Governor increases vaccination goal

35 percent of Michigan residents have received at least one vaccination

By Hannah Ball
On Wednesday, March 31, Governor Gretchen Whitmer raised Michigan’s COVID-19 vaccination goal from 50,000 to 100,000 shots per day.

Up until this week, Michigan has administered approximately 50,000 of vaccinations per day or more.

By the end of March, approximately 2,793,970 residents were vaccinated, with 4,401,510 administered in the state.

“Regarding the underage party in Linden: While it’s not right, it’s not uncommon. Many of us drank well before the age of 21.”

“I want to thank the beautiful person who paid for my mani pedi at the nail salon in Fenton. Way beyond a simple act of kindness, you brought me to tears. I paid it over many times this past month. You are the beautiful person.”

“I pretend the town’s side streets are cobblestone.”

The awards were announced Thursday, March 25 over Zoom. Tri-County Times was a finalist for Newspaper of the Year in the Class A section for Weekly/News Media Publication. Tri-County has been named Newspaper of the Year six times.

“I am extremely proud of our staff here at the TCT. We work really hard to give our readers and businesses the best possible publication week after week. Even with the challenges we faced with COVID, the team did a remarkable job meeting the expectations of our readers,” said Jennifer Ward, general manager of Tri-County Times and graphics design

Fenton student organizes efforts that delivered 1,600 masks to schools

Her Gold Award project for Girl Scouts enlists community support

By Hannah Ball
Annabeth Carnes, 17, a Fenton High School junior, has organized a group that has delivered more than 1,600 masks for schools in Genesee County.

“I wanted to do something that could help my community and be safe to have other people participate in,” she said.

It’s her Gold Award project for Girl Scouts, which she’s been a part of for nearly six years. The purpose of a Gold Award project is to create a community project that has depth, breadth and continuity. An important aspect of it is engaging the community and recruiting people to be involved in the project. She’s also involved in Boy Scouts.

“It can’t be a small thing. It has to go outside of you. Getting community support and making it last,” Carnes said.

This past summer, she and her mom made masks together and sent them to churches, veteran groups and their friends. The project grew. She enlisted volunteers to cut fabric, sew, and make mask kits. At first, they sewed masks for first responders and hospitals. Then they sewed masks for essential workers. Now they’re delivering them to school districts.

They’ve dropped off masks for Fenton Area Public Schools, Holly Area Schools, Linden Community Schools, Flint schools, Grand Blanc school, and they don’t plan to stop anytime soon. They drop off about 50 to 75 masks at a time. “They’re going to need way more than that. Continuous community support is needed,” Carnes said.

The masks Carnes delivered are now in use in four schools in Genesee County.

Annabeth Carnes, 17, stands with Adam Hartley, superintendent of Fenton Area Public Schools, after she delivered a bag of masks for students and teachers.

A message from the superintendent

Providing the foundation for success

It’s never been more important to prepare all students to succeed academically, socially and emotionally, and that’s our number one priority at Holly Area Schools.

We take great pride in helping all Bronchos succeed from day one, starting with our Broncho Young Fives and Kindergarten programs that provide the foundation for success. That’s why we recently kicked off our campaign highlighting the Broncho Difference that begins taking shape among our youngest learners.

Broncho Young Fives provides the gift of an extra year of social, emotional and academic growth for students before entering kindergarten. Our Young Fives class sizes are small, which allows our teachers to better meet the individual needs of our students. Our Young Fives and kindergarten programs learn from a strong academic program, which includes reading, writing, math, science and social studies with a daily focus on reading and math.

We are committed to providing all Bronchos with cutting-edge technology that will one day prepare them for in-demand careers. We equip our Young Fives and kindergarten students with iPads. Every Broncho receives a Chromebook once they enter first grade. We begin introducing Science, Technology, Engineering and Math principles in our Young Fives and Kindergarten programs. By emphasizing STEM early on, we help prepare students to solve problems, think critically and develop solutions.

Our youngest learners also participate in Leader in Me, which teaches the real world skills needed to succeed inside and outside the classroom. Leader in Me teaches our Bronchos about teamwork, problem solving, conflict resolution and other key life skills, and helps cultivate self-confidence, creativity, leadership and communication.

School safety has also never been more important, and that begins with our Young Fives and kindergartners. Our voters generously approved our 2018 bond, which invested in new secure entrances, locks, security cameras and monitors in all of our elementary schools and every one of our buildings.

I strongly encourage everyone to consider the Broncho Difference today.

At Holly Area Schools, we’re inspiring leaders to shape tomorrow’s world. It’s our mission to prepare our students to meet the challenges of today and tomorrow.

Don’t leave money on the table.

Life changes in 2020 could mean stimulus money is waiting for you.

File today to claim it.

Who was your childhood hero?

“My Aunt Kathleen Boilore. She raised her sisters kids after she passed. She put her life on hold for everyone. Everyone was always welcome in her home. I aspire to be half the woman she is and repay her for her kindness.”

“My older sister, Lisa, 100 percent! My hero then and my hero now. I wouldn’t be who I am without her guidance and examples.”

