CVS vaccinates staff and guests at Symphony Linden

Company posts daily vaccination numbers for long-term care facilities

By Hannah Ball

Approximately 170 people at Symphony Linden received their first dose of the COVID-19 vaccine Friday, Jan. 8.

CVS Pharmacy employees administered the inoculations to staff and guests at the assisted living facility in downtown Linden. They began at 11 a.m. and finished at approximately 7:30 p.m., said Stephanie Viener, assisted living sales director at Symphony.

They will receive the second doses three weeks from Friday, Jan. 8.

Viener said it was a "really positive" feeling that day.

"A lot of people are really excited to get the vaccine. Just after everything we've been through ... I think people were just relieved and happy and excited to get it done," she said.

CVS and Walgreens are both vaccinating residents and staff at skilled nursing facilities and other skilled nursing and long-term care facilities as part of the federal program Pharmacy Partnership for Long-term Care Program.

e did it! We made it through 2020! I'd say this calls for a massive celebration, except that massive celebrations are kind of frowned upon these days. So, instead of a big party, how about you give yourself a big pat on the back. Last year (man, it feels good to type that) was hard and while the start of 2021 isn't much easier, the middle and end are looking a little bit brighter.

Even in a pandemic, a new year means new beginnings and, of course, New Year's Resolutions. I didn't used to be a fan of resolutions, but in recent years (even in 2020) I found it helpful to have a guidepost.

So here it goes: When it comes to life and business in 2021, my resolution is to be light.

Last year was heavy and I've felt the weight of it (and I'm not just talking about the quarantine 15). I've let myself get bogged down. I've wasted time feeling sorry for myself, when really I have so much to be thankful for.

This year, my aim is to be light. I'm going to face what's ahead and move forward. I'm going to be light on con-my garage), light on feeling guilty for the things I can't do (so, I can't cook, who cares? I make the best cheese board you've ever seen).

I'm going to be light on stress — if we can survive 2020 we can survive anything. I hope to be light on anger, sadness and anxiety.

I want to be light for myself, yes, but also for other people — clients, friends, family. Whether they need a laugh or something bigger, I hope to be able to provide that.

A friend of mine in Chicago closed out 2020 creating kits for the homeless in her neighborhood. She collected donations to make it possible and spent a day handing out 60 kits. The exercise made a lasting impact on her for many reasons. One being that she was forced to look in dark places most of us avoid under freeways and in alley ways. She encouraged those of us following her efforts to be the light in those dark places moving forward.

2020 might be over, but there is still darkness, and I hope to shine a light on it.

Governor, AG commend bars, restaurants

■Say 32 of 8,500 establishments' liquor licenses suspended due to COVID-19 violations

On Monday, Jan. 11, Gov. Gretchen Whitmer, Attorney General Dana Nessel and other state officials issued statements highly commending bar and restaurant owners for their ongoing compliance with the state's emergency health orders due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Currently, licensed establishments are strictly prohibited from allowing in-person dining and gatherings, as defined by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services (MDHHS) Gatherings and Face Mask Order.

"Our bar and restaurant owners have made incredible sacrifices over the past 10 months to keep their communities safe and slow the spread of COVID-19. I want to thank those who have enacted strict safety protocols and worked around the clock to save lives," Whitmer said. "My administration has been working hard to secure crucial support for these businesses. I was proud to, among other things, negotiate with the legislature to sign a bipartisan supplemental budget that provides support for small business owners like these. I will keep working around the clock on their behalf."

Whitmer's financial relief efforts for bar and restaurant owners began last April when she authorized a spirits buyback program for on-premises liquor licensees whose businesses were affected by the health crisis. More than $3.3 million in financial relief went to 670 bar and restaurant owners across the state — a financial lifeline averaging $5,000 for hard-hit hospitality businesses. She recently announced a second liquor buyback that is in the works. In June 2020, the governor signed legislation allowing bars and restaurants to sell cocktails and alcoholic drinks to-go for the first time in Michigan and expanded bars' seating capacity in outdoor social districts.

