New districts for August Primary election

Learn why candidates seek your vote

By Sharon Stone

Michigan's statewide primary elections are Tuesday, Aug. 2. Voters can already cast their ballot from home or vote early in person by absentee ballot at their local clerk's office, or they can vote at their polling place on Election Day.

"Voters have options in Michigan and, however you cast your ballot, you can have confidence that every vote will be counted securely and your voice will be heard in your community," said Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson.

The statewide primary in Michigan on Aug. 2 is partisan, meaning in partisan races voters must vote all Republican or all Democrat or skip any race they choose. Split party votes are not permitted. In most races, the top Democrat vote getter and the top Republican vote getter will advance to the general election in November. Voters will notice the redrawing of districts across the state.

See maps of the new districts with this story online at tctimes.com

This is done every 10 years based on the U.S. Census. Every 10 years, following the census, states are required to redraw district lines.

Speakeasy co-owner plans to rebuild

Cause of fire ruled 'undetermined' but not suspicious, says fire chief

The cause of the June 28 Fenton fire that destroyed a barn and heavily damaged the El Topo/The Relief & Resource Co. building has been ruled "undetermined after investigation."

The restaurant and speakeasy, which opened August 2016, has been closed since.

New exhibit open at Fenton art gallery

■ Cause & Affect showcases work from artists who have taken a 'new direction'

By Hannah Ball

Fenton — A new art exhibit is open at Cause & Affect Gallery showcasing art from members of the Fenton Arts Council who have taken a new direction in their artwork.

A packed reception on July 9 officially opened the juried member exhibit called "New Directions" for the 31 artists with 40 pieces of art. On display is a wide range of art mediums, including drawing, fiber, mixed media, painting, photography, pottery, sculpture and watercolor. These artists have all taken a new direction in their artwork, according to a press release from the Cause & Affect Gallery.

"The reception was wonderful. The majority of the artists were present at the reception and there were over 100 people that attended in total the opening day," said Annie Anglim, gallery owner, vice president of the Fenton Arts Council and member of the Fenton Arts & Cultural Commission.

The exhibit runs from July 9 through Sept. 3.

To be shown in this exhibit, artists had to choose a different medium or

The Saturday, July 9 grand opening reception at Cause & Affect Gallery for the newly displayed exhibit, "New Directions," received a "very positive reaction" from artists and the public, said gallery owner Annie Anglim. technique than what they normally do.

Anglim said a few of her favorite pieces are "Metallic Elephant" by Kimberly DeVoe, "Gone But Not" by Liz DeVree and "Lean In" by Kelly O'Neill.

"Rodney Crow Jr. has a wonderful piece, 'Windows of Consciousness.' He actually cut the canvas to reveal another canvas that was illuminated behind. That was thought provoking and brought a different level or direction to the art," she said.

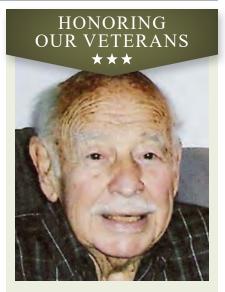

Anglim represents more than 70 artists all from the state of Michigan and many of them are local. The gallery hosts numerous exhibits throughout the year.

"I hope that people coming to the gallery experience a feeling of community here. This is definitely represented on our community wall where everyone is welcome to do a work of art to add to the wall. We have artists aged 2 years old up to at least 89 years old whose work is there," she said.

On the community wall, which is inside the Cause & Affect Gallery, are dozens of little painted canvases. The Fenton Arts Council brings them to events and invites the public to paint them and then they are placed on the hallway wall.

"There is a representation of art by everyone. We intentionally have sought out BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, people of color) and LGBTQ+ artists. These individuals have not been represented well in galleries in general and I hope to have a diversity of art from everyone," she said. "We are a gallery that also

Words with Hannah

America's Next Top Tyrant

ike any proper young millennial girl, me and my friends were obsessed with "America's Next Top Model" in our middle and high school days.

We had the time of our lives judging the models and rooting for certain contestants to win. We all loved Tyra Banks and Jay Manuel especially. Their friendly dynamic was fresh and funny.

It's too bad a lot of it was fake.

Jay Manuel, who played the dutiful sidekick role to Tyra on ANTM for nine years, published "The Wig, The Bitch and the Meltdown" in 2020. It's a "fictional" story about a young production assistant meeting a super famous model and starting a model competition reality show.

I expected most of the plot and drama to center on the contestants and the world of modeling. That's what the show is about, after all. But most of the book is about how Tyra Banks is essentially a horrible friend, horrible boss and horrible human being. If you believe that Jay Manuel wrote the fictional model, Keisha Kash, to be like Tyra, of course.

She apparently had the editors make her look better than anyone else, she constantly arrived hours late to set and held everything up, she manipulated people, and did other jaw-dropping things. I read it in one day because I couldn't put it down. Also, the "fictional" judges were so like the real ones on the show.

One thing ANTM viewers had suspected for years was that Tyra and the production team picked a winner weeks before the finale and catered things toward them. This was basically confirmed in the book.

I don't know how much of this book is true. It's very detailed and there are multiple reasons to believe most of it actually happened, but some of it is absolutely wild.

When one season (they actually called them "cycles") was approaching the end, Tyra/Keisha's pick to win was not doing as well as another contestant who had gorgeous, long red hair. One aspect of the show is that the first episode is usually about models getting makeovers.

Because Tyra/Keisha's favorite wasn't doing as well, she surprised the models with another makeover toward the end of the season and they shaved the head of the model with the red hair. Then the hair goes missing! And you'll never believe what happened in this situation, and I'm not going to spoil it. Just know that I wanted to scream.

Tyra/Keisha also wrote a book during filming and held up shooting by hours very often. In real life, Tyra wrote "Modelland," which is described as "absurd," "far out," "disjointed," "narcissistic" and "flat" by reviewers on Amazon.

Ultimately, I'm left with a limited amount of empathy for Jay Manuel. The book centers on his experience and his life in relation to Tyra and the show, and that's fine, but he barely acknowledges the damage that the show did to these models. They were the ones who were ultimately misled and humiliated for public consumption.

Jay Manuel played a massive role in that. He orchestrated a lot of it. I understand that's how the reality show business is, but that doesn't mean it was right.

However, I think he is owed some grace. Show business is a hard and cut throat world to break into, and Tyra gave him the opportunity. He became successful by putting up with and trying to mitigate someone who thinks the world revolves around them. If the show ended, then his career would take a massive hit.

The only way to rectify this — for the models' sake and for all the young people who watched the show and idolized Tyra- is for a company to make a documentary on ANTM, like the Free Britney documentary.

It's time for Tyra to face judging.

I HONOR THE Melrose family during the devastating fire behind their property. Township prepares legal action against association

Treasurer claims homeowners association intentionally interfered in $420,000 sale of lots

By Hannah Ball

Fenton Township is taking legal action against the Fenton Orchards Condominium Association due to the association allegedly interfering in the sale of numerous tax reverted properties for $420,000.

During the June 7 meeting, the Fenton Township Board of Trustees approved sending a letter to the association and all owners of the property, as well as retaining the services of an attorney.