“My father and my grandfather who is no longer with us. They were firefighters and risked their life day in and day out for others. I am a firefighter and have been for 10+ years and love every minute of it. My mother was another hero of mine because she would always be there and make sure us kids were taken care of, and always made sure our schooling was all set.”

“Evel Knievel and Ace Frehley. Probably explains a lot.”

Easter egg hunt at Way Church

Kids collect more than 4,000 Easter eggs

By Hannah Ball

Fenton — The weather was warm and sunny on Saturday, March 27 when hundreds of local children participated in an Easter egg hunt.

Easter is Sunday, April 4, and The Way Church and the Fenton Center of Hope hosted the Eager egg hunt near Georgetown apartments to celebrate and bring families together for the holiday.

More than 4,000 colorful eggs were used.

“With COVID, we had to keep watching the restrictions and things,” said Bob Strygulec, co-director of Fenton Center of Hope. “We felt that it was really important to give the kids and the community a sense of normal, that we’ve gone through such a tough year.”

Kids and families met and took photos with the Easter bunny before decorating their bags in preparation for the egg hunt.

The grounds were divided into three areas for different age groups, with a smaller area for the youngest ones.

Once the announcer yelled “go” and the ribbon came down, the kids ran onto the field and grabbed as many eggs as they could.

Approximately 150 kids were registered, but more attended the day of. Strygulec said with about 4,000 eggs, each child collected about 20-25.

Some of the eggs had tickets for prizes, such as bikes, pogo sticks, Easter baskets and more.

Local resident Amy Chandler brought her 3-year-old son, Blake. They attended the event with Blake’s daycare group.

“It was nice. Just something normal for the kids. Last year was totally different with quarantine and everything. It’s nice for kids to be able to come have some fun together and play,” she said.

Scott Statson, pastor of The Way Church, said he and his wife started The Way Church two years ago to reach young families with the gospel.

“Because we love our community and because Fenton Center of Hope loves our community, we decided to...”

MCC summer and fall registration opened April 1

High school students can apply for dual enrollment

From Mott Community College

Mott Community College (MCC) Summer and Fall semester registration opened April 1. Classes are offered in a variety of formats, including online, hybrid and in-person.

“Now is the time to take college classes,” said Jason Wilson, vice president for Student Academic Success. “MCC has programs and flexible scheduling for just about anyone looking to improve their lives, from current high school students who want to dual enroll, to recent high school grads ready to get started, or for people already in the workforce who want updated skills and a credential. Mott has it all.”

MCC offers associate’s degrees and skills certificates in high demand career fields in health care, accounting, manufacturing, computer technology and STEM. In addition, the college has transfer degree programs and articulation agreements statewide for students who wish to pursue a bachelor’s degree.

Students still in high school can apply for dual enrollment/early admit and get a jump start on their college education.

Michigan Reconnect provides free tuition to Michiganders 25 and older, who do not already have a degree, to earn an associate’s degree or skills certificate. For students under 25, federal financial aid is available for those who qualify, and MCC offers a variety of scholarships.

Scholarship information can be found at mcc.edu.

Yard waste pickup begins this month

Waste services company recommends using biodegradable bags

By Hannah Ball

Yard waste pickup begins in April. Republic Services handles waste removal services for most area municipalities. The company recommends placing yard waste, which includes grass clippings, leaves, branches and yard debris, into biodegradable bags and placing them near the sidewalk or at the edge of the driveway.

The pile should be no higher than 4 feet, and cut branches should be no longer than 4 feet.

Yard waste cannot be mixed with trash or recycling.

FENTON

Yard waste pickup begins in April and ends in November. Republic Services will pick it up every Friday in the city, with a few exceptions on weeks that include holidays. In June, the first week for yard waste pickup is Saturday the 5th. In September, the second week pickup day is Saturday the 11th. In November, the fourth week pickup day is Saturday the 27th.

For more information, go to cityof-fenton.org.

LINDEN

Republic Services picks up yard waste every Wednesday beginning in April. Due to holidays, the day may change. In June, pickup is on Thursday the 3rd instead of Wednesday. In September, second week pickup will take place on Thursday the 9th.

Go to lindeni.mi.us for the full calendar.

HOLLY

Every Wednesday, beginning the first week of April through the end of November, yard waste will be collected by Republic Trash Services. Yard waste is accepted in brown paper lawn and garden bags, or loose in trash cans up to 30 gallons and clearly marked “compost.”

Go to hollyvillage.org for more information.

ARGENTINE TOWNSHIP

Yard waste is picked up every other week in April through November on Mondays by Emterra Environmental USA. Set all materials at the curb before 7 a.m.

For more information, go to argentine-township.com.

Yard waste includes:

• Grass Clippings
• Leaves
• Garden Debris
• Small Branches / Shrubbery: less than 4 feet in length and 2 inches in diameter (must be bundled and tied)

Republic Services does not accept the following:

• Straw or Hay
• Apples
• Logs or Tree Stumps
• Dirt, Rocks, or Sod
• Compost in Plastic Bags
Nursing homes see 96 percent decline in COVID cases since vaccine rollout

Deaths decrease by 91 percent

From the American Health Care Association and National Center for Assisted Living (AHCA/NCAL)

Nursing homes have seen a 96 percent decline in new COVID-19 cases since Dec. 20, 2020 thanks to the vaccine rollout.

