Members of the Class of 2021 have endured the COVID-19 pandemic for their entire senior year and some of their junior year. This has been no small feat.

From schools suddenly being shut down in the spring of 2020 when the global pandemic struck the tri-county area to classes being held remotely as fear hovered of the deadly virus was all anyone could talk about, the students adapted.

With the help of local schools boards making tough decisions, school administrators battling ever-changing rules and mandates and teachers at the frontline of educating our youth, it's been quite a year.

Since vaccines are readily available, COVID infections and deaths are dropping, and restrictions are being lifted, there is a sense of normalcy upon us.

Undoubtedly, the Class of 2021 will have countless stories for years to come. They'll share sad stories of loved ones who succumbed to the virus. They'll also share stories of frustrating Zoom classrooms, internet issues, wearing masks, staying socially distant, not being able to hang out with friends, erratic sports schedules and more.

The Class of 2021 should look back and take pride in how strong they are. Many will begin their journeys at universities, community colleges, trade schools, military or jump right into working full-time jobs. There's a clean slate in front of them to write their next chapter.

The Times is celebrating this year's seniors at Fenton High School, Lake Fenton High School, Linden High School, Holly High School and the local students who attended Powers Catholic High School with this special Graduation section.

Congratulation to the Class of 2021.

Goethe, one of Germany's most famous writers and one of the world's greatest literary genius once said, "Whatever you can do or dream you can, begin it. Boldness has genius, power, and magic in it."

While 2020-21 may not have been the year that the Class of 2021 wished for, you can still dream and you can still achieve. Start small if you have too, keep making forward progress, keep pushing towards your goal. You have learned perseverance and resiliency this year while you survived and thrived during a global pandemic. You have come to be thankful for the small things like spending time with family, talking a walk outside (without a mask), and seeing someone smile. Know that your next phase of life will be one filled with self-discovery, independence, curiosity and joy. While you forge your new path, be reminded of those who helped get you there. Be mindful of their sacrifice on your behalf and their unconditional love in helping you get to this point in your lives. Don't forget to call or text them, remind them that you are thinking of them, and most important of all, share those new moments and experiences they may not be able to witness firsthand. Share the magic of your new knowledge, your new confidence, and be bold in chasing your future. Congratulations, Class of 2021.

Fenton High School grad receives bowling scholarship

■ To study at Davenport University cyber security program, join bowling team

By Hannah Ball

One Fenton High School graduate will continue his athletic career in college.

Tate Temrowski, 18, leaves at the end of this summer to study cyber security at Davenport University in Grand Rapids and bowl on the university's team on a bowling scholarship.

This summer, he'll bowl in tournaments in Detroit and Indianapolis, and he's been traveling to Grand Rapids every Wednesday to bowl with the team.

Fenton High School's graduation was in early June. Temrowski said graduating felt "really good."

"I think after this year of COVID stuff it definitely felt good to be done. I was ready," he said. "It was definitely interesting. We had a lot of people quarantined. Sections for class were out for a time. It was a little freaky but we all made it through."

He's been bowling for 10 years and was on the high school team all four years.

"I just enjoy it. I fell in love with it when I was young," he said, adding that he's made many of his really good friends doing the sport. "It's taking me places I never thought I could go."

This past year was more challenging with COVID protocols and limits on spectators, though Temrowski said they still had a "really good season."

"We had some really good talent this year," he said.

He almost bowled a perfect game. When playing against Kearsley, he bowled a 288. He had 10 strikes in a row and then knocked down eight pins. He made the spare.

"It was fun for sure," he said. In early June, he also received a $2,500 scholarship at the GISD Board Meeting from the IT Department.

"The past four years, I've spent a lot of time in the bowling alley," he said. Temrowski often stayed for hours after practice and sometimes went in on the weekends to bowl at Holly Lanes.

At one point, he did some calculations to find out how many hours he spent bowling. He arrived at 1,500 hours in those four years.

“Fenton teachers were really amazing, they were always really personable. You could talk to them about anything.”

A NOTE FROM HOLLY PRINCIPAL

Peter LoFiego

The Broncho Class of 2021 is truly remarkable

I know what you're thinking, "Oh, they say that about every graduating class."

Well, this year is different.

These seniors faced the greatest public health crisis in a century head-on with determination, cooperation and flexibility. They need to be recognized for it.

They were given a no-win situation and time and again found a way to come out on top. This required finding creative, safe and truly brilliant ways to hold as many events as possible. The spring production of "Clue" immediately comes to mind.

The Class of 2021 sacrificed many of the senior rites of passage, such as Homecoming in the fall, Snowcoming in the winter, school spirit assemblies and clubs. Our seniors also fully cooperated with safety restrictions to participate in sports during their last year of high school.

The events of the past year have created a resolve in these students that will serve them well into the next phases of their lives. I have no doubt each member of the Class of 2021 is bound for success, regardless of what comes next.

It's easy to forget the past school year was preceded by the complete closure of school buildings across Michigan last spring. Those uncertain months marked the start of a very challenging time to educate our students that continued throughout the past year.