"They have picked a fight with us on the sale of these units, and they've done everything in their power to make sure we can't sell them," said township Treasurer John Tucker, who's also on the planning commission,

The situation involves approximately 28 tax reverted parcels in the association that are owned by the township. Tucker said when they tried to sell these units a few years ago, the association had an issue with it. He spoke with their attorney and he thought they came to an agreement.

They were approved to be sold to Cedar Creek Construction LLC on Feb. 15, 2022. The intent of the sale was published in the Tri-County Times. The agreed amount is $420,000. However, after the sale was approved, the Fenton Orchards Condominium Association recorded an affidavit claiming that these units do not exist.

"Shortly after the press coverage, Fenton Orchards took it upon themselves to record an affidavit that said that the units that we had acquired from the county and had been paying taxes on for decades don't exist," he said. "The reason they recorded this affidavit was to interfere with the sale."

Tucker added that the association previously communicated to him that they believed that the association should make the money off the sale, not the township.

Master deed amendments require township approval, and the association never requested it be amended. If the master deed shows that these lots do > not exist, officials are unable to obtain title insurance for the units, which prevents them from being sold.

> The association's attorney cited the Michigan Condominium Act, which states that if undeveloped condominium units remain undeveloped for 10 years, then a two-thirds vote by the association can declare that the land shall remain part of the project and revert to general common elements. General common elements are amenities such as lawns, streets (if the road is private) and recreation facilities maintained by the association.

Tucker disagreed with the association's See LEGAL ACTION on 12

Groups launch crowdfunding campaign

■To rebuild historic Battle Alley following devastating fire

Main Street Oakland County and Main Street Holly, an arm of the Holly Downtown Development Authority (DDA), have launched a crowdfunding campaign to help rebuild the historic Battle Alley section of the village following the six-alarm fire June 21 that destroyed or badly damaged several businesses and buildings.

To give offline by cash or check, make the check payable to Main Street Holly and mail or deliver the donation to Main Street Holly, at 300 East St., Holly, MI, 48442. To donate online, go to: Patronicity.com/HeartOfHolly.

"Oakland County will continue to support Holly leaders, business owners, and residents as they recover from the damage caused by the fire," Oakland County Executive Dave Coulter said. "We're committed to ensuring that this historic jewel is restored and rebuilt."

The crowdfunding campaign will subsidize a variety of projects, including façade grants to offset the costs and repairs to the surviving historic buildings; matching funds for grant applications for the long-term repair and restoration of infrastructure; street and sidewalk paving; building grants for new construction; and small business grants for those impacted by the fire.

Plus, the restoration will require the hiring of design professionals and replacement of community items such as public art, pedestrian furniture, flower containers, trees, and trash receptacles.

"We are very fortunate to have a partnership with Main Street Oakland County," said Nick Klempp, executive director of the Holly DDA. "Their team quickly provided contacts to meet with Workforce Development and Michigan's Small Business Development Center to help our small business owners and employees impacted by the fire.

"We greatly appreciate all the support we have already received from area churches, chambers, businesses and other organizations, including fellow DDAs. Insurance will not cover everything, and a team of architects and engineers are already at work evaluating needs and repairs."

Main Street Holly is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization which is able to collect these tax-deductible donations and distribute the funds. For more information or questions, contact Klempp, at (248) 634-9571 or nklempp@hollyvillage.org.

A greenhouse on George and Chrissy Kutlenios' property in Holly Township was destroyed by the tornado on Monday, July 11.

Stables, a privately owned horse farm and event venue of George and Chrissy Kutlenios.

The property is nearly 60 acres in Holly Township and is a working thoroughbred farm, and the Kutlenios' home. There are barns, paddocks, pastures and an oak tree grove that makes for idyllic setting for photos for weddings and other events that are held there.

The Kutlenios' restaurant, The Holly Hotel is the exclusive caterer for the Farm, which offers an elegant, rustic venue.

The Holly Hotel sustained heavy fire, smoke and water damage from the substantial fire in the Battle Alley of downtown Holly on Tuesday, June 21. More than 200 firefighters from 20 departments were on responded to battle the fire that destroyed one business and severely damaged others.

As previously reported in the Times, the fire was reported around 4 p.m. and originated in the back of Battle Alley Arcade Antiques. Flames quickly spread in 95-degree weather with strong winds to other businesses, including Andy's Place and the Holly Hotel. Both sustained significant damage. The Holly Moose Lodge sustained heavy water damage, and Creative Fashions of Holly, RHL Financial Group and Ziggy's Ice Cream also have minor damages.

Restoring, rebuilding and crowdfunding efforts are underway for those businesses.

After the tornado, Chrissy Kutlenios said approximately one dozen mature trees were uprooted and knocked over. Her greenhouse and the tents and other areas used for weddings and other events were damaged.

She added that the 15 horses on the property were uninjured.

The Saturday after the June 21 fire, the Kutlenios' reached out to their friends in the restaurant industry and were able to host and feed a large wedding at the Red Riding Hood Stables venue. Chrissy said they haven't had any weddings since then. Between the fire at the Holly Hotel and the tornado damage at their other property, they are unsure as to when events will be held.

The wedding tent is beyond repair and Chrissy said it appeared as if the tornado cut right through the middle of

When asked if she heard the tornado, Chrissy said no, but around midnight, she saw lightning. A neighbor called her and told her that a nearby transformer was arcing. At that point, she decided to go check on the horses by driving her ATV over to the stable. She said the horses didn't seem affected by the tornado.

They'll be working with their insurance provider again and start the process of having the trees cut down, all while they are continuing their cleanup and rebuilding efforts at the Holly Hotel.

Chrissy added that George, trying to lighten the mood, wrote on the Holly Hotel's Facebook page, "If anyone hears of a locust plague heading our way please give us a call."

Holly resident wins pageant

■10-year-old preparing for national competition

By Hannah Ball

In her first pageant, a 10-year-old Holly resident won the 2022 National American Miss Michigan Junior Pre Teen division. The event was held June 16-18.

Loushyn Noll and her family are now preparing for her to compete at the National American Miss (NAM) National competition in Orlando, Florida during Thanksgiving week when she will represent Michigan and have the opportunity to win a $5,000 cash scholarship and other awards.

Loushyn is one of six children, and her two eldest sisters participated in this pageant program when they were younger, said her mother, Jamie Noll.

"One of Loushyn's younger sisters wanted to watch one of the old videos of the eldest two girls in their pageants. Loushyn watched it, too. She expressed an interest then, but I kept putting it off remembering the work and cost involved. However, Loushyn was persistent, and even did her own fundraising by collecting and returning refundable cans and bottles," she said.

The National American Miss organization is a "program based on the foundational principle of fostering positive self-image by enhancing natural beauty within," according to the website, and they center on helping young girls grow and expand ideas about "who they are and what they want to achieve."

Noll wasn't sure about Loushyn competing, but the family worked to make it possible. Her eldest sister gave her some tips, did her hair, helped her get dressed, and helped Loushyn prepare her introduction and interview answers. Loushyn picked it up as a natural.

"Since Loushyn is one of six children, with her youngest sister having extensive medical needs, and we are in the midst of pursuing an international adoption, we had a budget to stick to," she said.