This information comes from The American Health Care Association and National Center for Assisted Living (AHCA/NCAL), which represent more than 14,000 nursing homes and long term care facilities across the country that provide care to approximately five million people each year. They released a report showing nursing homes in the U.S. continue to see a rapid decline in new COVID-19 cases thanks to initial vaccine allocations prioritized for nursing homes and called on Congress to consider the industry’s Care For Our Seniors Act to address systemic issues facing the nursing home sector and prevent another COVID-type crisis.

Recent CMS data shows that nursing homes have seen a 96 percent decline in new COVID cases among residents since the peak during the week of December 20 of last year when there were more than 30,000 new resident cases. Along with the lowest number of new COVID cases, AHCA/NCAL’s new report shows COVID related deaths in nursing homes declined by 91 percent since December 20, 2020.

“We are not out of the woods yet, but these numbers are incredibly encouraging and a major morale booster for frontline caregivers who have been working tirelessly for more than a year to protect our residents,” said Mark Parkinson, president and CEO of AHCA/NCAL.

“This trend shows that when long term care is prioritized, as with the national vaccine rollout, we can protect our vulnerable elderly population. Now we need Congress to prioritize our nursing homes for the long-term by considering the initiatives in the Care For Our Seniors Act to improve the quality of care for our residents.”

AHCA and LeadingAge recently released the reform agenda, the Care For Our Seniors Act, to address long-standing challenges affecting the quality of care provided in America’s nursing homes. The organizations say the COVID-19 pandemic has exposed and exacerbated systemic issues impacting the nursing home sector, such as workforce shortages, aging physical plants and underfunded government reimbursements for care.

The Care For Our Seniors Act focuses on four key areas for improvement, which include enhancing the quality of care with enhanced standards for infection preventionists, requiring that each nursing home have a registered nurse on-staff, 24 hours per day and requiring a minimum 30-day supply of personal protective equipment in all nursing homes. The initiative also calls for a multi-phase, tiered approach to attract, retain and develop more long term care professionals leveraging federal, state and academic institutions.

Various ways to pay off student loans

Means to get out from under the pressure of debt

Compiled by Sharon Stone

Students and families invest heavily in higher education. Many students rely on student loans to finance their educations. In fact, students amassed $1.56 trillion in student loan debt by 2020.

According to Forbes, American student loan debt is now the second highest consumer debt category, exceeded only by mortgage debt. The Institute for College Access and Success says the average student loan debt is $32,731, while the median student loan monthly payment is $222.

Some students feel like paying off student loan debt is impossible. Many loan repayment schedules kick in shortly after graduation, and certain borrowers may not yet be making enough money to afford even the minimum payments on their student loans. There are ways, however, to get out from under student loan pressure.

Investigate income-driven repayment

IDR will lower student loan payments based on your income, and some plans even promise to forgive any remaining balance once the repayment period is up. That period can take between 20 and 25 years.

Make a move

The Rural Opportunity Zone program encourages Americans to move to rural areas to help discourage population decline and to give others the benefits of a lower cost of living. Check with rd.usda.gov for more information.

Work in public service

A Public Service Loan Forgiveness program, or PSLF, enables student loan forgiveness in exchange for working for a nonprofit or working in government.

Holly Ladies Night Out planned for April 16-18

Attendees can expect sales, giveaways at weekend event

By Hannah Ball

The spring Holly Ladies Night Out is scheduled for April 16-18. The weekend event will feature specials, sales, and giveaways at participating Holly stores.

Nick Klempp, Holly Downtown Development Authority director, said, “We have a great team of people made up of community volunteers and merchants, and while we decided to do this in a little last second, it is going to be a great time for people to come out and enjoy our great downtown.”

Like this past winter, Holly merchants decided to hold a Ladies Night over a weekend as opposed to normally holding it as a one-day event. Klempp said store owners reported that it helped avoid crowding.

“We are hoping that a lot of people will come to our downtown and shop and dine once again, but we are spreading it out over three days so that people can come down and enjoy all that Holly has to offer to try to help with a huge crowd only on Friday night,” he said.

Safety measures include wearing masks and social distancing. They’re handing out Ladies Weekend bags ahead of time so people can get them from their favorite store instead of in one location where people would have to wait in line.

Most of the businesses downtown are participating, which is around 40. “The Vault will be hosting some of the north end businesses and other Holly businesses as well so that we can include parts of the whole town,” Klempp said. “It feels good to be able to start to move about again and have people come enjoy the weather and hang out with others and enjoy our town. It is always great to see people smiling and laughing and enjoying themselves as they shop here- it is what makes Holly such a great place to be.”

More than 1,500 people attended the November 2017 Holly Ladies Night Out, which was considered a success. Times File Photo

“I know all the businesses are very excited to see people start to come out again for this and our First Friday events and just coming down in general to shop.”

This is the last week to register to win the $50 gift certificate giveaway.

1968: Just after 6 p.m., Martin Luther King, Jr. is fatally shot while standing on the balcony outside his second-story room at the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tennessee. The civil rights leader was in Memphis to support a sanitation workers’ strike and was on his way to dinner when a bullet struck him in the jaw and severed his spinal cord. King was pronounced dead after his arrival at a Memphis hospital. He was 39 years old.