Fenton Township home destroyed by fire

■ Family and pets escape unharmed, one firefighter injured when foyer collapses

By Sharon Stone

At 11:50 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 9, the Fenton Township Fire Department responded to a residential structure fire in the 5100 block of Cottage Court in Fenton Township.

The house, a two-story home with an attached garage, was fully engulfed in flames.

Fenton Township Fire Chief Ryan Volz said the alarm came in just before midnight. He said they believe the fire began in the garage and spread quickly to the roof and attic of the 3,400-square-foot home.

Volz said the family and their pets were able to get out of the home uninjured. Two vehicles were in the garage and tires popped causing loud bangs.

The house is a total loss due to the extent of damage. Volz said the homeowners are insured and the family is staying with relatives.

The fire chief said one firefighter was injured early in the response when the front foyer collapsed on him. He was transported to Ascension Genesys Hospital in Grand Blanc Township. Volz said he is hoping for a quick recovery.

Fenton City, Linden City, Argentine Township, the North Oakland County Fire Authority (NOCFA), Mundy Township, Hartland, Burton and Swartz Creek fire departments also responded to the fire.

Volz said his crew cleared the scene at approximately 7 a.m., Sunday, Jan. 10. On Sunday afternoon, Volz was heading back out to the home to complete their investigation and to talk to the homeowners.

In July 2020, Whitmer increased the discount on spirits purchased by onpremises licensees from the Michigan Liquor Control Commission (MLCC) from 17 percent to 23 percent for 12 months.

Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel also praised the state's bar and restaurant owners. "I applaud every business owner in Michigan who has stepped up, braced themselves for the storm, and complied with Michigan's public health emergency orders," Nessel said. "This pandemic has brought them to their knees, but the vast majority of them have worked hard to stay open during the worst of times. Their creativity, innovation and sheer fortitude have set the gold standard for the rest of us."

The MLCC Chair Pat Gagliardi said that the vast majority of liquor licensees are compliant with emergency public health orders and have taken the high road, setting high standards for the industry.

Of the approximately 8,500 onpremises liquor licensees in the state, the MLCC has suspended the liquor

The 25th Amendment

The events of Jan. 6 in Washington, D.C. have resulted in calls from some of our nation's leaders and others for President Trump to leave office by resigning or being removed by impeachment or by Vice President Pence invoking the 25th Amendment.

Historically these are infrequent occurrences.

A resignation has only happened once when President Richard Nixon resigned on Aug. 9, 1974.

Additionally, there are three presidents who have been impeached, Andrew Johnson, William Clinton and Donald Trump. They all remained in office as their impeachment trials resulted in not guilty verdicts.

As to the 25th Amendment, a vice president has never attempted to remove a sitting president under its Section 4.

Today I will provide a very brief summary of this amendment.

The 25th Amendment to the United States Constitution became effective Feb. 23, 1967.

It was added to clarify what happens when the president or vice president is removed, dies, resigns, or in the case of the president, is unable to discharge the powers and duties of the office. It was in response to the 1963 Assassination of President John F. Kennedy. The concern was who would be in charge if he had lived and was in a coma.

The Amendment has four sections. The first two provide for a succession order when there is a permanent vacancy in the office of the president or vice president.

The third section provides for the vice president to take temporary command when the president requests it in writing.

The never invoked Section 4 is lengthy and provides that if the vice president and a majority of the principal officers of the 15 executive departments (most of which are cabinet positions) or another body appointed by Congress, informs Congress that the president is unable to discharge his or her duties, the vice president immediately assumes the powers and duties of the office as acting president.

There are provisions for the president to contest this declaration.

Ultimately, it is up to Congress to vote on the issue and if it agrees with the declaration, the vice president continues as acting president. If not, the president resumes the office.

These are difficult times and another impeachment may be on the

Linden waste collection days change to Wednesdays

■ Change is effective Wednesday, Feb. 3

Republic Services will now pick up waste in Linden on Wednesdays rather than Fridays.