They only allowed Loushyn to participate in the main competition. This includes a formal wear event, a personal introduction, an interview, and a community service project. Competitors are scored in each of these areas. The Noll family did not have Loushyn participate in the other contests that had additional costs.

"We did learn, however, that the cost is connected to a prize package. She did enter additional contests like best résumé, best thank you note, etc. as there was no cost for these," she said.

She complimented the National American Miss organization for including the families of the contestants. Loushyn's brother, 12, was her escort during the formal wear competition. Girls who had won previous competitions were kind to her youngest sister, 3, who uses a power chair, and invited her on stage. The 3-year-old and Loushyn's 5-year-old sister got to be on stage during the pajama dance party.

"They have a lot of people helping, they encourage questions and praise the efforts of the participants, and I really appreciate the overall ambience of the program. Of course, the kids all love staying in the hotel for a few days, too," Noll said.

Noll's two oldest daughters participated in this pageant before, and they didn't expect Loushyn to win.

"In fact, we visited a dress shop looking for a pageant gown for her, and the owner of the shop discouraged us from participating in such a big pageant. This is the only program any of my girls have ever participated in, so it was the only one I knew of and was familiar with. When I realized that she was going to win the contest, at first I cried," Noll said. "I was overwhelmed with God's goodness and how he orchestrated everything for her. Then, I laughed. Pageants are a lot of work and can be very costly. I was looking forward to pageant weekend so that she could have the experience and we could move on."

For winning the state title, Loushyn received an official state crown, banner trophy, and roses, as well as plaques for winning miss personality, best resume, best thank you note and a spirit award.

The family is excited for her to compete for the national title in Florida during Thanksgiving weekend.

"She also is encouraged to participate in parades, ball games, concerts, charity events, etc. We have a fun, busy year ahead of us," Noll said.

In her free time, Loushyn cares for six rabbits and two guinea pigs. She enjoys helping her big sisters train horses and dogs on their family farm. She also swing dances, does roller figure skating, fishes and she spends time with her family and homeschool friends. Recently, she participated in service projects to raise awareness for Leader Dogs for the Blind, collecting school supplies for a local teacher who has students in need, and helping the family with their upcoming international adoption.

PROPOSALS

Rose Township — Fire Protection and Emergency Medical Services Operating Millage

Shall the Township of Rose be authorized to levy up to 3.5 mills on all taxable property within the Township for a period of six years, starting December 2022 and expiring December 2027, inclusive for the purpose of funding fire protection and emergency medical services, including Advanced Life Support, and all related operations, wages, benefits and capital expenditures?

Approval of the above proposal would allow the Township to levy up to 3.5 mills for purposes of continuing to provide fire protection and emergency medical services; including Advance Life Support, and all related operations, wages, benefits and capital expenditures. Approval of this proposal would allow a tax limitation increase and approximate levy of $3.50 per $1,000 of taxable value on all taxable property within the Township. A property with a taxable value of $100,000 would be taxed each year approximately $350.00 for the millage. It is estimated that this proposal would result in the authorization to collect approximately $1,089,785.17 in the first year the millage is approved and levied a portion will be distributed to the North Oakland County Fire Authority.

HISTORY

COMPILED BY SHARON STONE

JULY 17

1955: Disneyland, Walt Disney's metropolis of nostalgia, fantasy and futurism, opens. The $17 million theme park was built on 160 acres of former orange groves in Anaheim, California, and soon brought in staggering profits. Today, Disneyland hosts more than 18 million visitors a year, who spend close to $3 billion. Walt Disney, born in Chicago in 1901, worked as a commercial artist before setting up a small studio in Los Angeles to produce animated cartoons. Walt Disney died in 1966, and Walt Disney World was opened in his honor on October 1, 1971. Epcot Center, Disney-MGM Studios, and Animal Kingdom were later added to Walt Disney World, and it remains Florida's premier tourist attraction.

JULY 18

1940: Franklin Delano Roosevelt, who first took office in 1933 as America's 32nd president, is nominated for an unprecedented third term. Roosevelt, a Democrat, would eventually be elected to a record four terms in office, the only U.S. president to serve more than two terms. On March 21, 1947, Congress passed the 22nd Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, which stated that no person could be elected to the office of president more than twice. The amendment was ratified by the required number of states in 1951.

JULY 19

1879: Doc Holliday commits his first murder, killing a man for shooting up his New Mexico saloon. Despite his formidable reputation as a deadly gunslinger, Doc Holliday only engaged in eight shootouts during his life, and it has only been verified that he killed two men. Still, the smartly dressed exdentist from Atlanta had a remarkably fearless attitude toward death and danger, perhaps because he was slowly dying from tuberculosis. In 1879, Holliday settled in Las Vegas, New Mexico, where he opened a saloon with a partner. He spent his evenings gambling in the saloon and he seemed determined to stress his health condition by heavy drinking. The following year, he abandoned the saloon business and joined his old friend Wyatt Earp in Tombstone, Arizona. During the subsequent six years, Holliday assisted at several other killings and wounded a number of men in gun battles. He died in 1887.

JULY 20

1969: At 10:56 p.m., American astronaut Neil Armstrong, 240,000 miles from Earth, speaks these words to more than a billion people listening at home: "That's one small step for a man, one giant leap for mankind." Stepping off the lunar landing module Eagle, Armstrong became the first human to walk on the surface of the moon. Astronaut "Buzz" Aldrin joined him on the moon's surface at 11:11 p.m., and together they took photographs of the terrain, planted a U.S. flag, ran a few simple scientific tests, and spoke with President Richard M. Nixon via Houston.

JULY 21

2005: Terrorists attempt to attack the London transit system by planting bombs on three subways and on one bus; none of the bombs detonate completely. The attempted attack came exactly two weeks after terrorists killed 56 people, including themselves, and wounded 700 others in the largest attack on Great Britain since World War II. The previous attack also targeted three subways and one bus. The four bombers. Muktar Said Ibrahim, 29, Yasin Hassan Omar, 26, Ramzi Mohammed, 25, and Hussain Osman, 28, were found guilty of conspiracy to murder and sentenced to life in prison.

JULY 22

2013: Weighing in at a healthy 8 pounds, 6 ounces, the first child of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge (more informally known as Prince William and Kate Middleton), is born at St. Mary's Hospital in London, England. The new prince's birth had been a highly anticipated event, with reporters camping out outside the hospital to get the first glimpse of the new arrival. Though the official birth announcement came, according to tradition, via a statement posted on a gilded easel outside Buckingham Palace, the Duke and Duchess put a more modern spin on things by appearing outside the hospital to introduce their baby to the world.

JULY 23

1967: The 1967 Detroit Riots were among the bloodiest in American history. The strife occurred during a period of Detroit's history when the once-affluent city was struggling economically, and race relations nationwide were at an all-time low. The Detroit Police Department's vice squad often raided illegal drinking establishments in the city's poorer neighborhoods, and at 3:35 a.m. on Sunday morning, July 23, they moved against a club that was hosting a party for returning Vietnam War veterans. The early-morning police activity drew a crowd of onlookers, and the situation rapidly deteriorated. By the time the bloodshed, burning and looting ended after five days, some 43 people were dead, many more seriously injured and nearly 1,400 buildings had been burned or ransacked.