APRIL 5
1994: Modern rock icon Kurt Cobain dies by suicide. His body was discovered inside his home in Seattle, Washington, three days later by Gary Smith, an electrician, who was installing a security system in the suburban house. Despite indications that Cobain, the lead singer of Nirvana, killed himself, several skeptics questioned the circumstances of his death and pinned responsibility on his wife, Courtney Love.

APRIL 6
1917: Two days after the U.S. Senate voted 82 to 6 to declare war against Germany, the U.S. House of Representatives endorses the declaration by a vote of 373 to 50, and America formally enters World War I. When World War I erupted in 1914, President Woodrow Wilson pledged neutrality for the United States, a position that the vast majority of Americans favored. Britain, however, was one of America’s closest trading partners, and tension soon arose between the United States and Germany over the latter’s attempted quarantine of the British Isles. Several U.S. ships traveling to Britain were damaged or sunk by German mines, and in February 1915, Germany announced unrestricted warfare against all ships, neutral or otherwise, that entered the war zone around Britain. One month later, Germany announced that a German cruiser had sunk the William P. Frye, a private American vessel. President Wilson was outraged, but the German government apologized and called the attack an unfortunate mistake.

APRIL 7
194: Violence fuels the launch of what would become the worst episode of genocide since World War II: the massacre of an estimated 500,000 to 1 million innocent civilian Tutsis and moderate Hutus. Following the first wave of massacres, Rwandan forces manage to discourage international intervention with the murder of 10 Belgian peacekeeping officers. The Tutsis, a minority group that made up about 10 percent of Rwanda’s population, received no assistance from the international community, although the United Nations later conceded that a mere 5,000 soldiers deployed at the outset would have stopped the wholesale slaughter.

APRIL 8
1974: On this day, Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves hits his 715th career home run, breaking Babe Ruth’s legendary record of 714 home runs. A crowd of 53,775 people, the largest in the history of Atlanta-Fulton County Stadium, was with Aaron that night to cheer when he hit a 4th inning pitch off the Los Angeles Dodgers’ Al Downing. However, as Aaron was an African American who had received death threats and racist hate mail during his pursuit of one of baseball’s most distinguished records, the achievement was bittersweet.

APRIL 9
2005: Nearly eight years after Princess Diana’s death in a car crash was mourned the world over, Prince Charles, her widower and heir to the British throne, wed his longtime mistress, Camilla Parker Bowles. The marriage, a private civil ceremony, took place at Windsor Guildhall, 30 miles outside of London. The ceremony was originally supposed to take place April 8, but had to be rescheduled so as not to conflict with the funeral of Pope John Paul II.

APRIL 10
1970: The legendary rock band the Beatles spent the better part of three years breaking up in the late 1960s, and even longer than that hashing out who did what and why. And by the spring of 1970, there was little more than a tangled set of business relationships keeping the group together. Each of the Beatles was pursuing his musical interests outside of the band, and there were no plans in place to record together as a group. But as far as the public knew, this was just a temporary state of affairs. That all changed April 10, 1970, when an ambiguous Paul McCartney “self-interview” was seized upon by the international media as an official announcement of a Beatles breakup.

partner together to love our community this Easter with a big egg hunt,” he said.

He said the turnout was “awesome.”

“It’s just encouraging to see all these young families here in our community taking advantage of just a fun, beautiful day,” he said. “We have food, eggs, a ton of prizes. The Fenton Center of Hope has been incredible.”

Strygulec said planning for the event began around mid-2020.

“It’s just for the community as a whole. We contacted Georgetown to get it advertised to their residents with kids, but we’ve been doing that through other local churches and our people that come to Center of Hope,” Bob said. “A lot of different sources where the families are coming from. Primarily Fenton and Linden, a little bit from Holly.”

support has been really helpful,” she said. “My friends were all excited because it was something they could do from the comfort and safety of their own homes.”

Carnes is working with about 30 people who help cut fabric and sew the pieces. They make sewing kits for people who want to get involved. A grandmother, who hadn’t seen her granddaughter in months due to the pandemic, got involved in making masks, and so did her granddaughter. Carnes said it’s become something they can do together while wearing masks.

They make masks for kids and adults, and they use kid-friendly fabrics so the younger kids are more likely to want to wear them. They also work with a few sewers who make specialty masks for teachers and students in special needs classrooms. This includes clear masks, which are used when speaking with people who read lips due to auditory difficulties, as well as masks with softer fabric for students who experience sensory issues.

“We contacted schools and asked if there was a need. Turns out, there was a major need,” she said. At FAPS, she was told that they had enough money to buy teachers reusable cloth masks and every student on disposal mask, and that was it. When they brought masks to Tomek-Eastern Elementary, the school was nearly out of masks.

They look at population size and the percent of students who qualify for free and reduced lunches to determine the number of masks they drop off at a school.

Her Gold Award project was selected to be showcased in a video presentation with the Girl Scouts.

Her mother Lindsey Carnes said this project will help these school districts connect with members of the community and build relationships, which creates a better support system for long-term use.

“It creates resilience in the future as well,” she said.