This change begins Wednesday, Feb. 3. This was announced at the Monday, Dec. 14 Linden City Council meeting.

Weekly yard waste collection will restart in April on Wednes-

"We are committed to providing our customers with the best, most cost-efficient service and we look forward to working with the city of Linden. If you have any questions regarding your new service day change, please call our Customer Service department at 1-800-438-0966. Thank you for allowing Republic to service your waste removal needs," said Republic Services in a statement to the Linden City Council.

Mayor Danielle Cusson said, "We believe Wednesday will be better for our residents. With the new pickup day, our city office will be open the entire day and can more timely address any issues residents may have with collection."

Republic Services also has announced changing collection days for residents in Fenton Township. Effective the week of Feb. 1, the company will pick up waste and recycle bins in this municipality on Fridays. Before, the company would do collection on different days in different areas of the township.

At a Fenton Township Board of Trustees meeting on Jan. 4, Gary Hicks, municipal services manager for Republic Services, said they're working on consolidating their operations to make collection days run more smoothly.

told board members and audience members of the Zoom meeting Monday, Jan. 11 that the school district's target date of Jan. 19 is still in effect. While some students will continue with remote learning, students that wish to take part in in-person learning five days per week can do so beginning next Tuesday.

The schedule will be as it was in November 2020. The Young 5s through fifth grade will remain as cohorts (groups that stay together all day), and bus transportation will be provided. Students sixth grade and higher will have late start times in order to stagger busing.

"It's the same schedule as November," Hartley said. "We'll have some sense of normalcy." He added that he's excited to see students and staff in person. CO-VID-19 safety protocols will continue to be implemented for everyone.

Hartley is hopeful for the COVID-19 vaccine and anticipates learning from the Genesee County Health Department of when vaccines will be available for the district's employees. As soon as he learns more, he will relay that information on to the staff. Any employees that live in Livingston or Oakland counties are advised to check their health departments for vaccine availability.

With next Tuesday quickly approaching, Hartley said, "The students will get to have that first day of school all over again."

Keith Reynolds, school board president, said that he too is excited for Jan. 19, but stresses that their main focus is to keep students and staff safe.

the store without paying for merchandise and fled in a van. A description of the van was provided to police.

Lt. Jeff Cross said a responding officer spotted the van attempting to leave. A traffic stop was initiated, however, the driver of the van would not stop. The van started traveling northbound on Silver Parkway in the southbound lanes. The van went across the lanes and pulled into the entrance near TJMAXX and then exited traveling northbound on Silver Parkway again, but in the correct northbound lanes this time. The van left the roadway near the VG's gas station, turned around and then traveled southbound in the northbound lanes.

The van then traveled into the entrance near Skechers shoe store and drove around to the backside of the businesses. The van drove up the hill behind the businesses toward U.S. 23. It appeared the driver was attempting to get onto the highway, however, the van got stuck in the snowy ditch.

The driver got out of the van and fled on foot in an unknown direction.

Cross said a Michigan State Police K-9 unit responded, however, a track of the suspect was unsuccessful. The vehicle, abandoned in the ditch by U.S. 23 was a 1995 GMC van. Cross said police believe it was stolen from a Flint resident.

Found in the van were several bottles of stolen liquor, Red Bull drink and laundry soap, all of which were returned to Walmart.

No one was injured in the pursuit and Cross said while the fleeing van was traveling in incorrect lanes, Fenton police traveled in the correct lanes, which slowed them down.

If anyone has information about the retail fraud or the suspect, they are to contact Fenton police at (810) 629-5311.

The Grocery Store Hero Appreciation Days' free one-day admission can only be redeemed online and is valid for weekday visits, Monday through Friday at http://bit.ly/3sdLION.

In addition to the free admission for a grocery store worker, they can bring up to four guests who will receive 50 percent off admission as well with the same online offer. "These grocery store workers are unsung heroes, tirelessly dedicating countless hours in our country's time of need, and it's not lost on us that they do so at the risk of their own health, and sacrificing time with their own families," said Hayley Anderson, general manager of SEA LIFE Michigan. "In our small way, we hope this can bring a little more joy into their lives; and an opportunity for our nation's grocery store workers to spend a day enjoying carefree family fun."

