The Linden Robotics teams are accepting donations to place wreaths at Great Lakes National Cemetery on Dec. 18. If you'd like to request a wreath at a specific veteran's grave do so today.

The Linden Robotics teams will be placing wreaths at Great Lakes National Cemetery. There are more than 33,000 veterans buried there.

■ Linden Robotics teams assist with Wreaths Across America — request wreath for specific veteran today

By Sharon Stone

The Linden Robotics teams have partnered with WreathsAcrossAmerica for the fifth year to "Remember, Honor & Teach" by raising funds to purchase wreaths to be laid at Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly Township.

Each year Wreaths Across America raises funds to purchase wreaths that are delivered to national cemeteries all over the country. There are never enough wreaths for every veteran. Currently the Great Lakes National Cemetery has more than 33,000 veterans buried there. As of this week, there are only 6,841 wreaths dedicated to this cemetery.

Tabitha Bucknam, RoboEagles coach, said, "That's a huge shortage this year."

Bucknam said the Linden Robotics group will take grave specific requests and their teams will make sure that they have a wreath this holiday season. To do so, email LindenRobotics@gmail.com with the name of the veteran buried at GLNC. The deadline is Nov. 28.

Donations are not required to have your loved one placed on their list. If you have the means and would like to donate toward the purchase of the wreaths, there are four ways to donate:

- Go to their Facebook page by searching "Linden Robotics - Help sponsor a wreath for Great Lakes National Cemetery."

- Make a monetary donation via PayPal at LindenRobotics@gmail.com. See ROBOTICS on 10

David's dabbings

Driving to work Wednesday, I noticed something while passing an area elementary school.

There wasn't a single car in the parking lot. Of course, that means school was out due to Thursday being Thanksgiving.

It made my blood boil though. This is just one of the days during a school year when I realize while some of us Generation X kids had to deal with pretty much raising ourselves while our parents divorced and partied as though they were teenagers, we were robbed of something more important that future generations enjoyed – additional time off from school.

Gosh, when we grew up, we didn't even get a half-day off for the Wednesday before Thanksgiving. Of course, the second half of the day was some sort of Thanksgiving celebration. While that was cool, any of us would've rather slept in until 10, found our friends around 11 and then played a neighborhood football game pretending our game was the annual Detroit Lions Thanksgiving Day contest (this would be our preteens). We would've rather spent the day in the woods near our home, spying on the teenagers' fort, throwing dirt bombs at it and yelling insulting terms their way, until they ran out and chased us with no success. We missed out on another day of that type of fun.

Christmas time is another period us Gen Xers were robbed. The only time we got off for the holiday season was the week in between Christmas and New Years Day. We got NINE DAYS, including the four weekend days. I think one year Christmas was on a Saturday, so we had an additional day off on Friday for Christmas Eve, but that was it. Today's kids – gosh, it's like being a college student. They are getting two full weeks off.

And these two examples don't even include the number of snow days kids get today, sometimes when there is no snow to be seen on the roads. In elementary school, we literally walked through a woods to get to school with no parental supervision. We certainly lost out in that exchange as well.

So you figure these additional days off have to be accounted for somewhere on the schedule, right? Where? We typically got out the second week in June, usually a date somewhere between the ninth and 14th. This school year ends June 2.

Why didn't we get all these extra school days off when we were kids?

So when I hear millennials gripe about crazy high tuition rates, low salaries and not being able to afford to move out of their parent's place until at least the age of 30, I don't want to hear about those petty issues. At least millennials (and Gen Zers) had 10 to 15 days off more during the school year than we ever had. That's a lot of additional days we'll never get back.

FENTON'S GREATEST ATHLETE OF ALL TIME

For those that missed it, Fenton's Gracie Olsen finished her prep swimming career by winning her fifth and sixth individual event state championships of her career last weekend at the D2 state swim meet.

People love to talk about who is the best athlete at a school. Olsen needs to be the first name mentioned in those conversations. Certainly, from a single-sport perspective she's the greatest athlete the Tigers have ever seen in any Fenton High School building. Others who played multiple sports may have great argument from that perspective. I'll agree with that. But for those who never saw Olsen at a state meet missed out. Witnessing her win, with grace, six titles in four years was pretty awesome.

Packages with medical supplies misdelivered

■Linden councilor details issues with packages being delivered to wrong house

By Hannah Ball

The misdeliveries were an annoyance when they first began.

Linden City Councilor Pamela Howd first noticed that FedEx and UPS were delivering her packages to the wrong house in Linden, one with a similar address, at the beginning of the pandemic.