LEGAL ACTION

lawyer. He consulted with real estate attorney George Rizik, who agreed that the township owned the units.

Tucker called Rizik an "excellent, excellent" attorney and said, "I am as confident as anything I've been in 35 years of real estate of our collective opinion on this matter and that is that these units didn't go away. The master deed was amended in violation of the master deed and the appropriate rules, and that all of this was done with the specific intention of mucking up the sale that we have for these units for the reason that they want the money for themselves."

He's attempted to communicate with the association and their lawyer to resolve the issue, and he believes that the township should call their bluff.

"I personally don't like the idea of suing an association of which 20 or so members of our township residents are members," he said. However, he said he likes even less the loss of $420,000 in revenue that can benefit all of the township residents.

Tucker recommended sending a letter to the association outlining the township's position and planned legal action, and also sending a copy of the letter to all property owners in the association. He also recommended they retain attorney George Rizik to initiate the appropriate litigation, which would likely include the following counts:

- Intentional interference with contractual relations
- Slander of title
- Intentional interference with a business relationship or expectancy
- Declaratory relief to: Confirm that the condo units do in fact exist today; Invalidate the Master Deed amendment that was recorded without Township approval.

Trustee Mark Goupil asked if the association would be responsible for paying any damages that might be awarded, according to meeting minutes. Tucker said that it would depend on the level of insurance coverage maintained by the association.

Trustee Christine Reid said the association's argument was "interesting."

"Their argument is that it's been sitting there and 10 years have passed so it becomes general common elements, yet they want to sell it to a developer. We can't sell it to a developer but they can...that doesn't hold water," she said.

Supervisor Vince Lorraine said he agrees with Tucker and Rizik.

"I think it's only fair to our taxpayers and our residents that we did sell this property, we own this property, and that the $400,000 comes to the township. It's the taxpayers," he said.

Fenton Orchards Condominium Association President Mary Ann Brostek responded "no comment" when the Times reached out.

evaluating the state of the building. We'd love to reopen. We can't wait to go back. It's just a matter of when," said Jon Foley, head bartender and co-owner of The Relief & Resource Co.

Firefighters were called to the scene at the corner of Adelaide and Mill streets at approximately 1:30 p.m. on that Tuesday. A car was on fire when they arrived along with a tree and a barn just south of the property.

Fenton Fire Chief Bob Cairnduff said the area of origin for the fire was determined to be behind the dumpster enclosure. The vehicle that was parked near the dumpster was ruled out as a source.

"There were a few different possible sources that could have started the fire, but we are unable to determine the exact cause. There was nothing suspicious about the fire and it has been ruled 'undetermined after investigation.' That means we could not pinpoint the exact cause, but there is no reason to investigate further," he said.

A waste oil receptacle behind the dumpster enclosure ruptured once it caught fire. The burning liquid spread across the parking lot to the El Topo/ The Relief & Resource Co. building. The wood fence that enclosed the speakeasy's Rum Alley caught fire and it "rapidly" spread up the side of the building due to flammable liquids that were involved, Cairnduff said.

They conducted their investigation in it," he said.

conjunction with the two third party fire investigation companies that were hired by the insurance companies involved, and the incident has been turned over to the involved parties and insurance companies.

The barn was a total loss and El Topo/The Relief and Resource Co. sustained heavy damage. The Edward Jones building, just west of El Topo, also sustained minor damage.

Foley said his employees miss going to work and seeing each other, he added, but they're able to do catering events and classes at a different venue. Despite everything, they remain in good spirits.

"I'm okay. It's stressful. You trust the process. This is why you have insurance," he said. "It's hard. It's a big passion project. It's hard to have it just go away."

Numerous fire departments were on scene battling the flames in hot weather while crowds watched. No injuries were reported.

"The fire department's been amazing. Everyone's been really helpful and really communicative," he said. "There's an awful lot of conversations that you have to have and it can be overwhelming but everyone's been very receptive."

For now, he's trying to be patient while waiting to hear back from the insurance companies. He doesn't know how long it will take.

"The outreach has been awesome. I can tell that the place meant a lot to people. That's encouraging. I grew up in Fenton. It's been my community since I was a little kid. It's fun to be a part of it," he said.

Delegate candidates for the County Convention

By Sharon Stone

"Precinct delegate" is a term commonly heard during the election season, and a position people will vote for, but one not many people are knowledgeable about.

Registered voters in the tri-county area as well as across Michigan will vote for precinct delegates during the Aug. 2 Primary Election.

Precinct delegates act as bridges to the voters and the Democratic or Republican parties, spreading information about candidates and representing neighborhoods at political party meetings.

Delegates do the following: help people register to vote, deliver information on issues and candidates to voters in their precinct, recruit new party members and more. According to oaklandgop.net, delegates will be involved in state conventions where party platforms are adopted and voted on, and nominations are made for different boards and committees.

Precincts are allotted a number of delegates based on past party voting strengths.

On the primary ballot this August, voters will see that not enough people are running to become delegates to fill all the available positions.

Those wishing to become a delegate must file a Precinct Delegate Affidavit of Identity and turn it into the county. Delegates are volunteers. The deadline has already passed.

Fenton eGift Card Program continues

■ More than $800.000 worth of eGift cards spent at local businesses

By Hannah Ball

The Fenton eGift Card Program is still ongoing. In the last 12 months, more than $85,000 has been redeemed at local businesses due to the eGift card program. These gift cards can be purchased at app.yiftee. com/gift-card/fenton--mi and can only be redeemed at participating businesses.

The program began during the CO-VID-19 pandemic as a way to help local businesses. People could buy gift cards and in return, they would receive an additional gift card with the same amount of money in an added gift card, buy-oneget-one style. If someone bought a $100 gift card, they would also receive a $100 bonus gift card.

These gift cards can only be spent at participating businesses. As of January 2022, the public bought more than $830,000 worth of these eGift cards. Approximately two to three are purchased each week.

Bonus gift cards are not currently available.

Michael Hart, assistant city manager and executive director of the Downtown Development Authority (DDA), said they approved to continue the program to run through the end of 2022, and he doesn't see why they wouldn't continue it into 2023. He said the board has been "very supportive" of the program. People and businesses have invested in the program. If they did discontinue it, Hart said they would give people advanced notice so they would have time to spend the money at approved businesses.

"It's been very useful. We'd like it to continue," he said. "In the future, if we feel that it did run its course, we'd have to give ample notice."

There is a possibility of bringing back matching funds on a limited basis. Hart believes they might approve bonuses — similar to how the program initially worked with matching funds—for events in Fenton, such as Ladies Night Out.

PRIMARY ELECTION

This involves two closely linked, but distinct, processes: reapportionment (the reallocation of congressional districts among states to account for population shifts) and redistricting (the redrawing of district boundaries to ensure districts are of equal population within a state to comply with the principle of "one person, one vote"), according to the National Conference of State Legislatures.

The following maps show the latest district boundaries. To find out what is on your ballot, go to Michigan.gov and click on the Voter Services link. Follow the prompts and fill in what election you are seeking information on, what county you live in, what local jurisdiction you live in and what precinct you vote in. Once those are filled out, click on the View the Ballot link and you will be able to view your entire ballot.