They’ll make masks for as long as schools need them.

“I personally can’t fix COVID and I can’t fix the problems my community is facing, but I can help a little bit,” Carnes said.

If anyone wishes to get involved, they can email lindsey@ffpc.org or contact Carnes through her Instagram account she made for this project with the username weaning_is_caring_drive.

Carnes has been doing virtual learning at the high school. She’s also enrolled at the Genesee Career Institute in a welding program and she’s dual enrolled at Mott Community College.

AWARDS

“This has been the most challenging year of my career with the Times. Despite all the challenges and issues brought on by the pandemic I cannot be prouder of the team here at the paper and what we have accomplished. Everyone has stepped up to do whatever they could to provide news coverage and stories about our local residents who are so very important to us,” said Editor Sharon Stone.

The Fenton-based publication won 17 awards and honorable mentions in all, including first place in the Special Section category for Shop Local and being named a finalist in the Excellence in Advertising Award.

The staff at the Tri-County Times won numerous awards.

In the category of Best Columnist for Weekly/News Media, Stone won second place for her column, “Thankful for our local police officers.”

In Home Furnishings, Account Executive Kathleen Smith and Gavulic won second place for their work with Lauricella Painting. In Home Services, Smith and Gavulic won third place and an honorable mention for ads on Byron Plumbing and Mr. Electric respectively.

Tri-County Times is one of multiple publications from View Newspaper Group to win MPA awards this year. Huron County View won first in the Class A section for Weekly/Newspaper of the Year. The publication received a total of 26 awards and honorable mentions.

Greenville Daily News also won the MPA Public Notice Journalism Award, along with Best FOIA Story Award, a recognition given to a publication that recognizes that best story using FOIA (Freedom of Information Act) to show more of the inner workings of government.

View Newspaper Group Publisher Wes Smith said of the awards, “We are humbled by the recognition of the judges of the MPA Better Newspaper Contest and grateful for the support of our readers and advertisers in a very different and challenging year. It has been our honor to tell their stories of loss, survival, resilience and hope during the pandemic. We are also proud and appreciative of the outstanding effort and contributions of our team of journalists, editors, salespeople, graphic artists and support and admin professionals in not only keeping our newspapers going but doing so at a remarkable level of excellence.”
Oakland County offers rides to vaccine appointments

Check the correct box on online registration form

From Oakland County

Oakland County and SMART are teaming up to provide easy access to COVID-19 vaccinations for those who need transportation to and from their scheduled vaccine appointment.

“As we expand to offering doses to anyone over 18, we want to make sure that transportation does not stand in the way of access to one of our clinics throughout the county,” Oakland County Executive Dave Coulter said. “We appreciate SMART’s partnership at this critical time.”

Oakland County Health Division and SMART incorporated the transportation service into the COVID-19 vaccine registration form at oaklandcountyvaccine.com. Any resident who has transportation needs simply checks a box to indicate they need a ride to their appointment. When they receive their confirmation email, they are prompted to call 1-800-848-5533 to schedule their transportation to and from the clinic. Health Division staff then contacts SMART to arrange transportation directly with the client.

“Our partnership with SMART helps connect Oakland County residents to vaccination clinics,” Oakland County Health and Human Services Director Leigh-Anne Stafford said. “Providing assistance with transportation helps ensure no one is left out of the vaccination process.”

SMART has maintained operations throughout the pandemic to ensure transportation services were safe and reliable for all those who need them. The SMART VAX Ride program uses a multi-pronged approach, leveraging services, partners, and federal funding to adapt to the expanding vaccination programs being offered throughout the region. Using its key resources to coordinate rides directly with vaccine scheduling agencies ensures that transportation is not a barrier to receiving a dose of COVID-19 vaccine.

“As eligibility, doses, and sites continue to expand and grow, it becomes even more important to coordinate SMART’s services with those providing vaccines, as vaccines are a critical step in our region’s road to recovery,” SMART Deputy General Manager Robert Cramer said. “Our partnership will help automatically connect those who need it with a safe, free ride to and from a vaccine.”

THERE IS A logical and simple way to handle the mask mandate. Until the time we feel we have gotten herd immunity, people vaccinated shouldn’t have to wear masks and people not vaccinated should wear them.

The team at Clara’s Hope operates with one thought in mind — Every child deserves a family. “Our biggest goal is to bridge that gap between agency and families to help families do the great work they’re doing,” said Erin Deale, program coordinator. Deale, who herself is a foster parent and social worker, has been a part of Clara’s Hope since its start.

The idea of Clara’s Hope came about in 2013 after founders, Dave and Tami Kromer, adopted their youngest daughter, Clara. As foster parents for over 10 years, the Kromers strongly believe that no parent should have to do foster care alone. Two of their children were adopted through foster care with very little support. After adopting Clara, who was born with a terminal condition, their church and community rallied around the family with much support. The Kromers realized this is what adoption and foster care should look like and envisioned starting an organization that could provide such support to families in Genesee and Livingston Counties. Clara’s Hope is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Clara’s Hope works to provide accessibility to supports and resources and connect the community (individuals, businesses, corporations and schools) to the needs of local foster and adoptive families.