From April through fall of 2020, they had 10 misdeliveries which were supposed to make it to Howd's residence of 401 Silver Lake Road. They recovered most packages, but they never found two of them. Some were sent to 401 Silver Lake Road in Fenton, and some were even delivered to Argentine Township. But most were delivered to 401 Broad Street in Linden.

The U.S. Postal Service has not made any misdeliveries for any of Howd's packages.

"Our name and address was always correct on the boxes when we did get the packages. So, the delivery companies had the correct name and address to deliver to," Howd said.

The owner of the other Linden house, Keeley Stiff-Powell, messages her when the mistake happens. Stiff-Powell also has experienced misdeliveries.

"Part of the problem is that Apple and Google maps were wrong. Both maps did not show my address of 401 Silver Lake Road at my house. Instead, they listed 401 Broad Street as 401 Silver Lake Road," Howd said.

She asked Apple to correct her address and the address of Broad Street, which runs north of Hickory Street, across from the cemetery, and west to Chestnut Way, almost to Genesys Integrated Group Practice, which is just west of Restwood Drive.

"Google corrected my address, but has not fixed Broad Street, which they show runs to the Price Airport entrance," she said.

"I send several emails a week and let them know that caused a misdelivery of medical supplies, but they will not fix it. I am going to send a letter to the Attorney General Consumer Protection division," she said.

The issue became more worrisome when Howd's husband was diagnosed with cancer and they relied on deliveries for needed medical supplies.

Her husband, Rick, 63, was diagnosed with Malignant Pleural Mesothelioma approximately two months ago. According to cancer.gov, it's a cancer of the thin tissue mesothelium that lines the lung, chest wall and abdomen. Symptoms include a cough, chest pain and shortness of breath. He is a former cancer survivor. Howd said he dealt with Hodgkin's Lymphoma 47 years ago.

"Thankfully, only one package of Pleurex containers was incorrectly delivered. He does not need to use them anymore and I can pick up all the medicines at the pharmacy," she said.

To fix this problem, she files a complaint with FedEx every time it happens. So far, that number is 12. After she complained, Howd said a "kindly" operator sent it to the FedEx main office.

She's spoken with several customer service representatives at UPS and FedEx. She hasn't had any problems with UPS for approximately eight months.

She also wrote to Sen. Ken Horn out of desperation. Horn contacted FedEx corporate office, which is when Rob Yeager, at the FedEx Government office in Memphis, Tennessee, reached out to Howd.

"He was very nice and said he would work to get the problem solved," she said. "Since I spoke with Rob, we have not had any misdeliveries. Rob Yeager had no explanation for the mistaken deliveries, but said that they have a lot of new drivers. I suggested better training for the drivers, especially for roadways that run through several communities such as Silver Lake Road."

“Part of the problem is that Apple and Google maps were wrong.”

‘Shop With a Cop’ accepting donations

■Fenton Police Department partners with Fenton Area Public Schools to provide Christmas gifts for students and their families

By Sharon Stone

The Fenton Police Department is getting the word out about their annual Shop With a Cop which will be held in mid-December at a local store.

Officer Adam Lape said police are accepting donations, either cash or by check, which will allow children in Fenton schools to purchase Christmas gifts. Police officers will accompany the kids as they shop.

Lape said between the police department's school resource officer Tom Cole and their contacts within the school district, they'll compile a list of kids who could use a bit of help this year.

"Some kids don't get anything for Christmas," Lape said. "It's sad."

The project did pretty well last year and Lape is hopeful that this year's Shop With a Cop is a success too.

Following the shopping experience, the officers and kids will go to AGS Middle School for a pizza party and to wrap all of the gifts. Lape said the officers' families are there to help and he said it's a great experience to get all of the kids together.

To make a charitable donation, make checks payable to Fenton City Police Department and write Shop With a Cop in the memo line. The police department will also accept cash. The police department is at 311 S. LeRoy St., Fenton. It is open 24/7.

Donations can be accepted through Dec. 12. The amount each child is given to shop with is dependent on the amount of donations collected and the number of children taking part in this year's Shop With a Cop.

LOOKING BACK at this week in HISTORY

COMPILED BY SHARON STONE

NOV. 28

1979: A New Zealander sightseeing plane traveling over Antarctica crashes, killing all 257 people on board. It was the worst airplane accident in New Zealand's history. During the 1970s, air travel to Antarctica became more popular, as tourists sought to view the isolated and mysterious continent at the bottom of the world firsthand. Day-long excursions from New Zealand gave people tremendous views of the Ross Ice Shelf. However, the trips did pose a danger, as flights to Antarctica can be problematic.