As an example, a Fenton Township resident in precinct 2 will vote in the governor's race, U.S. Congress Representative for the 8th District, State Senator for the 22nd District, State Representative for the 72nd District and Genesee County Commissioner for the 6th District.

Residents recently were mailed updated voter information cards from their local clerks indicating what precinct they live in. Call your local clerk's office with questions.

er, putting $3 billion back in Michiganders' pockets. We cut taxes for small businesses and invested in local job creation, like the American Recreational Products expansion in Fenton and the DAG Technology factory in Grand Blanc. We're fixing the roads, including U.S. 23 and I-75, while supporting over 80,000 jobs. We made the largest ever investment in K-12 education, brought affordable childcare to 105,000 children, and put 170,000 Michiganders on a path to good-paying jobs with tuition-free job training and college, all on a balanced budget, never raising taxes. We are getting things done and I would be honored to continue fighting for Michiganders."

Ryan Kelley – R

"Michigan needs a fighter. Someone who will fight for the people with their actions. That Governor candidate is Ryan Kelley. Boycotting the Mackinac Policy Conference over vaccine requirements, COVID screening, and special treatment, the other four candidates caved and went to the island. My 100 Day Plan is powerful (ryandkelley.com) and gained so much support statewide. I'm a proven leader, fighter, and is the one who will make Gretchen Whitmer a one term Governor. Vote Ryan Kelley August 2."

Ralph Rebandt – R

"For the past 60 years we have spent $22 trillion on social programs, yet we have more crime, addictions, suicides, and broken families. Sixty years ago, we removed God from our schools, courtrooms, and communities. Our Founders understood that without a Judeo-Christian foundation, our nation would crumble. A nation that removes 'Nature's God,' will eventually remove the 'Laws of Nature.' We see that today. I was happy to read about many of your outstanding female athletes in a recent article. These girls should never have to compete against male athletes. As your next governor, they won't. I will bring truth, respect, and transparency back to the governor's office, and will remove CRT, Social Emotional Learning, and Sex Ed from our schools, returning to core subjects. I will fight for religious freedom, medical freedom, freedom of speech, and protect our second amendments rights, and the life of the unborn child."

Kevin Rinke - R

"My business experience makes me the most qualified candidate to be the chief executive of the State of Michigan. After four failed years, we need a new kind of leadership. We need a governor who has decades of executive experience, who has signed the front and the back of a check, who listens to the people he leads, and empowers them to be part of the solution, rather than dictating the terms of their lives. We know business leaders solve problems differently than career politicians. Our next governor needs to be someone with proven leadership and proven results. Experience matters, details matter, scale of experience matters, and I plan to deliver for all Michiganders."

Garret Soldano - R

"My name is Garrett Soldano and I'm a husband, father, chiropractor, and small business owner. When Governor Whitmer locked down our state, shut down our schools, closed our businesses, created a mental health crisis and stole our constitutional freedoms, I didn't sit on the sidelines. I fought for you. I have been fighting for the people of this great state for two years and I will continue to do just that as your governor. I will lead the charge to restore faith in our government, protect Michigan's next generation, and bring common sense and leadership back to Lansing. Our state deserves a leader who isn't bought and paid for by special interests or the establishment. We have energy, we have passion, and I want all of you to be a part of it. I'm Garrett Soldano and I am your next Governor."

"I was born and raised in Genesee County and am focused on lowering the costs of gas, groceries and prescription drugs, rebuilding our state's infrastructure, and ensuring clean drinking water. I have championed 'Make it in America' policies to create goodpaying manufacturing jobs in Michigan, not China. I've worked to fix supply chain issues and incentivize the domestic manufacturing of semiconductors that Michigan-made automobiles rely on. And I've fought for fair trade deals, making sure workers and farmers can compete on a level playing field. I've passed funding to protect the Great Lakes, working with Republicans and Democrats to stop invasive species, clean up PFAS chemicals and remove lead pipes. I have not been afraid to do what is right for Michigan, including taking on members of my own party to advocate for more police funding to address crime, and banning Members of Congress from trading stocks while in office."

Paul Junge – R

"At a time when inflation is out of control, our border is virtually unprotected and crime rates are spiking, we need a member in Congress who will fight against runaway government spending, protect our border, respect the Constitution and promote the rule of law. We need to lower the tax burden on families and small businesses to help them afford the higher prices and to improve our economy. We need to stop the federal government's reckless spending that is driving up inflation. We need to increase American energy production to lower gas prices. Empowering people rather than DC politicians and bureaucrats will improve our economy and help people living paycheck-topaycheck. We need to lean into our shared values of encouraging hard work, providing a high-quality education for every child, caring for our neighbors, investing, innovating, and leading the world in economic production and generosity.

Candice Miller - R

"I am a retired businesswoman who managed a successful petroleum corporation, serving as corporate board secretary. I have served on many community boards including Treasurer of the Right to Life and my church as a Sunday school teacher. My greatest accomplishment, however, is raising my two children to be outstanding, patriotic citizens and parents to my four adorable grandbabies.

As a Christian, conservative, prolife, pro-God, pro-gun, pro-constitution, pro-election integrity, America first candidate, I am running to restore our values to the nation's Capitol and 8th District. I am focused on stopping government overreach on our kids and businesses, stopping wasteful spending, improving our infrastructure and quality of life, and giving every 8th District resident a shot at the American dream. We need to secure our borders and put our own hard working citizens first. I promise to cast my vote in Congress to put America and the 8th District first. As the only candidate that has never run for public office, I feel the need to speak for the majority of the American people with common sense."

Matthew Seely - R

"I'm 56. I'm a lifelong Michigander who is a faith-oriented conservative Republican. For 31 years, I have owned and operated a Michigan based steel fabrication and manufacturing company. I'm an America first, pro-life, pro-Second Amendment and pro Trump candidate. I will bring competitive passion to Washington, D.C. to fight for a Congressional District that has suffered under decades of Democrat indifference. My wife and I have two grown children who also live in Michigan. I waited until the last possible moment for a strong conservative to run against Dan Kildee. Several strong candidates exist, like my friends Bill Schuette and Tom Leonard. Unfortunately, that strong candidate never emerged, so I decided to run and win this race. This Congressional seat is also vulnerable due to Kildee's failure to bring any kind of investment or growth to the region. I believe I have the skill set needed to win this election and bring Jobs to this suffering District.

