after knowing them for a year, I had no doubts that I would be in good hands and I was," he said.

Fulgenzi had stopped drinking for a span of six weeks a few months ago, but then started drinking again. He hasn't had a drink since Dec. 4, and he hasn't touched cocaine since April 2019.

"When you drink all your life off and on, that's what you're used to. When you think you have problems, you go right back to that," he said, adding that he got to a point where he had to stop.

Fulgenzi is on disability and receives Social Security. He spends his free time exercising, lifting weights, biking, coloring, and helping his neighbors. He also crochets. It's a skill one of his foster mothers taught him.

"God put me here for a reason. I'm not leaving this place. So I'm still here," he said.

An elderly couple lives across the street from him, and this summer Fulgenzi started taking out their trash and recycling. He also fixed their pathway by relaying pavers. Over 30 years and five years of therapy, Fulgenzi said he still has problems, but he doesn't have a temper anymore. He has a few medical issues. One is leukemia.

"Today, nothing controls me. It took a lot of years. It was a long process. I'm happy today," he said. The advice he would give other people in similar situations is to learn how to trust people and to never give up.

"Even though you don't trust, don't be afraid to ask somebody for help," Fulgenzi said. "The worst thing you can do is give up on yourself."

Bob Strygulec said their dream with Center of Hope was to help people and create these types of relationships with people. "You got to trust somebody in order to allow somebody to help them. If you don't trust anybody, you don't move forward. We really feel that we need to earn the right of that trust," he said.

“It destroyed my life for over 30 years.”

Meet Elf, the paddle-boarder

Martie Reigle didn't let ice and frigid waves stop her from spreading Christmas cheer on Lake Fenton. Dressed as an elf, she paddle-boarded six miles of shoreline on Lake Fenton on Dec. 15 and talked with children who wanted to get messages to Santa. She threw out prizes to the kids and waved to the adults who walked out to chat. She said, "Even with slippery plastic elf shoes, I did not fall in. Merry Christmas to all!" Submitted photos

VILLAGE OF HOLLY ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS NOTICE OF VARIANCE REQUEST

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, in accordance with Chapter 157 of the Village of Holly Zoning Ordinance, the Village of Holly Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct a public hearing on a request for a variance of Ordinance 157.009(A)(1) and Ordinance 157.130(B)(19)(b) on January 4, 2021 at 7:00 PM (or as soon thereafter as possible) via Zoom meeting. The meeting can be accessed at: <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/83964241159>

An application for variances was filed by R&T Investors Lands Holding LLC. The property is located at the corner of N. Holly Road and Quick Road, parcel numbers IH 01-21-400-027 and IH 01-02-400-028. The applicant is requesting a variance of Ordinances 157.009(A)(1) which requires the length of the building to be 160 feet and 157.130(B)(19)(b) which requires units to be 350 square feet.

Written comments may be submitted to the Village Clerk/Treasurer, 300 East Street, Karl Richter Center, Holly, Michigan 48442 prior to the hearing. All documents pertinent to the application are available for inspection in the Village Offices, located at 300 East Street, Holly, Michigan.

Interested persons are encouraged to attend the meeting. Handicapped persons needing assistance to attend are asked to contact the Village offices at least 48 hours prior to the meeting at (248) 634-9571 during regular business hours.

Clerk/Treasurer
Village of Holly

SLOPES

“It’s sad, but that’s where we’re at,” Tibbitts said. “COVID has made things quite a bit more difficult. It’s encouraging though.”

People will need to boot up in the parking lot and there are no storage lockers available for the time being.

With the temperature drop and snow guns, Tibbitts said they feel lucky to have half the mountain open. “It’s been amazingly good skiing and there’s higher than ever interest. We’re encouraged, but it poses challenges.”

Tibbitts said the biggest thing for guests to remember is to wear their masks and practice social distancing. “If you don’t do anything else, wear your mask so that we can get through this,” he said.

Mt. Holly seeks to hire more part-time and full-time employees. “If you don’t mind the cold, we’re still looking for employees,” he said.

SKI SCHOOL LESSONS

Mt. Holly offers several learning options, from one-on-one lessons to semi-private lessons to group lessons.

MT. HOLLY IS ABIDING BY COVID-19 RESTRICTIONS AND RULES.

Outdoors

- Be courteous to others at all times, give people space and ask before boarding chairlifts.
- Face coverings will be required when 6 feet of social distancing between guests and/or staff is not possible. This includes:
  - in the lift line
  - The base of the hill areas between the lodge and the lift lines
  - When riding the chairlift
  - During lesson
- In the lift line, maintain a tip to tail (the length of a ski from the front tip to the back “tail” of the ski) distance from people in front of you.
- More outdoor seating has been made available this season.
- Check skimtholly.com for hours of operation, snow conditions, and operating policies before visiting.

Indoors

- Face coverings must be worn at all times.
- Social distancing of 6 feet is required indoors.