NOV. 29

1981: Actress Natalie Wood, who starred in such movies as Rebel Without a Cause and West Side Story, drowns in a boating accident near California's Catalina Island. She was 43 years old. Wood began her acting career as a child. She gained acclaim for her role as Susan Walker, the little girl who doubts the existence of Santa Claus in Miracle on 34th Street (1947). It was believed she somehow slipped overboard while untying a dinghy attached to the boat. Her body was found in the early hours of the following morning. Brainstorm, Wood's final film, was released in theaters in 1983.

NOV. 30

1876: Yale defeats Princeton, 2-0, in Hoboken, New Jersey in the first collegiate football game played on Thanksgiving. Nearly 1,000 fans attend the game, played in cold, rainy weather. "The friends of both colleges mustered in good force," the New York Times reports. "Several carriages containing ladies were on the ground, and a goodly number of Alumni were there to cheer the contestants." The football was oval and made of leather, the Times noted, "similar to those used in Rugby Union rules." The game resembled rugby more than a present-day football game.

1955: In Montgomery, Alabama, Rosa Parks is jailed for refusing to give up her seat on a public bus to a white man, a violation of the city's racial segregation laws. The successful Montgomery Bus Boycott, organized by a young Baptist minister named Martin Luther King, Jr., followed Park's historic act of civil disobedience. "The mother of the civil rights movement," as Rosa Parks is known, was born in Tuskegee, Alabama, in 1913. She worked as a seamstress and in 1943 joined the Montgomery chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). She died Oct. 24, 2005. Three days later the U.S. Senate passed a resolution to honor Parks by allowing her body to lie in honor in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda.

DEC. 2

2001: The Enron Corporation files for Chapter 11 bankruptcy protection in a New York court, sparking one of the largest corporate scandals in U.S. history. An energy-trading company based in Houston, Texas, Enron was formed in 1985 as the merger of two gas companies, Houston Natural Gas and Internorth. Under chairman and CEO Kenneth Lay, Enron rose as high as number seven on Fortune magazine's list of the top 500 U.S. companies. In 2000, the company employed 21,000 people and posted revenue of $111 billion. Over the next year, however, Enron's stock price began a dramatic slide, dropping from $90.75 in August 2000 to $0.26 by closing on Nov. 30, 2001.

DEC. 3

1979: The general-admission ticketing policy for rock concerts at Cincinnati's Riverfront Coliseum in the 1970s was known as "festival seating." That term and that ticketing policy would become infamous in the wake of one of the deadliest rock-concert incidents in history. Eleven people, including three high-school students, were killed when a crowd of general-admission ticket-holders to a Cincinnati Who concert surged forward in an attempt to enter Riverfront Coliseum and secure prime unreserved seats inside. In the aftermath of the tragedy, the City of Cincinnati banned festival seating at its concert venues. That ban was overturned, however, 24 years later, and improved crowd-control procedures have thus far prevented a reoccurrence of any such incident.

DEC. 4

1991: Islamic militants in Lebanon release kidnapped American journalist Terry Anderson after 2,454 days in captivity. As chief Middle East correspondent for the Associated Press, Anderson covered the long-running civil war in Lebanon (1975-1990). On March 16, 1985, he was kidnapped on a west Beirut street while leaving a tennis court. His captors took him to the southern suburbs of the city, where he was held prisoner in an underground dungeon for the next six-and-a-half years.

EPA Begins Review of Rose Township Dump Superfund Site Rose Township, Michigan

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is conducting a five-year review of the Rose Township Dump Superfund site at 1065 Demode Rd., Rose Township, Michigan. The Superfund law requires regular checkups of sites that have been cleaned up with waste managed on-site to make sure the cleanup continues to protect people and the environment. This is the sixth five-year review for the site.

The remedy for the site included four major components: 1) excavation and incineration of polychlorinated biphenyls, or PCB, contaminated soils. (PCBs are a group of man-made organic chemicals that do not break down easily and can bioaccumulate); 2) excavation, treatment, on-site consolidation, and capping of lead-and arsenic impacted soils; 3) soil vapor extraction, or SVE for soils contaminated with volatile organic compounds, or VOCs; and 4) groundwater extraction and treatment for VOCs.

More information is available at the Holly Township Library, 1116 N Saginaw St, Holly, Michigan. Additional Rose Township Dump Superfund site information repository can be at <http://www.epa.gov/superfund/rosetownship>.