"I'm a 24-year-old college student and sales manager running for State

Rep in HD72. I'm running with the goal of defending the inherent rights of all Michiganders. Whether it be your right to access clean and affordable drinking water, your right to bodily autonomy by seeking safe abortion services, your right to responsibly keep and bear arms, or your right to enjoy economic prosperity and opportunity, I will defend your ability to do so with the same fervor I would my own. Frankly speaking, I want better for our state and country. And I'm willing to put in the work."

large (nearly 200) acre development happening one mile east of Holly on E. Holly Road and Falk Road. This development threatens shallow wells and drinking water for our community. The said development had hundreds of violations with their satellite WWTP and discharge into the Shiawassee River. The state has said this could affect Ponemah and Silver Lake, as well as anyone who paddles the river. Most importantly, land use changes have exacerbated stormwater and flooding that cross the 40-acre Falk Road toxic dump. PFAS foam has been spotted and some tested to confirm such. The state-funded fish testing has concluded mercury in both Bush and Rice lake. Stop the spread of these heavy metals and PFAS. Stop the discharge into the

"I am a lifelong resident of Fenton Township and a 1992 graduate of Linden High School. I served four years in the United States Navy and graduated with honors from Eastern Michigan University in 1999, then graduated from the police academy and began my career as a deputy sheriff, serving nearly 19 years before being elected to the House of Representatives. My life has been dedicated to public service. I have the proper life experience to do this job and now have experience in the legislature navigating the process to become an effective asset for our community. As a former police officer, I see all sides of an issue and remain focused on creating meaningful change for the district. Further, being a small business owner and a farmer, I have the firsthand experience dealing with the bureaucracy of government and now what it takes to bolster growth for this community."

Dylan Pescarolo - R

"I would ask all the voters of my district to ask themselves if they have felt like needs and beliefs are being properly represented in Lansing. If not then it is time for all of us to elect a new state representative that will actually listen and respond to what they want. If elected, I will sponsor new legislation to make sure we have secure elections that will cut down on voter fraud. Also, I will introduce legislation that will give parents more power over what is taught in our curriculum and legislation that will ban critical race theory and gender studies in public schools. I will also introduce legislation that bans both vaccine and mask mandates and protects medical freedom. If you believe in all of this, then I humbly ask for your vote in the republican primary election on August 2nd."

Local veteran to be honored

#StillServing campaign recognizes Scott Maker for commitment to serving community

By Sharon Stone

Scott Maker of Fenton Township is being honored for dedication to country and community in the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW)#StillServing campaign. The national VFW #StillServing campaign recognizes veterans who continue to serve in their community after they leave the military.

The VFW launched the #StillServing campaign in early 2020 to bring attention to and honor the continued commitment and sacrifice of America's veterans.

"Veterans truly exemplify the best of America," said William "Doc" Schmitz, VFW national commander when the campaign first began in 2020. "They are dedicated to giving of themselves, and the skills and values they develop in the military only deepen their desire to better themselves, their communities and their country through service."

Maker is concluding four consecutive years as Commander of VFW Post #4642 in Linden. He has served in leadership roles on formal and ad hoc committees supporting school boosters and parent organizations, civic activities, his church and with his employers, Veterans Initiative Program.

Maker said like other service organizations, the VFW has seen declining membership and participation, so it's important to share the impactful ways VFW members at the national, state, and local level are making a difference.

"Like our own Price Crane Robinson's Post#4642 in Linden, as a group we are very active supporting the community in various ways but individually, each member is also making major contributions that often go unnoticed or unappreciated," Maker said. "I reflected on my own involvement here in the Linden community and thought it was a great opportunity to bring to light what we are doing as an organization and individuals.

"Honestly, I put my entry in the #StillServing program to give our Linden VFW Post some visibility and had no intention of being singled out for my own personal activities, so getting this attention is a surprise."

Maker said he was honored to be recognized by the VFW National Headquarters for his involvement, but that he wanted to use this opportunity to shine the light on our community and his comrades in Linden.

"Price Crane Robinson's Post #4642 does a lot in our community, much of it behind the

Fit For a Cure to take place July 23

■Children's Entrepreneur Fair scheduled for same day

By Hannah Ball

You can work out and help fund cancer research at the same time at the fourth annual Fit For the Cure on July 23 from 8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m.

Taking place at the Fenton Freedom Center church, the event will feature

BENEFITS:

The event is put on by Engage Community Organization (ECO) and U Can-Cer Vive, which is a nonprofit created and run by Ryan and Wendi LaFontaine and Ryan's sister Kelley LaFontaine.

"Cancer seems to be becoming more prevalent, and everyone seems to know someone impacted by cancer, so ECO wanted to do something to help," said Keri Lay, director of ECO. "We started nesses and health organizations together to fight together against cancer, to bring hope to the darkness and to support a well vetted organization where 100% of all net proceeds go directly to cancer research right here in Michigan. That is why we chose U Can-Cer Vive where their funds do just that."

More than 300 people attended the 2021 event. ECO will donate 75% of proceeds from Fit For the Cure to research, and they will donate 25% of the proceeds to a local family that's affected by cancer.

Lay said there will be something for all ages at the event. This includes a dance class from the Fenton Ballet Theatre, a Pilates class from BLOOM Pilates and an adult and kids Bootcamp from Boomers Bootcamp. One activity new this year is a mile-long obstacle course, called the Muscle Mile, put on by ECO, CrossFit Fenton, Tri County Ninja, Advanced Care Chiropractic, and Boomers Bootcamp.

A fan favorite — the Tug of War is back. Lay said the Genesee County Sheriff's Office is returning to defend their title win, and they expect "great competition" from other organizations including Clara's Hope and The Prism Project. They accept eight-person teams. It costs $100 to enter. People can register for the events ahead of time or the day of the event.

Multiple gyms and local businesses offered free memberships and gift certificates as giveaways. People must register by Sunday, July 17 to be eligible for the big giveaways and the Muscle Mile. Fitbox Fuel, a meal prepping business, will sell food.

"It is so amazing to watch so many health and wellness organizations and other businesses come together to focus on one cause," Lay said.

A few cancer survivors will give speeches and there will be a musical tribute.

"This event is all about bringing people and businesses together to focus on health and health and to rally together for one united cause," according to the website ucancervive.com/ fit-for-the-cure/.

"As always, this event is about individual health and fitness, but most importantly... all proceeds from this event are going to help people that are affected by cancer in some way, form or fashion. So it's exceptionally important that we have your support," said Wendi in a promotional video for the event.

Ryan said it's an honor for the Freedom Center and ECO to put on an event like this for their nonprofit and help fundraise for cancer research.

"It gets bigger and better every year." It's an event for all ages," he said. "There's a lot of great events...the key scenes and with no fanfare," he said.

Linden has a smaller VFW post in total membership with fewer than 100 veterans on their current roster and they have an even smaller number of highly active members, but their impact is significant relatively speaking.

"Our Memorial Day event with the parade and service at Fairview Cemetery is our most notable annual event of course but we take part in the Holiday Happening Parade as well," he said. "Our members are engaged to speak to our school children about veteran related topics, we make monetary donations to school activities, support the local scouting programs, we hold a couple of bingo night fundraisers annually and perform service projects for local veterans helping those in need."

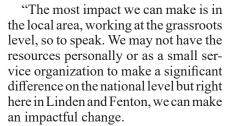

Each year around the holidays, the Linden VFW collects for "Toys for Tots" operated by the US Marine Corps Reserve. Maker said this is a special program to him as a retired Marine. They also donate clothing and personal items to the local VA office for homeless veterans.

"You will find that like my own involvement with Linden schools as a member of the Board of Education for over 14 years and the other volunteering I do, our members are very active individually in the community, making a difference every day," he said. "They reflect the national statistics that show our military veterans volunteer 30% more hours per year and are 40% more involved in groups working on community issues than the average American citizen.

"To me, those are some very noteworthy numbers. There are many things going on around us and so many opportunities to make a difference, but I feel that the tone being set on social media, etc. has sidetracked many people and created a lot of negativities.