Despite those challenges, the Class of 2021 actually made up for lost ground heading into the past school year, which set them on solid footing to succeed.

It wasn't easy.

We started the 2020-2021 school year with a larger than normal group of seniors who were off track to graduate. Through hard work and using digital and other tools at their disposal, nearly all seniors who were behind got back on track to graduate on time.

To the class of 2021: The trials and tribulations you faced and overcame over the past year will serve you well into the future. You faced great adversity and I have no doubt you came out stronger individuals because of it.

I'd also like to recognize our committed parents, who worked with us to make this success possible.

Working together, #BronchosUnited, the Class of 2021 showed the world the true meaning of Broncho Pride.

*Sincerely,
Peter LoFiego

'Join Leadership, it's the best'

■ Holly graduate wastes no time to meet and make new friends at Holly High School

By Sharon Stone

Ethan Palm is wrapping up some fun in the sun while vacationing in Florida following graduation from Holly High School.

His family moved to the Holly school district just after he finished middle school. To get to know more of his new classmates, he became heavily involved in marching band and the band programs where he marched for four years. He eventually became a Quartermaster in his junior year and Section Leader in his senior year.

"I did not know a single person my first day, but was welcomed with open arms into the school and community, where I have met some of the most important people in my life," he said.

"Over my four years, besides my fellow classmates, I have met many amazing teachers, counselors, secretaries and support staff that I hope to keep in touch with in my future."

Palm joined the HHS Leadership Class (Student Council), as a general member, before eventually serving as secretary/historian in his junior year, and president in his senior year.

"To incoming and current students, join Leadership, it's the best," he said.

Palm also was involved in the HHS Theatre Department, playing Conrad Birdie in "Bye Bye Birdie," Sam Carmichael in "Mamma Mia!" and Mr. Green/Special Agent Larry Goodman in "Clue"

In his senior year, he also was involved with the Graduation Committee, and sang the Star Spangled Banner with the HHS Show Choir at the school's Commencement Ceremony, while also serving as Master of Ceremonies, speaking at the beginning of their Graduation.

When asked about finishing his high school days during a pandemic, Palm said, "For me, the hardest part of a COVID school year was not being able to see my friends in person for most of the year, especially since I am a people person. I was able to adapt to the online learning, so I was a lucky one."

"I am going to be attending the University of Michigan-Flint in the fall, majoring in political science with a minor in economics. I want to one day serve in public office."

#BRONCHOPRIDE

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE BRONCHO CLASS OF 2021!

LAKE FENTON HIGH SCHOOL

A NOTE FROM LFHS PRINCIPAL

Kate VanHouten

Class of 2021,

You are about to embark upon the next chapter of your life and I would like to take a moment to congratulate you all for your resilience, determination, and Blue Devil excellence. Each of you have left your mark on this school and community. Each of you had to face your own challenges to get where you are today. I am so proud of you!

Now you will each go forth to make your mark upon this world. Some of you will head to colleges and universities to seek further education in your selected field of study. Some of you will go off to trade schools and apprenticeships to learn valuable skills and improve our skilled workforce and service industries. Some of you will go off to explore with an entrepreneurial spirit and leave your mark in creative ways. Some of you will go off to military and national services to serve and protect us all. Thank you. We all look forward to the impact you will make and the adventures you will have. You are members of our Blue Devil family now and always.

I would like to close with a selection from President Theodore Roosevelt's Citizenship in a Republic speech: "It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out how the strong man stumbles, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena, whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiantly; who errs, who comes short again and again, because there is no effort without error and shortcoming; but who does actually strive to do the deeds; who knows great enthusiasms, the great devotions; who spends himself in a worthy cause; who at the best knows in the end the triumph of high achievement, and who at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly."

Go out and live in the arena, Blue Devils. You are ready. #LFLeads

Two Lake Fenton grads are valedictorians, swimmers, best friends

■ 'Lake Fenton has always been a very small and inclusive community'

By Hannah Ball

After years of friendship, swimming and both being valedictorians, these two Lake Fenton High School graduates, who also are best friends, are celebrating their accomplishments before they attend different schools this fall.

Emily Gilbert and Kayley Gallagher both earned 4.0 GPAs. This summer, they're working together as lifeguards at the Silver Lake Park beach.

Gilbert said, "Being able to represent my family and my peers as one of the valedictorians was a great accomplishment for me. I worked extremely hard over the past four years and it felt as though that work had paid off."

Gallagher said being valedictorian has been a goal since freshman year, and she's "extremely humbled and gracious."

"I am blessed with supportive parents, friends, teammates, and coaches who have all helped me achieve academic success. They have helped me through long nights studying, and stress before exams. I absolutely love learning, and enjoy

Gallagher said she and Gilbert were able to help each other study, peer edit papers and complete projects, and it's a memory they'll cherish for a long time. Gilbert said she's "very proud" of Kayley and that she knows she'll do "amazing"

Linden High School Senior Spotlight

Linden graduate earns pilot license

■ 'He has always been able to focus on whatever he set his mind to...'