The five-year review is an opportunity for you to tell EPA about site conditions and any concerns you have. Contact:

QUICK CORRECTION

I had an email from a past generation Fenton swimmer about a week ago noting a correction. In my pre-view story for the girls state swim meet, I said that Fenton's girls swim team has never won a state championship in a relay event. During one of the Tigers' other great runs in girls school history, Teena Spees, Melanie Nelsen, Diedra Schepler and Brigitte Hanson won the 1987 200 medley relay Class B/C/D state title with a time of 1:52.95. Nelsen went on to win three individual event titles during her prep career at Fenton as well. The Tigers were pretty special back then as well, earning fifth-place team finishes at the 1986 and 1987 state meets.

The lasting memories and memorials

■ This is part three in a series on Dan and Arlene O'Rourke, the parents of Sgt. Patrick O'Rourke, who was killed in the line of duty
By Hannah Ball

Patrick O'Rourke's name and story were heard across America, and his family and multiple organizations have worked to make sure his name will never be forgotten.

O'Rourke, 39, who worked for the West Bloomfield Police Department, was killed more than nine years ago on Sept. 9, 2021, by a lone gunman who had barricaded himself inside his West Bloomfield home. He left behind a wife, Amy, four children, his parents, Dan and Arlene O'Rourke, and three brothers. He was a 12-year veteran and was posthumously promoted to sergeant. The police department set up a trust fund in his name.

Along with golfing fundraisers and the endowment with the West Bloomfield Township Police Department, there are more organizations and memorials set up in his name.

"It's really humbling because there's just been so many things that have been done for our family that you just don't even feel worthy," said his mother, Arlene. "People are just so loving and so kind and generous. They're blessings for sure and it kind of takes the sting away."

Hartland High School held the annual Sgt. Patrick O'Rourke 5.5K Run/Walk in the summer. The 5.5K distance and 8:55 a.m. starting time are in remembrance of O'Rourke's badge number 55, which also means "I'm OK!" in police 10-code. Proceeds went to Michigan Concerns of Police Survivors (MICOPS.) The Hurley Foundation Neonatal Intensive Care Unit and the IT Department, St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church Fenton Outreach Program and Fenton Area Public Schools Athletic Department.

Along with O'Rourke's name on his black granite gravestone, which has Amy's favorite scripture verse of Isaiah 55:8 and four shamrocks representing each of the children, his name also can be found in multiple states and memorials.

O'Rourke's name is memorialized in multiple statues and memorials across the state. The West Bloomfield Township Police Department has a memorial for him. They'll have an event in May during police week.

O'Rourke's name also is on a memorial wall in Washington, D.C. The American Police Hall of Fame and Museum in Titusville, Florida sent the couple medals and certificates when O'Rourke was killed, and his name is on a memorial wall there as well.

Famous Michigan sports teams also took note. The Detroit Red Wings Alumni held a game to raise funds for the O'Rourke family in 2012. Also that year, the Wixom Marathon also raised funds for the family.

Drivers see his name on U.S. 23. In 2013, a portion of the highway in Tyrone Township was dedicated after O'Rourke. The signs, privately funded and approved for the county by the Livingston County Road Commission Board, can be seen on Old U.S. 23, just south of Center Road and on Old U.S. 23 north of M-59.

In 2013, Saginaw County Sheriff Bill Federspiel wrote a song called "I am the Werewolf," which was inspired by meeting Amy after the death of her husband. O'Rourke's name is on a memorial for police officers and firefighters on Dixie Highway and Telegraph.

In 2014, three West Bloomfield police officers escorted O'Rourke's three daughters to the Daddy-Daughter Dance at AGS Middle School. These officers were on scene of the Sept. 9 incident.

In 2018, Mary O'Rourke, who was 14 at the time, sang at the Michigan Concerns of Police Survivors (COPS) 25th annual Law Enforcement Candlelight Memorial Service at the State Capitol in Lansing.

Dan said you think you know your kids, but he's been surprised by the number of nice stories he's heard about his son after his death.

“You’re so proud, you’re busting at the seams, and yet
it makes you sadder
at the same time.”

Dan O'Rourke
Patrick O'Rourke's father

"Pat was a kid every man would dream of having as a son. All the boys are great," he said. "He had that personality that just drew people to him."

Arlene said they heard many wonderful stories about him in the weeks after he was killed, and they still hear stories from people they've never met to this day about how their son affected their lives.

A woman told Arlene how O'Rourke once spoke with a young kid who was at the hospital after trying to commit suicide. He stayed and talked with him for hours.

"This woman told her (Arlene) that this man basically saved my son's life," Dan said. "That's just one example." O'Rourke often stopped by one house to visit with an older man who was lonely.