"The old proverb says many hands make light work and there are countless places where we can all put our time and skills to use helping our community and those around

"It may come easier for our military veterans to step up to a challenge and see it through to completion because we have done it before.

ECO is also hosting the second annual Children's Entrepreneur Fair on July 23 at this event. Children ages 7-17 can set up their one day marketplace for free to showcase their business idea.

Judges will choose a winner who will receive a $100 prize.

"The kids get to participate in giving back at this event as well as the one requirement is that they give 10% of their proceeds from the day back to U Can-Cer Vive. We love that we get to be a small part in teaching kids to give back to charity and share the blessings we are given. Sports staff begins the start of last season's Tri-County Top 16 poll

By David Troppens

It's one of the sports staff's favorite times of the season.

For the 14th straight summer, the sports staff has crunched the efforts of all our tri-county varsity sports teams during the past school season (in this case the 2021-22 school year), looked at their accomplishments and have come out with our Tri-County Top 16 Teams list. It's not an easy job, but it is a fun one. And every year we get a couple of calls from fans, coaches or even a player or two asking why they ranked lower (or didn't rank at all). Some thank us for their final position as well.

But remember, this is basically an opinion poll. If your team doesn't rank as high, it doesn't mean a squad didn't have a great season. Many teams had strong seasons that won't be on this list. If our quick count is correct, the tri-county area has 92 varsity squads that can earn a spot on our list. That means 76 won't make it. And just as with every school year, there are Metro League or Division championship squads that didn't make our list. This isn't an easy poll to make, and plenty of great teams are kept off. That's enough of the pregame talk. Let's get to some that just missed and at least a couple of

Holly football looking for the three 'Es' during summer camp

■Keenist wants to see energy, effort, enthusiasm from players

By David Troppens

Holly — First-year Holly varsity football coach Billy Keenist Jr. had one message for his squad after the second day of a three-day Holly Football Camp ended on Wednesday.

"This was a great two days, you know why," Keenist said. "It was because the energy was high. I don't care if we have 34, 94 or 84 guys, if you bring the energy, if you bring the juice and if you are coachable, we can do a lot of good things."

The beginning days for any new coaching staff are important mental cement blocks for a new program. For this summer Keenist has the three 'Es' that he's focusing on with the Bronchos — enthusiasm, energy and effort.

"The main thing we want to get out of these three days is enthusiasm. Enthusiasm is No. 1," Keenist said. "That's why I told them they had two good days. That's all I care about right now — the energy, the effort and the enthusiasm. The Xs and Os — the plays — they will all take care of themselves. But if we have the enthusiasm and if we have the effort, then we will be okay."

The new coaching staff had the attention of their 34 campers on Wednesday, as workouts were done efficiently. Keenist, who is a physical education and a health teacher at Holly, may be new to the program, but he knows the players. Still, with any new coaching staff, there are adjustments.

"We are doing some things this summer that these kids haven't done in the past, so they are learning, but they are working really hard," Keenist said. "They are receptive to the new program. I'm very pleased with how the summer is going.

Holly graduates preparing for college athletic careers

By David Troppens

Fourteen was the magic number for Holly High School's graduating class of 2022 when it came to its student-athletes.

That's how many athletes the Bronchos have headed to play collegiate sports.

The Bronchos have one Division 1 athlete. Three-time individual state champion Jacob Gonzales is going to continue his wrestling career at Division I Brown University. The others are Ella Althaver (Aquinas College), Rensie Campbell (Jackson College), Bryce Goings (Lawrence Tech), Bella Lockitski (Hope College), Klayton Lowe (Adrian College), Zachary Rockafellow (Oakland Community College), Mason Rosa (Oakland Community College), Katie Sanders (Aquinas College), Kyle Sherrow (Northwood University), Joe Smith (Lourdes University), Calli Sokolowski (Saginaw Valley State University), Kristen Stark (Albion College) and Logan Winstead (baseball).

Gonzales is the sole athlete headed to a D1 school. Along with being the school's only three-time individual state champion, he was a three-time Oakland County champion (2021 tournament canceled due to COVID). He won his final state title in March when he defeated Paw Paw's William Bradley by a 7-3 decision in the finals. He also was a track and field athlete.

Sokolowski will be competing at the D2 level at Saginaw Valley State University with the women's tennis team. Sokolowski concluded her senior season with a 26-2 record while playing No. 1 singles. She was the No. 1 singles champion for the Flint Metro League last spring and a No. 1 singles regional champion as well.

In two instances, high school teammates will be headed to the same school to play the same sport. Cross country athletes Rockafellow and Mason Rosa will be running at Oakland Community College. Both were Flint Metro League Second-Team members last fall, helping the Bronchos to a fifth-place team finish in the 12-squad lead. Rockafellow posted a time of 4:58.07 in the 1,600 (eighth) while Rosa recorded a time of 4:45.31 (fifth place) in the same event.

1968 Tigers go through late-July Iull, giving Indians, Orioles hope

By David Troppens

There was no reason to panic on July 15 if you were a Detroit Tiger fan in 1968, but certainly people were a little less comfortable.

The Tigers led the Cleveland Indians by just 6 1/2 games with three road games at Oakland coming up, followed by four games against the third-place Baltimore Orioles.

The Tigers won two of three against the Athletics. On July 16, Denny McLain won his 18th game of the season, tossing an eight-hit shutout in a 4-0 victory. Offensively, Al Kaline hit a home run, his fifth of the season. Mickey Stanley also added an RBI-double.

A day later, Reggie Jackson played a key role in the Athletics' 3-2 victory, but it didn't come at the plate. With Detroit trailing 3-2 in the seventh, Stanley hit a two-out single to right and the Tigers tried to score Dick McAuliffe from second after he doubled. Jackson made the Tigers pay by gunning McAuliffe out at the plate. The Tigers lost 3-2.

During the final game of the series, Earl Wilson tossed a six-hitter and the Tigers won a 3-1 verdict. Two runs were scored on sacrifice flies by Bill Freehan and Jim Northrup. Detroit was coming home, seven games ahead of the secondplace Indians with a four-game series at home against Baltimore coming up.

The opening contest was a thriller, as Detroit won their ninth game of the season in walk-off fashion. The Tigers trailed 4-2 entering the bottom of the ninth, but scored three runs to earn the 5-4 victory. The threat started with a single by Northrup and then a walk to Kaline. A force out off of Norm Cash's bat put runners on first and third with one out. Bill Freehan followed with an RBI-ground out, cutting the gap to 4-3, but now there were two out. It didn't matter because Tommy Matchick responded with a two-run home run to deep right field, earning the Tigers the 5-4 win. It was sweet revenge for the Detroit rookie against new Baltimore Orioles' manager Earl Weaver.

"He was my manager at Elmirea in 1964. ... After 2 1/2 months with the club, he optioned me out," Matchick said.

However, the rest of the four-game series was a time of frustration for the Tigers, losing all three contests.

Baltimore starting pitcher Dave Mc-Nally and Frank Robinson hit two-run home runs off of McLain in a 5-3 Tigers' loss on Saturday. The Tigers eclipsed one million fans at Tiger Stadium for the season during the loss.