By Hannah Ball

One Linden High School graduate managed to attend school during a pandemic, play multiple sports and receive his private pilot license while his family experienced a medical emergency.

Carson Kelley, Linden graduate, started taking pilot lessons in June 2020 at Crosswinds Aviation at Bishop Airport.

"I always liked driving things and flying seemed like a fun career to have," he said. "Flying gives you the sense of a different freedom, kind of like you're on top of the world."

Carson said "Top Gun" is his favorite movie, and that it sparked his interest in flying.

Lessons were two hours long. He was preparing to take his final test, which is four hours long, in January, but the date kept changing due to weather.

In this time, his father went into complete heart failure and received a heart transplant. Carson said his father is doing "a lot better" and he's back at home and up walking now.

"I had a lot of support from family and friends when he was in the hospital and am very grateful for all the help from everyone during that hard time," he said.

He's worked at Alpine Marketplace since he was 15 while going to school, playing baseball, football and working toward his pilot license. Carson was an All State kicker for football.

He received his private pilot license Tuesday, April 27, and he's able to fly single piston engine planes. Carson plans to go through Crosswinds Aviation to continue flight training.

Going to school during the pandemic was "very different" than normal. Carson did hybrid learning, a mix of face-to-face and online schooling.

"I didn't see as many people at school because they had half of the grades go two days a week and the other half of the grades go the other two days. It didn't seem normal at all," he said. "I have enjoyed going to Linden schools growing up. Some of my favorite classes I took at Linden are English and History," he said.

Kelley's mother, Randie Kelley, said she's so proud of her son.

"He put in a lot of effort to get his private pilot license. He went to school and worked, played football and went to flight training all during a pandemic. Then had to prepare for the checkride, which is a four-hour test. He had to do that while his dad was in heart failure and had to have a heart transplant," she said.

Carson wasn't able to see his dad in the hospital.

"He has always been able to focus on whatever he set his mind to and didn't stop until he had accomplished it or was the best he could be at it. One of the most impressive things to me was how he took care of everything at home while I was in the hospital. I am truly proud of him and the man he has become," said his father Brian Kelley.

"Flying gives you the sense of a different freedom, kind of like you're on top of the world."

Tate Temrowski, Fenton High School graduate, will attend Davenport University in the fall on a bowling scholarship. Submitted photo

TATE TEMROWSKI

He chose Davenport University for the cyber security program and for bowling. He was recruited to their bowling program.

"Davenport has a really good cyber security and a really good bowling program so it was a perfect fit," he said.

He chose cyber security because he's always liked computers, and taking a class at Genesee Career Institute helped solidify that interest.

"It opened me up to different realms of computers. I chose computer security because I thought it was really cool and I just ran with it," he said.

Temrowski likes the Grand Rapids area and is excited to spend more time there. He's welcoming the change of no longer living in a small town like Fenton.

One of his favorite things about Fenton Area Public Schools is the teachers.

"Fenton teachers were really amazing, they were always really personable. You could talk to them about anything," he said, specifically naming Brian Murphy. "He was so relaxed and he just understood so much about life and the challenges that we as high schoolers face. To be able to talk to your teachers about what you're going through is a big thing."

Kelsi Dahlia, and Blake Pieroni swim while I was at finals. It was extremely fun for me to be able to watch world class athletes at a meet that I was at," she said. "My team is like a second family, and my coaches Adam Cooper and Stephanie Olsen have been two major influences and mentors in my life."

She plans to attend Grand Valley State University to study biomedical engineering, with the future goal of designing prosthetics, and she'll also compete for the swim and dive team.

Gilbert has been swimming since she was 10. She joined the Lake Fenton/Kearsley team her junior year, and her favorite stroke is the butterfly.

She broke the school record for the 100 backstroke with a 1:04 and the 100 butterfly with a 1:02.

"Breaking those records was an incredible accomplishment for me, especially because I had only been back to swimming for a year, and I was extremely proud of myself for giving the sport another chance," Gilbert said.

This summer at Silver Lake Beach,

Gilbert said they're able to have a lot of fun on the job, but they still take it seriously. It's the last summer before they attend college. Gilbert will attend Ferris State University in the fall to pursue a career in optometry. After completing the seven-year program and receiving her doctorate, she plans to open her own optometry clinic. She also plans to work with a program called VOSH in which optometrists travel to lesser developed countries to provide eye care.

"Lake Fenton has always been a very small and inclusive community—I've gone to school with most of the kids in my grade since kindergarten, so I enjoyed the community aspect of the school. Everyone was willing to help when it was needed and I've always felt very secure and loved by those around me," Gilbert said.

Gallagher said, "Graduation has been a rewarding feeling for all of the effort that was put into school work for the last four years. Celebrating with my classmates has been fun, and a great way to end high school. I will truly miss my friends, clubs, and my team, but I am excited about my future."