After hearing these stories, Dan said, "You miss him more. You didn't know what you had was even more valuable than you thought. You're so proud, you're busting at the seams, and yet it makes you sadder at the same time."

House Bill 4712: Retroactively increase state subsidies for a particular developer

To retroactively make a particular developer's project eligible for increased "refundable" state business tax credits under a suspended program that authorized actual cash payments from the state treasury to a relative handful of companies and developers approved by state officials. The bill would allow the particular developer to "shuffle" the credits/subsidies he was granted between two separate projects in a way that maximizes how much is collected.

development decisions. The plan has a long-range focus, exploring needs and goals over the next five to 20 years.

As part of the planning process, the city is seeking input from citizens and stakeholders through an opinion survey. Varied questions seek input on topics such as Linden's strengths and weaknesses, modes of travel, shopping preferences, future land use and development strategies, targeted redevelopment sites, and economic development priorities. Feedback obtained through this survey will directly influence future planning recommendations for the city.

The survey will be made available starting Nov. 28, and will close on Jan. 14, 2022. The survey is available online and can be accessed through the following web link: www.surveymonkey.com/r/LindenMasterPlan

Food drive exceeds Scouts' goal

■Thousands of Scouts collect 12,000 pounds of food items in southeastern Michigan

By Sharon Stone

Local scouts in the Holly area and Genesee County worked on collecting food for their largest food drive of the year. They had set a goal to collect 100,000 pounds of food items in southeastern Michigan.

Brandon Kathman, district executive with the Scouts, said, “Our food drive knocked it out of the park, and we exceeded our goal. My current reports show that over 112,000 pounds of food was collected in the council-wide drive.”

Kathman said 152 units participated with approximately 2,714 scouts. More than 1,900 adults participated.

He anticipates that these numbers will only rise as stragglers report in their numbers.

Women and Social Security

■You may be eligible for your own benefits

Submitted by Vonda Van Til

More women work, pay Social Security taxes, and earn credit toward monthly retirement income in the 21st century than at any other time in our nation’s history. Women, on average, also face greater economic challenges in retirement than men.

Women generally live longer than men while often having lower lifetime earnings. Women may also reach retirement with smaller pensions and other assets compared to men. These are two key reasons why Social Security is vitally important to women.

Women and men may receive benefits based on their own work record or their spouse’s. If you are a woman and you’ve worked and paid taxes into the Social Security system for at least 10 years, and have earned a minimum of 40 work credits, you may be eligible for your own benefits. Once you reach age 62, you may be eligible for your own Social Security benefit whether you’re married or not and whether your spouse collects Social Security or not. If you’re eligible and apply for benefits on more than one work record, you generally receive the higher benefit amount.

It’s never too early or too late to start saving and planning for retirement. We have specific information for women at www.ssa.gov/people/women. Chloe Idoni is playing well with Ferris State University's women's basketball team.

Idoni, Fugate off to hot starts with college teams

By David Troppens

Two outstanding prep girls basketball players from the tri-county area are making their impact at the NCAA Division 2 level.

Holly graduate Becca Fugate and Fenton graduate Chloe Idoni continue to make waves on their Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference squads during the early portion of the 2021-22 women's basketball season.

Fugate is starting her third season with the Wayne State Warriors while Idoni is a starter with the Ferris State Bulldogs.

Idoni is off to a blistering start to the 2021-22 season. Idoni has started all six games, and the team is off to a 5-1 start, winning its last five. She has played 124 minutes and is averaging 16.5 points a game, netting a proficient 26-of-47 shots from the floor. The center has gotten to the free-throw line frequently, netting 37-of-44 (84.1 percent).

She is second on the team with 34 rebounds and first with 18 offensive swipes. She's also earned six steals

Cross country teams headline bottom half of Fall Elite Eight poll

By David Troppens

Traditionally, the fall is our strongest prep sports season within the tri-county area.

There are reasons for this. There are plenty of sporting activities going on in the fall, giving more teams a chance of being strong. Equally, the area's best sport of the last almost two decades — cross country — also competes during the fall.

But this season, the fall season was pretty so-so. We definitely had strong squads, and our top teams are as good as any during most fall seasons. However, our bottom half doesn't have the depth of most seasons. That said, we'll go pretty deep on our final fall list of 2021. Here's our 2021 Elite Eight Teams of Fall. We'll start with a few honorable mention squads.