Property owners in Fenton and Linden cities are required to keep sidewalks clear of snow and ice, per ordinances.

Who's responsible for shoveling sidewalks?

■ Property owners are expected to keep sidewalks free from ice and snow

By Hannah Ball

Residents in Linden and Fenton cities are responsible for clearing the snow off sidewalks on their properties.

In the 2020 winter newsletter, Linden officials reminded residents that it's important to keep sidewalks in front of houses and businesses clear of ice and snow.

"The elderly, disabled and school children especially need sidewalks to be cleared for safe passage during the winter months. Your neighbors are counting on you! Please do your part to maintain a safe and accessible pathway by clearing your snow and ice within 24 hours of accumulation. As you are clearing your sidewalks and driveways, do not push, plow or shovel snow into the streets."

In Fenton, City Ordinance, 29-15 states that the removal of snow and ice from sidewalks is the responsibility of the property owner.

"The occupant of any premises, or the owner of any unoccupied premises, is required to keep the sidewalks in front of or adjacent to such premises cleared, so far as is practicable and reasonable, from snow, ice, rubbish, excessive dirt, or any encumbrance, to facilitate pedestrian use.

"Whenever any snow or ice has fallen or accumulated, it shall be cleared within 12 hours after it has fallen or accumulated. If the owner or occupant fails to comply with this requirement, the city may remove the same and charge the cost thereof against the abutting property as provided in section 28-16," the ordinance states.

DRIVER RUNS RED LIGHT, POLICE RECOVER PISTOL IN VEHICLE

At 2:15 a.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 5, a Fenton police officer on patrol observed a vehicle exit from southbound U.S. 23 onto Owen Road. The vehicle drove through a red light in front of the officer. A traffic stop was initiated. The driver told the officer that he had a firearm in his vehicle but did not have a concealed pistol license (CPL). A search of the vehicle revealed a pistol on the center console. The man, a 27-year-old Flint resident, was arrested on the CPL violation and lodged at the Genesee County Jail pending his arraignment. A passenger in the vehicle was not arrested.

FAKE MONEY

Following his arraignment, his identity would be released.

MORE REPORTS OF COUNTERFEIT MONEY IN FENTON

Cross said Fenton police also took several complaints over the weekend involving counterfeit $20, $50 and $100 bills. The bills recovered by police passed the counterfeit bill detector pen (ink test). It is unknown if these cases are related to the Flint suspect mentioned above.

Police are investigating the cases and will turn the confiscated fake bills over to the Secret Service for follow up.

Cross said if the bills pass the ink test, the bills are likely a lower denomination bill that has been washed and reprinted to appear as a $20, $50 or $100 bill. He said anyone accepting anything larger than a $10 bill should closely inspect it and look for the watermarks. If you suspect the bill is counterfeit, confiscate the bill immediately to prevent it from further circulation and turn it over to your local police department.

If the Secret Service determines that the confiscated bills are legitimate, they will return them to police in order to be returned to the rightful owner.

To combat fake money, Cross said some businesses are purchasing automatic counterfeit detectors with infrared, magnetic and ultraviolet sensors, which cost approximately $100. The bills are inserted into the machine for instant detection.

Fenton's DeRidder continuing dominant season at Michigan State

By David Troppens

Fenton resident and Michigan State University's starting goalie on the men's hockey team Drew DeRidder keeps seeing his star rise higher as the season progresses.

First, the junior earned the starting position in between the pipes to start the season. Second, in early December he was named the Big Ten's Second Star of the Week. Since then, he's soared to even higher heights, earning the Big Ten's First Star of the Week twice. He was named the First Star for the first time when he made 89 saves and posted a 95.7 save percentage, helping the Spartans post a 1-0-1 record against 16th-ranked Notre Dame at the time.

He earned it again on Jan. 5 when he helped lead the Spartans to a 1-1-0 record against the Penn State Nittany Lions, making 64 saves and posting a 97.0 save percentage in the two recent contents.