Some of those needs include meal prep, diaper drops offs, small home repairs and cleaning. Other needs are basic, like new pajamas and a backpack filled with supplies for incoming foster children. To fulfill that need, a Backpack Drive is set for May — Foster Care Month. The organization is taking donations for the drive now and hope to complete 300 backpacks. Needed items include gender neutral backpacks for all ages, including teens and tweens, personal care items and pajamas. Deale said these first-night backpacks, which are distributed to foster care agencies in the area, are all about making life a little more normal for both children and their new foster families in the midst of what can be a chaotic time.

Like with all nonprofits, the COVID-19 pandemic has placed a strain on the fundraising efforts at Clara’s Hope. In order to fundraise with safety in mind, the nonprofit will host their first-ever virtual Walk-a-thon this May. Deale said to follow their Facebook page for more information.

Also, in honor of Foster Care Month, the team at Clara’s Hope puts together care packages for area foster agencies. “It’s our way to say, ‘thank you’ for the all of the hard work they do,” said Deale.

Deale said a great amount of thanks also goes to foster parents. Without foster parents, she said, there would be kids without any sense of a home life.

Supporting foster families is the backbone to the work at Clara’s Hope. Deale said anyone thinking of fostering for the first time can start with the Foster Care Navigator Program in Michigan. From there any additional questions can go to the team at Clara’s Hope. She said the team is happy to help walk families through the process, from selecting an agency to going through the licensing required and more.

“We serve to be a support in any way we can,” she said. Despite any challenges the last year has brought, Deale said the families and agencies have been there for kids every single day.

“There is so much resiliency within foster families,” she said. “They’ve been flexible and continue to put the well-being of foster children and their biological family first. It’s been quite impressive really.”

Moving forward, the team at Clara’s Hope will continue to follow their vision and aspire to help families have success in foster care and adoption. Supports offered are geared toward moving families from simply surviving to thriving.

shows that approximately 35 percent of residents have received at least one vaccination. Almost 70 percent of age groups 65-74 and 75+ have gotten first doses. That number drops to approximately 42 percent for the 50-64 age group, 25 percent for 30-39, 14 percent for 20-29 and 5 percent for 16-19.

According to Whitmer’s office, “the new goal is based on the state’s successful efforts to expand equitable and efficient vaccine administration by partnering with private and public organizations in communities across the state, and is made possible by continuous week-over-week increases in the number of vaccines allocated to the state of Michigan.”

The goal is to vaccinate at least 70 percent of Michiganders age 16 and older as soon as possible.

Next week, they expect to see an increase in the state’s vaccine allocation by 66,020 for a total of 620,040 vaccines, which would be a weekly record high for Michigan.

This includes 147,800 doses of the single-shot Johnson & Johnson vaccine. Millions of additional doses are being sent to federally partnered retail pharmacies across the country, including numerous locations in Michigan.

“The state is working hand-in-hand with health care systems, local health departments, Federally Qualified Health Centers, primary care providers and others to get Michiganders vaccinated with the safe and effective COVID-19 vaccine as quickly as possible,” said Dr. Joneigh Khaldun, chief medical executive and chief deputy for health. “Providers have administered more than four million doses in just four months and we praise and appre-

Free virtual Narcan training available

Register online, participants age 14+ will receive Save a Life kit with Narcan

By Hannah Ball

The public is invited to attend two free virtual Narcan training classes in the next two months.

On Tuesday, April 13, the Alliance of Coalitions for Healthy Communities (ACHC), the Madison Heights Community Coalition and the Madison Heights Police and Fire Departments will put on the training from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

On Friday, May 7, the ACHC, the Novi Community Coalition, the Novi Rotary Club and the Novi Chamber of Commerce are doing the training from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m.

Everyone who attends the virtual training will learn the proper administration of the Intra-Nasal Narcan overdose reversal drug. It’s the brand name for the medication used to counteract the effects of opioids during an overdose. Times File Photo

Naloxone, which counteracts the effects of opioids on the respiratory system.

They will send free Narcan kits to anyone who attends age 14 and up. These Save A Life kits include two doses of 4mg Nasal Narcan.

Pre-Registration is required and a survey must be completed at the end of the training in order to receive your Save A Life Kit. For preregistration, go to achcmi.org.

The LFLF gymnastics team had three competitors at the D2 individual state meet and had one competitor come home with All-State honors.

That All-State athlete was Lauren Hayden. She tied for third on the vault with a score of 9.125.

Apryl Smith competed in the all-around and finished in a tie for 14 with a score of 34.825. Her top performance was a 9.00 on the vault, earning her a tie for 11th. She also placed in a tie for 17th on the bars (8.425), a tie for 23rd on the floor (8.800) and 25th on the beam (8.600).

Maty Temrowski was the area’s final competitor. She finished tied for 14th on the vault (8.925) and placed 37th on the balance beam (7.150).

The fact the team was able to compete at the state meet was a reward. Last year COVID-19 cancelled the state meet.

“Tied for 3rd on the vault was a win for me and my team,” Hayden said. “I had a score of 9.125 and my team had a score of 9.00.”

“I knew I needed to do my best, but when I walked off the mat, I couldn’t help but feel excited to see the reactions of my team,” Hayden said. “My team was so proud of me and that made this experience even more special.”