Honorable mention: The Fenton varsity girls golf team has been one of our strongest teams in recent seasons, actually finishing No. 2, No. 1 and No. 2 in our final year-end polls during recent school years, but this season fell to third place in a highly competitive Flint Metro League race against Goodrich and eventual champions Linden. Fenton could've dealt with that third-place finish with a strong postseason run, but finished eighth at the regional meet, keeping them in the honorable mention status level. The Lake Fenton volleyball team had a strong season, finishing second in the Flint Metro League Stars Division with a 7-3 mark. The Blue Devils also advanced to the district title match after 3-0 wins against Durand and Fowlerville, but lost to Williamston in four games in the title match. They ended the season with an 18-12-1 overall record.

No. 8 - Fenton boys cross country: The Tigers have been one of the area's top teams in recent seasons finishing fourth in our 2019 and 2020 year end top 16 polls. The Tigers were a step down

Griffins open season with strong 3-0 victory vs. Davison

By David Troppens

The Fenton/Linden co-op varsity hockey team traditionally plays an early season contest against Davison, and it usually serves as a nice litmus test to tell fans about the squad's prospects.

If this season's season-opening contest was a litmus test, the Griffins should get poised for a fun season.

The Griffins shut out the Davison Cardinals in their season-opening 3-0 victory at the Dort Financial Center Tuesday night.

Playing in net, it's obvious Nick Wilson played a strong contest in posting the shutout, but apparently the entire squad played strong defense as Wilson faced just 11 shots during the 51-minute contest.

And while the Cardinals were unable to score, the Griffins (1-0) scored a goal this season, but were still a very strong team. The Tigers finished second to the Linden Eagles in the Metro League Stars Division race. They won the first jamboree but then finished second in the next two, pushing the Tigers to second overall in the final standings.

That was a solid showing in what is usually the tri-county area's best sport, but Fenton was unable to advance to the Division 1 state meet by taking fifth at regionals, missing a state spot by 32 points. It was a distance too far removed from a state position to place the Tigers any higher than eighth this fall.

No. 7 - Linden volleyball: The Eagles weren't really expected to contend for the Flint Metro League Stripes Division title this fall by most people, but that's what the Eagles did.

So where did they finish? Officially, they finished second to Flushing with an 8-2 mark. However, as most probably remember, the team's final league match with Fenton ended in controversy by ending when it shouldn't have. In a tight fifth set, the Fenton Tigers edged out to a one-point lead, earning match point at 16-15. However, a scoring error (probably administered during the previous point based on video observation) made what was supposed to be a one-point Fenton lead into a Fenton victory, keeping the Eagles from having a chance to stave off that final point and possibly winning the match for at the team's first-ever championship in the Metro League ever.

The Eagles didn't rank any higher than seven for one other reason. While they were playing a challenging Davison squad, Linden was unable to win a district match against the Cardinals. Still, Linden ended the season with a strong 22-12-3 overall record.

No. 6 - Fenton girls cross country: The Tigers continued their tremendous run of Metro titles by earning their sixth this fall. The Tigers did so by dominating league teams with first-place finishes in each of the three jamborees. They won each relatively easily, with each win coming by double-digits. The closest margin was 10 points in the final Metro meet of the season.

That's a great start to earning a strong showing in our fall poll, but, unfortunately, that's where their credentials ended. Fenton finished just fifth in regional activity. However, they were just 13 points away from qualifying for the state meet, so that's why the sports staff has bumped them ahead of the previous two squads.

No. 5 - Lake Fenton football: Football is easily the area's most popular sport, but for those who have followed our polls in past seasons, that doesn't mean we have a lot of teams from the gridiron place high in our fall polls or our final top 16 season-ending lists.

The Blue Devils had a strong season, that maybe wasn't expected out of most people beyond their own squad. Lake Fenton posted many firsts, winning its first-ever Flint Metro League Stars Division title and following that up with its first-ever Flint Metro League championship overall with a dominating victory against neighbor rivals Fenton.

The playoffs had the Blue Devils ranked the top team in their region, and the tourney started out well with Lake Fenton defeating Ortonville-Brandon 41-0. However, they lost in the district title match to Freeland 37-6, keeping the Blue Devils (9-2 overall) from finishing higher than fifth in our fall poll.

STARTS

Her biggest game so far was the team's most current contest, an 88-77 road victory against Lewis (IL) University. In that contest, Idoni scored a game-high 24 points on 5-of-10 field goal shooting and perfect 14-for-14 shooting at the free-throw line. She also grabbed a game-best 13 rebounds with five of those being on the offensive end. She also had two steals and played 34 of the 40 minutes.

She also had a big game in an 80-64 loss to Walsh. Idoni only played 20 minutes but netted a team-high 20 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field and 8-of-9 marksmanship from the free-throw line. She also had a team-high eight rebounds.