- Hand sanitizer stations will be readily available in common areas.
- Staff will regularly clean and disinfect high touch surfaces and common areas.
- Under the current rule, there will be no indoor seating available for either dining or gathering.
- You will be permitted inside to use restroom facilities, place take-out food orders, purchase lift tickets or ski/snowboard rental equipment, or visit the ski shop but otherwise, the lodge will not be available for any other purpose at the present time.

JUMBLE KIDS

THAT SCRAMBLED WORD GAME!®

By David L. Hoyt and Jeff Knurek

The letters of these crazy words are all mixed up. To play the game, put them back into the right order so that they all make real words you can find in the dictionary. Write the letters of each real word under each crazy word, but only one letter to a square.

Now you're ready to solve today's Jumble for Kids. Study the picture for a hint. Play around with the letters in the circles. You'll find you can put them in order so that they make your funny answer.

Trina Michelle Whisman

1970 - 2020

Trina Michelle Whisman - age 50. Trina was born August 21, 1970 in Flint, the daughter of Richard and Terry (Freeman) Hilborn. She was a 1989 graduate of Lake Fenton High School. She woke up every morning with an angel with a golden heart. She was the best mom ever, not just only to her children but to others as well, she was truly the mom everyone deserves to have and she was. She was the light of all of our lives and we will miss her her best friend, and man she loved, her husband. She was the happiest she had ever been once she met the love of her life, they loved one another with all of their hearts. She was the glue to our family, she made our house a home. She had resided in the Fenton area her entire life. Trina was employed by Apple as a customer service representative. She enjoyed shopping, traveling, and doing home renovations. My mom was my best friend and I was hers, we spent every single waking moment together. She loved spending time and playing with her grandkids, it was one of the things she truly loved to do. She was always the center of attention anywhere she went, you couldn't help but laugh and talk when she was around, her smile and laugh were just as infectious and contagious as she was. She took in and took care of so many of my friends, helped any child in need, she truly was so very much. She loved her family, kids, grandkids, and especially her puppies Charlie and Ellie! They meant the world to her. She truly was the best person you could ever meet, she was one of a kind and made an impact on everyone's lives she touched. She taught us all how to love with all of our hearts, and none of us will ever be the same without her, she has left a forever whole in our hearts. Surviving are her husband, David; children, Payton Frutche, Sierra Whisman, Ongelique Whisman, and Spencer Whisman, all of Fenton; grandchildren, Oakley and Trey; mother, Terry Freeman of Swartz Creek; sister, Nikki (Scott) Hanson of Ohio; and nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father, Richard Hilborn. www.sharpfuneralhomes.com.

Douglas Trelling Rounds

1934 – 2020

Douglas Trelling Rounds – age 86 of Zebulon, GA flew West peacefully on his final flight Wednesday, December 9, 2020. Douglas (Doug) was born in Dowagiac, on June 3, 1934. At a young age Doug realized in order to be successful in life he would have to work hard to overcome some of the obstacles that he faced growing up. And that he did. Graduating from Holly High School in 1952 (with Honors) in Holly, where he was class president, he also excelled in all high school sports. Upon finishing high school, he even received offers from the Yankees and the Cubs for a baseball career. But since he was a young boy, Doug had a keen interest in airplanes and elected to pursue his dreams in aviation instead of baseball. After high school he attended Western Michigan College to receive his pilot's license and ratings. In 1953 he enlisted in the United States Air Force serving a year before being RIF'd (reduction in force) and he was honorably discharged. He was hired by Delta Air Lines December 3, 1956 and had a 38 year career with Delta as an airline pilot before he officially retired June 3, 1994. During his career with Delta, he flew every different type of airplane the airline owned from Douglas DC-3s to Boeing 747s. Not only was he a pilot for Delta, but also a Flight Instructor and Check Airman. Doug was a member of the Air Line Pilots Association and served on its Safety and Accident Investigation Committees for many years.

In his personal aviation life, he was a respected aviation historian with several articles published. He built and owned the second oldest (1967) registered airport in Pike County, Georgia that still exists today. Doug served his local community in Planning and Zoning for Pike County, the Kiwanis Club, the Elks Club, and he volunteered for numerous events in Pike County. Doug had a love for dogs, his farm, his airport, and antique cars, but most of all, he loved and cherished his wife Bonnie more than anything. Doug was preceded in death by his father, Francis Charles Rounds; his mother, Marjorie Rose Rounds; and his brother, Norman Rounds. He is survived by his loving wife Bonnie of 67 years; his brother, Don Rounds; daughter, Leslie Ratliff (Eddie), daughter Tracy Sims (Herb); son, Doug Rounds Jr (Mark); son, Nathan Rounds (Linda); six grandchildren; and 10 great grandchildren. A memorial service for Douglas Trelling Rounds will be announced at a later date.