“I was so happy to come out with All-State honors,” Hayden said. “I had a score of 9.125 on the vault and my team had a score of 9.00.”

“I knew I needed to give it my all and I did,” Hayden said. “I’m excited to see what the future holds for me.”

Lake Fenton’s TerBurgh headed to Nothwood to play softball

By David Troppens

Kaylie TerBurgh has had the goal of wanting to play college softball for about half of her life.

“I realized I wanted to play in college when I started playing travel softball and fell in love with the sport,” TerBurgh said. “But specifically, when I went to my first (University of Michigan) softball game when I was 10, I knew I wanted to play at the collegiate level.”

The Lake Fenton senior softball player’s dream will come true next school year. TerBurgh will be playing college softball for Northwood University.

“It’s a dream come true to have committed to Northwood and achieve the goal I have worked towards for so many years,” TerBurgh said. “I had a few other offers from other schools, but I knew Northwood was a great business school, and when I went on the visit, I realized Northwood was a perfect fit for me and I loved it.”

While COVID has impacted recruiting processes for many athletes, TerBurgh said it didn’t impact her process too much.

“COVID made the recruiting process a bit harder, but luckily I met (Northwood University softball coach Gregg) Suave and went on a visit before COVID hit,” TerBurgh said.

Northwood is a Division 2 school in the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC). The squad is currently 11-5 overall and 3-3 in conference action this spring. The Timberwolves played 17 games a year ago before COVID cancelled the rest of the season. Northwood went 10-7 in those contests.

Suave is in his fifth season and has posted an 96-86-1 overall record and a 42-46 record in GLIAC play.

TerBurgh said she expects to play either as a middle infielder or an outfielder. She plays travel ball with Firestix. TerBurgh thinks she will be ready to compete for a starting job quickly.

“I’m going into next year planning on working hard to earn my playing time and compete for my position,” TerBurgh said. “Northwood has freshmen starting on varsity so I will have to work hard to be one of those freshmen.”

“My travel team is dedicated to getting their players committed and preparing us for college ball, so they are hard on us and hold us to high expectations. It has definitely prepared me for playing D2 softball.”

Retirement — it’s not a word you think much about when you’re young. After all, that’s something that happens when you get old.

You might think Social Security will be all you’ll need, but it was designed to supplement your retirement savings. You can’t rely on it entirely. You’ll need some other source of income to pay for your living expenses.

The younger you are when you start your retirement planning, the better off you’ll be financially when you retire.

So how should you start?

The first thing to do is see if your employer offers a 401(k) program. Basically, a 401(k) is a retirement plan your employer sponsors. Money is deducted from every paycheck, on a pre-tax basis, with the purpose of having it to use when you retire. If you’re lucky, your employer will also contribute and/or match your contributions up to a certain limit.

The money is invested for you and earns compound interest, meaning you earn interest on the interest. The sooner you open a retirement account, the longer you have to make affordable contributions to it, and the more compound interest it earns.

Whether your employer offers a 401(k) program, you might also consider starting an IRA, or an Individual Retirement Account. There are different types of IRAs, but the most common are a Traditional and a Roth.

The biggest difference between them is how each one gets taxed.

Traditional IRAs/401(k) are pre-tax contributions; you will be taxed when it is time to withdraw funds.

Roth IRAs/401(k) are post-tax contributions; since you already paid taxes on the contributions, you will receive tax-free withdrawals when you retire.

There isn’t any one right way to invest money for your retirement, so it’s worth looking into the different options to see which you like best. You don’t need a lot of money to make money. You just need a lot of time. Your youth gives you that advantage.

The earlier you start saving, the more time your money has to accumulate interest. The more time you have it invested, the more time you have to figure out what system works best for you.

If you have questions about retirement products, talk to a financial advisor at your credit union. They’ll be an excellent source for more detailed information.

Founded in 1951, Dort Financial Credit Union serves more than 100,000 members and has 10 locations. Membership is open to anyone who lives, works, attends school and worships in the State of Michigan. The credit union offers comprehensive financial services, including auto loans, mortgages, high interest checking accounts and much more. Learn more at dortonline.org or by calling 800-521-3796.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Notice to providers and private individuals: Michigan Task Force 1 / MI-MABAS intends to solicit assistance from the Department of Defense’s Innovative Readiness Training program, through the MI Army National Guard. The assistance will support the development, training, and deployment of a rotary wing Search & Rescue team which operates in response to calls for assistance in both land/water rescue operations, deploying specially trained search & rescue technicians through hoist operations. The proposed assistance will take place at the Michigan Task Force 1 (MI-TF1) Mobilization Center in Holly, MI in fiscal year 2021 and 2022. Providers and private individuals who have questions or wish to voice opposition to military assistance for this project, may contact Dave McIntyre, Program Director, of MI-TF1 at dm-cintyre@michiganmabas.us, no later than 30 days after publication of this notice. Failure to file comments within the time frame noted, will be considered an effective waiver of objection to military assistance for this project.
...there seems to be a great sense of hope’

Local church leaders reflect on difficult year, look forward to Easter, sharing gospel

By Sharon Stone

Sunday, April 4 is Easter, the Christian holiday that celebrates the belief in the resurrection of Jesus Christ.