Finally, she also scored 20 points in the team's most recent victory, an 83-52 verdict against Ursuline. She netted 6-of-11 shots from the field and hit 8-of-10 from the free-throw line. She also grabbed seven rebounds and blocked three shots.

Ferris State is off to a 2-1 start and a had game scheduled against Quincy on Friday and against McKendree on Saturday as part of the Quincy Classic.

Wayne State is off to a hot 4-0 start and Fugate is playing a role in that start, starting all four games and scoring in double-digits in two of those four games. She scored a season-high 13 points in a victory against Walsh. She played a season-high 35 minutes in that contest, and also grabbed five rebounds while dishing three assists.

Holly graduate and Wayne State University women's basketball player Becca Fugate has had a strong start to the season with her squad. Wayne State is 4-0.

In the team's 102-51 non-league win against Central State (Ohio), the starters didn't play too many minutes due to the blowout nature of the game but Fugate still scored 12 points and dished off three assists in just 17 minutes of play.

For the season, Fugate has scored 36 points (9 point a game average), dished off eight assists and grabbed 12 rebounds.

Last season, Fugate started 19 of the team's 20 games, averaging 10.3 points in those contests. She also dished off 30 assists while grabbing 50 rebounds. Her freshman season, she played in 28 games and started one. She scored exactly 100 points for the season and dished off 27 assists.

So when do the two GLIAC teams face off one may wonder in the tri-county area. The first time will be at Wayne State University on Jan. 6, 2022 at Ferris State and the second time will be Jan. 29, 2022 at Wayne State.

GRIFFINS

in each period. Two were on the power play. All three were provided by different players.

The first goal of the season was provided by Parker Harrison during a power-play attempt off an assist by Dylan Holloway during the first period.

The team's second goal was scored by Keegan McNamara in an even-strength situation. Nick Temple assisted the goal. The Griffins led 2-0 after two periods. Any chance of a Davison comeback was iced when the Griffins scored their third goal of the game. Temple and Mitchell Luck had assists on a goal by Jace Dumeah in a power play situation.

The Griffins played a disciplined game, taking only two minor penalties. Obviously, the Fenton/Linden squad killed off those penalties.

The squad has some talented players returning. Temple was the team's leading goal scorer a year ago, scoring 12 goals and 19 total points. Meanwhile, the squad's other top three goal scorers from last year also return. McNamara had 10 goals last season (19 total points) while Ethan Hutchings had seven goals and five assists.

The Griffins returned to action on Friday and on Saturday at a weekend tournament held at the Jackson Optimist Arena. They opened the event against Pinckney on Friday. The Griffins also will travel to Pinckney on Dec. 4 for another battle between the two foes.

Gerych's Greenhouse, Flowers & Events is well known for its selection of poinsettias and shoppers can expect the same quality selection this holiday season. They do advise placing orders for personal gifts early though. Photos: Hannah Ball

Start Christmas shopping sooner rather than later

■Common gifts this year include candles, sweaters, USB lighters

By Hannah Ball
Fenton — Sara Byrne, who works in front sales at Gerych's Greenhouse, Flowers & Events, said if you plan on ordering personal gifts for Christmas this year, place those orders sooner rather than later. The store sells hundreds of poinsettias and centerpieces every year.

"We usually have pretty great inventory all the way through December and the shopping season of boutique unique items like candles and clothing, hats, gloves, all that stuff. You can come in anytime and get that. But if you're looking for something really personal and specific, stop in sooner rather than closer to Christmas, just to ensure that we have what you're looking for," Byrne said.

Candles, unique sweaters and USB lighters are popular gift items this year. Byrne said you charge the lighter once and it never runs out. They sell hundreds of poinsettias, adorned with Christmas colors and decorations, during the holiday season.

"We have our whole greenhouse full right now but just like our mums and just like our annuals, they're going to go fast," she said.

People are shopping for Christmas earlier and earlier. Byrne said they have trees up in September, and they're seeing that people are in the Christmas spirit earlier in the year. She attributes this to COVID-19 and being unable to meet in-person last year for the holidays.

Gerych's buys and sells a lot of Michigan-made products, along with items made by local residents. The Michigan Adirondack chairs out front are made by a man in Linden.

"We tried to support that type of business person whenever we can because that's what people come here looking for is that unique gift," Byrne said.

The staff at Gerych's is noticing that people are out Christmas shopping early this year. Their greenhouse is full, but they do expect items to go quickly.

Got leftovers?