On Sunday, the Tigers were swept in a doubleheader, losing the first game 5-2 and the last game 4-1. Davey Johnson and Curt Blefary hit home runs for Baltimore in the opening contest and Boog Powell had a four-bagger in the second game. At the end of July 21, the Tigers' (59-36) lead was just 5 1/2 games against the Indians and Orioles.

"I'd like someone to tell me that before the season started they knew we'd be 5

1/2 games front at this stage," Tigers manager Mayo Smith said after the loss, hinting that being up 5 1/2 games was pretty good. "These things have a way of evening out. We'll just have to battle back."

Detroit traveled to Washington for three straight games and won two of three. Detroit scored three runs in the top of the first inning on an RBI-single by Kaline and a two-run single by Freehan, and the Tigers cruised to a 6-4 victory. They lost the middle of contest of the series with Ken McMullen leading the way with a two-run home run for the hosts. Detroit lost 6-4.

our first teams on the bottom of the poll. Honorable Mention: The Fenton/ Linden girls lacrosse team won another league crown, sharing this one with Swartz Creek. For the Heat to move up, the squad had to do better in the postseason. Fenton baseball had some huge wins, sweeping Goodrich and defeating Grand Blanc in districts, but needed to earn a league crown or a district crown to sneak into the top 16. Fenton girls cross country shared the Metro League Stars Division crown but were unable to advance to the state tourney as a team, placing fifth. That kept them from the top 16. The Fenton/

Linden hockey squad shared a league title and advanced to the regional final of their tournament, but lost to Hartland in the title game.

No. 16 - Fenton girls tennis: The Tigers make their way back on the top 16 poll for the first time since finishing sixth on our 2013-14 list. They earned it by having a 9-0 Metro League dual meet season, which included winning 64 of the 72 flight matches in those duals. They also cruised to a first-place finish at the Metro League Tournament, earning the league crown outright for the first time since the spring of 2014.

What kept the Tigers from sneaking a tad higher was placing fourth at the regional meet. Qualifying for the state meet probably would've gotten them higher. They are one of seven spring teams in the poll.

No. 15 - Fenton boys track and field: Our No. 1 team from a year ago after capturing a state championship, found a way to remain in our poll this season even after the graduation of some fine athletes that made the state championship season possible.

For the fifth straight season, the Tigers captured at least a share of a Metro League or Stripes Division crown, sharing this season's division title with the Swartz Creek Dragons. Fenton went 5-0 during the dual season, but finished second to Swartz Creek among the Stripes Division teams, resulting in the co-title. Fenton scored 48 points at the regional meet, earning fourth. However, the squad didn't have enough point scorers advancing to the state meet, which meant it was going to be tough to advance much higher than 15th in this poll.

No. 14: Fenton girls track and field: The girls have been a league power for six straight seasons, earning at least a share of the Metro League or Stripes Division crown. This season, the Tigers shared it with Linden after going 5-0 in dual actual and finishing second at the league meet. That created the deadlock between the two rivals.

In regional action, the Tigers had a strong team showing, collecting 78.5 points, earning Fenton third place overall. That point total had them just one point out of second place. However, just like the Fenton boys track squad,

The Lake Fenton varsity football team won the Flint Metro League Championship Game in 2021 and are now our No. 13 squad in our Tri-County Top 16 Teams poll. Photo: Mark Bolen while the team had state qualifiers, the placings weren't high enough to give the Tigers a high team placing at the state meet. The way the state track meet is set up can make it tough to grade track squads. Still, No. 14 is still pretty solid. The last time the girls finished in the top 16 was during the 2018-19 school year when they placed 12th.

No. 13: Lake Fenton football: It's hard to see the Blue Devils rank this low in the poll based on the impactful season they had a year ago.

It's also hard to believe that since the first year we did these polls (the 2008-09 school year) this is the first time the Lake Fenton football team finished within the top 16.

Is it fair to say the Blue Devils shocked the area last season? The players and coaches weren't shocked but

Lake Fenton went from a squad that had three straight losing seasons to one that earned a share of the Metro League's Stars Division title, and also earned the right to represent the division in the Metro League Championship Game due to its head-to-head win against Goodrich. Once in that title game, the Blue Devils became the first Stars Division team to win the championship, defeating area rival Fenton 42-6.

In the postseason, the Blue Devils (9-2) avenged their only regular season loss, crushing Brandon 41-0. However, they fell short of a district title, losing to Freeland 37-6. Earning that district title probably would've moved the Blue Devils into a top-10 spot. They are the first of five fall sports teams to make our top 16 list.

Soccer has two athletes going to the next level. Campbell will play women's soccer at Jackson College while Sherrow will play men's soccer at Division 2 Northwood University. Sherrow earned First-Team All-Metro League honors during his senior season, providing offensive punch for the Bronchos. Meanwhile, Campbell provided some offensive punch for the Lady Bronchos last spring. Goings will continue his basketball career on Lawerence Tech's hardcourt. He helped provide offense from the perimeter to the Bronchos' attack last winter.

Smith is headed to Lourdes University to play baseball while Holly teammate Logan Winstead will play baseball at Heidelberg University.

Lowe will continue his football career at Adrian College. Lowe was a lineman for the Bronchos's squad.

Lockitski will play softball at Hope College. She will likely play catcher with the Flying Dutch.

Stark will play women's lacrosse for Albion College. Stark earned First-Team Flint Metro League honors for the Holly/Brandon co-op program during the spring.

had the success in the past, and I think they are hungry for that. I think they are hungry for a winning season. We want to get more out of them. Our numbers aren't where we want them to be at, but that will come in time. The biggest thing is they are very hungry for success."

Keenist played his prep football at Oxford with legendary coach Bud Rowley. He graduated in 2006. He continued his playing career as a quarterback at Adrian College from 2006 at 2009. Keenist began his coaching roots in the schools that he played — Oxford High School and then as a quarterback coach at Adrian College.

In recent times, he's been a head varsity football coach for a few other programs. Keenist took over a struggling Troy Athens' program that went a combined 1-17 prior to him taking over. He slowly improved the program going 1-8 in 2018, 3-6 in 2019, 2-4 in 2020 and 5-4 last fall. He also coached at Berkley as a varsity football coach prior to his time at Troy Athens.

Keenist enters the Holly position in a similar situation as he did the Troy Athens job. The Bronchos haven't experienced a winning season since going 5-4 in 2017. In the last four seasons, the Bronchos have posted a 9-25 record, including a 2-7 mark last season.

"We are trying to build toughness and confidence," Keenist said.

"I think we have a pretty confident bunch. They believe in themselves. It doesn't matter if you are taking a math test or playing a football game — if you have confidence and believe in yourself, you are going to do well. That's important."

FUNERAL ETIQUETTE WHAT CAN I DO TO HELP LATER?

In the days and months to come, the family will continue to need your support. Try to write or call on a regular basis. Continue to include them in your social plans, they will let you know when they are ready to participate. It is also nice to remember the family on special occasions during the first year following the death. Don't worry about bringing up the pain and emotion of the loss, they are well aware of that. By remembering such occasions as wedding anniversaries and birthdays, you are not remembering the death, but reaffirming that a life was lived.