For more than a year, the world has been coping with the COVID-19 pandemic.

Last year in 2020, Fr. Robert Copeland of St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church in Fenton said he never thought he’d be spending Holy Week the way he did. Everything was shut down and Copeland and church staff were calling, texting, emailing, video conferencing and posting to social media to stay connected.

Fast forward one year. This week, Copeland said, “Compared to last year there seems to be a great sense of hope.”

“Last year, it felt like Lent didn’t end and the sadness of celebrating Easter without our parishioners was very difficult. This year we have had a steady return of people to Sunday Mass and with the vaccine becoming more available, there is a sense that the things might return to normal soon.”

Copeland said they have taken every reasonable precaution, with sanitation, social distancing, emailing, video conferencing and posting to social media to stay connected.

Big numbers of people are searching for something after a hard year and we believe that is Jesus Christ.”

distancing and face masks. Each Mass people are spread out over the campus with live streaming in the hall and the parking lot.

“Most of our parishioners have been supportive of the efforts of our staff and volunteers to make returning to Mass as comfortable as possible. Those who take the Eucharist to those who are attending Mass in the parking lot are so touched by the genuine gratitude they are shown to them.”

St. John Church will keep the COVID precautions in place for the foreseeable future. “And thanks to God and the willingness of our parishioners we have had no reported cases of COVID being spread at St. John. This is a testament to our parishioners’ love of neighbor being willing to be inconvenienced by the precautions,” he said.

This year, St. John saw the largest group of people joining the Catholic Church in this Diocese. Copeland said they have had a number of inquiries into what they are doing to make this happen.

“I believe it is the personal witness of our staff and parishioners, I say ‘why wouldn’t you want to join us’,” he said. We have many new faces each week at Mass and along with the many people joining the church this Easter, I can’t help but feel hope. People want Jesus, they know that they need Jesus and we pray that we are doing all we can to help them in this journey.”

Pastor Wes Morris of The Rock Church also reflected on the past year. “Like a lot of churches, we had big plans for Easter Sunday, and then the shut down happened,” he said. “We went digital and online all last year. While it has been a challenge to come into a new congregation under these circumstances, the people of TLC are warm and caring and I have come to love and respect them, even when I’ve only seen their faces either covered or on a screen. They are wise, faithful and flexible — a great combination for meeting the challenges of these times.

“On Easter, I’ll be talking about how the resurrection wasn’t a neat and tidy, well-orchestrated event. Rather, it was a messy process, marked by confusion and chaos, uncertainty and despair, yet nevertheless filled with hope and promise, vindication and grace. That is not unlike what this past year has been.

“And nothing in any of this can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord. Our call is to live into that story, claiming the hope and promise resurrection offers us in this life and in the life to come.”

POLICE & FIRE
REPORT

COMPILED BY SHARON STONE

SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY AT HOLLY TRAIN STATION
On Wednesday, March 24, a caller reported to the Holly Police Department around 12:40 p.m. that two people outside the historic train station, looking in the window and doors and who appeared to be taking measurements. Caller reports there has been an increase in malicious mischief at the building recently having watched people try to open doors and windows. This couple did not make an attempt to enter but wanted the police to inspect the building and be advised. No new damage was discovered.
STUDENT LOANS

Refinance the loans
Graduates may not be aware that they can refinance their student loans at a lower rate or choose new loan terms, including variable or fixed rates. Maturity dates can even be renegotiated in certain instances. It’s possible to save thousands of dollars in interest by refinancing, particularly if borrowers have a credit score of at least 650.

Make more than the minimum payment
Financial advisor Dave Ramsey says making the minimum payments on student loans will not get them paid off fast, and the interest could pile up as well. By paying more than the minimum payments, you can pay down the principal more quickly. Designate tax refunds and salary increases to pay down student loan debt.

Ask for help
Speak with your boss about whether he or she can help pay off student loans. Some employers offer conditional student loan repayment to employees. These are some of the ways that student loan debts can be repaid quickly, efficiently and creatively.

The letters of these crazy words are all mixed up. To play the game, put them back into the right order so that they all make real words you can find in the dictionary. Write the letters of each real word under each crazy word, but only one letter to a square.

Now you’re ready to solve today’s Jumble for Kids. Study the picture for a hint. Play around with the letters in the circles. You'll find you can put them in order so that they make your funny answer.

GIVE BACK STIMULUS checks? First of all, they are $1,400 because of Trump. He suggested $2,000 and Dems $600, they settled for $1,400. Secondly, it's our money. They use our money, it's not theirs. Ask smarter questions.

TO THE HOTLiner asking why background checks could not be passed. It's already a law. Plus more gun control laws will not stop evil people from doing evil things. Murder is against the law.

TO THE PERSON saying the Tri-County Times prints mostly Republican views, you have it completely backward, comrade. Fenton is a left wing city and has had a left wing bias for the 32 years I've been a Fenton resident. Background checks are a federal issue, you’re asking the paper?

FRUSTRATING HOW WE allow individuals with no formal educational training or experience to serve as school board trustees. The only thing worse would be union sell-outs (aka: actual trained educators) serving on school boards.