Use what's left from Thanksgiving dinner to extend dining options

By Sharon Stone

If you were lucky enough to have hosted Thanksgiving dinner and you still have leftovers in the refrigerator, you might want to try some delicious recipes this weekend using the bits and pieces that remain.

Leftover Turkey Fried Rice

Leftover turkey fried rice with lean and delicious cooked turkey, light and fluffy rice, perfectly scrambled eggs, colourful vegetables, and classic Asian seasonings, is just what your healthy meal planning menu needs. Plus, it's made in one skillet in just 10 minutes.

INGREDIENTS:

1.5 cups of leftover shredded or cubed cooked turkey.

White rice - freshly cooked works best in this recipe, but you can easily use leftover rice. You will just need to add some water (up to ¼ cup) to soften the rice.

Eggs - a staple in fried rice dishes.

Vegetable oil - required for any stir-fry.

Onions

Garlic

Jalapeno pepper - optional, for a spicy kick

Green onions

Carrots and peas

Seasonings - soy sauce, sesame oil, vegetable stock powder (or chicken stock powder), white pepper, salt and ground black pepper.

White sesame seeds (for garnish)

Large wok or skillet

PREPARATION:

Heat oil in a large wok or skillet over medium high heat for 2 minutes until the oil sizzles and shimmers. Add onions and garlic and sauté with a spatula for 2 minutes until fragrant. Stir in jalapeño (if using). Add shredded or cubed turkey and stir to combine, about 1 minute. Move the turkey mixture to one side of the skillet and add eggs to the empty space in the skillet. Stir the eggs until scrambled and cooked through, yet still tender, about 1 minute. Stir to combine all ingredients together.

Add cooked rice and all seasoning including soy sauce, sesame oil, vegetable stock powder, white pepper, salt and black pepper. Stir well to combine, about 2 minutes. If rice is not soft enough, add up to ¼ cup of water to soften it. Add carrots and peas, and stir fry for 2 minutes to evenly mix and distribute the ingredients. Then, stir in green onions. Serve hot on a plate and sprinkle sesame seeds on top.

Leftover Thanksgiving Turkey Sandwich with Cranberry Sauce

Looking for comfort food in a hand-held serving? You got it! Put those leftovers to good use in this leftover Thanksgiving turkey sandwich with cranberry sauce.

INGREDIENTS:

2 slices of your choice of bread

1 tablespoon mayonnaise
1 slice of cheese (try Swiss cheese or provolone cheese)
½ cup leftover roasted turkey, sliced or shredded
2 tablespoons leftover cranberry sauce
¼ cup salad greens or lettuce
2 tablespoons butter, unsalted

PREPARATION:

Spread mayonnaise on one slice of bread and top with cheese. Top up with turkey, cranberry sauce, and greens. Add the remaining slice of bread. Heat butter in a skillet over medium-low heat until melted. Place the sandwich on top and grill each side for 2-3 minutes until bread is lightly browned and cheese has melted. Remove from heat, cut in half and serve!

Turkey Potato Chowder

Leftover turkey potato chowder is a creamy, savory, and delicious soup that is loaded with lean protein.

INGREDIENTS:

½ small onion, diced
1 clove garlic, minced

3 cups chicken stock
1 teaspoon Italian seasoning
3 cups leftover mashed potatoes

cubed
1 cup half and half cream
½ cup corn, frozen
Salt and pepper (to taste)
Cheddar cheese, shredded (optional, for topping)
Parsley, chopped (optional, for topping)

PREPARATION:

Sauté aromatics. Melt In a large stockpot or 5.5 quart Dutch oven, melt butter over medium-high heat, until it starts to bubble, about 1 minute. Add onion and garlic and sauté until soft and tender and starting to brown, about 3-4 minutes.

Make roux. Add flour and mix well until evenly combined with the onion mixture and continue to cook for another minute. Pour in stock and Italian seasoning and mix well. Bring the mixture to a simmer, about 3-4 minutes. Add mashed potatoes and simmer. Add in mashed potatoes, and stir until all the potatoes have broken up. Let the soup simmer over medium heat for 8-10 minutes until thickened, stirring occasionally. Add turkey. Add turkey and half and half cream. Cook until heated through, about 3-5 minutes. ## FUNERAL ETIQUETTE WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP LATER?

In the days and months to come, the family will continue to need your support. Try to write or call on a regular basis. Continue to include them in your social plans, they will let you know when they are ready to participate. It is also nice to remember the family on special occasions during the first year following the death. Don't worry about bringing up the pain and emotion of the loss, they are well aware of that. By remembering such occasions as wedding anniversaries and birthdays, you are not remembering the death, but reaffirming that a life was lived.