On Dec. 19, DeRidder made a season-high 47 saves against the Fighting Irish in a 1-1 overtime tie at Notre Dame's Compton Family Ice Arena, a game played on NBC Sports Net-

DeRidder held Notre Dame's power play off, stopping three powerplay chances, including three minutes of a major penalty in the final period. Then, the Spartans were shorthanded again with 1:46 left in overtime, but DeRidder and the Spartans held on to earn the tie.

"He was outstanding. He made a lot of good saves and took care of rebounds," Michigan State coach Danton Cole said. "He was square to the shooters, quick to the post and

Olsen, Tigers looking to make their mark in Fenton history

By David Troppens

She's only into her junior year but Gracie Olsen has already reached the Mt. Rushmore conversation when it comes to Fenton High School's top athletes of all time.

The Mt. Rushmore conversation in sports terms is a discussion of the three best athletes for a given subject. It's easy to see why she's in that discussion. In her first two seasons with the Fenton varsity girls swim team, Olsen captured three Division 2 individual event state championships and one individual event runner-up finish.

She is preparing for Saturday's D2 Girls State Swimming That's because the Powers • and Diving Championship to be held at Grand Rapids Northview

"I do think about it," Olsen said. "I've been told a couple of times (about her historical accomplishments). It's very motivational more than anything. I try to stay humble and I think it's super cool. But what I am really glad about is I have one of the best teams to train with and some of the best teams out there."

Comments like that don't come out of Olsen without questions prodding those statements, which reflects just how humble she is. Talking about her teammates is much more natural for her.

It's already challenging to find someone with Olsen's credentials as impressive as hers in Fenton school history. If she won two more state championships this weekend, Olsen should likely lock up that top spot with her senior season still remaining.

But nothing is a given this season. With COVID-19, training has been extremely difficult for swimmers. The state meet was suspended twice already, and has interrupted traditional training methods. Usually swimmers work hard, gaining mileage during the season. Then, as the state meet approaches they lessen their work load to create added energy for the state event. With the practice sessions interrupted twice this season, it's likely no swimmer will match the times they expected to if the actual event happened in November.

"We started (practicing) together last week," Olsen said. Before that, I was going to Lakeland High School. ... I was there with a group of girls. It was really cool to see a lot of other swimmers from all over the place practicing by themselves. It just showed a lot of dedication. It was really great to see everyone come together and show a lot of pride."

Just having a state meet will feel like an accomplishment.

"I think it's really great we are able to pull this off after all of this," Olsen said. "We were really uncertain anything was going to happen. I think it's great we get a chance, especially for our seniors."

The Tigers' other competitors at the state meet will be Maddie Kazmierski (100 butterfly and the 500 freestyle), Abigail Dolliver (100 breaststroke) and Sophie Stefanac (100 freestyle and 100 backstroke) in individual events. Delaney Fries, Rose Haney and Halee Alexander also will attend and will compete on the Tigers' relays. All three Fenton relays are qualified with the 400 freestyle relay team of Olsen, Stefanac, Fries and Dolliver seeded third.

The adversity of the season is going to make the state meet special.

"Absolutely it's going to be super special," Olsen said. "Our time trial meet we had back in November was super special too, but the fact that they were able to pull this off is special.

"I just want to go and see what happens. My club team had a meet in Elkhart, Indiana a few weeks ago and this is kind of like another follow up. I'm excited to see what happens. I just want us to have a good time."

Taylor, a junior, also will be competing in two individual events. She'll be competing in the 100 butterfly and the 200 individual medley. The Powers squad also has all three of its relay teams qualified, and the pair will likely compete on two relays as well. The Powers' 200 medley relay team is seeded third (1:51.86) entering the meet.

The event will be different than typical seasons. The meet will just have one swim in each event for each individual or relay team.

"I am a big fan of the timed finals situation at states," Wuiciak said. "It is a 'last one fast one' situation. A mental test to all swimmers to see if their head is really in the game."
